Tahoka Enjoys Two Days Of Bicentennial Fun

The bountiful rain, a parade, a feeling of goodwill...made it 'our finest hour'.

Bicentennial Workers Hailed By City Leaders

"Not too much praise can be given the Bicentennial Committee and the many workers who cooperated in making last weekend's big Bicentennial program in Tahoka such a success," says Tahoka Chamber of Commerce officers and directors.
 "Possibly more people were involved in the event than in any similar community program in many years.
 We join others in thanking these many workers for the great job they did in making the event a big success."

Chamber Officials Reveal Plans For City's Future

New projects for Tahoka were discussed Tuesday noon by Chamber of Commerce directors at an enthusiastic meeting held at Tahoka Cafeteria.
 Plans for a fall Harvest Festival probably in October, were discussed and a committee to plan the event will be appointed by President H.B. McCord, Jr. and Vice-president Gerald Moore.
 Winston Wharton proposed a continuation of the beautification program featuring the planting of cannas furnished by Texas Highway Department on vacant lots along Highway 87 and also downtown and in the residential section. This program would begin next spring.
 Wharton also reported thirty-five new Chamber members, eight since the last board meeting. The membership is now the highest it has ever been.
 Application for the proposed $187,700 housing project loan from Farmers Home Administration has been completed and submitted to the state office. Dwain Lusk reported. Arrangements have been made for the purchase of nearly July 3rd, 1976 dawned cloudy in Tahoka—but not in the hearts of its citizens. That was the long-awaited day of the Bicentennial parade and to make a good day even better, it rained some three inches the night before. There was an aura of goodwill on every corner.

 Activities got underway with a ground-breaking ceremony for the mini-park. Councilmen Ed Redwine, James Roberts, and Jesse Dorman were on hand, as well as Mayor Mel Leslie, Representative E.L. Short, Mrs. Jerry McKibben, and Mrs. Jim Wells, Bicentennial workers.
 At ten o'clock, the parade, described by spectators as the best in Tahoka's history, wound its way from South Second Street up Avenue J to Lockwood and back south on Main Street.
 Phebe K. Warner Study Club, Lyntegar Electric, Lynn County 4-H Horse Club, and Gerald Huffaker's Buggy were judged first-place winners in their respective divisions.

Rotarians Report On Meeting

Gerald Huffaker, recently installed as the new president of Tahoka Rotary Club, vice-president Horace Rogers, and outgoing president Dayton Parker last Thursday reported to the local club on the recent Rotary International Convention in New Orleans which they attended, accompanied by their wives.
 They reviewed some of the outstanding speeches and events of the meeting, including those of Secretary of Agriculture Butz and United Nations Secretary General Doctor Walderham. They were impressed by the size of the Superdome where the meetings were held and by meeting other Rotarians from all over the world.
 Rex Webster, Lubbock advertising executive who is well known by many Tahoka people, was song leader of the giant meeting.
 Huffaker also appointed various committees from the club for work during the local Fourth of July celebration.

Second-place winners were the Garden Club, THS Band, Pins 'n Needles, and Jim Turner's Car.

Third-place winners in the floats were Tahoka 4-H Club and Dr. David Midkiff.
 The parade was followed by sidewalk sales and Mrs. N.L. Fox, mother of Mrs. Elmer Owens, drew the Phebe K. Warner Bicentennial quilt.

Saturday's activities were concluded with a street dance. Music was furnished by Weldon Reed and the Solid Country of Justiceburg.

Sunday, July 4th, Tahoka joined other Americans at 1 p.m. in a nation-wide bell ringing ceremony, followed by an air show at Tahoka Airport at two o'clock.

Festivities at the picnic on the football field were brought to an abrupt halt when a severe rainstorm struck about 5:30; however, citizens came from hiding places and entered into a community devotional followed by a firework display.

The Bicentennial Committee will have pictures of all events on display at the First National Bank within a few weeks, according to Mrs. Jerry McKibben.

Cotton Group Meets July 12

All women who have an interest in cotton are invited to attend a reorganizational meeting of Lynn County Cotton Promotion Associates on July 12 at 2 p.m. in the Lyntegar board room.
 A program on cotton will be presented and a slate of officers will be elected.

