The Spectator...

By Mary Brecheen

Favorite author of mine, an 18th-century fellow named Joseph Addison, was really one of the founders of modern-day journalism though his expressing himself might be a bit different ours. A small periodical that he was instrumental in starting he named The Spectator and began writing on Thursday, March 1, 1710, he said I quote verbatim: "I have observed, that a seldom peruses a Book with Pleasure, 'till he whether the Writer of it be a black or a fair, a mild or choleric Disposition, Married or a single, with other Particulars of the like nature, produce very much to the right understanding of the Author. To gratifie this Curiosity, which is so necessary to a Reader, I design this Paper, as Prefatory to my following Writings..."

As "prefatory discourses" to this column hopefully will appear weekly, may I add libby and D'Linda Valentine, the owners and operators of the Lynn County News, have asked that some time in the News office—and have kindly supplied me with the title of editor. Time to whether it is an appropriate title.

Being strictly to good journalism forbids an editor or his paper to express opinions in factual matters, but a column such as this gives one a way in that direction. I shall use it that way. Success I may have will be due to my interest in my hometown and its citizens. I have the talent, but a strong resistance to hard work and assistance will make for a better paper. As to whether I have a "mild or choleric disposition", you must choose.

Lynn County Funds Approved For Mini Park

In the Spring of 1934 Mrs. J. S. Wells noticed that all the counties around Lynn were having Old Settler Reunions and decided to try and organize one for Lynn County. She asked for the use of the American Legion Hall around the first of May, and got on the telephone with a list of people she knew that had lived in Lynn County 30 years or longer to come to a meeting and bring their supper. A large crowd attended the organizational meeting. Charley Doak and family came from O'Donnell.

He was elected the first President. Mr. Doak had been Lynn County's first Sheriff. His daughter, Bertie, was elected Secretary. Jim Elliott was the first Vice-President. When it became time to set the date for the annual reunion, Mrs. Wells, not being the shy type, said the 24th of June would be an ideal time of the year to have it as the sand storms are over and besides it's my birthday. So on June 24th, 1934 the first reunion was held at the George Small farm on the Post Highway where J. T. Tippitt now resides. There was a parade and program and barbeque lunch was served. The reunion has since been held on the Saturday nearest the 24th.

Thirty-five businessmen and women attended Tuesday mornings Chamber of Commerce breakfast at Tahoka Cafeteria, and heard reports on a number of projects being sponsored by the civic body, presided over by H. B. McCord Jr., president.

Gerald Moore reported on plans for the July 3 and 4 Bicentennial celebration and said an air show has been added to the program. Stunt flying, an ascension by two balloons, and glider flight are on the air show program set for Saturday. Among other events are a side-walk sale, parade, Mini-Park dedication, and street dance, all on Saturday, followed on Sunday afternoon and evening by a picnic, contests, and food sales on Tahoka football field, a community church service at night, and a fireworks display, and other events.

George McCracken and Winston Wharton reported good response in the clean-up campaign, but expressed hopes the drive would continue. The City employed extra help to clean up Tahoka Cemetery.

McCord and Harold Roberts reported the proposed 12-unit duplex housing project is ready for expected approval by Farmers Home Administration. Land has been acquired for the project. Although not a low-rent project, the new housing, it is hoped, will afford suitable housing for teachers, nurses, and others who are not able to find suitable places in which to live.

J. D. House reported on his project of providing mailing slips for merchants to include in bills they pay stating, "This check is for money derived from Lynn County cotton."

Mayor Meldon Leslie reported funds for the Mini-Park have been approved, some more property is being acquired for the project, and the dedication set for Saturday morning, July 3. Also, a building is being acquired for possible use as a museum.

Winston Wharton, membership chairman, reported 31 new members to the C. of C. have been enlisted, and he hopes to get nine more.

Mrs. Frances Chestnutt passed out Bicentennial

American flag pins to all those present.

