THE FORGOTTEN AMERICAN

Historians of the future will no doubt record the speech of Governor George Wallace of Alabama to the Democratic Convention in Miami Beach Tuesday night as one of history's greatest defenses of the "Average Man."

In a plea for a Democratic Platform to meet the needs of the Average American, Governor Wallace pointed out he has criss-crossed America and has talked with Average Americans, who are concerned about forced school busing, welfare chislers, bigger and bigger government and ever-increasing taxes.

The tragedy of it all is that Governor Wallace was almost alone before a crowd of ultra-liberal extremists who by late Wednesday were steam-rolling their way to nominate one of the most fanatical bleeding-heart liberal members of the United States Senate to carry the Democratic banner in the November 7 General Election.

It is indeed a sad commentary on the state of our nation that Governor Wallace's plea for sanity fell on the deaf ears of leftwing extremist delegates, who, knowing that big government has already failed with its cradle-to-the-grave welfare programs in America, were advocating a party platform that demands even more government control and less freedom for the American people.

The Democratic Party with a platform that cannot even be topped by 100 per cent socialists has surrendered itself into the hands of the extremist Senator George McGovern and his wild-eyed supporters who advocate legalized abortion, gun control, guaranteed $6,500 per year for every bum in America and even the government takeover of private rental property if it doesn't meet standards prescribed by bureaucratic bunglers who perpetuate themselves in office by the old theory of tax and tax, spend and spend, elect and elect.

As Governor Wallace so eloquently pointed out, America is rapidly running out of workers. If every bum and deadbeat in the country can sit on his hands and draw $6,500 for doing nothing, why should the rest of us work? When this realization finally soaks in on the remaining relatively few workers in the nation, then it will be interesting to see how the next nut convention will "solve" the problem.

McGovern and his "government can cure everything supporters" have failed to consider at least one major factor: How can all the socialistic government schemes be financed if there are no workers to be taxed to pay the bums?

If George McGovern is elected President of the United States, there is no way this nation, as we know it, can survive for four more years.

George Wallace summed up the situation Tuesday night: America is finished unless we all go back to work and demand less and less government control and less and less welfare.

The day that American conservatives have been warning the nation about for the last 40 years has finally arrived. If you don't believe it has, go ahead and vote for George McGovern on November 7... because this country hasn't ever seen any problems compared to the ones we will have if we have to put up with McGovern and his crowd for four years.

President Nixon may not have solved all our problems, but, friends, he is our ONLY chance now.

And if you are one of those people who has always voted Democratic because of your old grandpappy or the Civil War or the Great Depression, you had better stop and re-consider the situation.

If you think George McGovern - who reportedly supported the pro-Communist Henry A. Wallace for President in 1948 - is your kind of Democrat, ask George Wallace or Senator Scoop Jackson or Mayor Daley of Chicago or any one of 100,000 other once-proud Democrats.

The time is here, Fellow Americans - now it's re-elect Dick Nixon or go back to the dark ages, where big government is everything and the individual is nothing - absolutely nothing!

You can still save America, but there won't be anymore second chances after McGovern...

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
The editor of a smalltown

Q. Why don't you have fun-papers?

A. We think we have the finest paper in Texas right

Q. Why don't you have an advice to the Lovelorn column, like Abby Lane?

A. None of our readers are any such problems.

Q. Why do you have all these misprints?

A. They're the most interesting part of the whole paper.

Q. Why didn't you publish a poem I sent you?

A. It was a lousy poem.

Q. Why do you always say "oh" when referring to yourself in the paper?

A. We want our readers to think they're outnumbered.

Q. Why didn't you put out a bigger paper like the Milwaukee Journal?

A. We plan on it as soon as the population of Montello equals that of Milwaukee.

Q. What would you give me for writing a weekly column of rural homespun philosophy?

A. A poke in the eye with sharp stick.

Q. Why don't you write an editorial and tell those guys on the city council what they can do to improve the town?

A. Why don't you go down to the next meeting and tell 'em yourself.

Q. Why don't you print more letters to the editor?

A. Why don't you write me one? and sign it with your name, please - don't be chicken.

Q. Why do you devote space to such trivialities as "Joe Smith is feeling poorly this week?"

A. Because good old Joe has many pals who are concerned over his health, even if you are not. Who knows, somebody might read this item and send Joe a bottle of sympathy.

