Huffaker Tells Of Trip To Brazil

"Don't feel sorry for Brazil -- those people have things working for them," Calloway Huffaker said in a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday in telling of a recent 8-day trip by air jet made by he and his wife.

They flew from Albuquerque along with 200 - plus other people from the Sandia Corporation and a group of attorneys and their friends from San Antonio. Also in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Rutherford of Gold Coast, Oregon, formerly in business in Tahoka.

The 15,400 mile trip cost only $569.00 per person, Huffaker said, and this included seven nights lodging in the finest hotel in Rio de Janeiro, all meals, side trips, tips, etc.

Rio is very modern beautiful city of 6 million people, beautifully situated on the mountainous coast. They found the people very happy, pleasant, nice looking and well dressed, courteous, friendly, and very busy, apparently prosperous, and saw no 'hippies.'

They were impressed by the large number of Volkswagens and buses, the heavy traffic, and modern streets and highways.

They were taken on a 60-mile bus trip into the sensational mountains, and were flown one day to Brazilia, 570 miles away, the new capital of that nation, the most modern city in the world, ideally planned for future growth and now boasting a population of 700,000.

Another day they were flown to Sao Paulo, fifth largest city in the world with 11 million population, and Calloway said he doubted if that great city had as many slums as Lubbock.

In addition to being the second largest beef producing country, Brazil has become a major industrial nation. Imports are relatively non-existent since Brazil's import tax is 200 percent.

Sao Paulo has the largest Ford plant in the world. Other large industrial plants that export to the U.S. and other nations include General Electric, Admiral, several tractor manufacturers, and most of the automobile motors, carburetors, etc. Fifty percent of the Volkswagens distributed from Germany are built in Brazil.

They were warned the U.S. can not compete with Brazil because of the high Union wages we pay here.

BETTY CURRY

Betty Curry FHA Area Officer

At the Area II Future Homemakers meeting held in Odessa last Saturday, Betty Curry was elected Second Vice President of the area. Betty will be responsible for the promotion of work on ENCOUNTER which is the new form of the FHA Degrees program.

Betty is a sophomore student in Tahoka High School. For the past two years she has served as president of her unit in FHA. She is currently serving as Fourth Vice President of the Tahoka Chapter.

Over two thousand FHA members attended the meeting in Odessa Saturday. Forty-two members from the Tahoka Chapter attended.

Mrs. Ronald DeBusk, the former Debbie Wright and 1972 National Maid of Cotton was the keynote speaker for the Area meeting. Debbie served as president of Area II Future Homemakers of America during her senior year in Tahoka High School. Debbie's topic "Reach Out" inspired her listeners to become involved and forget self. Debbie is teaching homemaking in Richardson this year.

Girl Scouts Say Thanks

Tahoka's Girl Scouts, Volunteer Leaders and Fund Drive workers would like to say Thanks to everyone who contributed to the Fund Drive earlier in the week. Your generous donations have helped Tahoka Units meet their quota and helped insure Girl Scouting in the Caprock Council for another year.

This year's drive was much later than usual due to inclement weather. Apologies are due to all because of the fact the drive came so close behind the annual Cookie Sales. It could not be helped.

Funds derived from the Cookie sales go partially to local units with the remainder going for the up keep of the council's Camp Rio Blanco near Crosbyton.

The funds collected during the drive help insure a continuation of programs offered through the Council. When the budget is not met, programs are cut that affect the girls directly. Our 73 registered Tahoka girls are the ones that suffer.

Because of lack of volunteer workers, not everyone was contacted. If you were not contacted and would like to contribute, call Fund Drive Chairman Gale Hartman or contact a Girl Scout leader.

This week, March 11 thru 17 is National Girl Scout Week. Three of Tahoka's four units will participate in a "Mallvelous" celebration Saturday afternoon at the South Plains Mall, Tahoka people are invited to go by the Mall and see Girl Scouting in Action.

BY JANET OWEN

MARY BETH MCKIBBEN AND LENA

Can Spring be far away when painting, remodeling and cleaning-up the "homeplace" is the topic and interest of the day?

