"TWO BITS WORTH"

Although there has been a lot of talk about the youth center being started in Tahoka would like to make a few comments. The citizens of Tahoka and Lynn County really come through when there is a job to be done and such is the case on the youth center. This just goes to prove that when a community decides to work together on a project its real easy to accomplish great strides. We think it would be just as easy to take great strides in our town and county with just a little effort.

A group of youngsters came to a City Council meeting, then attended a Chamber of Commerce meeting and within a few short months look at the progress, a completed youth center in operation, and a very nice one at that.

The point we're trying to make is if you would like to see something done in Tahoka or Lynn County meet with your Chamber of Commerce, your City Council or your County officials and explain your plans. These are all progressive minded people or they wouldn't be in the position they are in and will be eager to help in any way possible.

TBW

Here is an editorial that we cut from the Tulia Herald and thought it might fit our town. Anyway its well worth reading.

Small county seat towns are suffering another blow to their dignity. Towns in the Lubbock area are having all their mail shipped to Lubbock to be postmarked and dispatched to the four corners of the earth.

Take Littlefield, for example. No longer will its name appear on the cancelled stamp. In its place will be the name of Lubbock. We have been informed that towns in the Amarillo area are expected to do the same thing. All Tulia mail will bear an Amarillo postmark.

All this is said to be in the interest of economy. Already the Tulia post office has had its payroll reduced with abolition of Saturday window service and an earlier dispatch of mail at night.

It's another case of the little guy being called upon to shoulder more than his share of the cost of "government economy" and "fighting inflation".

As towns like Tulia and Littlefield cut their local post office payrolls, and lose their identity so far as mail postmarks are concerned, we wonder how much Lubbock and Amarillo are cutting their post office payrolls.

Littlefield has already lost 7.7 per cent of its population since 1960. Sudan has lost 24.1 per cent. And Lamb County is down 20.4 per cent. All this is the result of the farm depression, the refusal of society to be just and fair with agriculture, giving the farmer his share of the economic dollar. Yet, society would squeeze a little more out of the small-town economy and give it to the city.

Several years ago the telephone company took away the jobs of Tulia's 12 to 15 telephone operators and tied us into Plainview. Tulians were robbed even of their identity when they made a long distance call.

If a long distance call could not be completed, the operator in the distant city was asked to call Operator So - and - so in Plainview!

And this is the trend! The cities solicit funds in Tulia when they want to build a new hospital. Their argument is that the trend is toward concentration of medical care in the cities with the towns relegated to the status of first aid stations. They take away our identity, any advertising we might get by sending Tulia's postmark to the four corners of the earth. They remove our name from the vocabulary of our own telephone operators.

But we aren't ignored altogether. We still have a function to perform.....we continue to be those poor devils living within the trade territory of Amarillo and Lubbock who are supposed to provide something approaching half of their retail trade! We are supposed to listen to Lubbock and Amarillo television and read the Lubbock and Amarillo newspapers...then go to Amarillo and Lubbock and spend those dollars we have sucked out of Swisher County's economy.

That apparently, is the role of the small town in our present big economy.

And we wonder why the small area towns are dying.

Miller Attends Fire School

College Station: Billy Miller, volunteer fireman on the Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department of Tahoka, Texas is attending the 41st Annual Texas Firemen's Training School. The school, attended by more than 1,800 men representing some 425 cities from approximately 25 states, is being held on the Texas A&M University campus this week.

Fireman Miller is being sponsored by the Lynn County Farm Bureau and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies by contributing toward his cost in the school. Since volunteer firemen are interested in attending this school to help do a better job of fire fighting and fire prevention, the County Farm Bureaus and the Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in the statewide program have sponsored 100 firemen to the school.

The Insurance Company believes volunteer fire departments have been very effective in reducing the amount of loss involved by fire in rural areas. It is their hope in sponsoring this program that the fireman will help the Tahoka Volunteer Department to better serve the residents of Lynn County.

ASC Committeemen To Be Nominated

Lynn County farmers will soon have the opportunity to nominate by petition candidates for ASC community committee posts. The nominating period will begin July 28 and close August 17. "This year we hope farmers in Lynn County will nominate by petition full slates for all four communities. A full slate means a minimum of five candidates to choose from in electing a community committee of three members and two alternates." Bertice Askew, Chairman of the Lynn County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said.

