Public School Week March 6-10

The Planning Committee for the Public School Week announced that the annual observance of Public School Week activities will be concentrated during the school week in the Tahoka Independent School District.

According to the committee, it is an effort to give parents and citizens a more meaningful and realistic understanding of their school. It is hoped that parents and citizens will take the opportunity to acquaint themselves with school physical facilities, observe students in classroom learning situations, and other related activities as they really are during the day.

A designated visitation day is scheduled for Tuesday, March 7 although any visitor is welcome each day during the week. Tuesday, as visitation day, is preferred as junior high and high school students will be involved in tests to end reporting periods Wednesday, March 8, Thursday, March 9 and Friday, March 10.

A special invitation is extended to parents and citizens to eat lunch in the Tahoka school cafeteria Tuesday, March 7. It is requested that they call the office of the Superintendent as to plans for eating in the cafeteria before Tuesday, March 7. This will enable Mr. Al Smith, manager of the school cafeteria to make necessary arrangements for the additional people eating in the cafeteria that day.

During the week's activities, a special service, babysitting will be provided, at the school, for children of parents and visitors.

Further information will be available prior to the Public School Week activities through students via written communication to parents.

Hospital Board Election April 1

Three places on the Lynn County Hospital Board are to be filled by election to be held on April 1st. The election will be held on the same date as the school trustees are elected. Nominations have been filed for the nominees to fill the positions: Ardis Pace (re-election); Roy L. Kahlich of Wilson, and Clifton Hamilton of Tahoka. Terms are expiring for Elmer Blankenship, Borden Davies, and Pace. Blankenship and Davies have been directors since inception of the District, and Ardis Pace was appointed to fill unexpired term of John Ellis of O'Donnell, one of the original directors.

Other members of the Board of Directors are E.R. Blakney, W. T. Kidwell, Garland Thornton, and Clint Walker.

Thompson Presents Lions Program

Hospitals are big industry states Jim Thompson, administrator of Lynn County Hospital.

Thompson was on hand last Wednesday at Lions to outline several new aspects in the health care field.

There are 7000 hospitals in the U.S. with a daily patient load of 1,500,000. The annual expenditure for health care amounts to 67 billion dollars or 7 per cent of the gross national product.

Thompson cited new technology and an acute shortage of help as factors in the ever increasing cost of health care.

As an example, he stated newspaper ads that had been running in major Texas newspapers asking for R.N.'s at a salary of $900 a month after 3 months, only one application had been received.

Thompson reports that most hospitals today operate at a consistent 10 per cent loss. On cases where the government is involved, only 90 per cent of the costs are recovered by the hospital. Only 40 per cent or 4 out of ten actually pay for the hospital's operation.

We are closer to socialized medicine than most people think. In 1966 the government paid 36 per cent of the costs on confinement cases. In 1970 this has grown to 51 per cent mainly due to Medicare and Medicaid.

Another cost rise factor revolves around Medicare licensing. Hospitals must conform to Medicare standards before accreditation for payment is authorized. An example of this is Mercy Hospital at Slaton. To meet Medicare standards, $100,000 worth of improvements must be made. Regulations do not improve patient care.

Concerning our own hospital Thompson said it is as modern as any. A plus in our favor is the modern cardiac equipment available at the hospital.

