Santa Claus Will Visit Tahoka Saturday

"TWO BITS WORTH"
BY JOHNNY VALENTINE

The Country Editor says there's no one much worse off than a well-fixed hippie.

TBW

Well, some people never learn, but Bill Chancy has had a couple of lessons the last two years when he made bad bets against Texas and for Arkansas. You guessed it, Bill had to push that wheel barrow two years in a row with yours truly riding in it. The game was a little one-sided this year when the Texas Longhorns walloped the Razorbacks 42-7. Bill also received a wreath after the game with a card which read, "Sorry to Hear About Your Loss". The card was not signed. I haven't been able to talk Bill into a bet for next year but maybe we can work out something that won't be so hard on Bill.

TBW

Do you wonder sometimes why at the end of the work day-you're tired? Let us explain.

Have you ever stopped to consider that during one day our heart beats 103,389 times? That your blood travels 168 million miles? That you breathe 21,040 times? That you breathe 68 cubic feet of air?

Believe that? Well, then count 'em yourself. Now consider this: You speak 4,800 words, have 750 major muscles and are seven million brain cells daily. All this besides what you know you've done.

No wonder you're tired.

TBW

What this world really needs is a computer that can figure out all the things in life that don't add up.

TBW

Christmas Decorations are really going up in Tahoka and we suggest that residents drive around and see these pretty sights. The Big Merry Christmas on the Courthouse can be seen from the north city limits of Tahoka along with the huge Christmas tree and it is really beautiful.

TBW

There are a lot of people today who have troubles. Some troubles are real, some imaginary. Some are like the fellows who made an appointment to see a psychiatrist. When he got there, he said: "Doctor, I really have big problems." The psychiatrist told him to get down on the couch, and tell him his troubles. His recital brought out these facts: He had a most devoted family and lived in one of the most luxurious homes in the suburbs. He belonged to several golf clubs and had three autos for his family. His house had a swimming pool in the back yard, and in addition, he owned a winter home in Florida, a summer home in Canada.

The psychiatrist finally interrupted him and commented, "I don't seem to me, with all the wonderful things you have, that you should have any troubles."

"All these things are wonderful all right," replies this fellow, "but you see I have troubles. I only make $100 a week."

Ed Williams' Father Dies

Ed Williams, manager of Higginbotham-Bartlett, and family were called to Athens Wednesday by death of his father, H.L. Williams. Funeral services were set for this Thursday.

Airport Hangar Contract Let

The new hangar at Tahoka Airport will be completed in the near future, the City Council decided in its regular meeting Monday night.

Claud Harris was given a contract at $904,000 to complete labor on the project, most of which involves sheet metal work. Completion date is expected by Christmas.

The hangar, started last summer, will be 60 by 120 feet in size with 40-foot doors on each end, and will shelter eight to twelve airplanes.

So far much of the work on the project has been done by donated labor.

Five private planes are now stationed at the airport, but during the crop-spraying season the facility is used by several commercial plane pilots and is therefore of indirect benefit to farmers and the town.

Await Details On New Farm Program

There is still much speculation as to how much cotton will be planted on the Plains under the new farm program. And it is proving difficult to make meaningful calculations pending issuance of final details on how the program will be administered from Washington. As of this writing the level of the loan, the amount of required set-aside for the three major commodities, permissible uses of set-aside acres and other regulations are yet to be announced. All of these factors will have a significant effect on producer planting decisions, and anything approaching an accurate estimate for the High Plains as a whole will have to wait.

Meanwhile it is interesting to note that Walter Wells, Manager of the Lubbock County ASCS office and most knowledgeable of farming and farmers in this area, has said Lubbock County in 1971 could well plant 275,000 acres to cotton. That would be an increase of around 25 percent of this year's 220,900 planted acres.

And, according to Wells, it is the consensus of the Lubbock County ASCS Committee that county farmers might put 300,000 acres in cotton, a jump of 35 percent from this year.

New 'Lead' Probed In Bray's Murder

Possible new leads have come to light lately in the Dec. 8, 1966, murder of A.M. (Maurice) Bray, local Chevrolet dealer, Police Chief Jack Miller revealed this week.