Q. Why do you run so many of the same people's names over and over and over?

A. Because so many things that happen, happen to people who don't happen to want everybody to know what happened.

The Famous Mr. Ed Talking Horse Of TV To Appear In Tahoka July 22

This guy was a real name-dropper, see?

He calls me up and says "this is Ed" and I say "who?" and he says "Ed" and I say "oh" and he says "you remember me on TV, don't you? I retired in '65."

Well, I says "did we ever meet?" and he says "naw". But you remember Alan Young, don't you?" and I says

"sure" and he says "well, he was my buddy on this show."

Well, I'm trying to remember, see. And I says "are you working now?" and he says "yeah. I'll be on the Lynn County Courthouse lawn in Tahoka on Saturday, July 22 from 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., haven't you heard?" and I says "oh SURE, like I had heard."

Well, I don't think he believed me. He says: "I can do more than 100 stunts. Polka waltz, rumba, too. Add, subtract, multiply. Smoke cigars, brush my teeth - very important, you know," and I says "that's... nice" and he says:

"Clarence Tharp from Mira Loma, California and I pal around a lot these days... mostly comedy stuff. You should have seen me in a Beagle wig and big glasses. They howled in Las Vegas."

An before I could get a word in, he says:

"They made a movie short about me -- 'The Natural Life of Mr. Ed. See it?' and I says "no" and he says:

"See it. Good fun. But I'm over 20 years now -- and that's over 60 years in your life... I still like to ham it up, but I guess I just talk more than anything," and I says "I believe it" and he laughs and laughs, and says "Well, I'll see you in Tahoka July 22."

And you know what? It sounded just like Mel Blanc. You know him -- he's the voice of Bugs Bunny and Porky Pig and Mr. Ed, the talking horse and...

You know what? I think someone was pulling a funny one on me.

You kids don't forget now to get your parents to bring you down with their cameras so they can get a picture of you with Mr. Ed.

See you Saturday, July 22 on the courthouse lawn in Tahoka from 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

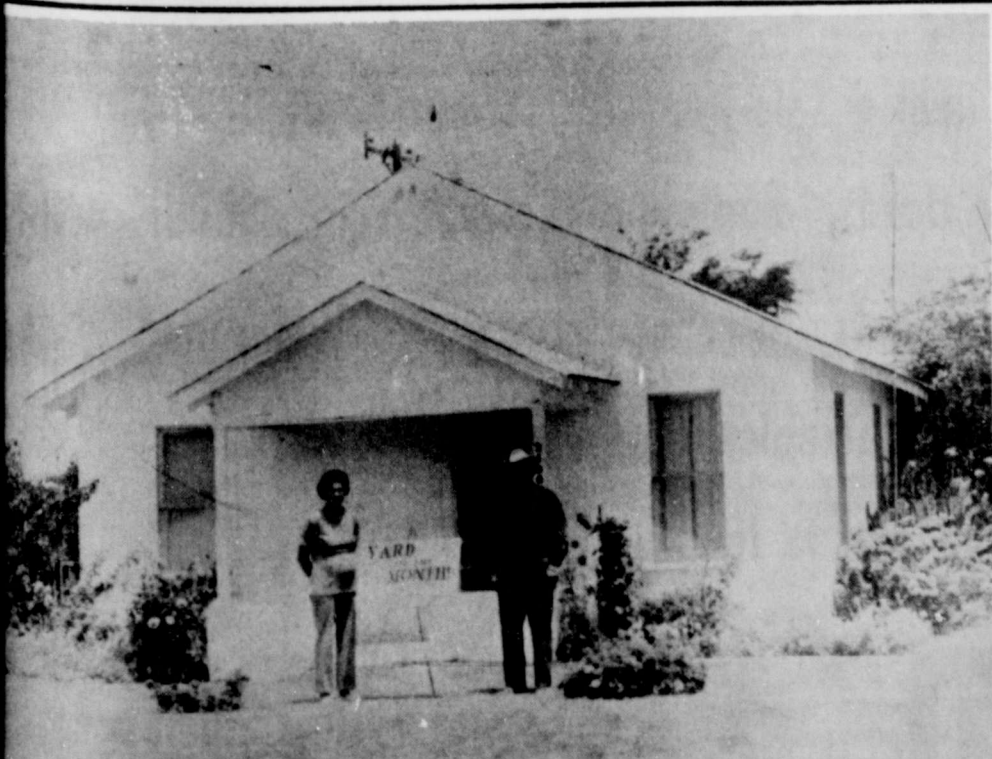

There will be no admission for the show and it is sponsored by the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce and Tahoka Merchants.

