FANTASTIC !! GIANT KILLER STRIKES AGAIN

Bulldogs Outplay Roosevelt Eagles

Coach A. J. Viertel's Fantastic Tahoka Bulldogs, whose motto is to play their best against a strong team, struck again Friday night defeating the Roosevelt Eagles by a score of 22-15. The Eagles, one of the favored teams in the district were just outplayed by the fired up Tahoka Eleven. The Bulldogs, who were favored very low in the conference could win the district championship by winning just two games at this point. They take on highly touted Denver City this Friday night at DC at 7:30 p. m. If they can beat Denver City and Post they will take a District championship.

The first quarter was scoreless as both Roosevelt and Tahoka had the ball on two series each and couldn't move consistently.

But, late in the quarter, the Eagles got a drive underway with Fullback Ken Bobo and Wingback Gil Brown making big gains, and on first play of the second quarter, Quarterback Chris Marshall dove over on a keeper for one yard and the game's first score. Brown kicked the conversion. The drive covered 63 yards.

Tahoka's drive following the kick-off was halted at midfield, but the Bulldog defense stiffened and stopped Roosevelt at its own 44. The Bobo got off a great punt of 53 yards taken by Warren on the Tahoka 3 yard line, three plays netted only 6 yards, and then two breaks favored the Bulldogs to set Tahoka's score.

Warren punted 31 yards to the Tahoka 40, where an Eagle fumbled the catch and Timmie White fell on the ball. The Eagles held Tahoka to four yards on three plays, and the Bulldogs had to punt again. This time the ball bounced onto the leg of an Eagle, and White again pounced on the ball at the Roosevelt 32. Bailey made 10, but two running plays last 8 back to the 22. Now came Tahoka's razzle-dazzle scoring play that caught the Eagles looking for Jimmy Bailey, as Split End Steve Miller took the ball on a reverse, stopped, and threw a pass to Tight End Terry McCord in the corner of the end zone. McCord kicked the extra point, and with 34 seconds left in the half, the score was tied at 7-7. In those 34 seconds, the Eagles completed two passes for 16 and 13 yards in an attempt to score again.

Whereas the visitors appeared to be stronger in the first half, the Bulldogs came back fired up in the second half intending to win, and threw up a vicious defense against the favored Eagles.

Opening the second half, Tahoka moved to the Roosevelt 36, but then lost 5, drew a 15-yard penalty, and had to punt, but after failing to gain but one first down, Bobo punted to the Tahoka 19. From here Tahoka moved 81 yards to score again with 2:50 left in the quarter. Warren ran for 7, Bailey 8, 21 and 7, White 1, then Warren on a keeper circled left end for 17 to the Roosevelt 20, and on the next play Bailey broke through the middle and bulled 20 yards to score. McCord's kick was good again and Tahoka led 14-7.

The Eagles came right back on a successful drive, as Bobo ran the kickoff to his 49, eight plays ended with the ball on the Tahoka 14, then on the second play of the fourth quarter, Tailback Lee Anderson went through the middle the last 14 yards to score. Then Marshall passed to Back John Blackwell for the 2-point conversion to give the visitors a 15-14 lead.

Not to be denied a victory, the Bulldogs bounced right back. After White brought the kickoff from about the 5 to the 32, Tahoka moved 68 yards in 10 plays, aided by a 15 yard penalty, to go ahead for good. Bailey had carried to the Eagle 6 on a 29 yard run, and on third down and one to go, the Bulldogs caught the Eagles looking for Bailey up the middle. Instead Warren rolled out, and circled left end for the winning TD, and Bailey ran left end for the 2-point conversion. Score, Tahoka 22, Roosevelt 15. There was 7:28 left on the scoreboard clock.

After holding the visitors, forcing a punt, Tahoka moved to the Roosevelt 36, and from there Warren put the Eagles in a hole with a punt to the 6. With 1:38 left on the clock the Eagles put on a desperation passing attack, completed two of 6 for 44 yards, a Bobo run had been good for 8, and the ball was on the Tahoka 45, then Benje Williams broke through and nailed Marshall for a 10 yard loss, and two plays later Tahoka took over on downs with 7 seconds left and that was the ball game.

