Our faith in human nature is always restored in West Texas when a neighbor or resident of our county or town is in need. Last week Ed Birdwell was injured when his tractor ran over him. This week about 30 friends and neighbors are gathering his crop. Have people really changed from the good ole days? Not in West Texas.

The Denver City Mustangs-Floydada Whirlwinds bi-district AA football clash will be held in Denver City at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20, at Mustang Stadium. Should be a good ball game for local football fans to see.

A sign in Oklahoma country, "You are driving through God's country - don't drive like hell."

This one from Texas, "I may not agree with your bumper sticker, but I would defend to the death your right to stick it." Don't remember where I got this one. "If you can read this, you're driving to damn close."

Bulldog Basketball will get underway today and the complete schedule is shown on the Basketball page including junior high. Support these Bulldog boosters and attend every game possible through out the season.

Hamilton, Texas, which is a little larger than Tahoka, is currently the "luckiest" town in Texas. How did it get that way? It started like this: De Wedemeyer, an Associated Press reporter, spent three days in Hamilton gathering figures and evaluating the community's future.

The result was a widely published AP story that made the townspeople "see red," but that has brought them the kind of good publicity that money can't buy.

Hamilton was described in the article as a town "dying" --unable to pass a bond issue to build a school, a town without jobs for its youth, a town continually going "down" in number of students--and other aspects which, put together, painted a gloomy picture of Hamilton's present and a gloomier outlook for Hamilton's future.

Since the story was published in metropolitan newspapers throughout the nation and also in publications overseas, the Chamber of Commerce, city officials and Hamilton's newspaper have been deluged by telephone calls, letters and telegrams. Many have been from persons describing Hamilton as "The kind of town I want to live in."

Alert citizens, filled with civic pride for their town, have reacted positively. They have sought "equal space" in AP wires to tell the "other side" of the Hamilton story.

Many of the persons who were quoted in the AP reporter's article have said that she was accurate in what she said, but that she didn't tell all that they said. In many instances, the people the reporter interviewed qualified their statement to her with additional information that, if included in the story, would have changed the meaning of their statement.

As a result of the article by Miss Wedemeyer (we read it in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram), Hamilton and Hamilton County are continuing to reap favorable publicity. Taking place since the article appeared have been a television show spotlighting Hamilton, a full page news story in a Sunday metropolitan newspaper, and a visit by a magazine editor to compile a story and photos for later publication.

An editorial in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram had this to say: "Every now and then a journalist from the city ventures into a smaller town and tells his or her readers how the little place isn't what it used to be. The economy is withering away. The family farms are gone and new industry hasn't filled the gap. The kids go off to college and never come back. It is a story that could fit a number of localities across the nation."

