Cotton Harvest Increasing Daily

Cotton harvest activities resumed on a limited scale on Thursday and Friday and are increasing daily, according to G. Palmer, Officer-in-Charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U.S.D.A.

Cotton classing offices at Lubbock, Amarillo, Dalhart, and Levelland classed samples from 100 bales during the week ending Friday, December 1st. This season to date, 198,000 bales represents only 10 to 15 percent of this season's expected production.

At this date last year only 100 samples of the 1971 crop had been classed.

Prices were about the same during the previous week. Middling (51) was the dominant grade at Lubbock, making up 28 percent of cotton classed. Strict Low Middling (41) made up 26 percent. Strict Low Middling Spotted (42) 16 percent. Low Middling Light Spotted (52) 8 percent.

Samples were predominantly 33. Fifteen percent had staple length of 30, 25 percent 31, 25 percent 32, and 19 percent 33. This represented a slight decrease in average staple length.

Microaire readings are an indication of fiber fineness or maturity. Cotton with microaire readings of 3.5 through 4.5 is considered in the pre-of all cotton classed at Lubbock last week had microaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 through 4.9, 18 percent "miked" 3.3 through 3.4, 26 percent was 3.0 through 3.2, 9 percent 2.7 through 2.9 and 1 percent was 2.6 and below. This represented a decline in microaire.

The Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S.D.A. reported brisk trading on the Lubbock market during the week and prices were $5.00 to $10.00 per bale higher.

Most lots traded in the price range of 22 to 25 cents. This amounted to prices of 400 to 700 points over the loan or $20.00 to $35.00 per bale over the loan. The better grade, longer staple cotton brought the most over the loan.

Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 premium microaire range were: Strict Low Middling (41) staple 31-24.05 cents per pound, Strict Low Middling (42) staple 32-25.25, Low Middling (51) staple 31 - 22.00, Low Middling (51) staple 32-22.95, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 31 - 22.75 and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 32-22.95.

Cottonseed prices were steady and farmers received $44 to $54 per ton for their cottonseed at gins. Average price was $48.30.

T. B. MASON, LIONS SPEAKER

Tom Mason Lions Speaker

T. B. Mason, Lynn County farmer, was guest speaker at Lions last Wednesday.

Tom and Mrs. Mason recently toured East Africa with a Texas Farm Bureau group. The program consisted of an extensive collection of slides taken by Mason during the trip.

The tour took them to several countries including England, Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania, Rhodesia, South Africa and Italy.

The group arrived in Uganda in time for the revolution and was not allowed to take pictures.

Mason's slides include a large number of African wildlife shown in their native habitat.

The program was well received.

Lions met Wednesday noon at the Cafeteria, visitors are welcome.

Career women to get shopping time break

Considerate store managements, well aware of the problems confronting the folks who have jobs that may interfere with their gift shopping problems, are extending the hours their places of business will be open.

Keep an eye on the advertisements that appear in this newspaper every day, from now to Christmas, and you'll be well informed.

The "after normal shopping hours" will be of special importance to the many more women than ever before in the history of this nation, who are working women.

Here are some tips that can help make shopping easier:

AVOID THE RUSH—If you're a housewife, try to shop early in the morning or during the afternoon — leave the evening hours and busy lunchtimes for the working gals. This way you'll be able to avoid crowds and shop leisurely.

HOW TO SAVE TIME — plan your gifts list on paper, now. Careful planning now will determine exactly which stores you will be shopping in. This way you can make all your purchases there at one time.

AVOID PARKING PROBLEMS — shop with friends. Chances are most of your friends will be patronizing the same shopping areas as you, so why not start a shopping car-pool.

MAKE SHOPPING FUN — many large stores and shopping areas plan special events — such as Santa's arrival, puppet shows — all during the gifts season. By taking advantage of these specials you can entertain the children with a festive "one day shopping holiday."

Sheep and Lamb Feeding Declines... New Trailer Light Laws... Cattle, calf, sheep sales up, hog sales down... Egg Production Declines...

