John Huffaker Award Winner In State Event

John Huffaker, 23, senior student in Texas Tech, was one of four Texas college students receiving an award as an "outstanding student of range management" recently at the annual conference of the Texas Section, American Society of Range Management held in San Angelo December 4.

Other students receiving the award were one each from Texas A&M University, Sul Ross State College, and Southwest Texas State at San Marcos.

The awards were made on the basis of scholarship, performance, and leadership.

John will complete work for his B.S. degree in Wildlife Management at the end of this semester at Tech, and expects to start graduate work next semester.

A 1966 graduate of Tahoka High, John has had an outstanding student at Tech both academically and in student affairs. He has a 3.6 out of a possible 4.0 grade record, and last semester he had a 3.9 grade.

He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, national honor fraternity; Alpha Zeta, national agriculture honor fraternity; and an officer in Saddle Tramps, and a member of the Agriculture Club. He has also worked while attending college.

He is the son of Attorney and Mrs. Calloway Huffaker, and his wife is the former Miss Charlotte Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren.

Tom Caldwell and Richard Christie of the local Soil Conservation office, also attended the meeting in San Angelo when Huffaker was honored.

A national average 1971-crop price-support loan of 19.50 cents per pound, net weight basis, and other features of the new Agricultural Act of 1970 program for upland cotton were announced today by the U.S. Department of Agriculture according to Bertice Askew, Chairman of the Lynn County ASC Committee.

Simultaneously, USDA revoked the upland cotton marketing quota and national acreage allotment proclaimed October 15, 1970, which was required by existing legislation at that time and which would have been in effect for the 1971 crop in the absence of new legislation.

The national average price-support loan rate of 19.50 cents per pound is for middling 1-inch upland cotton (Micronaire 3.5 through 4.9) on a net weight basis, average location. Application of loan rates on a "new weight" basis is a change from the previous method of basing loans on gross weight. The change to net weight loans was announced by USDA on March 27, 1970. If loans were made in 1971 on the basis of bale gross weights, as was the case in 1970 and many earlier years, the 1971 loan rate would be approximately 18.70 cents.

Price-support loans available to program cooperators for different individual qualities will be based on the middling 1-inch rate. A schedule of premiums and discounts for these various qualities will be issued at a later date.

The 1971 loan rate was established under provisions of Agricultural Act of 1970 which provides for a level to reflect for middling 1-inch upland cotton, micronaire 3.5 through 4.9, at average location in the U.S., .90 percent of the estimated average world price for such cotton for the 2-year period ending July 31, 1970.

A preliminary set-aside program payment rate to cooperators has been established by the 1970 Act at 15.00 cents per pound. The final set-aside program payment, together with the national average market price for middling 1-inch cotton, micronaire 3.5 through 4.9 in the designated spot markets during the August - December 1971 period must equal the higher of (1) 35.00 cents, or (2) 65 percent of parity as of the beginning of the marketing year, Aug. 1, 1971. The payment is made on a quantity of upland cotton determined by multiplying the acreage planted within the farm base acreage allotment by the payment yield established for the farm. The farm payment yield is based on the actual yield per harvested acre for the immediately preceding years, adjusted for abnormalities caused by drought, flood or other natural disaster. There are, however, two exceptions: (1) the 1970 farm projected yield must be substituted for farm actual yields for 1968 and 1969, and (2) the farm payment yield for 1971 cannot be less than the 1970 farm projected yield if the total production for the farm in 1970 was at least equal to the 1970 farm projected yield multiplied by the 1970 farm domestic allotment.

The Agricultural Act of 1970 limits cotton payments to any person to $55,000. This limitation does not apply to loans.

Special provision for small farms also is provided. The payment rate will be increased by 30 percent to any producer who (1) is on a farm on which the base acreage allotment is 10 acres or less or with payment production from the farm base allotment of 5,000 pounds or less, (2) resides on such farm, and (3) derives his principal income from cotton produced on such farm. This additional payment will be made on the basis of the producer's share of cotton actually harvested within the allotment on the farm in 1971.

Loans on 1971-crop upland cotton will be available to program cooperators for a term of 10 months from the first day of the month in which the loan is made upon presentation of warehouse receipts reflecting accrued storage charges of not more than 60 days. This will allow producers an extended period during which the loan program may be utilized to promote orderly marketing and price stabilization. In prior years, the loan maturity date was July 31, following the year in which the cotton was produced.