Although he can not reveal the new clues, he indicates they are the most encouraging he has received in a long time. He is checking out the new leads.

The night of Dec. 8, 1966, Mr. Bray was working late in his place of business. It is theorized he heard a noise in the rear of the building, went to investigate, and as he emerged from the parts department into the adjoining parts office he was felled by a single shot from a sawed-off shotgun.

He fell at the corner of the desk the shotgun was on the floor a few feet away, and a spare unfired shell was found

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas returned last week after spending a few days deer hunting at Harper. Mr. Thomas got 2 nice buck and 1 turkey. They visited Mrs. Thomas' sister and husband the Jim Lookers at Ingram. They spent Thanksgiving week at San Marcos.

Santa Claus will be in Tahoka this Saturday afternoon visiting with children and shoppers on the streets and in the stores and giving away candy to the little tots.

For the adults, there will be the first of three drawings for free gift certificates this Saturday at 4 p.m. on north side of the courthouse square, followed by similar drawings on Saturday, Dec. 19, and on Christmas Eve, Thursday, Dec. 24. Santa Claus will also be here again on these afternoons.

Sponsored by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, six gift certificates to be redeemed at Tahoka stores will be given away each of the three days, one each day worth $20.00, one $10.00, and four $5.00.

All that is required is that citizens register at any store which is a member of the

C. of C., which includes most stores in town, and then be present at the drawing.

Drawing will be adjacent to the big Christmas tree on the north side of the square.

Many homes have been decorated this week in keeping with the Christmas season. Tahoka Garden Club will sponsor judging homes early Christmas week for first, second and third places in four contest categories, overall exterior, window decorations, door decorations, and outside tree decorations.

Lions Club put up the unique cedar decorations on business houses, and many business houses have up Christmas decorations, a few of which are outstanding. A C. of C. committee headed by Johnny Wells and Farrell Murph has sponsored decoration of vacant store buildings.

The 1970 cotton harvest season, for all practical purposes, is over.

No time in the past has the harvest been completed so early a date or the ginning completed so quickly and efficiently.

This week very little cotton remains in a very few scattered fields over the county, and most of the cotton being ginned this week is "bollies" dropped on turn-rows by harvester machines.

In view of a hot, dry summer, production far exceeded all predictions, largely due to a good underground season and favorable weather except for the dry summer.

Gin reports to The News last week indicated more than 135,000 bales ginned, 3,000 on the yards, and several thousand bales yet to be ginned.

Final Government census report, which is usually made in the spring, will round out the production to 500-pound bales and will include bales actually produced in the county. For example, Dawson county cotton ginned at O'Donnell will be credited to Dawson county, and Lynn county cotton ginned in Lubbock and Garza counties will be credited to Lynn county. This fact sometimes causes a variance in the number of bales reported to The News from that reported by the Bureau of Census. November 1 report of the U.S. Bureau of Census, received by The News this week, shows Lynn county had ginned 24,204 bales on that date compared to only 627 bales on the same date in 1969.

Most cotton this year has brought fair prices, ranging from 18 to 20-plus cents per pound, with much of its strict low middling and spots averaging about 31/32 of good mike and Pressley strength and selling above loan prices. Higher staple and grade cotton was not in great demand. Cottonseed prices have been better than usual, ranging from about $56 to $62 per ton.

Except for high winds, the weather this fall has been favorable for cotton harvest, which was largely responsible for the short harvest season.

Many farmers are chiseling or listing their land in preparation for the coming year, and most are now ready for some winter moisture. In the meantime, they are awaiting anxiously some indication of what the Government program will be next year and future years.

Weed Control Meeting Set

A chemical weed control meeting in Tahoka has been set for January 6, states County Agent Bill Griffin.

Speakers at the session will be Dr. Robert Metzger of the Extension Service and Elmer Hudspeth of Lubbock Experiment Station.

This will be a breakfast meeting for interested farmers, and the meal will be furnished by Leighton Knox of Tatum Bros.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER - Wayne Butcher, former Hell's Angel 3rd in command, was the keynote speaker at the Narcotics Awareness Day held last Wednesday at Tahoka High School and is pictured above while addressing the student body.