Farmers Co-op Hosts Members

Tahoka Farmers Cooperative Number One had its 47th Annual Meeting in Tubb Elementary Cafeteria on Tuesday night, June 29, at which time a total of $256,168.18 in dividends and retirement of old stock was paid to stockholders, according to Dan Martin, general manager of the Co-op.

Cotton North Of Tahoka Suffers Hail Damage

Rains Friday, Saturday, and Sunday ranging from five inches down to a half inch covered Lynn County and came just at the right time to save the area crops, some of which were beginning to suffer from want of moisture.
 Tahoka recorded 3.47 inches during the night Friday, the biggest rain that has come here in many years in a 24-hour period. This was followed by .71 in Tahoka on Sunday afternoon, bringing the total for the month so far to 4.18 inches and for the year to 10.24 inches. More rain was in prospect for Tuesday and Wednesday.
 However, disaster struck some farms just north of Tahoka in a hailstorm over several sections Sunday just north of town and another area along the Lubbock County line.
 Cotton crops were wiped out just north of town on the Paul Kiser place, the Hall and J.A. Robinson land farmed by Britt Robinson, J.B. Howell and Robbie Roberson, Sam and J.T. Miller, Rebel Thomas, D.W. Gagnat, Natt Park, Doctor Roney, and Robbie Gill farms. Less damage was reported on the Othell Meeks, Jeff Nance, and Mel Leslie places, and possibly others.

 On the Lubbock County line, John Henderson lost much of his cotton on the Clarence Church land, but most of the damage was over in Lubbock County.
 Some other damage was reported from high winds where sand burned the cotton.

Previously, the most rain recorded in Tahoka in a 24-hour period was on July 19, 1955 when 3.45 inches fell here. However, neither of these rains compared with the 10 to 13 inches received at Wilson and New Home in 1960 and the big rain at Draw.
 Up to five inches was reported at West Point, parts of the north and east sections and some areas of the southwest part of the county. Many lakes are full of water and some cotton has been lost in these lakes.

Most crops in Lynn County are doing well. The News is informed that in the hail-damaged areas, some farmers will plant maize or sunflowers.
 With cotton prices high, some farmers are contracting their cotton crop at 3,500 or 3,600 point above the loan rates, which would bring 58 cents per pound on up. Others are fearful that if prices go down, some of the contracting cotton firms may not be able to pay off.

Four twirlers, in addition to eight other band members from Tahoka High School, went to Abilene Christian University on Monday, July 5th, for a week-long training session. The group was accompanied by James Maclasky, band director.
 Twirlers are Tammie McKibben, Jamie Gage, Jona Valentine, and Toi Bragg.
 Other members attending the session are: Joe Boles, Lou Ann McAuley, Carolyne Ash, and Dixie Roberson.

The Spectator...

It is a rare venture to say that few events in the history of America have had as much publicity as our birthday celebration. Everybody has had a share. Few stones have been left unturned.
 We become (or so I read) unpopular to sentiment regarding love of country, but I go on record as saying that the events I witnessed here and other places during the past few years have served to rejuvenate my faith in our good things we have going for us.
 America's tenacity and perseverance made it possible for us to be able to witness the splendid Bicentennial last weekend. The torch has been passed to us and I feel very strongly that we have a big task facing us in the third century of the history of this country. However, we've had good things and we're equipped to carry that torch. It's not me alone, nor you alone, but all of us.

I was privileged to attend a media luncheon last week as part of the Ranching Heritage Center's celebration of the arrival of the Texas longhorns in Antonio. I was impressed, to say the least, by the company of notables such as Governor George Mahon and the visiting dignitaries on hand to take part in the celebration of the Ranch Headquarters. The whole thing is a tribute to our unique heritage, that of the cowboy industry.

Our county's parade and every event which we have had were but the manifestation of untold talents, days, and hours of ingenuity and hard work on the part of the Bicentennial Committee. The Lynn County News is dedicating a page in this issue to the events which transpired July 3rd and 4th and the hope that it will some day be that page in the memorabilia of our children and grandchildren.

