Judge Smith To Be Honored

Local and area citizens will honor Truett Smith, retiring District Judge and wife, Lucille, here tonight, Thursday, at 7 p.m. in the Community Center with a reception and program.

There will be some short talks and refreshments will be served. All friends of the area are invited.

The 65-year-old Judge Smith retired on January 1 after 12 years on the bench of 106th Judicial District. His successor is George Hansard of Lamesa, former district attorney.

District Attorney is Vernon Adcock of Lamesa, appointed to the office last February. Mr. Adcock and Smith took the bar examination together back in 1931.

Travis Graham of Tahoka, who has been court reporter under Smith will continue in the same position under Judge Hansard.

Born in Jones county, Truett Smith came to Lynn County at two years of age when his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Smith, settled at New Home.

He attended school at New Home, Wayland College, and Texas Tech, and while still a student at Tech ran for and was elected county clerk of Lynn county. Meanwhile he was studying law and on passing the bar examination, he ran for and was elected county attorney.

After two terms as county attorney he was elected district attorney and served two terms in this office.

He engaged in private practice of law here for 19 years, then was elected district judge and he has served 12 years in this office. At present the 106th district is comprised of Lynn, Garza, Dawson, andaines counties, but until a few years ago, Terry and Yoakum counties were also in his district.

In December 1967 he was hit by an automobile and both legs broken in the accident. For nearly a year area attorneys filled his place on the bench until he could return to work.

Smith has long been active in area and state legal circles. He has served as president of both the old Kiwanis Club and the Rotary Club, president of the Tahoka School Board, and has been active in First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Smith has also been very active in her church and in civic affairs.

The Smiths have two children, Arla, 11, and Greg, 9.

Their daughter Carol is the wife of Charles Headrick, assistant district attorney at Stillwater, Okla. They have one child, Mathew, a little over a year old.

Judge and Mrs. Smith expect to go to Florida soon to spend several weeks near their son and family.

Garland Thornton, Clint Walker, Dr. David Midkiff, Calloway Huffaker, H.B. McCord, Jr. and Binie White.

Holdover directors are: Johnny Wells, Dr. Emil Prohl, Bob Haney, Frank Hill, V.F. Jones, Dayton Parker, Johnny Valentine, Ronnie Nettles and Edward Bartley.

Outgoing directors are E.L. Short, Ronald Roberts, Guy Witt, Harold Green, George McCracken, Farrell Murph, Lusk and Reynolds.

J.M. Small is the executive director.

Also, at the banquet Social Conservation awards will be presented.

Tickets for the Banquet are $3.00 each, and may be obtained at the C. of C. office, First National Bank, or from any of the directors, Harold, Roberts, Dayton Parker, and Ronnie Nettles are members of the ticket sales committee.

George Mahon To Speak At Annual Farmer-Businessman Banquet

Congressman George H. Mahon will be the speaker at the annual Farmer-Businessman banquet of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce Friday, Feb. 5, at 7:30 p.m. in Tahoka school cafeteria.

Mr. Mahon is regarded as one of the most powerful men and influential men in Congress, and has represented the 19th Congressional District since the mid-1930's.

Preliminary plans for the banquet were completed at the regular monthly meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors Monday night.

New C. of C. officers will be installed at the banquet. Dwain Lusk, Production Credit office manager here, will take over as president, succeeding Harold Reynolds, who is the current president.

New directors recently elected by mail ballot of members are: Harold Roberts, Turner Rogers, J.D. Atwell, Leighton Knox, seriously and his talent has received wide acclaim in a short period.

Craig's subjects range from modern day Plains cowboys in action to Central Texas bluebonnet scenes. But pictures drawing most attention, he says, probably are effects he has captured in simple West Texas ranch and farm scenes.

Twenty-five of his oil paintings will be displayed at the one-man show.

Bill Craig Will Have Art Show

Original oil paintings by Bill Craig will be on display here Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 23 and 24, all day Saturday and 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday in the meeting room of Lyntegar Electric Co-operative building.