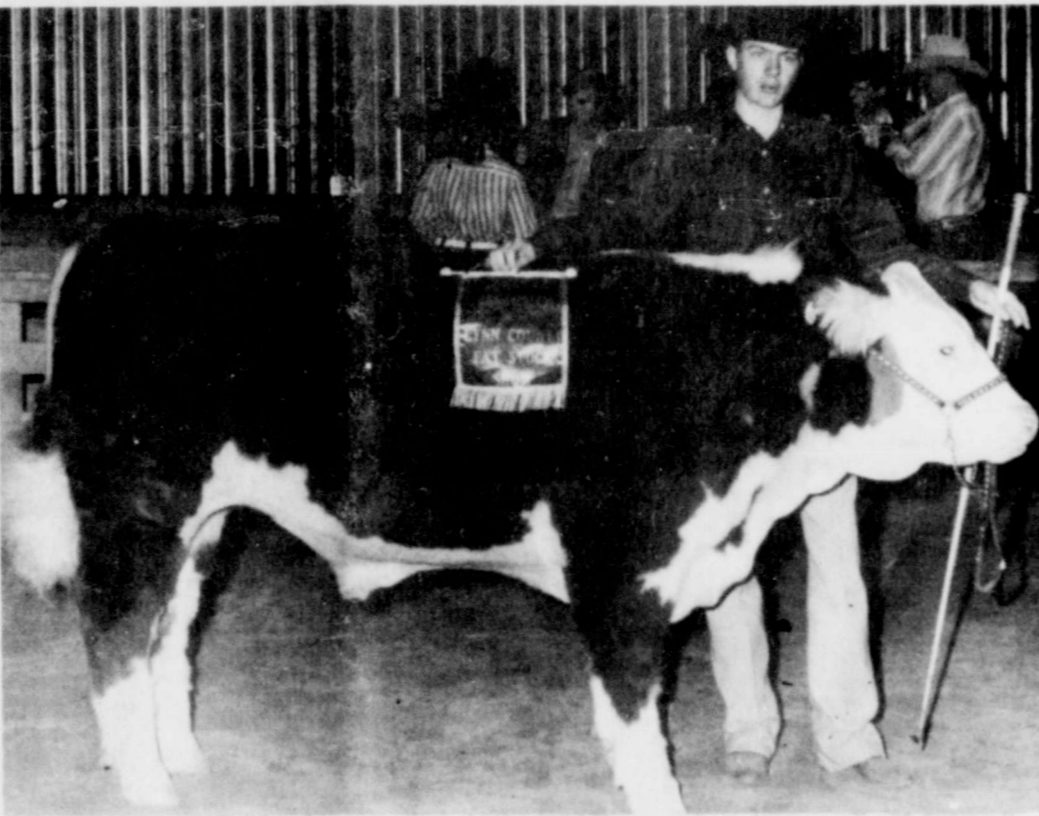

Thompson also informed Lions that a contract had been signed with a firm guaranteeing us a doctor, possibly two new doctors within a year.

An English surgeon could arrive in as little as five months. This doctor would be a highly qualified general surgeon. Clinic facilities have been promised to new doctors interested in establishing a practice here.

Thompson, 30, was administrator of a Van Horn hospital before moving to Tahoka. He is also a qualified laboratory technician.

The annual Lions Broom Sale will be held Saturday March 4th. Townspeople may order brooms and mops in advance by contacting any Lion.

Tahoka Lions meet Wednesday noon at Tahoka Cafeteria.

THOMPSON PRESENTS PROGRAM--Becky Franklin (left) and Staci Short visit with Hospital Administrator Jim Thompson after Lions meeting last week.

Two New Programs for Tahoka Schools

The Board of Education of the Tahoka Independent School District has given official approval for two new programs to begin in the fall of 1972.

Next year for the first time there will be a unit of Co-ordinate Vocational Academic Education. This will involve vocational teacher who will instruct the students in furniture repair and upholstery. Students will have their academic classes of English, Science, and Social Studies under regular high school teachers but classes will be tailored to the needs of the students involved and there will be no more than 15 students per class.

Facilities for the vocational education of the C.V.A.E. program will be leased away from school plant and students will be bused to and from the school.

Both boys and girls at freshman and sophomore level are eligible to enroll in program with a maximum of 20 students to be involved. The other new program will be two resource teachers in Junior High School to work with approximately 60 students in language arts and other areas. These teachers have special training to work with children who have learning problems in the areas involved. In addition to the resource teachers, the Tahoka Schools will also receive some professional supervision assistance through the minimum Foundation Program of the Texas Education Agency. The teachers and supervisory personnel consisting of part-time supervisor, a part-time diagnostician, and one other part-time professional person is made possible through the cooperation of Tahoka ISD with Brownfield under provisions made possible by the 61st Legislature.

Gordon Musick New Church Of Christ Minister

Gordon Musick is the new minister at the Tahoka Church of Christ, replacing Darnell Boyd.

Mr. Musick comes to Tahoka from the Fairground Road Church of Christ in San Angelo. Mr. Musick and his wife Betty, have four children, Stan 16, Kerry, 13, Sherry, 10, and Becky, 8.

He has been minister to the Church of Christ in Loop, Spade, Edmondson, New Mexico and Oklahoma. A native of Roosevelt county in New Mexico, he received his B.A. at the Eastern New Mexico University with a major in Bible and Industrial Arts. He has worked some on his Masters. Mr. Musick is looking forward to working with the congregation in Tahoka.

