Chamber Banquet Held Tuesday

Midkiff Is Citizen Of Year

The Tahoka Chamber of Commerce Farmer Businessman Banquet was held Tuesday night at the Tahoka School Cafeteria with special honors going to Dr. David Midkiff as the Citizen of the year and George Baker as the Conservation Farmer of the year.

The entertainment for the evening was brought by a quartet from Lubbock, the Metro City Music Group, and very live entertainment it was.

Master of Ceremonies for the event was Garland Thornton outgoing President of the Chamber of Commerce and the Invocation was brought by Gordon Musick. The program was arranged and introduced by Harold Roberts. David Midkiff introduced the Officers and Board of Directors.

H.B. McCord, Jr. introduced the Citizen of the year saying that ;

The man chosen as the "Citizen of the Year" 1972 was born in Hobbs, New Mexico and graduated from High School there. He also graduated from West Texas State University and later received a higher degree from Baylor University.

He came to Tahoka by choice July 17th, 1969 and will complete his fourth year here this July; yet, in this short time our man has become a valued citizen of our community. He could have located in any city in Texas, yet he chose Tahoka.

He has always been interested in the Boy Scout movement and almost reached the Eagle Scout rank while in high school. He now serves as the liaison officer between the sponsoring Rotray club and the local Boy Scout Troop.

He is a member of Lynn

County Action Committee and South Plains Community Action Agency made up of eight counties and headquartered in Levelland. He is also a member of the Committee of S.E.O. which is the Southwest Economics Opportunity.

He has been a member of Lynn County Chapter of the American Cancer Society for three years. For the past two years he directed the County Crusade for funds appointing captains in each community for the American Cancer Society drive. Each year the goal was met and even over subscribed. He is now president of the local chapter of the American Cancer Society.

He has always been interested in the Chamber of Commerce and has been a member of the board of directors since 1971 and is our newly elected president of the Chamber of Commerce.

He is a member of the American Academy of General Dentistry, American Dental Society.

He has taken a particular interest in children's dentistry since coming to Tahoka. Each year he has worked with the Llano Estacado Migrant Commission, taking about 70 underprivileged children, ages four and five and examining, x-raying and doing necessary dental work for them.

For the past two years he has gone to the fourth and fifth grades and spoken to them on preventative dentistry.

Dr. David Midkiff was recently elected vice-pres. of the Tahoka Rotary Club and has spoken to the Rotary and Lions clubs on his Philosophy of Dentistry.

In 1972 he bought the old Tahoka Hospital and Clinic Building and has converted part of it into bachelor quarters. Dr. David Midkiff is girl resistant but not people resistant.

Allen Sheppard, Soil Conservationist, introduced the Soil Conservationist of the year replying that each year many farmers and ranchers do an outstanding job of using their natural resources. However only one can be selected as the outstanding conservationist. This year was no exception. The resumes of several farmers were reviewed before the final selection was made. This year's award goes to a very deserving farm family. One that has indeed earned the award.

When I think about this family as they developed their plan to use each acre of land within its capability and treat it to keep it permanently productive and then put the plan on the land, I am reminded of one of the principles that Future Farmers of America is founded upon which is - "PLAN YOUR WORK AND WORK YOU PLAN." This is what our outstanding conservationist has done over the past several years. This year's outstanding conservationist is Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of the Hackberry Community. Mrs. Baker is the former Josephine Shelton, a native of Hale Center. She moved to Lynn County with her parents at an early age. George is a true "Okie." However he learned that there were "Greener Pastures" in Texas at an early age. Following a brief stop near Paris, Texas, he also became a Citizen of Lynn County. They grew up in the Garden-Hackberry Community where George wooed, courted and

Rotary Elects New Officers

New officers of Tahoka Rotary Club to take over on February 1 were elected at last week's club meeting. Johnny Wells will be the new president, succeeding Blinette, the current club head; Dr. David Midkiff was named the new vice president. David Spraberry and Clifton Ark were named new board directors members.

Robert Abbe was re-elected secretary and "Pete" Hewitt was re-elected treasurer.

F. Jones gave an interesting talk on "The Four Avenues of Service" in Rotary and was declared one of the most interesting ever given here on Rotray work. Other recent meetings on which the News did not have a report have included a talk on history of the local club, established in 1936, by Dr.

K.R. Durham; and an enthusiastic and entertaining talk by John Ed Redwine on the rejuvenated Boy Scout program.

Dr. Emil Prohl and Winston Wharton are program chairmen for the month of February.

Heart Fund Drive

The American Heart Association will conduct its annual Heart Fund Campaign the week of February 19 through February 25th. This year's drive will be conducted by the Tahoka High School Future Homemakers of America Organization. The young ladies will be going door-to-door with life-saving information on signs and symptoms of heart attack in line with the theme of this year's drive, "Beat the Big One - Heart Attack." In 1971, thirty-eight residents of Lynn County were victims of the various cardio-vascular diseases.

With further research, we hope to find the cure for the nation's number one killer. But without your support, the task is impossible. Make Heart Health your number one cause. Give to the Heart Fund.

Raeland Cook Tahoka Police Dispatcher

Raeland Cook, blond attractive 24 year old, is the new night dispatcher at the Tahoka Police Department.

She worked two years as dispatcher for the Slaton Police Dept. and was employed by O'Hara Furniture, before coming to Tahoka. She finds dispatching very interesting, enjoys it very much and plans to make this her career. Raeland lives in Lubbock, but plans to move to Tahoka in the near future.

Some of Raeland's hobbies are water skiing, horseback riding and cooking.

 won Josephine's heart. They have lived in the Hackberry Community all of their life. The last 25 years on the farm they now operate. They raised a set of twins. A boy and a girl, Royce and Loyce. The twins are graduates of Wilson High School. They did their under graduate work at Angelo State University where both earned their Bachelor degrees. Royce is now Coach and teacher in the Seymour School System. Loyce is following a commercial profession in Lubbock.

