"TWO BITS WORTH"

BY JOHNNY VALENTINE

"Your tax dollars at work: new office buildings and a parking garage in Washington, D.C. cost $133 million. A lounge for house members only: new carpet $22,000; new drapes $22,000; new chandeliers $45,000. So you can see, the war on poverty continues.

Six real cotton farmers and a cotton research scientist from Israel, travelling at their own expense, visited the High Plains Thursday and Friday as guests of the PCG. "Never have we had visitors who showed a keener more perceptive interest in the machinery and production techniques used in Plains cotton production," commented Cotton Farming, the PCG's executive assistant. The group first visited the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station and the USDA's ginning laboratory north of Lubbock. But it was "down on the farm" where they really became serious.

Ronnie Dulin and Jim Bob Smith of Lynn County spent five hours showing the Israelis their farming operation north of Tahoka on Thursday. Then Roy Forkner of the Canyon community gave them another five-hour tour on Friday.

Each of the six farmers is in charge of cotton production in an Israeli "Kibutz," which Fanning says might best be described in English as a "commune."

A "Kibutz" has 100 to 200 families, and each member of every family is assigned to a specific aspect of communal life.

One man is in charge of cotton production, another handles corn, another wheat. Some women do the cooking, another group is charged with child care, and others wash dishes, serve as laundresses, mend clothing and so on.

Each Kibutz member is supplied food in a common dining hall and is given clothing from the common Kibutz store.

If a member wants to take his family on a week-end trip, he "checks out" a Kibutz-owned car, draws money from the Kibutz treasury, leaves his children with the Kibutz nursery, and off he goes.

Eliazer Kletter, cotton research scientist and leader of the group, said Kibutz members share equally all proceeds from crop production and other enterprises without regard for individual contributions.

Israel plants about 75,000 acres of cotton, Kletter said, and harvests an average of about two bales an acre. The U. S. trip is being made as an investment in future productivity.

Did you ever wonder what a factory that employs 100 people would mean to a town like Tahoka. Here is what would happen. Tahoka would have 351 more people, 79 more school children, $1,360,000 more personal income per year, 97 more families, $490,000 more bank deposits, several more retail establishments, 68 more employed in non-manufacturing and 665,000 more retail sales per year. Let's work a little harder to get that factory.

Heavy Rain Hits Tahoka

Coaches All American Game Lion Program

The 1973 Coached All America Game was the subject of the Lions Program last Wednesday. Miss Texas Tech, Janet Lightfoot and Chuck King were on hand to give out literature on the game and show a film on the 1972 line up of players.

The Lions Clubs of District 2-T2 sponsor the game along with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Proceeds from the game go to a kidney foundation started by the Lions and to Girlstown at Whiteface. Drivers Training To Begin Soon

The classroom phase of driver education was completed by 67 students in Tahoka Schools on Monday, May 21st.

Mr. Clifton Gardner, High School Principal and Mr. Cecil Robinson, who have instructed in the classroom, and will supervise the driving of these students, report that their students are now ready to try for their beginner license.

The written test for beginner license will be administered in Tahoka High School on Thursday, May 24th by a representative of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Behind the wheel driving under the supervision of Mr. Gardner and Mr. Robinson will begin on May 29th. They will be driving six days per week and hope to complete behind the wheel driving requirements for all 67 students by July 20th.

choice seats available to Tahoka people. The club has a large number of tickets on the 30 yard line on the West stands in section 103. These are in the middle section of seats in that section and sell for $7.00. There is also a limited number of $5.00 tickets available in the East stands on the 40 yard line.

The Lions would appreciate local folks calling on the Lions to supply their tickets this year instead of calling Texas Tech. This is an inconvenience to you. We have the tickets and will deliver them as soon as you want them.

One word of caution however, get your tickets as soon as possible. When our supply runs out, we cannot get the same quality seats we have now.

To order tickets call 998-4810 or see a Lion.

BEWARE CON MEN

Con Men have been working in the West Texas area the past several weeks and have taken several of the older citizens for their entire life savings.

According to Sheriff Norvell "Booger" Redwine and Police Chief Jack Miller these men pose as termite men, house painters, electricians and even phone men or electrical inspectors.

They get a check from these people and then raise the amount.

If you are in doubt about anybody be sure and call the Sheriff or police chief before giving them a check.

Scattered showers the past few days have helped crop prospects in some areas of the county, but a very heavy rain Tuesday evening in Tahoka area and rain and hail at Draw will probably cause some replanting.

