All Brands Must Be Rerecorded

All brands and marks on Texas livestock must be re-recorded with County Clerks after August 30, 1971, according to a new law passed during the last session of the Texas Legislature. Producers will be given a six-month period (August 30, 1971 through February 29, 1972) in which to register these brands and marks and the location on the animal which they are currently using, after which time any unrecorded brand will be available for use on a "first-come" basis.

The law further states that all such brands and marks must be re-recorded every 10 years. Each County Clerk records for his given county only so many producers may need to record their brands in additional counties if their operations are extensive.

The owner shall have the right during this six-month period to file the mark and brand now recorded in his name. In the event it cannot be determined from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest shall have the right to have the brand and mark recorded in his name.

It should be noted that it is illegal to brand livestock without properly recording the brand with the County Clerk in the county in which the livestock are held.

When the brand or brands are recorded, the location on the animal on which the brand is to be applied must be designated. If the brand is to be applied to more than one location on the animal, it must be so recorded and each additional location for the brand on the animal shall constitute a separate recording of that brand.

There is no limit to the number of brands and marks which may be recorded in a county by a person as long as requirements of this law governing the recording and re-recording of livestock brands are met. Minors may have marks or brands separate from that of the father or guardian, which must be recorded or re-recorded as provided by the new law.

The County Clerk of each county shall have this act published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county for a period of 30 days. The act shall be published on the effective date, August 30, 1971, and thereafter for 30 days.

It is the obligation of the County Clerk to assure that no more than one brand of a kind be recorded on the same location on the animal in each county. Therefore, no two people in a county may record the same brand in the same location. It is also the responsibility of the County Clerk to make certain that in recording any brand for a person, that the part of the animal on which the brand is to be placed be designated. Failure to do so is punishable by a fineable offense of not less than $10 or more than $50 (Article 1486 P. C.)

The law as outlined above applies to all counties in the state of Texas and shall take precedence over any special statutes heretofore applying to individual counties pertaining to recording and re-recording of brands.

Labor Weekend Toll Predicted

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents over the long Labor Day weekend will claim 52 lives in the state.

Speir called for motorists to avoid drinking while driving, avoid fatigue, and modify their driving speed in accordance with expected heavy traffic conditions.

In an effort to hold the toll down, the DPS and local law enforcement agencies, in cooperation with the news media of Texas, will conduct "Operation Motorcade" - a public awareness program designed to focus attention on the traffic problem. Special reports on fatal traffic accidents will be prepared at DPS Headquarters and released three times daily during the holiday period which runs from 6 p.m. Friday, September 3 to midnight Monday, September 6.

All available uniformed officers of the Department of Public Safety will be on the highways during the holiday to enforce state traffic laws, and maximum use will be made of radar and breath testing instruments. Speir said DPS personnel would do all possible to keep traffic flowing smoothly and safely on this final holiday weekend of the summer.

Reading a metropolitan newspaper is like eating a meal at a big restaurant - you pick and choose from what's offered. But reading the home-town weekly is like eating a good old homecooked meal - a fellow doesn't want to miss a thing.