The Bakers are members of the First Baptist Church of Wilson. George is active in the Masonic Lodge - Past Master 1955-1956. He has served 5 or 6 years as Community Committeeman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. He has worked on several study committees to find improved methods of farming.

They operate a 640 acre farm of which all is cropland. They raise cotton, sorghum and wheat. The farm is owned by C.S. Davis of Collinsville, Texas.

In 1968 George contacted the Soil Conservation Service about a Great Plains Conservation Program Contract. As much information as possible was gathered concerning soils and treatment alternatives. These were discussed during the planning process. This included an estimate of cost to do the work. Baker went about the job of selling Mr. Davis on the need for and value of the work. Having accomplished this, a GPC Contract was signed in the fall of 1969. Thus Baker was one of the first in his community to have a system of parallel terraces with the installation of over 111,000 feet. Besides construction of parallel terraces. Other items in the contract included a conservation cropping system and management of crop residues. This involved planting a certain portion of the land each year to a high residue crop and the management of these residues. Various alternatives were used, each designed to protect the land from wind and water erosion and to add organic matter to maintain soil fertility as well as improve soil structure and thus water intake. George not only met the terms of the contract, he went "above and beyond" the minimum requirements. Not being satisfied with completing the bare essentials, he experimented with various strip crop patterns using sorghum and wheat seeded in the blanks and on the terraces. There is a lake of about 25 acres on the farm. Baker has seeded wheat and or sorghum in this lake each year for the past 25 years. Until he constructed parallel terraces around the lake in the winter of 1969 and 1970, Baker lost some of his crop each year. He has raised and harvested a crop of sorghum each year during 1970, 1971, and 1972. He has not harvested less than 2500 pounds per acre and more than 4000 pounds in 1972. George tells me this will go a long way to pay the cost of the terraces.

George and Mrs. Baker, it is with utmost pleasure that I present this plaque to you which reads, Outstanding Conservation Farmer, Lynn County Soil and Water Conservation District 1972, George Baker. Presented by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

New Officers introduced at the Banquet were David Midkiff, president; Harold Green, vice-president; and Mrs. Eldon Carroll, secretary.

New board members were Allen Sheppard, Cap Whorton, Robert Warren, Finn Taylor, Shorty Fuentes, Granvel Ayers, Robert Abbe, James A. ers, Robert Abbe, James Atwood and Charles Townes.

Returning Board members were Francis Chestnutt, Horace Rogers, C.W. Roberts, Jackie Jaquess, Grady Lankford, George McCracken and Meldon Leslie.

A beautiful job of decoration was provided for the Banquet by the Ladies Lynn County Cotton Club. Special hostesses were the Future Homemakers of America of the Tahoka schools.

About four hundred persons attended the affair.

George Washington

George Washington's birthday is observed on the third Monday (the 19th) this year. Until two years ago, it was observed on his actual birthday anniversary, the 22nd.

George Washington, first President of the country and the soldier who did more than any other to defeat British armies in the Colonies and win independence for the United States, was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, in 1732. His father was a well-to-do planter and educated older sons abroad but he died when George was twelve. This meant George only received the practical and elementary teaching of Colonial Virginia. He took to the outdoors, forest life and sports. At this time he was engaged by Lord Fairfax, who had come from England to look after inherited property, and worked with him and acted as his companion for some three years. Thus he learned much of the manner and habits of an English gentleman of that time.

It was through his older brother, Lawrence, that George entered into military prominence. Lawrence, in failing health, gave George his place in the militia before he died and Governor Dinwiddie gave him a commission. Washington's first efforts against the French were unsuccessful.

When fighting broke out between the Colonies and England, Washington—who had hoped for conciliation—was chosen to lead the American armies. His first success came when he forced the British from Boston in March of 1776 but it was to be a long and bitter struggle which ended in the British surrender at Yorktown, October 19th, 1781.

That he held his forces together and won the loyalty and support of the various states is something of a miracle. He was modest by nature and his character was such that all those who once learned to know him admired him and this influenced the new country into choosing him as its first President. Had it not been for his reluctant agreement to enter politics unity might not have been possible among the states. After eight years, in which he set many sound precedents, he refused to again be a candidate. Three years later he died—in 1799—at Mount Vernon,

Biting Hand Folly

More than 2,500 years ago Aesop warned of the folly of biting the hand that feeds you. Apparently, even the sage ex-slave never thought any man would be foolish enough to feed the hand that bites him.

Paul Harvey, in a recent column, decried the popular opinion that the taxpayers have been subsidizing the farmers. Actually, said Harvey, the farmers have "been subsidizing the rest of us for the last 25 years."

How else can an economy be explained wherein the farmer is forced to sell his produce for less than the cost of production?

Farmers never had a choice about accepting checks from Washington - if they wanted to keep farming. And with their life savings tied up in land and machinery, and untrained for other occupations, just how wide was the choice?

The government recently announced that the farm payments would be cut in half (about $2.5 billion). Probably only one thing would make farmers happier than getting the federal government off their farms; a price for their crops that would give them returns on their investments consistent with their city neighbors' income.

Only a few weeks after the $2.5 billion was slashed from the farm program, the President announced $2.5 billion would be given to North Vietnam.

However much the unenlightened may resent his tax dollars going to the farms, he must admit farmers have kept him well fed and clothed.

According to Michael J. O'Connor, executive director of the Supermarket Institute, U.S. Department of Agriculture reports "the American housewife in 1971 spent 12.5 percent of the family's after-tax income on food consumed in the home. This is the lowest figure ever reported in our country, or in any other country in the world."

For comparison, O'Connor cited figures supplied by the Department of Commerce: "British housewives spend 22 percent of their after-tax dollars on food. The French spend 23 percent. The Japanese spend over 28 percent.

"In Russia, the figures are still between 40 and 50 percent . . . and the poorer nations of the world, the quest for food consumes nearly all of the family's efforts and finance."

It is the modern farmer who has enabled Americans to enjoy the highest standard of living on record. The money they have saved on food has been available for fine homes, frills, and fun.