Late Tuesday afternoon, heavy rain fell on Tahoka totaling 1.27 inch, an inch of which came in 20 minutes. High wind and light hail from pea to marble size accompanied the rain.

At Draw, hail was reported to be from golf ball up to tennis ball size, and much damage was reported to roofs and window lights.

Where the rain was heaviest, some crops may have to be replanted, the News is informed.

Across the central part of the county and in the southeast, much of the territory received a half inch or more.

Many crops, especially in the east and south areas and in the West Point country, have been dry planted and need moisture very bad. Although there is fine subsoil moisture, there has not been sufficient rain to get crops planted, up and growing.

The rain Tuesday brought Tahoka's total for the week to 1.49 inches, for the month to 2.46 inches, and for the year to 8.83 inches.

Farmcast

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Are You One of the 24,000? ... Harvest Slows In One Area, Nearing Peak In Another ... Hog Cholera Strikes Again ... Sheep On Feed Is Down But Up.

Now being distributed by the mailmen are 24,000 crop questionnaires to that many number of farmers throughout the state. If you get one of the questionnaires you are requested to fill it out as accurately as possible and return it as soon as possible.

These questionnaires form the basis of information about Texas crops. The information is also used in making decisions on farm programs. None of the reports will be used on an individual basis. They are compiled into county, district, and state totals.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Services urges you to fill out and return the crop questionnaire so that a complete and accurate picture of Texas agriculture can be put together.

If you are one of the 24,000, you'll be doing yourself and all other farmers in the state a good turn, too, by answering and returning the questionnaire.

WHILE harvest of Texas onions has peaked in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, the Winter Garden-San Antonio area is in the midst of onion harvest.

Based on May 1 reports, the Texas early spring onion crop is five percent below last year's crop; the yield is reduced 15 percent from last year due to weather.

Harvesting has also been completed in the Coastal Bend area. In the San Antonio area, the crop remains in generally excellent condition with good yields being reported.

TEXAS broke a nationwide 83-day free period of hog cholera recently when two counties were quarantined due to a verified case of that swine disease.

Hidalgo and Cameron counties in the Lower Rio Grande Valley are now under state and federal quarantines. They are designed to sharply limit swine movements until veterinary medical officers and livestock inspectors can verify the health of all swine herds in the vicinity.

Hog cholera is a highly infectious virus disease usually fatal to swine, but it does not affect other animals or humans.

Federal import regulations already prohibit the entry of live hogs, fresh pork and pork products into this country from Mexico. The new quarantines restrict swine movements within the state and between Texas and other states.

Thank You

We hope we can continue to merit your patronage and friendship for the next fifty years.

Memorial Day is May 28th this year and we will be closed in observance of this day to respect all our War dead.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

ustin, Texas-- The first overall revision of the Texas penal code more than a century is nearing passage as the legislature passes through its last full week of regular session duties.

House members promptly went to work on the bill after the Senate passed it last week.

The revision is the product of a seven-year study ramrodded by the State Bar of Texas.

Generally, the code pulls together thousands of criminal laws scattered through the statute books.

It groups felonies and misdemeanors into classes, ranging from most severe to minor offenses and fixes a range of punishment for each.

Many separate statutes are consolidated into comprehensive sections, and laws covering a variety of attempted crimes are grouped under a general attempt provision.

The new code increases maximum penalties for certain crimes of violence. Murder without malice, for example, could carry a maximum term of 20 years compared to five under present law.

Penalties for some other crimes are lowered. Minimum, as well as maximum, punishment is provided in each category of felony.

One of the major changes in existing law is the definition of insanity as applied to defense in criminal cases. The new definition defines insanity as a mental disorder or defect that prevents one from conforming his conduct to requirements of the law. The "M'Naghten rule" terms a person insane who does not know right from wrong or understand the nature and consequences of his acts.

Lawmakers went into Friday and Saturday sessions in an effort to reduce the tremendous pile of unfinished legislation. Much of it will remain unacted on.

Open Records Bill Passed--The Senate passed its version of open records legislation, renaming it (HB 6) to the House for consideration of amendments. The bill would require most records to be available for public inspection and that copies be produced promptly at cost.

An amendment would allow agencies to require prepayment for copying records of many pages.

Exceptions are provided for private correspondence and communications of elected officials and information related entirely to personnel matters within the agency.

Oil Allowable Retained--Texas Railroad Commission for the 15th straight month set the June oil allowable at 100 per cent.

Commissioners responded to soaring, record demands for crude oil

Purchasers requested 3.8 million barrels a day for June, an increase of 33,931 over May.

