"TWO BITS WORTH" JOHNNY VALENTINE

"I've about reached the end of my tolerance for our society's one-sided sympathy for the misfit, the ne'er-do-well, the drug addict, the chronic criminal, the loser - in general, the underdog. I feel the time for someone to stand up and say: 'I'm for the underdog!'"

"I'm for the one who sets out to do something and does it the one who recognizes the problems at hand and endeavors to deal with them; the one who isn't blaming someone else's failings, who doesn't wonder if more he can do instead of why he shouldn't be doing what he's doing. Whether privileged or underprivileged, each of us should be judged by what he does with what he inherits - not merely as a 'victim of his environment'."

"The quality of any society directly related to the quality of the individuals who make up. We will never create a good society, much less a great one, until individual excellence and achievement are as highly respected but encouraged. Building a better society will only be done by those who take serious their responsibility for making the best of their native ability, getting the job done."

"That is why I am for the underdog - the succeder - the underdog!"

FBW The 94-year-old publication, Farm Journal, has come up with a bit of encouraging news. Based on a recent poll, it finds that farmers today are far more confident than a few years ago that the family farm will meet the competition of the large-type farming operations of corporations. Based on its opinion survey, the magazine observes: "We think the family enterprises are here to stay - that they will continue to be the bulwark of our nation's agriculture - and that they bring a vital kind of citizenship to the heart of the nation for which they won't had sufficient credit."

Now, as always in the past, private ownership of land is the foundation of freedom under representative government. There is no stronger bulwark of private land ownership than the millions of family-owned farms. They are the source of U.S. food and fiber abundance, just as they are the source of political and economic independence.

In an area where farming has been, and shall always be, the backbone of the economy, we have seen the great contribution the independent family farm can make toward the betterment of the community. Experience has shown the family owned farm not only produce economic benefits of far reaching significance, but can also produce leadership that will be vital to the future.

DR. T. PAIGE CARRUTH, vice president for student affairs at West Texas State University, stands beside his single-engine airplane which will carry him thousands of miles in the next year as a district governor of Rotary International. Carruth's district, which comprises the Texas Panhandle-Plains, is larger in size than 26 of the states in this country. He will visit Tahoka August 4 and 5.

Dr. Paige Carruth Serves Rotarians By Airplane

How do you administer to 2,500 Rotarians in an area larger than half of the 50 states and at the same time serve the needs of 7,900 college students? "Get your own airplane," says Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs at West Texas State University and new governor of District 573 of Rotary International. Carruth, 40, took office July 1 and within a week was off on a flying tour of his 56,700-square-mile district that will take him to 47 clubs in 41 cities during the next four months. His territory covers from the top of the Texas Panhandle south 330 miles to Odessa-Midland and from the New Mexico border on the west to Childress on the east, about 172 miles. "I knew I would need an airplane to make all that distance," he says. Carruth took up flying three years ago because "I was spending most of my waking hours in a car." At the time he was making numerous speeches throughout the area for the university as dean of student life, a title that was changed to vice president for student affairs last year. In his visits to the Rotary membership, Carruth says he will stress the 1971-72 theme of international president Ernest G. Bretholtz of Sweden, "Good Will Begins With You." Carruth feels that many civic organizations are full of apathy. "They meet, eat, bury and go home," he says. "Members feel it is easier to just write a check instead of grabbing a project and really making it go." That is one of the reasons for his fly-in visits with all the clubs in his district. "I can look at the clubs, and if they need help, I can recommend the committee chairman within the district who could help them get started in the right direction," he says. The governor says that Rotary has three main service areas - community service, vocational orientation and international goodwill. During the next year, Carruth says, "I want to emphasize youth within the club, increase the membership and extend Rotary to more people, and upgrade the types of services sponsored by the clubs on the community and international levels." Carruth, who flies a Cessna 150, was born at Vernon, Texas, and was graduated from West Texas State in 1952. After a year of military service in Korea, he returned to WTSU and obtained a Master of Education Degree in 1955. He was a social studies teacher at Kermit High School for three years and then received a teaching fellow at Texas Tech University, where he obtained a Doctor of Education Degree in 1959. Carruth became an assistant professor of education at West Texas State that fall and two years later was named associate dean of men. Four years after he joined the Canyon Rotary Club in 1960 he was elected president. In the interim he served as weekly bulletin editor, a club director, chairman of various committees and vice president. The Canyon club has had the distinction of providing two other district governors. The late Dr. Harris M. Cook, former dean of men at West Texas State, served in 1944-45 and

Affiliated Food Stores Combine Buying Power

DALLAS, TEXAS. . . Four of the in the Southwest have announced that they are combining their buying power in order to lower their prices to their customers. Their new total sales will elevate them to a position of one of the leading retail food distributors in the world. The four distribution centers are Affiliated Food Stores, Inc. of Dallas, Affiliated Food Stores, Inc. of Tulsa, Affiliated Food Stores, Inc. of Amarillo, and Affiliated Food Stores, Inc. of Little Rock. The Arkansas center was formerly known as Associated Grocers. The combined retail marketing area served by the four distribution centers covers portions of seven states: Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Tennessee, and Texas.