The person whose name was drawn for the $15.00 door prize was not present. Therefore, $30.00 will be up for grabs at the next C. of C. breakfast on July 15, when Vernon Redwine will speak on methods and devices to prevent burglaries.

County Art Association To Convene

On June 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the First National Bank Community Room in Tahoka, the Lynn County Art Association at their regular June meeting will sponsor a portrait lighting demonstration by our local photographer, C. Edmund Finney. Mr. Finney will demonstrate that the light that falls on the subject is actually the same for all forms of portrait production, photographic, oils, pastels, water colors, and all other forms of the media.

Update On Reunion Plans

Billy Tomlinson, president of Lynn County Old Settlers, informs the News that plans are shaping up for the reunion to be held Saturday, June 26, at Tubb Elementary Cafeteria.

Plaques will be awarded the oldest man, woman, and the person traveling the greatest distance and who have not previously won the award. Also, first and second place winners in the window displays will be announced and awarded plaques.

Old-timers are urged to notify out-of-town friends and relatives because they will not be notified otherwise.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. A barbeque lunch will be served at noon for $1.50 per plate, payable upon registration. Ed Redwine will be master of ceremonies for the short program to follow the luncheon.

Tahoka Teachers Retire...

77 Years Given to Education

By MARY BRECHEEN

When the doors closed May 29, marking the end of another school year in Tahoka, three faculty members' final preparations were somewhat different from past years. Virgil Carter, Mrs. N. E. Wood, and Mrs. F. A. Wyatt, having previously announced their retirement, were presented service pins, plaques, and gifts of appreciation from their fellow teachers at a coffee in the Tubb Elementary Cafeteria.

Mr. Carter taught two years each in the Midway and T-Bar schools in Lynn County and two years at Meadow before going into military service in 1945. In 1946 he began his teaching career in Tahoka as a vocational agriculture teacher and ended that thirty-year span this year. Carter, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carter, was born in Cleburne and moved to the New Lynn - Grassland communities in 1928. He and Miss Velma Gray were married in Lamesa in 1933 and she has taught with Mr. Carter, retiring herself in 1975 after twenty-one years in the Tahoka schools. Both went to school at the University of Hawaii three different summers and Carter received both his bachelor and masters degrees from Texas Tech University.

Their son, Richard, and his wife are teachers in the Stratford schools, Richard following in his dad's steps as a vocational agriculture teacher.

When asked his feelings about teaching, Mr. Carter said, "I'm amazed at how much more interested students are in what I have to say ten years after they're out of school."

The Carters are looking forward to fishing with their fourteen-year-old grandson, Mike, and pursuing their livestock interests in Lynn County.

The 1966 KENNEL, dedicated to Mrs. N. E. Wood, reads "We dedicate our yearbook to a woman who is herself dedicated". And prior to that in the '61 yearbook, "To one who has... contributed of her time in many ways".

Iola Wood, wife of Justice of the Peace N. E. Wood and a graduate of Texas Tech University, has spent the last nineteen years of her life as a teacher in Tahoka High School; eighteen of those years were spent in developing and maintaining a library of which any school might boast.

And when school closed in 1976, Mrs. Wood said, "My greatest thrill comes from knowing I have helped students in library work. Usually when they came in the library, they really wanted help."

Her teaching career began in three rural county schools—Edith, Redwine, and Joe Stokes—and a Garza County school, Grassburr. In 1957 she began teaching in Tahoka and after four years spent her time strictly in library and yearbook work.

Mrs. Wood says, "I guess you would say Lynn County is my home because I came here at the age of ten from Bosque County (Valley Mills)." She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Nowlin.

The Woods have been married forty-seven years and have three children, N. E. who is a professor at Pan-American University in McAllen; Paula Kennedy, employed with a savings and loan institution in Abilene; and Idalia Money, an employee of New Mexico Extension Service.

Her plans for the future are "to live one day at a time and take advantage of doors of opportunity."

