BARBARA STEINER - TROMBONE

Four students from Tahoka High School have been selected to the All-Student Band and Chorus, U.S.A. The students are selected by applications and recommendations plus past records.

The all-student band is sponsored by the Shenandoah Conservatory of Music in Westchester Virginia and is directed by Paul Noble.

The four band students are Steve Hyatt, Larry Brito, Barbara Steiner and Ginger Sterling.

Steve Hyatt is the son of Mrs. Wanda Faye Smith and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith. He is a junior at Tahoka High. He has attended all the years in band that the school has offered; from beginner band to senior high band.

Larry Brito is 14 years old and a freshman in Tahoka

High School. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brito. He has received many one ratings, for drum solos. He moved here last year with his parents from Lamar, Colorado.

Barbara Steiner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Steiner. She moved to Tahoka in 1969 from Oklahoma. She started in the band the first year she was here. She is currently in the National Honor Society and has been on the honor roll throughout her school years.

Ginger Sterling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Sterling, and is a Junior in Tahoka High School. Ginger started musical training at the age of seven, has been a band student for five years and plays the flute, bass baritone, and oboe. Special activities for Ginger include Junior Class Reporter Varsity Basketball, Cheerleader, and Musician with the Tahoka Order of the Rainbow Girls. Ginger will play the flute while on tour with the all-student band.

These four students will tour Europe for approximately a month.

This is the first time that a member of a Tahoka band has been selected for this group. The local students will leave for Virginia the third week in June to rehearse and get their uniforms, then will leave from Washington, D.C. and return to the U.S.A. in July.

Age range on this group is from 15 to 26 including high school and college students.

Texans To Vote On Constitutional Amendments

TEXANS WILL VOTE ON 14 proposed amendments to the state constitution at the General Election to be held on November 7.

The Lynn County News and daily and weekly newspapers in each county carried the amendments in detail and readers were asked to study them carefully and be informed before going to the polls to vote in November.

A brief summary of the 14 amendments to be voted on in November are mentioned here:

Amendment 1 is a proposed amendment to increase the annual salary of members of the Texas Legislature from $4,800 to $8,400. No changes are made in mileage or per diem allowances.

Amendment 2 will be a vote to abolish or not to abolish the Lamar County Hospital District and authorize the Commissioners Court of Lamar County to provide for the transfer or for the disposition of the assets of the Lamar County Hospital District.

Amendment 3 deals with the office of Justice of Peace. The proposed amendment requires that Justices of the Peace in all counties of Texas be paid by the Commissioners Courts on a salary rather than a fee basis. Effective date for the new type of compensation would be Jan. 1, 1973.

Amendment 4 would add a Section 2 to authorize the 63rd Legislature to establish a constitutional revision commission.

The commission would report its recommendations to the legislature after which a new constitution could be drafted or revisions made to the present one. The only subject matter restriction on the convention as provided by the proposed amendment is that the present Bill of Rights of the Texas Constitution be retained in full.

Amendment 5 would permit the legislature to grant property tax exemptions to disabled veterans and to their surviving spouses and minor children.

Amendment 6 would add a new subsection to Article VIII, Section 1-B to allow political subdivisions of the state to exempt not less than $3,000 of the value of residence homesteads of all persons 65 years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes levied by the political subdivision.

Amendment 7 adds a new section to the Bill of Rights in the Texas Constitution. The Texas Constitution does not expressly prohibit discrimination because of sex, race, color, creed or national origin. On adoption, the amendment increases the constitutional guaranty of equal rights to all persons by prohibiting this discrimination.

Amendment 8 would establish four-year terms for certain elected and appointed state officials whose term of office is now two years.

Amendment 9 exempts directors of soil and water conservation districts from constitutional prohibitions against holding more than one civil office of emolument and against payment of compensation to persons holding more than one office or position of honor, trust, or profit under this state or the United States.

Amendment 10 relates to the method of amending the constitution and includes the provision that amendments are to be voted upon "by qualified electors for statewide offices and propositions, as defined in the Constitution and statutes of this State." A change from the present language states that proposed amendments are to be voted on "by the qualified electors for members of the Legislature." It also changes the provisions on (1) the time at which the legislature may propose constitutional amendments and (2) the time and method of publishing notice of proposed amendments.