Born and reared here, Craig started painting at age six, when his first picture was hung in the Garza County Courthouse. Two or three years ago, he began pursuing his hobby more

LARGE CROWD AT HOSPITAL OPENING-Shown above is a portion of the estimated 1,000 people that attend the formal opening and dedication at the new Lynn County Hospital held last Sunday. The hospital opened for operation, Monday, January 11.

Large Attendance At Farm Meeting

At least 225 Lynn county farmers attended the meeting Monday night on the new farm program held in the District Court room here.

Provisions now available on the new program affecting cotton, feed grain, and wheat were explained by Gerald P. Guy, office manager of the local ASCS office and his assistant Delbert Mouser.

Naturally, major interest was the features dealing with cotton, but Mr. Guy also explained the REAP (Rural Environmental Assistance Program) which is replacing the old ACP (Agricultural Conservation Program). He said there are hopes these practices will be about the same as under ACP.

The meeting was opened for a question and answer period, and various questions were raised by individuals.

Most farmers seem fairly well satisfied that the new 1970 Agricultural Act as passed by Congress for years 1971, 1972 and 1973 are about as good as could be expected.

Although in effect cutting the cotton acreage for price compliance, the new program will permit planting much more cotton if the farmer desires that will not be subject to price support.

Farmers were also advised of means whereby they can preserve their feed grain allotments and the danger of reduc-

O'Donnell Young Farmers Meet

The O'Donnell Young Farmers met January 4. The program was the 1971 Farm Program presented by Eddie Brown, office manager of the ASC office in Lamesa.

Ten members and one guest attended. Final plans for the State Convention to be held in Fort Worth January 15 and 16 were made. The O'Donnell Young Farmers are competing for State Honors.

TANE Speaker At Baptist Church Sunday, Jan. 17

Subjects of many sermons Sunday will be alcohol abuse and drug abuse. Speakers from Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE) will occupy the pulpit in the First Baptist Church, Tahoka, Sunday, January 17, 1971. Rev. Jimmy A. Turner is the pastor.

"Problems of alcohol and drug abuse are growing daily. It is going to be up to the people who care, to do something about these problems," said Rev. Albert F. Tucker, TANE Executive Director. "We find who care in Texas' churches," he said.

TANE's purpose is to prevent, through education, problems that arise from use of alcohol, narcotics, and other dangerous drugs.

"We do not speak in local churches with the idea of reaching drunks and dope addicts, but to report to the people on the problems and what is being done about them," Rev. Tucker said.

A non-profit, educational organization, TANE has been in existence since 1935. Programs include the speakers bureaus, made up of more than 150 men; public school assembly programs; publishing; production of audio visual aids; legislative information service; research; a free film lending library; an annual school on alcohol and

Increase In Farm Income

A program to increase Texas agricultural income by more than a billion dollars by 1976 was announced by Dr. John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, in January of 1970.

This goal calls for $3.76 billion in total cash receipts by the end of the 1975 crop year, not including government payments; and was determined from projections by Extension specialists and individuals in the agricultural industry. A committee of agricultural economists with the Extension Service studied past production records and made projections for 1976 based on current trends and expected improvements in technology and marketing.

Projections on an individual county basis were made by program building committees, made up of businessmen and producers. The expectations were then organized along county, Extension district and economic area lines to give producers across the state "something to shoot for."

In addition, annual goals were determined for the various aggricultural commodity groups to allow a yearly measure of the program's success.

Texas presently accounts for about five percent of the total national agricultural cash receipts. But to achieve the goal of "3.76 in '76", the state must claim almost ten percent of the projected national increase in the coming years.

Extension specialists and county agricultural agents are scheduling meetings with producers throughout the state to help them with new advancements in technology and marketing in their particular areas.

Abbe Speaks At Rotary Club

Changes and new features of Income Tax provisions and the growing demand for more and more state and federal taxes were discussed by Robert Abbe, local accountant, in a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday.