An irrigation canal is of no value until it is full. It is the overflow that furnishes the life-giving water. How can farmers continue to feed the nation when their own larder is empty?

The verdict in the legal controversy between a local family and an area bank may be of interest to the litigants only. But the issue involved should concern every American.

Because farmers reach the end of their row of mortgages one at a time, the public is not aware it is epidemic.

According to government reports, American farms have operated at a loss for the last 7 years. How many corporations or individuals could survive that?

Do famishing farmers or any other overburdened taxpayers have any reason for wanting their tax dollars to go to Hanoi?

The antiwar agitators talk of "reparations" for North Vietnam. They do not mention the aggressors in this conflict, nor do they suggest reparations for the more than 3,000 civilians slaughtered at Hue or whole villages massacred by the Viet Cong.

to say nothing of 50,000 American boys sacrificed to try to stop the northern invaders.

Who can conceive the anguish of the POW, MIA, and gold star families who are forced to contribute to that $2.5 billion for North Vietnam? And how will the families of the men killed since the "cease fire" feel about supporting the killers?

But if President Nixon is determined to give Hanoi another pound of American flesh, why take it off the farmers, the five percent who are still struggling to feed the other 95?

The Great pHEW!

"There is no odor as bad as that which arises from goodness tainted. If I knew for a certainty that a man was coming to my house for the conscious design of doing me good, I should run for my life."

Henry David Thoreau, 1854

. . . PAST DAYS

Copies from Feb. 11, 1947

After having been unwell for some time, Levi M. Nordyke early this week entered the Abell Sanatorium in Lubbock for treatment. He was said to be suffering from high blood pressure and a general run-down condition.

The doctors told him that it would probably be necessary for him to remain there four or five weeks.

Pfc. Charlie Dollins visited the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dollins, and other members of the family here recently. He came from Scott Field, Illinois, and after a few days visit here went to Fort Worth Army Air Field, where he is to be stationed temporarily.

Little Donald Lynn Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. N.S. Parker of New Moore, is being treated this week in the Tahoka Clinic for bronchial pneumonia. He was steadily improving, however.

A.G. Mueller received treatment at the Tahoka Clinic a few days ago after having lost the tip of his left index finger while working on his truck. He got the finger caught in the fan belt pulley.

While the injury was very painful and loss will be permanent, yet he was lucky that the injury was not more serious.

Post, Tahoka, Seminole, and Andrews, boys basketball teams will compete in double elimination here today and tomorrow to select two teams to represent the south half of District 5-A against the north half in the State Interscholastic elimination.

Post and Tahoka are the two top teams in the southeast quarter of the large district, and the other two teams are the leaders in the southwest quarter.

One game will be played this Friday afternoon, two Friday night, one Saturday afternoon, and two Saturday night.

Coach Jim Foust says his boys are in fair condition for the tournament, and if the boys will put out all they have they have a good chance to be one of the two top teams.

Don D. Cowan was this week elected to the captain the team.

The local draft board announces that the following men have recently been discharged from service in the armed services:

Jefferson Karl Talkmitt, Wilson; James Tippit, Tahoka; J.C. Swinney, O'Donnell; Aaron Sayles, Tahoka; Russell Adams, O'Donnell; Edward Lowell Busby, Tahoka; J.D. Grant, Lubbock.

Albert Curry and his wife were flown to Wichita, Kansas last Saturday by Bill McNeely in the Curry brothers Super Cruiser. The reason Bill went along was that Albert had never gone on a long cross country trip before and just wanted a little experience before he tackled it by himself. Albert left his wife in Wichita to visit her sister who was the proud mother of a new baby girl. However Albert left Tahoka again Wednesday of this week for Wichita to pick his wife up and bring her back home. P.S. He didn't take Bill McNeely with him this last time.

Mrs. Buster Driver was honored with a stork shower in the home of Mrs. Turner Rogers Monday evening.

Several guests called during the evening to see the beautiful display of gifts.

The gifts were presented to Mrs. Driver by Wanda Sue Dollins, Joyce Thorpe and LaQuita Smith. Karen Beth Kidwell gave a reading, "Baby Brother."

Hot chocolate and cookies were served.

C.B. Terry has consummated a deal with A.W. Hatcher of Melrose, New Mexico, and Loy W. Phillips of Lamesa, whereby the two latter gentlemen become owners of the Phillips Service Station at the intersection of the two highways in Tahoka. The new owners will take over the business Monday.

Mr. Phillips, who is a son-in-law of Mr. Hatcher, has been in the service station business in Lamesa.

Mr. Hatcher has bought the Jim Woods house here in Town.

Last Tuesday night the members of the Lions club enjoyed a very good program which was put on by Mrs. LaVoyle Parker and a few of her students from the local school. The tap dancers were Jan McElroy, James Day, and LaVoyle. A real good comic reading was given by Lena Williams which the Lions enjoyed very much. Marion Francis Haney accompanied LaVoyle on the piano.

After the program by LaVoyle and her students, Ted Clayton introduced Mr. George Young of the Lubbock Lions Club who gave a speech on Lionism to the local club.

After the Lion president, Pete Hegi rang the bell dismissing the Lions, several of the Lions went to the Local High School Auditorium to look over the stage and to see just what would be needed for the stage in the coming vaudeville show that the local club is sponsoring here March 4.

Enough Is Enough

Nostalgia can sometimes obscure realities of the present. A classic example is the tendency of many people to associate railroads and railroading with a fascinating, but bygone, era when the Iron Horse rushed across the empty plains and mountains forging the only transcontinental link between the East and West Coasts of America.

It is time to shake off this nostalgia and look at the railroads as they are today. They are an important means of reducing environmental damage from transportation sources, they constitute one of the most vital of American industries, carry nearly 40 percent of all interstate freight, and their task in this respect is destined to grow monumentally. They contribute mightily to curbing air pollution. A single 100 car freight train is ultimately in efficient transportation. The diesel units at the lead of the train are able to move a maximum amount of goods while emitting a fraction of the pollutants of other means of transport. Railroads can move about four times as much freight per gallon of fuel as big trucks - and 125 times as much as cargo aircraft. Today the existing railroad rights-of-way can absorb a greatly increased freight load thus the rails can meet tomorrow's transportation needs without the necessity of burying more land under concrete for highways.