It's debatable as to whether an elementary or secondary teacher has the greatest influence on a child, but it isn't debatable as to the powerful influence wielded by Louise Wyatt in the twenty-eight years she taught in Tahoka elementary schools. She also taught in O'Donnell, Three Lakes, and Ropesville, having the unique distinction of having taught the first time in the first school she attended as a first grader.

Louise was born in Crawford, Texas and married F. A. Wyatt in 1938 in Brownfield. She is the daughter of Mr. John Anderson of Tahoka and the late Mrs. Anderson. She is a graduate of O'Donnell High School, receiving her bachelors and masters degrees from Hardin-Simmons University and Texas Tech.

The Wyatts have two daughters, Jerre Ann, who is a legal secretary in Houston, and Mrs. Mary Ellen Moe, who taught kindergarten two years in Alaska and resides there at the present time.

Mrs. Wyatt, when asked about her best year in the education business, replied, "This last year, for many reasons, but mainly because my room was not overcrowded."

Celebration To Include Air Show

The show has been on the Bicentennial program, featuring flying acrobatics and air balloons. There is a drawing held for one of the balloons, being announced regarding to the time of the show.

The Bicentennial Committee will meet on Monday, June 21 at 8 p.m. in the Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room to finalize plans for the Bicentennial Celebration. All interested parties are urged to attend.

To date there are ninety-three entries in the Bicentennial Queen Contest. Anyone who has not turned in her entry blank must do so by Thursday, June 17. Blanks must be turned in where they were picked up.

Waver's July 1

Special July 4th Annual Flag Waver's will be published in the county News Thursday, June 17. The cost to have family's name or name is $2.00. All will be used to the Bicentennial program. If you wish to have your name on the page, contact Jim Wells at 793-1111 and she will pick up money. Also Dr. and Lexi Midkiff and Mrs. McKibben and any member of the Bicentennial Committee can have name, or leave name and money at the National Bank. The will be June 25.

Persons wishing to enter a float or other vehicle in the Bicentennial parade should contact Elmer Lindsey or the Rodeo Association as soon as possible so they may complete plans for the parade.

A complete schedule of events appears elsewhere in this edition of the paper.

Wilson Bicentennial Celebration

The Bicentennial Celebration in Wilson will be on July 4th with the opening program at 1:30 p.m. Throughout the day there will be many games and contests to participate in. The games are scheduled at different intervals at Green Park and the Mustangs' football field so that everyone will have a chance to join in. There will be apple-bobbing, bicycle race, sack race, 3-leg race, washer pitching, watermelon seed spit, chip throwing, goat sacking, tug of war and a stilt race. There will be a pie eating contest and also contests for the men's beards and for the prettiest bonnet on the ladies.

Come and join our celebration. A blanket or lawn chairs will be useful to those who want to watch the fun.

GERALD MOORE, LYNN COUNTY HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATOR, presents Elwanda Ketrone a check for $150 as Purchase Award at the Art Show. Donors for this picture for the hospital are: Mr. and Mrs. C. Edmund Finney, Carl Reynolds, Helen and Leighton Knox, David and Lexi Midkiff, Fenton Insurance Agency, Mrs. Emil Prohl, Clovis and Ruben McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stewart, D and J Implement, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Wright, Bill and Margie Craig, Wilson Lumber Company, Robbie and Donna Roberson, Mrs. Frances Chestnutt, and Truett and Lucille Smith.

ELWANDA KETRONE accepts a Purchase Award check from Donna Roberson for her picture purchased by Mr. and Mrs. James Brookshire.

'Raider Club Meets Monday

The Tahoka Red Raider Club will have its annual meeting Monday, June 21, according to Meldon Leslie, president of the local club.