A three percent reduction in sheep and lambs on feed in Texas is reported by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Elsewhere, sheep and lamb feeding increased two percent in seven major feeding areas of the nation.

Texas sheep and lambs on feed in Texas totaled 210,000 head, down three percent from a year ago. Sheep and lambs on feed during September and October are down five percent from a year ago. Marketings of fed sheep totaled 141,000 head, or two percent below the same period last year.

DEPARTMENT of Public Safety has issued requirements for cotton trailers under 15,000 pounds gross weight when operated during daytime with visibility of more than 1,000 feet. The requirements coincide with the provisions of the lighting and trailer brake law as amended in the last special session of the Legislature.

Regulations include the following: for trailers less than 80 inches in width and under 30 feet in length—two red reflectors, one on each side of the rear. Trailers less than 80 inches wide and more than 30 feet in length: one amber reflector on each side centrally located on trailer body, and two red reflectors, one on each side of the rear.

Complete details may be obtained from your local Texas Department of Public Safety office.

SALES of cattle, calves, sheep and goats were above a year earlier, but hogs sales declined from last year's levels throughout the state.

Cattle and calves marketed through auctions numbered 803,000 head, which is seven percent above a year ago and 13 percent above a month ago.

Sheep sales totaled 100,000 head, up 14 percent from last year, but 21 percent below a month ago. Goats sold total 37,000 head, which is six percent above a year ago.

Hogs sold totaled 44,000 head, or 30 percent below a year ago.

EGG production in Texas is six percent below a year ago, but three percent above last month.

Texas layers totaled 11.4 million, which is a 10 percent decrease from a year ago; nationwide the number of layers is five percent below a year ago.

Texas eggs laid daily per 100 hens averaged 57.9 during the month. This compared with 55.3 a year ago. Nationwide, production was slightly higher than for the Texas average with 60.8 eggs laid per 100 hens.

Egg-type chick hatch in Texas was down 21 percent from a year ago. Hatch of broiler chicks increased 17 percent from a year ago. Turkey poultry hatch was up 26 percent from a month in the state.

Egg production totaled 204 million, down six percent from a year ago.

WEATHER conditions throughout the state continue to delay harvest of cotton and other crops. Cotton harvest is about 40 percent complete, which is 10 percent ahead of this time last year. Corn harvest is completed. Grain sorghum harvest is nearing final stages. Yields have been good throughout the state.

Pecan harvest is being slowed by wet, cold weather. Wheat seeding for the state is completed except for a few isolated areas.

Life-style may prove most helpful guide to better gifting

Basing one's selection of gifts on the "Life Styles" of various relatives and friends has given rise in many stores to a clustering of gift suggestions befitting the specific individualized interests of those on the list to be remembered.

Yet, whether or not stores choose to organize their suggestions into clustered displays, the principle can work handsomely for the gift giver.

Consider, for example, the Life Style of the woman occupying an important place on your list, built around entertaining friends at home.

This means mostly having folks in for dinner, for cocktails or for luncheons or other types of parties.

Many choices

The gift suggestions that would offer most acceptable pleasure here might range from a hostess gown through something substantial in the way of furniture, and small but decorative appliances such as hot trays.

Indicative of the fact that considering gifts selections on the basis of one "Life Style" can be mighty successful and yet easy on the budget, is the availability of such inexpensive presents as a set of ash trays, an appropriate serving dish, bar utensils. These all become appropriate.

Another example of gift ideas for the most part. Moving on to the play area, involving participation sports as a Life Style, and blending somewhat with the above, there is "ping-pong" which appears to be the in-game (no pun intended) of the year. Popularity of chess also has multiplied tremendously for obvious reasons.

Fit into budget

But these are "indoor" gift ideas for the most part. Outdoor sports gifts suggestions are myriad indeed. There are too many to list here.

Yet once again, depending on the specific sports interest, the gift to be chosen may be grand indeed or fitted into anyone's modest budget—a container of tennis balls for the enthusiast or, all the way down to the "stocking stuffer" category, a decoratively packaged set of tees for the golfer.