Narcotic Awareness Day Is Held Here

On Wednesday, December 2, the National Honor Society sponsored a Narcotics Awareness Day for the high school student body. This was sponsored to familiarize the students with the effects of drugs and drug abuse.

Several different areas were discussed. The six different sessions were a ministerial panel; two students from Plainview who have used drugs; a psychiatrist, Dr. Tom Powers; a druggist, Mr. Reeves Coates; Mr. W. W. Buck, a member of a member of Alcoholics Anonymous; Captain Bill Cox of the Lubbock Police Department.

Mr. Wayne Butcher, an ex-Hell's Angel, delivered the keynote address. He related some of his experiences with drugs and the Angels.

People sometimes realize too late that drugs are a problem in their area. Each community must be aware and begin effective methods of prevention against drugs.

Local Youths Have Vietnam Reunion

Two Tahoka young men reared in adjoining blocks on South First Street were in a chance meeting in Vietnam early last week. Naturally, the meeting turned into a most happy reunion.

Sgt. Dennis Cline, 22, son of Mrs. John Raindl, 1926 South First, had been having some trouble getting his pay checks. In trying to straighten this out, he met up with Sp 4 Gary Gunnells, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gunnells, 2018 South First. Gary is in the U.S. Army Finance Department stationed at Chin Leu, Vietnam. Dennis has spent considerable time in Vietnam, but Gary has been over there only a short time and had spent a year in Germany and was later sent to

Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Arnold, of Texarkana spent a few days with her uncle, the Claude Thomas' and seeing after farming interests at Grassland.

UP, UP AND IN--Tommy Hale, forward for the Tahoka High girls basketball team as she shoots for two points Tuesday night against Ralls. Tommy was the leading scorer for the team as the girls defeated Ralls 48-37.

Whose War?

The Vietnam conflict, technically an undeclared war, has proven to be the undoing of one U.S. president, Lyndon Johnson, and has seriously undermined the image of another, Richard Nixon.

War critics first yelled at the top of their lungs that "this is Johnson's war." Vietnam conflict presumably was the determining factor in the Texan not seeking a second elected term. You will remember that this man saw two sons-in-law travel to battle in Vietnam.

Now it's "Nixon's war!" We, personally, feel that both men have done all humanly possible to unwind the Indochina problems and return America's young men to their homeland. Both have, undoubtedly, made mistakes but we shall always believe their intentions have been solely for Uncle Sam's welfare.

Nixon sending troops into Cambodia to break up the Commies' haven just across the border has saved numerous G.I.'s lives, the opinion of many college students notwithstanding. And we wholeheartedly endorse his dramatic attempt to have American prisoners of war freed from their North Vietnam prisons.

While Presidents Johnson and Nixon have been rudely abused by young people and governmental leaders for a war not of their making, then on whose shoulders should blame for the war be placed?

According to the late Gen. Charles de Gaulle of France, the answer emphatically is the late President John F. Kennedy. In "The Renewal," fourth in his six volumes of memoirs, de Gaulle states that he warned Kennedy that if he intervened in Vietnam he would be plunging his country (the U.S.) into a constantly escalating quagmire, but the young president simply would not heed the advice.

"He did not hide from me, in effect," De Gaulle writes, "that the United States was preparing to intervene in Indochina. In Thailand it was building air bases... in Laos, although neutrality was about to be reaffirmed by a conference in Geneva, it was introducing military advisers.... In South Vietnam it was beginning to organize, under pretext of assistance, the first elements of an expeditionary force corps."

"John Kennedy gave me to understand that the United States was going to establish in the Indochinese peninsula a breakthrough of resistance against the Soviets. But instead of giving him the favorable opinion that he wished, I told the President that he was heading down a sorry path."

De Gaulle explains in the memoirs that Franco-American relations began to deteriorate almost from the first day Kennedy

Garden Club's Coffee Wed.

The date of Tahoka Garden Club's annual Christmas coffee has been changed from Tuesday, Dec. 15, to Wednesday, Dec. 16, at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. A.C. Weaver, 1720 N. Second. Co-hostesses are Mrs. W.S. Taylor and Mrs. Garland Pennington.