Dr. Prohl is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. He and Mrs. Prohl have recently returned from touring Africa. At the airport, he picked up a box and injured his back.

Jr. High Athletic Banquet Friday

The Tahoka Junior High School athletic banquet will be held Friday, March 3, at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Speaker for the event will be Brian Hall, a 18 year old senior from Dalhart.

Brian is president of his Future Farmers of America chapter, vice-president of FFA Area 1, and one of the most sought-after public speakers his age in Texas.

Brian had his foot torn off in an irrigation sprinkler and now wears an artificial one. But Brian is not handicapped. He is kicker for the Dalhart Wolves and he is one of the best place kickers in Texas schoolboy football. He kicked a 55-yard field goal in practice, and showed that anytime his team penetrates the opponent's 40-yard line, he is in scoring range.

His gift at the podium won him a place on the Government in-Action Youth Tour, last summer.

After graduation, he plans to attend Texas Tech and study agriculture.

Brian has been nominated for the Teenager of America contest.

All seventh and eighth grade girls and boys athletics and their parents are invited to attend.

Wilson Open House Tuesday

Open House in the Wilson public schools will be observed on Tuesday, March 7, 1972. All parents and patrons of the community are invited to visit in the classrooms with teachers from 7:00 to 8:20 P.M.

Activities for the evening will end with a program at 8:30 in the high school auditorium. The high school band will provide entertainment.

Lions Club Broom Sale This Saturday

The Tahoka Lions Club will hold their annual Broom Sale this Saturday March 4th. The products to be sold are quality made household and commercial items such as brooms, mops, etc. All products are made by the blind at ten different locations in Texas. The Lions club will try to canvass each home in town during the one day sale. There also will be a truck located in the downtown area. This project is in connection with the Lions Sight Conservation Program. Approximately 75 per cent of the sales will go to the Lighthouse for the Blind and the remaining 25 percent will be used by the local Club for their sight project and other worthwhile projects.

In connection with this sale the local Lions Club would also like to have any old eyeglasses that anyone might have. These may be given to any member of the Club or may be given to the persons canvassing the homes during the broom sale. These old eyeglasses will be collected and taken to the District Convention and will be sent overseas so that the frames may be reused for needy persons. The Lions Club would greatly appreciate your cooperation on these projects.

Encourages The Use Of Rese

The huge grain sorghum and corn crop of 1971 is still taking its toll on market prices. We still feel that with the settlement of the dock strikes, a good sign up in 1972 Feed Grain programs, and farmers holding for higher prices, there is a fair chance that market prices will strengthen.

U. S. D. A. announced last month that they would extend the resale program to the 1971 crop of grain sorghum that is in commercial storage. The 1970 crop will be called in. This means that a farmer can continue to hold his 1971 grain sorghum under the government loan program throughout the coming year. Without this announcement, a farmer would be forced to redeem his grain by June 30 or CCC would foreclose on the loan and take over ownership.

After June 30, CCC will pay storage costs on resealed grain, and the farmer pays only the interest on the loan. The resale program had been extended to farm-stored grain last fall. GSPA had been insisting that this program should be made for corn, wheat, and soybeans also. Executive Director, Robert Harp, commended Secretary Butz for allowing this program.

Farmers using the loan resale program will be able to receive any increase in market prices during the coming year.

Cotton Meet March 8

Lubbock--The past, present and future of cotton will be scrutinized at the Sixth Annual Cotton Production Meeting of the South Plains Development Program in Lubbock, March 8.

The conference is slated for 1:20 p.m. in the KoKo Palace, according to Billy C. Gunter, SPD program coordinator and district agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The program was started in 1967 to furnish South Plains agrribusinessmen, producers and homemakers the latest information to increase income and family living standards.

The cotton meeting will open with Dabney Wellford, who is an economist with the National Cotton Council. He will cover such questions as the qualities of cotton that will be in demand this year, as well as his views of cotton marketing and prices in the future.

Roy McClung, Cochran County agricultural agent, will discuss cotton irrigation and seed quality. He will be followed by Dr. Levon Ray of the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. Ray will report on some of the current cotton varieties, problems in producing them, and needs for the future. The researcher is noted for his pioneer work in the development of narrow row cotton varieties that are over the nation. John J. Seibert, Extension economist from College Station, will cover the aspects of forward contracting of cotton. Walter Wells of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service will explain the new provisions of the government farm program and also producer options in the feed grain program.