Exceptions again were made for East Texas field, 86 per cent, Kelly Snyder, 76 per cent and Tom O'Connor, 70 per cent. Several other fields were limited to 80 per cent.

EXXON announced plans to increase refining capacity by 350,000 barrels daily, due mainly to additions to its Baytown refinery.

A former commissioner, William Murray, said the city of San Antonio may not be able to get through the summer unless it can obtain additional oil for its electrical service.

Courts Speak--The Court of Criminal Appeals overturned a murder conviction of a Houston man because it was impossible to prove who actually fired the fatal shot in a motel shootout.

The State Supreme Court held a druggist can be liable for refilling a prescription for eye drops that caused cataracts, but the drug company that made the drops cannot be, because directions indicated the medication was for short-term use, not for a year.

Atty. Gen. John L. Hill's consumer protection division got permanent injunctions against Austin and Amarillo companies involved in illegal chain-referral sales schemes.

AG Opinions--Atty. Gen. Hill held constitutional a controversial compulsory oil and gas unitization bill (HB 311).

Hill also held that a person may be employed both as a University of Texas law professor and a researcher for the State Constitutional Revision Commission.

In other recent opinions, Hill held:

A bill requiring the state comptroller to make sales tax reports to cities is constitutional.

A bank applying to be a county fund depository must submit along with its bid a statement of a legal rate of interest for time deposits of all amounts and lengths of time. A bid cannot be corrected later to include the information if it is first omitted.

MIA Day Proclaimed--Governor Briscoe has proclaimed June 3, 1973, as "National MIA Day" in Texas and urges all citizens to rally behind their national leaders in the quest for a full and accurate accounting of all MIA's.

He said that "the number of captured Americans recently released by the Communist leaders in Indo-China is only 30 per cent of those who have been listed as Prisoners of War (POW) or Missing in Action (MIA), and...the other 70 per cent, or over 1,300 men, have not been accounted for by the Communists," and, "those who may be still alive endure secret captivity and its degradation and deprivations."

Lynn County News

Appointments--Governor Briscoe named Reagan Houston of San Antonio to the State Highway Commission, succeeding Herbert C. Petry Jr. of Carrizo Springs.

Other appointments recently announced by Briscoe include:

Robert Parsley of Houston to the Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Jackie St. Clair of Victoria as commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Alan Erwin of Beaumont as director of the Office of State-Federal Relations in Washington.

Eloy Centeno of San Antonio and Gerald Brown of Austin (re-appointment) to the Texas Industrial Commission.

W. C. Newby of Atlanta as a member of the State Board of Barber Examiners.

Bolin Mahaffey of Corpus Christi as a member of the State Depository Board.

M. R. Sandidge of Tarpley and Daniel Tschirhart of Lakehills (reappointments) to the Bandera County River Authority board of directors.

Rep. John Poerner of Hondo to the Southern Regional Education Board of Control.

Ethics Feud On--The House and Senate are poles apart on ethics legislation and called on a conference committee to try and adjust the yawning differences.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr., who has been stung with Jr., who has been stung with attorney general's opinions holding several of his reform measures unconstitutional, asked Attorney General Hill for an opinion on the Senate changes in HB 1, a cornerstone of his government cleanup package.

The Senate bill applies to only top-level state officials, legislators and judges, where the House bill took in all officials. Senators also ditched a House provision for an ethics commission to police violations and left the filing provisions up to the Secretary of State.

Agriculture Fuel Needed--Agriculture Commissioner John C. White urged the Federal Office of Oil and Gas to seek immediate lines which would assure adequate fuel supplies for Texas Agriculture.

White said curtailments are already being made in spite of federal guidelines announced May 10. The commissioner said Texas is in a "critical period" and a lack of fuel could be "disastrous" to the 1973 crop season.

SHORT SNORTS

The House approved an overall revision of the system of financing public schools which would cost $1.8 billion over the next six years, but chances of Senate passage are dim.

Mrs. Violette Newton of Beaumont and Mrs. Lila Todd O'Niell of Port Arthur were selected as poet laureate of Texas for 1973-74 and 1974-75. Mrs. Stella Woodall and C. W. Miller of San Antonio will be alternates for the honor.

A new Texas law signed by the Governor raised state job injury benefits from last in the nation to mid-scale.

New state bank charters were approved for Dallas, Carrollton, White Settlement, Bellaire, Houston, Fort Worth and Friona.

A bill giving state government additional power to deal with hurricanes and other disasters passed the Legislature.