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McKibben at 2316 N. 3rd started work this winter on their house by moving a door in the master bedroom thus giving them room for a dressing table in the master bathroom. This work is completed with carpet and tile; and mirrors and curtains. And now they are ready to do work on other parts of the house as money from cotton crops and time permit. They want to redo their heating and cooling system first, then perhaps storm windows and outside paint.

Mary Beth has swatches of fabrics for carpets, drapes and upholstery she has planned to use in the house someday in her den, dining room and living room.

Work on the house is at a stand still right now as Mary Beth helps husband Jerry get the cotton crop in and then when she isn't busy here, she is involved with her children and Scout work. This year Mary Beth is the Scouts Service Unit Cookie Chairman for Tahoka. She supplies the Girl Scout troops with cookies. Cookie Chairman from the four troops are Pat Cook-Troop 273, Maxine Paris-Troop 108, Frances Cahncy-Troop 306 and Shirley Reece-Troop 177. They are busy this week closing out cookie sales and getting reports into the Lubbock office.

Mary Beth McKibben is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Gardenhire, Rt. 1, O'Donnell, Texas and has lived in this area all her life. Her four active children are Tammie, 13, Jerri Beth II, Wayne 10, and Lena 6. All of the children are enrolled in the local schools, except Lena who is looking forward to starting to school in September.

The oldest girl Tammie is a majorette in the junior high school band and likes to play basketball and piano. Jerri Beth, a fifth grader, likes to play the piano, sing in her church choir and be a member of Girl Scout Troop 108. Both girls are helpers in the kitchen and like to make donuts from canned biscuits.

Son, Wayne is a helper in his father's field. The former Cub Scout likes to hunt with his Dad and sometimes sing in the choir group at First Baptist Church.

The bicycle-riding, six year old Lena is Mother's helper during the day. She helps care for the family dog, Prissy, and feeds their two gold fish that she shares with her big sisters.

In the summertime the family looks forward to skiing, swimming and camping -- either with the family or at a scout or church camp.

Busy Mary Beth is probably inspired to do over her home, which they bought from Mrs. Neely Bray, since her parents built a new home on their farm in O'Donnell last year. Mrs. McKibben and Lena are pictured in the dining room. On the hutch in the background are souvenir coffee spoons her mother brought back to Mary Beth from different countries after her trip to Europe last summer. She has a brother Tommy Gardenhire of O'Donnell and asister Mrs. Jimmy Gay Ash a teacher in Throckmorton, Texas.

Jerry McKibben's parents are deceased, yet Mr. and Mrs. Pat McKibben are remembered as fine pioneer parents of this area, having many sons and daughters.

Banana Nut Cake made with baby foods is a recipe Mary Beth chose from the Junior Study Club Cookbook that was written when she was president of the club. The Jr. Study Club no longer exists and Mary Beth is a member of the Phebe K. Warner Study Club now.

BANANA NUT CAKE
 1 cup Wesson oil

 1 tsp. soda
 1/2 tsp. salt cial respiration demonstration by a senior health student were viewed by attending parents and students.

During a paid assembly last Friday afternoon, a film, "Which Way to the Front," and three cartoons were shown in order to earn money for the student council.

The table display will feature flower containers created by club members. Each member is asked to make a container for this display. Floral arrangements, "Wearing of the Green", (all green arrangements) are to be shown by Mrs. Gordon Musick, Mrs. Robbie Roberson and Mrs. R.M. Stewart. The meeting will begin at 2:00 p.m. Ya'll come.

Information On Track Records Are Needed

With the good showing of the Tahoka High School Track Team this year, several outstanding performances have been given and more are expected. Mr. Ray Findley, track coach, is attempting to compile a chart indicating holders of track and field records for Tahoka High School. Mr. Findley requests that persons who know of outstanding performances in track over the past years call and give this information to the school office (phone number 998-4538). Information needed would include name of performer, the event, the time or distance, approximate date of performance and where the event took place.

Notes from the Neighborhood

By: Janet Owen

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Owens left Monday for a trip to South Texas. They motored to Austin where they saw E.L. and Dink Short. He gave them a tour of the Capitol. From Austin they journeyed to Houston and the stockshow where they saw some folks from home attending the livestock competition. While in the vicinity, they took the tour through the Astrodome. In Waco they missed a tornado that had been through about 30 minutes earlier; yet, they were in time for driving in a heavy downpour. At Waco, the Owens decided to come on home and not make a side-trip to Dallas as planned earlier.