All ASC community committees are elected annually. The newly elected community committeemen will convene shortly after their September election to elect one new ASC County Committee member and two alternates are elected annually. Askew explained that the County ASC Committee administers agricultural programs such as marketing quotas and acreage allotments, price-support loans and purchases, conservation cost-sharing, and other farm action programs at the county level, dealing directly with producers. Community committees not only elect County Committee members and alternates but also help the County Committee administer these programs.

"There's no red tape tied up in nominating a community committee candidate by petition," Askew said. "All that's really needed is a sheet of paper naming a candidate--and six or more signatures by eligible voters on that paper. Petitions are limited to one nominee each, but voters may sign as many petitions as they want. A farmer who is an owner, tenant, or sharecropper is an eligible voter in the community where his farm interest is. He can only nominate and vote in one community, however, even if he has farm interest in more than one."

Board Approves Budget And Sets School Tax Rate

The Tahoka ISD Board of Education held a public hearing on the 1970-71 school budget Friday evening, July 24, at the Board Room in Tahoka High School, and authorized a tax rate of $1.54 per $100 valuation to provide the local contribution to the budget. The anticipated revenue from local taxes, calculated on 95 percent collections, will provide a $44,463 in additional income from local taxes represents an increase of 17 percent over that provided under the old rate of $1.92 and the old district values of $13,800,000.

In other business the Board approved employment of personnel as follows: Mrs. Belva Whittington, Mrs. Peggy Atwell, Mrs. Judy Murray, and Mrs. Carol Sanders -- all for elementary positions -- Jerry Windham, assistant football coach and high school teacher, Thomas Sanders, and Miss Sharon Anderson, high school assignments, and Mrs. Jean Becker, special education. TURN ABOUT Folks used to wonder what Grandpa Brown and I had in common. He must have been close to eighty when I was just a kid. But I remember him as one of the best friends I ever had.

He was a wonderful old man, with a simple, native wisdom. We used to go fishing together, and he would talk to me about God and Faith and Love. I remember he said people shouldn't wait until they're in trouble before going to Church. "When you're happy," he told me, "take time out to offer a prayer of thanks."

The Church had acted as a balance for him during good times, and a bulwark during bad times.

Down through the centuries the Church has made great Christians out of unassuming people. They in turn have transmitted the blessings of the Church to oncoming generations. I hope I can bring Grandpa Brown's faith and wisdom to others, as I was impressed by him.

A West Texan In Sweden

After touring London and Paris the 82 Lion exchange students and three sponsors returned to London and boarded a plane for Sweden.

The flight ended at Arlanda airport, an hour's drive from Stockholm.

Ja Jean watched as each member of the group met their host families and one by one disappeared from the airport. Finally, she was the only one left and by this time had become somewhat apprehensive and admittedly, a little scared.

A Swedish interpreter suggested they try another airport in case the host family had gotten their signals mixed.

Sure enough, Ja Jean met the Wahlquist family who were her hosts for the next four weeks.

The Wahlquists were from Sossdala, a seven hour drive to the South from Stockholm. They were a family of four and Ja Jean was delighted to find the two daughters near her own age.

Nils, the father, is manager of a peat moss factory and from his job description would compare to what we call a horticulturist.

The mother, Siv, was typical Swedish, a housewife and without the command of English shared by her husband and daughters.

The girls, Guinella, 19, and Anne, 16, were typical teenage counterparts and Ja Jean would find much to compare in the next 30 days.

The first item on the agenda was to tour Stockholm both by car and boat. Stockholm is a large city and there was much to see by either mode of travel. Ten islands border the city on the east and they were all toured by car.

The trip south to Sossdala didn't seem seven hours long as Ja Jean was busy talking and seeing the countryside. The Wahlquists own two cars, one an American made Ford Galaxie, the other a Swedish Volvo.

The Swedes walk a lot as gas costs 1-3 more than in this country.