Marvin Sartin, Extension area economist at Lubbock, will conclude the program with a discussion on how South Plains cotton producers can fit the government farm program into their farming operations.

"The meeting will cover key items concerning the cotton industry on the South Plains," says Dr. Robert Metzger, Extension area cotton specialist, "it is open to anyone interested in the West Texas cotton industry."

The meeting is being sponsored by the area county agricultural agents and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Band Students Score High In Contest

Our week started off well with Mrs. Hammonds and her group of ladies playing the piano and singing with us. Thank you, ladies for coming so faithfully. We especially enjoyed you this week as we missed our Sunday afternoon church service.

Lalo Grow has returned to the home after several weeks in Lubbock's West Texas hospital where he underwent surgery on his eyes. He wears glasses now and can see much better.

Kate Jones has returned to us from Lubbock's Methodist Hospital where she had surgery on her hip. She was just getting where she could walk after surgery several months ago when she sat down too hard and re-injured it. It will be a long hard struggle to walk again, but we know she'll make it.

Mrs. Bertha Jolly brought a big pineapple cake. It sure was delicious. Thank you, so much!

Dr. Thomas was here Friday to see all his patients. Mrs. Wery and her sister took their mother, Mrs. Barton out for the day last Thursday.

Mrs. Ellis Tredway was in to visit Mrs. Cunningham. Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Stevens were here to visit Mrs. Clark. They are from Ft. Bliss, Texas. Willie Fortenberry and Nora Goultney were here to visit their uncle Authur Dial. Ann Ware was in to see Mrs. Corbin. And, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wood were in to visit with his Mother, Mrs. Mary Wood.

We had a lovely group of Spanish children in to sing for us but didn't get their names. Hope they'll come again soon and sign our register!

Corine Iyard had a nice surprise Saturday night when her company came in a day early. P.F.C. and Mrs. Charles "Bug" Pennington came to visit with her. We wish they could stay forever since she enjoys them so much. Her sister, Mrs. Coleman in New Albany, Miss., is still very ill. Our prayers go out to her! Resent visitors signing our register were Mrs. Jim McGrew, Mrs. C.A. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Inklebarger, Urna H. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Hinkle, Micky Beshear, Mrs. Tom Cloe, Mrs. Nila Cloe, Miss Brenda Cloe and Mrs. H.R. Tankersley. Thank you for your visits and kind thoughts. Your Friends at the Nursing Home.

Band students from Region XVI of the University Inter-scholastic League competed Saturday at Monterey High School in Lubbock. Competition was in individual performance and group ensembles.

Linda Huffaker, CHD Agent, Says.....

Make way for the childhood wall!

If you're planning to panel a wall that must withstand a lot of abuse, then look for a wood paneling with a finish that can really take it. That's one with conversion varnish.

This varnish forms the most durable finish available for wood paneling. It's been treated at a temperature between 120 and 160 degrees Fahrenheit. With this treatment it's not affected by the paint removers or common household cleaners used in cleaning walls.

When shopping for paneling, to find out whether or not it has the conversion varnish finish, ask the salesman. Most wood paneling on the market does have this type of finish, but he can assure you whether or not your choice does.

Lacquer, acrylic and polyurethane are other commonly used finishes. Most fine furniture has a lacquer finish and needs protection from small children and their crayons. Acrylic and polyurethane finishes take more hard use than lacquers. But a conversion varnish is still more durable.

So ask about the finish before you make your final choice on wood paneling. If it's for a room that really has to take it, the one with the conversion varnish is your best choice.

There is general agreement that contracting for the sale of cotton prior to harvest, a long time on-again-off-again practice in the industry, will play a significant role in cotton merchandising for the years immediately ahead. And with this in mind Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock-based cotton producer organization covering 25 High Plains counties, is now laying groundwork for a "Forward Contracting Seminar."

Date for the seminar has not been set, but the aim is to have the format completed in time for late March.

Discussion at a recent meeting of the PCG Board of Directors was to the effect that producers and merchants alike need answers to a number of questions if forward contracting is to work smoothly. "We think we can perform a useful service to the industry by sponsoring a seminar which will air the problems connected with contracting and wherever possible suggest solutions," says Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of PCG.