The railroads are proud of the part they have played in American history. They are proud of the railroad heritage from which has sprung the nostalgia and romance. But enough is enough. They now are worthy of recognition of today's transportation facts and a clear track to get on with the great transportation job that lies ahead.

Value Doubt

In recent decades, as technological progress came rapidly and the number of skilled or technological jobs steadily increased, greater and greater stress on importance has been placed on education. Countless studies have shown that the educated boy or girl earns more, on average, than the less educated.

However, a recent $500,000 study, financed by the Carnegie Corporation indicates that while education does play a part, and is of course desirable, it plays a far less important role in dictating one's earning ability than has been assumed.

A three-year study by a Harvard team shows that better schooling, while desirable, has much less effect on chances of economic success for poor children than has been widely believed. Better schooling the study says, would have had "surprisingly little effect." Schooling's effect on children is estimated at about 25 percent.

Cognitive skill, one's ability to manipulate words and numbers, reach logical conclusions, assimilate information, can be equalized by schools, the study says.

But neither does cognitive skill play the major role on one's earning capacity (School's largely codify and sometime solidify cognitive differences children bring to school with them, the report says).

What largely determines one's earning power, however, though education unquestionably helps, is not schooling, cognitive skill, heredity, home background, IQ or any of the other social influences so many have stressed in recent years. Such things as luck, personality, chance, the ability to psyche out the boss, or get along with the right people, chance in meeting the right people, appearance, the ability to synthesize large quantities of information, character, industry, etc., account for three-quarters of the variations in people's incomes.

Thus the sacred cows of more money for schools and more schooling, while desirable, are not all-important in determining incomes.

The Degree Staff of the local Temple exemplified the initiatory work.

In a social hour when included a Sing-Song, refreshments were served by Mmes: Hattie Short, Elnora Curry and Miss Floyce Sherrod to all present.

Mrs. Harve Henderson and daughter, Miss Belle, were here last week end from Fletcher, Okla., looking after business interests here. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, pioneer citizens of this county recently moved to a stock farm near Sterling, having rented out their farm in the Redwine community. They declare they like their new home, but did not burn any bridges behind them. They do not even claim to have left Lynn county for keeps, but just wanted a change in scenery for a while.

MRS. JERRY BROWN

Over a cup of coffee Sandra and I exchanged ideas and facts. Mrs. Jerry (Sandra) Brown is taking life easier (?) as she regains her health from a recent hospital stay. Yet, this is hard to do for one so active and involved with the activities of her family, church and club.

Casseroles are a favorite of Sandra, especially when a large dish of food is needed at the church. Her Italian Delight or Goulash which ever you prefer is easy to make as most of the ingredients are already in the pantry.

ITALIAN DELIGHT
2 lbs. hamburger meat
1 chopped onion
1 chopped bell pepper
2 T. chili powder

1 small can tomato sauce
1 small box macaroni, cooked
1 can whole kernel corn drained of liquid
6 slices of cheese
salt and pepper

Brown meat in skillet, set aside while onions and peppers are sauted. Combine meat, onions, peppers and corn. In greased casserole place layers of macaroni, meat mixture, tomato sauce and cheese slices, finishing with a cheese layer on top. Season to taste each layer with chili powder, salt and pepper. Bake in 350 degree oven until bubbly.

Sandra Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. McNeely. She was born, raised, and educated in Tahoka. This attractive young woman is married to Jerry Brown, a local farmer and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Brown. They are the parents of son Todd and daughter Lani. The Browns reside at 2114 North 8th Tahoka.

After their marriage, July 18, 1959, Jerry and Sandra moved to New Home where they were engaged in farming, ranching and raising quarter horses. While living at New Home, Sandra attended Texas Tech University and Jessie Lee's Hair Design Institute. She was an award winner in hair designing in 1965 and 1966. In 1966 they returned to Tahoka and their present address.

The first Americanism Day held in Tahoka November 19, 1970, under the leadership of Sandra Brown is her most outstanding feat to date. As first vice-president of Phebe K. Warner Club and chairman of the Program Committee, she received the cooperation of other civic clubs, the schools, the mayor and bank for this program. Posters were made at school and displayed in local stores and school Booklets of flag etiquette were presented by the First National Bank. Assemblies at school during the day was climaxed by an evening program for the public with Mrs. Stathakos Condos of Dallas, guest speaker on "Americanism". For this work, recognition came nationally from "Outstanding Young Woman of America" in 1970 with a certificate, and statewide with a resolution from the Senate in Austin, signed by Lt. Governor Ben Barnes.

Sandra's hobby is working with children of all ages. Mrs. Bill Chancy, Mrs. Del Tora, Mrs. Janet Porterfield and Sandra are Scout Leaders and workers for Lani's Girl Scout troop. She has worked with kindergarten in First United Methodist church, but his year her class is the 1st-2nd-3rd-grade boys and girls. In the summer she likes to go camping and has sponsored church groups to retreats at Palo Duro Canyon.

Her son, Todd is eleven years old, a 5th grader of Mrs. Burnes and loves sports of all kinds -- football and baseball. He is active in 4-H Clubwork and has pigs for a project and belongs to the 4-H Riding Club that meets in the summer. He is a piano pupil of Mrs. Clay Bennett. Last summer he attended Lois Greathouse and Donna Huffaker's 4-H cooking school and received an award.

Fair-haired Lani is nine years old and in the 4th grade at school. She also belongs to the 4-H club and raising pigs is her project. Her Duroc won a blue ribbon in last week's stockshow.

She likes horseback riding, playing the piano, Girl Scouts and roller skating.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dotson of a son born Tuesday, Feb. 20 in St. Mary's Hospital, Lubbock.

