

Summertime Is Funtime For Tahoka Amateur Athletes

On your mark, get set, go...

Julie Roseberry, Pam Ashcraft, and Cara Monk (hardly visible) listen for instructions from Cloye Roseberry, Gerald Moore, Bryan Moore, and Roy Hinkle.

Gerald Moore, administrator of Lynn County Hospital, says it is partially a selfish motive that gets him to go to the football field four afternoons a week to coach youngsters of all ages who are interested in track and field events--his son is one of those youngsters.

And Roy Hinkle, Lyntegar Electric employee, may go because he is unattached and has no demands on him at home, but if the truth were known, both Moore and Hinkle have a liking for and interest in young people that causes them to give hours of their time during the week and to travel many miles on the weekend--for the young people of Tahoka.

Moore has worked with the Amateur Athletic Union and Texas Amateur Athletic Federation for some eight years, having worked with track events at Jacksboro before coming to Tahoka. Roy was a successful trackster in Tahoka High and at Lubbock Christian College. He has a rapport with young people that motivates them to perform in this area.

These men go to the football field Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings about 7:30 and spend time with interested young people.

Moore says it is not a strictly regimented thing--children are encouraged to go on with other activities and participate in track when they can. "Track is an individual sport, like tennis," says Moore, "therefore, it's strictly up to the individual as to how well he will perform."

Tahoka is not affiliated with A.A.U., but is a member of T.A.A.F. At any track meet, however, participants can run without being A.A.U. affiliated.

One drawback to West Texas is the great distances one must travel to a meet. In some places, the city or the school sponsors the events, but in Tahoka the parents and/or interested persons provide transportation to the meets. Tahoka has from twelve to fifteen youngsters who participate regularly.

Generally speaking, there are five divisions at a meet--nine years of age and under, ten and eleven-year-olds, twelve and thirteen-year-olds, fourteen and fifteen-year-olds, and sixteen through high school eligibility. Also, most meets will have an open division.

In the meet at Lubbock's Chapman Field last Saturday, twelve Tahoka youngsters and one adult competed in the T.A.A.F. Regional Track and Field Meet. "Roy Hinkle came out of retirement and once again experienced the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat," cited Moore.

In the ten and eleven-year-old girls category, Becky Pinkston, Cara Monk, Julie Roseberry, and Pam Ashcraft won third place in the 440-yard relay with a time of 63.5. In the high jump, Becky Pinkston won third place with a jump of 4'2". Julie Roseberry won fourth place and Pam Ashcraft won fifth place.

Teresa Arellano won third place in the 80-yard low hurdles with the time of 15.5 in the twelve and thirteen-year-old girls category.

In the ten and eleven-year-old boys division, Thomas Young, Mike Rivas, and two boys from Plains won third in the 440-yard relay with the time of 64.0.

Bryan Moore, in the fourteen and fifteen-year-old division, won second in the 220-yard dash with the time of 24.6 and fourth in the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.6.

Cloye Roseberry won sixth place in the 440-yard dash in the fourteen and fifteen-year-old division.

Leslie White won first place in the high jump with a jump of 6 feet and he won fourth place in the 220-yard dash with the time of 25.0. Leslie was in the sixteen and seventeen-year-old boys division.

In the open division, Roy Hinkle won third place in the 220-yard dash with the time of 25.9.

The first three winners in each event will compete in the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation State Championship Meet at Dallas on July 23rd and 24th.

Mark Hawthorne broke the West Texas A.A.U. high jump record in Borger on July 10 and will be competing against youngsters from several states in Region IX of the A.A.U. at Pasadena, Texas on July 24.

The Spectator...

By Mary Brecheen

Tomlinson will be sorely missed by his sisters, brothers, nieces, and nephews; I am sure that his presence will be missed most by the residents of Colonial Nursing Home and by those who have occasion to go there on a regular basis.

It was, in my feeble way of saying it, a "quiet" one who went about his business unnoticed and didn't cause much of a stir when he was around. The most memorable thing about him was his sincere, sweet smile--whether he felt good or not.