Ja Jean found the Wahlquist home large and comfortable by American standards. The house contained 14 rooms by their count and 27 by Ja Jean's. At one time the house was home for three families, then was used by a dentist until the time the peat moss company purchased it as quarters for their manager.

The next two weeks were spent sightseeing and touring the countryside in the south. To Ja Jean, it was a reminder of East Texas.

She found that middle Sweden was marked by red barns and houses while the trademark for the coast area was white houses and barns with orange or red roofs.

Swedish meals are many and varied. Meat courses include roast, fish and meatballs each topped with a special sauce. Steak is a rarity. Small boiled potatoes are served with each and every meal.

Breakfast usually consists of bread, butter and cheese or marmalade depending upon your taste and honey is an extensive garnish. Coffee or tea is always a mainstay at breakfast.

A lot of deviled eggs are consumed and Ja Jean found a spinach dish to be nothing more than a thin soup.

The typical Swedish day is little different from anyone else's. Nils, would leave for work around 8 and the girls would sleep until 9 or 10. After breakfast, they would spend their time sunbathing, playing golf or just sightseeing. Siv would tend to her housewife chores, sewing, cleaning, etc. Siv's hobby was making lampshades and she spent time on this usually in the late evening hours.

Supper was the main meal and was served around 8. Coffee or tea with buns were served around 10 and this was the time of the day the family watched TV, read or listened to the radio. Anne played the guitar and sang beautifully and on several occasions, Ja Jean would play the piano while Anne accompanied her.

The girls had a small private den between bedrooms and would spend considerable time there playing records. Ja Jean found the top song in Sweden these days to be "Those Cottonfields Back Home", a song that had it's run here several years ago.

The Wahlquist family is modern in anyones terms. The style of dress is similar to ours and girls find they can do with out long skirts at the beauty parlor. Hair is worn in a natural state without benefit of fancy hairdos.

One interesting aspect of the home life centered around the laundry. The Wahlquists owned a washing machine situated in one of their basements. Another basement was nothing more than a large room with a fan, used, in the winter, to dry their clothes. It was called, appropriately enough, their drying room.

To be continued next week in conclusion.

ner, Berta and Myrtle Hill, Lois Jeffreys, Viola Ellis, Margaret Preston, Lucille Kemp, Nina Walters, Alma Henson Jeanette Caveness, Opal Cooper, and Mattie Will Seroyer. There were 16 visitors present. Among them were three out of town guests, Miss Inez Allen of Waco, Miss Gertrude Shepherd of Clarendon and Mrs. Ethel Rutland of Lamesa.

Everyone reported a wonderful time, even though no sleeping was done until about 5 o'clock the next morning.

Playing their first game of night baseball the Tahoka team gave Lubbock a taste of defeat last Thursday night winning 4 to 2. "Blue Eyes" Graham pitched for Tahoka and Willis Knight, who has failed to stop the Tahokaites each of the seven of eight times he has stepped into the box during the past two years was pitcher for Lubbock. The Hub City seemed to be greatly irred because of the fact that Tahoka used two or three out of town players to replace as many of our men who were sick or injured but forgot the fact that they had and were doing the same thing. Lubbock fans seem to be poor sports when they lose, especially when a small town team defeats them on their home diamond. But Tahoka has beaten Lubbock so many times that this was nothing new to the locals.

Another important casting tip is to halt the flight of the lure just before it hits the water. There are three good reasons for learning this technique: it improves accuracy; you'll have less backlash problems because the reel won't tend to overrun; and the lure will actually be headed back toward you when it hits the water, which simulates natural swimming action.

When fishing among lily pads, try to cast the lure so that it lands atop a pad. Then slide it gently into the water and begin a normal retrieve. This imitates the action of frogs, some insects and even small mammals. Weedless spoons and pork rinds work good in lily pads. Make them more effective by swinging the rod tip from side to side as you retrieve, imparting more action to the lure.

Other feature. Then make your cast as accurate as possible. Distance isn't as important as accuracy, and time spent practicing on the lawn at home will make a difference in the number of correct casts and probably in the number of fish taken.

All rural and city trustees and patrons of schools, as well, are urged to attend a meeting to be held here Monday at which L.A. Hollar, Austin, rural school supervisor will be the principal speaker. New Laws pertaining to schools and problems of rural schools will be explained and discussed.