The baby weighed 7 lbs. 4 1/2 oz. and has been named Cody William. Mr. Dotson is a mechanic at Taylor Tractor. The Dotson's have one other son, Chad, 2 years old.

She is enrolled in Cooperative Homemaking, a subject offered to junior and senior girls, which allows a student to work in a Home Economics Related Occupation while attending school.

Easter Seals

The 1973 Easter Seal Appeal will open in Lynn County on Thursday, March 1, 1973 according to W.H. Eudy, who serves as Easter Seal Representative for the county.

Eudy said that Easter Seal Appeal letters would begin arriving at homes in the county about March 1.

As Easter Seal Representative, Eudy is the person to contact to request services from the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. These services include physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs and special information services to help solve the many problems faced by the families of handicapped children and adults.

Last year 16,572 handicapped people received help from the Texas Easter Seal Society. With the costs of providing expert professional care rising, more money than ever will be needed.

Funds help support 18 centers in Texas, where crippled children and adults are treated, regardless of their ability to pay. Providing walkers and wheelchairs is an example of the services provided to those who cannot provide for themselves and who do not qualify for help from any other source.

"The people of Texas have always responded generously to helping the handicapped, and I feel certain they will make it possible to increase Easter Seal services to crippled Texans throughout the coming year," Eudy said.

EDWARD AND DEAN BARTLEY

Bartleys Return From Alaska

On Feb. 8, Ed and Dean Bartley flew to Anchorage, Alaska with 43 other laymen to participate in a Lay Witness Mission in the Muldon Road

Baptist Church. They traveled at their own expense some 11,000 miles to share Christ by witnessing to individuals, small groups and entire congregations.

These laymen were past ordinary people. Some were farmers, some businessmen, others housewives, high school students, college students, airline employees, a medical doctor; and a garage man. They were from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico and represented the Methodist, Baptist and Church of Christ. The coordinator of this mission was Robert Danner, a business man and a member of the First Baptist Church of Ralls, Texas.

The Muldon Road Baptist Church is a Southern Baptist Church and is the largest church in the state of Alaska. It was organized twelve years ago in a barracks building by the pastor, Virgil Chron.

Upon arrival in Anchorage, the team members were assigned to homes of members of the Anchorage church and stayed with their hosts while conducting services in the community. The Housing Committee thought Ed and Dean were two college brothers so they were placed in separate homes while there. They were referred to as the Bartley Brothers throughout the mission.

Ed and Dean spoke in the Sunday morning services which were broadcasted to 5,000,000 people, reaching every point in Alaska, some of the Scandinavian countries and into parts of northern Russia.

While there they saw Mary Ellen (Wyatt) Moe, and her family, Sherrie Berryman and her family, and Cecil Bradshaw who was raised in the New Home community.

More SPS customers switched to electric heat last year because they found out, through a free estimate, they could operate an electric heating system for little more than they were spending already. Do you think they made a wise decision? Ask any of them. They're our most convincing salesmen. And, ask us for an operating cost estimate. It's free. It's accurate. It's a real eye-opener.

The seventh annual New Home Community Livestock Show was held in the Machas Barn at New Home on Saturday, February 10, 1973. This year's show featured fat barrows and fat lambs that the New Home Future Farmers of America and 4-H club members had been feeding and conditioning for the local show as well as larger shows scheduled throughout the state. ## Texans To Speak At Cotton Conference

Texans participating in the 1973 Western Cotton Production Conference here March 7-8 were announced today by Dr. Robert B. Metzger, area cotton specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and a member of the program committee.

Among the 13 Texans are five Lubbock men.

John Herzer, manager of the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill here, will speak on the status of cottonseed flour and its future in the cotton industry. Don Johnson, executive vice president of the Plains Cotton Growers Incorporated, will address the expected 400 guests on the topic of air pollution and its effect on the growers.

Other Lubbock men scheduled to speak are Emerson Tucker, engineer at the Plains Cotton Cooperative Association, whose topic is on the handling of seed cotton on an area basis, and Dr. Arthur B. Onken, research scientist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station here, also will speak on varietal response of narrow-row cotton to management of water and fertilizer. Roy Forkner, a producer and ginmer from Lubbock, will discuss the handling of seed cotton at local community gins.

Four area men are on tap to speak also. They are Marion Bowers of Seminole, speaking on grower experiences with narrow-row cotton; Mike Burkholder, producer from Pecos, whose address is on grower experiences with pest management; D.L. Adcock, farmer and ginmer from Lamesa, discussing the rick compactor; and Don Anderson, cotton producer from Crosbyton, whose presentation is on the use of herbicides on his farm.

Other Texans speaking to the group at Lubbock's Ko Inn are Dr. A.F. Wiesa, professor with the Experiment Station at Bushland, speaking on herbicide residues; Dr. Dudley T. Smith, former Lubbock resident now at College Station as assistant director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, who will speak on chemical weed control in irrigated and dryland cotton.

Also, Dr. Lambert H. Wilkes, associate professor of the Agricultural Engineering Department of Texas A&M University, whose address is on the effect of field storage and handling on seed and lint quality in cotton; and Dr. D.G. Boktrell, associate professor, Department of Entomology, Texas A&M, speaking on total insect population and field relationship.

A technical conference on cotton diseases preceding the regular meeting will feature 13 other Texans, most of whom are scientists and specialists in the cotton industry.

The two day gathering will feature 25 major presentations, and the preceding special session will include 18 speakers.

The annual meeting will draw representatives and officials of the cotton industry from Tennessee, Texas, California, Arizona, New Mexico, and numerous other southern and southwestern states.

MINIGARDENING ... If you have limited space for a garden, why not try your hand at minigardening? Basic materials needed are containers, soil and seed, says a specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Prepare a soil mixture using vermiculite, peat moss, limestone, superphosphate and 5-10-5 fertilizer. Use good seed, selecting disease and insect resistant varieties if available.