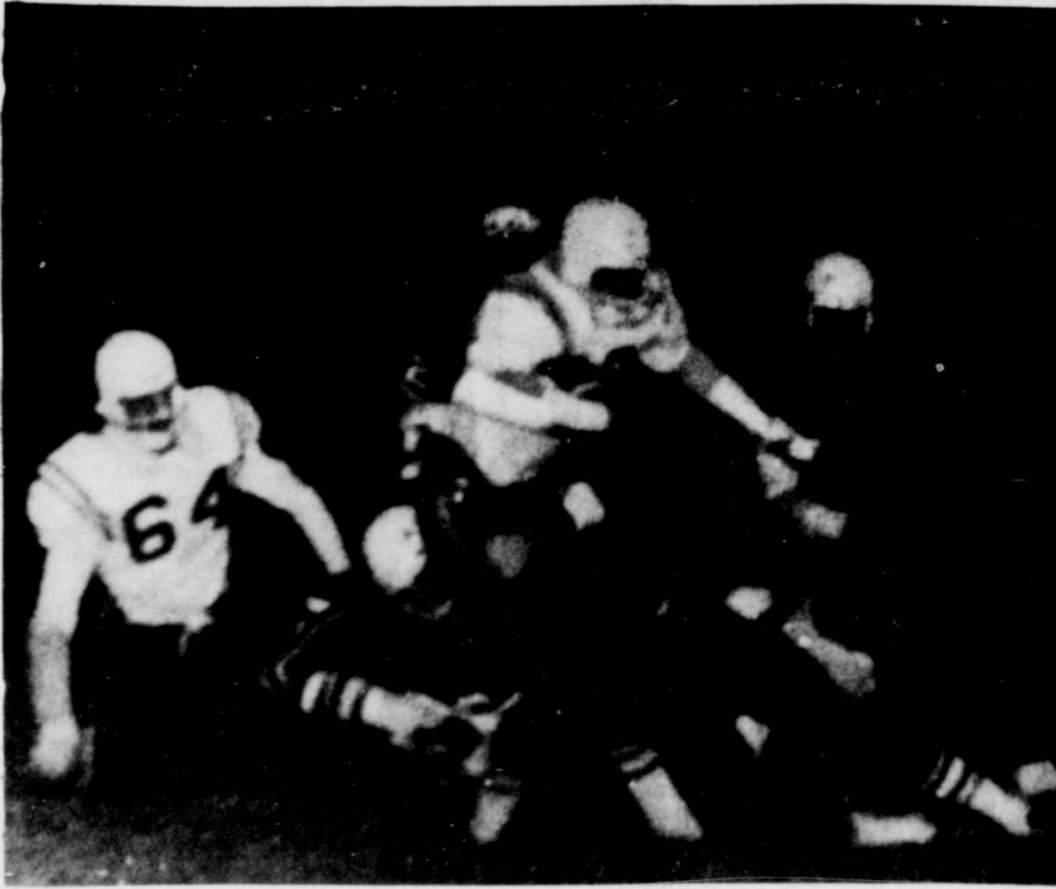

"...The people of Hamilton lost no time in voicing their rebuttal. It was a good rebuttal. And its most telling point was the mayor's disclosure that after the AP story appeared he received a number of letters from persons who read the account and decided they might like to live in Hamilton."

"This fits right in with a recent poll taken among big-city dwellers which revealed that more than half of them would prefer to live in a small town if it could be arranged."

"Many of the people questioned in the poll, we daresay, would like to live in Hamilton. It is a pleasant, tree-shaded place. Peace and decency prevail. It is the kind of town that stirs one's yearning for what might be called the homely virtues, but are in truth the bright badges of honor of those who are truly civilized."

"The smaller towns and cities of America are not done for. All of us, whether or not we consciously realize it, are homesick to some degree for what they represent."

Here at The News, we receive a copy of The Hamilton Herald-News every week. And we can tell just by a glance at its front page that Hamilton is alive and healthy. The AP reporter could have picked Tahoka of any one of thousands of other small towns in America for her story. Hamilton is lucky she picked it.

Grassland Marker To Be Dedicated Sunday, Nov. 22

Grassland's historical marker will be unveiled this Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Central Baptist Church following a short program featuring history of the community which had its beginning in 1888.

The marker has been installed on U.S. 380 adjacent to the church, which is two miles north of Grassland, where it will be more accessible to the traveling public.

State Representative E.L. Short, a native of Grassland, will be master of ceremonies, Frank Hill of Tahoka will give the early history, and J.H. "Mutt" Huddleston of Grassland will tell the story of the community since start of the C.W. Post colonization project in 1914. County Judge V.F. Jones and Mrs. Ben Moore Sr. of O'Donnell, chairman of the Lynn County Historical Committee, will unveil the marker.

Following the program refreshments will be served by Grassland Hobby Club, headed by Mrs. A.L. Norman.

All people of Lynn and Garza counties are invited to attend the program, and representatives from other county historical committees are expected.

The marker was authorized by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, and installed by Joe Williams, Garza county maintenance foreman of Texas Highway Department.

Finish Season With 6-4 Mark

The Tahoka Bulldogs had two touchdowns called back in the first period of play last Friday night and still breezed by the Rails Jackrabbits by a score of 33-0.

With neither team being able to put scores in the first period the Bulldogs tallied three in the 2nd period to put them out in front for the entire contest.

Robert Montemayor tallied 3 times in the game capping the game off with a 35 yard jaunt in the final period.