"There is no merger of the four distribution centers," said Charles McBeath General Manager of Affiliated, Amarillo. "What we are doing is combining our buying power to increase savings power for our customers," he said. In a simultaneous announcement made by the heads of the four distribution centers in their respective cities, it was revealed that their combined retail sales of groceries annually reaches the one billion dollar mark. Nearly 20 million people reside in the area served by the four centers. Over two thousand member stores, independently owned by leaders in their respective communities, will be affected by the new policy. The independent grocer will thus be enabled to contribute even further to the nation's economy. Even now, he and thousands of others like him who own Affiliated Food stores, are one of the largest employers in the seven state area. They give jobs to many more thousands of people in many job classifications from store managers to clerks, from checkers to produce department workers. Many a young executive has started his career as a stock clerk or a grocery boy after school hours working at his neighborhood Affiliated Food Store. Also announced was a new advertising and promotion campaign based on the slogan, "United States of Affiliated - A Country Within a Country," to start in all stores July 26. Speaking in Amarillo, McBeath explained that when the four centers decided to combine certain functions, it was discovered that their new total service area roughly approximated an outline similar to the continental United States. "From this came the idea for the United States of

Past Days In Lynn County

Copied from Sept. 7, 1933
With the opening of school Monday, football practice got under way. Thirty-two boys have reported for practice, eleven of whom have had previous experience on the team. Coach Arthur Hunter and Principal M. J. Weaver express the opinion that this year's Bulldog team will be a good one. A schedule of games for the season will be completed soon.

The boys are delighted with the prospects, the coaches say, and are working hard to see who will be the first to get to dirty one of the new blue and white jerseys that will be provided for them each game. The boys have new sweat shirts, helmets and some new pants.

raised their family in West Texas. Mr. Sherrod was born in Mississippi and Mrs. Sherrod was born in Tennessee. They were married in Taylor county, August 29, 1883. They moved to Lynn county in July 1903, and have made Tahoka their permanent home since that date.
To Mr. and Mrs. Sherrod were born ten children, five boys and five girls. All of the children were present at this happy occasion except a son Carl Sherrod of Brea, California, a daughter, Mrs. May Patterson, who died July 26, 1925; and a son, Joy, who lost his life in France during the World War. Besides the children, namely Mrs. Pearl Brown, Mrs. Iva Shaffer, Mr. Guy Sherrod, Mrs. Jewel Connolly, Mr. Beacher Sherrod, Miss Floyce Sherrod, grandchildren and three great-grandchildren were present.
A sumptuous dinner which had been prepared by their daughters and daughters-in-law was served at the noon hour in the home of Mrs. Pearl Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Sherrod's children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, forty invited guests ate to their hearts' content, then had oodles left for the seven o'clock meal. The color scheme of gold and white was used in table decorations and in the center of the heavily loaded table was the magnificent wedding cake of snow white holding fifty golden candles and dates of marriage and celebration in golden letters.

miles southwest of Tahoka.
The first meeting of the current year of the Parent-Teachers Association was held in the high school auditorium on Wednesday, September 20. Officers for the year were installed as follows: President, Mrs. Irvin Stewart; vice-president, Mrs. F. M. Billman; secretary, Miss Ruth Childs; treasurer, Mrs. Buster Fenton; historian, Mrs. Tom Leonard.
Following the installation of officers an interesting program was rendered.
The members of the Parent-Teachers Club extend an urgent invitation to all patrons of the school to become members and to otherwise cooperate in helping our schools. The club has done a splendid work in past years and hopes to do great things this year. If at all possible you should attend the next meeting of this organization.

An orchestra of ten pieces has been formed at Tahoka High School and it is hoped to increase its size to 20 pieces by Christmas, states the director, Mrs. J. Samuel Rider, who is teaching wind and string instruments in the school and who is a member of South Plains Music Teachers Association.
"We are very happy to say a nice beginning was made by the orchestra this week," she says, "and we urge each patron of the schools, if they have a boy or girl who plays an instrument, to enter them in the orchestra. There are no charges for orchestra work, and they will be eligible to enter the Spring Festival."