Dr. K.R. Durham is in charge of the program, and George McCracken presided in the absence of V.F. Jones.

The District Governor's report for November revealed that Tahoka club was back near the top in attendance. Tahoka was fifth among all clubs of Northwest Texas and third among those in the 40-59 member class.

Local Doctors Will Remain At Clinic

Drs. Skiles Thomas and Emil Prohl will use the Lynn County Hospital, but will remain at their present offices, at the Tahoka Clinic.

If you need a doctor after office hours or on week-ends, go to the emergency door at the Lynn County Hospital.

On last Tuesday night two miles from Pride in a stalk field, a son of John Kline had a steel trap, No. 3, set in the field about 600 yards from the residence and the next morning found a Mexican Cougar caught in it and he had wound the chain around some stalks and had himself staked out. Mr. Kline sent to the house for the gun and killed him. He measured 35 inches high and 72 inches long from tip of nose to tip of tail. His tusks measured 1 1/2 inches long. Tahoka was in darkness for a short while Wednesday evening just after dark, owing to some trouble at the power house. The prayer meeting services at the local churches had to be dispensed with. The old kerosene lamp was again brought into use, reminding one of a small country village. Tahoka certainly could not get along without electricity as was done in years gone by. Verily we will soon be a city of paved streets along with our splendid electric light and power system.

The superintendent of City Light & Power, W. S. Anglin, states that the present plant is taxed to capacity to pull the present load, and that another unit will have to be added to take care of the increasing business as the city grows.

Linda Huffaker, CHD Agent, Says.....

Establishing good food patterns during adolescence is tremendously important for health and well-being of both boys and girls.

During the years of rapid growth when the body has great need for all nutrients, the adolescent may consume large quantities of foods yet be lacking in such nutrients as calcium, vitamin A, vitamin C, thiamine, riboflavin and iron. This deficiency in nutrients results when food choices are heavily loaded with cookies, cakes, doughnuts and sodas.

Snack foods that furnish some of the body needs include milk, milk drinks, fruit juices and crisp, raw vegetables.

The weight-conscious teenager may include skim milk at snack time. One eight-ounce cup of non-fat skim milk has 81 calories and supplies the body with calcium, thiamine and riboflavin. Eight ounces of pop give 106 calories -- period.

Cheese, meat and peanut butter sandwiches are high in food value plus have fewer calories than cakes and pies. Carrot sticks, raw tomatoes and oranges are also good snack foods. Carrot sticks furnish vitamin A, and tomatoes and oranges furnish vitamin C.

Bill Griffin,
County Agent,
Says.....

The soil is a good starting point for improving farm income in 1971. A complete soil survey is suggested. It should include a close study of the acres farmed as well as the acres to be grazed.

A logical first step is a soil testing program. The findings from the soil testing laboratory will give needed information on the amounts and kinds of plant food required to get top production from both crops and grazing lands.

Soil samples submitted should be representative of the field or pasture. The results of the laboratory analysis will be no more accurate nor representative than the soil sample submitted for testing.

Agricultural producers, home find that soil testing can help solve many of their soil fertility problems. Any person interested in soil testing may contact my office for instructions on how to take soil samples; how to prepare them for mailing and the cartons needed for mailing.

There is no time like the present for taking and submitting soil samples for testing.

Pecan Crop

Cotton production, in recent years, has moved from the East to the West. Ranching, once a symbol of the Old West, is moving to the grasslands of the East.

A similarly important agriculture move, almost unnoticed, is the production of pecans from East Texas to West Texas.

Catfish In Cages It's Possible

Catfish in cages? Doesn't sound very realistic, but to the people in the catfish farming industry it could mean an easier method of production with increased profit.

Services Held

Services for Mrs. Vernon Teinert, 42, were held at 3 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 10, in St. Paul's Lutheran Church with the Rev. Arthur Preisinger of Lubbock officiating. Burial was in Green Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. Teinert died Thursday in a Victoria hospital following an apparent stroke. She lived in Wilson until 1961, when she moved to Victoria.