Tahoka fans said this was one of the best games played here in several years, and against a team heavily favored to win.

The entire Bulldog team have played terrific all season and it would be impossible to pick just a few players as outstanding. Here are the outstanding players for the Bulldogs: Steve Miller, Weldon Warren, David Glenn, Jimmy Bailey, Sebastian Pena, Raymond Barrientez, Timmie White, Kent Payne, Roosevelt Moore, Robert Benavides, Johnny McDonald, Gary Lewis, Wesley Boone, Ronny Jolly, Richard Lopez, Benje Williams, Johnny Brandon, Keith Williams, Ken Turner, Mark Tekell, Randy Strickland, Gene Baxter, Kent Harvick, Tony Botkin, Jeff Roberts, Terry McCord, Rocky Gonzales and Trent Leverett.

Nursing Home News

November 5th
 Good morning, at last we think cold weather is on its way. Sorry to report Lillian Corbin is in Lynn Co. Hospital. We hope she can soon be back with us. All the other patients seem to be doing O. K. Debbie Garland and Cora Bowman, nurses aides, have both been out with the flu. Debbie is back on the job now tho. Hope Cora comes back soon.

Mr. Land Wall and a friend were in the home visiting Saturday. Mr. Wall seemed well pleased with the home and the progress it has made in the past months. At last count, there are 42 patients in the home now. We have only two vacancies. Our last two new patients are Mr. Eger Jones from Crosbyton and Miss Mattie Vaught from Post. Mr. Jones is Dr. Wright's patient and Miss Vaught is Dr. Wilson's patient.

Bro. LeRoy Jones from Sweet Street Baptist Church and several members brought our Sunday services. Bro. Jones used Psalms, Chapter 121. It was a wonderful message. "God cares for us. He will never let us stumble, slip, or fall if we only call on Him. He is ever near." Thank God for such wonderful messages each Sunday. I wish you people could be here on Sunday afternoons. We parents all watch the clock for 3 p. m. to get here. No one has to be coaxed to come out and hear the services.

Mrs. Lee McFadden is all smiles over the birth of Chastity Ra'Lynn Schneider, daughter of Ronnie and Karen Schneider. Lucille Williams took Gertie up to see the "little Miss" Sunday. This makes Gertie a Great Aunt.

"Correction" -- Mr. and Mrs. Roland visited the Mc Faddens instead of Mr. Arthur Dial last week.

Friends and loved ones continue to visit. It sure brightens a day when company drops in to visit with all of us. The ever faithful Jones family still continue making their Wednesday afternoon visits with us all.

We had a Halloween party for Halloween Day. It was really a combination Halloween party for all of us and a surprise shower for Miss Rita Barnett, our Director of Nurses who will be marrying the 1st of December. All the employees could not figure out a way to surprise her so we got our Halloween party with cookies and lime sherbet punch all set up and then surprised her with all her gifts. She sure received some nice things and not any two things just alike. We all love Rita very much and wish her and her groom-to-be all the happiness they so deserve. She will continue working here even after she is married. We are just not going to let her go anywhere.

Dr. Prohl made rounds Friday for Dr. Wright's patients. It is so nice to talk and visit with him. He says "you just can't keep a good man in retirement". He is on call for all of Dr. Wright's patients while Dr. Wright is gone.

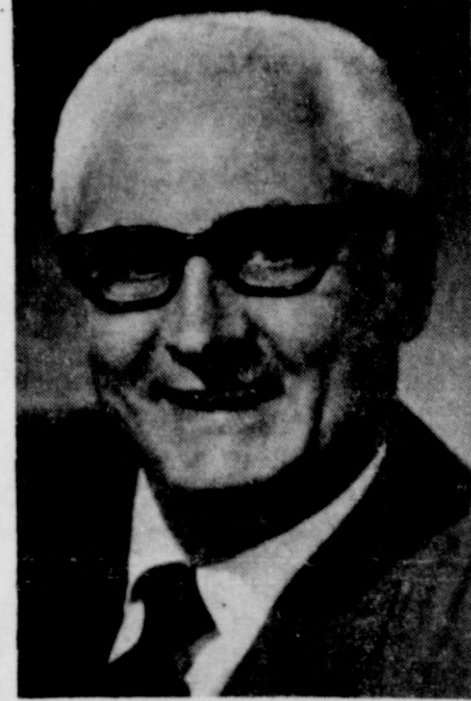

Troy Wampler, our "Mr. Fix It Man" has been here repairing things for us and unstopping our sewer lines.