FOOD STORES

windows, on bumper stickers, and on new outdoor signs. All trucks and trailers of the four distribution centers will carry the new design. Each independent member store will soon be displaying the illuminated red, white, and blue sign of the new Affiliated Food Store program.
Store ownership will not be changed. The basic concept of independent ownership, so vital to our nation's economy will remain intact.
While the exterior of the stores will be changed only to the extent of the addition of the new Affiliated logo, it will be a different story on the inside. Store employees will be gaily decked out in new red, white and blue aprons. Pennants of the United States of Affiliated will be prominently displayed throughout the stores.
The greatest change of all will be on the shelves. The tremendous savings achieved through the new combined purchasing power of the four distribution centers will be reflected through new, lower prices throughout the store.
By combining their buying power, the new group will have access to its own bakery, ice cream plant, produce packaging machines, and other food processing facilities.
Each of the food distribution centers has some service or product unique to the combined operation. These facilities will be enlarged to accommodate the independent grocers who make up the greatly expanded area served by the United States of Affiliated.
National food distributors are participating in the promotion introducing the United States of Affiliated. Suppliers are making available many of their brand name canned fruits and vegetables at truly remarkable savings. National brands as well as Affiliated's own Shur-fine brand will continue to offer substantial price advantages on their hundreds of food items.
"The newest technique of distribution and merchandising will result in continued new low prices for many of the nearly 10,000 individual items sold through Affiliated," Charles McBeath continued.
The total size of the four distribution centers is nearly sixty acres. This includes only the warehouse portions under roof. "Each center will turnover its merchandise on an average of two to three times each week," explained McBeath.

"You can see that this is really a huge operation. Our members and our customers will only begin to see the impact of our combining buying power during the introductory promotion."
"When savings will really start to mount is over the next months and years, as our customers find that they can save pennies and dollars week after week by shopping at Affiliated Food Stores," McBeath said.

SCS Helps Install Terraces In Lynn Co.

During the 1971 fiscal year, landowner and operators installed 1,504,119 feet of parallel terraces with the assistance of the Lynn Soil and Water Conservation District, A. V. Sheppard, District Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service has announced. This million and one half feet of terraces treated about 8000 acres of cropland Sheppard said. With proper maintenance these terraces will hold most of the rainfall that falls. If we can hold most of the rainfall each year, we can produce from a fair to excellent crop most years, Sheppard stressed.
Listed below is the amount of parallel terraces installed by landowners in the Lynn Soil and Water Conservation District since the first parallel terraces were installed in the 1963 fiscal year.
Fiscal Year 1963 - 29,415

feet, 1964 - 22,348 feet, 1965 75,038 feet, 1966 - 630,853 feet, 1967 - 1,695,528 feet, 1968 - 1,353,573 feet, 1969 1,428,323 feet, 1970 - 1,602,350 feet, 1971 - 1,504,119 feet, Total - 8,341,547 feet.
The 8,341,547 feet of parallel terraces means that landowners and operators have installed parallel terraces on 45,000 acres of cropland in the district. Research has found that two and one half inches of water is lost through runoff each year when we receive our normal rainfall. This being true, we can expect to hold about 9,400 acre feet of water that would otherwise be lost due to runoff, Sheppard explained. This 2 1/2 inches lost due to runoff can mean the difference in a fair or good harvest, Sheppard stated.
Other major conservation activities of landowners and operators cooperating with the district and assisted by the Soil Conservation Service included:
1. Thirty-eight landowners on 11,817 acres became district cooperators with the district.
2. Thirty-one landowners on 11,413 acres developed conservation plans to use their land within its capabilities and treat it according to its needs.
3. 59 landowners on 20,056 acres revised their old conservation plans to make the current with land use, treatment and modern farming methods.
4. Installed 58,990 feet of irrigation pipeline.
5. Installed 26,057 feet of diversion and basin terraces.
Landowners and operators are to be commended for their desire, willingness and ability to plan and apply a complete soil and water conservation program on their farms and ranches. This also improves our total environment, Sheppard pointed out.

Short On Committee

A six-point list of recommendations and requests was made Tuesday morning by the Speaker's Special Committee on the coordination of Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) control. Texas House Speakers Gus Mutscher charged the committee last week with "taking whatever steps are necessary to work toward a solution of the problem" and with serving as a contact point for farmers, ranchers and government, and agencies of government.

Committee recommendations include: (1) that United States Department of Agriculture Secretary Clifford Hardin remove the "experimental status" restrictions on the available vaccine; (2) the U.S.D.A. authorize vaccination to be administered by para-veterinary personnel under the direction of a licensed veterinarian. In addition, the committee also requested state-wide mosquito control, particularly in urban areas, to prevent a VEE epidemic in humans, and it requested a quarantine "on the premises" for any unvaccinated horse as soon as the vaccine becomes readily available. The committee commended the U.S. Army for being prepared for this epidemic by having an apparent supply of vaccine on hand. Attending the meeting were State Representatives Charles Jungmichel, of La Grange; chairman; and committee members J. A. Garcia of Raymondville; R. B. McAllister of Lubbock; Paul Silber of San Antonio; Bill Prenal of Bryan; and E. L. Short of Tahoka. State Representative John Poerner is also a member of that committee.