Christmas for the gift giver who thinks in terms of the recipient's Life Style can be most rewarding indeed.

Cottonseed Delinters feel that "good cottonseed" is of utmost importance, therefore extreme testing procedures are initiated.

They run an acid and moisture test on cottonseed. If cottonseed contain as much as 12 percent moisture the seed will deteriorate in quality. They also check the seed for germination and tell you if they will come up in the spring. Cottonseed for planting purposes should not be processed if moisture content is high, because the germ will deteriorate. This is the reason oil mills dock cottonseed at 13 percent and above. This firm goes to extreme in handling and storage of your cottonseed. Both fuzzy and delinted. They have recently purchased 10 box cars in addition to existing storage facilities, and can now store over 2,000 tons of cottonseed for your convenience at no charge to you.

crease the seed capacity by 1000 pounds per hour to process your seed better and faster. This delinter will be in use this year for the first season and you will reap the benefits. There is no doubt about good planting seed when you process your seed at Cottonseed Delinters.

In order that the Tahoka Bulldogs may have more time for workouts, drill periods on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays are being extended from 2 to 5:30 p.m.
Because of this longer drill period, it becomes necessary for someone to carry a number of boys living in the country home at 5:30 on these days.
Tahoka Chamber of Commerce has taken over the project of furnishing rides for these boys.
Volunteers who are interested in helping the boys receive better training by furnishing such rides are invited to contact Clint Walker, Chamber of Commerce secretary. It is not expected that each car driver will have to make more than three trips during the season.
Coach Joe Turner says that, under the old training plan by the time the boys dress twice there is little time left for training. The added time will give coach and the boys more time to get ready for games.

Lynn County came close to having a jail break last week end.
Prisoners occupying the south part of the jail, according to Sheriff "Slick" Clem, tore loose some steel strips from one of the jail doors, and used these strips to pry the brick and bars apart on the west side.
The prisoners, four in number, just about succeeded in opening up a hole in the outside wall on Friday night. The work was discovered Saturday morning and one of the prisoners told the Sheriff they had planned to complete the job and make their get-away Saturday night.
The almost dislodged brick may be seen from the ground.

EDWARD DECOURCY in The Newport (N. H.)
Argus-Champion: Television commercials are, for the most part, silly, illiterate, insipid, ridiculous, ludicrous, dense, crass, benighted, exaggerated, bombastic, fanfaroning, degrading, insulting.

The visitor from outer space, or the historian of the future looking back at us through repeat broadcasts of these commercials, must conclude that we are a beer-guzzling gang of dim-witted hypochondriacs suffering from halitosis, headaches, gassy stomachs, constipation, arthritis, psoriasis, cavities, dandruff, loose dentures, dirty false teeth, falling hair, athlete's foot, wet diapers, body odor, irritis, clogged sinuses, sunburn, laryngitis, head colds, postnasal drip, iron deficiency, neuralgia and rough hands.

This column is in praise of television commercials.

These creations of ingenious wizards in the elevated think tanks on Madison Ave. are one of the greatest blessings of our age, contributing to our health, happiness and prosperity.

Without the television commercial, life around us could well collapse. We might not even finish supper.

Regardless of Spiro Agnew's lament, all television commentators must pass a rigid training course in saying, "We'll be back in a minute with more news." The commentator who can't say that in a convincing, eloquent fetching manner is Kaput, because he must be prepared to say it no less than 10 times during every half-hour broadcast. A band of high-powered accountants is preparing an analysis of the number of man hours devoted to "We'll be back in a minute with more news", both on the part of the speakers and on the part of the viewers.

Actually, "We'll be back in a minute with more news", spoken with all the erudition of a Howard K. Smith or Walter Cronkite or John Chancellor or John Lumpkin, is the cue on which like around us revolves.

That's when millions of housewives, with pavlovian obedience, arise from their seats to go to the kitchen to get dessert. It's the signal to turn off the oven or to turn up the thermostat.

That nine-word slogan triggers some to clear the table, and others to feed the dog, who, like his master, has been watching television so long he won't eat cereal any more, must less the table scraps on which his ancestors thrived.