Golfers will tee off at 1:30 at the T-Bar Country Club and all golfers planning to play must notify Robert Harvick no later than Thursday afternoon, June 17. This is necessary so the golfers can be paired with visiting golfers from Lubbock and the Red Raider coaching staff. The meeting and barbeque will be held at 6 o'clock at Mel's Line Shack.

This is an annual affair and the visitors and coaches proclaim this to be one of the most enjoyable visits they make each summer to Texas Tech supporters.

After the barbeque, the visiting coaching staff reviews Raider prospects for the forthcoming athletic season.

EX-CUBAN GIVES TALK AT ROTARY

"Free enterprise made the United States the greatest country in the world—let's keep it that way," stated Bob Feato of Albuquerque, N. M., a former Cuban who escaped from that country early in the Fidel Castro regime.

In explaining how Castro was able to gain control of Cuba, Feato said Cuba was once rich and flourishing, had no unemployment problem, and operated at the U. S. under the free enterprise system. Then, Batista came into power, there followed a police state in which there were multiple violations of freedom by police invading private homes, seizing property and committing violations of citizens, depression hit the country, and people became desperate for a better life.

Castro came on the scene. He deceived the people, who thought he might be their saviour, and too many fell for his gab. Total confusion resulted, and Castro took over the government—a complete disaster.

Today, Cuba has no civic organizations, no Boy Scouts, no Rotary Clubs, the people have no freedom.

The U. S. could be headed in the same way, if we listen to our radical people—and many officials in our government are listening. If our big oil companies, for instance, disappear, we can become a second or third-rate nation. Many of our radical young people are going to Cuba and being indoctrinated in Communist propaganda, attacks on the free enterprise system—and Congress is gradually moving to the left. Our crime rate is unprecedented and growing worse. We are not supporting our police as we should.

Our press, TV, and radio report the bad, little of the good. Commentators analyze the news, even the president talks, for us, almost always with a leftist interpretation. We must learn to listen and read for ourselves and make our own interpretations.

We have good people and bad people in government and industry. The press emphasizes the bad, but really the good still are predominant.

Our system is good, the best in the world. In 200 years, we have advanced more than any nation. The individual and free enterprise have long been the keys to success of our nation. Let's keep it that way.

Feato is with the public relations department of Conoco Oil Co. Mrs. Ruby Renfro, local Conoco dealer, secured the speaker on invitation from Jesse Dorman, program chairman for the month.

Club President, Dayton Parker, President - elect, Gerald Huffaker, and Vice-President - Elect, Horace Rogers and their wives this week are attending the Rotary International Convention in New Orleans.

Study Club Honors Mrs. Green

Mrs. Harold Green was honored at a reception Sunday, June 13, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hagood, hosted by Phebe K. Warner Study Club, marking the end of her two years as president of the Caprock District of Texas Federated Women's Clubs. Seventy-five guests registered at the tea, many of whom were representing Texas Federated clubs in the Caprock District.

The Caprock District encompasses twenty counties with sixty-five clubs and approximately 1500 women club members. During Mrs. Green's term of office, she visited every club except one, making a total of seventy-seven visits and driving 14,949 miles.

For her project during her term as district president, Mrs. Green established the Girlstown Education Fund, a tax-exempt, non-profit foundation, of which the interest alone will be used to buy school supplies for the sixty-five residents of Girlstown, supplies which cost approximately a thousand dollars per year. Donations to this fund were made by individuals, banks, and clubs. Mrs. Green will serve as the executive director of the foundation.

moderator for the crusade session and Mr. Wells serving as chairman and moderator for the service and rehabilitation group.

The Lynn County chapter is one of the strongest units in this area and year after year raises more money than some of the larger surrounding counties. However, this year Lynn County is about three hundred dollars short of its crusade goal. Anyone not contacted during the recent drive may send his contribution to Mrs. Turner, Box 975, Tahoka. Mrs. Turner is also Memorial Chairman for Lynn County and will accept memorial contributions.