Past Days In Lynn County

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas of Grassland will leave Monday on a two month hunting and fishing trip to Alaska. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Van Roeder and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Key and family of Snyder, and will make the trip over the Alcan International Highway.

The men will spend a part of their time hunting and fishing. They expect to hunt for bear, caribou, mountain sheep, and possibly other big game, according to Mrs. Thomas.

While the men are on their hunt, the women expect to visit Rev. and Mrs. Orland Carey in Fairbanks, Alaska. The Careys were both reared in Snyder and now are doing missionary work in Alaska.

L. N. Bartley, night policeman here for the past several months resigned his position with the City of Tahoka Saturday to accept a similar job at Slaton.

Dwaine Jones was appointed to succeed him, and went on the job Sunday night. Jones was formerly on the Snyder police force.

J. B. Florence is the day policeman.

Mr. Bartley is reputed to have made an excellent officer and he is said to have resigned for a better job with better working conditions.

Eight Lynn County 4-H Club boys placed in the South Plains area Sear Foundation pig growing contest, according to information received by County Agent, Bill Griffin. Thirty-nine youths placed in the contest, based on weight gains of their pig litters.

Lynn County boys, and their prizes follow: Harold Sanders, Rt. 3, O'Donnell, sixth, $15.00; Hilton Wood, Rt. 5, Tahoka, fourteenth, $9.00; Walter Lee Stice, Rt. 4, Tahoka, twenty-first, $8.00; Dan Tom Stoker, Rt. 1, Wilson, twenty-fourth, $7.00; Slaton D. Harris, Rt. 3, O'Donnell, twenty-fifth, $7.00; and Wendell Norman, Rt. 2, Post, thirty-second, $7.00.

D. V. Smith has sold his building at the corner of Alley and Lockwood streets to Claude Donaldson and the hatchery equipment to Jones Grain and Seed Company.

V. F. Jones and Felix Jones have moved the hatchery equipment to their building east of the railroad on Lockwood, and next winter they expect to open a chicken hatchery in connection with their grain and seed business.

Mr. Donaldson is cleaning up and reconditioning the frame and stucco building, which occupies a lot 30 by 88 feet in size, and next month expects to move his cotton office to this location. He hopes to rent out a part of the building.

Fifty cases were filed in the new Tahoka Corporation Court during the first month of its operation, according to Russell B. McGee, City Judge.

Ten cases were filed in the court this past week. Of the 50 cases, 41 have been brought to trial and fines totaling $511.50 have been paid. One violator laid his fine out in jail, and one laid out a part of his fine. The remainder are pending.

A total of 39 charges have been filed for traffic violations. Five for gambling, three for drunkenness, one for passing a funeral procession, and two against peddlers for not obtaining a City license.

The City Judge has issued one warrant of arrest for a violator who failed to appear, but this man "got word" and sent in his fine. Other warrants are pending issuance for the same reason, but six are not yet due. The man charged has five days in which to make his appearance.

Charges of "failure to appear" accompany the warrants when the Judge deems it necessary to send out after a delinquent violator. "The Police have been very lenient on traffic violation," McGee state, "but the Council may ask them to tighten down."

"Cooperation and attitude of local citizens have been splendid, and the Mayor and City Council wish to express their appreciation for the manner in which the people are cooperating and in which the Police are doing their jobs."

"The Council also wishes to state to the public that the Police Department was not set up for revenue purposes, but to enforce the laws and ordinances of the City of Tahoka, making this a better and safer place in which to live."

The only Lynn County boy to enter the Soap Box Derby contest which is scheduled to be held in Lubbock Sunday, is Donald Ken Renfro of Tahoka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Renfro. Donald's car has passed inspection and is ready for the race in Lubbock Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m.