Montemayor raced 37 yards for the first Tahoka tally, then bolted in from nine yards away, then tacked on the two point conversion for a 14-0 Tahoka lead.

Larry Durham got the third TD after the Bulldogs pounced on a Jackrabbit fumble at the Rails one.

Roger Miller opened the second half by returning a punt 65 yards for a Bulldog score, and Montemayor capped it in the final stanza, scoring from 35 yards out.

The Tahoka Bulldogs turned out a winning season with a 6-4 mark for the season.

County Produces Crude Oil

Lynn County's petroleum industry produces 408,466 barrels of crude oil valued at $1,310,867 and 123,330 thousand cubic feet of natural gas valued at $16,896 for an annual economic value of $1,327,763. These figures, just released by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, show the county ranked 15th among state counties in oil and gas production during 1969.

Texas production which has registered an increase over each previous year during the past decade hit another all-time high in 1969 with 1,151,775,000 barrels, according to U.S. Bureau of Mines statistics. This is a production increase of 24.2 percent since 1960.

"Production from Lynn County helped meet this record demand," says Kenneth E. Montague, Association President. "We are now calling on it and the rest of Texas to meet an even greater demand as events in the Middle East have again forced us to dip into our declining reserves. Unfortunately the price for Texas oil is inadequate to stimulate enough exploratory drilling to replace reserves."

Lynn County landowners and others with mineral interests received $165,970 in royalty payments last year. Texas received $60,300 from crude oil production taxes and $1,200 from natural gas production taxes.

Estimated drilling expenditures totaled $769,322 with $455,002 of that amount spent on dry holes yielding nothing for the driller. Ira Rinehart's Yearbook showed drillers completed 5 oil wells and 6 dry holes. Four wildcats were drilled and all were dry.

6 Accidents In County In October

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated six accidents on rural highways in Lynn County during the month of October, according to Sergeant H.E. Pirlette, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $21,136.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1970 shows a total of 69 accidents resulting in five persons killed, 40 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $54,371.00.

Traffic wise, November and December are noted as dangerous months for pedestrians. During November and December of 1969 in Texas, there were 86 pedestrians killed and 885 injured in collisions with motor vehicles. Some of the contributing factors are: early hours of darkness, bad weather drinking intoxicating beverages holidays, and lack of drivers' and pedestrians' attention.

The veteran patrol supervisor listed some tips to aid both pedestrians and drivers. Always wear something light colored when walking after dark. If possible, carry some kind of light and walk on the left side of the road facing traffic. If you have a dark colored raincoat, put a strip or two of reflectorized material across the back and front when walking on the street or highway.

Schools Announces New Free And Reduced Price Lunch Policy

The Tahoka Independent School District has long recognized the need for helping meet the nutritional needs of its students. The school lunchroom serves a well-balanced nutritious lunch each school day. The charge to students who can pay is 35c in grades Kindergarten - 3rd and 40c in grades 4 - 12th. However, since some families find it difficult to pay this full price, the school will provide these lunches free of charge or at a reduced price to those children determined by the cafeteria Supervisor and the Director of Federal Programs to be unable to pay the full price for their lunches.

Families who feel that their children may be eligible for free or reduced price lunches may apply. Application may be made by an adult family member from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on school days, starting November 23rd in the offices of Mr. A.L. Smith, Cafeteria Supervisor, or Mr. Melvin Burks, Federal Programs Director. A new application must be filed by those whose children have been receiving free or reduced price lunches. All applications will be reviewed promptly, and within 10 days the family will be notified in writing as to the decision made. All information provided on the application will be held in the strictest confidence.