Bicentennial Quilt Donation

A special Bicentennial quilt depicting scenes and symbols from Tahoka, Lynn County, Texas and the United States has been made by the Phebe K. Warner Study Club. Each club member made a square and the finished quilt of red, white and blue is king-size.

Donation tickets for $1.00 are being sold by club members and the drawing will be held July 3 during the Bicentennial festivities. The winner of quilt will also receive a booklet containing a description of each square, the way it was made, the reason for the design and the name of the person who made it. All proceeds from the quilt will go to the mini-park.

Tickets may be purchased from any club member or from The Fabric Place where the quilt is on display. Mrs. Elmer Owens, projects chairman for the club, is in charge of ticket sales.

Ladies Golf Association Met Tuesday

The T-Bar Golf Association met Tuesday, June 15, for their regular monthly luncheon and play day with approximately twenty members present. Maxine Lusk and Rachel Huffaker were in charge of the luncheon.

Irvin Dunagan was instructed to choose the mower and the ladies would pay for it since they have been using their personal mower for some time. The report was made that all bills had been paid.

All lady golfers are urged to come out for the monthly luncheons and if the weather is too bad for golf, DaOnne Curry, Play Day Chairman, advised she will allow a week to compete for the prizes for play day activities.

'76 Wheat Prospects Down As Harvest Begins in Texas

AUSTIN—The 1976 wheat harvest in Texas and the U.S. got underway recently with the first load being harvested in Frio County in South Texas, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced.

The size of the Texas wheat crop as well as profit prospects are down, White reported.

A 70.2 million bushel crop is forecast for the state this year, half the size of last year's record crop.

A drought earlier in the season ruined dryland wheat fields in the Panhandle and other parts of the state, and recent rains throughout the wheat producing areas of the state came too late to help the winter crop.

Wheat prices at the producer level are in the $3.50 per bushel range, and some farm economists are looking for a price around $3.25 during the harvest season.

Sherry Etheredge Says

Home-canning season is at hand, and consumers should be sure their pressure canner produces a product safe to eat, Frances Reasonover, a foods and nutrition specialist, reminds.

She pointed out that a temperature of 240 degrees F. is necessary to destroy bacteria spores present in low-acid foods, which include vegetables other than tomatoes and rhubarb and most fish and poultry.

"If the bacteria is not destroyed, it grows in jars or cans of food in the absence of air. It produces a toxin that causes the deadly botulism poisoning," she explained.

Miss Reasonover is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

"When selecting a pressure canner, look for features that assure adequate pressure can be safely reached and maintained," she said.

Look for these features:
—an accurate dial or weighted gauge that gives 10 pounds pressure at sea level and up to 15 pounds in areas of Texas with 2,000 feet and above sea level.

—rubber gasket or lugs that enable the canner to be airtight to help maintain pressure.

—a vent tube or petcock for exhausting air from the canner prior to sealing. Air is a poor conductor of heat.

—petcock or other safety device for allowing steam to escape automatically if pressure goes above the level for which the canner was developed.

—metal used that is strong enough to withstand adequate pressure needed.

—handles on lid and kettle that enable safe handling.

—rack to hold jars off bottom of canner to allow for steam circulation.

The canning season has arrived! If you are interested in checking your pressure canner, contact the extension office at 998-4650. Canners should be tested each year.

Here is a recipe for the summertime.

7 Accidents In County

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated seven accidents on rural highways in Lynn County during the month of May, 1976, according to Sergeant H. E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and three persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first five months of 1976 shows a total of 18 accidents resulting in one person killed and four persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for May, 1976, shows a total of 517 accidents resulting in 14 persons killed and 268 persons injured, as compared to May, 1975, with 524 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 310 persons injured. This was seven less accidents, three less killed, and 42 less injured in 1976 at the same period of time.

The 14 traffic deaths for the month of May, 1976, occurred in the following counties: Two each in Parker, Wichita, Donley, and Randall; and one each in Kent, Palo Pinto, Carson, Hartley, Potter, and Wheeler.