Preceding Mrs. Teinert in death were her brother, Milton Wied, who died in July, 1970, and her father, B.G. Wied, who died in 1904.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Donna and two sons, Steven and Rhon, all of the home; her mother, Mrs. B.G. Wied and a brother, Cecil Wied, both of Wilson; and two sisters, Mrs. John Melde of Bishop and Mrs. R.E. Behrend of Wilson.

Pallbearers were Melvin Wuensche, Hubert Cook, Julius Langenburg, Norris Behrend, Bobby Wied and Keith Wied.

Cotton's Self-Help Program
Producing, Alford Believes

"We have something here that we can be proud of, and I'm sure it will help us sell cotton," said Howard Alford of Lubbock after a recent visit to the new Research and Technical Services headquarters of Cotton Producers Institute (CPI) in Raleigh, N.C.

Alford, a member of executive committee of Cotton Producers Institute, was attending a briefing on future plans and directions of cotton's self-help program of research and promotion.

Staff members from New York and Raleigh reviewed budget plans and progress of the dollar - a - bale program for the directors. "I am certainly pleased with the progress the staff has made in initiating the new approach to selling more cotton," said Alford.

"They seem to have caught the sense of urgency and have produced excellent promotion plans, coupled with the necessary research to improve the markets for cotton."

One example of the new "look" for cotton promotion is the act of offering technical services to the mills. In one project, CPI is helping evaluate yarns for one of cotton's largest customers. And a textile machinery company had problems trying to run cotton on one of its new machines until CPI personnel solved their problem with a new yarn produced through another CPI research project.

"As soon as the technical service staff is complete, we plan to have a much closer relationship with the mills," said Alford.

Through the use of cotton in different applications the new offices in Raleigh point out the varied uses for cotton in both industrial and home furnishings.

Agriculture Department has published a 109-page booklet on air pollution that poses frightening questions for rural Africa if future industrialization goes unchecked.

The publication is a review of studies on the effects of air pollutants on domestic animals, including farm livestock.

The major limiting factors may be categorized into waste disposal, nutrition, and parasites and diseases. Waste products of carbon dioxide, ammonia, urea, and feces build up rapidly and must be removed before reaching concentrations that harm the fish, warn the specialists.

To remove these concentrations and insure optimum water quality, water from the surrounding environment is used to replace or dilute the water in the cage. The water exchange is based primarily on wind-induced currents or currents that the fish themselves create. The problem of nutrition cannot be solved by just purchasing a "catfish feed". A nutritionally complete feed is required for use in cages. The most desirable is a floating, pelleted feed which is relatively adequate for trout. This feed is available to the fish with no feed loss inside the feeding rings in tops of the fish cages.

As the density of the fish in the cages increases, the probability of parasite-disease problems also increases. Most bacterial diseases, including Aeromonas and cotton-mouth (columnaris) disease, may be treated with a pre-treated feed. External parasites are easily treated by enclosing the cage other limiting factors can ruin an operation in a matter of a few hours or days. On the other hand, a high profit potential awaits anyone with a good quality water source and the time and initiative that is required to raise channel catfish in cages, believes Schmittou.

A very thorough knowledge and understanding of the principles for cage culture are essential for optimum production, says Schmittou. Such things as water pH and a change in temperature as well as the

Texas Hog And Pig
Number Up 48 Percent

Texas hog and pigs of all ages on farms on December totaled 1,419,000 head, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is an increase of 48 percent from the 959,000 head on farms a year earlier.

Of the December 1 inventory, 16.0 percent or 227,000 head were reported as being kept for breeding hogs and the remaining 84.0 percent were market hogs.

The June-November 1970 pig crop of 1,118,000 head was 43 percent more than the 1969 crop of 784,000 head.

The June - November 1970 crop combined with the December 1969 - May 1970 crop makes a Texas state total pig crop of 1,987,000 head, 33 percent more than the 1969 total pig crop.