At the community picnic in the City Park, Mr. O.L. McClendon was presented a life membership in the Museum Association.
 The 1946 Study Club, under the able leadership of Mrs. Annette Sumrow, was responsible for the picnic and other festivities in the City Park on July 3rd. There was a swimming contest, a cow-calling contest which Mrs. Sumrow won, incidentally, and a cow-chip-throwing contest which was won by Kevin James.
 Chester Derrick of Odessa was the winner in the Old Fiddlers Contest.

Bicentennial celebrations in New York Harbor and Independence Hall in no way overshadowed the gala activities in O'Donnell, Texas.
 A visitor to the rain-soaked town found a diversity of events to keep him occupied—everything from a cow-chip-throwing contest to feasting on corn-on-the-cob.
 Not to be overlooked was a tour of the museum which is a community project and is as impressive as any one might visit in a large city. Mr. and Mrs. Truett Hodnett see that things are classified and labeled and that someone is on duty in the museum when the occasion demands.

Saturday afternoon. Kenneth Smith, talking to himself as much as the crowd of picnickers, said "...the birds are singin', sun's a shinin', and the cotton's a stickin' its ears up!" Smith is one of six members of a band who call themselves The Kountry Kustoms. Other members are Bill Bray, Bobby Knight, Bobby Joe Furlow, Sam Mensch, and Doyce Haney.
 The refrain from one of their numbers, "...when you're running down my country, you're walking on the fightin' side of me," seemed to be the consensus of opinion in O'Donnell on the eve of the 200th birthday of their country.

NEITHER SNOW NOR RAIN NOR HEAT dampened the spirits of O'Donnell citizens as they joined in festivities on July 3rd. The post office entered this float in the parade.

How To Fight A Kitchen Range Fire

Most kitchen range fires occur when cooking oil, fat on meat, or clothing touches a hot element or burner.

The Food and Drug Administration's Bureau of Product Safety estimates that about 100,000 burn accidents from kitchen ranges occur each year.

Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A & M University System, offers some practical guidelines for dealing with a fire in the kitchen.

"If a fat fire should start in the cookware on the range's surface units—or in a fondue pot or electric skillet—immediately cover the pan and turn off the source of heat."

"Use a fire extinguisher if the fire should spread. Or baking soda may be thrown on the fire if an extinguisher isn't available.

"Never try to carry flaming cookware outside or to the sink, and do not throw water on a grease fire. Water only causes grease fires to spread," she cautioned.

If a fire starts in the oven or broiler, close the door, turn off the source of heat and keep the door closed. With limited air, the fire should go out within minutes, the specialist said.

"You can minimize the risk of a broiler fire by using slotted, solid racks which allow good grease drainage but shield the fat from the heat source. Do not use a broiler pan with an open, wire rack unless it is deep enough to add water beforehand to cool the fat," she explained.

"Some simple precautions can reduce chances of a range fire," she pointed out.

"Cookware used on the surface units of a range should be large enough so that none of the electrical element is exposed.

"A gas flame should be adjusted so that it does not run up the sides of the cookware.

Never wear long, loose sleeves when cooking.

Only use cookware that is both large and deep enough to hold the meat and any fats and juices that will accumulate during cooking.

YOU'RE GETTING MORE . . . THAN WATER!

PROBLEM:

POPULATION EXPLOSION With the wastes of our expanding society polluting our waterways, chemicals, metals and other contaminants are getting into our drinking water. This poses a real problem, for it seems everything that makes life easier, makes water dirty. CHEMICAL REACTIONS in addition to all the other chemicals, it has recently been revealed that the very chemicals used to purify water and kill bacteria in chlorine combines with the pollutants and produces cancer-causing agents and other health hazards.

TREATMENT PLANTS OUTDATED So many contributions are present that equipment to identify much less remove them, that not yet been designed. And even if water at the treatment plant is pure and chemical free, the age and condition of all the many pipes make the quality of water uncertain. By the time it reaches the tap, lead from old painted pipes, and other dangerous contaminants have been traced to water pipes. It has been estimated that it will take one and a half billion dollars to remove the health hazards lurking in our drinking water.

HEALTH EFFECTS It has not yet been established just how much these elements affect the human body. But an increasing number of authorities believe they would cause ill health and that some of their effects could be irreparable.