The meeting will begin in the district court room at 10 a.m. Monday, County Superintendent H.P. Caveness states.

In a game played with the Junior ball team of Lamesa in that city on the afternoon of July 4, the Tahoka Junior ball team were again the winners. The score stood 7 to 2 in their favor. In a game with O'Donnell here Wednesday of last week, Tahoka won by a score of 6 to 1.

These boys are making a splendid record, having won a large percent of the games played thus far.

A residence belonging to R.B. Dugger of Henrietta, formerly the Jones residence, over in the eastern outskirts of the town, was almost completely destroyed by fire Friday night.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It seemed to be almost completely enveloped in flames when the fire was discovered. The fire department responded to the call promptly and drowned out the flames before the walls of the building were totally consumed. A second call was made to the building Saturday morning, however, the fire of the night before not having been completely extinguished.

This residence had been occupied by a family named Sullivan, who had just moved out Thursday, and the house was vacant at the time of the fire. Insurance was carried on the building in the sum of $1,500. No adjustment of the insurance had been made Wednesday.

Tahoka took two games from Lamesa Sunday and Monday, both games being played at Lamesa. In Sunday's game the score stood 7 to 6 in favor of Tahoka, while Monday's game resulted in a score of 14-13 in favor of our boys.

Several home runs were knocked by members of the Tahoka team Monday, those penetrating this offense being M.O. Bridges, Harley Wells, Ivan Cathcart, and A. P. Edwards.

A game has been matched with Seagraves for next Sunday on the local diamond.

Among those attending the Fourth of July celebration at Midland Saturday were Dr. and Mrs. C.B. Townes and daughter, Lottie Jo. Dr. Townes reports an immense crowd, about 7,500 persons being fed at the tables. A glorious great time was had apparently by all. No disturbances or rowdiness of any kind during the day.

Belton Howell and family, Chester Connolly and family, and M.B. Sherrod attended the big Fourth of July celebration and visited relatives and friends at Midland Saturday, returning to Tahoka Sunday. Belton says they attended Sunday School and church Sunday morning and that there were 120 present in the Men's Sunday School Class.

Miss Auda Mae Aycox spent the weekend with Miss Clarice Taylor of Paducah, who is taking a summer course in Tech.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

As fast as the state's major finance agencies moved out of the capitol into the new Finance Building, contractors bids were opened for remodeling of the old quarters to the tune of more than $1 million.

Work soon will be underway on all floors of the capitol, including the basement.

Senators will get private offices of at least 550 square feet each. Bulk of the new Senate space will come from quarters long occupied by the State comptroller.

House members will have smaller offices -- but at least a private office -- in the old first-floor State Treasury quarters and the basement.

Senators plan new committee rooms, including one specially wired for sound and tv lights.

Capitol station post office will make an early move into the new Finance Building, clearing the east entrance of the statehouse for restoral to its original splendor.

ENROLLMENT LIMIT ASKED Soaring public college enrollments prompted a request from the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System that each school give "immediate consideration" to the problem.

If voluntary curtailment does not result, Board officials indicated they will ask the Legislature for power to order mandatory ceilings. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held in a recent opinion that the agency does not now have such authority. University of Texas system regents, meanwhile approved a UT enrollment-control plan and a lottery system for use when units reach capacity.

Coordinating Board at its last meeting also placed the student loan program under federal loan insurance to guarantee repayments, advised expulsion of students who are involved in campus disruptions, and directed studies of free credit exchange among all public institutions and possible elimination of unnecessary college courses.

INTEGRATION PRESSED Federal negotiators conferring with representatives of Texas school districts found 48 not in compliance with desegregation provisions of the 1964 civil rights act.

Sessions are seen as a last-ditch effort to get voluntary integration without a massive lawsuit by the U.S. Justice Department demanding immediate compliance.

Negotiators included three teams representing the civil rights division of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, plus Justice Department asking TEA's help in ending school segregation.

School districts were limited to a maximum of three on their negotiating teams -- preferably the board president, superintendent and school attorney or board vice-president or another board member.