Our singing was wonderful as usual. We now have some male voices in the group and it sure helps. These men here can really sing when they want to.

That's all for now. See you next week.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Godless Parents

At first blush, the Wilsons—seeking to adopt a baby boy—seemed to be well suited for parenthood. They were a devoted, idealistic young couple, with high standards of morality.

But there was a problem. They did not believe in a Supreme Being. Was this grounds for disqualifying them as adoptive parents?

After a court hearing, the judge said it was not and granted the adoption. It would be unconstitutional, he said, for the state to require a belief in God in order to adopt a child.

"The First Amendment not only requires the state to be neutral between various religions," added the judge, "but between religion and non-religion as well."

Most courts would agree that a belief in God is not essential. Nevertheless, religious attitudes may carry at least some weight in the determination of parental fitness.

Thus, in another case, a court ruled in favor of adoptive parents (and against the child's own father) partly because of the religious atmosphere of their home. As one judge put it: "Religion and morality are inextricably interwoven in the lives of most people in this country, and belief in the tenets of a religion may be indicative of moral fitness in a particular case."

Furthermore, it usually helps if the would-be parents and the child have the same religion. Often, state laws call for this "matching up" of religious affiliations.

But again, this is not a hard-and-fast rule. Thus, courts have allowed non-matching adoptions when it would take considerable time to find adopting parents of the same faith.

Reason: the importance of promptness in arranging placements.

"In view of the emphasis placed by child care experts on a stable and wholesome environment in early infancy" said one court, "delay must be deemed detrimental."

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Progress is being made in an effort to standardize, insofar as possible, the basic provisions of cotton contracts for 1974 and future years. But it is generally agreed that this will not solve the contracting problem of most concern to cotton producers -- the problem of contract performance.

The Texas Cotton Association, the American Cotton Shippers Association and a committee of the National Cotton Council all are working toward a standard contract. Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and a member of the NCC committee, stated recently that "This is something we need as an aid in promoting better understanding of each party's contractual obligations, but it is not something that will assure producers that buyers can and will live up to contract terms."

It is also noteworthy that the Food and Fibers Marketing Subcommittee of the Texas House Agriculture Committee is holding hearings to determine if buyer licensing or other means can be found to protect producers against loss in the event buyers default on contracts. But the Texas Legislature doesn't meet again in regular session until 1975.

Meanwhile Johnson is advising cotton producers in PCG's 25-county area that their best protection for 1974 will be a thorough investigation of any party with whom they consider contracting.

"It is foolish for producers to assume that everybody in the cotton contracting business will have the ability to pay contract prices should the market go against them," he says, "and odds are that any producer who contracts in such a careless manner sooner or later will find himself party to a one way contract under which he has all to lose and nothing to gain."

Before signing a contract to deliver cotton at a specified price the producer should take special pains to assure himself that he is not the only party with the ability to abide by contract terms, Johnson advises.

"First, the producer should learn as much as possible about the man with whom he is doing business. He should consult with his banker, and with the buyer's banker. He should ask the merchant for the names of producers with whom he signed contracts last year, for example, when contract prices generally were above market prices at harvest time.

And he should personally check with those producers to find out whether those contracts were fully honored by the buyer.

"If a buyer purports to be representing one of the large and reputable cotton firms, the producer should make certain that he, the buyer, in fact has written authority to bind that firm to contract terms."

Johnson also believes that these precautions on the part of producers will always be worthwhile whatever licensing, bonding, arbitration or other requirements may be written into law at some future date.