Also announced, as required by the new law, is the national production goal of 11,993,500 bales (standard bales of 480 pounds net weights) and a national base acreage allotment of 11,500,000 acres for the 1971 crop of upland cotton. The national production goal is the sum of the estimated domestic consumption and estimated exports for the 1971-72 marketing year which begins August 1, 1971, plus an allowance of five percent of the estimated domestic consumption and exports for market expansion, plus an adjustment necessary to provide carryover stocks in the United States on July 31, 1972, equal to 50 percent of the average offtake for the 3 preceding marketing years.

The law provides that the national base acreage allotment shall be apportioned to the States on the basis of the acreage planted (including acreage regarded as having been planted) to upland cotton within the farm acreage allotment in the years 1965 through 1969 with adjustments in these acreages as required by law.

The 1971 base acreage allotment for each state will be apportioned among counties and the county allotments among farms according to provisions of the law and regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

To be eligible for loans and payments, cotton producers must set aside and devote to conserving uses an acreage of cropland not to exceed 20 percent of the farm base acreage allotment, plus the conserving base established for the farm. The decision on the actual percentage to be set aside will be made prior to the program sign-up period. Producers may graze the set-aside acres except during the five principal months of the normal growing season. Set-aside acreage must be protected against erosion, weeds, insect damage and rodents. Sweet sorghums may be planted on the set-aside acreage and grazed, except during the five principal months of the growing season.

Unlike previous programs, the farm allotment will not limit the acreage of cotton a participant can plant. A cotton farmer who sets aside the required acreage to conserving uses can plant all of the cotton he wishes without penalty -- and still receive the full payment on the farm base acreage allotment. A producer may participate in the cotton program on any farm or all farms in which he has an interest, as he wishes.

Failure to plant at least 90 percent of the farm's base acreage allotment will result in a reduction in payments. It could also result in a reduction in Tahoka's annual Christmas cantata will be presented this Sunday night at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church auditorium, directed by Bobby Strait, music director of the church.

C. of C. Planning Annual Banquet

Tentative plans for the annual Tahoka Chamber of Commerce banquet in February were made at a meeting of the organization officers and directors Monday night.

Exact date is pending arrangements with an outstanding speaker, states Harold Reynolds, president.

The C. of C. extended special thanks to the Lions Club for sponsoring wreath decorations downtown; for decoration of downtown store buildings by John Wells, Dayton Parker and Farrell Murph; and to Mrs. Frances Chestnutt for her fine bulletin, "We're On the Move", mailed members monthly.

Reports were heard from Garland Thornton on special Christmas projects, Dayton Parker on the airport and new hangar nearing completion and E.L. Short on the Hwy. 380 extension.

Seven door prize Christmas gifts from local merchants were presented as many directors present by Mrs. Chestnutt.

Committee heads for the February banquet named by Mr. Reynolds are: Horace Rogers, food; Dwaine Lusk, program; Mrs. Chestnutt, arrangements.

Christmas Contest Judging Next Week

More homes than ever before in Tahoka are this year decorated for the Christmas season. Citizens are encouraged by the Garden Club, sponsoring of the decorations contest, to drive over town any night to see them.

Possibly more than 100 homes have decorations ranging from the very simple to elaborate displays.

Judging of the displays will be on either Monday or Tuesday night of next week, according to Mrs. H.R. Tankersley, in charge of the contest for the club.

First, second, and third places will be picked by qualified judges for four categories, (1) overall exterior, (2) decorated window, (3) decorated door, and (4) outside tree.

Judging will be on the basis of artistic merit, originality, and lighting.

James Gayden of Marfa has been here several days looking after his farm property at Draw. James and wife moved from California to the Big Bend town last spring.

School Board Hears Report

Board of Education met Thursday evening, December 10, at 7:30 p.m., and heard a report on the Distributive Education Program from Mrs. Billie White, who is coordinator of the new program in Tahoka High School. The program is for high school students who have the desire and aptitude to prepare for careers in the fields of marketing and distribution. Local businesses are cooperating with the school system in providing on-the-job training for 23 11th and 12th grade students.

The Board approved the payment of monthly bills and the purchase of one school bus chassis.

Various reports concerning the operation of the schools were received by the Board.

Board members attending the meeting were: Edward Bartley, president; James Brookshire, vice president; J.T. Miller, secretary; Joe Brooks; Ruben McElroy; and Dan Curry. Also attending, in addition to Mrs. White were Mrs. Peggy Elliott, Director of Business Affairs, and Superintendent Harold Reynolds.