"Contract performance," Johnson continued, "is important to both producers and to buyers, and we hope by calling upon legal authorities and marketing specialists we can obtain suggested contract provisions and means of guaranteeing performance which will avoid disagreements and disappointments to the maximum extent possible."

Questions that will be under consideration at the seminar include: How can the acreage and production under contract best be described so as to promote complete understanding between buyer and seller?

How can producers and buyers best be protected against non-performance of contracts? Are letters of credit, performance bonds or escrow accounts preferable? Or is there a better way to provide effective protection at minimum cost?

How can contractors be protected against failure to deliver, under-delivery or over-delivery on the part of producers?

What provisions should contracts contain with respect to quality, cultural practices and procession?

These and many other issues will be explored, Johnson says, to the end that forward contracting will work better as a merchandising tool for both merchants and producers.

On the High Plains in 1971 Norman Sloan, Market News Specialist for USDA's Cotton Division in Lubbock, estimates that over 40 percent of the crop was sold before harvest, and he thinks "there's a good possibility now that even more than that will be contracted before the beginning of the 1972 ginning season."

Some areas of South Texas and the Rio Grande Valley of Texas already report that 70 percent or more of 1972 crops are committed. And the same is true of the Mid-South and Southeastern states in the Cotton Belt.

Sloan estimates that only from 50,000 to 100,000 acres of High Plains cotton is under contract for 1972, but points out that planting time in this area is still some two months away, leaving plenty of time for increased contracting activity.

Problems that tend to impede contracting on the Plains and are either non-existent or lesser concern in other parts of the Belt include wide variations in both quality and quantity from year to year and, comparatively speaking, the greater number of growers in the under 300-acre category. Too, the fact that the Plains is the latest harvesting area of the Belt tends to place it last in the contracting plans of buyers.

Johnson explicitly points out that PCG is neither "for" nor "against" the forward contracting of cotton, and adds "It simply appears that this merchandising practice is becoming commonplace, and the seminar we plan is designed to provide needed information to those who may want to utilize it."

Rites Held For Woodrow Stewart

Services for Woodrow Stewart, 58, Lorenzo were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. James Holman, pastor officiating. Burial was in the Terrace Cemetery in Post.

Survivors include his wife, Ruby, a son, Claburn Nathan of Rankin; a daughter, Mrs. Dan Redman of Lubbock, his mother, Mrs. Ida Stewart of Post; three brothers, Melvin of Post, Edsel of Lawndale, Calif., and J. B. of Butte, Mont.; five sisters, Mrs. Mae Norman, Mrs. Janet Hall and Mrs. Audrey Rolan, all of Post, Mrs. Helen Ammons of Lawndale and Mrs. Joy Hufaker of Denver City and four grandchildren.

Comparison Of Cotton Quality

The 1971 South Plains cotton crop was the lowest in quality and volume in many years, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U. S. D. A.

Unfavorable weather conditions plagued South Plains farmers through the entire year. The winter and spring were too dry for planting at the proper time and the late summer and fall were too cool and wet for cotton to mature properly. For these reasons both volume and quality turned out poorly.

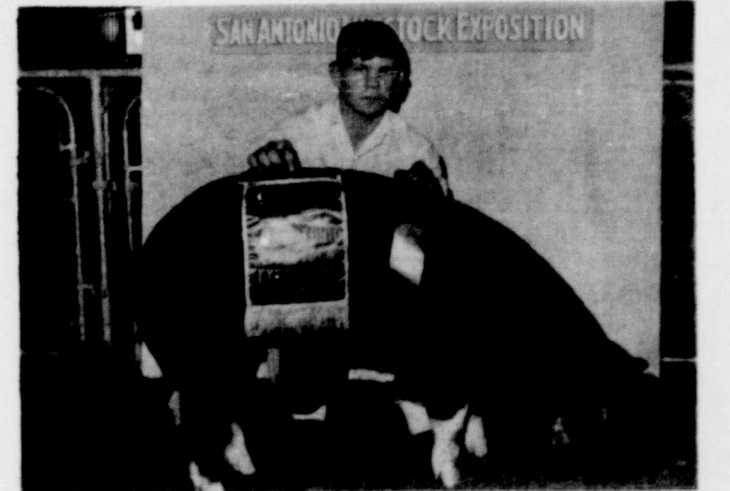

Total number of bales produced will be about one-third less than the 1970 crop. Final harvesting figures of this season's crop have not been completed but estimates indicate that approximately 1,120,000 bales will be harvested. The 1970 season produced approximately 1,620,000 bales.