There will be a gift exchange among members, and Mrs. Jimmy Turner will tell a Christmas story entitled "Christmas Is Always" by Dale Evans Rogers.

Each member is asked to bring a small potted plant to be presented to a resident of Colonial Nursing Home.

Output per man-hour on the farm increased 83 percent between 1959 and 1969. Farmers now produce over 20 percent more food and fiber on 6 percent fewer acres, according to New Holland, the farm equipment division of Sperry Rand.

Undoubtedly, John Kennedy was acting in what he thought was the best interest of the nation he headed in blocking Communism.

But what we cannot understand is why his brother, Sen. Ted Kennedy, is so hardy with verbal blasts at the current and past Presidents for their roles in Indochina, when actually his late brother was the only who literally started "the ball rolling."

There are times when hindsight is superior to foresight. But, also, we remember that fair is fair and politics are politics.

Mrs. Mike Taylor played the piano for our singing Monday. We enjoyed her and we want her to come play for us again.

Tuesday was a pleasant day. Mrs. Roberts played for us, and Mr. Lemon led our songs. We are happy to have Mr. Polk, who has come to live with us. Come to see him.

Mrs. Webb and Gladys Brock from Wilson, sang for us Wednesday. We always enjoy them and appreciate them very much. Even the Gladys is blind she can play most any song we request. We spent Thurs. afternoon playing bingo, each player won a gift.

Mrs. Nance played for us Friday and we sang until Mr. Lemon gave out.

Mrs. Black is happy to announce she has a new granddaughter - Beverly Harvick has adopted her as her grandmother. Don't you know she will make Mrs. Black happy. Just to know she has some one to do the little things for her. After all it takes such a little to make our elderly people happy.

Tea-Size Fruitcakes

Traditional fruitcakes combine generous amounts of candied and dried fruits and nuts with just enough rich batter to hold the mixture together. Kay Kellogg has created a tea-size version called Fruited Bon-Bon Cakes. The tiny cakes are baked slowly to allow the characteristic spice, fruit and rum flavors to blend. As most fruitcakes improve with "age" so will Fruited Bon-Bon Cakes. It's the secret of their success. Wrap and refrigerate the cooled cakes at least a week before serving.

FRUITED BON-BON CAKES

- 2 cups corn flakes or 1/2 cup packaged corn flake crumbs
- 1 1/4 cups (8 oz.) dried whole prunes
- 1 cup seedless golden raisins
- 1/2 cup sifted regular all-purpose flour
- 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon mace or nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1/2 cup (4 oz.) finely chopped candied citron
- 1/2 cup chopped red candied cherries
- 1/2 cup chopped green candied cherries
- 3/4 cup chopped nuts
- 1/2 cup soft shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 2 eggs
- 1 tablespoon rum flavoring
- Candied cherries

1. If using corn flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Set aside.
2. Soak prunes and raisins separately in hot water to cover; about 20 minutes each.
3. Sift together flour, soda, salt and spices. Stir in corn flakes crumbs.
4. Drain raisins; drain, pit and chop prunes. Combine fruits, nuts and sifted dry ingredients.
5. Measure shortening and sugar into mixer bowl; beat until light and fluffy. Add eggs and rum flavoring; beat well. Stir in fruit mixture, mixing only until combined. Arrange about 4 dozen 1 1/2 inch paper bon-bon baking cups in round cake pans or small muffin tins. Fill each cup with 1 tablespoon batter and garnish with a candied cherry half.
6. Bake in very slow oven (250° F.) about 1 1/2 hours, or until cakes are delicately browned and begin pulling from sides of cups. Cool, wrap tightly and refrigerate at least 1 week. Yield: about 4 dozen Fruited Bon Bon Cakes

O'Donnell Plans Youth Revival

Lynn Dehart will be the evangelist for a youth-led revival at the First Baptist Church in O'Donnell this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with evening services beginning each night at 7 o'clock.
 Paul Aday, freshman music student at Wayland Baptist College, will lead the singing, and Jeff Messer, freshman ministerial student at Wayland, will be in charge of Christian fellowship after the services. The public is cordially invited.