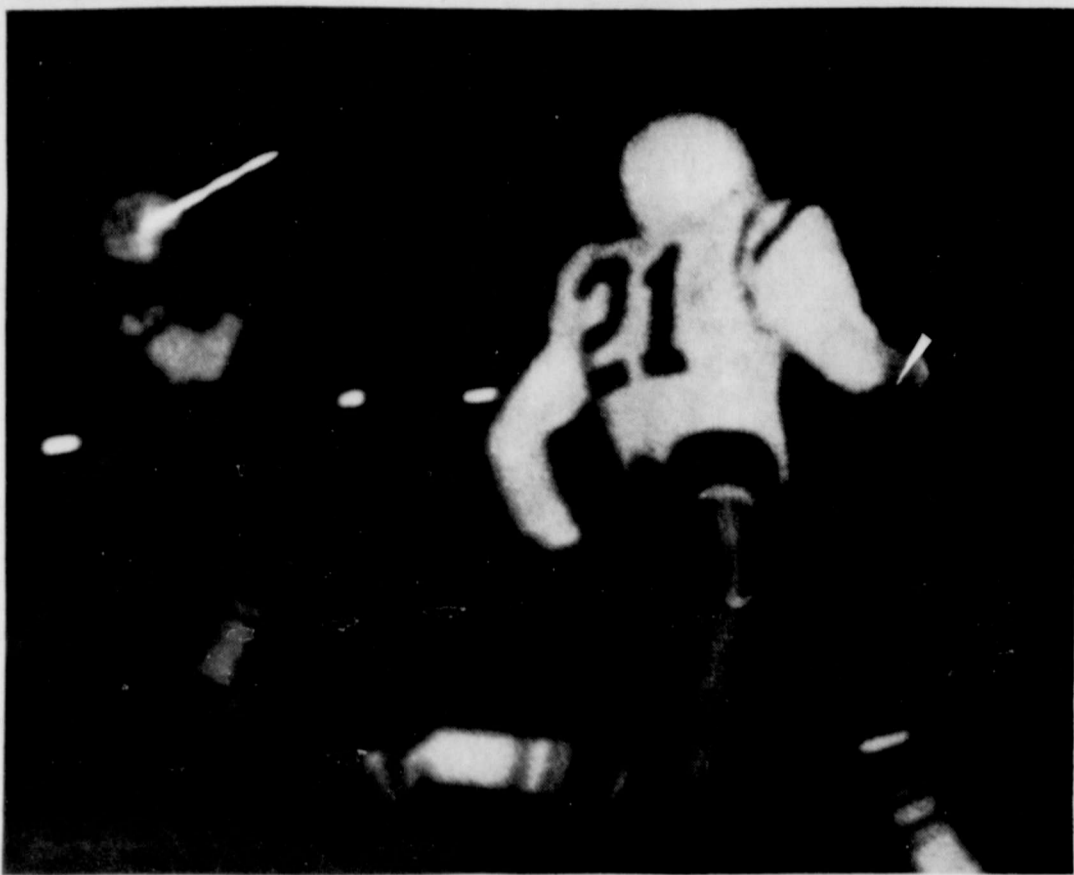

Any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches, such as prolonged illness in the family, unexpected expenses due to fire, flood, or any other disaster of this nature, seasonal unemployment and similar emergency situations will also be considered.

If a family is not satisfied with the decision made on their application it may request a hearing to appeal the decision. This request may be made orally or in writing to Mr. Harold Reynolds, Superintendent of Schools, at his office in Tahoka High School, and he will review the application with them and see if different arrangements can be made.

The school district's formal free and reduced price policy statement and the procedure that will be followed when a decision is appealed are on file in the central office of the Tahoka schools and may be reviewed by any interested person.

Rotary Club Of Tahoka Observes Foundation Week

The Rotary Club of Tahoka will join the international service organization's 14,372 other clubs in 148 countries in observing Rotary Foundation Week, November 15-21.

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International provides educational and vocational study programs throughout the world for qualified young people. The objective of the voluntarily supported Foundation is to foster world understanding and friendship through people-to-people contact.

Since 1947, more than 4,000 young men and women have gone abroad, at a cost of more than $10 million dollars, for a year of study and a "tour" as a goodwill ambassador. This year, the Foundation will award $1,750,000 to more than 600 young people, according to Vernon Jones, president of the Rotary Club of Tahoka.

In addition to Graduate Fellowships and Undergraduate Scholarships, special programs are available for young craftsmen through Technical Training awards, and for young business and professional men through a Group Study Exchange.