Grants totaling $1.7 million were awarded the governor's office for Comprehensive Community Planning Assistance.

Texas' first adult education law has been signed by Governor Briscoe.

BRIDGE WINNERS

Winners in duplicate bridge play last week at T-Bar Country Club were: Mrs. Clint Walker and Mrs. Meldon Leslie, first; John Nickens and Mrs. Auda Norma, second; Mrs. Coye Collier and Mrs. LaQuita Leverett, third.

"John I found this letter in your coat pocket this morning. I gave it to you a month ago to mail."
"Yes dear, I remember. I took that coat off for you to sew a button on and I'm still waiting."

Mr. Smith: "My wife asked me for a check for $50 for a new dress and I gave her a check for kisses . . . 1000 kisses. Well, what are you laughing at?"
Routeman: "I cashed it."

A white-haired gentleman arose from a barber's chair in a shop off New York's Times Square, looked at himself in the mirror and remarked, "You certainly give good haircuts in this country."
"Thank you, sir," said the barber, pleased. "What country are you from?"
The gentleman replied: "Tennessee."

Minimum Wage Legislation

The minimum wage bill has been moved up in the House of Representatives by extended endeavors of members of Congress to develop a compromise proposal that could be approved by the House without controversy. Such endeavors have been unsuccessful and have been abandoned.

The Dent Bill (H.R. 4757) is moving. It has been approved by a Subcommittee and is going through final markup by the full committee. The best guess that can be made at this time is that the bill will reach the House floor next week of June 4. It could easily be passed a week earlier or week later. The major provisions of the bill are:

- 1) An increase in the general minimum wage to $2.00 the first year after enactment, $2.20 thereafter.
- 2) An increase in the agricultural minimum wage to $1.50 the first year, $1.70 the second year, $1.90 thereafter.
- 3) Extension of minimum wage coverage to domestic workers and government employees.

Narrower and then eliminates exemption for agricultural production and handling (except cotton).

When the bill reaches the House, a substitute will be offered by Representative Erlenborn. The substitute will be the same as H. R. 4831, a bill introduced some time ago by Representatives (D., La.), Fuqua (D., La.), Anderson (R., Ill.), and Cline (D., Min.).

The major provisions of the bill are:

- 1) An increase in the general minimum wage to $1.80 the first year, $2.00 the second year, $2.10 the third.
- 2) An increase in the farm minimum wage to $1.50 the first year, $1.70 the second, $1.80 the third.

A minimum wage 80 percent for students under twenty; for nonstudents under eight for the first six months. NO change in existing coverage.

Students Give Rotary Program

Tahoka school students who won district oral reading contests presented their readings at Rotary Club Thursday.

Elementary entries extended the oral reading contests to the place of the old declamation events. Mrs. Susan Perrella sponsored the seventh grade entries.

Students presenting readings at club were: Starrlyn Knox, Ronnie Roberts, fifth grade; Reynolds and Mike Nettles, sixth grade; and Gary White and Reynolds, seventh grade.

Don Dodson, new cashier at National Bank, is a new member of the Rotary Club.

erage of minimum wage or overtime provisions.

If the Erlenborn substitute is approved, the whole House has given notice to the House conferees (from the Education and Labor Committee) that is as far as they want to go. If the Erlenborn substitute falls, then the House conferees go to conference with Senate conferees with practically a free hand to agree to the more comprehensive and restrictive bill that the Senate may approve.

Senator Williams, Chairman of the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee, has not yet introduced a bill on this subject. He is expected to introduce a bill similar to the bill approved by the Senate last year. It is also expected that Senators Dominick and Taft will offer a substitute for the Williams bill. The language of the Diminick-Taft substitute will be approximately the same as the Erlenborn substitute in the House. Now is the time to send a maximum number of communications to your Congressman requesting his active opposition to any increase in the minimum wage for labor. Farmers and ranchers are unique in that there is no way they can pass on increased costs of production to consumers.

If there is no way to stop an increase in the minimum wage for labor, ask your Congressman to vote for the Erlenborn substitute. It is not quite as obnoxious as the Dent Bill.

Tahoka Garden Club Meets

Mrs. Oscar Roberts assisted by Mrs. K. R. Durham and Mrs. Gladys Cobb was hostess to the Tahoka Garden Club May 15th.

Mrs. Lonnie Howell opened the meeting with the Gardener's Prayer.