Cotton Harvest 90% Complete

Ideal weather conditions enabled South Plains farmers to resume the cotton harvest and approximately 90 percent of the crop is now out of the fields, according to W.K. Palmer, in charge of the U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock.

Samples from 102,000 bales were tested and classed at the South Plains U.S.D.A. cotton classing offices at Lubbock, Brownfield and Lamesa during the week ending Friday, February 16th. This brought the total classed for the season to 1,666,000 bales.

Grades of cotton classed at Lubbock remained about the same as the previous week. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) was the predominant grade, making up 19 percent of all cotton classed. Strict Low Middling (41) made up 11 percent, Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) 13 percent and Strict Low Middling Tinged (44) 13 percent.

Average staple length was also about the same as the previous week. Staples were predominantly 29 to 32. Fourteen percent had a staple length of 29, 41 percent stapled 30, 25 percent stapled 31 and 14 percent was 32.

Micronaire readings remained steady. Only 10 percent of all cotton classed at Lubbock had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 through 4.9, 8 percent "miked" 3.3 through 3.4, 28 percent was 3.0 through 3.2, 34 percent 2.7 through 2.9 and 20 percent was 2.6 and below.

The Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S.D.A. reported active trading on the Lubbock market. Prices were $2.50 to $5.00 per bale higher on most qualities. Prices ranged from $2.50 per bale over the loan for low grade, low micronaire cotton up to $50.00 per bale over the loan for high grade, premium micronaire cotton.

Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 premium micronaire range were: Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 30 - 27.50 cents per pound, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 30 - 27.90, Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) staple 30 - 22.75 Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) staple 31 - 23.05, Strict Low Middling Tinged (44) staple 30 - 18.60 and Strict Low Middling Tinged (44) staple 31 - 10.70.

Cottonseed prices were steady and farmers received $46 to $56 per ton for their cottonseed at gins.

BROWN ON GOVERNOR'S STAFF -- Reagan Brown, who has served as sociologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for the past 17 years, has been named as a special assistant by Gov. Dolph Briscoe. Brown served as coordinator of the Texas Community Improvement Program.

He also was a county Extension agent in Hunt, Kaufman and Caldwell counties. The Henderson native received the purple heart during World War II and has won numerous awards for distinguished service.

A New High ... Auction Receipts Decline ... Sheep and Lamb Feeding About Steady ... Still Only Three ...

For several years, the human population and the cattle and calf population in Texas were at about equal levels. But as of January 1, that has all changed.

The inventory of all cattle and calves in Texas is now 15,350,000 head, while the human population is around 12,000,000.

The 15,350,000 cattle and calves represents a 14 per cent increase over a year ago levels.

And as numbers went up, so did the value. The inventory value of all cattle and calves on Texas Farms and ranches is $3.5 billion; this is 42 per cent higher than a year ago.

Beef cow numbers at 5,320,000 head are up 16 per cent; milk cows at 360,000 are up one per cent; and beef replacement heifers at 1,043,000 are up 21 per cent.

The calf crop in Texas totaled 5,444,000; this is a three per cent increase.

Nationwide, the number of cattle and calves is up four per cent from the previous record. The nation has 121,990,000 cattle and calves. "Texas continues to be the leading state in the nation in totals of cattle and calves," Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

AUCTION receipts for cattle, calves, hogs, sheep and goats in Texas are below year-ago levels, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

During this past year, 181 livestock auctions inspected by the Texas Animal Health Commission reports a six per cent drop in calf and cattle receipts.

Sheep receipts were down 11 per cent; goat receipts were 26 per cent below the previous year. Hogs receipts were down 19 per cent.

DRYLOT sheep feeders with a lot capacity of 2,000 head or more had 90,000 sheep and lambs on feed for slaughter as of February 1. This is the same as the number on feed a month earlier but three per cent below the number on feed a year ago.

Current intentions to market are: 45,000 in February; 35,000 in March; and 10,000 in April.

ONLY three commodities are above effective parity in Texas. They are oats, calves and sheep.

All feed grains except grain sorghum showed advances during the recent month. Wheat averaged $2.40 per bushel, up nine cents; corn averaged $1.78 bushel, up seven cents; oats averaged $1.05 per bushel, up four cents; and grain sorghum averaged $2.75, down four cents.

Hogs averaged $30.40 per hundredweight, beef cattle averaged $37.20; calves averaged $52.10, sheep averaged $13.50, and lambs averaging $34.80.

Eggs were up two cents from the previous month averaged 52 cents per dozen.

Milk averaged $7.75 per hundred pounds, down a nickel from the previous month.

Cotton declined during the past month. It now averaged 0 cents per pound, which is down 1.2 cents per pound.

What is the Hydrostatic Drive unit like?

Simply described, it's a piston-type pump and a piston-type motor. The pump converts mechanical energy from the engine into hydraulic energy. And the motor converts this hydraulic energy back to mechanical energy for power at the drawbar. You select speed with one SR control. Change on-the-go, no pause, no lurch, no clutch.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS .....

With spring just around the corner, it's time to turn your thoughts to home vegetable gardens.

Home vegetable gardens are one means of beating high inflation. This is just one of many advantages of gardens.

Gardening gives many people a sense of pleasure, satisfaction and pride: pleasure from working in the fresh air and sunshine, satisfaction from eating fresh vegetables with good flavor, and pride from a gardening job well done.

Gardening offers outdoor recreation and is healthful, and it fits in well with both rural and suburban living. For businessmen and others looking for something to fill their spare time, gardening can be a worthwhile endeavor.

Furthermore, a garden might be just the answer for that unused space in the back yard.

Home vegetable gardening offers excellent opportunities for cooperative family activity. It gives the family a chance to do something together. And what better way to boost family harmony than to share a meal together which features fresh, nutritious homegrown vegetables.

Gardening can offer other thrills too, like growing a vegetable that none near you grows, having the first peas or beans of any gardener on the block or winning awards in the local show.

So why not try a vegetable garden this spring.

counter values on beef chuck roasts and chuck steaks.

"Moderate buys may appear on ground beef, rib steak, round steak and beef liver," she reported.