The week of November 15-21 marks the Foundation's 53rd year of service. Tahoka Rotarians plan to celebrate the occasion at their regular meeting Nov. 19th.

President Jones said the special Rotary Foundation Week program would include a short history and activities of the foundation along with the local club and district participation.

Tahoka FHA Met Wednesday

The Tahoka Chapter of Future Homemakers of America met November 11, 1970. The theme of the meeting was "Decisions That Count." Donnie Dudgeon presented a program on degrees, a devotional, given by Staci Short and Kim Turner was followed by a question and answer period and songs were also sung.

West Point Club Met Thursday

The West Point Home Demonstration Club met Thurs., Nov. 12, at 2 p.m. in the Ready Room of the Southwestern Public Service. Mrs. Bill Barham, president, called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with "What I am Most Thankful For."

Projects for another year were discussed. Plans are being made for the annual Christmas party which will be held in the Bill Barham home in December, date to be announced later.

The program was presented by the County H.D. agent, Mrs. Linda Huffaker. She gave a very interesting program on the growth and development of cotton. She stated cotton is certainly not a new plant as it was first grown in India over 5,000 years ago and just recently some edible products have been made from it. One of these is called tamra-nuts, which has been developed from cotton seed and is very similar to roasted peanuts in flavor, but much higher in protein and lower in fat.

Another product is flour which has also been made from cottonseed and in comparison to other flour. Cottonseed flour is much higher in protein containing 65 to 70 percent with wheat flour only 10 to 12 percent protein. Cottonseed flour will probably be on the market within the next year. So don't be surprised if "pass-the-cotton" is a familiar phrase around our dining tables in the next few years. Linda served delicious cake and cookies that she had baked from the flour to eight members and three guests.

Friends And Neighbors Gather Birdwell's Crop

Harvest time isn't the best time for a farmer to be in the hospital, but it's an excellent time to have friends of the good old-fashioned variety.

Two weeks ago, Lynn County farmer Ed Birdwell was beginning his cotton stripping operations. The cotton "balled up on him" and in clearing the machinery, he "got the tractor in gear and it got him," the way friends tell it.

Monday, about 30 friends and neighbors descended on his 200 acres of cotton with strippers, trailers, pickups, tractors and a lot of good will.

"We figured we had to get it before it gets any worse," neighbor K.W. Phillips said, standing in the center of the field near a loading trailer for some strippers.

On all sides, whichever way he turned, he could see strippers marching up and down cotton rows.

Stiff winds, already laden with a heavy layer of dust, made the sandy field almost a dust bowl. Visibility got pretty low just before noon and winds reached a peak that seemed to die a little in early afternoon, giving the sand-covered men an easier work day.

They came from all over, these friends. Some had finished their own fields. Some

Too Cold Saturday

Food — barbecue, beans and the trimmings prepared by W. T. Kidwell of Tahoka — broke into the workday for a welcome break that included a lot of laughter. The break also offered the opportunity for tractor drivers to shuck a top layer of clothing that had been so welcome in the early morning cold.

Covered with a thick layer of dirt, farmers joshed each other and joked about the weather that would have found most of them out of the fields had they been working their own.

The day was to have happened Saturday, but the weather that day was too much even for hardy farmers and they put it off until Monday.

Gin Furnished Fuel

They furnished their own equipment and their own labor, but the Farmers Co-Op Gin at Tahoka, to which they were to take the cotton, furnished the tractor fuel.

Word came to the field that Birdwell was some better and worried friends could breathe easier at their tasks. Some of them had been "sitting up" at Methodist Hospital and were quite vocal about their concern about his condition.

Getting stomped on by a tractor wasn't their idea of a good time. Worrying about a field of cotton beginning to blow in the rows was not their idea of fun, either.

Monday, they took that last worry away from Ed Birdwell, leaving to him only the task of getting well.

Harvey Lee Duckett and Rev. Lee Jones, pastor of the Sweet Street Baptist Church, where Mr. Birdwell is a teacher of the Men's Sunday School Class plus a number of hired help furnished by the farmers.