"While some measure of legislated protection for producers is definitely needed and will probably be forthcoming, no amount of legislation can ever substitute for the good practice of exercising caution in all business dealings," he concludes.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS

Although warm weather tends to indicate that winter is still a long way off, it's just a matter of time before the season's first freezing temperatures arrive. Such a killing frost can spell danger for livestock producers that have cattle grazing on sorghum stubble or any of the sorghum-sudan hybrid pastures.

The reason is prussic acid poisoning of the animals.

The danger of prussic acid poisoning exists mainly in pastures and fields where sorghum stubble is making re-growth and where there is vigorous, young growth of Johnson grass, sorghum-sudan hybrids and related plants. Such growth generally has a high content of prussic acid, especially if produced under stress of dry or cool weather. The main danger to livestock is grazing such pastures in fields immediately after a frost.

Livestock producers should wait a week to 10 days after a killing frost before allowing cattle to graze suspect pastures. If only a light frost occurs, remove the cattle until growth is killed by a heavy frost.

Each year numerous animals are lost from prussic acid poisoning. These losses are needless and rob the producer pocketbook. Giving special attention to grazing management, staying abreast of changing weather conditions can avoid losses to prussic acid poisoning.

Food And Fiber

Food, clothing and shelter are basic to man's survival. Until man's basic biological needs have been met, he has little concern for exploring space, improving medical services, and expanding his recreational opportunities, for example. Meeting our food and fiber needs has been taken for granted during recent years. Agricultural programs have resulted in low food prices, thus the mere thought of scarcities of food and fiber are beyond the comprehension of most of today's generation. Recent price increases may therefore be a blessing in disguise. As headlines and news broadcasts have featured stories about American agriculture many have rekindled an appreciation for the everyday miracle of feeding the nation's 203 million people. Purpose of this brief report is to explain to consumers how the agricultural industry serves them and what the future situation is expected to be.

Agriculture is more than farming and ranching. Many consumers possess a mistaken view of agriculture and agriculturalists. Modern agriculture encompasses agricultural production to be sure, but it also includes supply and service industries who aid producers with fertilizers, seed, machinery, and information. Marketing and distribution are also included. Thus, modern agriculture refers to the entire complex required to move goods from producers to consumers. Consumers spending for food reached $125 billion for making food retailing the largest retail industry. Texas, alone, consumers spent $6.4 billion at food stores eating and drinking establishments, according to Sales Management's 1973 Survey of Living Power. The importance of modern agriculture to the economy is further highlighted noting that approximately 50 cent of all gainfully employed Texans are employed in part of modern agriculture.

Because Texas is one nation's leading agricultural states coupled with our geographic location, the production and distribution of food and by Texas is vital for Texas consumers, but for Americans and consumers around the world. Yes, we have a right to be proud of agricultural complex, but the greatest challenge may be ahead.

Cotton Harvest Increasing Daily

Agriculture Is Big In Texas

Everyone knows that agriculture is big business in Texas! November designated as National and Fiber Appreciation Month in the state, now is a good time to take a brief look at the state of Texas agriculture, according to County Extension Agent [Name].

Of the state's 168 million acres of land area, 142 million are devoted to agriculture.

Realized gross farm income in 1972 totaled $4.7 billion, up 13 per cent from 1971. However, farm production expenses totaled $3.8 billion, almost 23 per cent higher than in 1971. This left realized net income 19 per cent below that of 1971, but a boost in farm inventories brought total net farm income up 28 per cent over that in 1971.

Texas is the third leading state in total agricultural cash receipts behind California and Iowa. However, it leads the country in producing cotton, grain sorghum and rice and is the top cattle producer. Texas also leads in the production of sheep and wool, goats and mohair.

The state is also a leader in other enterprises:

- Fourth in agricultural exports, leading in cotton and rice exports and second in hides, tallow and meat products.
- Second in peanut production.
- Third in vegetable production, leading in cabbage, watermelon and spinach and second in onions, carrots and cantaloupes.
- Second in grapefruit production and third in oranges.
- First in native pecans and third in total production.
- Third in the number of honey bee colonies.
- Among the top 10 dairy states.
- First in horse numbers.
- A leading state in poultry and eggs.
- A leading state in fish farming.