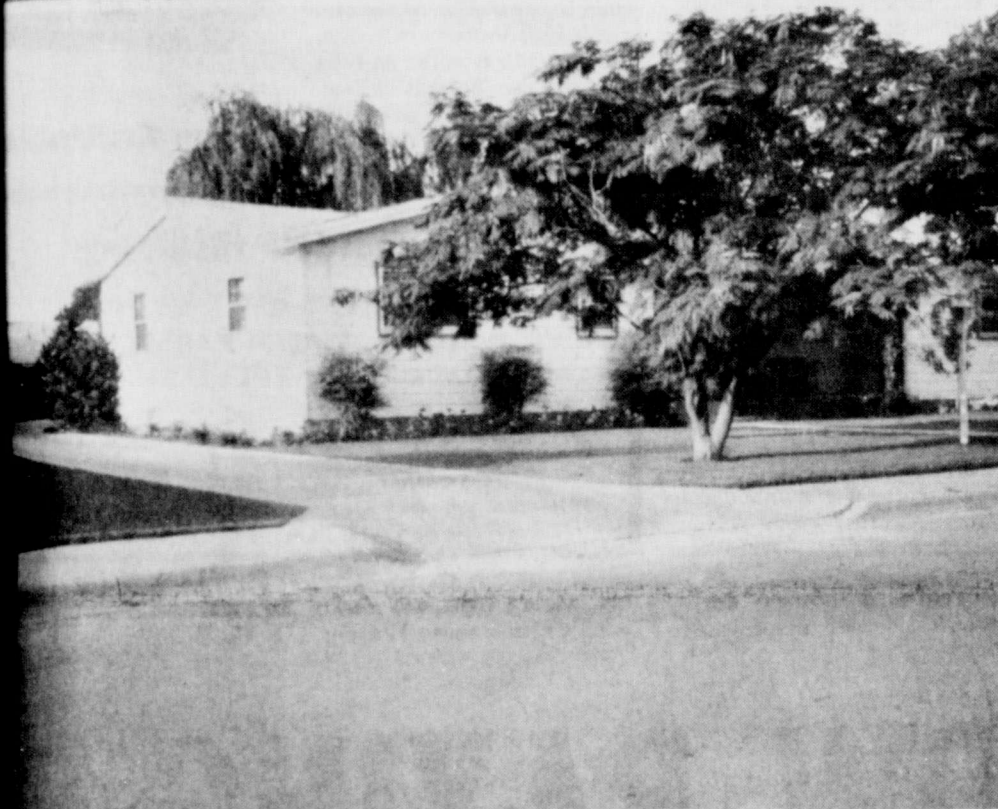

Every time we turn around state or government officials are passing laws to protect the criminals. What we are wondering is when they will start passing laws to protect the honest citizens who pay the officials to begin with and are the backbone of the entire nation. We are referring to the law in Texas which requires a driver to set the brake and remove the keys before leaving his car unattended. A fine is provided for such violation.

Although the legislature passed some much needed laws we think they should take a closer look before passing others.

An article on page two will give you each law that took affect Monday.

Monique Lapue, 34-year-old housewife of Lyons, France, was stopped by police for speeding and explained: "There are so many horrible accidents on the highways that I drive as fast as I can in order to get off of them quickly."

The Tahoka Bulldogs will hold a scrimmage this Friday night against Floydada in Tahoka. The Bulldogs scrimmaged Littlefield last Friday night and looked tremendous against that squad. Let's go out this Friday and give the boys our support. Also, let's make every Friday all I see is blue day. Wear something blue all day and help the team really get in gear.

YARD OF THE MONTH-Pictured above is the home of Mrs. Bland Draper, 1713 North 2nd Street, as was chosen the Yard of the Month for August, by the Tahoka Garden Club. Lynn Crops Looking Great As August Weather Records Set Crops over a major portion of Lynn County never looked better, but farmers still have their fingers crossed. A lot of hot, dry weather and normal to late freeze date this fall is all that is needed.

Until late in May, farmers were praying for rain, but by August - August conditions had changed and they were hoping the rain would stop.

But, sunshine returned Saturday, and farmers are all smiles, again.

One farmer remarked this week, "It's just too good to be true - or to last."

Except for some areas near O'Donnell, south of West Point, and in the southwest part of the county, crops are among the most beautiful ever seen here.

From October 16, 1970, until April 15, 1971, or 180 days, only .25 inch of rain was recorded by National Weather Service in Tahoka. Then, 1.17 inches of rain fell over a three day period. Another .93 came on May 8.

But this was not enough for farmers to plant until the 3.75 inches which fell May 27-30. This was followed by 1.60 in June and 2.12 in July.

Then came August with some records and some near records in Lynn county weather, and farmers began to worry about the cool, wet weather, insect damage, and prospects for a wet fall and early freeze. But late-planted cotton has continued to grow, to fruit well, bollworm damage has been light so far, and sunshine has returned.

During August, 4.59 inches of rain have been recorded in Tahoka, much more in some areas, second greatest amount ever recorded here in this month. Record fall of 7.24 inches fell in August 1937, a banner crop year, and 4.43 inches in August 1966. The 42-year average rainfall for August has been 1.72 inches until this year.

But, this August rain fell in Tahoka on 14 days, and there has been heavy dew or fog all other days. Average low maximum and minimum temperatures have set a new record. Average maximum has been 82 degrees and average minimum 62 degrees.

The 4.59 inches of rain here in August brought the year's total to 12.29 inches, compared to the 42-year average of 12.02 inches for the first eight months of the year.

Some areas of the county have received much more rain than this, some much less.

Leaving Keys In Ignition Now Misdemeanor In Texas

AUSTIN () — If you left your keys in your car Sunday, that was pretty dumb. But nobody could do anything about it except steal your car.

But if you walked off and left the keys in the ignition Monday, that was a crime. Well, anyway, a misdemeanor.

Dozens of new state laws, including the one about car keys, took effect Monday. Some of the laws protect workers and consumers. Others provide fines for acts that weren't criminal on Sunday.

The measures were passed in the regular session of the legislature but their effective dates were delayed until 90 days after the session adjourned May 31.

Among the most far-reaching in terms of their effects on ordinary people are three laws dealing with motorists.

Drivers now must obey a new set of "rules of the road," passed to keep Texas in line with the Federal Uniform Vehicle Code.

The rules require a driver to set the brake and remove the keys before leaving his car unattended. A fine of $1-$200 is provided for violation.

Overcrowding of a car also is now forbidden. This prohibits more than three people in the front seat if they block the driver's view or interfere with his control of the car.

Habitual drug users can be jailed up to two years and fined $1,000 if they even so much as drive a car.

Another bill raises the price of an ordinary four-year driver's license from $6 to $7. All specialized licenses also will cost $1 more.

Police investigating accidents can remove the inspection sticker from any damaged vehicle which they feel would need repairs before meeting safety standards. The owner would be given a dated receipt for the sticker and would have to get his vehicle reinspected within 30 days.

New Trespassing Law
Texas now has a new trespass law. State law in the past has prohibited trespassing only for the purpose of hunting, fishing or camping. But now there's a fine of up to $200 for entering land where the owner has given notice that entry is forbidden.