One crew operated the strippers, some of which needed a man to work the cotton around in the trailer as it fell from the stripper. Others took filled trailers behind their pickups and made the trips to the gin. Three laborers, working for one of the farmers, tromped the cotton down in the trailers so more could be added. A walking crew worked to clear weeds and blowing tumbleweeds from the cotton rows.

Farm-City Week Proclaimed Nov. 20-26

The period from Nov. 20-26 is National Farm-City Week and every citizen has a stake in its observance. Nowhere else in the world, points out Chas. K. Baker, Extension economist, do so many depend on so few for their food and fiber needs.

The 5 percent of our population engaged in agricultural production gives the other 95 percent benefits unsurpassed anywhere, says Baker. In 1969 we spent only 16.5 percent of our incomes for food as compared with 24 percent some 20 years ago and this despite the fact the producer is getting a about 9 cents less out of every food dollar than he received 20 years ago. Too, notes Baker, production expenses have continued to rise; thus, keeping the cost-price squeeze a major problem for agricultural producers.

Our producers, says Baker, are continually searching for better and more efficient ways to keep the food and fiber supply lines filled. Today the U.S. farmer produces enough food and fiber for 45 people, about 39 at home and 6 abroad. A decade ago he supplied the agricultural needs of only 24 people.

Other problems of common interest to farm and city residents are also cited by President Nixon in his Farm-City Week proclamation. He said, "With two-thirds of our population crowded onto only two percent of the land, many of our people are denied economic opportunities, adequate living space, health, cultural fulfillment, and those spiritual values without which no nation can achieve greatness. 'The time for action is at hand—careful plans to be formulated, and for decisions to be made at local governmental levels, to foster the improved distribution of population and accompanying economic activity needed during the decade of the 1970's and beyond. The Government can provide assistance, but the effort will succeed only as Americans take part in developing a policy of sound national growth.

"In this effort city dwellers and rural people alike have reason to work together toward common goals. The well-being of urban America and the welfare of rural America will increasingly intertwine as our total population expands. Better living in the one depends on better living in the other.

"I request that leaders of agricultural organizations, business groups, labor unions, youth and women's clubs, civic and fraternal associations, schools and others join in noting not only the interdependent roles of the producers and consumers of America's agricultural abundance but also their opportunities for cooperation in building for the future." Baker notes that Farm-City Week observance in Tex. will follow no set pattern but the objective of all will be the same—to help rural and urban residents understand each others problems and further develop the appreciation each should have for the other. In other words, he says, we just couldn't get along without each other.

Wilson Beats New Home, 36-19

The Wilson Mustangs beat the New Home Leopards last Friday night, 36-19. Jimmy Fillingim ran a 96-yard punt run and Ricky

The Mustangs got 22 second-quarter points. Woody Follis punted 3 yards for the first TD. Point try failed. Follis did it again with a 33-yard run. David Weid passed to John Fields for two extras. Then Follis rumbled over a 3-yard TD. Weid ran two extras.

Follis was back on the job in the third and ran up a 4-yard TD run. Steve Bednarz ran two extras. The fast and elusive Fillingim scored in the third frame when he swept 48 yards for a New Home TD. PAT failed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Johnny:
It's Friday morning and the looks of the weather and forecast for the week-end indicates we might get caught up in part of our harvest activity mentioned in yesterday's article concerning our membership drive for Water, Inc. We want to thank you for running this appeal for membership in our drive to secure 100 members in Lynn County in order for us to maintain our county director on the Water, Inc. district board. Just as soon as possible our county unit will call a meeting of all interested people to get our new officers elected and organized in a plan of action for the coming year.

Thank you again for helping bring this very important message of the future to your readers. Sincerely,
Joe D. Unfried

NURSING HOME NEWS

This has been an enjoyable week, thanks to you, our friends and loved ones.

A group of ladies from the Lutheran Church of Wilson brought the worship services Sunday afternoon.

On Monday, Mrs. Hammonds played the piano and led us in singing hymns. Later in the afternoon a group of girl scouts sang for us. Come again girls.

We spent Tuesday afternoon, playing games and doing hand work. We want to thank Mrs. Gene Harvick and others for the quilt scraps.