Chris Gandy's Brother Ill

Chris Gandy's brother, Billy Jack Houston, director of the Bonham kindergarten, is in a Brewster hospital at Alpine, room 20, after suffering a heart attack there.

Houston was attending Sull Ross College at Alpine when stricken. He will be there for several weeks and would appreciate hearing from you.

Funds spent by the U. S. Department of Agriculture are often used for non-farm programs such as free lunches at schools in urban areas.

Experts predict that 138 million metric tons of meat will be consumed by man world-wide in 1980. That's a 58 percent increase over the 1965 figure.

Money isn't everything.

That may sound a little odd to you. Especially coming from a bank. But that's how we feel. Money isn't everything. Sure, it gives a bank teller something to do with his hands all day. But really, it's just pieces of green paper that, when you add them all up, make a bank bigger or smaller than the rest. But money can't make a bank better. Only people can. Better people. Like our people. The kind who enjoy dealing with you people. The kind who are able to put themselves in your place. One the other side of the window. Or the other side of the loan application. Come in and see us. We'll help you any way we can. That's what makes The First National Bank a better bank. People who understand that money isn't everything.

Sew excitingly for fall -- sew leather. Buckskin, suedes and chamois skins are readily available in a variety of colors. And, great new patterns have been planned for leather sewing.

First, make a trial muslin. Remember leather garments cannot be altered; stitching marks remain when threads are removed.

To begin working with the leather, convert each pattern half into a full pattern then lay the pattern pieces in one direction on the skin underside. Tape pattern pieces to the skin and cut with sharp shears.

Necessary markings can be transferred using wax, chalk or ball point pen.

When ready to stitch, hold seams in place with paper clips or cellophane tape. Core spun or silk thread makes a stronger seam. Adjust the machine for 7 to 10 stitches per inch, loosen the thread tension. Use a size 16 leather needle.

Threads ends should be tied, rather than backstitched, to avoid marring the leather.

Stay seams to keep the leather from stretching. Open seams, apply rubber cement to the underside and pound the seams flat with a wooden mallet. Hems also are cemented and pounded into place.

Jumpers, jackets, shorts, skirts and all types of accessories can be made of leather. Add a special touch to your leather sewing to get the fashionable hand-crafted look -- tool it, stencil it, paint it (use shoe paint) or lace it.

New Immunization Law Observed By Tahoka Schools

Texas now has a new law that requires certain immunizations for all students enrolled in the public schools beginning with the 1971-72 school year. The immunizations required are Polio, Diphtheria-Tetanus, Measles (Rubeola), Rubella (3-day or German Measles), and Smallpox. The Tahoka Schools previously have required only the smallpox immunization while recommending and encouraging the others.

All immunizations should be completed by the time school is entered. However, if this is not possible, students will be allowed to enter the fall term with the provision that their immunization against at least one of the above mentioned diseases will have been started by January 1, 1972 and all completed as soon as medically feasible.

Any document listing each immunization received by year will be acceptable during the 1971-72 school year for either initiating or updating school immunization records. Signature or rubber stamp validation of personal records by physicians or public health clinics is recommended but not required until the 1972-73 school year, after which validation of new records is required.

Parents with any questions concerning the new immunization requirements should contact their family physician or the superintendent's office.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Investigations of stock-loan scandals which have rocked the state for nearly seven months moved forward on three fronts during the past week.

Travis County District Attorney Robert O. Smith announced plans to present to the grand jury here evidence compiled by Texas Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin's staff.

Martin said evidence includes material pertaining to federal securities and Exchange Commission allegations that large bank loans were extended to high state officials by the Sharps in 1969.

Money lent to stock purchasers by officials at the time Sharpstown bank head Frank Sharp was trying to get deposit insurance legislation passed.

Sharp was invited to testify within the next three weeks before a House General Investigating Committee.

Committee asked Sharp to talk about bills in which he was interested in 1969 "and other matters that may be pertinent concerning Sharpstown State Bank, the National Bankers Life Insurance Company and any relationship with public officials."

Meanwhile, State Insurance Commissioner Clay Cotton turned over to district attorneys in Houston, Dallas and Austin results of his investigation of SBL.

Cotton said he feels insurance, embezzlement and conspiracy laws may have been overstepped or preferred to leave it up to prosecuting attorneys to decide if violations occurred. He offered names of five one-time SBL officers and directors prominently involved in his report.