The legislature also made it a misdemeanor—with up to a $300 fine—to knowingly give false information about a person to a credit rating bureau.

The same law provides a $200 fine against credit rating bureaus that knowingly give out incorrect information about a person's credit worthiness, standing or capacity.

Even heavier penalties were imposed on persons who get caught bootlegging tapes—a popular money-making venture among the youthful "counter-culture."

A $2,000 fine on first offense and penalties up to 5 years in prison and a $25,000 fine can be imposed for taping a record for re-sale or for selling such a tape without permission of the company that manufactured the disc.

Several new education laws also took effect Monday.

The General Appropriations Bill, which takes effect Wednesday, provides $1 million for grants to needy students at private colleges, including religious schools, over the coming fiscal year. Lawmakers appropriated $3 million for the following year but that was vetoed by Gov. Smith along with the entire 1973 budget. The legislature will be called back into special session, probably next year, to write a new budget for that year.

Another controversial bill allows college administrators to kick potential troublemakers off campus for four days during "periods of disruption."

Other new laws include measures that would:

—Require employers to rehire National Guardsmen who were called to active duty within the state.

—Prohibit employers from firing persons because they filed workmen's compensation claims or were witnesses in cases involving on-the-job injuries.

Littering Fines Increased —Increase the fines for littering the highways from $10-200 to $50-400.

—Enlarge the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission from three to six members.

—Establish a seven-member board to license experiments involving marijuana and other drugs. Experimenters will be immune from criminal prosecution if they have such licenses.

—Authorize counties to pay financial incentives equal to the cost of foster care to persons who adopt children who are "hard to place" because of race, age, language or handicaps.

—Permit churches, veterans groups, religious societies and other non-profit "charitable organizations" to conduct lotteries, which ordinarily are forbidden by law.

—Require convicted defendants to pay "court costs" of $2.50 in justice of the peace or city courts, $5 in county courts and $10 in district courts, with the proceeds going to the state's criminal justice planning fund.

Texans May Receive Cards Of Identification

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today that effective September 1, Texans will be able to obtain a special personal identification card.

This card, which was authorized by the 62nd Texas Legislature, is laminated and contains a color photograph of the holder. It is the same size as a Texas drivers license.

Information appearing on the card will include the holder's date of birth, height, sex, and eye color. Each card will have a special identification number issued by the DPS.

Speir said the cards should be of value to those persons who do not hold a Texas drivers license, but who need some sort of official card to help establish their identity.

In order to obtain a personal identification card, the applicant must appear at a DPS drivers license field office on or after September 1, execute a special application form, present a birth certificate or other documentary evidence of identity and date of birth, be fingerprinted and pay a statutory fee of $5.00. The special cards, which will be mailed from DPS Headquarters in Austin, will be dated to expire four years from the applicant's next birth date.

Also effective September 1, certain persons having military service connected disabilities will be exempted from drivers license fees.

Speir said those individuals with a 60 percent or more service connected disability will be entitled to the free drivers license provided they meet other requirements which apply to all applicants.

At the time of application for a new or renewal license, the disabled veteran must present the DPS drivers license office an official communication from the Veterans Administration Regional Office showing that he is currently receiving compensation from the Federal Government in connection with a 60 percent or more service connected disability.

MAINLY DUE TO TAX CUTS

Buying Power Strengthened

WASHINGTON () — Americans' buying power picked up strength in 1970 mainly because of tax cuts voted by Congress, a government survey showed Monday.

The Commerce Department's Office of Business Economics said per capita real disposable income, the income available after taxes and inflation, climbed by 2.4 per cent in 1970.

The increase compared with a 1.4 per cent gain in 1969. Department analysts said last year's advance would have been much lower without tax cuts effective in 1970.

Nevertheless, the 2.4 per cent boost in buying power was one of the smallest gains of the last decade. During the ten year period ending in 1970 the increase averaged 3.3 per cent.

The department figures buying power by subtracting tax payments from per capita personal income, then adjusting the resulting figure for the march of inflation.

Per capita income of Americans increased by 5.8 per cent in 1970. But tax payments showed a 1.2 per cent decline over 1969, allowing per capita disposable income to increase by 7.3 per cent.

Buying power would have been substantially less if the department had used a different measure of inflation, the consumer price index, which advanced by 5.9 per cent in 1970.

Instead, the department used the inflation gauge of the gross national product, which showed consumer prices increasing by 4.75 per cent last year.

Per capita personal income was $3,921 in 1970 compared with $3,705 a year earlier.

The Rocky Mountain states led the nation in percentage increase of per capita personal income with a gain of 8.1 per cent compared with the national increase of 5.8 per cent. Per capita income climbed by 7.3 per cent in the Southeastern states and 7.2 per cent in the Southwest.

But states in the Far West and Great Lakes regions showed per capita personal income increases smaller than the national average. Per capita income in the Great Lakes states increased 3.8 per cent and by 4.5 per cent in the Far West, not enough to offset last year's jump in the rate of inflation.