SOLUTION:

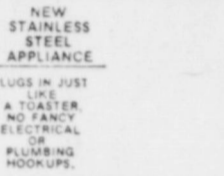

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION Doesn't it make good sense that if the presence of these chemicals and pollutants could cause ill health that removing them would prevent it?

PURIFY YOUR OWN WATER Since it has been established that it will take years to correct our drinking water problem, this should tell us something. We must purify our water in our own homes and be sure it is safe.

DISTILLATION Distillation is nature's way of purifying water. It removes everything from water that can be removed.

CLEANER ABOUT MINERALS! You should be the body needs minerals, but they need not come from water. They are found much more abundantly in food. Dr. Sherman, eminent biochemist and nutritionist claims that minerals are not available in sufficient quantities, even in extremely hard water, to make any real contribution.

DISTILL YOUR OWN WATER FOR PINNIES A DAY Remove the harmful chemicals and pollutants in your own home and make sure it is safe. Our portable distillers are priced so everyone, everywhere can afford to own one without a large outlay of money.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS.....

Swine dysentery will cost hog producers throughout the United States an estimated $64 million this year and losses from the disease are increasing.

The disease which is caused by harmful bacteria in the digestive tracts of pigs is characterized by diarrhea with blood or mucous in the feces, reduced feed consumption and gauntness in pigs. It is highly contagious and is transmitted by pigs eating the feces of infected animals. Infected feces can be carried on inanimate objects or by animals who physically move feces from one place to another.

Because swine dysentery has many of the same symptoms as salmonella and whipworms, a laboratory confirmation must be made before the disease can be absolutely verified.

Also, an animal with a health certificate does not necessarily mean the animal does not have swine dysentery, as some animals with the disease will not show any symptoms.

Treatment is costly to the producer, so preventive measures are especially important.

One way to keep the disease from infecting your swine herd is to buy pigs from sources with no known history of the disease and to maintain a closed breeding herd.

Isolate newly purchased animals for at least 30 days and check them once a day for signs of symptoms. Plan your chores so that the new animals are cared for last and do not return to the main herd unless all boots and equipment has been thoroughly cleaned.

Keep in mind that every animal, vehicle or person who comes into contact with your swine herd is a potential carrier of the disease.

If your herd does become infected, tell your veterinarian and accept any type of quarantine to slaughter arrangement.

Be sure to inform all nearby neighbors of the appearance of the disease in your herd so they can watch their animals for symptoms. If any infected hogs are taken to market, clean and disinfect the transporting vehicle before using it again. Practicing good sanitation is the best way to minimize the severity of losses from swine dysentery, points out the county agent.

Keep hog pens and lots as clean and comfortable as possible and try to reduce stress from overcrowding, chilling, filth, and poor nutrition. Keep traffic between pig lots to a minimum.

To rid the disease from your herd calls for the slaughter of all infected animals and then a thorough cleanup and disinfection of the areas where pigs were kept.

Let hog lots lie idle for several months before moving in new pigs. Then stay on the alert as the disease commonly recurs.

The above information is supplied by Dr. James Armstrong, Extension veterinarian.

Johnny Cash Film To Be Shown

The story is old, but the perspective is updated and brought into sharp focus by the film The Gospel Road to be shown on Sunday, July 11, at the Grassland Nazarene Church. The showing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

The Gospel Road, distributed by World Wide Pictures, was conceived and produced by Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash, whose desire was to tell the story of Jesus Christ in a realistic and meaningful way.

Future Independence Requires Energy Independence!

This nation, now celebrating its 200th birthday of independence, must, if it is to enjoy future independence, develop its own sources of energy.

Militarily, economically, and socially, this nation's people must not be humbled by dependence on foreign oil cartels, friendly or unfriendly.

Without our own basic energy sources, we face the loss of jobs because it takes energy to move the factory wheels. Without our own basic energy sources, we are but putty in the hands of foreign militarists who would not hesitate to destroy us. Without our own energy sources, the social gains of the past several years will be meaningless.

To properly develop our own energy sources is a complex job that will take time and money...but it's a job that must be done. It can be done by private enterprise working with the blessing and the cooperation of our government.