Movie Features Lynn Farming

Lynn County farming is one of four areas of the nation featured in a new 25-minute color movie, "A Matter of Time", produced recently for Mobil Oil Corporation, according to G.H. Chestnutt, local dealer for the company.

Six or eight minutes of the movie are devoted to farming operations being carried out by L. H. (Lit) Moore, Jr., and James Fenton, both of the New Home area. Moore farms northwest of New Home, and Fenton farms the T-Bar ranch lands south of New Home.

The film features modern farming methods and equipment in four different sections of the United States, and the Lynn county operations are one of the four segments of this film. Chestnutt, Moore, and Fenton recently attended, along with South Plains dealers, a special showing of the movie. Some time in the next few weeks the film will be available for showing before local groups.

W.E. (Happy) Smith, 74, one of Lynn County's most prominent citizens who came here in 1903, died Saturday shortly before 9 p.m. at the home of a daughter in Baytown. He had been in ill health several years.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in First United Methodist Church with a former pastor, Dr. H.C. Smith of Abilene and the present pastor, Rev. Hugh Daniel officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of White Funeral Home.

Born in Taylor county on July 11, 1896, Happy came to Lynn County just about the time the county was officially organized in April, 1903. He attended school at T-Bar and Wells, moved to Tahoka in 1905 and attended Tahoka Schools.

After attending Summer Normals and West Texas State, he taught school at Dixie and T-Bar. He served in the Army during World War I, and later was elected county clerk. He was married in June, 1928, here to Miss Joyce Ketter, daughter of another pioneer couple. He served as county judge two terms, 1932-1936. He was also in the soft drink bottling business several years.

He was appointed Tahoka postmaster in 1936 and served 30 years, retiring on Dec. 30, 1965. His wife passed away in March, 1967.

Suffering with emphysema and complications he had spent most of his time since retiring at Circle-S Resort on Buchanan Lake. Saturday night he was sitting in a chair reading a newspaper at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Patsy Casey, when he suddenly slumped over dead.

Mr. Smith was long active in the local Methodist Church, and taught Sunday School classes for many years. He was also active in Masonic work, the Rotary Club, Boy Scout work, and in fact nearly every worthy organization in town.

He was noted for his charity work, aid to the aged, ill and poor, and friends say his good deeds performed were too countless to list. Few local citizens ever had more friends.

Survivors include three daughthe 1972 allotment of as much as 20 percent. If no cotton is planted for three consecutive years, the entire allotment can be lost. All allotments removed from farms will be re-allocated to other cotton farms.

Acreage not planted due to drought, flood, other natural disaster, payment limitations or quarantine imposed on the growing of cotton by federal, State, or local government will be considered as planted to cotton for allotment preservation and payment purposes. Release and reapportionment and sale and lease of allotments are continued under the new program. The December 31 deadline for filing applications for sale and lease of allotments is eliminated so producers will have ample time to complete these transactions.

The same skip-row planting rules which were in effect for the 1970 crop will be applicable to the 1971 crop except that skips of two or more rows will be eligible for designation as set-aside acreage. Under past programs, skips had to be at least four rows wide in order to be eligible for designation as diverted acres. As under past programs, skips of one or more rows will count toward meeting the conserving base requirement for the farm.

Producers who wish to participate in the program must sign up at their local ASCS county office between March 1 and April 9, 1971. ASCS county offices will notify producers of their base acreage allotments, payment yields, conserving bases and set-aside requirements prior to sign-up. Information on sale and lease of allotments and other program provisions can be obtained from local ASCS county offices.

Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Shawn attended funeral services at Bridgeport Thursday for his cousin, Harold Shawn, 61, who passed away Tuesday of last week.

Ray Adams took his son, Jim, and Edward Smith, son of Herb Smith, back to Texas A&M University Wednesday of last week. The two youths were injured in a car wreck near Sweetwater Thanksgiving.