Per capita income declined by four-tenths of one per cent in North Dakota, the only state to show a drop. Per capita income in North Dakota was $2,995 in 1970 compared with $3,008 a year earlier.

625 New Oil Wells Drilled
CARACAS — A total of 625 oil wells was drilled in Venezuela last year. About 73 per cent were in Lake Maracaibo and 27 per cent in Eastern Venezuela. Nineteen were dry holes and 26 were abandoned for various reasons.

JUNE REIMER

Home Ec. Teacher

Mrs. June Reimer comes to us via way of Big Springs where she taught last year. We were able to lure Mrs. Reimer away from Big Springs since she wanted to teach near Lubbock so her husband could attend Law School at Texas Tech.

She and her husband, Billy Monroe Reimer, live in a trailer house on South Sixth Street. Mrs. Reimer is from Kerrville, Texas, and attended Southwest Texas State in San Marcos, Texas, where she received her B.S. degree. Mr. Reimer is from New Braunfels and also attended Southwest Texas.

Mrs. Reimer has as her goal for this year: to increase and apply her knowledge and abilities to best serve the school and community. Music sewing and experimenting with foods are listed as her hobbies.

In addition to teaching two classes of useful Homemaking, Mrs. Reimer has one class of Cooperative Homemaking. The Consumer Education class includes both boys and girls of junior and senior standing and is for the purpose of helping students gain an understanding of economics, misleading advertising and efficient utilization of family resources. The Cooperative Homemaking class is for girls of junior and senior standing who work part time during the school day on various jobs away from school. In addition to these teaching duties, Mrs. Reimer works with employers in supervising girls on the job.

MARY BRECHEEN

Versatile Teacher

Mrs. Mary Brecheen is another of the many home town girls that add so much to the efficiency of the Tahoka school faculty. Mrs. Brecheen graduated from Tahoka High School (the year is a secret), earned her B.S. degree from Abilene Christian College and has done graduate work at Texas Tech. Mrs. Brecheen is in her sixth year of teaching in Tahoka Schools. She worked in North Elementary for several years but was moved to high school English in 1970. This year, in addition to teaching freshman and senior English classes, she is Annual sponsor. Prior to entering the teaching field, she worked as a secretary for the Texas Hospital Association.

This year she and her three children, Cole an eighth grader, Jo Ellen a sixth grader and John a third grader, moved to the farm where she was raised.

Reading is listed as her main hobby. This is good since an English teacher has stacks of papers to read and grade each week and one that enjoys reading in spite of this is indeed a jewel.

As her goal for this year, Mrs. Brecheen wants to create or instill in students a real desire to improve themselves in regard to language usage; to encourage self improvement by reading more; and to help students improve study habits.

JOHN YOUNG

DE Coordinator

Mr. John Young is a first year teacher-coordinator of the Distributive Education Program in Tahoka High School. Mr. Young took D.E. while a student in San Angelo High School and became very interested in this field. He attended San Angelo State where he majored in Distributive Education and worked part time in sales work for a clothing firm. He received his B.S. degree this year and with five years of distributive experience, he brings to Tahoka Schools a fine understanding of merchandising.

Mr. Young is married to Mrs. Debra Young who teaches in South Elementary School. They live two miles north of Tahoka and really enjoy the quiet and serenity of country living.

Hobbies listed by Mr. Young include hunting, fishing, skin diving, bowling and tennis. His goals for this year are to prepare his students for entry and success in distributive occupations upon graduation from high school.

Motorists Cannot Pass Stopped School Bus

A new State law effective August 30 will no longer permit Texas motorists to stop and then pass a school bus which is loading or unloading children.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the new law, passed by the 62nd Legislature, applies in both cities and rural areas and requires motorists moving both directions on the same roadway with a school bus to stop and remain stopped as long as the flashing lights on the bus are in operation.

Under current law, which applies only in rural areas, drivers must stop for a stopped school bus, but may then proceed around it at a speed of not more than 10 miles per hour if safe to do so.

The new law will not require those vehicles on another roadway of a divided highway to stop, and stops are not required if the bus has stopped in a loading zone of a controlled access highway where pedestrians are not permitted to cross.

Speir noted that provisions of the new law will be strictly enforced to afford maximum protection to the school children of Texas.

Colorful leather hot pants, a major fashion for fall, are now available as completely washable garment.

A new leather tanning process allows leather to retain its softness and prevents shrinkage after washing.

The same process makes possible dyes in a 14-color range. Wash-fast, the colors remain as bright after laundering as before.

The leather industry has become very fashion minded. And, you can choose from stenciled, painted or embroidered leather, with textures from sheer sueded to chamofis to buckskin. Just take your pick.

Besides hot pants, washable leathers are also available in other clothing -- shorts, shirts, golf gloves or decorative trims.

Whether buying leather as ready-to-wear or for home sewing, check the label for washability and instructions.

As a final suggestion, keep leather hot pants cool, launder in cold water.

T-Bar Bridge

T-Bar Country Club Duplicate Bridge met Tuesday night, August 24th. Mrs. Clint Walker and Frank Hill placed first, Mrs. Jess Gurley and Mrs. Eldon Carroll were second, and Mrs. D. W. Gaignat and Mrs. Oscar Roberts were third.

their granddaughter on July 20. They say it's a wonderful way to travel and enjoyed the flight very much.