Amendment No. 11 deletes from the present Section 17 of Article IV the language which provides that the lieutenant governor shall, "while he acts as President of the Senate, receive for his services the same compensation and mileage which shall be allowed to the members of the Senate, and no more." The new Section 24a, which is added to Article III, provides that the "Lieutenant Governor, while he acts as President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall each receive from the public treasury an annual salary of $22,500.

Amendment 12 makes several changes in Article XVI, Section 1.

tion 33 and 40 of the State Constitution:

(1) A provision is added allowing state employees or others compensated by state funds, who are not state office holders, to serve as members of the governing bodies of school districts, cities, towns or other governmental districts, while still drawing a state salary, but receiving no salary as a member of the governing body on which they serve.

(2) Reserve and retired members of the Air Force and Coast Guard and officers of state soil and water conservation districts are exempted from the prohibition on dual office-holding. Members of the Army, Navy, Marines, and probably the Air Force, were already exempted by existing provisions.

(3) The existing provision permitting non-elective state officers to hold other non-elective offices is changed by deleting the requirements that the legislature must first permit this dual office-holding and may limit or restrict it.

(4) A provision is added permitting a member of the legislature to be a notary public.

(5) The section on dual compensation is amended by prohibiting the holding of more than one "civil office of emolument" rather than using the present language, "office or position of honor, trust, or profit," which presently covers any paid state job as well as any office.

Proposed Amendment No. 13 would add a new Section to Article III to the Texas Constitution. This new section would provide that agencies, instrumentalities, and subdivisions of the state authorized could issue future bonds with maximum interest rates not to exceed a weighted average annual interest rate of 6 percent.

Amendment No. 14 would allow the commissioners court of a county to distribute a portion of the county permanent school fund to school districts in the county on the basis of scholastic population for the purpose of reducing bonded indebtedness or making permanent improvements. The Commissioners are required by the proposal to retain a sufficient amount of the county permanent school fund

Shawn's Grandson Was Kidnapped

Stanley Shawn, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shawn of Colorado City and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Shawn of Tahoka, was kidnapped last Saturday morning and later was released unharmed.

Stan's father, Wayne, was raised in Tahoka, graduated from Tahoka High School and worked at the bank here.

Stan was home from Southwestern Oklahoma Pharmaceutical school visiting his parents for the week end. He drove the family car to a Safeway store in Colorado City to buy groceries about 11:30 a.m. When he returned to his car four Negro men from 19 to 25 years of age, asked for a boost. Shawn replied that he did not have jumper cables. After Shawn had gotten into his car, two of the men forced their way into his car at gunpoint and forced him to lay down in the back floor board.

The two men drove his car, followed by the other two men in the other car. They took all of Stan's money and headed for Lorraine. They turned off on a by-pass road and forced him out of the car, where they threatened to blow his head off. He begged them not to and for them to take his car. They locked him in the trunk of a Duster, the car they had been driving, and left in the Shawn car. Young Shawn waited until he was sure the men had gone and he tore out a rear seat speaker and found a pair of pliers inside the trunk and in about a half hour worked the lock open on the trunk. He hailed several drivers before getting Mrs. Wayne Oliver to stop and give him a ride into Lorraine where he reported the abduction.

The four men were caught in Cisco and are in jail at Colorado City.

Shawn's parents did not know anything had happened to him until he returned home.

Lions View Film

Forecaster Sloan has worked over different parts of Texas and was only recently transferred to the Lubbock office of the NWS.

Sloan answered questions following the film but was reluctant to predict a freeze date for the South Plains.

Lions meet every Wednesday noon at the Cafeteria, Wendall Patterson is president. Visitors and prospective members are welcome.

LINDA HUFFAKER SAYS ...

Americans are rediscovering cheese for meals and snacks.

Even dieters have found that Cottage, Ricotta and Neufchatel cheeses offer them a variety.

As an added bonus to versatility, cheese is nutritious. It provides a lot of food value in a small package— including protein, riboflavin and calcium.

As for cooking with cheese, the consumer should remember two factors essential for good results — brief heating and low cooking temperatures. High temperatures and cooking too long make cheese tough and stringy and cause the fat to separate. In addition, some of the flavor is lost in the process.

Cheese is more readily melted with other ingredients and melts more quickly if it is shredded or diced first. As a rule of thumb, one-half pound of cheese will yield two cups when shredded.

Soft well-aged Cheddar melts and blends with other ingredients more readily than less ripened cheese and less of it is needed because it has a more pronounced flavor.

Processed cheese also will melt and blend readily, although it will have a much milder flavor.