The majority of the world's children have been condemned to life sentences at hard manual labor -- even though they are innocent of any crimes! Why? Lack of educational opportunities locks them into lifelong involuntary servitude. Millions are victims of chronic debilitating diseases and malnutrition caused by poverty and ignorance. But it doesn't have to be that way! The United Nations Children's Fund is busy in the developing countries, helping governments improve and expand educational facilities, to make schooling and vocational training available to more and more children, bringing them new knowledge, new opportunities, new hope. The children in the low-income countries are eager to learn and willing to work hard to improve their lives. They can look forward to a brighter tomorrow, if we help UNICEF to help them.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By Richard L. Christie

All the resources must be considered to make plans for the future. If it is municipal city planning or deciding where to put the "beater" for next year. This has always been a major objective of the Soil Conservation Service. This was the theme of the American Society of Range Management Texas Section held recently at San Angelo. The title was "Multiple Use of Range - All the Resources".

Rangeland and its resources have many uses and they all come down to the word "management".

Wildlife and recreation have grown to be a respected industry by many ranchers and range users these last few years. Recreation is now the third largest industry in the United States. In some places in Texas the recreation income is more than the livestock income on rangeland. It surely people that proved good Range Management improves the available water supply and in two cases caused stream and creeks to run again that had been dry for years. Improved Range Management can improve the available for Texans as proved by these completed projects.

We also heard discussed the Future of Sheep and Goat Industry in Texas. As well as the working of leases and agreement arrangements of the University of Texas Rangelands and their extensive conservation program. Of course the value of rangeland as related to various livestock operations was presented by various experts from around over the country.

At the banquet awards were made to outstanding students of range management. Lynn County should be proud of John Huffaker who received the award from Texas Tech. John is a senior in Range Management and will graduate this semester. He plans to do graduate work. His grade point ratio for last semester was a 3.9 out of a possible 4.0. The Texas Section of ANRM each year makes awards for "Excellence in Grazing Management" and these were made at that time. We at the Soil Conservation Service would like to thank the American Society of Range Management and their members for the work they are doing.

There is recreation potential in Lynn County and being close to a metropolitan center it is readily accessible to people who will be glad to pay for the privilege.

Exams are here once again. You'll be seeing many sleepy-eyed students who have stayed awake all night cramming for the next day's finals.

Enjoy your Christmas holidays. They will be much more enjoyable if you do something for someone else. Isn't that what Christmas is all about?

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. Viola Jordan does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Jordan and nine out of 10 professional cooks agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

CHICKEN CHOW MEIN

Mrs. Viola Jordan, Gray County Courthouse, Pampa

- 5 lb. chicken (I sometimes use a large, fat fryer)
- 1 medium sized onion
- 1 small can mushrooms (chopped)
- 1 small package spaghetti
- 1 no. 2 can tomatoes
- 1/2 cup ripe olives (chopped)
- 3 tbs. Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 button garlic
- 3/4 lb. grated sharp cheese

Cook chicken with one button garlic until tender. Cool and bone chicken. Cook spaghetti in plain water. Saute onions, add tomatoes with a pint (2 cups) of broth. Make a paste of 2 tablespoons of flour and cold water and add to onions and tomato mixture and simmer 30 minutes. Add chicken, mushrooms, olives, spaghetti. Sprinkle grated cheese on top of mixture and bake in a large baking dish for 30 minutes in a hot, gas oven (400 degrees). Serves 10 to 12.

GIVE A VEGA FOR CHRISTMAS. ONE SIZE FITS ALL.

But that's just what you'd expect from the little car that does everything well. A good fit. And our Vega measures up with as much room per passenger as many big cars.

Of course, Vega also excels mightily in all the other departments that little cars are supposed to excel in.

Like economy, ease of handling or nicer than nice interiors.

By now, you can probably guess that we think Vega is the best little car out on the road. Actually it's the best four little cars. Hatchback coupe, sedan, wagon and there's even a little panel truck.

Come in and see Vega. Maybe we won't solve your Christmas shopping dilemma, but let us say this: if you are going to buy a car for the one you love, or even yourself, make sure it's Vega.

And have a Merry Christmas.

happy to have several visitors help us sing and we want them to come again.

Tuesday, we had our first Christmas party and it was a nice one. Everything was so pretty and the refreshments were delicious. We are indeed grateful to the members of the Phebe K. Warner Study Club for this party and we enjoyed the beautiful reading presented by Mrs. Truett Smith. The Christmas music was so pretty and presented by Southern Wells. We have learned to love Southern, she takes time to play for us often and we do appreciate her.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Nettie Edwards played the piano for us. We enjoyed hearing her play "Zacatecus" and the "Mexican Grand March". Mrs. Edwards told us she played this piece of music at the first recital held in the Methodist Church in Tahoka. This was in the year of 1908.