You can help by just simply understanding the need because that's the first step in solving the problem...the more people who understand and appreciate the need, obviously, the easier will be the massive job.

ED REDWINE, MAYOR LESLIE, JAMES ROBERTS, REPRESENTATIVE SHORT, JESSE DORMAN, MARY BETH MCKIBBEN, AND CHLOIE JAN WELLS turn the first shovels of dirt at the ground-breaking for the mini-park.

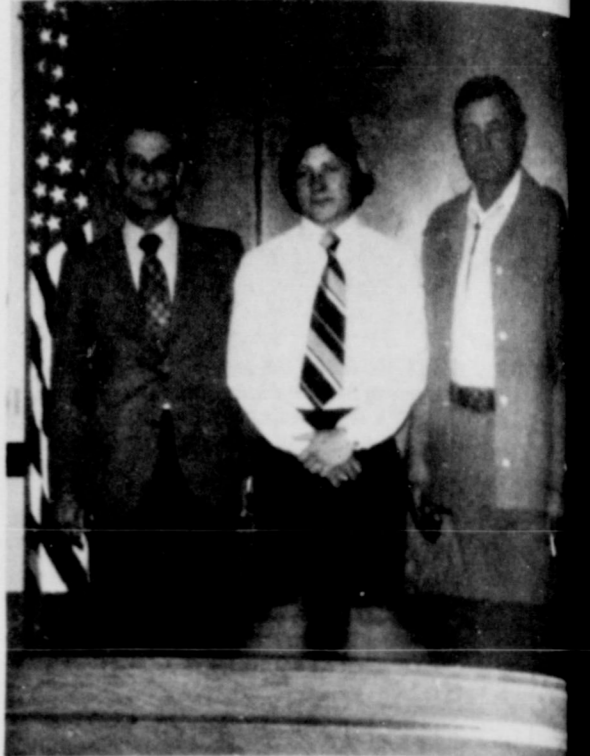

OUR CITY LIMIT MARKER bore the Bicentennial emblem.

Community Involved, Community United. . .

"Community Involved, Community United" was a phrase coined by Mrs. Jerry McKibben at the inception of the planning for Tahoka's Bicentennial activities. Little did she nor anyone else realize how true the phrase would prove to be more than a year later as the planned events became reality.

April 18, 1975 was the "Shot Heard Round the World Day" in Tahoka and the re-enactment of that historic event started the ball rolling. As a snowball gets larger the farther it rolls, so did the number of things happening begin to grow, as well as the number of citizens who were involved.

As time passed, other activities were unveiled—an art show with a Bicentennial Division, a Flag Wavers' page in the newspaper, a Safe Driving Course, essay contests, the beginning of a Bicentennial quilt, a Liberty Tree Dedication, to name only a few.

COUNTY JUDGE VERNON JONES, COLE BRECHER AND REPRESENTATIVE E.L. SHORT had a part in the Liberty Tree Dedication.

GERALD HUFFAKER and his "Thoroughly Muley" float won a first-place award.

General Chairman of the Tahoka Bicentennial Committee was Mrs. Jim Wells. Mrs. David Midkiff was the Heritage '76 Chairman, Dr. David Midkiff the Festival USA Chairman, and Mrs. Jerry McKibben was the Horizons '76 Chairman. Other members of the committee were: Mayor Meldon Leslie, John Ed Redwine, Mrs. F.B. Hegl, Lee Holden, Mrs. E.M. Walker, Mrs. O.C. Roberts, Mrs. Roosevelt Moore, Robert Abbe, Mrs. Robbie Roberson, Sheree Jerden, Mrs. Larry Pollard, Rev. Frank Oglesby, Mrs. Melvin Burks, Mrs. Mike Montemayor, Mrs. Jack Jaquess, and Mrs. P.B. Hallmark.

THE PANDA BEARS, Autumn Martin, Shelley Martin, Tish Shepherd, and Rochelle Reid, entertained at the Queen Contest.

PHEBE K. WARNER STUDY CLUB won a first place with their "We've Come A Long Way, Ladies" float.

TOWN CRIER MONTE DODSON is followed by the 4-H Horse Club, a first-place winner in the parade.

OLD GLORY waves proudly over Lynn County Courthouse during the parade.