So nice of Mrs. Larry Owen and Mrs. Jackie Ausburn to bring each recipient a little flag and cookies on Veterans Day. Then in the afternoon Mrs. Gus Sherrill, Mrs. Hensley, Mrs. Caswell and Mrs. Barnes sang for us and served punch and cookies which was enjoyed by all.

Thursday was a quite day, we visited the ones who cannot come out of their rooms and some played 42. If you would like to play games with us, come in. We are happy to have you, and you might just get beat playing dominoes, 42 or checkers. We have some good players and we always have the time.

Thanks to Mrs. Makovey and Mrs. Norris for having plenty of hot pop corn and punch for us Friday. We played 42 and visited. We had several visitors to join us in our games. We have enjoyed the beautiful flowers placed in the home by Mrs. Connie Carmack this week.

Mr. Draper's room was brightened up by a gorgeous pot of chrysanthemums sent in by Mrs. Norlyde. It is very nice, and appreciated by all, when flowers are sent.

Mrs. Cunningham visited a daughter in Lubbock Tuesday. Mrs. Alice King celebrated her birthday in the home of a granddaughter, Mrs. John Curry. It's nice to be able to get out, but you know what? We are always ready to come home.

Mrs. McCord enjoyed having three of her daughters visit her one day this week.

We welcome a new recipient, Mr. Haney from Lubbock. Mrs. Byrd is not feeling good this week.

We all express our sympathy to the Merret family. We want you to know how much we care and hope the thought will make your sorrow somewhat easier to bear. Bye for now. Come to see us.

Tahoka High Happenings

BY DONNIE DUDGEON

The Tahoka Bulldogs closed out their season in fine style with a 33-0 victory over the Ralls Eagles. This put the season record at 6 wins and 4 losses. The varsity team has done a fine job this year. A special salute should go to the senior members. They are: Robert Montemayor, Roger Miller, James Martin, Nathan Morris, Larry Durham, Cliff Gardner, Joe Hoskins, Gordon Harvick, Joe Calvillo, Charles McAuley, Gene Walker and Bruce Franklin.

This year the spirit and student backing for the athletics and all related activities has been great. The band and pep squad have done outstanding jobs of boosting school spirit. The students would like to say thanks to the coaches, the pep squad sponsors, and the band director for aiding our spirit. The high school band will be participating in U.I.L. marching contest November 18 at Jones Stadium in Lubbock. The band will be under the field direction of Miss Eida Cruce. The Tahoka chapter of F.H.A. had its monthly meeting on November 11, 1970. Donnie Dudgeon and Margie Pena were in charge of the program. Kim Turner and Stacie Short provided the devotional.

Past Days In Lynn County

Construction of new jail cells on the fourth floor of the court house was begun Monday morning. There will be two blocks with eight bunks each so as to accommodate sixteen prisoners.

The new jail, it is claimed, will be "burglar-proof" and the very latest thing in jail construction. The contract was let several weeks ago to a Dallas construction company for $4,600.

The cells are being installed in the northwest corner of the building and included what was originally designed as the execution room or "hangman's room," as Sheriff B.L. Parker dubbed it. In this room a gallo was to be erected and prisoners convicted of a capital offense and given the death penalty were to be hanged therein.

But fortunately it never became necessary for the room to be used. A few years after the court house and jail were constructed, death by electrocution was substituted for death by hanging and hence hanging went out of style. But even if no change had been made in the mode of inflicting the death penalty there would have been little use for this room, for no Lynn county prisoner was ever given the death penalty until Elmo Banks was convicted less than a year ago of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Ed Redwine.

But the ominous room with the hole in the floor beneath it remained intact until more jail room and a better jail became necessary.

Clay Bennett of the Texaco Service Station has purchased the interest of his partner, Howard Wheeler, in the business, and will operate it "on his own" hereafter. Bennett is also Texaco wholesale dealer.

Mr. Wheeler will operate an independent truck under the firm name of Howard Wheeler Oil Co., and, at the present at least, is in the wholesale oil business only.