While visiting the McDonalds in Washington, they enjoyed feasting on the black sweet cherries and apricots. Every one gained a few pounds while Mon tried making all the goodies from the fruit.

They also took a scenic trip to Mt. Rainier, and enjoyed seeing the big trees and the lovely campgrounds.

On Tuesday, August 3, Mr. McCleskey celebrated his 79th birthday. His niece of Yakima, brought him a birthday cake, all the grandchildren and one great-granddaughter all came and brought presents for both Grandpa and Grandma.

The first week in August was filled with birthdays. Jo Marie, the great-grand, was 2 on the fifth, and daughter Jo Nell was "2" on the 8th. Also on the 6th Sandy McDonald Stiles presented them with a new great-grandson. He weighed in at 7 lbs. 14 ozs. and they named him Bradley Lyn.

On August 10, the McCleskeys flew from Portland to San Diego, Calif., to see their son Leonard and family.

While in California, they also visited in the home of their grandson, Curtis McCleskey and family in Imperial Beach where they saw the beaches and the fishing pier. They also saw both grandsons who have been going to school at Pasadena Nazarene College in Pasadena, California.

While at their sons in Chula Vista, California they saw many sights. The harbor with all its Navy and military fleet, and submarines; fishing boats, both commercial and sport; tug boats moving ships in and out of the harbor; sailboats of all descriptions; speed boats pulling skiers; and many thousands of private boats at anchor were all seen by auto from the land and by private boat from the water.

They must have taken in all the sights because they even drove across the brand new bay bridge from San Diego to Coronado Island where they saw the huge old "famous" Coronado hotel, Hotel Del Coronado. They drove by Ream Field, the helicopter capitol of the world, and then on to the border city of San Ysidro, California which is just across the line from Tijuana, Mexico. Then there were the Western Salt Farms at Chula Vista where they saw the huge mountain of salt. For any number of choices of resorts and recreation areas try visiting Shelter Island and Harbor Island.

No vacation would be complete without regular church services to the church of your choice, such as the new Church of the Nazarene at Chula Vista.

The McCleskey's returned home Tuesday with lots of new experiences and memories, but there's no place like home.

day with one and we sure enjoyed it. Sorry, Mrs. Hale, we just had to tease you a little bit!

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McFadden came to visit several patients at the home Monday and brought us a big load of worn sheets, which we can always use for pads and lots of magazines for everyone to enjoy.

Mrs. Cunningham enjoyed visits from her family Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Briscoe and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cunningham all the way from Portales New Mexico.

Elizabeth Connell from Post and Francis Guthrie from Snyder were in to visit Mrs. Connell.

We've got several patients on the sick list. Mr. Kaddatz had another light stroke and is in the hospital for 2 days. He's back with us now feeling some better. Mrs. Black was in bed for two days, not feeling at all well, but is able to come to the dining room for meals now and is improving. Mrs. Clark was sick for several days, but the lovely flowers, her son, "Slim" Pyburn, brought, made her feel lots better.

One of our staff, Jean Jackson has had to take a leave of absence to be with her son, Bobby Joe, who was seriously injured in an accident. The staff took up a love offering for Bobby Joe and this gift was very much appreciated.

Mrs. McCord was out of the home visiting with her daughter Mrs. Short in Grassland. Her niece and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Clements from Tuscaloosa, Alabama were there so she enjoyed talking about her old home and friends and relatives of years ago.

Roberta Greg and Lucille Smith were in to visit their father Mr. Hunt. Mrs. Greg is from Amarillo. He really enjoyed their visit.

Corine Izard was out of the home most of Monday, with Ruby Harvick. They visited patients in the Brownfield hospital and then back to Tahoka and ate supper at the Cafeteria. Corine sure had a nice day. She also accepted an invitation from the Rebekah Lodge No. 209 for an ice cream supper on Tuesday night. She still has lots of visitors almost every day and enjoys each visit.

We were sorry to lose Vivian Barnett from our nursing staff. She has taken a leave of absence to take care of all of her garden produce and hopes to rest up and return to the home after the first of the year.

We had lots of visitors this past week and those who signed our guest book that we haven't already mentioned are: Anita and Tony Salinas, Harry Short, Claud Harris, Jewell Tomlinson, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Clements, O. Z. Harris, Lela Wood, Margaret Pena, Bill Hays, Irene Salinas, Mrs. G. C. Watson, Mrs. R. E. Appling, Mr. and Mrs. Haney Colyer, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vardell, Maxine and Kellie Paris, Robin Stark, Mrs. Mildred Walker, Mrs. Vester Stone, Cheryl Colyer, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Bennett.

"QUESTIONS PLEASE"

"No man is an island, intire of itself..." wrote the poet John Donne. It is true we all are involved in our society and no one should try to remain apart.

Isolation certainly is not the role of the pharmacist. As a businessman and a health professional, he assumes his share of the overall responsibility to serve your needs.