Former Tahokians Mrs. Carolyn Redwine and daughter, Christi were visitors last week with Mrs. F.E. Redwine and Mrs. Gena Fay Adams. Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collins at 2220

North 1st Street last Sunday were Mr. Irby Thomas from McCamey, Texas and then on Tuesday flying-in from McCamey also, came Mr. Guy Hibler and Mr. Jim Print. Mrs. Wilson Edwards (Polly) and Mrs. Alton Gardner (Donna Sue) from Houston came Wednesday to visit their mother Mrs. G.R. Millikin and other relatives and friends.

Miss Vicky Owens from Texas Tech was home for the week-end visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Owens.

Hospital Notes: Cap Rowe is home now. He came home Saturday to have home-cooking eight times a day. Glad to have you back home, Cap. Another home is Mr. Irving Stewart who was dismissed after a check-up.

Mr. Preston Buchanan remains a patient; also Mrs. G.C. Watson is still in the hospital.

Have you driven by and noticed my neighbor's, Mrs. Maud Huffaker's crocus bulbs (purple) in bloom? The apricot trees are lovely with their white blossoms. Soon the peach trees will be dressed in pink blossoms. A lovely time of the year!!!!

A Housewarming Party was held Friday night March 9th by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Parker. The open-house was held in their new home at 2511 North 3rd Street. In spite of the falling rain, many came to see Jewel and Dayton and their new home.

Hostesses for the open-house were Betty Owens, Coy Collier, Dorothy Craig, Peggy Jennings, Frances Atwood, LuAnne Thornton, Lottie Jo Walker, Mrs. Prohl, Wanda Inklebarger, Waltina Sheppard, Shirley Reece, Kathy Dorman, Linda Martin, Barbara Duncan, Ann Witt, Mary Beth McKibben, Joyce Pebsworth, Toy Holland, Tommye Oliver, Judy Bush and Bonnie Askew.

Joe and Helen Collins visited in Odessa this past week end with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don White. Then on Sunday they attended church services at First United Methodist in McCamey. A coffee was given from 2-5 by their dear friends Mr. and Mrs. Irby Thomas and here they saw many more of their former friends and neighbors.

Oran Ramsey of Tahoka and Wilma Pirtle of Post, Texas were married in Lamesa, Texas last Wednesday, March 7, 1973. The Ramseys are living in Post, Texas now, but hope to move back here after some work on their home at 2113 Avenue L.

Charles Ashbrook and Harvey Craig attended a tractor show in Fort Worth, Texas over the week-end.

Students home over the week-end were Altha Hale, Babara Wharton, Dheryl Sherrill, Debbie Miller, Jerry Ford, Cathy Wells, and Southern Wells.

In reply to my fan-mail from Modesto, Calif. the Pioneer Reunion will be held June 23 as scheduled this year. This date was chosen to mark Grandma Wells birthday. To qualify as a pioneer you must live here thirty years - or live away from here thirty years and then come back to attend a reunion. Perhaps this date June 23 and your vacation time will coincide some year and you can attend then.

Debbie DeBusk Speaks at Odessa

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald DeBusk were visitors in our city this past week-end, their first visit here since their marriage in January. Debbie Wright DeBusk was here for a speaking engagement in Odessa. She gave the main address for the Area II Future

Homemakers meeting which includes all chapters from Cooper school to El Paso. The former Area II President was thrilled to return and speak to 2,000 area FHA members. Debbie's address topic was "Reach Out" - something she does very well with her charm and grace and sincerity that thrills your heart when she speaks, or addresses a crowd. Her mother, Mrs. Bryan Wright, confided to Madeline Hegi that she had learned to relax and enjoy what Debbie has to say.

The former National Cotton is from Tahoka, Texas. She now teaches school in Richardson, Texas and her husband is a dental student in Dallas, Texas.

The Railroads

One of the sad stories of post-war years is the decline of American railroads and good passenger service. Perhaps the bottom has been reached and things are turning around.

The National Railroad Passenger Corporation has just issued its annual report. Amtrak says in the last six months of 1972 revenues were up 12.6 per cent, "indicating the historical decline in railroad passenger ridership has been reversed."