Wednesday, was Mrs. Cunningham's birthday and even tho she didn't feel too good, she had a happy day. Some of her children came in to help her celebrate. She received several nice gifts - one big surprise, a pot of beautiful flowers from a grandson, Kenneth Cunningham of Ill. Then of course, Annetta and Jim Bob never forget to send a beautiful arrangement for every birthday.

You must come visit us and see the many many pretty and good things that has been given us. We are so grateful for it all. The Pythian Sisters placed a vase of poinsettias in each room. Mr. Howard Draper received a beautiful pot of ivy from his daughters and their families, Bobby Petty of Friona and Mrs. Bland Draper and also poinsettias from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warren and son. Mrs. Alice Reed received poinsettias from Mrs. Hollis Hill and too she had a pleasant surprise visit from a nephew, W.J. Dykes of Lubbock and a niece, Mrs. Hall of Amarillo.

Mrs. McCords room is beautifully decorated with flowers from her children - an arrangement of poinsettias from Billie, Helen and sons.

Mrs. W.W. Hagood brightened our lobby with a gorgeous bouquet of poinsettias; the W.M.U. members of First Baptist Church decorated each door and Debbie Shutnecht and Betty Powers, Mrs. Makovey and Margaret Pena decorated the trees; these being donated by Turner Rogers and W.T. Kidwell, they also furnished lights and decorations for the trees. Others donating decorations were Dub Kenley Gro., Tahoka Drug, Parker Drug, Lankford Variety, Borden Davis furnished tree stands and Chancy and Son Service Station gave money that we might use as needed.

We are eating too, as well as enjoying the pretties. Cakes have been brought in by Miss Vergie Cobb, Mrs. Sue Robertson, Dessie Gartman and Mrs. J.E. Nance. The ladies from the Methodist Church at Grassland brought a huge box of mixed fruit; Mrs. Benny White brought strawberry preserves; Mrs. Botkins brought fresh carrots and Jimmy Dulin gave us a sack of potatoes. Yes, it is Christmas and Santa has been already. We are all excited.

Leo was not feeling well Friday so we just entertained ourselves. Here's hoping she will be with us Monday. That high blood pressure gets her down now and then.

We are so sorry that Mrs. Hoskins is not doing well. We miss her.

It isn't too early to begin thinking about planting seed for next year's crops.

The practice of planting the best seed available in most instances means better performance at harvest time. The future of agriculture is not dependent upon good seed alone, their use is one of the main factors in a long list of inputs which can lead to successful crops.

The farmer who plants certified seed knows he is planting the variety of hybrid described on the container label and that it meets certain standards for germination and purity. The adaptability of the variety or hybrid chosen should always received due consideration. Plant breeders are now able to breed plants which are adapted for certain areas and for specific purposes.

Planting the best seed available is good crop insurance. Often there is little difference, on a per acre basis, between the cost of known quality seed and that of unknown quality, but there can be a big and real difference in crop performance at harvest time.

Varieties or hybrids which have not been properly tested and carefully evaluated in an area represent a risk to the planter. I have available information at my office on test and demonstration reports and varieties recommended for this county.

HOOTENANNY IS SATURDAY Christmas will be featured at the monthly Tahoka Hootenanny this Saturday night beginning at 7 p.m. in the Community Center, according to C.W. Roberts.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eleven months of 1970 shows a total of 76 accidents resulting in five persons killed, 42 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $59,131.00.

Traffic wise, the month of December has proven to be the most destructive month to the life of mankind - Death by a Motor Vehicle. In order to help reduce the traffic accidents and make this a happy holiday season, the patrol supervisor lists some safe holiday driving rules:

1. Check your car; be sure it is in safe driving condition.
2. Use seat belts to safeguard your family and yourself.
3. Be alert to road, weather, and traffic hazards.
4. Do not overdrive for the existing conditions.
5. Allow plenty of time for your travel.
6. Make courtesy your code for the road; it pays.

This progressive firm is a real economy to the automobile owner of today because they have everything in the way of used automobile parts, which means a saving to the people of this community and adjoining territory. This economy is made possible because of the large amount of business they transact and because of the fact that you do not have to buy a new part every time something goes wrong. Here, you can buy USED PARTS which means greater saving to you.

They buy wrecked and used cars and disassemble them to get the parts. In many cases, these parts are as good as new and are sold at prices that can not fail to appeal to anyone that uses an automobile.