Due to its versatility, cheese can be prepared in a number of different ways and in various dishes.

It can be melted in the way it comes from the package; it broils; it blends into sauces; and it goes in main dishes where it's melted or baked.

Melt cheese in the top of a double boiler over simmering water, or add to a hot mixture.

In making cheese sauce, wait until the white sauce is completely cooked before adding the shredded cheese. After adding it, heat the sauce only long enough to melt the cheese.

For cheese omelet, add shredded cheese after the omelet is cooked—just before folding.

Cheese can be melted under the broiler as well—open face sandwiches can be prepared this way.

For this treat, place the cheese topped-sandwiches four to five inches from the heat, then broil just until the cheese begins to melt.

When using cheese in casseroles, cook the food at low to moderate temperatures.

Covering cheese toppings with crumbs is one way to prevent the cheese from toughening or hardening. Another way to avoid this is simply adding the cheese a few minutes before removing the dish from the oven.

NURSING HOME NEWS

Hello once more from the Colonial Nursing Home. Several of our people are in the hospital as we write this.

Mr. John Anderson, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Arriaga, Mrs. Owens, and Mr. Clark.

Mr. Moreman has moved back home for a while but he said he would probably see us in about a month.

Oh how we hate this rainy weather as the cotton needs to be gathered.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Buck Autry for the nice mess of greens.

Bud Inklebarger had a lot of visitors, including Mrs. Doyle Terry, Mrs. J.D. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Long and girls of Lamesa and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Inklebarger and baby. He really enjoys seeing them, especially the young ones.

We all enjoy visitors. Corine Izard received bad news, her brother, Cleo Pennington of Gadsden, Alabama had surgery and it was cancerous. She wants her friends to pray for him. Also Mrs. Frankie Sargent of Azil, Texas and Mrs. Mable Morgan of Tahoka visited her last Saturday. They were nurses at the Tahoka Hospital before it closed in 1966. Of course the three talked over old times.

Mr. Bales spent Friday, Saturday, and Sunday in Odessa taking a course required by his license sponsored by the Texas Nursing Home Association, the League of Nurses, and the University of Texas. Talo Grow and Mattie McCord have returned from a stay in the hospital for test and observation. Also Mrs. C. E. Short of Grassland brought us a Halloween display to enjoy. It is nice.

Mrs. Mahola Harston's son, L.P. Harston of Lockney was by for a visit.

Mrs. C.W. Rust of Lubbock visited Mrs. Willess and Mrs. Jesse James carried Mrs. Willess to Lubbock to see her doctor on Monday. He gave her a good report.

Others signing our guest book include Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barnett, Mark and Mike Bean of Littlefield, Annie Belle Stice, Mrs. Bertreux and Micky and Montie Lindsey. Mrs. Hammonds and two other ladies came to sing with us Monday. So many of our people seem to feel bad, maybe it is the cold cloudy weather, but thanks. Mrs. Hammonds and the ladies cheered us up.

Well that is about all the news for this week, so we will be looking for you to stop by for a visit.

The 1,250,764 bale cotton crop on the High Plains in 1971 compares with a crop of 1,734,767 bales in 1970, and was the smallest area turn-out since 1967. Weather conditions were primarily responsible for a per-acre yield of only 264 pound, the lowest since 1952, and for a drastic drop in fiber quality. In grade, the crop was 15 per cent White, 59 percent Light Spot and 26 percent Spot and "Others", as compared with 41 percent White, 45 percent Light Spot and 14 percent Spot and "Others" in 1970.

Staple length for the 1971 season averaged 20.2 thirty-seconds of an inch, almost a full thirty-second below last year's 31.1 thirty-seconds average. This was the third year since 1963, when the High Plains' average staple was only 29.8 thirty-seconds, that the area failed to record an increase in staple length. There was also a sharp decline in the amount of cotton stapling in the one inch or longer category, from 36.1 percent in 1970 to only 4.3 per cent this year.

Micronaire average for the 1971 season came to only 2.9 with a meager 7 percent 3.5 or above. The 1970 crop micronaire average was 3.7 with 65.3 percent 3.5 or above.

Average Pressley, or fiber strength (zero gauge), was 77,200 pounds per square inch in 1971, well below the 84,900 psi recorded in 1970, 99.5 percent of the crop was above 75,000 pounds in 1970 as compared to only 66.4 percent in 1971.