"In evaluating chuck cuts, remember that the blade chuck lies next to the tender rib roast and is the most tender. However blade chuck provides less edible meat per pound because it contains more waste in bone and fat than the arm on English chucks."

Cabbage supplies are heavy with prices probably at their lowest point this winter, and carrot supplies are ample with prices attractive, Mrs. Clyatt said.

Other economical vegetable choices include potatoes, turnips, rutabagas, sweet potatoes, hard shell squash, celery and dry yellow onions.

Grapefruit and oranges in plentiful supply feature reasonable prices, as do bananas, apples, avocados, pineapple and tangelos.

MORE SCREWWORMS-- Two screwworm cases were confirmed in Hidalgo and Willacy counties on Feb. 12 after an 18-day lull. According to officials of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Project, the cases point up the fact that there are still screwworms in South Texas despite recent weather unfavorable to the flesh-eating pest. However, officials remain hopeful for a light screwworm year due to low infestations presently in the northern Mexico overwintering areas. Texas now has recorded 48 cases in 1973.

PLAN FOR FALL HUNTING A wildlife specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service advises hunters to arrange for a fall hunting lease as soon as possible. Land with a history of good hunting is leased early.

Market Report

Egg supplies are lower, but demand for them is greater because of rising meat prices, according to one source.

"Prices remain about steady at the higher level for this season of the year." Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University added.

"Two medium size eggs will satisfactorily take the place of high-quality protein of a lean serving of meat, while Grade A large size eggs offer the best quality and economy combination."

Pork supplies dipped lower than expected for this time of year with prices reflecting the situation, the specialist observed.

"Boston Butt roasts are featured at meat counters, along with scattered specials on quarter-loins cut into chops, rib end roasts, sausage and semi-boneless hams."

Although beef prices are rising, Mrs. Clyatt cited meat

A new kind of "drug war" seems to be shaping up in the Legislature.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe spelled out his recommendations for complete revision of drug laws and promised to "lobby hard" with all the resources at his command as governor to get the bill passed.

As introduced in the House and Senate, it called for harsh penalties against dope pushers, annual registration of those who deal in legal drugs and lowering the penalty for first offense possession of marijuana to a misdemeanor. Briscoe's bill would allow possession of up to eight ounces of marijuana without risking felony charge on first offense. However, the misdemeanor would be punishable by up to a year in jail and or $2,000 fine. The Governor also called for stepped-up education and rehabilitation programs. The bill was drawn, said Briscoe, to mesh with the 1970 federal controlled substance act to allow governments at all levels to work more effectively together.

A few days later, however, former Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth, who headed a Senate study committee on drug abuse, assailed the governor's proposals as "an out and out fraud as a reform measure." Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena introduced in bill form the far-reaching provisions of Kennard's committee. Brook's bill would "decriminalize" marijuana possession and set moderate felony penalties for sales. It would also make simple possession of most drugs (heroin excluded) a misdemeanor and provide for commitment of users to rehabilitation facilities. On the other hand, it would call for non-paroleable life sentences of convicted "big time" heroin dealers.

The controversy continues to boil on the reduction of penalties on use of marijuana and increasing penalties on those who sell marijuana or hard drugs. H.B. 86 by Rep. Lindon Williams implements more stringent penalties on those who sell drugs.

It is backed by the Austin based Legal Drug Control Society, headed by E.E. Armistead. Armistead has passed petitions for over a year, and submitted these to the Legislature.

"The Legal Drug Control Society asks that concerned citizens write their legislators to express support for H.B. 86," Armistead says. "We realize that there is no simple solution on this complex problem of drug abuse, but removing the pusher is no simple solution on this complex problem of drug abuse, but removing the pusher and dealer from the scene will certainly be a giant step in the right direction."

Armistead started his crusade against the drug pushers when his daughter jumped from the University of Texas tower two years ago. Her notes told about experiments with drugs. COUNCIL MAKES SURVEY FOR LEGISLATURE - County judges and clerks and District clerks and judges have been asked for important research information to help the Texas Legislature make decisions on current legislative proposals.

Questions on marijuana automobile accidents, probation, etc., have been posed by the Texas Civil Judicial Council - which is charged in state statutes with the duty of supplying information to the legislature affecting state courts.

"It is understandably difficult for a legislator to judge the merits of proposed legislation wisely without any estimate of its impact," said Ronald Earle, chief counsel for the Judicial Council. "The Judicial Council is seeking to provide this needed information instead of conjecture."

In seeking information regarding the number of persons currently on probation the Judicial Council will be exploring uncharted territory Earle added. "The impact of probation on the criminal process is too important not to consider in more detail."

Current proposals on changes in the Judicial Article of the Texas Constitution set up machinery for an Administrator of the Court - whose office would compile statistics from the courts on a year round basis.

COURTS SPEAK - The State Supreme Court refused an appeal by Continental Oil Company to issue an order in an energy shortage action involving the company's inability to deliver natural gas under contract with other concerns.

The high court upheld lower courts restraining Crystal City from locking what's left of the local country club and upholding a 1956 lease of city land.

Court of Criminal Appeals overruled a conviction for theft against a former Crane County hospital executive who allegedly sold a compressor unit used in treating respiratory diseases. The court decision said Crane County had never become owner of the machine, and there could have been no theft or embezzlement from the county. OIL OUTPUT WIDE OPEN

AGAIN - The Railroad Commission ordered wide-open, 100 per cent market demand oil production for the 12th straight month.

In making the announcement, Commission Chairman Jim Langdon offered "some good news and some bad news." He said there were no "tremendously serious", shortages during the curcial winter months in spite of heating oil stock declines.

However, Langdon warned, the peak gasoline consuming season is just around the corner, and gasoline stocks are 19.2 million barrels below 1972 in the nation. Further, crude and products stocks in the U.S. are 70.2 million barrels off last year.

"The petroleum industry has managed to get out of the frying pan but now is in the fire," said Langdon.