THE LYNTEGAR ELECTRIC FLOAT was a first-place winner in the parade.

JIMMIE KNIGHT, ALTAH THOMAS, AND CONNIE SMITH had the best period costumes at the Bicentennial Queen Contest.

The climax of events came on June 26 and July 3rd and 4th, 1976 when a Bicentennial Queen was chosen, best period costumes were selected, and the town turned out for the best parade in the town's history. A picnic scheduled for Sunday afternoon was halted momentarily by inclement weather, but spirits were not dampened during the community worship service and fireworks display.

It is all a matter of record now, but the town will not soon forget the solemnity of the occasion and the tireless efforts of those who worked to promote a unified 200th birthday greeting to the United States of America.

THE BICENTENNIAL QUILT was won by Mrs. Fox, mother of Betty Owens. Betty's grand-daughter, Vickie, helped her display the quilt.

Idalia 'Dee' Money, Lovington, is the new Lea County Extension home economist, according to Ms. Mildred Latini, southern district supervisor for the New Mexico State University Cooperative Extension Service.

In her new position, Mrs. Money will provide leadership to home economics and related education programs for adults, Extension homemakers groups, special interest groups, and the general public.

Mrs. Money graduated from Baylor University with a bachelor of science in home economics education. She also completed some graduate courses at Colorado State University.

After completing her college studies, Mrs. Money worked six years with the Texas Extension Service as a home economist. She also served four years with the National Dairy Council.

Mrs. Money is the daughter of Justice of the Peace and Mrs. N.E. Wood, Sr. of Tahoka.

MR. & MRS. T.R. RIDDLE

Riddle Retires After Eighteen Years At Farmers Co-op

The inscription on a gold watch worn proudly by T.R. Riddle reads, "T.R. Riddle-1958 to 1976--Farmers Co-op."

Mr. Riddle was presented the watch along with the good wishes of his fellow employees at the 47th annual Farmers Co-op stockholders meeting on June 29. Mrs. Riddle received a dozen red roses.

The Riddles lived in Ellis County before moving to Tahoka more than twenty-five years ago. His eighteen years of service to the Cooperative have seen very little time lost due to illness. He was employed by John Witt Butane prior to his work at the Co-op.

Eight children, all of whom live in Texas except one at Carlsbad, and twenty grandchildren will help to occupy the Riddles' spare time. One daughter, Mrs. David (Pam) Martin, lives in Tahoka.

"I had worked all these years without a serious accident," said Riddle, "and felt that I needed to quit while I was ahead."

Birth

Bill and Debbie Burnes of Midland are the parents of a daughter born June 28, 1976. She has been named Jennifer and weighed 7 pounds, one-half ounce. She was 19 3/4 inches long.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnes are former Tahoka school teachers.

Mrs. Beulah Rutledge recently was paid a compliment and a tribute that any great-grandmother would cherish.

In the Lynn County Bicentennial Queen Contest on June 26, Melanie Terry wore a dress which her great-grandmother, fondly known to many people as "Bob", wore when she graduated from Howard Payne Junior College in 1913. As a tribute to her great-grandmother, Melanie wrote and read the following:

"To Bob, ... With Love"

Well, you see, she's never been a President or even a President's wife. She's always been just plain Bob, leading an active life.

It takes leaders, followers, and great-grandmothers and oh, so many more. To lead, guide, encourage, and teach us The way, the truth, the right.

She didn't fight in the Civil War The Boston Tea Party wasn't her cup of tea. The soldiers wear the scars, but it takes common folks too Like you and her and me.

So, dear Bob, even though you're not famous, you mean the world to me. What if you never had a son? What if your son never had a daughter? Where in the world would I be?

Mrs. Rutledge was the former Miss Beulah Skaggs and she married Jack Applewhite in 1914. She taught school in Mullin and the couple came to Tahoka in 1916, staying through 1918, and returned to Ballinger until 1922 when they came back to Tahoka.

Mr. Applewhite died in 1950 and "Bob" was married later to Oscar Rutledge who is also deceased.

Melanie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Terry.

A tempting offer on a gas grill.