Elongation -- the percentage of stretch a given cotton will experience before breaking -- averaged 8.3 percent for the season, an increase of one percent over 1970. Requests for assistance with the interpretation of the information in this report, as well as suggestions for how it can be improved, should be directed to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, Texas.

The "anniversary" loan program for cotton may be a useful marketing tool for producers in 1972 for the first time, according to officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., the organization most responsible for institution of the new concept in 1971. The anniversary loan permits farmers to hold title to their cotton for up to 12 months from the date of ginning. Previously, all Commodity Credit Corporation loans on cotton expired at the end of each marketing year on July 31, with CCC assuming title to all cotton not redeemed before that date.

PCG had long maintained that the loan should permit farmers to retain control of their production for at least a full year, thereby giving them the opportunity to benefit from market price swings over a longer period. PCG's arguments were recognized with anniversary loan provisions in the Agriculture Act of 1970.

CCC loans now mature 10 months from the first day of the month in which the loan is made. And, since CCC will forgive up to 60 days storage charges on cotton entering the loan, the effective "holding period" can be up to a year.

For example cotton ginned on December 2 this year can be held by the producer for 60 days until February 1, 1973 then placed under a CCC loan which won't mature until December 1, 1973.

Throughout this period from harvest to loan maturity the producer holds title to the cotton. If market prices improve enough to more than cover interest and storage costs, he can redeem the cotton and sell it in the market, a practice commonly called "selling his equity."

Interest cost to farmers on CCC cotton loans is 30 cents per $100 per month, an annual rate of 3.6 percent. Storage charges are 60 cents per month.

The anniversary loan was available to producers in 1971, but market prices were such that it wasn't needed.

"But the situation is different this year," notes PCG President Ray Joe Riley of Hart. "If prices continue to fall and we can get only a little over loan value for our cotton at harvest time," he says, "it may well be to our advantage to put cotton into the loan and hold it against possible price advances during the coming year." He points out that feed grain producers in 1971 found prices depressed at harvest time and wisely used the loan time to significantly improve income from that crop. Cotton producers might be able to do the same this year, Riley thinks.

Riley is not advising every producer to use the loan in 1972. Instead he states "Each individual will have to make the loan-or-market decision based on his own circumstances and his assessment of chances for price improvement in 1973. But every farmer should be aware that we now can keep cotton in the loan for a longer period, which in itself increases the possibilities."

"The size of each year's crop is the major factor affecting cotton prices," he continued, "and with the anniversary loan we can keep control of this year's crop until November or December of 1973, at which time 1973 production will be pretty well established."

Past Days In Lynn County

Copied from Dec. 6, 1934
Watson Spears came around to the News office Monday to pay up his subscription and stayed long enough to tell us a few things about the great Boulder dam now under construction out in western Arizona, on which project he recently worked for about three months.

It is hard to imagine the immensity of the project. The dam is now over 500 feet high and will tower to 720 feet when completed. The biggest cement mixer in the world is being used on this world's biggest dam. A special railroad was built to haul gravel to the dam site and a million yards of gravel is kept on hand ahead of the workers. Thousands of workers are employed and live in a small city eight miles from the dam site. They are transported to and from work in huge buses, some of which have a capacity of 125 passengers. Though completion of the dam is expected by next April, the power plant, a gigantic project itself will require two more years of construction. The dam will back up water in the river for 75 miles.

Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale, Mmes. H.P. Caveness, Jim Burleson, F.L. Kelley, E.L. Hill, Mother Stroud, and Miss Margaret Preston, attended the Workers Conference of the Brownfield Baptist Association at Claene, Hockley county on Tuesday.

Rev. Dale had a place on the program. The meeting in January is to be held at Gomez in Terry county.

E.E. McManis, Jim Izard, and Waymond Smith of the Petty and New Home communities also had good luck on their deer hunt recently staged in the Davis mountains, according to Mr. McManis, who was a pleasant visitor in the News office last Saturday afternoon. Mr. McManis brought down a four-point deer while the straight-shooting, claimed a ten-point animal as his trophy. Wayman Smith was not so successful but he had a lot of fun.

Mr. McManis says that deer are plentiful in Jeff Davis county.

The Tahoka band rendered a program at Joe Bailey Wednesday night. They have here to fore rendered programs in several different communities in the county and have had pretty good crowds wherever they have gone. They will continue these programs in various rural communities as arrangements for same can be made. N.W. Allphin is the present director.

A fire that threatened to become serious broke out in the Piggly Wiggly Store Monday afternoon but was extinguished before any great damage was done.