Mrs. Bob Freeman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridal attendants were Mrs. Phillip Martin of Plains and Miss Denise Curry, niece of the bride. The bridal attendants wore yellow floor-length dresses, accented with white daisies. They carried nosegays of yellow rosebuds, white daisies, and baby's breath.

Rex Wisner of Brownfield served the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Paul Scopel of Jacksonville, Florida, and Louis Scopel of Richmond, Texas, brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Clay Bennett, organist, provided traditional wedding music. Soloist was Mr. Royace Aikin of Lubbock, accompanied by the pianist, Mrs. Buddy Kinsey of Del Rio.

The bride's niece, Miss Jennifer Freeman of Graham, was flower girl. Her dress repeated the theme of the bridal attendants, and she carried a white basket filled with white daisy petals.

Candlelighters were John Douglas and Greg Curry, nephews of the bride. Ushers were Mike Curry of Lubbock, brother of the bride, and her nephews Alan Curry, Lee Curry, and Jeff Freeman of Graham.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall. Miss Wendi Curry, the bride's niece, registered the guests. At the serving table were Mrs. Taylor Knight, Miss Jan Whitaker of Brownfield, and Miss Tracy Cook of Lubbock.

Other hostesses were Wanda Curry, Frances E. Dunagan, Mrs. John Curry, and Mrs. Harlan Cook, Sr. of Lubbock. Miniature rice bags were distributed by Scott Cook of Lubbock and Sharon and Robert Scopel of Richmond, niece and nephew of the groom.

Mrs. Scopel is a graduate of Tahoka High School and West Texas State University. She is a teacher in the Plains school system. Mr. Scopel is a graduate of Seguin High School and Texas A&M University. He is presently employed as an accountant at Hexcel Corporation in Graham.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple will reside in Graham for the summer.

Griffin Receives Texas Superior Service Award

William B. Griffin, county Extension agent (agriculture) for Lynn County, has received the Texas Superior Service Award for extensive work in conducting result demonstrations and for outstanding agricultural leadership.

Griffin's award was presented during the annual conference of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University, June 11.

He was cited for "aggressive, exemplary leadership in conducting Lynn County agricultural and 4-H youth programs, particularly through highly effective result demonstrations and other innovative teaching methods in dryland farming."

In making the announcement, Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel, director of the Extension Service, said Griffin, who began his career by teaching people to help themselves through result demonstrations, is considered a key county Extension agent in the heart of one of the most intensive agricultural areas of Texas.

Claudia G. Williams, state Extension agent, gave background information about the award winner.

Griffin has been a Lynn County agent for 28 years and was the first county agent in Texas to publish a demonstration handbook, Pfannstiel said.

"Griffin helped introduce new varieties of cotton, cotton disease and insect control programs, hybrid grain sorghum and sunflowers into Lynn County through his many educational programs Pfannstiel said. "In 1973, Lynn County was number one in Texas cotton production in terms of running bales and fifth nationally."

Lynn County 4-Hers that Griffin has worked with have proved consistent winners at local, county and state livestock shows.

Griffin has served for 20 years as chairman of the Lynn County Chapter of the American Red Cross and as a member of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce and the Tahoka Lions Club.

Young 4-H Girls Meet

The Young 4-H girls had their last meeting before they enter the County Sewing Contest, at the home of Pamela Patterson.

Nadine Dunlap and Pam Womack helped the girls with their paper work so they will be ready for the contest June 25 at 1:00 at Lyntegar.

Their papers have to be turned in before 5:00 on June 22. If a 4-H'er brings a form in after June 22, it will be considered late and will not be accepted. Jo Carol Long taught the girls about the importance of choosing a place to shop; about dressing neatly and about choosing the right colors. They made a skirt at the meeting and then had home made ice cream and cookies.