We are pleased to give this public spirited and progressive concern mention in this Review, and to say that whenever you are in need of a used part for your car, you will find that you will save money if you pay a visit to their place of business. You can be assured of a "SQUARE DEAL" at all times.

PEPSI-COLA METROPOLITAN BOTTLING COMPANY

"J. T. MARTIN - MANAGER"

Pepsi-Cola is the year-round beverage. This may readily be seen by the activity of trucks of this up-to-date, modern bottling plant. They are seen the year around, busily conveying this refreshing drink to the many retail establishments.

Pepsi-Cola is a pure drink of wholesome, natural products complying with pure food laws all over the world. A sterilized machine premixes Pepsi and carbonated water to form an exact distribution. Then the pre-mixed mixture is set in bottles by another machine and passed on to be capped. Nothing you eat or drink is more carefully protected.

The success of the Pepsi-Cola Metropolitan Bottling Company has not been accomplished by bad or luck. The business has been built gradually through many years of effort and hard work.

Many prefer buying Pepsi-cola by the carton. By the carton-by the case-king size or regular... Pepsi-Cola goes hand in hand with good things to eat.

This modern distributing plant is located at 1313 East 19th Street in Lubbock. Phone 763-7031.

The Pepsi-Cola Metropolitan Bottling Company is also bottlers of Mountain Dew, Diet Pepsi, and Patio Flavors.

Highway 380 Designation Will Be Extended Further To East

East-west travelers soon will have a new single route number to follow across North Central Texas.

The U.S. Highway 380 designation will be extended from just west of Old Glory in Stonewall County eastward along State Highway 24 to a connection with Interstate Highway 30 near Greenville in Hunt County.

The new designation provides a new, single east-west US Highway number bypassing the high volume traffic pattern in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

The change had been proposed by the Texas Highway Commission to the Route Numbering Committee of the American Association of State Highway Officials. The AASHO Committee found the proposed change desirable.

The action is contingent on installation of grade crossing protection devices at a highway-railroad crossing in Graham. Once that condition is met, the route will be signed as US 380 from Old Glory, through Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Wise, Denton, Collin and Hunt Counties, to the junction of Loop 315, then over Loop 315 to the intersection of IH 30 near Greenville.

The action provides a single-numbered route from IH 30

Thursday Rites For Mrs. Fudge

Funeral rites for Mrs. Johanna Fredericka Finney Fudge, 90, will be held Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in White Funeral Chapel with Rev. Hugh Daniel, pastor of First United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will follow in Tahoka Cemetery.

Mrs. Fudge died about 4:45 a.m. Tuesday in Colonial Nursing Home here, where she had been a patient the past four years. She had lived here since 1960 with her son, C. Edmund Finney, local photographer. She was a life-long member of the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Fudge was born March 4, 1880, in New Haven, Mo. As a child, she went by wagon train with her parents to Prescott, Arizona. Her father was an engineer for Saginaw-Manabee Lumber Co., a firm still operating, at Prescott and later at Williams, Ariz., where she finished her schooling.

She once told about times when she and her mother stood off the Walapi Indians when they later came down the mountains on forays.

At age 17, she married Frank W. Finney, and they settled in California. About 1925 she married Mr. Fudge, who passed away in 1955. She continued to live in California until moving here in 1960.

Survivors include two sons, C. Edmund Finney of Tahoka and Harold W. Finney of Seal Beach, Calif.; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Another son, Frank Finney, died a few months ago.

westward to IH 25 near San Antonio, N.M.

Meanwhile, the Texas Highway Commission will extend the designation of State Highway 6 from Eastland westward over IH 20-IS 80 to Cisco, then north-westward over the former route of US 380 to Old Glory.

The action adds significant mileage to a "plains to port" route under the SH 6 designation. SH 6 will now extend from Old Glory, through Stamford, Albany and Cisco, joining the presently signed SH 6 route through Waco, Bryan-College Station, the greater Houston area, ending in Galveston County near Texas City.

The action to extend SH 6 will cancel the designation on a section of highway extending northward from Eastland through Morton Valley to an intersection with US 183 in Eastland County. This section will be designated as State Highway 69.

The dual designation at US 383 and SH 6 from the intersection in Eastland County to Breckenridge also will be made a single designation with the cancellation of SH 6. --Brownfield News.

Who Is The Drug Abuser ?