Derby officials who inspected the racer praised the car which has been named "H. B. Howell Farm."

The Luther League of St. John's Lutheran Church, Wilson, spent an enjoyable evening at MacKenzie State Park, Lubbock July 15, as guests of the Slaton Luther League. Swimming was enjoyed by

A member of the 32nd "Queen's Own" Infantry, Renfro's unit blunted the Red attack in their sector, inflicting 4795 casualties in a seven day period.

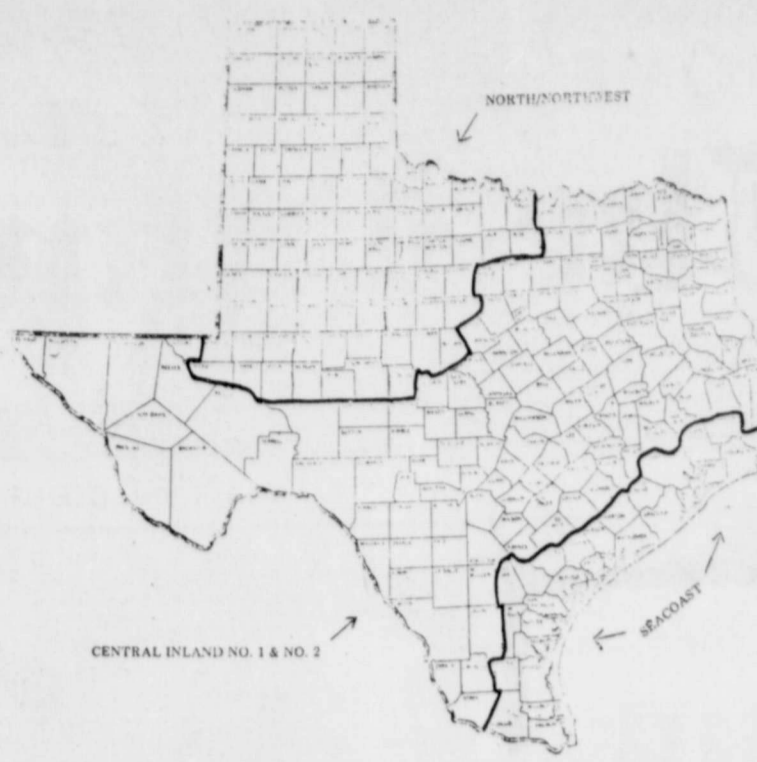

Major General Claude B. Ferenkaugh, Division Commander, commended the unit for "superior performances of duty, valorous combat and steadfastness of mission" and compared it to the "Bulge" and "Bastogne" of World War II.

Renfro is a member of the most traveled division in the Far East. In eight months of action, the seventh Division has made two amphibious landings, traveled all the way from Pusan to the Manchurian border, and fought on both coasts of the Korean Peninsula.

Social Security Raised 20%

Social security beneficiaries need not apply for the 20 percent benefit increase signed into law by President Nixon on July 1. Social security district manager, John G. Hutton, said today that all social security beneficiaries who are on the benefit rolls in September will receive the increase automatically. The increase is effective beginning the payments for the month of September. The average monthly benefit for a retired worker goes up from $134 to $162; for a retired couple from $224 to about $271. A widowed mother with two children will receive an average social security benefit of about $386 up from $322. For a disabled worker with a wife and one or more children, the new average monthly payment will be about $354, increased from $295. The special monthly payments that are made to certain individuals age 72 and over who are not insured for regular social security benefits will also be increased by 20 percent, from $48.30 to $58.00 for an individual and from $72.50 to $87.00 for a couple. The new law also includes a provision for automatic annual increases in social security benefits as the cost of living rises in the future -- a recommendation made by President Nixon in his 1969 message on Social Security. Under the new law the contribution and benefit base, the maximum amount of annual earnings that are counted for benefit and contribution purposes will rise from the present $9,000 a year to $10,800 in 1973 and to $12,000 in 1974. Thereafter, this amount would be adjusted automatically to keep pace with rising wages. This means that as earnings rise, workers whose earnings are at or above the level of the maximum earnings base will pay contributions on higher earnings, but they also will have those additional earnings counted toward the benefits that will be payable to them and their families in the future.