Federal court at Houston set hearing this week to determine if June 14 immunity order protecting Sharp from further prosecution or summons should be modified. Martin and Smith want to force him to testify before the Travis County grand jury hearing.

COURTS SPEAK-An Austin federal district judge upheld the local school district's desegregation plan calling for a minimum of crosstown pupil busing, holding against a federal government proposal for massive busing. Judge scored the federal government for its uncooperative attitude toward a compromise.

State Supreme Court rejected an appeal of A & M University employees who had paychecks stopped when it was discovered they were serving on the College Station city council.

In other decisions, High Court:

+ Stuck by its original decision holding former president of Sharpstown State Bank was not negligent in failing to investigate bonds offered as security on a $470,000 loan.

+ Turned down the appeal of a Dallas oilman's widow in a lawsuit over his estate brought by the man's five daughters by an earlier marriage.

+ Upheld the will of multimillionaire Robert A. Welch's sister leaving $300,000 in Texas oil and gas property to the Welch Foundation.

+ Held against an Allice woman seeking damages from drug companies which manufactured the anesthetic she claims partially paralyzed her following 1963 surgery.

+ Reversed a lower court judgement and concluded the foreclosure of mortgage on the home of a Dallas couple who had paid $420 more than their schedule called for was void.

+ Rejected disputed evidence of a remarriage in Mexico and backed a Nueces County trial court finding that a Corpus Christi man owes nearly $24,000 in alimony to his former wife in Nevada.

LIVESTOCK DISEASE SPREAD--As sleeping-sickness like Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis continued to strike horses and some humans, threat of a new livestock malady loomed.

Outbreak of African hog fever in Cuba alarmed swine owners. Later is almost invariably fatal, and there is no known vaccine. Ailment does not affect people, as does VEE (which is usually mild in humans.).

More than 1,100 Texas horses are believed to have been killed by VEE and 1,500 others stricken. More than 6.5 million acres have been sprayed to kill disease-carrying mosquitoes.

AG OPINIONS-Texans under 21 may not serve on juries in Texas despite recently-lowered voting age to 18, Attorney General Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

+ Texas Industrial Commission can open an extension of office in Mexico City and pay salaries of employees there.

+ Governor is without authority to negotiate open-end contracts for computer supplies for state agencies.

County attorney of Cooke County will serve as 16th district attorney when 16th district court sits in Cooke County. District attorney of 235th district will serve that court in all counties where it functions.

Law passed last May 26 sets maximum compensation for assistant county school superintendents in all counties.

+ Renewal license issued by State Board of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists June 2-Aug. 29, 1971, expires Aug. 31, 1972.

Applicant for Sept. 7, 1971, board examination must pay $15 filing fee with application and additional $5 license fee.

SB 194 of last legislature repeals other acts on commercial drivers license exemptions.

MEDICINE AID SYSTEM CHANGED -- On September 1 State Department of Public Welfare will begin making payments directly to pharmacists for drugs prescribed to Texas welfare recipients.

Under current system, allowance for drugs is included in monthly assistance checks. Legislature this year appropriated $11.9 million for new vendor drug program.

Welfare authorities believe the new system will provide improved prescribed medicine coverage and delay a cut in overall welfare payments for food, clothing and shelter.

However, some complained of welfare check cuts, since drug allotments no longer will go to recipients, and a few who get only payments for drugs will be taken off welfare rolls. Latter will be interviewed by Welfare Department to determine if they should still get cash aid.

APPOINTMENTS -- Gov. Preston Smith appointed Dr. Max C. Butler of Houston to State Board of Medical Examiners and reappointed Dr. Albert B. Spires Jr. of Taylor, Dr. L. G. Ballard of Granbury and Dr. Howard O. Smith of Marlin.

Smith also announced these recent appointments:

+ James D. Abrams of El Paso to State Air Control Board

Joe B. Burnett of Dallas as 44th district judge.

+ J. Chryst Dougherty of Austin and Dr. Robert R. Lankford of Houston to the Submerged Lands Advisory Committee.

+ Dr. Theodore Andreychuk of Lubbock and Dr. Ernest Barratt of Galveston and reappointments of Dr. John I. Wheeler of Houston, Dr. Alvin John North of Dallas, Dr. George H. Kramer of Corpus Christi and Dr. Carl Finley Hereford of Austin to Texas Board of Examiners of Psychologists.

+ Guy Cowser of Center, C. C. Rice of Hemphill and Eugene A. Meek of Newton to Sabine River Authority of Texas.

+ Paul K. Herder of San Antonio to San Antonio River Authority.

+ William D. Cox Jr. and Thomas J. Murphy of Dallas to John F. Kennedy Memorial Commission.