Those attending the meeting were Kimberly McMillian, Marla Huffaker, Pamela Patterson, Candy Stice, D'Anna Womack, Lena McKibben, Dora Sosa, Andra Chapa, Janet Anderson, Kathy Cook, Angela Brooks, Michelle Terry and Jamie Sue Long.

LOCALS ATTEND GRADUATION EXERCISES

Mrs. Jack Stark, H. R. Tankersley and Mrs. Hubert Tankersley attended high school graduation ceremonies at Ruidoso, New Mexico, in which Ricky Stark was a 1976 graduate. The exercise was held at the football field and was decorated, carrying out the Bicentennial theme, with honor students wearing white gowns, the boys blue gowns and the girls red gowns. Grants and scholarships which totaled several thousand dollars, were awarded to 23 out of 64 graduating seniors. The money was made available by Ruidoso merchants and New Mexico colleges.

One Body In Christ

John The Baptist Preached The Church

Matthew 3:1-13 John foretold the coming of Christ His kingdom. John said Christ's kingdom was "AT THE END OF THE AGE," which meant that it was soon to be fulfilled. John told the Jewish people to get ready for the coming of the King and His Kingdom. He taught that entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven would be conditioned upon obedience. Many Jewish people today were as the Jews two thousand years ago. They expect Christ to return and set up an earthly kingdom. Most first century Jews in their disappointment rejected Jesus because they were waiting for a Christ that would save Israel from Roman bondage rather than the bondage of sin.

Jesus Told of His Coming Church and Kingdom

Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, "Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say unto thee, thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hades shall not prevail against it; and I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven." Matt. 16:16-19

Jesus had asked His disciples in verse 13, "Who do ye say the son of man is?" In discussing His church with the disciples, Jesus introduced the subject of the church which He said He would build. Notice in this discussion Jesus used the terms "church" and "kingdom of heaven" interchangeably.

Christ did not say He would build His Church on a rock (petros, masculine gender in Greek). "This rock" refers to the truth that Peter confessed that Jesus was the Son of the living God (1 Corinthians 3:11). Christ predicted that the foundation STONE upon which His house should be built would be tried, tested, and rejected. (Isa. 28:16) Psalms 118:22 refers to the Diety of Israel as a "rejected STONE".

Matthew 16:16-19 reveals the relationship that would exist between Christ and His church when established. Those who think they can be saved by accepting Jesus without accepting the relationship between Him and the church He built have been misled.

What's Behind It? Saving Money

That's more important than ever these days. There are ways you can make sure that the energy you use in your new total electric home is used in the most efficient manner possible. So efficiently that you will save 40% or more on heating and cooling cost when compared to previously accepted standards for total electric construction.

WALLS in the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME conform to one of three options that make sure heat stays where you want it...outside in the summer and inside in the winter. Option #1 with 6" walls and R-19" insulation, Option #2 with tongue and grooved 3/4" styrofoam sheathing, 4" walls and R-11" insulation, or Option #3 with R-15" minimum insulation. Walls also have a vapor barrier of 6 mil. polyethylene or foil-backed sheetrock. Sill insulation or sill caulking between the bottom plate and the floor is required.