Representative E. L. Short and Rep. Renal Rosson of Snyder, and others have researched discrepancies in insurance rates from one territory to another. For example, in the Northwest territory the rate for a $10,000 frame house policy cost $108. The Seacoast for the same $10,000 house would cost $49. The Central - Inland rate would be $30. This committee will try to determine if this high rate in the Northwest territory compared to the others is justifiable. The number of dollars a home is insured for, of course, increases the rate accordingly. On a $20,000 home in Northwest territory, the cost in $192 compared to $66 for the Seacoast area and $53 for the Central - Inland. They hope in the 63rd Legislature to make a recommendation and prove that owning a home in West Texas area is no more hazardous to weather factors as those areas around the Seacoast that are exposed to hurricanes and flood conditions. Therefore, it is hoped that they can get the rates in West Texas adjusted to a more

In January 1924, they moved to Wilson, Lynn Co., Texas, and in 1928 they moved to their farm near New Home, Texas where they resided until 1959 when they moved to their present home in Lubbock. Both are members of Oakwood Baptist Church. Taking part in Sunday School, Bible School and WMS Mr. McCormick has been very active in her church activities for more than 60 years.

Besides her years of church service, Mrs. McCormick was a charter member of the Home Demonstration Club work in Lynn county.

China Painting is one other fascinating hobby. The McCormicks will welcome many friends and relatives from California, Utah, Kansas, Oklahoma, and many places in Texas on this memorable occasion.

LINDA HUFFAKER SAYS ...

Americans nibble between meals, in front of the TV set, at parties and on the run. "This conspicuous consumption of so-called 'junk' foods costs us more than two million dollars a year."

The specialist said that a constant agenda of round-the-clock activities combines with the popularity of convenience snack foods leaves little time for balanced meals.

Commonly eaten snacks such as candies, chips, cakes and soft drinks are high in calories and low in other nutrients. That's why they're called 'junk' or empty calorie foods.

"Snack foods may fill you, but provide little nutrition unless you choose your snacks in the same way as you would plan a well-balanced meal with common sense."

Between-meal snacks can make a difference in the way you look and feel.

"Every bite you eat becomes a part of you." "Since you don't always eat all your food in three meals of the day, snacks should be a part of your food plan. By choosing your snacks in relation to foods eaten at mealtime, you get extra health insurance."

Snacks can be nutritious. If meals are low in calcium or protein, you can pick up these needed nutrients by including milk, cheese or ice cream as a snack.

For a cool, refreshing and nutritious snack, why not try milk a la mode -- a tall glass of cold milk with a couple of spoons of your favorite ice cream? Or cut down a bit on calories, try the same snack using skimmed milk and ice cream in your favorite flavor. Sherbet with fruit juice is also good.

"Thirsty, calorie-conscious individuals can try their favorite fruit and vegetable juices." "They're a lot better for you than a soft drink."

Fresh fruit is an easy and nutritious snack. Fruits in season will be low in cost.

Dry fruits offer another easy, quick snack. Raisins and dried prunes, apricots and peaches are all "eat-from-the-box" favorites. Raw vegetables make another good snack particularly for the weight-conscious person. Unlike most snacks, they're high in nutritional benefits but low in calories. Try carrot curls, celery sticks, radishes or raw cauliflower.

"The best way to have healthy snacks is to plan for them when you do your weekly shopping." "When planning, choose those snacks which provide at least one of these nutrients -- protein, riboflavin, vitamin C, vitamin A or calcium."

The Lion's Line

MRS. LOU KEAY

LION SPEAKER

Mrs. Lou Keay, Public Information Coordinator for the Texas Tech museum was guest speaker at Lions last week.

Mrs. Keay has been with the museum seven years and her job is to tell the museum story. From a dream by the Plains Museum Society early in 1929, a museum for this area did not become a reality until 1936, when a basement was excavated.

The museum remained underground in the basement stage for 13 years, before the building was completed in the early 1950's. That original building was recently designated as Holden Hall after Dr. W. C. Holden, longtime hand of the museum.

Two decades later, the West Texas Museum Association (the former Plains Museum Society) finds its early dream has come true, when efforts of the association and Texas Tech University combined with the support of the community, the area, and the State, have completed Phase I of a giant museum complex on a 76 acre tract of land on the Texas Tech Campus.