+ Jesse Gilmer of El Paso (reappointed) to Rio Grande Compact Commission.

+ Francis Flynn of Austin, Land Wall of Lubbock, Wilfred

Millington of Nixon, Carroll Curry of Hillsboro, Virgil Maxwell of Houston and James Baker of Lufkin to Board of License Nursing Home Administrators.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS WARNED-At least 50 Texas school districts have been warned not to accept transfer students where the act would be interpreted as designed to impede desegregation or continue discrimination.

FHA Changes Farm Programs

Farmers Home Administration attempts to adapt its programs to fit the needs of farmers, John Wolfe of Lamesa, district supervisor for FHA, told Rotarians in a talk before the club last Thursday noon.

Mr. Wolfe stated that when FHA was started in the 1930's loans to farmers were limited to $400.00 per farmer.

The program was expanded in 1938 to help farmers purchase land. This program was decided success, and enabled many farmers in this area to get a start as farm owners.

Although a few had to give up their land later, Mr. Wolfe said he had never seen but one forced sale. Due to rising land prices, those few who had to give up their land enabled FHA to re-sell such lands with no loss.

In more recent years, FHA has gone into loans to groups for rural development, such as water and sewer systems for rural communities and loans for rental housing units in rural areas.

Latest adaptation to the situation is the current program of loans in drought stricken areas in co-operation with local banks.

Ross Smith was in charge of the program. Binie White, club vice president, presided at the meeting in the absence of President Dwain Lusk.

Jesse Dorman called for patronage of the Youth Center Talent Show this Thursday night.

Bill Griffin, County Agent, Says.....

Considerable publicity has been given to Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis and its impact upon Texas', and potentially the nation's horse industry. Since mosquitoes are considered to be the prime vectors of this serious disease which attacks horses and, in a milder form humans, Federal, State and local officials are marshaling their forces in determined efforts to provide large-scale mosquito control where these pests are a problem.

Area control programs consisting of larviciding, spraying and fogging can effectively reduce mosquito populations. Individual homeowners, can help greatly to destroy mosquitoes and possibly prevent the spread of VEE by eliminating mosquito breeding areas on or near their own premises.

Mosquitoes cannot hatch unless they are in water, so all standing water should be eliminated. Mosquitoes frequently breed in commonly overlooked containers such as old tires, tin cans, jars, tubs, birdbaths, unused fishponds, evaporative coolers or even on a flat roof where water accumulates. Also septic tanks and cisterns are ideal breeding places unless they are kept tightly covered. Such areas should be carefully eliminated. Standing puddles can be treated with a household insecticide or a small quantity of kerosene or diesel fuel, but avoid treating animal's drinking water or utensils.

Spraying shrubbery, eaves of the house and around windows and doors with malathion to help control hiding mosquitoes and prevent them from entering homes.

If there are places around your home where mosquitoes breed, you may be raising the very mosquito which could bite you or your horses to transmit VEE.

Visitors attending services last Sunday at the Baptist Mission were Mr. and Mrs. Raul Garcia of Austin, Carlos Salazar of Petersburg and David Zamarrripa of Tahoka.

Visitors attending services at the First Baptist Church last Sunday were Viola Childers of Hayden, New Mexico, Kenneth and Gwen Akin of Lake Hills, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Gaither and family, Adron Miller and family and Wanda Manning, all of Lubbock, Callie Roberts of Hobbs, New Mexico, Mrs. Gladies Holden of Big Spring and Jill Bertrand of Lubbock.

Church News Begins In Tahoka

Benito M. Zermeno, Executive Director of the Lynn County Community Development Committee, Inc., a non-profit corporation, has announced that the Migrant Action Program (MAP) has begun an effort to recruit at least 100 migrant families to "settle out of the migrant stream". These families would be helped to find permanent employment. MAP's goal is to help these households become independent and contributing members of Iowa communities. Migrant and or seasonal farm workers, together with their families, are eligible for relocation. For more information contact Mr. Benito M. Zermeno, 998-5068, Tahoka, Texas 79373.

YOUR STATE REPRESENTATIVE REPORTS

BY E. L. SHORT

STATE REPRESENTATIVE, 73RD DISTRICT

I was appointed on a legislative committee to assist and study in any way possible the problems and solution of Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE). The 7 man committee met in Austin July 20 and heard testimonies from the Animal Health Commission, Doctors from the School of Veterinary Medicine of Texas A & M and the Texas Agricultural Department.

The following information came from testimonies:

The vaccine and the services are free to the horse owner. The Federal Government is paying the total cost.

The County Agents of each county are the designated official person for you to contact.