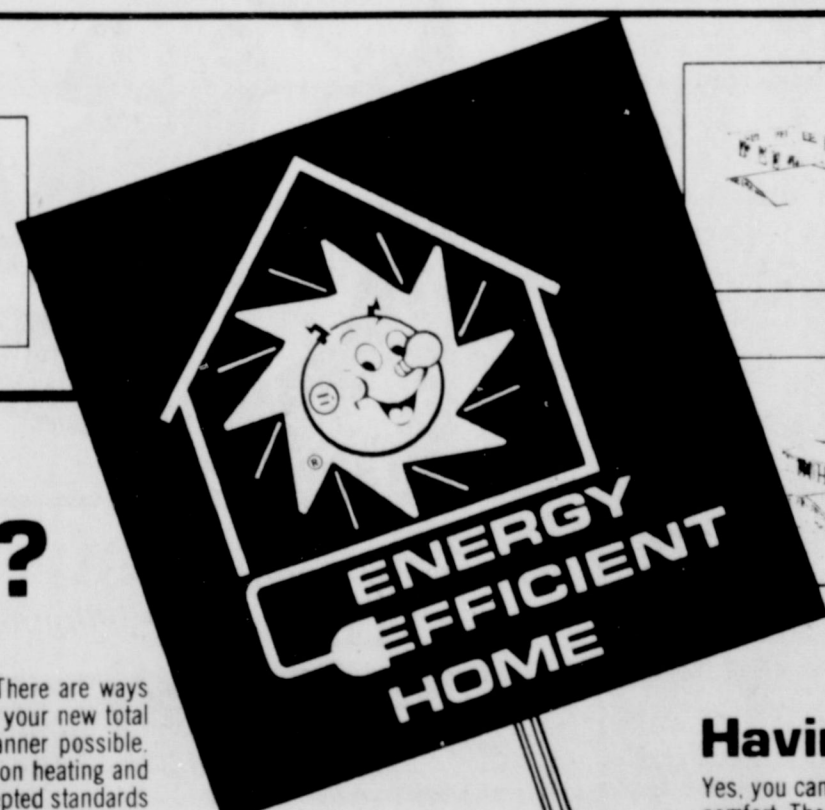

CEILING in the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME is insulated with R-30".

FLOORS (if pier and beam construction) are thoroughly insulated using R-13". In slab floors choose between Option #1, rigid urethane or styrofoam (3/4" minimum thickness) from top of floor along the outside edge of the slab down to the brick ledge, or Option #2 - pour vermiculite in the cavity between bricks and slab up to the top of the floor.

WINDOWS AND DOORS are weather-stripped and caulked. Double pane glass or storm windows and insulated core or storm doors also ensure energy efficiency. It is recommended that glass area not exceed 8% of floor space.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS include the use of cool fluorescent lighting, and a heating/cooling system like the heat pump that maximizes efficiency and an electronic air cleaner to be used with moving air systems.

Having Comfort

Yes, you can save money without sacrificing comfort. The total electric ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME is the way to save 40% or more of heating and cooling cost and still enjoy all the convenience available in a new home today. Call us this week for all the details.

*The "R" value in the guidelines indicates the "Installed Resistance" of the insulation to the flow of heat.

Official figures on 1975 Texas cotton production, released but not yet published by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service (TCLRS), show 1,420,200 net weight bales produced in the 25 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock. PCG acquired the information by telephone June 9.

Production was from 2,444,750 harvested acres, according to the TCLRS, for an average yield of 278.8 pounds per acre, the third lowest yield since 1952. The record low for those years was in 1974 when turnout was 263.5 pounds per acre, only slightly below the 264.4 pounds produced in 1971. The poor yields of 1975 are blamed on unseasonably cold weather in mid-September of an otherwise promising cotton year.

The TCLRS acreage figures reveal that 2,712,600 acres were planted to cotton on the Plains in 1975, which puts "abandonment" for the year at 9.9 percent.

Lynn County's 144,800 bales exceeded all other counties. The other three top producing counties in 1975 were Lubbock (136,700 bales), Dawson (123,300), and Martin (106,300). Yield-wise, county leaders were Borden, 492 pounds per acre; Howard, 429 pounds; Martin, 411 pounds; and Midland, 371.

The Joint Estimating Committee of PCG and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange in early December of last year placed the 25-county 1975 production total at 1,441,500 bales, only 1.4 percent off the official figure just released. Illustrating the severity of damage done by cold weather in September, this same committee on September 8 had fixed the area's crop potential at 1,930,000 bales.

The chart below shows planted and harvested acres, yield and total production in net weight bales for each of the 25 PCG counties.