Your pharmacist is well qualified to recommend nonprescription preparations for minor ailments of short duration and is alert to those conditions which require a physician's attention. He also acts as a source of drug information for your physician.

Your pharmacist also renders you a service by not discussing the purpose of your prescription unless your physician has so indicated. Some drugs used to treat serious illnesses also may be used in less serious situations. Your knowledge of the serious uses of a drug could cause unnecessary anxiety.

You should understand that in refusing to answer some questions your pharmacist is not trying to isolate himself. However, do not hesitate to ask questions. If he is unable to answer, he will direct you to the proper person. He would rather your inquiry not go unspoken or unanswered.

reinforced from fan to flywheel with 11 years of engineering developments and the longest warranty in the industry

You're hearing a lot about new tractor engines these days. Engines with replaceable wet-sleeve cylinder liners... with counterbalanced crankshaft and seven main bearings... with valve rotators... and other advanced features. They're good features. John Deere engines have had them for years. And over the years, we've reinforced and refined those features - giving you a reliability bonus "newcomer" engines don't offer.

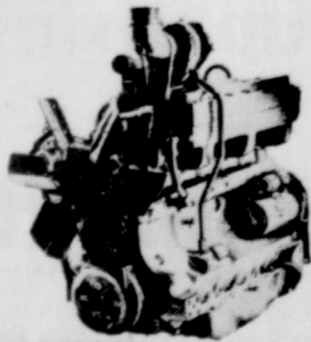

Reinforced with specially-cast ring carrier. A non-flexing, iron-alloy carrier for piston rings is cast within each aluminum-alloy piston. It provides a solid foundation for both top and middle rings - not just the top ring as in other engines.

Reinforced with double keystone rings. Wedge-shaped design prevents ring sticking better than the square-cornered rings others use.

Reinforced with specially-coated rings. An exclusive process electroplates the top ring with a super-hard space-age alloy. These coated rings have twice the working life of commonly-used chrome-plated rings.

Hundreds of such reinforcements make John Deere engines the most reliable in the business... backed by the longest warranty in the business. Good reason to make your next tractor a 95-h.p. 4000 or 4020, 116-h.p. 4320, or 135-h.p. 4620.

In this space a couple of weeks ago were printed remarks made by Donnell Echols of Lamesa, President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., to the effect that farm income from cotton production, and therefore cotton production itself, is facing perilous times. Reference was to that portion of producer income that since 1966 has been in the form of direct Government price support payments which compensate for the difference between cotton's market price and the farmer's cost of production, including a meager return to capital, labor and management.

It was noted that the danger lies in strong and growing opposition to cotton program payments in Congress, and of course producers are dependent on Congress for both legislation and for annual appropriations.

"There is now no doubt that a majority of both the House and the Senate is opposed to farm program payments to producers in proportion to their volume of production," Echols said, "and this situation makes it imperative that we begin now to search for another type farm program that will be acceptable to Congress, or for an alternative source of income."

House Appropriations Committee Chairman George Mason, who is in an excellent position to assess the mood of Congress, has since expressed his concurrence in Echols' belief. The Congressman said he sees no chance for continuing a direct payments type farm program without a limitation on payments at the $20,000 level or below.

When Congress stipulates how much a farmer may receive, without considering how much he produces, they are placing farm payments in the category with welfare payments, "and payments on that basis cannot be expected to sustain the cotton industry," Echols states.

So the poser becomes "What are the alternatives?" This question was asked recently at a meeting of the Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations (TACPO). Discussion did not reveal a pat answer, but some conclusions were reached.

It was agreed that Government aid for the cotton industry in the future, if aid is to be had and if it is to bear any degree of permanency, will have to be in the form of a

Miss Jewel Redwine, daughter of Mrs. Ed Redwine, became the bride of Rush Dudgeon, son of Mrs. Edith Dudgeon of South Ward community in an impressive ceremony at the home of the bride's mother Sunday morning at nine o'clock. Rev. Ben Hardy, long time friend of the Dudgeon family and retired pastor of the local Methodist Church, read the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Clarence Gaussoin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Giles Bradford of Sweetwater attended Mr. Dudgeon.

The bride's costume was of soldier blue with black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. "Something old, something new" was carried out in her costume.

Mrs. Gaussoin wore a black dress with a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The rites were read before an improvised altar of fern and pink rosebuds. The home was profusely decorated with large baskets of roses and dahlias.

Preceding the ceremony, Winston Redwine, youngest brother of the bride, sang, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love you Truly." The bridal party approached the altar to the strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. The Flower Song was played throughout the ceremony.

Following the ceremony, the guests were served the wedding cake, which was cut by the bride. Presiding over the refreshment table were Misses Catherine and Edna Dudgeon, sisters of the groom.

Following the reception, the couple left for Colorado Springs, Colo., for a short trip, after which they will be at home in the South Ward community.

The bride is a graduate of Tahoka High School and attended McMurry and Texas Tech colleges. She is past worthy matron of the Tahoka chapter of the Eastern Star. She has lived in Tahoka all her life.

The school board members attending were: Mr. Jim Izard, J. P. Unfred, Wayman Smith, A. C. Fillingim and Ed McManis.