Federal teams limited each district to one-hour hearings. Any agreement, if not worked out in that time, will be communicated to HEW as soon as possible after local board discussions.

Each district was requested to bring copies of its own desegregation plans to the Austin meetings.

Independent or consolidated school districts named by the Justice Department as not in compliance were:

Amarillo, Atlanta, Austin, Bellville, Calvert, Carthage, Churchill (annexed to Jacksonville), Concord Rural High, Crockett, Cypress-Fairbanks, Ector County, Elysian Fields, Ferris, Friendship (annexed to Caldwell), Galena Park, Garland, Hearne, Hempstead, Henderson, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Karnack, Katy, Kilgore, Klein, La Vega, Lubbock, Lufkin, Madisonville, Marshall, Midland, Mount Haven (annexed to Jacksonville), Nacogdoches, Palestine, Port Arthur, Refugio Richardson, Sabine Pass, San Angelo, San Augustine, Shelbyville, Slisbee, South Park, Sulphur Springs, Temple, Waskom and Wichita Falls.

COURTS SPEAK Third Court of Civil Appeals voided incorporation of West Lake Hills (an Austin suburb), holding that a city cannot incorporate solely to escape annexation and taxes of a neighboring city.

Supreme Court held that the State Board of Medical Examiners could not revoke the license of a Galveston pathologist for failing to keep records of medication administered to himself and his family.

Reversing an Abilene domestic relations court ruling, the High Court directed that custody of four children be taken from the mother and given to the father.

Court of Criminal Appeals said the co-defendant in a case cannot be called as a witness against another unless he previously agreed to testify.

WAR ON TAXES--Texas Manufacturers Association has declared war on additional state taxes and set up a special department to keep an eye on state spending.

Alarmed by reports that the 1971 tax bill may go as high as $700 million, TMA President Ed C. Burris said its organization is going to do everything in its power to prevent any kind of increase.

TMA, said Burris, also will be on guard against long range spending programs with increases automatically built into state law.

Carl H. Braubach, a budget analyst under former Gov. John Connally, and one time Legislative Budget Board staffer John A. Haddad will head a research project on keeping government spending within revenues. Offices will be located in Austin near the capitol.

APPOINTMENTS -- Frank Vandiver, acting president of Rice University and a noted historian, will be executive director of Texas' American Revolution Bicentennial Commission.

H.C. Pittman of Austin is the new president of national Automotive Trade Association Managers. Sam White of Houston already heads National Automobile Dealers Association.

Ed Latta, Jerry Heare and Jim Heath will be directors of information, community development and prospect development for Texas Industrial Commission.

TEXAS SHEEP SENT TO MEXICO Texas sheep are going south of the border -- to help Mexico upgrade its livestock breeding.

Aided by the State Department of Agriculture, Dr. M.V. Alberto Encinas director general of the Livestock Division of Mexico's Department of Agriculture, recently began selecting more than 1,000 head in the West Texas area for the experiment.

SHORT SHORTS Howard B. Boswell will retire as executive director of the Texas Water Development Board on October 1.

Collingsworth, Donley, Hall, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Wheeler Counties in the Panhandle received approval for grazing and harvesting of hay on land retired from production under the cropland adjustment program.

Texas Public Employees Association is backing a 17 percent pay raise for state employees at an estimated cost of $54.6 million for two years.

Unemployment claims increased 15,417 (to 185,478) last month, due largely to layoffs in aircraft and other manufacturing as a result of Vietnam de-escalation and general economic slowdown, reports Texas Employment Commission.

Office of Emergency Preparedness approved more than $1.6 million in added aid allocations to Cameron and Willacy Counties due to Hurricane Beulah damages.

A major national highway safety experiment in the San Antonio area uses Army helicopters to pick up highway accident victims.

Texas Water Quality Board found unacceptably high mercury levels in the oysters from Lavaca Bay, near Point Comfort additional areas of the bay will be placed off limits.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Area Cotton In Critical Danger From Boll Weevils

Overwintered boll weevils were found this year in Andrews County, passing what entomologists term a "very critical danger" to the entire High Plains and Eastern New Mexico cotton country.