The allowable responded to requests for 3,764,459 barrels of oil daily in March, a decline of 17,003 from February. Exceptions from the 100 per cent allowable are the East Texas field, 86 per cent; Kelly-Snyder, 76 per cent; and Tom O'Connor, 70 per cent. Several other fields are at 80 per cent.

AG OPINIONS - Atty. Gen. John Hill held probably unconstitutional a bill requiring cities of more than 600,000 and less than 800,000 population to improve highway bridges. Hill indicated the bill would violate local or special law prohibitions which are frequently breached by such "bracket bills."

In another opinion, Hill said appointment of an elected judge or a state legislator to be a "special ranger" would be unconstitutional. He said an elected member of the executive department of state government may be appointed a special ranger provided there is no incompatibility between the office and ranger service.

Rep. David Finney of Fort Worth called on Hill for an opinion on constitutionality of a state ethics commission. APPOINTMENTS - Governor Briscoe appointed Waco newspaper executive Harry Provence as chairman of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

Jack L. Reynolds, former Edinburg city manager, is new associate director of the State Bar of Texas.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby has been named to the national energy and natural resources committee of the national conference lieutenant governors.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. announced appointment of Rep. Hawkins Menefee Jr. of Houston to the Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

Hobby named to the Crime and Narcotics Commission Rev. Zan W. Holmes of Dallas, Ted U. Kepple of El Paso and Carol S. Vance, Harris County district attorney. Vance was reappointed.

DELAY DENIED - Lt. Gov. Hobby gave repeated assurances that his plans for a March 20-21 citizens conference on ethics in government will not delay senate consideration of reform measures passed by the House.

Meanwhile, some House members blasted Hobby for indicating final Senate approval of the reform bills would be held up until after he receives advice of citizens on ethics legislation at the conference.

Hobby said hearings will move forward on ethics, lobby control and campaign financing measures. He noted it is extremely unusual for the Senate to vote on controversial measures before March 9 anyway. The Lieutenant Governor said the citizens conference carries out his campaign pledge to seek voter input on matters of intense public concern.

QUARTER PLAN DELAYED The Senate passed and sent to the governor legislation to delay for two years mandatory implementation of the quarter system in state public schools.

The bill (HB 92) moves the mandatory start-up period for the quarter system from the next September to the 1975-76 school year. Small school district urged the delay.

BARGAINING BILL ADVANCES - After nearly eight hours of debate, the House passed and sent to the senate a bill giving policemen and firemen collective bargaining rights if local voters approve.

The watered-down bill would prohibit strikes by the firefighters and police, and it would require they get the prevailing wage for their area in comparable work.

SHORT SNORTS The Senate rejected 13-17 the appointment of Ray Kirkpatrick to the State Insurance Board.

Lt. Gov. Hobby asked Sen. H.J. Blanchard of Lubbock to investigate the spending of the Legislative Property Tax Committee, a panel set up to seek ad valorem tax reform.

Parks and Wildlife Department once more is seeking authority to raise hunting license fees from $3.25 to $5.25 and fishing licenses from $2.15 to $4.25.

Atty. Gen. Hill filed a motion for rehearing of the U.S. Supreme Court decision January 22 which threw out the state's abortion laws.

A bill to permit the Attorney General to recover damages for deceptive trade practices or deceptive advertising victims has Senate Human Resources Committee approval.

JABER ISSA

Brazilian Youth Ends Tahoka Stay

Today is a special day for Jaber Pereira Issa, 18, of Pedro Leopoldo, Minas Gerais, Brazil. It is his birthday and also the day he leaves Tahoka for one week in Florida, before returning to Brazil.

Jaber has been the guest of Tahoka Lions Club for the past five weeks staying in the homes of local Lions. Previous to his Tahoka visit, he stayed a month in Mt. Gilead, Ohio.

Portuguese is Jaber's native language but he speaks and understands some Spanish, French and speaks English well enough to make his point.

A recent graduate to High School, Jaber hopes to attend the Federal University of Minas Gerais and study Mechanical Engineering. Three older brothers are currently studying Psychology, Business Administration, and Engineering. Two older sisters are studying French Language and Dentistry. A younger brother and a younger sister are still in Secondary School.

Jaber's father, Jorge has a shop, evidently very similar to our lumber yards. His mother Elza, is a former school teacher.

Unlike his Ohio visit, Jaber has been very busy since his arrival in Tahoka. One of the highlights of his stay has been a trip to Ruidoso. Snow is new to him, and is one of nature's wonders he doesn't care for.

When questioned about his impressions of America Jaber said, Ohio was more of what he expected America to be... but Texas was more like home. He would like to come back to Texas. Time passes quickly in Tahoka, it didn't in Ohio.

Alligator vs Shoemaker

With ecology in mind, a state legislature banned the sale of alligator skins within the borders of the state. In short order, a maker of men's shoes went to court with the following objection:

"This law is unconstitutional. True, the state does have the power to protect consumers. But here they are not trying to protect consumers. They are trying to protect alligators. That is beyond the scope of legislative authority."

However, a court ruled that the measure was indeed within the "police power" of the state

"Protection of animals," said the court, "is necessary not only for their natural beauty and for biological study but (also) for the key role they play in the maintenance of the life cycle."

Not long afterward, a shoe dealer tried another line of attack on the same law. "It hurts our chances of making a living," said the dealer. "It destroys our property rights without due process of law."

But again the court upheld the legislation. The court said the shoe dealer simply had no "property right" to begin with in the wildlife of a foreign country.

These cases illustrate the legal issues that have arisen out of efforts to preserve "endangered species." As a rule, courts have looked with favor upon such efforts.

Nevertheless, if the state may act on behalf of animals, it may also act on behalf of hunters. In another case, lawmakers decided to introduce a special breed of deer into remote sections of the state—for the benefit of sportsmen.

Some residents opposed the plan, partly because of the harm the deer might inflict upon the flora and fauna of the region.

But after a court test, their objections were overruled. The court said the state's police power included the right to make the state more appealing and more profitable as a recreational area.