Miss Sharon Lynn Anderson, teacher in the local schools, was united in marriage to John Stanley Hansen, Jr., Friday, Nov. 27 at 4:00 p.m. in Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State University, Canyon.
 The Reverend Frank Peery, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Canyon, read the double ring ceremony.
 Mrs. Glen Dowlen furnished the traditional organ music.
 Given in marriage by her father, Jack Leroy Anderson of Stinnett, the bride wore a formal gown of imported organza over peau and Alencon lace. The organza bodice was designed with scooped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Embroidered Alencon lace encircled the cresent empire waistline and embellished the front of the A-line organza skirt. Identical lace motifs were repeated on the center of the fan-shaped silk organza chapel train that flowed from lace appliques at the back bodice line. A tiered veil of silk illusion with separate circular face veil fell in bouffant fullness around the double crown of Alencon lace petals which were outlined in pearls.

Linda Huffaker, CHD Agent, Says.....

You can plan now for the holidays ahead and avoid the last minute meal time and party preparation rush.
 Just consider the number of guests you expect and allow for a few unexpected drop-ins.
 Make full use of your freezer by preparing main dishes, desserts, garnishes and party fare well ahead of time and freezing them until needed.
 Start your holiday baking too! Preparation of many of the nationally breads and cookies is time consuming, but it can be a pleasurable experience when done in a relaxed atmosphere.

One caution to keep in mind is to use moisture-vapro-proof wrapping or airtight containers to insure good keeping of foods. Tin cans are fine for cookies and breads. If you plan to use some as gifts, you may even gift wrap them before freezing so they will be ready to give away.
 Plan main dishes to include adequate meat or other protein food per serving. Be sure to pack them tightly to prevent the development of a warmed-over flavor.
 Some spices and seasonings tend to become strong under freezing conditions, so it's best to season foods lightly. Add more flavoring during the heating process before serving.

You should store a few party foods and extra ice cubes in the freezer if you have space.
 Include a variety of dips, since most will keep well for about six weeks. Appetizers and other similar dainties may be frozen in layers with a sheet of freezer wrap between them, with all the layers overwrapped.
 Pie dough for both pies and tiny tarts may be rolled into the desired size, layered flat, then overwrapped. Allow the dough to thaw before shaping.
 You can also prepare various punch combinations and freeze them.
 Plan your meal and party menus now, and make best use of your freezer space.

FEEDING T-E LIQUID FEED IS SO EASY IT COULD SPOIL YOU

When you get out of bed in the morning, your supplement feeding chores may already be done for days to come—if you're feeding T-E Liquid Feed Supplement.

Because one refill of the free-choice range feeders will take care of your herd for about ten days, using a T-E feeder for every 75 to 100 head. All you have to do is make the rounds, once every ten days, stopping at each feeder long enough to watch it fill up.

T-E Liquid Feed Supplement cuts out most of the time, labor and equipment connected with dry supplements... saves you money.

The proof of T-E Liquid Feed Supplement is in the extra quality your animals will show—extra energy, extra good health, extra gain. And that means extra profits from your range feeding program.

T-E Liquid Feed Supplement along with adequate roughage, minerals and water, is the easy way to be sure your animals are getting the protein, phosphorus, vitamins and trace minerals they need for energy and growth.

Of course, you do have to get out of bed—at least every ten days. Otherwise it could spoil you.

T-E LIQUID FEED SUPPLEMENT IS MADE FROM A PATENTED FORMULA
 The basic ingredients of T-E Liquid Feed Supplement are urea, phosphoric acid, molasses, vitamins A, D and E and trace minerals. The urea is chemically inhibited (by the patented formula) with phosphoric acid and molasses) to control the release of nitrogen and pace its conversion into protein for more efficient use by the animal.

Grassland News

BY MRS. E.A. RAWLINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Long are the proud grandparents of a baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gandy on Thanksgiving Day, November 26 at Tahoka. The little one's name is LaJuan Britnie and she weighed 6 lbs. and 15 1/2 ounces at birth. Believe it or not, both mother and baby were born on Thanksgiving Day.