The entire complex upon completion will cost approximately $7 million.

The museum is an educational institution. Its objective is to "preserve the present, and provide perspective for the future through the collection and exhibition of objects of scientific historic and artistic value, and by research and publication, particularly as they relate to the Southwestern part of the United States and to the other arid and semi-arid lands of the world."

One outstanding feature of the museum will be the Ranch Headquarters outdoor museum. Some twenty historic ranch buildings will be assembled on a 12 acre tract adjacent to the museum to preserve and interpret the story of ranching throughout the American West from the 1830's to the early 20th century. This project is scheduled for completion by 1976.

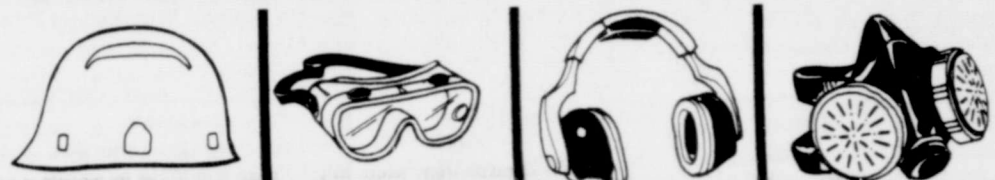

Another popular attraction is the Moody Planetarium, a gift made by the Moody Foundation. The latest equipment made available from Spitz laboratories is used and is housed in a unique building.

The museum is for everyone and there are no admission charges to the museum.

There is a small admission charge however for planetarium lectures.

Lion Ed Redwine reported on the first Board of Directors meeting for the new year. Several guests were present at the meeting.

The Parks and Wildlife Commission handed one controversial issue back to the Attorney General and was handed another one by the Legislature.

PWC voted four-to-two to ask Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin to review and reconsider a May 26 ruling that a 1970 contract to purchase 3,965 acres of Mustang Island property for park development is a "binding obligation."

Martin's opinion, according to PWC Chairman Jack Stone of Wells, is expected in about a week.

The Mustang Island battle has raged from Austin to Washington and back and through the federal courts and has figured in battles over Senate confirmation of PWC members.

Legislators, in special session, thwarted long-standing plans of the State Highway Department to build a 10-story $20 million headquarters building on a block near the capitol and governor's mansion.

Instead, the Legislature decreed, the Parks and Wildlife Department would purchase with $1.5 million from its cigarette tax the barren, dusty block in downtown Austin and convert it into a park.

The highway department was directed to consider placing its plush new building elsewhere.

Neither agency, conceded legislative leaders, was deliriously happy with the arrangement.

Under the circumstances, however neither seemed to have much choice.

Louisiana last month threatened to appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court Texas officers' attempts at enforcement in the area. Attorney General Martin informed Louisiana Atty. Gen. William J. Guste Jr. Texas will keep its commitments in the disputed areas of the Gulf south of the Sabine River Mouth.

The area was recently found by a Supreme Court-appointed master to belong to Texas, but Louisiana appealed the decision.

Inflation still threatens. Inflation is still a strong threat, though Texas is recovering from economic recession, according to a University of Texas Bureau of Business Research study.

Unemployment remains high, says UT BBR, but estimated personal income rose nine percent in the last year and bank debits 10 percent.

The unemployment level, frowned on by the Bureau, was 3.8 percent in May, which is lower than the 4.1 percent of a year ago and considerably below the national 5.9 percent rate.

Consumer spending and residential construction were seen as strong. The rate of the consumer price index rise slowed somewhat after the presidential price freeze, BBR found.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT WINS AWARD - Texas Highway Department received the National Safety Council Award of Honor for an outstanding occupational safety record during 1971.

"Less than five out of 1,000 of the nation's total number of work units meet the award of honor requirements," said Howard Pyle, National Safety Council president.

The Texas Highway Department got the award for a 52 percent decrease in frequency and 42 percent decrease in severity of accident rates of its employees last year.

TEXAS BEEF CATTLE LEADER - Texas is the nation's leader in all major categories of the beef cattle industry, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White states.

The livestock industry in Texas is a $2 billion industry, accounting for almost half the total agricultural income of the state. There were 12.8 million cattle and calves in Texas in January, more than five million head above second-ranked Iowa.