The Technical Advisory Committee of the High Plains Diapause Control Program, composed of the nation's leading authorities on boll weevil control, has issued a statement saying "Unless steps are taken now to prevent weevils from becoming established in the Andrews area there may be no practical way to prevent them from spreading north, east and west over almost 3 million acres of cotton."

Four weevils were caught about June 5 on Pheromone (sex lure) traps near the city of Andrews, confirming the entomologists' fear that weevils survived the 1969-70 winter in that area. And the weevil control specialists point out that favorable overwintering quarters for weevils extend into Gaines, Cochran, Bailey and Farmer County, and into Eastern New Mexico.

Emergency spraying and intensified trapping operations to prevent weevils from getting a firm foothold in Andrews are already underway according to Ed Dean, Field Service Director for Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. PCG is the originator and coordinator of the Diapause Control Program which has successfully prevented a weevil invasion of the High Plains from the east since 1964.

Dean said the number of traps in the Andrews area is being increased from 200 to over 300 to give a better indication of the number of weevils emerging.

More than 40 percent of pedestrian deaths in 1969 occurred while the pedestrian crossed between intersections. The Travelers Insurance Companies' annual survey shows more than 4,040 died and 67,800 were injured between intersections.

Food prices rose less than three-fourths as much as all other consumer goods in the past ten years according to the latest reports from the USDA.

The United States has nearly 2.3 billion acres of land. Of this, about 630 million acres are suitable for regular cultivation.

When the American housewife spent $1 on food at the grocery store in 1969 she bought 41c worth of products and 59c worth of marketing services.

fore they can attain diapause, the physiological conditions in which they spend the winter.

While weevil numbers in the from overwintering sites and to catch as many as possible before they begin reproduction.

"Weevils do not start laying eggs until cotton squares reach the one-third grown stage," he explained, "and in addition to the traps we are planning two applications of malathion on all cotton in the area before cotton reaches that age."

Fortunately there are only about 680 allotted cotton acres in the area involved. About 135 acres of this total was planted in late April and early May and has already been sprayed once.

Dean went on to say that all fields will be closely watched for weevil activity throughout the summer and fall and that additional spraying will be done in the fall if necessary. The objective is to eliminate all weevils from the area before they can attain diapause.

Bill Griffin, County Agent, Says.....

Pastures and ranges are now dry, in fact so dry, that fire is a real threat to the cured forage.

Numerous fires are being reported, and motorists especially are being asked to be careful when discarding cigarettes, cigars or matches. The grass one sees when traveling the highways and byways is the stockman's winter feed crop and his economic well-being depends upon keeping it intact for later use, says the county agent.

But grass is more than "Cow-feed". Besides producing tasty steaks and lamb chops, grass produces food and cover for quail and other wildlife. Not only is grass important to the stockman, but each of us have a stake in protecting it. Take a look at what it has to offer you. When hunting season rolls around, you want a large covey of quail to hunt. Without cover and food, they cannot exist. Keep these facts in mind when you start to throw the next cigarette or match out of the car window. Help the stockman and yourself.

Linda Huffaker, CHD Agent, Says.....

1. Ptomaine poisoning is a myth

Despite what you've heard no one ever became sick or died from ptomaine poisoning. The word "ptomaine" is a misnomer, applied to all kinds of food poisoning. Actually, ptomaine is a harmless chemical in decayed food.

Food poisoning, though, is a constant threat, especially in summer weather. It happens when a person eats food that is spoiled by bacteria. Foods that provide the best breeding place are ground meats and dishes prepared with a salad dressing or cream sauce.

There's a simple way to prevent food poisoning; keep food either very hot or very cold; bacteria multiply rapidly only at lukewarm temperatures. Also, when preparing food, keep it as clean as possible so bacteria doesn't get started in the first place.

2. Coffee won't sober up a drunk

Nothing except time will do that. Coffee has no ingredient that alleviates the effects of alcohol. The only thing coffee might do is turn a sleepy drunk into a wide awake one of no benefit if it encourages him to drive.

One who has been drinking even a little should never drive a car. Statistics show that the social imbiber who takes "just a few" is as dangerous as the sodden drunk.