Reports based on farmers' intentions indicate that during the December 1970 - May 1971 period, 163,000 sows will farrow - 37 percent above a year earlier.

Hogs and pigs on farms in the United States on December 1 were estimated at 67.5 million head - 19 percent more than a year earlier. Hogs and pigs kept for breeding are estimated at 9.4 million, an increase of 5 percent. Market hogs and pigs at 58.1 million are up 22 percent.

The June-November 1970 pig crop is estimated at 45.7 million head, 18 percent above a year earlier. A total of 6.9 million sows farrowed in this period, 21 percent more than a year earlier.

The December 1969 - May 1970 pig crop is estimated at 52.6 million head, up 12 percent from a year earlier. The total 1970 pig crop (December 1969 - November 1970) is 102.3 million, 15 percent above a year earlier.

Hog producers intend to farrow 7.2 million sows from December 1970 - May 1971, 1 percent more than a year earlier. If these intentions are realized and pigs per litter are average, allowing for trend, the pig crop for the period will be 53.1 million head, 1 percent more than a year earlier.

Lost at the Laundry

Katherine went to the neighborhood laundry to pick up her week's wash. But the proprietor greeted her with bad news.

"We had a burglary last night," he said, "and your bundles were stolen. I'm afraid you are just out of luck."

But Katherine decided that he, not she, ought to bear the loss. Filing suit for damages, she pointed out that the back door of the laundry had only the flimsiest kind of a lock, even though the building had been burglarized before. The court found the proprietor guilty of negligence, and ordered him to pay Katherine's claim.

When you leave clothing at either a laundry or a dry cleaner, you are creating what the law calls a "bailment." The company, as the bailee, must take reasonable care of your belongings. Although not to blame for an unavoidable loss, it is liable for a loss it could fairly have prevented.

Suppose the company tries to protect itself by a notice saying it is not responsible for losses of any kind. Does that make a difference?

Most courts will recognize some limitation, but not a total denial, of the company's liability. Furthermore, a notice has no legal effect unless it is properly brought to public attention.

In one case a laundry inserted into each finished bundle a small printed notice, placing a dollar limit on its liability for losses. But when a customer demanded payment for some missing items, the company was held liable in full. The judge said the dollar limit could not be part of the bailment contract, because it was not even mentioned when the clothing was first brought in.

On the other hand, the company too is entitled to "notice" of what it is accepting responsibility for. In another case, a man negligently left a ring in the pocket of a suit he sent to the cleaner. The ring vanished, and he put in a claim against the company for compensation.

But after a court hearing, his claim was turned down. The court said he could not blame the company for losing what it did not even know it had.

NURSING HOME NEWS

We shut-ins have not done too much this week except try to keep warm. We were warm until we heard some one say "it's 4 below" and we began putting on more wraps. Guess Mr. Glass turned the heat up because we were just as comfortable as could be.

Members of The Assembly of God brought our worship services Sunday.

Mrs. Hammonds plied the piano for us Monday afternoon and we sang hymns. Janie Mae Milton helped us sing. We are always happy to have friends and relatives help us sing with you we can't sing. So come in and join us.

Tuesday, we played forty-two and visited ones that can't come out of their rooms. Then Wednesday, we entertained ourselves. Mrs. Webb was unable to come in so we are looking for she and Gladys Brock next Thursday afternoon.

Well, when we saw Leo's name on the board, we wondered what she had done. After inquiring we learned it wasn't had at all. In fact she had been selected employee of the month. We recalled when you got your name on "the board" you had done something wrong.

We thought it sweet of Margaret Gutierrez to keep Lorenzo Aquirres' children in her home for a few days that they might visit him at the nursing home.

The W.M.U. donated food and money for these children's care while here. Their home is "Children's Home" at Monahans, Texas.

We would all like to extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dwan Glass on the arrival of their new son, born at 8:57 a.m. Saturday in Methodist Hospital.