Only fourteen per cent of the South Plains cotton this season was classed in the White grades, 60 percent in the Light Spotted grades and 26 per cent in the Spotted and Tinged grades. During the 1970 season, 41 per cent was classed in the White grades, 47 per cent in the Light Spotted grades and only 12 per cent in the Spotted and Tinged grades.

The average staple length of the South Plains crop was lower than the 1970 average--30.4-32nds of an inch, or between 15-16ths and 31-32nds of an inch. This compares to 31.1-32nds of an inch for the 1970 crop. The most significant aspect of this season's crop was the low average micronaire. Only 7 per cent of the crop was in the desirable category of 3.5 and better, compared to 65 per cent of the 1970 crop. This is by far the lowest micronaire crop since testing was started in the sixties. The lowest micronaire crop prior to this season was in 1966 when 27 per cent of the crop had micronaire readings of 3.5 and better.

Petrocelli

Current Thinking

Knowledgeable men of any age, old-fashioned is a drink not an attitude. They're today-people, receptive to constantly changing ideas, more interested in what's next than what's been. If you're that kind of man, Petrocelli makes your kind of clothes. Like the "Wilshire", a worldly suit with important pocket interest, deep center vent, and a back belt to wear or not, at your option. Available in your choice of rich fabrics including double-breasted. From a new-spirited Petrocelli collection for the contemporary generation.

New Home boys won a non-conference game over O'Donnell at the latter place last Friday night by the close score of 45 to 45. O'Donnell led 25 to 15 at the half, but the Leopards came back strong to win over the Eagles in the final two quarters.

O'Donnell B team boys edged out an 8 to 6 victory over the New Home B team.

New Home won the Senior girls game 35 to 22 and the junior girls game 32 to 6.

Copied from Feb. 16, 1951 Texas Tech Red Raider football players: Bobby Close, halfback, Red Phillips, guard, and Dick Jackson, end, were judges for the most beautiful girl in Tahoka High School, at a contest staged in the school auditorium Tuesday, February 15.

The identity of the winner will not be revealed until the distribution of the 1951 "Kennel," the Tahoka High School yearbook, sometime in May. A full page picture will be in the annual.

Nominees for the title of "Most Beautiful" included: Edith Aldridge, Elna Dunagan, Jo Hogan, Wanda Norman, Carolyn Collier, Frances Henderson, Dot Durham, Jo Ann Benson, Frances Martin, Wanda Marlin, Tommie Whorton, and Betty Heddleston.

A similar contest for the "Most Handsome" boy in THS will be held February 20, with Sue Holcomb and Paula Fox, editors of the Texas Tech newspaper, "The Toreador," and yearbook, "La Ventana," and Pat Finley, Tech co-ed, acting as judges. Nominees for "Most Handsome" are: Gary Mitchell, Bland Draper, Jimmy Whorton, Lynn Halamek, Benny Brookshire, Ronny Garley, Morgan Howle, Harry Short, Danny Lockaby, Bill Short, and Dale Wilhoit.

Ernest Walker received a badly wrecked car but he escaped unharmed when the machine skidded and overturned on the Lubbock highway afternoon. He had started to pass another car when his automobile, an Oldsmobile 88, stated skidding and overturned.

Sgt. Robert Harvick, in service with the Marines, came home Friday night of last week for his wife. The couple left Wednesday for Fullerton, California, near his base, where they have secured an apartment.

Copied from Feb. 23, 1951 T. D. Dunlap brought to The News office Wednesday morning a tremendous and fresh hen egg which he found in the nest at his place earlier in the morning. The large egg was 8 inches in diameter. Through a break in one end, one could see in and white and also another normal sized egg, shell and all, on the inside. He believes one of his hens laid the egg, actually two eggs with one inside the other, during the night.

Who says a hen never lays more than one egg a day? If T. D. can find the hen, maybe he can breed up a new strain of chickens that will make him rich.

Track work-outs were started this week at Tahoka High School with a total of 55 boys reporting to Joe Turner.

Some of the boys will participate in the district meet and possibly in several invitation meets. All of them will get valuable physical training and get in shape for spring football drills.

Members of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce and their wives were attending the annual banquet of the organization Thursday night in the Legion Hall as The News went to press.