The television commercial is the reprieve during which we turn on the toaster, or turn it off. Or it may provide the recess during which we gather the materials and tools and other equipment for balancing a check book.

The joint Plains Cotton Growers-Lubbock Cotton Exchange Estimates Committee will meet in Lubbock December 7 to take a final shot at pre-judging the size of the 1972 cotton crop on the High Plains.
Announcement of the meeting comes from committee chairmen Joe D. Unfred of PCG and Jimmy Cochran of LCE. Unfred is a cotton producer from New Home and Cochran is a Lubbock FOB merchant.

The estimate made by the committee a month ago set production prospects for the 25-county High Plains area covered by PCG at 1,989,000 bales. Acreage is currently guessed at almost 2.5 million, which places the area-wide per-acre yield estimate at about 383 pounds. The committee meets soon after the first of each month and completes a county-by-county estimate in 480 pounds net weight bales.
The November figures will be reviewed and possibly revised by the PCG-LCE committee December 7, taking into consideration latest crop reports from producers, merchants, ginners, County Agricultural agronomists and other industry people who watch the crop closely throughout the season.
As of December 1 only about 200,000 bales, some 10 percent of the area crop, had been ginned. Most of the crop was ready for harvest by the middle of November, but rain and snow since that date have kept the harvest from gaining momentum.

"But even this 10 percent is beginning to give us an indication of per-acre yields in various localities," said Unfred, "and we have mailed questionnaires to every gin in the 25 counties to get the best and latest available information for our December 7 meeting."
Each gin was asked to supply PCG with the county or counties in which its gin territory is located, the number of bales he expects to gin, the estimated average per-acre yield of his customers, the acreage in his territory which will not be harvested and other pertinent facts.
"It is important to producers and the entire industry that production estimates be as accurate as possible," Unfred said, "and without a systematic, joint industry approach such as this there would be a profusion of crop estimates from different groups and different individuals, most of them based on fragmented facts and personal opinions."

In addition to Unfred, members of the committee from the PCG Board are Gerald Hanson of Stanton, A. Dean Harmon of Tulla and Lloyd Miller of Morton. The LCE half of the committee is made up of Cochran, Don Mitchell R.G. Sharp and Watson Carlick all of Lubbock. PCG President Ray Joe Riley of Hart and LCE President Jeri Booth of Lubbock also serve on the committee as ex-officio members.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS

Have you ever heard of "Mycotoxosis Russian Roulette"? You may not have, but chances are you're playing that deadly game if you feed molded feeds to your pigs.

According to Dr. Gene Cope, extension veterinarian, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Amarillo, mycotoxosis is a two-dollar word which means "poisoning of the host following entrance into the body of one or more toxicants produced by a mold." While the condition has been recognized for many years, serious research was not initiated until the last decade.

The problem is complex, says Dr. Cope, because the production of toxin is influenced by many factors:

- 1) The strain of fungus not all fungus produces toxin.

- 2) The temperature at which it grows; the best environment for toxin production seems to be a period of moderately warm weather followed by a period of cool weather and a fairly high moisture content.
- 3) The length of time it grows.
- 4) Other bacterial growth associated with it.
- 5) The species of animal to which it is fed; this may be even more specific, with toxicity varying with sex and age.

Results of Molded Feed Poisoning

Research indicates that animals which eat feeds contaminated by mycotoxins suffer from a variety of debilitating and lethal conditions such as hemorrhaging, anemia, cancer, poor growth rate, poor feed conversion and others.

"Apparently, mycotoxins effect the reproductive system in varied ways, from completely stopping milk production, marked decrease in the vitality of new born pigs, numerous stillbirths and lowered ovulation rates to normal pregnancy and lactation. These variable results may be related to the amount of mycotoxin consumed."

Many abortions are reported in swine with no evidence of virus or bacterial infection, Dr. Cope cautions. It is possible that mycotoxins may play a roll in some of these undiagnosed cases.