We are sorry to hear of Henry Stewart's illness. We will miss seeing him. His mother has been in our home seven years and he came often to see us. We wish him a speedy recovery.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Valentine: Happy New Year to all Lynn Co.

Would you please send my Lynn County News to my new address.

I've just moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado. I am branch manager for Sarah Coventry Fashion Jewelry. This is a real new adventure, and I hope a profitable one for me. I had Mary Ellen's Beauty Shop at New Home, Texas for 18 years. I will never forget all my nice customers, or the girls who have worked for me through all those years. Thanks to each of you a million times.

I know I will miss all my family and friends there. So come to see me.

This is a very beautiful city. Just now about snow covered. They've had their first real snow this winter.

I am at Rustic Hills Park Apartments, on a hill just off academy Blvd. About 1200 people live in these apts. Big shopping centers on each side of me to the north and west. My apt. is upstairs. Looking out my west window across the city to Pikes Peak area is something to see. I am above the city.

To my "golfer" friends, I've already found one of the most beautiful golf courses, even now. Know it will be a "golfer paradise" come summer time. This is a municipal course. "Peggy Jewett", all the others are private clubs, so says the city map. My manager is a policeman. So, therefore, I'll try to be good.

Proclamation "3.76 in '76 Week"

Whereas, the Texas agricultural industry in all of its phases, continues to be our most important industry, and

Whereas, agriculture continues to have great growth potential in our State with the rewards from such growth accruing to the benefit of all Texans, and

Whereas, there is an urgent need for an active crusade to increase the public's knowledge, acceptance, and appreciation for the highly significant contribution which agriculture makes to the economy of our state and to the level of living enjoyed by its citizens, and

Whereas, it is recognized that all citizens of this great State have a vital stake and a legitimate self-interest in the general well-being of the farmers and ranchers who provide the great abundance and variety of food and fiber of highest quality which we all enjoy, and

Whereas, "3.76 in '76" is a well-conceived program designed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, with the endorsement and support of agricultural agencies, organizations, and individual leaders, to help the agricultural industry achieve its full potential through an intensification of efforts by producers, agribusinesses, and professional agriculturists to bring about an increase in income to farmers and ranchers of $1 billion by the end of the crop year 1976, and

Whereas, "3.76 in '76" will narrow the gap between knowledge and practice through the coordinated application of improved production and marketing practices that have been proven to be sound and profitable, and

Whereas, the achievement of an increase of $1 billion in agricultural income will improve the net profit and competitive position of Texas farmers and ranchers and make highly significant contributions to the future economy of the State,

Now Therefore, I, Preston E. Smith, Governor of the State of Texas, do proclaim the week of January 25-29, 1971 as "3.76 in '76 Week" in Texas and call upon all citizens to join in this observance and to dedicate their efforts to the achievement of its stated objectives.

Dated this 21st day of December A.D. 1970

Signed Preston Smith Governor of Texas

Servicemen's Club Receives Letter

Editor's note..The following letter was received by the Lynn County Servicemen's Club.

Dear Everyone,
I want to thank you very much for the nice box of "goodies" you sent and more especially for the thought behind it.

When the papers, radio and TV are full of news about anti-this and anti-that and the newsmen are condemning every move we make, it's really nice for someone to let you know that they just care a little bit. It doesn't have to mean approval or support of anyone's policies - just the fact that you care.

I, for one, am most appreciative of the thoughts, time and effort by everyone.

Valliant New Research Director At Foundation

Jim Valliant, scientist at the High Plains Research Foundation for more than ten years, became director of research for the organization at Halfway on January 1.

The new position was created at a recent meeting of the Foundation executive committee. As director of research, Valliant becomes second in command to Dr. Tom Longnecker, executive vice president and Foundation director. Since joining the Foundation in June of 1959, Valliant has become a leader in artificial ground water recharge studies. Papers on artificial recharge prepared by Valliant have been presented at many scientific conferences throughout the nation. The latest one was presented December 9 at the American Society of Agricultural Engineers meeting in Chicago.