Amtrak is still having its troubles trying to operate and improve passenger service by contracting with a dozen rail companies. But in spite of foot-dragging, some incompetent or rude personnel and technical delays, Amtrak says service will improve further.

For one thing, a number of more modern and improved cars and engines will be put into service by summer. Other cars will be refurbished, and Amtrak hopes to shorten travel time on a number of routes. Most Americans wish Amtrak well, desiring fast, clean rail passenger service. Private rail companies and Amtrak should cooperate to that end for the public good.

Early Boil

Speculation continues in Washington over the political future of John Connally of Texas. The latest flap followed a report by Peter Lisagor (Chicago Daily News) that President Nixon had told a visitor he thought Connally would be the 1976 G.O.P. nominee.

This report, combined with first rumblings of a stop-Agnew movement among more liberal Republican Senators designed to keep the Vice President from sewing up the party nomination, came only a day after the Vice President had left Washington on an Asian trip.

On the same day G.O.P. Party Chairman George Bush told a newsman he would welcome Connally into the C.O.P., that if Connally chose to run he could test his chances in the "competitive framework" of the party. President Nixon then told newsman Connally was qualified to fill any job in the world.

All of which indicates Connally will switch -- and that the 1976 political pot is likely to burn brightly from now until the party conventions in 1976, despite official G.O.P. hopes for concentration on 1974 in the next two years.

Democratic Chance

Chairman Robert Strauss of the Democratic Party is finding the task of reuniting and rebuilding his party a formidable one.

He proposes to enlarge the party's commission on delegate selection from 51 to 70 members (this would likely mean the end of the rigid quota system used in 1972.) He is opposed to the 1972 convention mandate requiring the party to hold a mid-term convention in 1974 (though he says he hasn't the authority to cancel it).

He proposes to establish a policy committee of some forty members, to meet regularly and issue policy statements. And he wants to heal the split in the party by bringing various factions together by personal meetings at party headquarters.

Strauss has been unable, as yet, to obtain Senator George McGovern's 700,000-name mailing list. The National Committee, incidentally, was swamped by protests after a recent McGovern speech in England criticizing the U.S. press and the mood of the American people.

He has other troubles, including financial problems. But the emerging impression is that Strauss is making progress. And he seems likely to be presiding over a different party three years hence, if he continues on the present path.

Clean Air Victory

The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Washington has struck down a two-year extension, granted last May to metropolitan areas in seventeen states, for compliance with federal clean air standards. Under present law metropolitan areas must comply with the new standards by 1975. The Environmental Protection Agency had extended that deadline to 1977.

The court found EPA had no authority to grant the delay and ordered the agency to strictly enforce the law, its clean-air standards and timetables. It also said EPA must require all states to submit implementation plans by April 15th of this year.

Credit for the court decision goes to the National Resources Defense Council, which brought the suit, the result of which is a victory for all Americans.

Smoking

The nation's army of tobacco addicts, an increasing percentage of them women, should heed the latest warning signal from the United States Public Health Service.

The Service announced recently twelve different studies showed a relationship between pregnant women who smoked and their babies' high infant mortality rate. Cigarette sucking is sometimes killing their babies in the birthing process. (The PHS estimates Mrs. Effie H. ... babies die each year in the first three days after birth because of the smoking habits of their mothers.)

Already the Public Health Service and U.S. Surgeon General have shown that inhaling cigarette smoke rather than clean air causes cancer and other serious, often fatal, diseases. What else is needed to convince addicts that their addiction is a habit to being a dirty habit, a dangerous and stupid one?

POW Heartbreak

The fervent hope of a majority of 1500 prisoners -- that a loved one would be among those released by the North -- has been dashed.

Unfortunately, the North Vietnamese reported they held only slightly more than 500 U.S. prisoners -- now releasing their families or loved ones.

Two-thirds of those families who are faithful, courageous or desperate for years are now badly disappointed by this result of the ceasefire.

The long agony for these families was sary. Hanoi's refusal to release the U.S. prisoners was part of its plan to pressure President Nixon into U.S. support of South Vietnam before an honorable ceasefire was obtained.

The conduct is in violation of the Geneva standards on POW treatment because the cruel effort failed to achieve its purpose because of President's firmness, which, one hopes, will be similar inhumanity in the future.