Right now, we're making you a tempting offer on gas grills with twin burners! Independently controlled twin burners never use more gas than you need. For big meals, use both burners. For smaller meals, save gas and money by using one burner and half the grill. A gas grill adds a new dimension to family meals and entertaining. It eliminates the fuss and bother of cooking outside while it keeps the flavor and the fun. And, because you take cooking heat out of the house and the burden off your air conditioning, you save energy, too.

Buy one of these grills before August 1, 1976, and save.

This summer stop putting it off. Promise yourself this is one year you won't blow your vacation painting the house or getting the grass cut. You deserve more than that. After all, you work hard too. So really, what's your eye on? The mountains? The seashore? Maybe even Europe?

Rest easy. We can help you positively, whether you're going across the state or across the country. And we can help you have fun this summer in other ways too. Like buying that lake boat. Or getting that camping equipment.

Helping people is what we're good at. And we've been doing it successfully for a long time. We're ready. Are you?

Town Cleanup Big Success

"Our committee and Tahoka Chamber of Commerce sincerely appreciate the wonderful cooperation given by most citizens in the city-wide cleanup preparatory to the Bicentennial celebration," states George McCracken, chairman.

"We think you did a wonderful job," he continued.

The committee expressed hopes that citizens will continue to follow up on cleaning up the town and individual premises. There are still several eye-sores, some of which will be eliminated in the near future.

L.F. Jacobs of Bovina met his daughter, Becky, of Dallas for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill during the Fourth of July holidays.

THE CHAPEL CHOIR

Chapel Choir From Memphis Will Sing At First Baptist Church

The Chapel Choir from Colonial Baptist Church in Memphis Tennessee will be presenting a concert of sacred music at the First Baptist Church in Tahoka at 8 p.m. on Friday, July 16th.

The group, consisting of fifty young people of high school age, has presented concerts in many states and have been featured on the Tennessee Baptist Convention program. The Chapel Choir is one of eleven choirs in the choir program of three hundred. They perform an outstanding ministry in the church by singing at all of the evening worship services and almost every year they sing on tour and have sung in many of the southeastern, midwestern, and northeastern states.

The concert will include music by the masters, standard church music, contemporary, spirituals, patriotic, and folk music.

Also included on the program will be an English Handbell Choir and a girls' ensemble.

The choir is under the direction of Mr. Bill J. Choate, Minister of Music at the Memphis Church and who was Minister of Music at the First Baptist Church in Tahoka in 1960.

The public is invited and a nursery will be provided. Jimmy A. Turner is the pastor.

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Sheep Feeding Soars . . . Cattle Feeding Declines . . . Another Reminder.

Texas drylot sheep feeders with a capacity of 2,000 head or more had 83,000 sheep and lambs on feed for slaughter as of June 1; this is an increase of 77 per cent above a year ago and 46 per cent above last month.

Marketing intentions for July are 33,000 head; the August intentions are set at 8,000. These, however, are incomplete since additional lambs could be placed on feed and marketed during these months.

While sheep feeding is on the increase, a slight decrease in cattle on feed in Texas feedlots is reported by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

There are 1,570,000 head of cattle and calves on feed in the state which is 2 per cent below last month. The current estimate, however, is 39 per cent above a year ago.

In the seven major feeding states (Texas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska) cattle and calves on feed totaled 7,254,000 head. This is up 24 per cent from last year's record low, but is 8 per cent less than in 1974.

The 1,570,000 head on feed in Texas feedlots is 270,000 more than second-place Iowa.

ONCE AGAIN IT'S TIME TO REMIND livestock producers that their cooperation is needed in the screwworm eradication program.

Livestock producers are urged to submit suspected samples to the fly lab at Mission, to delay surgery on livestock as long as possible, and to treat wounds on livestock with approved screwworm-control remedies.

The numbers of screwworm cases continue to mount throughout the state. Cooperation is needed to keep the infestations at as low a level as possible.

MILK PRODUCTION IN TEXAS during May is 1 per cent above a year ago and 5 per cent above a month ago, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

Milk production per cow was 940 pounds, which is 70 pounds above a year ago. However, milk cow production in Texas was about 70 pounds under the nationwide average.

Nationwide, milk production is up 3.4 per cent from a year ago. The production per cow average of 1,011 pounds sets a record high.