Members of the faculty attending were: Mr. Tolbert Fanning, superintendent, Mr. Hall and Mr. Pharten.

L. C. Haney, owner of Tahoka Drug, is the proud possessor of a new pair of $27 hand-made boots, a premium to him from Borden's as the result of his store leading in a recent sales contest.

Mrs. John Thomas (Larue) Tippit and her six-months-old babe have been rather seriously sick of the flu or some kindred ailment the past several days but are now reported to be improving.

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

The Legislative Redistricting Board, its hands tied by a court order, has called for a staff research toward reapportionment of both the Texas House and Senate.

If the Board were permanently enjoined from action, the thorny reapportionment chore may be handed back to the Legislature in a special session this fall. Board was created in 1948 to redistrict where a legislature fails to do so in its first regular session after a decennial census.

Day before the five-member panel was to meet and begin work on Senate realignment (a task left undone by the Legislature this year), an Austin judge entered a temporary restraining order. At the same time, Judge Herman Jones set a hearing for September 2 on a petition for an injunction. Rep. Fred Head of Henderson filed the suit to stop Board action, contending 1970 census figures are not yet all in, and that reapportionment should wait until the 1973 Legislature.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

BY RICHARD L. CHRISTIE

If you hang around the Coffee Shops very much in Tahoka, not that I do, you may hear non-farmers giving farmers a hard time about their "welfare check". These people will groan and complain that they wish they got a "government check". They do but it is not belittled or as widely known by the average American. Communication, Transportation, and all facets of the American Economic System receive their shares and most of them are a great deal more than Agriculture. But let us see these loud mouths try to manage the limited exhaustible resources of the agricultural area and produce such an abundant life as they enjoy with the little to no return economy squeeze that farmers have been forced to operate in.

If these people would try to preserve and hold the land in place through one blowing season they would not make such remarks. This last year was the worst fall and spring for wind erosion in 15 years. This can be verified by S.C.S. records and those of the National Weather Service. Ted Sheehan of Lubbock Weather Service said that this was the worst since 1954 which was in the drought. The Soil Conservation Service records show that there were 260 hours of Damaging Windstorms from Nov. 1, 1970 to May 30, 1971. These windstorms came at 36 different days. But one thing that made it so bad was the duration of this years storm. The average was 7.2 hours per day on the 36 day but several were substantial blows of more than 12 hours.

Leo Brooks' Services Held

Allen Leo Brooks, 54, of Corpus Christi died Wednesday in a hospital there. Services were held at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27, in White Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Hugh Daniel, pastor of the Tahoka First United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery.

Brooks was born July 29, 1917 in Kemp. He and his family moved to Lynn County from Kaufman County in 1926. He attended school in Tahoka and was a veteran of World War II. A retired farmer, Brooks moved to Corpus Christi several years ago. Brooks and Billy Thompson were married Jan. 24, 1936 at Post. Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Juanell Wheeler of Brownwood and Mrs. Sue Townsend of Odessa; his mother, Mrs. L. R. Brooks of Tahoka; two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Cline and Mrs. Mary Cline, both of Lubbock; a brother, Neely Brooks of Tahoka and four grandchildren. Pallbearers were Richard Brooks, Joe Brooks, Wathal Littlepage, George McCracken, John Curry and Bill Woods.

ing the Senate's 31 districts in line with the 1970 census and federal court rulings of substantially equal population for each.

"FREEZE" BRINGS SUMMER CHILL--The President's wage-price freeze continued to be the closest-watched and fastest-changing news event at the state capital. Gov. Preston Smith's proclamation to state agencies to disregard the presidential order and place pay raises for state employees in effect September 1 was quickly held invalid by Attorney General Martin.

Martin then went to Washington to plead for exceptions for state workers and school teachers who had been assured raises by legislative action and (in the case of teachers) valid contract will before the freeze order date, August 15. Meanwhile, Texas State Employees Association filed a formal petition for exemption of 60,000 state employees from the order and hinted at court action if refused.

Teachers kept close watch on Washington announcements to see if subsequent federal agency rulings would permit their raises covered by contracts signed prior to August 15 to be granted September 1. INFO OFFICES OPENED--Internal Revenue Service announced opening of nine offices in southern Texas to answer questions, study complaints and investigate alleged violations of the wage-price freeze.

Offices are located at IRS headquarters in Austin, Beaumont, Waco, Corpus Christi, El Paso, San Antonio, Houston, Harlingen and McAllen. Questions on new import duty surcharge will be referred to the Office of Customs in Houston. LABOR DAY TOLL PREDICTED--Fifty-two may lose their lives in traffic accidents during the long Labor Day weekend, predicts the Department of Public Safety.

If Texans can't drive more safely than that, Governor Smith told his traffic safety commission may have to be given to declaring a state of emergency on three-day holidays and calling out the National Guard to supplement police activities. Smith's committee reviewed plans for an intensive Labor Day safety campaign.

DPS Director Col. Wilson E. Speir urged motorists to refrain from drinking while driving, to avoid fatigue and to modify driving speed in accord with heavy traffic conditions. All uniformed officers of DPS will be on highways Friday through Monday to enforce traffic laws. Maximum use will be made of radar and breath-testing devices. DPS special reports on fatal accidents will continue.