Out Of Proportion

The recent trial of the men who carried out the famed Watergate bugging operation by the Democrats in last year's political campaign was blown up far out of all proportion.

Read the columnists and editorials in New York Times and Washington Post and see the front-page play they recently gave the case, one could easily conclude the fate of the nation was the atmosphere created by the libelous, and by many who sympathize with the liberal policies of the Democrats, the defendants probably could have received an impartial trial in Washington, D.C.

The Watergate incident did not endanger or threaten its future, as is claimed. The defendants have all been found guilty and severely punished. The question remains whether they should be punished for their specific crime of entering, bugging, etc., or whether they should be punished for an alleged omission to the nation, its freedoms, etc., as proclaimed in the liberal press.

Cotton Harvest Nears Completion

The South Plains cotton harvest neared completion as favorable weather enabled farmers to return to fields, according to W.K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U.S.D.A. Over 95 percent of the crop is now out of the fields. Most harvest activity was in the counties east and south of Lubbock but some harvesting continued in all counties.

Samples from 27,000 bales were tested and classed at the Lubbock office during the week ending Friday, March 9th. This brought the total classed for the season to 1,852,000 bales.

Grades of cotton were about the same as the previous week. Low Middling Light Spotted (52) was the predominant grade, making up 21 percent of all cotton classed. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) made up 15 percent, Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) 11 percent and Low Middling Spotted (53) 16 percent.

Average staple length improved slightly from the previous week. Staples were predominantly 30 to 32. Thirty percent had a staple length of 30, 29 percent stapled 31 and 21 percent was 32.

Micronaire readings remained steady. However, only 12 percent of all cotton classed at Lubbock had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 through 4.9, 8 percent "miked" 3.3 through 3.4, 29 percent was 3.0 through 3.2, 31 percent 2.7 through 2.9 and 20 percent was 2.6 and below.

The Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S.D.A. reported active trading on the Lubbock market. Prices were lower early in the week but recovered the latter part of the week. Prices ranged from $5.00 per bale over the loan for low grade, low micronaire cotton up to $60.00 per bale over the loan for high grade, premium micronaire cotton.

Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 premium micronaire range were: Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 30 - 26.75 cents per pound, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 31 - 27.15, Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) staple 30 - 22.00, Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) staple 31 - 22.30, Strict Low Middling Tinged (44) staple 30 - 18.35, and Strict Low Middling Tinged (44) staple 31 - 18.45.

Cottonseed prices were steady and farmers received $45 to $56 per ton for their cottonseed at gins.

Ray Joe Riley of Hart, President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., told the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry March 9 that "The economic facts of life in the cotton industry at the moment are such that the continuation of a government cotton program is absolutely essential to the continuation of cotton production and a cotton industry."

"With cotton's current cost of production and with its necessity under the present marketing set-up for a competitive price far below production cost," he added, "any thought that the industry can remain a vital part of the nation's economy without a government program or under a predetermined phase-out plan is an extremely dangerous thought and a thought without economic justification."

Riley was one of a long list of witnesses appearing before the Senate Committee to urge an extension of the present program which expires with the 1973 crop year.

He said "As cotton producers we need a cotton program to keep us in business. But the need extends far beyond cotton producers. The cotton industry is an industry vital to this nation's economy, and the availability of cotton fiber to consumers is a definite, measurable advantage to them in their everyday lives."

"Therefore we recommend, and recommend strongly, that the cotton section of the Agriculture Act of 1970 be extended. The Act is on the books, it has worked well for two years -- and it has the potential to work better with only slight changes..."

The following are excerpts from the PCG statement on behalf of High Plains cotton producers, relating to nine specific program provisions.

"The 15-cent per pound payment, made as it is on only a part of the acreage necessary to adequate production for domestic and export markets, is the absolute minimum which, when added to a competitive price for cotton, will cover production costs and production costs and provided even the most meager return to capital, management and labor.

"The $55,000 payment limitation is wrong, period. There is absolutely no justification for it ... However, political reality being what it is, we reluctantly recommend that this committee report a farm bill specifying the same $55,000 per person per crop limitation.

"Language in the 1970 Act which permits the Secretary of Agriculture to arbitrarily set the CCC loan price for cotton at less than 90 percent of the average world market price should be deleted..."