The Animal Health Commission believes we need to vaccinate 90 percent of all horses to put a check and balance on (VEE). It is important that all of us cooperate with this program. There is over 10,000 horses dead in Mexico and over 700 dead in Texas.

Seventeen people in Texas are infected and 69 others are suspected of having (VEE).

Our committee is making recommendations to the Federal Government that they spray the cities because the vaccination program is only a part of a solution. The mosquito is the carrier and any mosquito can transmit this disease by biting an infected horse then in turn infect a person or another animal. In South Texas Counties that have received rains where the drought breaks in this area and a new cycle of mosquitoes take place, I do not believe we will have very many problems. Vaccinated horses are known to be fully protected after 14 days. It is important that we protect ourselves from mosquito bites until this outbreak of (VEE) is checked.

The symptoms to a human is like having a mild flu virus. The vaccine is in the experimental stages and is not available to humans. The disease is not known to affect humans as seriously as it does horses. There is a number of cases similar to the following that has proved this point. A herd of 30 horses, 27 were vaccinated and 3 were not. The owner considered the 3 animals the best he had and was afraid to give them an experimental type vaccine. They contacted (VEE). The 27 were saved.

You should contact your physician if you have unusual mosquito contact and or a summer flu. If you have a horse that needs vaccinating, call your veterinarian or county agent.

I expect the quarantine to be lifted on the movement of horses very soon.

If I can answer any questions concerning (VEE), please contact me in Tahoka at 998-4114.

Community Action Has Final Meet On Family Plan

The final meeting in a series of Family Planning and Health Services Clinics was held on July 22, 1971, at 2 o'clock at the local Lynn County Community Action Committee Center.

Mrs. Marilyn Miller, R. N., Project Director, reported that enrollments have been very satisfactory and Mrs. Acuna and Mrs. Green of the local office report that contacts they have made in the field indicate a desire for further Family Planning Clinics in the Fall of the year after the hoeing season is finished.

Mrs. Miller will be available for consultation on each Thursday afternoon in any matters relating to the Family Planning and Health Services work.

NURSING HOME NEWS

Another pleasant week has passed for us at the Nursing Home. We had lots of visitors and for most the week passed quickly.

Mrs. Astena H. Lawson has been visiting in Tahoka for several weeks now and spends many hours at the home with her Mother, Mrs. H. C. Harter. She takes Mrs. Harter out for visits and rides almost every day. We sure will miss her when she has to go back to her home in Chesapeake, Virginia.

Mrs. McCord was out Sunday to the 50th Anniversary party for her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas. She sat for hours visiting her many relatives. It was an outing she won't forget for a long while. Jim and Lucille Looker were in to visit her, too, here at the home.

By oversight, we failed to mention that Staci Short came to our home, Saturday, the 17th to play the piano for us. She played for almost 2 hours and we so appreciate her doing this. We are thankful for our nice young people here in Tahoka and will welcome Staci back again real soon!

Mr. Allen is still in the St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. He is still not doing well at all and surgery is pending.

He would love to get a card from you and let's remember him in our prayers.

Ethel Autry is back with us after a week's vacation. Mrs. Autry's daughter, Kay Chandler, is on our staff now. She is an L.V.N. and a most appreciated new member.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Oswald were here to visit Mr. A. J. Kaddatz. They brought flowers in to brighten his room. They are lovely and we of the staff enjoy them, too.

Lorenzo Aquilre spent several days in Post with his relatives. We know he had a good visit with them.

We are glad to have Janice Vick working with us on a part time basis. Her full time job is at the Lynn County Hospital but she helps us out when she has a day off from the hospital.

Two of our Aides are planning to enter L.V.N. School in September. They are Margarite Gutierrez and Claudia Cawman. Margerite and Claudia go to Lubbock this Thursday for their first interview. Please wish these girls good luck on being accepted by the school.

We'd like to offer our special thanks to Vivian Barnett L.V.N. who in addition to putting in her regular hours remains "on call" to us when ever a question arises here at the home. We are fortunate to have Vivian on our staff.

We like to mention all our guests in this column and invite you to sign the guest book when you call.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

U. S. Department of Agriculture officials have announced two changes in the procedures to be used in adjusting cotton yields for adverse weather conditions in 1971. Both are changes long sought by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and together they will mean additional producer income from cotton in 1972 and 1973 running into the millions of dollars.

USDA announced July 20 that County ASCS Committees this year will be authorized to use 90 percent as the maximum adjustment instead of the 80 percent in effect since 1965. This means farmers who fail to produce a yield equal to the farm "payment yield" because of drought, hail, flood or other natural disaster can have their actual yield adjusted up to 90 percent of the payment yield. The adjusted yield will then be plugged into the three-year average formula used to calculate the per acre yield on which the producer will be paid in 1972 and 1973. For a producer with a low yielding crop in 1971 who had a payment yield of 500 pounds per acre, the difference between an 80 percent and a 90 percent adjustment would be about $2.50 per acre in payments for both 1972 and 1973.