Cotton harvest operations are increasing daily on the South Plains, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the U. S. D. A. Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock. This increase is reflected in the increasing number of cotton samples being received at the area U. S. D. A. Cotton Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa and Levelland.

Samples from 74,000 bales were classed at the four offices during the week ending Friday, November 2nd. This brought the total classed for the season to 96,000. This is far ahead of the pace of last year's crop. At this time last year samples from only 1,200 bales had been classed.

Quality of the cotton harvest continued excellent and is considerably higher than last year. Grades 31 and 41 continued to be the predominant grades at Lubbock, making up 70 percent of all classed. Grade 31 made up 32 percent, Grade 41, 38 percent and Grade 32, 11 percent. Staples were predominantly 30 to 32. Twenty-five percent had a staple length of 30, 21 percent stapled 31 and 15 percent was 32. Micronaire readings continued excellent. These readings indicate that most of the early harvested bales were fully mature. Eighty-four percent of all cotton tested at Lubbock had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 to 4.9, 10 percent was in the high micronaire range of 5.0 to 5.2 and 4 percent was in the very high range of 5.3 and above.

The Agricultural Marketing Service of the U. S. D. A. reported slow trading on the Lubbock market during the week. Prices declined two to four cents per pound early in the week but stabilized later in the week. Prices were averaging 30 cents per pound over the loan late in the week.

Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 premium micronaire range were: Grade 31, Staple 30 -- 45.65 cents per pound, Grade 31, Staple 31 -- 52.40, Grade 31, Staple 32 -- 53.40, Grade 41, Staple 30 -- 44.70, Grade 41, Staple 31 -- 47.25, and Grade 41, Staple 32 -- 47.95.

Cottonseed prices were steady and farmers received an average price of $100 per ton.

Postal Service Rotary Subject

Charles Townes, local postmaster, showed a film entitled "Rivers of Mail" depicting modern methods of handling the tremendous amounts of material handled by the Postal Service.

He explained reasons for the increasing postal rates. For years, he said, the public had been howling for the Post Office Department to be handled as a business institution. Finally, Congress authorized the change, and almost immediately the very strong postal unions began demanding, and getting, higher salaries; and other costs also began increasing.

The program proved to be an interesting and informative one.

AROUND TOWN

BY LEONA WALDRIP

CALL 998-4496

The 15 day trip to Philadelphia to visit in the home of my son's family is a long to be remembered occasion. Weather was fine there and the countryside was so pretty with all the Autumn colors. Several historical places were visited. Because of the sudden illness of my daughter-in-law's mother we had to take a 250 mile drive into Southern Maryland. This took us over the New Jersey turnpike through Delaware and New Jersey. We went through the famous "Harbor Tunnel" at Baltimore, Maryland which goes underwater for over a mile. The only flaw in the trip was foul up in schedules at Love Field in Dallas coming home Tuesday but from what I hear that's about normal for Dallas. After a 5 hour stay in Love Field I arrived in Lubbock at 5:30 p. m. when I should have been there at 12:30. Such as that makes getting home the best part of the trip.

Beula Atkins recently spent 10 days visiting in Brownfield with her friend Sallie Duncan.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mrs. Faye Thayer was her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wiltsie of Denver, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eldridge of Hereford, Mrs. Betty Williams and daughters Sandra and Ersal of Lubbock.

Overnight visitors Sunday with Mrs. Margret Nash was Mrs. Addie Stallins and Mrs. Lucille Nash of Muleshoe.

Several local people attended the wedding of Paul Kenley and Barbara Baley in Bacon Heights Baptist Church in Lubbock on Friday night.

Mrs. Dora Carpenter returned home Thursday after being in University Hospital in Lubbock since Saturday.

Recent visitors in the Rufus Slover home was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Floyd from El Segunda, Calif. They were traveling with Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Craig of Vesta, Calif.

Yesterday's Advice Won't Cut It Today

If today's farmer heeded the advice given his great-grandfather, he wouldn't be in business long.