3. Red is not the best color for hunters

Hunters have traditionally worn red clothing for protection. But new tests prove that red does not show up as well as either yellow or fluorescent orange. Red appears as black at dawn or dusk and can't be distinguished by color-blind hunters. Yellow can be seen a little better but still doesn't show up as the sun is going down. Best of all is fluorescent orange which stays visible longer after sunset than all other colors, and is easier to see by persons with abnormal vision.

Many state laws still demand red or yellow for hunters but if you have a choice in your state, choose fluorescent orange clothing.

4. Shiny Floors Can be safe
It's often the poorly polished floor rather than the highly polished one that causes spills. A surface with lots of shine has been rubber dry. And a dry surface is a safer one. Half-hearted polishing may leave wet spots that can cause a skid. So when you wax, do a thorough job.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By Richard L. Christie

This past fiscal year ending June 30, 1970 the Great Plains Conservation Program shared the cost of conservation practices in well over $100,000. The money paid to farmers went to share the cost on parallel terraces mainly. Other practices also shared on by the Soil Conservation Service were irrigation pipelines, establishment of permanent vegetation on waterways and diversion terraces. This money brought into Lynn County plus the money that farmers put with this to get these practices completed is a very sizeable contribution to the Lynn County Economy. Lynn County was able to secure 33 new Great Plains Conservation Program Contracts, which obligated cost share fund for future use the next two or three years in an amount of $122,872.82.

In the past several people have asked me what right does the government have to cost-share practices on privately owned land. There are several reasons I think you should all know, for you should be able to explain to your city cousin. We are living in a day when agricultural people are a minority and it is imperative that we let others know our situation for survival in a day of high cost and low net returns.

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (SJR15) General Election Nov. 3, 1970

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 1-d, Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1-d. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm and forest lands, which shall be based upon the capability of such lands to support the raising of livestock and/or to produce farm and forest crops rather than upon the value of such lands and the crop growing thereon." Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1970, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the Legislature to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm and forest lands, which shall be based upon the capability of such lands to support the raising of livestock and/or to produce farm and forest crops."

JONI LYNN McNEELY ...ENGAGED

McNeely-Thomas Set Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. McNeely wish to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joni Lynn to Jerry Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Thomas of Lubbock. The couple have chosen August 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church in Tahoka as their wedding date. All friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend.

Another major reason for cost-sharing is the fact that what one person does on his land affects us all. If his land becomes eroded and begins to wash and blow we see the effects of the sediment in the streams and rivers and the dust in a sand storm. The land surrounding an eroded area is greatly affected. If it washes, then the water goes onto someone else's land washing or dumping silt. If it blows, then the crops next to it are covered up or blown out. When the adjoining land is affected then that land is much harder to control than it was in the past. There are other reasons such that time or space doesn't permit discussion, such as the farmer can not operate today with his high cost and low sale price and others.

Let us all remember that the land is only ours to use and care for as we are passing through this world, so let us do the best job we know how in order not to hinder our posterity. Conservation is also beautiful. Work to conserve the land so when you have passed people won't say you were a detriment to us all having passed this way. Leave the land in as good or better condition than when you got it.

*Card of Thanks

Dear Friends: I simply do not know how to thank you for all the nice things you have done for "unworthy me." Your prayers have meant so much to me. Your many cards have been a life-saver, for all your visits, food, flowers and gifts, I am humbly grateful. Also I want to especially thank so many who bought food to my husband. Our Church dismissal chorus has stayed with me constantly. "God is so good to me." Pray for my recovery. Mrs. G.C. Watson.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Matters of Opinion

"This suit," the friendly salesman told Fred, "will wear like iron."

About a year later, Fred brought the suit back and asked for a refund. He complained that the fabric was beginning to show signs of deterioration. When the store turned him down, he went to court to demand damages for breach of contract.

"Their salesman promised me that the suit would wear like iron," he said. "That was a false statement."

Nevertheless, the court rejected Fred's claim. The court said the salesman's statement was merely an expression of opinion, not a binding commitment.

As a general rule, the law permits a seller of merchandise to do a good deal of boasting in matters of opinion. The reason, a public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.