The fire started from a stove in the front office when the proprietors were warming up some lubricating oil a bit, preparatory to using it in the building. The oil ignited, rapidly spreading to a quantity of paper sacks and other inflammable material. The fire alarm was sounded and many people quickly gathered at the scene. Efforts to extinguish the flames with buckets of water were unavailing, but Buddie Knight and Harley Wells threw a barrel over the stove and succeeded in removing it to the street.

The fire in the building was then easily extinguished. Some damage was done to the floor and fixtures, to the cash register, and adding machine, and other articles, while a quantity of tobacco was destroyed. The total damage was estimated at about $500.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas returned to Tahoka Wednesday afternoon and will probably remain here indefinitely.

Following a visit to Clyde Thomas and other relatives at Sulpher Springs prior to and during the Christmas holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas visited a couple of weeks or more in Austin. They were there when the legislature convened and when the new governor was inaugurated. Mr. Thomas was a member of the last legislature as the representative of this district, and during the two short years that he served in this capacity he made many warm friends in the legislature and throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Emory Nance, who have been residing in Washington, D.C., the past five years, are removing to Dallas, according to Mrs. Nance's father, W.L. Knight of this city. Mrs. Nance has already arrived in Dallas and Mr. Nance is expected to come soon. He will be connected with the Home Owners Loan Corporation in that city.

All Boy Scouts are requested to meet at the Methodist Church Friday night, Feb. 1, for the election of officers. Mr. Smith, scoutmaster, and Harold Edwards, assistant scoutmaster, will be present. Mr. Edwards held the meeting last Friday night. Those present were Vernon Smith, F. E. Redwine, Ted Boydston, Billy Boydston, James Price, G.C. Price, Jack Swafford and Herbert Womack. Harold gives his promise of some field trips this summer.

Cancer Society Workshop To Be Held Saturday

"We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime" is the slogan of the American Cancer Society. Many volunteers from the District III area will be attending the District Crusade Workshop on November 4, 1972 at the Holiday Inn - Parkway in Lubbock. The purpose of the meeting is to inform volunteers of cancer's warning signals and to organize the District Crusade.

Any interested person is invited to attend this meeting. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the meeting will conclude at 2:30 p.m. If you would like additional information, please contact the American Cancer Society Office in Lubbock at 762-1323.

Yule Packages for GI's Should be Mailed Soon

Christmas packages to armed forces overseas should be mailed before Nov. 8 for surface mail, before Nov. 22 for SAM (Space Available Mail), before Nov. 29 for PAL (Parcel Air Lift) and prior to Dec. 13 for Air Mail, Postmaster Charles Townes has announced.

The postmaster listed the following suggestions for packing Christmas gifts: Pack articles in wood, metal, strong fiberboard or corrugated boxes. Wrap fiberboard boxes in heavy brown paper and tie securely with strong cord. Pack articles in the box tightly with sufficient cushioning material. Enclose a slip of paper listing name and address of both the sender and the addressee. Combustible materials, such as matches, lighter fluid, etc., may not be mailed.

If a sender is in doubt about whether an item may be mailed he should contact the post office. Gift parcels of 15 pounds or less (SAM) will be airlifted from port of dispatch. Parcels of not more than 30 pounds or more than 60 inches in length and girth combined (PAL) will be airmailed on a space-available basis for an additional fee. A PAL package weighing 10 pounds mailed from Tahoka to a military post office in Vietnam costs only $3.20 compared to the regular air mail rate of $6.59.

Addresses on packages must be legible and complete showing APO number and should be written with ball point pen or marking pencils. It is advised not to use gummed address labels, because they come off the packages in case they get wet. It is best to address the parcel itself.

Tahoka High Happenings

BY BECKY BURKS

Last week's pep rally was held Thursday with junior high and elementary students attending. With spirit, a skit, and a new band cadence, students began preparing for the Slaton game.

Friday gave students a break from the monotony since school was dismissed for the day. Some members of the Junior class met last Friday morning to take a test and they are hoping for good scores to come back soon. The game with Slaton was a success. Our Bulldogs "put the tigers in their tank" with a score of 30-0.

The Senior class has received a shipment of T-shirts that say "Tahoka Bulldogs" on the front. These will be for sale soon. The junior varsity and freshman teams also competed against Slaton this past week. The J.V. defeated the tigers by a score of 19-0. The freshman were defeated 32-6.