Rankings by counties for livestock categories include the following (one through 10): All cattle and calves: Deaf Smith, Farmer, Hansford, Castro, Swisher, Sherman, Randall, Ochiltree, Hale, and Hopkins.

Texas ranks second in the nation in number of slaughter plants, third in cattle and calves slaughtered during 1971, third in sheep and lamb slaughter and 15th in hog slaughter.

DEMOCRATS AT MIAMI BEACH - One hundred and 30 Texas Democrats - most of them new to the party wars - are busy at Miami Beach this week, helping nominate a candidate for president.

Another 70 alternates were named to the convention.

The Texas delegates, headed by gubernatorial nominee Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde, are closely divided as to supporters of George Wallace, George McGovern and Hubert Humphrey.

TEXAS EXHIBIT PLANNED - A special Texas exhibit is planned at the fifth annual El Salvador International Trade Fair November 3-20.

The fair is one of the top trade expositions in Central America and attracts commercial firms from surrounding Central American states.

Several Texas manufacturers have indicated an interest in sponsoring exhibits. The International Trade Division of the Texas Industrial Commission and the Texas Department of Agriculture are sponsoring the Texas exhibit.

FARMWORKER GRANT APPROVED - A $2 million federal grant will provide classroom instruction and on-the-job training for migrant farmworkers.

Local agencies participating include Economic Opportunities Development Corporation of San Antonio (Atascosa, Bexar, Frío, Medina and Wilson counties); Community Action Agency of South Texas (Starr and Zapata counties); Coastal Bend Migrant Council (Duval, Jim Wells, Likeberg, Nueces and San Patricio counties); Middle Rio Grande Development Council (Dimmit, LaSalle, Maverick, Uvalde, Val Verde and Zavala counties) and Laredo - Webb County Community Action Agency.

Proper disposal of pesticide containers is a common interest to both the urban dweller and the farm operator.

Unless handled right, "empty" containers could contaminate food and water supplies of people or animals. Accidental poisoning is also a possibility.

Rinse each container as it is emptied and adding the rinse to the spray tank. This should be done before filling the spray tank with water or other diluting material. Rinse each container three times, using one quart of rinse each time for a gallon container and one gallon for a five gallon can.

By thorough rinsing, the pesticide will be used as intended. At the same time, the amount of residual material in the container will be greatly reduced. By prior careful planning, the amount of leftover pesticide can also be reduced.

Attorney General Martin held that an act giving a fire chief sole authority to put a fireman on disability retirement or demand he return to work is unconstitutional. He said local pension boards have authority to determine the degree and date of disability.

Third Court of Civil Appeals affirmed a new savings and loan association to serve Baytown and the surrounding area in Liberty, Chambers and eastern Harris counties.

U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has awarded $300,000 to the Father Rahm Clinic in El Paso for health and family planning services to the Spanish-speaking.

Southwest Airlines serving Dallas, Houston and San Antonio announced it is raising its one-way fare from $20 to $26 between the points served.

A new Veterans Administration drug treatment program is planned for Dallas.

The Rehabilitation Commission is dividing Harris and 24 other Southeast Texas counties into two regions for better supervision of services to mentally and physically-handicapped clients.

Rinsed containers will require careful disposal. Light containers that are crushed or broken may be used on the farm. Pesticide containers should be broken into 18 to 24 inches of clay loam soil at least 500 feet from wells, streams and live feeding areas to avoid contamination. Burial sites should be relatively high ground, is flat or gently slopes away from any water supply, and surface or subsurface could be used for other purposes. The location should be fenced and marked.

It is important to select a burial site where the soil tends at least 8 to 10 feet deep before running into rock or hard-pan, which cause lateral movement of subsurface water.

Another way for urban dwellers to dispose of pesticide containers is to use the empty containers with several layers of newspaper, preferably followed by crushed or broken. Such containers can then be placed in the barge can for disposal. As sol cans, of course, should never be punctured or broken. Simply wrap the aerosol container and place it in the garbage can.

Research in continuing effort to develop a means of disposal of used pesticide containers. The methods described here are consistent with the current recommendations of the Federal Working Group on Pesticides.