In 1970, the High Plains Research Foundation was state winner as the "Outstanding Water Conservation Group in Texas" at the Texas Conservation Awards Program. Valliant has directed soil and water studies at the Foundation since 1961.

His new responsibilities at the Foundation will be to coordinate Foundation research and operational activities and assist farmers and agricultural leaders in matters pertaining to irrigation, soil and water conservation and fertilizer practices.

He also will continue his programs of study on artificial recharge, irrigation and other soil and water management studies that provide the basis for many of the cultural practices in use on the High Plains.

Basic Wheat Provisions Retained

The basic provisions for proven wheat yields are being continued under the Agricultural Act of 1970.

James D. Breittling, executive director of the Potter County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, said wheat producers may elect to establish a yield for their farm based on actual production rather than use of a yield established by the county committee on a judgment basis only.

"The base period for establishing 1971 farm yields is 1967, 1968, and 1969. To prove a yield," he said, "the producer must have harvested wheat acreage in each of these three years and be able to provide reliable proof of production on harvested acres."

This 1600 square foot, all GAS, Blue Flame home is Falcon Construction Company's interpretation of what the modern, comfortable home of today should be. It's an interpretation everyone will understand and applaud.

Three bedrooms, two baths, well-designed kitchen-dining area, large den-living room, extra big utility room, and a finished, two-car garage all prove that this home was designed for some real living.

The exterior is beige brick with sand tone trim. Inside, we find an entry with gray slate floor and stained paneled birch walls. You'll be impressed with the four-foot wall with turned posts separating entry from the dining area to the left. Straight back is the den-living room. It's carpeted in an attractive gold and has paneled walls stained "Salem maple." This room will be the hub of activity because of its warmth and friendliness. It opens directly onto the patio, a convenient feature, especially in warm weather.

All three bedrooms are carpeted in gold with the master bedroom boasting its own walk-in closet. Both baths are tiled with attractive gold-flecked tile.

With all its wonderful features, the room "most likely to succeed" is bound to be the well-planned, U-shaped kitchen. Paneled walls here lend a genuine feeling of hospitality and charm. Cabinets are ample, and are designed in an Early American motif with plastic cabinet tops. Finally, there is a convenient serving bar between the kitchen and the dining area, an extra touch that will be truly appreciated when there are guests for dinner.