The best way to keep from playing "Mycotoxosis Russian Roulette" is to avoid feeding molded feeds.

Ollie Frazier's Graveside Rites

Ollie Frazier, 67, of Inglewood, Calif., died Nov. 30. Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Tahoka Cemetery with Dr. E. Harold Henderson, pastor of Lubbock's Central Baptist Church, officiating.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Upstairs Neighbors

Madge had always been a less sleeper. But matters were from had to worse when a couple with a baby moved to the apartment upstairs.

It seems the baby was teething. To keep her quiet at night, parents would trundle her into their apartment in a baby carriage, causing sounds that were plainly audible to the wakened Madge.

Finally she went to court an injunction. But at the hearing the baby's father said there was no other way to keep the child from crying. Besides, he pointed out, their carriage had rubber wheels and their floor was carpeted.

The court thereupon tossed Madge's complaint, saying the moderate amount of noise could be accepted by those who choose to live in apartments.

"Where people indulge their inclination to be gregarious," the judge, "they must not expect the quiet that belongs to solitude."

Courts generally take a hands-off attitude in disputes between apartment dwellers. Nevertheless, a court will intervene if the noise gets out of hand.

In another case, an upstairs tenant—a do-it-yourself enthusiast—decided to install new parquet flooring. This time, the tormented people downstairs went to court, the judge ordered the man to work on weekends only, from nine to five, and keep the noise and vibration to a minimum.

What role does the landlord play in these conflicts? Must he take action if the downstairs tenant asks for his help?

In most cases, the answer is: Take this example:

A downstairs tenant, disturbed by relentless piano playing from the apartment upstairs, asked the landlord to enforce a house rule against such conduct.

But the landlord refused to enforce a court hearing. The judge said the rules in a lease are put primarily for the landlord's benefit, to be enforced or not according to his discretion.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Most homeowners are expected to get a big break on insurance rates next year. Exemptions will be those who live in the 27-county Gulf Coast area.

The industry-oriented Texas Insurance Advisory Association recommended the State Board of Insurance reduce by 17.7 per cent extended cover (hall, windstorm, vandalism, etc.) rates and by 16.2 per cent homeowners' rates in the North-Northwest area. That includes most of the Panhandle and South Plains.

Association recommendations for the big Central Inland territory (Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, El Paso, Austin areas) included a 12.1 per cent decrease in extended coverage and 10.9 per cent reduction in homeowners' premiums.

The Seacoast territory (Beaumont-Port Arthur, Houston, Galveston, Corpus Christi and Brownsville areas) would get a 17.5 per cent hike in extended coverage premiums and an 8.3 per cent increase in homeowners' policy rates.

All territories would benefit from an Association proposal to reduce fire insurance rates statewide by 7.7 per cent.

An Association spokesman estimated total savings of $6 million for extended coverage and $9.8 million for homeowners' insurance in the Central Inland territory. He calculated increases of $8 million for extended coverage and $5.9 million for homeowners' rates in the Seacoast territory.

About 500 insurance agents who attended the Board hearing on the proposals expressed approval but loudly protested another recommendation by the Association to standardized their commissions.

The Board staff is awaiting directions as to whether to calculate new rates on its own formula or the new recommendations.

COURTS SPEAK -- Texas Supreme Court agreed a retrial is in order for a lawsuit against Union Carbide Company as a result of an explosion which killed two and injured two.

The Court of Criminal Appeals held a San Antonio man cannot complain about exclusion of blacks from his murder trial jury since he agreed to the exclusion himself.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals held property owners in Wylie County School District should have the right to join the Abilene School District.

The Supreme Court threw out a district court injunction preventing a State Bar grievance committee investigation of complaints against a former Hill County district attorney.

A Houston Court of Civil Appeals decision that heirs of a man who died in a Waller County Hospital after an auto accident should get a full trial of a malpractice suit against a doctor who treated the wreck victim was upheld by the State Supreme Court.

AG OPINIONS -- Deputy constables are authorized to carry guns only after they have completed a minimum amount of training. Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin held.