The December meeting of the Grassland Hobby Club was held on Tuesday, December 1, at the Methodist Church annex. The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Lura Gaither and Mrs. Lula Greer. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Naomi Norman and the opening prayer was given by Mrs. Letha Porterfield. An election of officers who served this year were re-elected. Gifts were exchanged and secret pals were revealed. Mrs. Gaither demonstrated how to make roses out of a styro-foam ball and velvet ribbon. She also constructed the likeness of a poodle out of a towel, a wash cloth and a bar of soap.

Mrs. Greer presented a bulletin board and hot pad hanger made from a small legerie rubber board, and decorated artificial fruit arrangements. Coffee and spiced tea with brownies were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gerner and children, Scottie and Kimberly, left for home in Houston on Sunday after a visit with Mrs. Gerner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gerner. Scottie will make his grandpa a real hand later for he thoroughly enjoyed riding the tractor. He is now hardly three years old.

Mr. Jim Hanes, a friend of the Amos Gerners, visited with them last week. Mr. Hanes is from Kansas but is presently in the armed forces.

Mrs. Helen Gerner and Mrs. Amos Gerner visited in West Texas hospital last week with Addie Brown, Mrs. Gerner's sister. They also visited with Mr. Thurman Frances in the Methodist hospital, who got his hand caught in a cotton stripper and was injured severely. The neighbors gathered in last Friday and finished stripping Mr. Frances' cotton. This is a fine neighborly deed and we are sure that the Frances family appreciates this kind act. A later visit to the hospital finds both Addie Brown and Mr. Frances doing nicely.

Mrs. Ruby Clayborn visited over night with the Amos Gerners on Saturday and went to church with them on Sunday and the women visited with Laura Gerner in Lubbock in the evening.

Mrs. Bob Norman reports that they attended the annual Norman family reunion at Ragtown on Sunday with 78 people in attendance. All the Norman brothers were present except Johnnie, who lives in California.

Word reached us that Mrs. Ethel Fox passed away on Sunday evening at 5:30 in the Post Hospital. The memorial service was at the Methodist church in Grassland on Tuesday at 2:00 p.m. Mrs. Fox was 83 years old when she passed away.

Mrs. Buford Mathis' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Winkler, visited with the Buford Mathis through Monday of this week. They all visited with Mr. Mathis' mother, Mrs. E.B. Mathis, who is living in the Twin Cedar Nursing Home at Post. Mrs. E.B. Mathis is 98 1/2 years old and is doing real well.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Huffaker had dinner on Sunday with their son, Roy and family at Lamesa.

Mr. Dave Johnson, who is in the armed services, visited in the Herman Huffaker home last week. He was on his way to Alabama, where he is to be stationed.

Rev. Bobbie Huffaker and family were visitors in the Herman Huffaker home over the Thanksgiving holiday. In the afternoon, Rev. Wales Lankford and family from Big Spring visited with Bobbie and family and stayed for supper with the Herman Huffakers.

Mr. and Mrs. V.L. Melton were home over the Thanksgiving week-end.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Safety's Hidden Helper

In Miami, a woman sued the city for damages after her heel caught in a manhole cover. In short order, the city bought 500 new manhole covers with smaller holes. Nonskid rug pads began to sell better in Philadelphia after a home owner was held liable to a visitor who slipped on a loose rug. A major chemical company, concerned about possible lawsuits, reexamined hundreds of its labels and found 60% of them dangerously inadequate. All were changed for the better.