This meeting was the last meeting for the 1972-73 club year. During the business session that was conducted by the president, Mrs. E. M. Walker, plans for the zone convention, to which the Tahoka Garden Club is to be hostess Nov. 1, 1973, were discussed.

Roll call was answered by "the program I liked best during the year". The majority submitted the Thanksgiving luncheon at which Mrs. Charles Hill of Lubbock reviewed the book, "Hannah Fowler," by Janice Halts Giles.

Mrs. H.R. Tankersley gave a helpful demonstration on the construction and plantings of hanging baskets.

Mrs. D.R. Proffitt showed slides of the clubs floral arrangements and highlights of the year's work in general; including slides of the "Yard of the Month Winners" and scenes from the plantings at the High School dance by the club.

The Projects Chairman, Mrs. H. R. Tankersley reported that all the year's projects had been carried out including the planting of a fruitless Mulberry tree at the Cemetery in observance of National Arbor Day.

The Club wishes to express their appreciation for the repairs done on the planter boxes at the Memorial Garden site. This was indeed a most thoughtful act. Each member of the club says "Thank you."

We also wish to express our appreciation to the merchants, the Lynn County News and others who have contributed so much in making our Garden Club year a most successful one.

Market Report

College Station -- Most poultry prices are down slightly--making upcoming summer outings and picnics easier on the budget.

"Take advantage of the situation--usual for this time of year--and economize by using additional poultry products," advises Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University.

"Egg prices are about a nickel lower than a month ago, with large sizes in best supply. Grade A Large eggs offer the best combination of quality and economy.

"Chickens, good choices, price-wise, make excellent meals either hot or cold -- so keep plenty on hand."

Meat prices remain about the same, the specialist added. "Look for best beef values on chuck roasts and steaks, ground beef, and round steaks and roasts.

"Pork buys, on the other hand, consist of shoulder roasts and steaks, end cut loin roasts and steaks, smoked hams and picnics."

Mrs. Clyatt pointed out that prices "have leveled out considerably--and are back to a moderate level. However, normal supplies--due to adverse weather conditions this spring--make further price decreases unlikely."

Fresh fruit and vegetable in good supply at the most reasonable prices include grapes, apples, oranges, bananas, strawberries and pineapples.

Also potatoes, celery, carrots, sweet corn-on-the-cob, mustard, collards, turnip radishes and green onions.

GSPA Recognized As Effective Farmer Spokesman

In a recent White House report about agricultural programs, the Grain Sorghum Producers Association was listed among the most effective farm organizations in the United States.

The Flanigan Report states "While the number of farm organizations still possessing legislative power increases through commodity organizations which can rally support for issues because of a unity of interest among the membership."

Commodity groups can "affect legislation," the report states. "They are more sophisticated, they're better organized, and have better access to power than many other special interest groups."

As an example of their influence, the report pointed out that in the House last year of a proposal to reduce the $55,000 on government payments to individual farmers to $20,000.

"Working hardest behind the scene were the National Council of Wheat Growers and the Sorghum Producers," according to the report.

Herbicide Fate Is Explained

The fate of herbicides (chemical weed killers) is of vital concern to everyone interested in protecting the environment. What happens to these materials after application?

"As soon as herbicides are applied, numerous forces in the environment begin to take action," explains Garlyn Hoffman, range brush and weed control specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

exposure to living organisms, other chemicals, air and sunlight. Transfer processes also occur. Herbicides may be absorbed and exuded by plants and animals and absorbed by soil particles."

According to Hoffman, the key process that determines the ultimate fate of herbicides is that of absorption-attaching to particles of soil.

Nationwide the figures from NCC's survey indicate 1973 plantings may be from 12,388,000 to 13,070,000 acres, down 5.6 to 11.5 percent from last year.

"Not only will acreage be down for 1973," Johnson adds, "but most of these unfortunate sections of the belt will be from two to five weeks late getting planted, greatly reducing changes for normal yields."

Another noteworthy item related to fiber supply and demand comes from the textile trade publication "Daily News Record," which stated on May 3 that "The yarn shortage is worldwide and cuts across the board in polyesters, nylons, acrylics and cellulose... which means knitters frequently will be unable to obtain all their yarn requirements."

reason to speculate on setting a new all-time production record for the Plains."

Across the cotton belt, the cotton acreage and production picture is not so rosy. According to the most recent report on acreage intentions compiled by the National Cotton Council after a survey of state extension service and USDA personnel only Texas, Oklahoma, California, Arizona and North Carolina are expected to equal or exceed last year's plantings.