Martin's opinion, requested by Brazos County Attorney, W. T. McDonald Jr., also stated that reserve deputy constables serve without pay at pleasure of the constable within the period of time authorized by the county commissioner's court.

Martin reached these conclusions in other new opinions: + Harris County can operate a mental health center for the state but cannot change it into a county department by commissioners court resolution.

+ Parks and Wildlife Department can spend other money for park expansion that set out in Item 10B of the appropriations bill.

+ A Beauty operator may offer cosmetology services in a barber shop and may operate a barber shop under general supervision of a Class A barber but a barber may not operate a beauty shop without a cosmetology license.

GAS PROBLEMS TOLD -- Natural gas supplies are dwindling and producers are not meeting agreements, the Railroad Commission was told in a hearing last week.

The Commission is studying the possibility of setting priorities for gas distribution when there is short supply. One pipeline company claimed a chief supplier delivered little more than half the gas it agreed to provide. A company spokesman suggested homes and schools get first priority on the gas supply available, with second priority allocated to generation of electricity for domestic consumers.

HORSE RACING REVIVAL? A Senate committee is conducting a survey, results of which admittedly may be used to bolster a new drive for pari-mutuel horse race betting.

The Senate Horse Racing Study Committee sent out 5,000 questionnaires to assess the horse industry and its economic impact on Texas.

Among questions asked of the horse owners and riding equipment suppliers is whether pari-mutuel wagering would expand their operations and how local lawmakers would vote on the issue.

The Committee vice-chairman said results of the survey "could be used to build an economic case" for egering on horse races. A meeting of the panel is slated here December 14 to hear opponents of racing and pari-mutuel gambling and to receive a report on potential state revenue from legalized wagering. Committee heads said a constitutional amendment would be necessary to revive pari-mutuel betting on the races.

HOW TO PICK UP $5 MILLION -- Texas could gain $5 million a year in delinquent sales taxes by changing collection procedures in the comptroller's office, a Senate interim study committee has been told.

Actually, an Illinois tax expert estimated, the state could collect $8 million more each year, but hiring of an additional 200 state sales tax auditors would take about $3 million of the gain.

An attorney general's representative said Attorney General Martin wants to require Texas businesses to post bond to insure payment of the sales taxes they collect.

POLLUTION MONEY MAY BE LOST -- Texas may get only half the federal funds it counted on to help build new sewage treatment plants, State Water Quality Board Chairman Gordon Fulcher stated.

A new federal act, said Fulcher, would cut Texas' allocation to $55.4 million for fiscal 1973 for treatment plant aid, as compared with $106.3 million for fiscal 1972.

Fulcher said the loss would "hurt a whole lot of cities and towns in the state," particularly smaller communities which depended on federal help (up to 75 per cent) to finance the plants.

A consumer protection study committee of the state Senate heard a plea for new laws to protect tenants from unscrupulous landlords who refuse to refund security deposits or make needed repairs.

Gov. Preston Smith plans to make about 50 appointments to offices before his term expires.

Count the reasons you should shop at home

Next time you are in bumper to bumper traffic or you are in the wrong lane and miss a freeway exit on an out-of-town shopping trip you have the extra time to ask yourself "Was this trip really necessary?"

Count the reasons why you should shop at home. First, every dollar spent at home is a vote for better schools, community improvements, parks and streets.

Second, not everyone wants your business like the people at home. Isn't it more fun to do business with people you know want your business?

If thoughtless, deceitful consumers are the worst enemies of other consumers, it stands to reason that thoughtful, honest consumers can be their best friends.

A good consumer code of ethics reads like the Golden Rule-- do unto business the way you want business to do unto you.

Below are 10 practices a thoughtful consumer follows:

- 1. Exhibit the same kind of treatment you expect to receive from the business firm...

Magnetic Fiber Aids Processing

Magnetism may lead to a new way of processing raw cotton fibers, the National Cotton Council notes. Scientists of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service have succeeded in making small amounts of cotton responsive to magnetic forces. This makes it possible to move fibers about freely from the bale into yarn in one continuous operation.