The drug abuser is hard to understand or explain, because no single cause or set of conditions clearly leads to drug dependence.

Drug abusers are physicians who recklessly prescribe amphetamines and tranquilizers rather than helping individuals learn to cope adequately with normal anxiety, frustration, depression, and fatigue. Drug abusers are pharmaceutical companies who advertise their products to deal with "the every day problems of anxiety and tension."

Drug abusers are housewives who use amphetamines to give them the energy to complete everyday chores or allegedly to cut appetite and enable them to lose weight. Drug abusers are housewives and workers who live on tranquilizers and sleeping pills. Drug abusers are parents who give tranquilizers and diet pills to their children without a physician's prescription.

Drug abusers are truck drivers who take amphetamines for long runs; they are workers who use amphetamines to stay awake for night shifts or a second job. Drug abusers are students who use amphetamines to stay awake for studying.

Drug abusers are businessmen who must have a martini with lunch; they are fathers who drink immediately upon returning home from the day's routine. Drug abusers are the "hidden alcoholic" - the housewives who drink several times each day.

Drug abusers are persons who smoke one or more packs of cigarettes per day. They are persons who drink 10 to 16 cups of coffee or endlessly consume cola drinks each day. Drug abusers are persons who take 20 to 40 aspirin tablets daily strictly for a mood effect.

"The sufferer is tremulous and loses his self-command; he is subject to fits of agitation and depression. He has a haggard appearance...as with other such agents, a renewed dose...gives temporary relief, but at the cost of future misery."

This description of the effects of a drug (coffee) was written at the beginning of this century by a professor at Cambridge University, the most distinguished pharmacologist of the time, in a standard medical textbook. In any analysis of the use of drugs, because of the intense passions aroused, it is useful to keep close to the forefront of one's attention the radical change in attitude towards this now-common beverage that the most informed medical opinion has undergone in the past 50 years. Hopefully, it will provide a perspective that will enable us to be more thoughtful and less emotional in our own consideration of these substances.

O'Donnell Boys On 5-A Team

Six O'Donnell Eagles were voted members of the 1970 5-A mythical All-District Football team, announced last week-end, and five others received honorable mention.

Making the offensive team were Rex Childress, 155-pound junior running back; Billy Wood, 155-pound senior end; and David McLaurin, 180-pound junior tackle.

On the defensive team were: Barry Clayton, 175-pound lineman; Kenneth Williams, 160-pound junior end; and Louie Amaro, 125-pound senior back. Honorable mention was given Jerry Franklin, John Conrad, Mark Porter, and Steve Vestal, all seniors, and Mike Rodriguez, a sophomore.

Cooper placed seven men on the all-district team, Seagraves five, Plains four, and Winktwo. O'Donnell Coach Sam Mayo was named outstanding Class A coach of the year by the Avalanche-Journal recently, and Barry Clayton was named to the All-South Plains Class A team.

1970 was O'Donnell's most successful football season in many years, the Eagles winning six and dropping four games.

Father Dillon Dies Suddenly

Rev. John J. Dillon, 56, pastor of St. Jude Catholic Church here and St. Pius X Church in O'Donnell, was found dead in his bed at O'Donnell Tuesday, apparently from a heart attack. Rosary was held at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, followed by funeral mass Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. in the local church with Bishop Lawrence DeFalco the chief celebrant.

White Funeral Home shipped the body by air express Wednesday afternoon for burial. When Dillon failed to show up by about noon at the Tahoka Catholic school, others workers there went to O'Donnell to investigate and found him dead. Dr. Emil Prohl said he had been dead at least 10 hours.

Rearred in Chicago, Father Dillon was ordained in 1940, and came to Tahoka-O'Donnell in 1966. He had been an activist in Mexican-American affairs, concerned with education, was executive director of Lynn County Development Corporation, and headed the local pre-school program at the local Catholic Church. He is said to have done a lot of good among the Spanish people of this area. Survivors are said to include his mother and step-brothers and sisters in Chicago.

Townsen Tells More Of Trip

While we were at Dwight's we visited the apple country in Washington. Leaving Pendleton going northeast one does not cross the Columbia River, for it makes a great bend to the north. Up close to Walla-Walla, is great apple country. Here the orchards are irrigated, many thousand acres of apples, also prunes. They are delicious, right off the trees.