That advice—which appeared in a farm magazine back in 1838—was to avoid any dealings with bankers. In fact, the magazine declared, "A farmer should shun the doors of a bank as he would the approach of the plague or cholera."

Far from shunning bank doors, today's farmers are among a bank's best loan customers.

Increasing costs of land, equipment, fertilizer, chemicals, seed, and other materials have made it necessary for farmers to borrow more capital than ever in order to produce the nation's growing food and fiber needs.

On Jan. 1 of this year, outstanding farm debt—not including price support loans—totaled $70.1 billion. That's equivalent to about 19% of total farm assets, and reflects a $5.5 billion increase over a year ago.

Cost of entering the farm business runs slightly higher than the old 40-acre-and-a-mule system did. It's now calculated that the minimum capital required for an aspiring farmer to get in the business is about $100,000.

Toys For Tots Are Needed

Again it is nearing the Christmas Season, and the Lynn County Community Action is sponsoring a drive for used or new toys to be distributed to needy children.

If you have any toys bring them by the Community Action office. They are open from 8:30 to 12 noon Monday thru Thursday and all day Friday.

Tahoka High Happenings

DEBBIE RAINOLD

At THS this week, the very air we breathe is that of victory. Last week, the Varsity Bulldogs shot down the Roosevelt Eagles with a tense and exciting 22-15 success. Roosevelt, undefeated in district play until their battle with the Bulldogs, was picked to win over Tahoka, but we struck back with determination, desire, and self-discipline, unique to the 1973 'Dogs. The players, the coaches, the fans, felt that play-by-play tension, and when the clock ticked the end, each left with that inner roar that says we'll be Number One.

Not only did the Varsity come out victors, but the Junior Varsity, only the night before, tasted, for the first time this year, the "wine of victory". The team, outplaying the Eagles, won by a score of 19-15. Also, the Freshmen were the defeaters, 14-7. All of these teams along with seventh and eighth grade, put it together last week for a five-win wipe-out over the "tough" Eagles. Congratulations, guys and coaches!!

The KENNEL Staff has dug, head-first into our yearbook sales. Tomorrow will be the last day of the sales, so if any of you have not bought your copy and would like to, you'd better "hook up" and contact a member. This is a good opportunity to name the staff members: KENNEL Co-Editors: Donna Draper and Carol Capner; GROWL Editor: Debbie Rainold; Organizations: Sherree B. Shire, Features: Betty Curry, High: Jackie Roseberry; Marilyn Thomas, Sports: Debbie Rainold and Leasa Huffaker; Donna Draper and Carol Capner.

The Senior football players and the rest of the team, were having a supper after the game Friday night. A skit was presented by some of the THS females. Hugh Jack Norwood.

Tomorrow night, the Bulldogs will contend with one of their all-time rivals—Denver City. It's a D-C, a victory over the 'Dogs into almost first in district. This is a very important game and the team and needs all the support it can get. We hope the bleachers are packed tonight. They have my full support. What about yours?

The seventh and eighth grade Bulldogs, undefeated with a 7-0 season record, will take on the Antelopes at Post on November 13. They walloped the Roosevelt Eagles on Oct. 30 to knock them out of the race for the district title. Frozen fans watched the obviously "hot" Bulldogs play two of their best games of the season. The seventh were victorious by a score of 32-8 and the eighth grade racked up 44 points to shut out the Eagles, 44-0. Scott Stevens broke two ribs during the seventh grade game and he is now back at school. Hang in there, Scott!

Dates and Figs: Ancient Fruits with Intrigue

Dates and figs can be put into many imaginative and satisfying uses since they are extremely versatile fruits. Fresh dates and figs may be stuffed in a variety of ways--such as with nuts or cream cheese for hors d'oeuvres. Dates and figs blend well in breads, pies, cakes, and other deserts. They can even be made into a luscious, thick concoction called a "Date Shake" by combining them with milk and vanilla ice-cream. Dates flavor many vegetables and garnish meats and salads.

Dates can be obtained pitted or unpitted in bulk or in assorted package sizes.