Cotton prospects, both for acreage and production, are still uncertain in the rain and flood plagued states of Mississippi, Arkansas, Missouri, Louisiana and Tennessee -- states which in 1972 accounted for 4.8 million of the nation's 13.99 million acres and produced almost 38 percent of the total crop.

Acreage in the five states for 1973, according to the NCC report, is now not expected to be above 3.5 million and could be down to 3.3 million, even with continued good weather. Another 175,000 acres or so will be dropped by the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and New Mexico.

The Texas High Plains is well on its way to planting what is expected to be the highest acreage needed to cotton in the last 10 years.

According to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton, Inc., which covers 25 Plains counties, estimates of total acres planted to cotton for 1973 run from a minimum of 2.7 million to as high as 3 million, "and planting is expected to reach the 90 percent completion mark during the week of May 20."

In 1952 the area put a whopping 4.8 million acres in cotton. The next highest acreage was seen last year when an estimated 2.6 million acres were planted. The huge acreage of 1952 resulted in a harvest of only a little over 1.5 million bales, and the production record for the Plains was set in 1961 with 2,443,900 bales gathered from 2,593,440 planted acres.

"So 1973 acreage is almost a inch to be above any crop since 1952," Johnson figures, "and with our good underground moisture and a little bit of luck there is

LYNN COUNTY NEWS

The participation of Lynn County in the Federal Revenue Sharing Fund will enable the county government to continue to operate without a tax increase in the near future, according to V. F. Jones, County Judge.

Lynn County will receive approximately $80,000.00 per year of Revenue Sharing Funds from the US Treasury. The program is set up on the basis of five years - 1972 thru 1976. This extra money coming into the county treasury will enable the county to fund some new needed services that could otherwise not be provided, such as ambulance service, solid waste disposal, park improvement, and other needed programs.

Some of the Revenue Sharing money will be used to supplement local tax funds to continue and improve existing programs, such as Rural Fire protection, automobiles for Sheriff's Department, road machinery and equipment for building and maintaining county roads, improvement to courthouse and jail, social service programs and other worthy programs.

In this issue of the Lynn County News you will find a proposed budget for the first six months of 1973. The Commissioners' Court has approved the expenditure of these funds under the various categories that are eligible under the program. About half of the money expended for this 6 months period is being used to supplement local tax funds to continue and improve existing programs in law enforcement, fire protection, County City Library, and Social Service programs. About half of the proposed expenditures are for new programs such as ambulance service, courthouse and jail repair, solid waste, and park improvement.

Any citizen or group of citizens are invited to meet with the Commissioners' Court at anytime with suggestions on how Revenue Sharing money may be wisely spent for the good of the citizens of Lynn County.

Upped Check

Martin bought a secondhand motorcycle from a friendly stranger, giving him a check for "eight hundred dollars." But when he got the check back from the bank at the end of the month, it had been upped to "thirty eight hundred dollars."

Martin decided that the bank had no right to take the extra $3,000 out of his account.

"It's not my fault the fellow was crooked," he argued in a court hearing. "Let the bank try to collect the difference from him."

But the bank pointed out that Martin had made three careless mistakes in writing the check:

- 1) he had failed to fill in the payee's name;
- 2) he had failed to fill in the numbers after the dollar sign; and

3) he had left more than an inch of open space in front of the word "eight"—plenty of room for inserting the word "thirty."

The court concluded that Martin, by his negligence, had tampered—hence, was held to bear the loss himself.

Of course, as a general rule, a bank has no right to pay money out of your account if you have authorized. The bank after all, has the best opportunity to detect fraud by examining checks before cashing it.

But the law will usually hold the loss to you if, by your negligence, you have made it easy to alter.

Furthermore, you have to go over your cancelled checks within a reasonable time if they are returned, and to the bank if something is amiss.

Perversion Of Science

Have you ever wanted to go somewhere that you were not allowed to go, such as a closed meeting, or a movie for people older than you?

If you were clever enough, you found that you could lower your voice, disguise yourself, or just act "official," and the people would let you in. It's one of the basic, and sometimes tragic facts of life. If something or someone looks and acts as if they belong or are valid, people will believe it. Often, too often, without question we accept something as fact, just because it is treated as fact by those who promote it.

Time-Life publishers, in a recent series of books, are trying to capitalize on this basic premise of acceptability. The books concern basically the subject of organic evolution. We accept the fact of evolution; that is, the species adapt and change to fit their environment, and through new characteristics are acquired. This is a fact, an axiom of scientific truth. Natural selection, however, is not the subject of the books. These books teach and propose as fact the THEORIES of spontaneous generation, organic evolution, and mutation. We garnered this material from their advertisements, prominently displayed in the centerfold of a recent issue of TV Guide. Heaven knows that other theories are taught as factual in the books themselves, which are entitled, "The Emergence of Man."