AG OPINIONS--Public junior colleges may charge tuition in amounts greater than rates specified by the Legislature and may authorize additional fees, Attorney General Martin has held. In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: + Lessee or operator of a natural gas well on a state tract may not legally deduct from royalty due the state a portion of the cost of production, gathering, sale or delivery of gas.

+ Provision that an owner may record and use more than one brand or mark to identify his livestock remains in effect. + State employees can travel first class on airlines if no tourist class seats are available and are entitled to out-of-state travel expenses up to $35 a day. + Two bills encompassing types of service now credited under state retirement system are constitutional and not in conflict.

+ Legislation relating to eminent domain proceedings does not violate constitutional requirements of deposit of money. Bill aimed to provide condemnors "full benefits at any stage of a litigation process short of a final adjudication."

CHILD COUNCIL FORMED--Governor has established Council on Early Childhood Development to aid children under six.

Council will study early childhood programs and develop plans for strengthening them. It also will train parents and potential parents in the "art" of child care and guidance and implement new programs for education, health and social services to children.

APPOINTMENTS--Dr. James Richard Dolby of Waco was named acting director of community services for the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. Luther B. Simmons of Orange is new general counsel of Texas Water Development Board, effective September 15. Governor Smith appointed Mrs. Barbara Tomme of Fort Worth to the Advisory Council for Language Handicapped Children.

Smith also announced these recent appointments: + Lyndon Olson of Waco to Brazos River Authority Board of Directors. + Joe A. Myers of Stockdale and L. B. Davis Jr. of Longview (reappointments) to State Board of Morticians. + John M. Scott of Fort Worth (reappointment), Henry E. English of Dallas and Avery Mays of Dallas to the Trinity River Authority.

POOR DISTRICTS TO GET AID--School districts with the most children from low income families will get $82,456 in additional federal aid under new grant allotments announced last week. A total of 641 districts are eligible for aid to finance teacher hire, materials purchase and medical services. Allocations range from $9,995 for Houston to $31 for Hamby district, Taylor County.

SHORT SNOOTHS: Motorists no longer can stop and then pass a school bus loading or unloading children under a law effective August 30. A 214-acre tract in Collin County has been donated for a state park. Bowhunters will get a special chance at deer, javelina and wild hogs during Aransas National Wildlife Refuge archery season September 17-20. William E. Pool has resigned as executive director of State Bar of Texas.

State (In San Antonio North Expressway case) is testing a federal court ruling that it cannot build a highway with its own money if application for federal assistance is rejected. Thirty-seven applications to sell $33.3 million in securities were filed with State Securities Board last week.

Albert W. Brislin of Washington, D. C., succeeds B. Frank White as regional revenue service regional commissioner for an eight-state area with headquarters in Dallas.

Legal Notice
Understandably upset, Mrs. Olson determined to sue the store for damages. In court, the proprietor told the judge:
"Maybe my boys did get a little careless. I am willing to pay for cleaning her rug. But aside from that, she suffered no harm. After all, she was behind in her payments."
However, the judge held him liable not only for the rug but also for "punitive damages"—that is, extra damages imposed to teach him a lesson.
The law is taking an increasingly stern view of "rough stuff" by creditors in the repossession of merchandise. To discourage such tactics, most courts will award punitive damages to the debtor, over and above any actual harm done.
This is especially true when the repossession resorts to personal violence. Thus, a court awarded punitive damages to a housewife after her sewing machine was repossessed at the point of a pistol.
In another case, a furniture dealer told a widow she could have extra time to pay for her purchases because she had to have an operation. But while she was in the hospital, he broke into her house and decamped with the furniture. Here, too, a court found ample grounds for awarding punitive damages.
Nevertheless, the law does not frown on the basic idea of repossession. By giving the creditor a simple and speedy remedy against the delinquent debtor, it can keep down the cost of credit for other consumers.
Repeatedly, courts have found nothing improper when a repossessioner towed away a car parked in front of a debtor's house or even in his driveway. As one court pointed out, the seller is merely taking back — "without force, threats, or even stealth"—what is rightfully his.

THE FAMILY LAWYER
Comeuppance for Creditors
Mrs. Olson was home alone when two husky men came to her door.
"We're from the appliance store," they announced, "and we are going to repossess your stove."
Despite her protests, they barged into the house, seized the stove, and carried it away—leaving soot stains all over the rug.

Prospects for a successful diapause boll weevil control program appear good with the start of the 1971 program. The objective of the program which started in 1964 is to prevent the spread of weevils into the High Plains cotton.
Weevil infestations in the control zone had been very light throughout the summer. At the start of the program only a small number of fields in Dickens, Hall and Kent counties required treatment. In the southern portion of the control zone which includes Gaines, Andrews, Dawson, Lynn, Borden and a small portion of northern Martin County, only a few infested fields have been found. All of the infested fields were located in Borden County.
Surveys have been conducted in these counties all summer but so far the only weevils found have been those in Borden County. Survey teams will continue working throughout the program and spraying will be initiated if infested fields are found.