"... we recommend that this committee insist on language which will require the base acreage allotment for future years to be no less than the 11.5 million acres of 1971 and 1972.

"Sale and lease provisions of current law should be retained, preferably with provision for leased acreage to become a part of planting history on leasing farms, to the end that allotments would move, ultimately, to these areas willing and able to produce cotton.

"The current method of determining farm yields for payment purposes -- using a three year average of actual yields adjusted for adverse conditions beyond producer control has served the industry and the nation well. It should be continued as a means to even out the extreme highs and lows of cotton farmer income ...

"... PCG was in the forefront of efforts to secure the so-called anniversary-date loan under which farmers can retain control of their crops for 12 months or longer. This is one of the tools needed to promote better inventory management and it should be retained ... Also needed is an 18-month re-seal privilege for cotton such as the re-seal program which has been so helpful to grain producers in the orderly marketing of their crops for the past several years....

"... PCG was one of the first and foremost advocates of Section 610 funds -- the money provided the Cotton Board to carry out, through Cotton Incorporated, a part of the most promising program ever known to the cotton industry in the fields of product development, research and promotion.. We urge this committee to fight and fight hard for retention of this money for the Cotton Board and Cotton Incorporated. We sincerely believe it is one of the most prudent investments that can be made by the U.S. Government.

"And finally, Mr. Chairman we would urge that the Act of 1970 be extended for a minimum of five years, making it possible for us to make future plans for more than a year or two at a time."

Cotton Growers Seek Better Deals For Thier Cottonseed

Cotton producers are becoming increasingly alarmed about the gap between the prices they receive for cottonseed and the prices cottonseed meal and hulls bring at resale, Dr. H.L. (Hal) Lewis of Raleigh, N.C., told Mississippi Valley oilseed processors here.

Lewis is director of agricultural research for Cotton Incorporated, the research, sales and marketing company sponsored by America's cotton growers through their dollar-per-bale program.

He advised delegates to the 22nd oilseed processing clinic that unless things change, cotton producers may be forced to seek new and more profitable markets for their cottonseed.

Lewis cited figures showing that prices paid to producers for cottonseed have remained constant since last September at $42 - $50 per ton.

During the same time the prices for cottonseed meal containing 41 per cent protein have risen from $90 - $98 per ton to $120 - $176, and prices paid for hulls have doubled, from $11 - $13 a ton to $22 - $27.

"This sort of relationship between the business of the cotton producer and the business of the buyer of his cottonseed disturbs us at Cotton Incorporated," Lewis told the oilseed processors.

He said Cotton Incorporated hopes a better business relationship can be established. "Certainly if a satisfactory profit cannot be shared by all parties," he said, "then there is no reasonable basis for doing business."

The scientist said a vast, untapped market exists for cottonseed food products, and he challenged the oilseed processors to develop and exploit it.

Over 300 food products are manufactured from items containing protein, Lewis said. They are distributed in what food marketers label as 16 major food groups.

Of those 16 major groups, 13 already use some form of vegetable protein," said Dr. Lewis. "And let me remind you that cottonseed protein is vegetable protein."

He reported that a 1970 study by Cornell University identified a potential market of 3.5 million pounds of processed food containing protein. The market already existing today is more than 2 billion pounds.

"It is big business, make no mistake," Lewis said. "Food processing and related activities constitute the largest single domestic industry in the United States."

He pointed out that a modern American supermarket carries over 8,000 different food items, of which over half are new products, introduced within the last ten years.

"This indicates that the American consumer is willing to accept new products," Lewis said. "Moreover, it also shows that the American food processing industry can speedily adopt new technologies to develop more highly sophisticated food products."

All told, Lewis declared, the stage is set for cottonseed processors to develop their product and cash in our waiting money-making markets for new foods containing cottonseed protein.

But there are serious flaws in the way the overall picture shapes up, said Lewis, for it is not cottonseed processors who are taking action, but cotton producers. Yet producers are not getting a fair return on their investment.

"Cotton Incorporated is spending $300,000 a year of cotton producer funds on cottonseed research," Lewis said, "while the cottonseed industry spends less than ten percent of that amount. This fact disturbs us, too," he said.

"Cottonseed profits are going up, and we at Cotton Incorporated intend to see that the cotton producer gets his fair share of the new profits."