Guest Editorial

Blame The Criminals

(Reprinted from The Dallas Morning News)
As long as skyjackings are allowed to succeed, skyjacking will continue. That's a fact to keep in mind in evaluating the FBI action against air pirates in San Francisco.

This point has been made repeatedly by such interested parties as the airline pilots and law-enforcement officers. It has also been demonstrated by events.

When the first well-publicized hijackings to Cuba took place, they set off a wave of air piracy as imitators endangered the lives of hundreds of air passengers.

For attention, for political terrorism or simply for the playing out of warped fantasies, dozens of hijackers kidnaped air crews and passengers and diverted airliners to foreign countries.

This first outbreak of hijackings was dampened considerably by such measures as stricter security, heavy penalties for returned hijackers and the stationing of guards on some airliners.

But then a new pattern emerged when a hijacker completed an apparently successful crime in which he extorted a large ransom and a parachute, with which he made his escape. And again there was the monkey-see-monkey-do effect, sending a host of would-be hijackers out to try similar tactics.

The most recent and ominous form of terrorism directed at air passengers has been demonstrated by the Arab skyjackers and their Japanese radical allies in the Middle East.

In San Francisco, two heavily armed skyjackers commandeered a plane and tried to take it and $800,000 ransom money to Siberia. They refused to release the passengers.

And when FBI agents entered the plane, the two thugs fired on the agents and on the passengers. Three of the passengers were wounded by the gunmen, one fatally, before the FBI agents killed the skyjackers.

On the record, we can now expect a nationwide campaign by the FBI's constant critics to put the blame for this tragedy, not on the hijackers who committed the crime but on the FBI agents who stopped it. Already some reporters have reported the incident in such a way as to suggest that the FBI rushed the plane with guns blazing, heedless of the danger to passengers.

This is in line with the view that the vicious criminal is merely an unfortunate who needs understanding while the law-enforcement officers are trigger-happy brutes whose vocation is violating the civil rights of defenseless citizens.

This view overlooks the fact that criminals were the authors of both the violence to the passengers' rights and the violence to their persons.

If the violence is not to culminate in some horrible instance of mass murder—as we saw in Tel Aviv—these hijackings must be stopped.

As an FBI agent said, "Certainly we're not pleased that three passengers were wounded, but somebody had to make a decision. We wanted to stop the hijacking and stop it we did."

This tough approach has been taken previously by Israel, Turkey and other nations who have made terrorist kidnappings unprofitable and unattractive to those tempted to try this tactic.

The FBI's quick action stopped the hijacking in San Francisco, but it must also have provided a deterrent to other would-be hijackers thinking of imitating it.

Stanley Price At Army Reserve

Cadet Stanley D. Price, 24, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Womack live on Route 2, Tahoka, Tex., is receiving practical work in military leadership at the army reserve officers training corps advanced summer camp at Ft. Riley, Kan. from June 10-July 21.

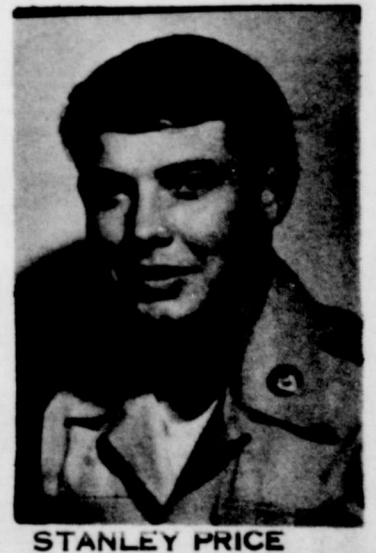

Cadet Price, a graduate student at Texas A & M University, College Station, is one of more than 10,000 students attending army ROTC training at six installations in the U.S.

The six-week ROTC advanced camp provides an opportunity for cadets to develop and demonstrate leadership capabilities in a field training environment. The instruction supplements theories and concepts which cadets learned in the classroom on campus.

Cadets normally attend the training between their Junior and Senior years. This enables them to better comprehend their final year of classroom work and to function as Cadet Leaders on campus.

Cadet Price is a 1965 graduate of Tahoka High School. He received a B. S. Degree in Agriculture Education in 1970 from Texas A & M University. His wife, Zacki Ann, lives in Tahoka.