Up river from Portland is the great Bonneville Dam. There is another at the Dales, another just completed, then McNairy Dam, makes four large dams in a distance of 200 miles. After the river makes the great bend to the north, the Snake River enters the Columbia. Some 200 miles up river from McNairy Dam is the great Grand Coulee Dam. At Grand Coulee they are clearing land for irrigation, eventually will irrigate over 500,000 acres of land.

At the just finished dam below, McNairy forms a really great lake, on the south of this lake and up to the highway to the east is a vast region of almost level prairie land, that is under lease to a large airplane manufacturing company. Over 100,000 acres of testing ground for rockets and airplanes. This lease was made during the or about the end of war. This company is making arrangements to irrigate some 15,000 acres of land that lies close to this lake. From reading the papers and what Dwight told me, there is little hope for Texas to ever get any of the Columbia water. Both states, Oregon and Washington, are making every effort to use the Columbia water for their own use. There is little chance of Texas or any other state ever getting water from the Columbia river.

The great northwest country so far as clean air and environment. Their rivers and lakes are for the most clear and blue water. In all the years I have seen the Columbia, I have only one time seen the water dingy, or slightly muddy. It takes a man to make a mess out of the environment and ruin the streams of water. Now it will take years, and a lot of money, and many men to undo what has been done to our country in the South. But it will be worth the effort to clean up.

One man from Lynn County, we know, Bill Carroll, lives in Hood River, Oregon, a town on the Columbia, at the mouth of the river. This river is the main stream that drains the eastern Mt. Hood region and the Three Sister's Mountains. In the valleys of Hood River is great apple country too.

Bill bought an orchard there that is irrigated. The town of Hood River is headquarters for apples raised there, very large grading and packing plants. --By N.O. Townsen

Past Days In Lynn County

Copied From Dec. 11, 1936
Tahoka's new grade school building has been completed and plans made for dedication Monday night in the beautiful new gymnasium - auditorium with Supt. W. G. Barrett in charge of the program.

Built of beautiful white brick, the new structure faces south with a frontage of 265 feet, width of the main building is 64 feet. The auditorium is 79 feet wide and extends back north of the main building a distance of 84 feet, its total length being 105 feet.

The building was constructed at a cost of $85,071. Of this amount the Federal Government acting through the Public Works Administration furnished $32,782, and the Tahoka School District $46,789.

The school board which had the building constructed consists of Alvin Hicks, president, Dr. L.E. Turrentine, W.L. Burlison, F.M. Billman, J.S. McCaughan, Sam Holland, and Belton Howell. Carl Griffing is the efficient secretary.

Another one of Lynn County's prominent citizens passed away Sunday night, J.H. Cobb, 78, living seven miles north of Tahoka.

Born in Tennessee March 14, 1858, he came with his father's family to Fannin County, Texas, about 1866, married Laura Lee Brown in Montague county Dec. 7, 1884, moved to Indian Territory in 1901, then to Wellington, Texas in 1913, and finally to Lynn county in 1921.

He is survived by his wife and six children, Guton Cobb, Mrs. Mae Aycox, Mrs. Sue Robertson and Miss Virgie Cobb, all of Tahoka and Mrs. Jewell Hamilton and Mrs. Jimmie McAttee of Henryetta, Okla.

High School honor roll: Lois Montgomery, Edith Robertson, Mary M. Tunnell, Max Minor, Jo Alice Brooks, Bryan Wright, Majorie Lawrence, Neil Walker, Lottie Jo Townes, Charles Gaignat, J.W. Alexander.

Grocery ads. had sugar at 49c for 10 pounds; grapefruit, 29c dozen; bananas, 19c dozen; choice forecut roast 15c pound; steak 15c pound; ribbon cane syrup, 55c gallon.

Clothing stores advertised men's suits for $15.00; dress shoes, $4.95; overalls, 90c; leather jackets, $6.95 to $9.85; top coats, $17.50.

The rush of tractor sales is still on. All the dealers here say that they are selling tractors faster than they can procure them from the factories. They have already sold and delivered literally hundreds of tractors here the past few months, and many orders are waiting to be filled as soon as possible. If farming can be done with them profitably and successfully anywhere, it is here on these level plains, where the growing season is comparatively short, the rainfall a little scant, and quick work often imperative.

The editor was the recipient Wednesday of a substantial and much appreciated gift from Grassland Home Demonstration Club of one nice young Rhode Island Red chicken, two cans of beans, one can of squash, and a number of extra fine large turnips.