Charles Verner is the new president of the organization, succeeding A. M. Bray, and Wynne Collier is the new vice-president, succeeding H. W. (Cotton) Carter, Russell McGee is secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

New directors were elected to succeed Bill Strange Sr., Terry Thompson, Ronald Sherrill, H. W. Carter, Hubert Tankersley, and a Vernon Brewer. Holdover directors are: Bray, Verner, Collier, Winston Wharton, and J. Douglas Finley.

Principal speaker for the occasion was scheduled to be Robert E. Striplin, Midland oil man.

Bill Griffin, County Agent, Says.....

Trees and shrubs adapted to an area and placed properly in the landscape can increase in value as much as five to six times in the first 10 years and will continue to increase in following years.

To insure proper placing, develop a landscape plan before planting. When building new homes, design the landscape before the home is constructed. Allocate a minimum of 10 percent of the cost of the house for a landscape budget.

After the house is several years old, the existing plan can still be renovated if the need arises. Consider the various use areas of the yard. Are these areas being used to their fullest potential?

The approach or public area is usually considered first. Don't hide a house by planting a forest in the front yard. Trees and shrubs must have room to develop to their fullest potential. Simplicity should keynote the design.

Emphasize the development of the outdoor living area. The homeowner should have time for relaxation and enjoyment with a minimum amount of time for upkeep. The living area in the backyard is usually screened with a fence, wall or shrub to provide privacy. For convenience and a feeling of unity, the outdoor living area should be readily accessible to the living room or family room.

The outdoor work area should be convenient to the kitchen, utility room and garage as these are considered work areas of the house. The work area is usually screened and may include space for drying clothes, a garbage rack, tool storage and the compost area, depending on the owner's requirements.

For maximum returns on your investment, consult a professional landscape architect. If this is inconvenient or you enjoy doing the planning and planting yourself, there are many excellent references available in the garden section of your favorite book store or library.

Farmers Request Set Aside Inspection

Since the beginning of sign-up in the 1972 feed grain, wheat, and cotton programs, approximately 165 farmers have requested early set-aside inspection a measurement service from the County ASCS Office.

"This is 33 percent of the farmers who have signed up in the set-aside programs so far, and it already indicates a heavy workload for our inspection and measurement crews," said Tommy Lawson County Executive Director of the Lynn County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Office.

He added that another 150 to 200 farmers may request the service before the end of the sign-up period on March 10.

The earlier a request for set-aside inspection and measurement service is made, the earlier the service will be performed. "Since most farmers request the service when they sign up in the programs, that's one good reason for coming in to the County ASCS Office as early as possible to sign up," he said.

This year the ASCS set-aside inspection and measurement service offers farm program participants a quality- and quantity guarantee of acceptability of their set-aside acreage.

The service is offered at a nominal fee which covers the cost. Upon request, trained ASCS personnel inspect and measure designate set-aside acreage and stake and reference the fields. The same measurement service is provided for program crop acreage upon request.

If set-aside land is accepted for quality and quantity at the time of inspection and measurement, the farmer is guaranteed that the acceptance is firm, provided he follows the measurements, and the intended use of the land is carried out. No deductions will be made from his set-aside payment if a spot-check at a later date should result in a different determination on either quality or quantity of set-aside.

Quality, Lawson said, refers to provision that set-aside acreage be land which is equally productive and similar to land on which the program crop is being grown. Quantity refers to the amount of acreage set aside in order to comply with the programs and options the farmer signs up for.

"The quality-and-quantity guarantee is important. Spot-checks will be made later on participating farms selected at random. For a farmer who had early set-aside inspection and measurement service, a spot-check would really be a check on how well the service was performed. Any error resulting from faulty inspection and measurement service would not affect his set-aside payment.

"But if he didn't have early set-aside inspection and measurement service, then the farmer would be responsible for any error in the quality or quantity of his set-aside land, and that could mean reduction or loss of his set-aside payment," Lawson explained.

Target for completion of early set-aside and measurement service in Lynn County has been set for July 1. However, Lawson pointed out that regular measurement service for any farm program purpose may be obtained by farmers throughout the year.

SHOWMANSHIP AWARDS-Kevin James, Weldon Warren and Renn Dorman won the showmanship awards at the Lynn County Livestock Show held last weekend at the show barn in Tahoka.