In Santa Monica, hundreds of rotting trees were chopped down because of a court ruling on liability for falling branches. These examples illustrate the positive side of an oft-maligned, oft-underrated social institution: the damage suit. As a spur to safety, as a stimulant to the prevention of accidents, the damage suit has an influence that would be hard to exaggerate. True, only a limited number of individuals or companies ever face the ordeal of actually defending themselves in court. But the effect of these cases is enormously multiplied by the legal doctrine of "precedent." According to this doctrine, each case sets a standard of behavior which will apply, in varying degree, whenever a similar situation arises again. Each finding of liability is a warning to one and all that similar conduct in the future may well result in similar liability. Of course, the damage suit (like many valuable medicines) can have unfortunate side effects. A playground director, nervous about the possibility of being sued, removed every swing, slide, and carousel from the premises. Doctors, fearful of malpractice claims, may "play safe" by avoiding the use of new treatments which their professional judgment would approve. But such things do not change the basic virtue of the damage suit: the subtle, steady pressure it exerts toward careful conduct. When a golfer behind you hollers "Fore!", he may be motivated by a sense of etiquette. Or he may be motivated by simple kindness. But he may also be motivated—very powerfully—by visions of winding up at the target end of a lawsuit. A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

ROLLER DRIVES IN--Roger Miller, guard for the Tahoka High basketball team is shown as he drives in for a lay up in the second half of action Tuesday against the Brownfield boys. Tahoka won the game 63-60.

Tahoka residents honored at the affair were: 25 years, William T. Havins; 20 years, Clifton L. Clark; 15 years, James W. Huey; 10 years, Lawrence N. Monk; 5 years, Roy E. Edwards.

The awards were presented by Burton P. Smith, president of Pioneer. Smith also delivered an informal talk at the affair.

In connection with the awards, Smith said, "The year 1970 has been an exciting, active year for Pioneer. This is not because any single person or department has made it so. It is because all of us have worked together to improve our company, our communities and ourselves."

"The officers and directors of Pioneer are extremely proud of our fine employee group. Much of the success our company has had can be attributed to your help and cooperation over the years."

A little work done now can make the fireplace the center of attraction during the Christmas season.

Why not do some log treating or paper log making now for that special occasion? You can have flames that are red, green, blue, orange, or purple depending upon the chemicals used to treat the material to be burned in the fireplace. Calcium chloride can be used to produce orange colored flames, copper chloride - blue, potassium chloride - purple, strontium nitrate - red, lithium chloride - carmine, and copper sulfate - emerald green. Dry pine cones, small blocks or chips of wood can be soaked in solutions of these chemicals to produce the multi-colored flames when burned. Most of the chemicals can be purchased from chemical suppliers or local drugstores.

To treat cones or wood, a plastic pail and onion sack are needed. The cones or chips are placed in the sack and immersed in a solution containing one pound of the desired chemical dissolved thoroughly in one gallon of water. The bag must be weighted down so the material is completely covered by the solution. The cones or wood should soak for at least 10 minutes.

After soaking, the treated material may be placed on newspapers to dry. After an overnight of drying, they will be ready to use in the fireplace. "Logs" can be made of loosely rolled newspapers tied with a heavy twine and soaked in a solution of four pounds of copper sulfate and three pounds of rock salt in a gallon of water. They will require several days to dry out. Once dry, a paper log will burn all evening and produce a rainbow of colors.

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. S.M. Smith does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Smith and nine out of 10 professional cooks agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

RICE WITH QUAIL OR DOVE CASSEROLE
 Mrs. S. M. Smith, 1300 Runnels, Big Spring

- 5 cups cooked rice (as directed on package)
- 4 sticks celery diced
- 4 diced pimentos
- 2 cans mushroom soup (undiluted)
- 1 small onion - grated
- 1 cup grated cheese
- 1 green pepper cut very fine
- 4 or 5 cups cooked quail or dove (cut in cubes)

Place 6 or 7 birds in a baking pan. Cover with water, add 2 sticks of butter, salt, pepper, 1 bay leaf, a sprinkle of rosemary. Cover. Place in oven and bake at 350 degrees for about an hour and a half or until tender. Cool and cube. Place in buttered casserole - rice, quail, pepper, onion, and pimento. Pour two cans of undiluted mushroom soup over mixture. Top with grated cheese. Cook in uncovered dish for about 45 minutes at 300 degrees. Serves 12 people. (chicken or turkey may be used)

They're bound to cause talk.

And not just among the neighbors. This is the kind of conversation people make over phones like these: "Ah, mon cherie je t'aime, je t'adore..." Or maybe: "Tell Schafhausen to call me from Beirut. In three days or the deal's off."