Banana Date Appetizer

- 1/2 cup pitted fresh dates
- 2 medium size bananas
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- lettuce
- 1/4 cup salad oil
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
- mayonnaise or salad dressing
- 4 walnut halves

Slice dates crosswise into rings. Peel bananas and cut into halves; split halves lengthwise. Roll in mixture of lemon rind and juice. Arrange lettuce cups on 4 salad plates; shred 2 cups lettuce and place 1/2 cup in each. Mix remaining lemon juice mixture with oil, dates and onion. Place 2 pieces banana in each lettuce cup; ladle dressing over. Dab with mayonnaise; garnish with walnuts. Makes 4 servings.

Carolyn Haley Says...

Breakfast doesn't have to be a hassle. Advanced planning and cooking, convenience foods and refreshing new ideas add up to quick breakfasts the family won't want to pass up.

One way to save time in the morning is preparing part of the breakfast the night before. Prepare juice or fruit, boil eggs and get the coffee pot ready to plug in.

For quick and easy pancakes or waffles, mix them up and bake them the night before. Then freeze. At breakfast time, simply pop the frozen item into the toaster or brown it for a few minutes in the broiler.

Serve with a glass of milk for a nutritious breakfast the next morning.

When preparing rolls, coffee cake or muffins, double the recipe. Freeze the extras for breakfast treats.

Convenience foods come in handy for families shorter on time than money. For example, top an English muffin with a slice of cheese and toast it under the broiler. Or use cocoa mixes, instant hot cereals, pancake, muffin and coffee cake mixes, frozen waffles and hash browns, instant tea and coffee and refrigerator biscuit and roll dough.

To get out of a "same ol' breakfast routine," perk up the meal with a taste teaser. Try stacked pancakes layered with cheese or fruit filling. Or, top cottage cheese with fresh fruit.

Prepare a cereal sundae by mixing fruit with ready-to-eat cereal and topping it with a scoop of ice cream. This tasty, nutritious breakfast surprise takes only seconds to fix.

So, start the day right -- with a quick tasty, nutritious breakfast.

Baley-Kenley Pledge Double Ring Vows

Miss Barbara Gayle Baley and Rev. Paul Douglas Kenley were united in marriage on Friday, November 2nd at 7 p. m. in the Bacon Heights Baptist Church of Lubbock. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. F. Scott, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baley of Hico, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kenley of Tahoka.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a full length gown, fashioned at her own hand of candlelight panne velvet, trimmed in bead embroidered pearls. She carried a Bible of childhood possession, covered with white satin and carnations. Mrs. Charles Erick of Stanton was matron of honor, followed by Mrs. Johnny Carter of Liberty as bridesmatron. Both are cousins of the bride, and were attired in gowns of satin and satin brocade in shades of gold and green, respectively.

The groom was accompanied by John Huffaker of Lubbock as best man, and James Murray of San Antonio. Rickey Ketron, Allan Ketron, and Phil Alexander, all of Lubbock, seated guests. In addition to the parents, honored guests were Mrs. Nora Baley of Hico, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Lotella Murchison of Lubbock, honored guest of the groom.

The platform was arrayed in three stands of candelabra, accented with greenery and white bows. A single spotlight and 29 tapered candles provided the only lighting as rings and vows were exchanged. Following a prayer of commitment, the groom sang to the bride, "A Portrait of Our Love", accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Wilbur Mills, who also played wedding selections prior to the ceremony.

The reception, which followed in the church's fellowship hall, featured a tiered cake of white, bedecked in yellow roses and green leafing, served by Mrs. Jack Weatherly. Miss Jackie Walker poured pale green punch. The reception was directed by Mrs. A. G. Stringer and Mrs. Blanche Allison, and guests were registered by Miss Debbie Norris of Hamlin.

The bride is a senior Home Economics Education major at Texas Tech, graduating in December, and the groom is Minister of Music and Youth at Bacon Heights Baptist Church in Lubbock. They will reside at 4213C-50th St. in Lubbock.

Only a weekend trip to Dallas was planned immediately, but plans for a honeymoon in Hawaii have been made for December.