The band's annual marching contest which was to be held Nov. 1 was temporarily postponed due to poor weather conditions.

Ag Students Present Program

Six Tahoka Freshman Future Farmers of America and their advisor, Taylor Knight, presented the program at the Rotary Club last Thursday.

The group conducted a simulated chapter meeting such as they will present in the upcoming district contests, during which three separate projects were discussed in order to give training in parliamentary procedure and development of leadership training in making talks before the public.

Giving the program were David Sissney, FFA president; Jerry Owen, secretary; Johnny McDonald, vice president; David Brookshire, treasurer; Lynn Henry, reporter; and Joel Carter, scribe. Billy Davis was in charge of the program.

Why we need to keep John Tower in the United States Senate

Bi-partisan representation in the U.S. Senate has proved best for Texas.

Our state is better served by having a Senator from each major party. This assures us bi-partisan support for bills important to Texas.

During his first eight years in the Senate, John Tower worked well with two Democratic Administrations. Yet, he has been especially effective since the Nixon Administration took office in early 1969. He has access to the White House, enjoys a close personal relationship with the President and effectively deals with the top administrators of every agency in the federal government.

Since it appears virtually certain Richard Nixon will be re-elected, it's essential that we keep John Tower in the United States Senate. His influence is vital to Texas.

We urge you to join us in supporting Senator John Tower.

Why You Should Re-Elect President Richard Nixon Nov. 7

LET'S LOOK At AGRICULTURE And STOCK RAISING

WE HAVE one of the most abundant supplies of food in history. Our exports of livestock, fresh meats, grain sorghums and grain are going to add many dollars to the general economy.

WE'RE SELLING COMMODITIES of which we've had surpluses—and we're helping provide jobs on trucks and ships at the same time.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE REASONS

PRESIDENT NIXON'S AGRICULTURAL ACT OF 1970 gave producers more flexibility and freedom in operations.

PRESIDENT NIXON'S ADMINISTRATION has turned around the farm situation that saw farmers get an increase in income of 6 per cent between 1951 and 1969 while wage rates went up 6 per cent every year.

PRESIDENT NIXON gave agriculture one of the most effective spokesmen in recent history by appointment of Earl Butz as Secretary of Agriculture.

Wilson Downs New Home 34-6

Wilson Mustangs found ways and fairways to win last Friday night game as they gained a total of 344 yards while downing the New Home Leopards 34-6.

er for the Mustangs was David Hernandez with 130 yards and a 31 yard pass reception followed by Greg Wied with 103 yards and a 6 yard pass reception. Danny Crowson was the leading pass receiver with 88 yards followed by Chris Coleman with 84 yards.

The above statistics were gathered by some excellent blocking provided by tackles Leland Brieger and Arturo Zuniga, guards Tony Bishop and Clyde Wilke, and center David Savell.

by two tremendous punts by New Home's Stanley McNeely. McNeely got off two punts of 54 and 64 yards.

The 2nd quarter was a little different as John Fields went to the air for 115 yards passing and 64 yards rushing. The scoring came on a 2 yard drive by David Hernandez. John Fields kicked one extra point to make the halftime.

Lynn Jones scored the lone T.D. for Wilson in the 3rd quarter on a 1 yard drive followed by an extra point pass from Fields to Coleman to make the score 21-0. New Home countered for their lone score of the night when David Smith connected with Earnest Thomas on a 42 yard pass, the extra point failed.

Wilson capped the fourth quarter off on a 12 yard T.D. run by David Hernandez with Fields adding the extra and Fields found Danny Crowson with a 55 yard T.D. pass to end the scoring.

Stanley McNeely led the New Home offense with 68 yards rushing and a 54 yard punt- ing average.

Johnny Arellano and Greg Wied led the Mustang de- fense with 13 tackles a piece closely followed by Danny Crowson, Lester Walker, and Leland Brieger.

Beachwear Ensembles Come In Wide Array

All the great looks of summer sportswear turn up in beach cover-ups. Pants invade the beach in every shape, form, and fashion—ranging from wide-legged, pull-ons to laced-front sailor pants in striped cotton knit. Even overalls make the scene, according to the National Cotton Council. They're decked out in cool cotton madras with feminine touches of embroidery. Top-rated cover with teenagers is the super-long T-shirt of striped cotton jersey. It's slashed on both sides for a show of legs. Habes Corpus literally means, "you may have the body." The pony express was established between San Francisco and St. Joseph, Missouri on April 3, 1860.