Dr. Lewis was a principal speaker at the 22nd oilseed processing clinic, sponsored by the Mississippi Valley Oilseed Processors Association, Inc., and held at the Bourbon Orleans Ramada Hotel.

If you see students planting trees on a school campus or catching frogs from a miniature pond, don't panic.

They are probably studying nature in an outdoor classroom - a new concept in environmental education.

"At last count, we had helped plan and install some 343 outdoor learning areas in Texas," said Edward E. Thomas of Temple, state conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. "And the number grows every week, especially in the larger cities."

The SCS assistance includes soil and plant adaptation guidelines, planning erosion control measures, laying out nature trails, identifying plants, designing small water holding areas for aquatic studies, and other technical help.

A recent survey revealed that nearly 900 individual schools plus 48 school districts are using the 343 outdoor classrooms. Some 1,700 other groups - from Boy Scouts to adult organizations to convalescent hospital patients - also use the areas.

Learning features used in outdoor classrooms include soil and water conservation examples, plant and animal identification, historical studies, and aquatic life. Some areas also double as outdoor laboratories.

A total of 728 groups and organizations are helping schools install and maintain learning areas in Texas. These range from the American Association of University Women to parent-teacher organizations to a radio station.

The SCS first became involved in outdoor learning areas by helping schools cure campus erosion problems. Then someone suggested that letting students help install some of the conservation measures would be an excellent learning experience. From that came the idea that trees, grass, and shrubbery could be added to beautify the conservation measures or to attract wildlife. Eventually, the idea of installing complete outdoor environmental learning areas evolved.

Students enjoy planning and installing the classrooms themselves over a period of months or years. This also enhances the learning experience, helping students gain a deep appreciation of the interrelationship between man, plants, soil water, animals, and sunshine.

Uses of outdoor classrooms varies, depending upon the ingenuity of the teacher. Some biology classes study microscopic growth in tiny ponds built on the school campus; chemistry classes conduct soil and water related experiments; math classes compute slope and elevation or estimate tree heights; and language art classes write articles or poems based on outdoor sound or observations.

"The fifth grade at Tahoka has learned a great deal about conservation this year," said Allen Sheppard, District Conservationist. He also stated that he would be glad to help anyone else in the county on Conservation Education or Outdoor Learning Areas.

For help in getting started on an outdoor learning area, SCS has a new publication entitled "Outdoor Classrooms on School Sites." To get a free copy, call the Tahoka SCS office, or write Soil Conservation Service, P.O. Box 328, Tahoka, Texas, 79373.

Nursing Home News

Wednesday, March 7, 1973, an open meeting to all residents of the Colonial Nursing Home was held in the dining room of the home. The purpose of this meeting was to organize a Residents Committee. Mrs. Price, Administrator, opened the meeting explaining the purpose of the committee and answered all questions of those present regarding the organization of the club. Attending the meeting were Mrs. Alcy Clark, Mrs. Corine Izard, Virginia Dann, Lallie Black, Edwardo Grow, Clark Allen, Mozelle Banks, Kate Jones, John Anderson, Ollie Hill and Laura Connell. Officers as the following were elected: President, Alcy Clark, Secretary, Corine Izard, Public Relations, Virginia Dann. Activities the residents were interested in were discussed and plans were made by the group to start having bingo and dominoe games. Field trips were discussed but decided to wait until the month of April before starting these so that the weather would be much prettier. The group will meet monthly and make plans for the coming month for activities and things of interest the group as a whole would be interested in doing throughout the month. At the next monthly meeting a name for the club will be voted on and the group will have a title. All of the residents are urged to participate in this activity.

Bullish on central air conditioning? Consider investing just a little more in a long-term, blue chip Gas air conditioning system.

Only a Gas air conditioning system pays you regular dividends for many happy years. That's because the heart of a Gas cooling system is a simple gas burner, rather than an electric, mechanical compressor. A clean-burning gas flame doesn't wear out — so there's less to go wrong, fewer maintenance calls, a longer life with no loss of original cooling capacity. And because natural gas is the prime energy source, you'll also save money on operating cost.

Call one of our air conditioning specialists this week — before the summer market becomes really active. He'll make a free, no obligation, survey of your home and give you a quotation on the cool investment.