On July 23 PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson was told by a top USDA official in Washington that USDA this year was also altering the manner of administering the "Frick amendment." The so-called Frick amendment is that part of current law which states, in effect, that a producer's payment yield for the following year will not be reduced if his total production in any year equals or exceeds his "expected" production, or the number of total pounds on which he received payment.

This feature of the law helped some farmers to hold up their payment yields in 1970. But others, who lacked only a few pounds reaching their expected yield, received no benefit from it. For example a farmer with a 100 acre payment base allotment and a 500 pound payment yield would have an expected yield of 50,000 pounds. If in 1970 he planted 130 acres of cotton and made 385 pounds per acre, for a 50,050 pound total production, his payment yield for 1971 remained at 500 pounds per acre. But if his production was only 384 pounds per acre, for a total of 49,920 pounds, his payment yield for 1971 was reduced, probably to about 467 pounds.

If the same situation arises this year, the new ruling will permit the County ASCS Committee to assign the low-yielding farmer a payment yield for 1972 in accord with the percentage of his expected yield which he produced. In the example above, for instance, the 49,920 pounds produced is well over 99 percent of the 50,000 pounds expected yield, and the producer's payment yield for 1972 would remain at 500 pounds. If his production was only 95 percent of the expected yield, his payment yield for 1972 would be 95 percent of his 1971 payment yield, or 475 pounds per acre.

It is also understood the payment yield determined under this new interpretation of the Frick amendment will be the yield inserted in the three-year average calculation for payment yield in future years. Originally it was necessary for a farmer to make his expected yield every year in order to retain the higher yield adjustment.

PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, commenting on the changes, said "Both should make the determination of payment yields work more fairly for all producers, and we commend the Department for their action in removing the inequities."

The report of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service on 1970 acreage, yield and production of Texas cotton, just released, shows 1,762,350 bales (500 pounds gross) produced in the 25 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. The 1970 total is up from 1,418,600 bales produced in 1969 constitutes just over 55 percent of the 10.1 million bales harvested across the entire cotton belt.

The TCLRS report for 1970 shows an average yield per harvested acre on the Plains of 389 pounds, up from 349

J. D. Stocks Attends Fire School

J. D. Stocks, volunteer fireman on the Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department of Tahoka, is attending the 42nd Annual Texas Firemen's Training School July 18-23. The school, attended by nearly 2,000 men representing about 450 cities from approximately 30 states, is being held on the Texas A&M University campus this week.

Fireman Stocks is being sponsored by Lynn County Farm Bureau and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies by contributing toward his cost of the school. Since volunteer firemen are interested in attending this school to help do a better job of fire fighting and fire prevention, 93 County Farm Bureaus and the Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in the statewide program have sponsored 100 firemen to the school.

Companies believe volunteer fire departments have been very effective in reducing the amount of loss involved by fire in rural areas," said President J. T.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Value of Personal Belongings

Your coat disappears from a checkroom. Your curtains are damaged at the laundry. Your couch is stained by water leaking down from an upstairs apartment. Assuming you are entitled to compensation, how much money can you collect? What is the value, in dollars and cents, of your personal belongings?

A simple test was suggested by the proprietor of a restaurant, after a woman's coat vanished from his checkroom.

"We will pay her what it would cost to buy a secondhand coat of similar quality," he said in a court hearing. "After all, that is what she lost—a secondhand coat."

But the court awarded her substantially more than the second-hand value. The judge said that, in her eyes, it was her own personal garment—not just a "secondhand coat."

Generally speaking, in fixing damages for personal belongings, the law will take the viewpoint of the original owner rather than of the person responsible for the loss. Accordingly, it relies mainly on the original cost of the item (minus depreciation).

What if the lost or damaged merchandise was part of a matching set? May you collect for the entire set? The law usually says yes, again taking the viewpoint of the owner.

Thus, when five out of a set of eight matching drapes were ruined at the laundry, a court held the laundry liable for all eight. The judge said that since the customer would have to buy a whole new set, this was the truest measure of the harm she had suffered.

Nevertheless, the law does not ordinarily grant compensation for values that are strictly sentimental.

For example, suppose those drapes happened to be especially precious to the woman because they had been made by her late mother. Obviously, this would heighten their value in her own eyes.

Yet, because this factor is so purely personal, it would not be counted against the laundry as an element of damages. The law would consider it unfair to place upon the laundry a special responsibility about which, when it accepted the drapes for cleaning, it knew nothing at all.