Falcon Construction knows a good thing when they see it, and they've made it available for you to enjoy at 2407 Lockwood, Tahoka. See it Sunday, January 17, from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Legislators by the hundreds are assembling in Austin to tackle a mountain of inherited and new problems in a hastily-remodeled State Capitol. Workmen barely completed their renovation of the new offices of Senators and Representatives before the occupants (for at least the next 140 days) moved in. There is little indication, of course, where the 62nd Legislature is heading, but nearly everybody agrees it faces a major fiscal crisis. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes says the session may well be "the most difficult in Texas history." Estimates of needed taxes range from $645 million to $850 million, and even higher in some cases. Barnes says he would be surprised if the sales tax rate and range were not both hiked. James McGrew, head of Texas Research League and an outstanding tax authority, thinks that a state income tax may be necessary despite lawmakers' commitments to the contrary. A welfare fund shortage may force a $55 million to $70 million tax bill early this year as an emergency measure. Legislative and congressional redistricting, threatening an ending to many political careers, maybe necessary because of the new census. And this job could keep lawmakers overtime if the tax bill doesn't. A federal court decision last week knocked out Texas' annual voter registration requirement and, as House Speaker Gus Mutscher commented, it "added urgency" to pressing election code reforms. Liquor-by-the-drink legislation, environmental pollution, auto insurance, education, judicial reform, utilities legislation, and penal code revision are only a few of the issues which will be making headlines at the capitol during the next five months...or more. HOUSE CHANGES URGED - Speaker Mutscher applauded recommendation s of his blue ribbon "Committee of 100" for House of Representatives reforms as offering national leadership in legislative modernization. This committee concluded that lawmakers are underpaid (at $4,800 a year, plus $875 a month expense account for Representatives, $1,700 for Senators) and suggested the appointment of a six-member commission to set maximum salary levels. Fearing for the safety of legislators in an era of demonstrations, the panel also suggested - while questioning the practicality of its own recommendation - the glassing in of the House galleries and use of metal detectors there to discover concealed weapons. One of the Committee's top reform proposals called for a strict new code of ethics governing legislative conduct. Other recommendations ranged over a wide field - from publicity services for House members to a suggested new $3.75 million underground addition to the capitol and a long-range capitol area parking plan. PARKS HEAD QUILTS - In the middle of a boiling controversy over the proposal to buy Mustang Island park land, J.R. Singleton resigned his job as director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, effective March 5. Singleton denied that Parks and Wildlife Commission Chairman Pearce Johnson is running him off. Harry Jersig of San Antonio and L.P. Gilvin of Amarillo, two of the three-man Commission, asked him to stay, said Singleton. Gilvin, however, is due to be replaced on the agency soon. Employment with an "international conservation organization" lured him from the $25,000 a year state job, Singleton told newsmen. He recommended that his deputy, Robert G. Mauermann, be named to replace him. Johnson, who opposed the other two commissioners' plan to buy Mustang Island land for $4.2 million, had no comment. Meanwhile, funds to buy the island - state and federal - reached the state treasury but were frozen there, pending a federal court case hearing. COURTS SPEAK - A three-judge federal court in Houston knocked out Texas' annual registration for voting requirement but retained jurisdiction while awaiting the Legislature's response. State Supreme Court declined a new hearing of its December decision where it held that a Denton land developer was entitled to $10,000 damages for libel because a newspaper erroneously stated he had filed bankruptcy proceedings. Reversing lower courts, the Supreme Court concluded that a Houstonian who developed lung disease (silicosis) from breathing silica sand while on his job is entitled to workmen's compensation. In another reversal, the High Court ruled that a construction worker from Houston and his widowed mother should draw workmen's compensation for a 1967 auto accident in which his father was killed. AFL-CIO field a district court suit here to set aside the State Board of Insurance order directing a 14 per cent increase in auto insurance rates. AG OPINIONS - Six months' prohibition on remarriage after a divorce applies only to persons who secured divorces from Texas courts, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held. In other opinions, Martin concluded that: Maximum compensation for chief sheriff's deputy and first assistant county attorney is $9,226; for other sheriff's deputies and assistants, $5,073. In the absence of conferred authority from the President, state officers may not execute a federal search warrant under the Comprehensive Drug Abuse and Control Act. Counseling service for debtors requiring disbursements from a bank account constitutes "orbidden "debt pooling." City of Pearland does not have authority to appoint auxiliary police. APPOINTMENTS - Gov. Preston Smith named Dr. D. Clifford Burross of Wichita Falls to the State Board of Medical Examiners. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen named to his new Washington staff Ronald L. Katz of Houston, Denman Moody Jr. of Austin, George G. Lowrance of San Antonio, Timothy P. Furlong of Dallas, Charles Hodges of Dallas, Mrs. Ashton Gonella of Washington and Mrs. Sissy Schaeffer of Dallas. INDUSTRY STILL EXPANDING More industries located new plants in Texas last year than in 1966-68, in spite of the uncertain national economy. Texas Industrial Commission reported 319 new industries were established here in 1970, second only to 1969. Expansion of existing plants dropped off in the face of tight money - 367 last year as compared with 505 in 1969 and 444 in 1968. Unemployment is up, but still below the national average. More layoffs are expected during the first quarter of 1971 due to continued expiration of government contracts. MOVIE CURBS EYED - Senate committee, after hearing testimony that Texas is No. 1 in the number of theaters showing sex films, proposed the establishment of local motion picture licensing and review boards. Committee promised additional recommendations. First proposal is aimed at making it possible to revoke licenses for theaters which show films unsuitable for minors.