Post all-stars and Tahoka all-stars will tangle in a game of football here Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Coach Prentice Walker of the local high school announces.

Coach Cearley of Post will bring over a strong team of ex-Post High and college stars while Walker has been directing the Tahoka talent.

Tahoka is likely to have a formidable team. It will be remembered that last year our all-star team surprised and defeated the Lubbock all-star team which was made up principally of ex-Tech players. Bring along 25 cents, if you are an adult, or 15c, if a school child, and get an eyeful of all-star football.

Copied from Feb. 12, 1937 Dr. E. Prohl of Fort Worth was here this week making arrangements to locate here for the practice of medicine. He has rented an office in the Thomas building over the Wynne Collier Drug Store. He expects to open his office the latter part of next week.

Dr. Prohl is a young man, 32 years of age. He is married and has one child, a baby three weeks old. He is a graduate of Baylor Medical College at Dallas. He did his interne work at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth, and for the past 20 months he has been one of the practicing physicians connected with that institution. He did his pre-medical work in the University of Texas at Austin. He was reared at Port Arthur.

For more than a year Tahoka has had only two practicing physicians Dr. L.E. Turentine, who has been in the practice here many years, and Dr. Robert Harp, who located here about a year ago.

Wilson high school again holds the championship of Lynn county in boys basketball, and will represent us in the district meet to be held at Lubbock soon. Wilson was crowned champion after having gone through the round-robin tournament in progress here the last two weeks, Wilson winning every game they played. New Home won second place in the contest, with one loss and four victories. Loving cups were presented to the first and second ranking teams.

The tournament was conducted under the efficient management and direction of Coach Prentice Walker of Tahoka. Ross Ayers of Texas Tech refereed all tournament games.

Spontaneous combustion in the drying room of Vanity Cleaners started a fire which did between $500 and $600 damage to the cleaning shop and Bovell's Bakery at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, only about two hours after the fatal explosion at Colleenback's blacksmith shop.

Jess Gurley, operator of the cleaning plant, was standing about six feet away when the explosion occurred in the drying room which sent flames over the room, but Jess was uninjured by the blast or flames. He carried most of his customers' clothes to safety, losing only about $60 worth of clothing. He had no insurance.

The fire rapidly ate its way through the wallboard partition into the bakery storage room. Walls, equipment, sugar and flour stocks were damaged to the extent of about $500, the loss being partially covered by insurance. Much of the damage to the stock was from water. T.J. and W.T. Bovell are owners of the building and bakery.

The fire department did a quick job of extinguishing the flames.

About 200 farmers were present at a meeting in the court house last Friday afternoon called for the purpose of organizing a Lynn county unit of the Texas Agricultural Association.

John Heck of Wilson and E.W. Holloway of Redwine were elected temporary president and secretary, respectively for this county. Thirty-three members were signed, who are expected to organize community units over the county.

Purpose of the organization is to better take care of the many problems that confront the farmers, and to advance the cause of agriculture.

Terrace and contour lines were run on 7,797 acres of Lynn County land, under the supervision of the county agent's office, during the month of January according to V.F. Jones, County Agent.

This work was supervised on sixty three farms. 3,167 acres of this amount was for terracing and 4,730 acres was for contouring.

There is more interest in terracing work in Lynn County this year than there has been before. The greatest difficulty we are having is in getting the terraces built after the lines have been run. One commissioner is using county road machinery to build terraces and a private owned machine is building terraces.

Rites Held For Ray Sherrod

Services for Ray Sherrod, 71, of Lubbock were held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday in the Broadway Church of Christ. Burial was in the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

Sherrod was dead on arrival at about 11 a.m. Thursday at Highland Hospital. He had been ill about six weeks and recently had been hospitalized.

A retired employee of the State Highway Dept., Sherrod had lived in Post and Tahoka. Survivors include his wife, Lena; two sons, H.H. of Brownfield and L.E. of Lubbock; three brothers, Paul of Lubbock; B. Sherrod of Buchanan Dam and Lester of Levelland; two sisters, Mrs. J.G. Igo of Lubbock and Mrs. Lula Masigill of Portland, Ore.; and seven grand children.