It makes one angry to know that, although the odds against all the life forms known today developing from a single amino acid formed by a cataclysmic explosion on ancient, lifeless earth, are MILLIONS TO ONE, this theory of "Spontaneous generation" is being put forth as a fact in these books. It makes one shudder to think of the thousands who will believe it, simply because it is nicely packaged.

It burns us up to see them draw pictures showing the links between ape and man, when these in-between creatures no longer exist. If they became extinct, how could they possibly have produced man? These fictional "ape men," are constructed by artists on the basis of one or two skulls, when other scientists, as a rule, make tentative conclusions only on the basis of hundreds of samples, averaged and examined. Yet, whole man societies are constructed on such a basis, and taught as scientific fact in these books. Many people will believe it simply because "Time-Life wouldn't lead one astray."

We must begin to speak out, as intelligent people, against such hogwash as these books portray. It may seem like Davy's Goliath, because the acceptance of these theories, without examination, is rampant throughout our society. But, a voice of plea and reason must be heard, at least challenge to this blatant perversion of science. If we can cause someone to test these theories before blindly believing them, disprove them scientifically, a victory has been won.

I cannot believe that an enlightened society such as ours will accept these things simply because they are cloaked under the pretense of being scientific fact. Science is truth. Science is fact. It is an enemy to error; an enemy that even the most popular unfounded theories cannot withstand.

A box on the man who invented the buzzer that buzzes hysterically when you try to start your car without fastening your seat belt. For a number of years we have used a seat belt reluctantly but with reasonable good cheer. There was, however, no insistent little sneering mechanical device telling us we had to do it. We used the seat belt voluntarily. Now, any new car you get into begins buzzing before you make up your mind you are going any place."

The New Spoils System

Years ago, in order to get a government job a citizen first had to pay his respects and a little "something more" to the local political boss.

He had to buy the right to get on the public payroll; and he generally had to keep up his payments to the political machine if he wanted to stay on the job after he "bought" it.

This came to be known as The Spoils System -- and it spoiled just about everything and everyone it ever came in contact with.

Eventually the public revolted. The Spoils System gave way to new civil service laws and codes, the merit system, tenure, and other devices intended to protect public employees and the taxpayers who pay their salaries.

Now, after years of enjoying their freedom, public employees are dangerously close to being thrown back to the lions. The days of buying the right to serve the public are back with a vengeance -- and a new twist.

The New Spoils System is a product of compulsory unionism. Under the new "rules of the game," civil servants have to buy their right to serve the public from union bosses. Already legislators in Hawaii, Wisconsin, Washington, and Montana have enacted laws which require some, or all, state, county and government employees to pay financial tribute to union officials or lose their jobs. Anyone who refuses to pay dues to a labor union -- a political pressure group just like the Democratic and Republican Parties -- can kiss his job goodbye.

If a school teacher, or fireman, or garbage collector, or clerk-typist or other public employee objects to the policies or practices of the anointed union regime -- it's tough. He still must pay or his public service career comes to an end.

Merit, tenure, and other civil service protections don't count. It's pay up, or get out!

For each of the four states which have already sold out the freedom of their public employees, there are three more knocking on the door. These include California, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, and West Virginia. And the list is growing.

Literally millions of public employees face the loss of their right to earn a living unless they observe the rules of The New Spoils System. Literally a handful of salaried union officials stand within a breath of controlling the machinery of government, public safety services, and public education.

Like the old political bosses, union officials, such as Jerry Wurf, head of the AFL-CIO state, county, and municipal employees union, and Catherine Barrett, president of the nation's largest teachers union, are looking to grow rich and powerful at the expense of the individual who can't earn a living unless he tosses that "something more" their way.

The "something more" is union dues . . .

Unless we, the public, do something to stop it, The New Spoils System is going to become every bit as much a reality as its predecessor, and obviously, it's every bit as vicious.

MAILBOX IMPROVEMENT WEEK

The Postal Service designates a week during May each year when customers on rural delivery routes are encouraged to examine and improve, where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes. The week of May 21 - 26 has been selected this year. The purpose of Mail Box Improvement Week is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather and are neat in appearance, conveniently located and safe to use. Mailboxes that meet the above four important requirements contribute to a more efficient delivery operation, and the result of an improved service to the entire route.