Texas Counties Receive Grant

A federal grant of $16,078,330 to aid in education of 76,000 children of migrant workers in 46 Texas counties has been awarded the Texas State Education Agency, it was announced today in Dallas by H. D. McMahan, regional director for the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The program will serve students in Atascosa, Bailey, Bee, Bexar, Caldwell, Cameron, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Dimmit, Duval, Ellis, Floyd, Frío, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Hale, Hays, Hidalgo, Hockley, Jim Wells, La Salle, Lamb, Lampasas, Lubbock, Lynn, Maverick, Midland, Nueces, Oldham, San Patricio, San Saba, Starr, Swisher, Terry, Travis, Uvalde, Val Verde, Victoria, Webb, Wharton, Willacy, Williamson, Zapata, and Zavala counties, according to McMahan.

With this grant, the State Education Agency will offer a comprehensive program for migrant students during both the regular and summer terms.

The program will provide instruction in communication skills math, social studies and other academic areas using methods especially adapted to the needs of migrant students who must move often during the school year.

Transportation, regular meals, and medical and dental care will also be made available under the projects, using existing community resources wherever possible.

In all projects, a concentrated effort to improve the child's opinion of himself and his capacity for success in school and in life will be pursued through classes exploring his cultural background and heritage, McMahan said.

Special training will be carried out to prepare teachers and other staff members to meet the particular educational needs of migrant children.

The Migrant Student Record Transfer System, a computerized nationwide information system which has been operational for more than a year, will make it possible for the students' health and school records to follow them from school-to-school in a matter of hours.

Nationwide, the program last year served 325,000 children at a cost of $72 million.

PAINTED THEIR WAGON -- Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Carroll of O'Donnell "Painted Their Wagon" recently at the National Ag Chem Convention in Phoenix, Arizona. Meeting featured energy, food, the agricultural boom and the future of the agricultural supply industry.

Bobby Carrolls Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Carroll of Farmers Co-op Assn. of O'Donnell were in Phoenix, Arizona recently attending the National Ag Chem Marketing Convention, sponsored by Elanco Products Company. The trip was earned from sales of Elanco's agricultural chemicals in 1973 by the Farmers firm.

Building on the theme, "Paint Your Wagon," the meeting featured speakers such as Dr. Pierre Rinfret, presidential economics consultant. Rinfret, who was first to label agriculture the "New Growth Industry", stated that the grain purchases by the Soviet Union and China were based on long-term policy decisions and would continue to fuel the boom in agriculture.

Reporting on a special Elanco study of energy and agriculture, Dr. Emery Castle, Dean of the Oregon State University Graduate School, predicted that agriculture will not be allowed to run short of energy for 3 reasons: 1) its crucial role in food production, 2) the need for farm production for export, and 3) low energy requirement -- farming uses about 5 percent of total U. S. energy consumption.

Bob Book, Vice President of Elanco, in the conference keynote address, pointed out that higher food prices could not be blamed on any one factor. They were caused by a series of increasing demand factors that came together all at once and most of which will continue to build for the foreseeable future. This is creating a "new age of import-

Jimmy Amaro scored first for the Eagles on a nine-yard sprint and then kicked the point after.

In the second period, David Pearson scored on a 31-yard ramble. Odell Hunter bolted over from the one in the third period for the Eagles.

And in the final frame, Kevin Wood grabbed a 25-yard pass from Pearson and Scotty Childress scored from two yards out to bring the final score to 32 for the Eagles.

With humble and grateful hearts we would like to express our deep appreciation for the love and kindness shown us in the loss of our beloved husband and father. The sharing of our grief by our many friends and loved ones through prayers, flowers and other expressions of love has greatly comforted us. Our prayer is that God will greatly bless each of you. The family of E. E. Atwell 45-1tc

Three men registered at a hotel and took a room for $30. Since the room was worth only $25, the clerk's conscience began to trouble him, so he called the bell-hop and gave him $5 to return to the three guests. The bell-hop, however, had only half a conscience, and returned only $3... pocketing $2 for himself. Now since the guests paid $27 for the room, with the $3 the bell-hop returned from their $30, and since the bell-hop kept $2 (making a total now of $29,) what happened to the extra dollar?