An inspection will be made of each of Tahoka's rural routes during May, and the owners of mailboxes needing attention will be notified as to the specific improvements needed. The cooperation of all rural customers is earnestly solicited.

"We all... want prices to come down, but we're not so ready to have controls put on wages and incomes. If we are to stop inflation, control must begin at home... with the best kind of control there is, self-control."

Past Days

The Wilson Hotel operated by Mrs. Pinion was completely destroyed by fire early last Saturday night. Origin of the fire has not been determined.

Both the Slaton and the Tahoka fire departments went to Wilson to fight the flames but the building was almost completely destroyed before either truck arrived. The Tahoka truck was a little late in arriving by reason of the fact that it had a flat enroute.

Not only was the building completely destroyed but the personal effects of some of the guests were consumed. We are not advised as to how much of the furnishings of the hotel was destroyed nor did we learn whether or not insurance was carried on the building or its contents.

The Hotel was one of the old landmarks of Wilson. It was constructed in 1912 by L. Lumsden, and Mr. Lumsden says that at that time it was one of the largest and most substantial hotel buildings in this entire section of the state. It had been owned and operated the past few years by Mrs. Pinion.

County Attorney Rollin McCord is authority for the statement that 14 persons were arrested in O'Donnell over the week-end for drunkenness and fighting. Several paid fines and the others are in jail, he said Tuesday.

Mr. McCord did not state the color of the offenders. Since there are a great many Mexicans and Negroes in the county just now for the cotton picking season, it is presumed that most of the drunks and fighters are more or less dark-complexioned.

Officers would probably get very little valuable information from an investigation into who is selling the liquor, but a real campaign on their part to get this information might make a few white bootleggers a little more cautious.

Sheriff B. L. Parker and a Federal officer from Louisiana arrested a man out in the country a few miles northwest of town Saturday who was charged with aiding two Federal prisoners to escape from jail at Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The Federal officers left immediately with his prisoner. It is said that the man was engaged in repairing the jail and took advantage of the opportunity to assist the men to escape.

Two years ago, little Jimmie Giddings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Giddings residing eight miles north of Tahoka, then three years old, underwent major surgery, one of his kidneys being removed.

Last winter, the little fellow had a serious attack of pneumonia but lived over it.

A few weeks ago he fell and broke one of the bones of the left forearm. The wound was splintered up and recently the cast was removed. On the same day, the little fellow fell and broke both bones of the same arm. He is now recovering from this injury.

Robert Holloway, sophomore student in the Agriculture division of the Texas Tech, was here Friday and Saturday. He went Friday night with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holloway at Redwine. Robert says he is delighted with his work in the Tech.

Mrs. E. N. (Mother) Weathers who has been very ill is able to be out again to the delight of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lyons of Galveston came in Sunday to spend a few days with their niece, Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell.

Jack and his Bean Stalk made quite a reputation a long time ago but Jack didn't have much on D. A. Parkhurst of this city at that.

Mr. Parkhurst has a Castor Bean stalk in his yard that he says is exactly 10 feet tall. Its spread from tip to tip of leaf on opposite sides of the stalk, Mr. Parkhurst says is 16 feet and 4 inches; and the circumference at the base of the stalk is 17 inches.

Mr. Parkhurst knows, for he took the measurements himself. If you don't believe it, gentle reader, call and take a look for yourself - or may be you have a bigger plant on your premises.

Miss Billy Rowland of Tahoka, a graduate of the Tahoka High School in 1937 and now a sophomore student in McMurray College, Abilene, was recently pledged by the T. I. P. Sorority in that institution.

Do you know that last week was National Nursing Home Week? Did you visit our local nursing home on Monday when they had "Open House"? Are you aware that we have a good nursing home in town? If you haven't done so, visit one or more of the homes there very soon. Watch for the signs light up! It takes so long to make them happy.

B. Galters are spending the week "at the lake."

Jr. Girl Scout Troop 396 went on a bicycle trip Saturday May 19. This was their last meeting until September and all 19 members were present. They cycled to city park where they worked on badges and had games and contests.

One of the requirements to earn the cyclist badge is to do a community safety project. Troop 396 chose to clean the park. As a result, on the small area that is left as a park, the girls picked up 8 sacks full of broken beer bottles, paper and other trash, making the area safe for other people who wish to use the park. We hope other people will continue the Girl Scout safety project by picking up their own litter and bottles. It is the only area we have for an outing so join with Troop 396 in helping make it safe for all.