One will remember Jim for his trips to town on his three-wheeled cycle. He was a plain man, one of those folks loved.

He kept the grounds at the rest home--even had a garden. It was a boost to my morale to greet and be greeted by Jim every day.

He was the kind of man who made an impression that was good.

My name is Jimmy Carter and I'm running for president.

That statement just has something that makes me think that the speaker must surely have taken lessons from Abe Lincoln--straightforward, bold, fearless of nothing--anyway you want to describe it.

I think Jimmy Carter really does know some things we know--I'll bet he knows the smell of freshly plowed ground and the feel of the cold bed because only one room of his house was warm in the winter (the front room). And I'm sure he has taken his lunch to school--lunch that was biscuit with some sausage in it. He probably knows the sincerity of small-town folks and at the same time, he knows the curiosity of such folks.

Like him because he even pronounces (or mispronounces) words the same as I do! Did you know that he says "de-po, long e and accent on the first syllable, meaning a train station?"

Some folks say "dep-o, short e. And he says "de-privatation", long e, meaning having to do without. Proper folks say "de-privatation", short e, meaning having to do without. And proper folks don't know the significance of doing without.

The point is, he seems to be a sensible, down-to-earth man, but he is asking us to put him in a position that cries for knowledge, wisdom, and experience that few people have.

He is not a knowledgeable person, but even I can see that we'd best weigh the matter carefully before, during, and after the Republican primary election when we have more facts to muddy the picture.

We need to know, beyond a reasonable doubt, if we can take the reins of our country and guide it to a straighter, better-marked trail.

Chamber Members Hear Crime Prevention Presentation

Forty-one Chamber of Commerce members attended a 6:30 breakfast meeting on Tuesday and heard a presentation on lock safety and premise protection by Vernon Redwine and David Renfro, police officers from Brownfield.

According to the officers, locks and lighting are the best facets of crime prevention. "I'm not in the lock business, but if I can help prevent one burglary (with this presentation), it's worth my time," said Redwine, a Tahoka native who has been a lawman in Brownfield for six years.

Chamber President H. B. McCord, Jr. asked Dwain Lusk to report on the status of a housing project in Tahoka. According to Lusk,

$10,775 Grant Is Confirmed For City Park

Senator Lloyd Bentsen said on Wednesday, July 14, that he has been informed by the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation that a grant has been awarded to the City of Tahoka for development of Tahoka City Park.

continuous clean-up efforts of citizens and Gerald Moore reported to the group regarding a fall harvest festival.

The business whose name was drawn for the cash prize was not represented; therefore, the drawing at the August meeting will be held in August.

Dwain Lusk then explained the new Chamber housing program, now in the hands of Tahoka Industrial Housing Association, whereby two blocks of the Mrs. VanDyke property in northwest Tahoka has been acquired for the project by Winston Wharton, McCord, and Bryan Wright.

With help from Bill Stewart of Farmers Home Administration, application is now being processed for a $180,787 FHA loan bearing three percent interest to build twelve modern brick duplex units, the loan to be repaid in forty years.

This is not a low-rent project, but is badly needed for teachers, nurses, and others, some of whom have to live in Lubbock or elsewhere and drive here to work because of a shortage of suitable rental houses.

Unlike local low-rent units, these units will be separated to allow more space for yards and are expected to rent for about $115 for one bedroom and $135 for two-bedroom units.

Stewart and Harold Roberts also spoke briefly on the project.

The $10,775 grant, first thought to be $9,375, will be matched by an equal amount in local funds.

Plans call for the city to use the funds to construct a playground, a lighted tennis court and a fountain, and install picnic units, shelters, and lighting at the park, as detailed in last week's edition of The News.

Sherry Etheredge Says

Smoke-Detector Alarms Protect Homes

An investment of less than $50, families can have an early warning fire alarm system in their homes, Lynn Etheredge, a resource management specialist, says.

Smoke-detector alarms are increasingly popular. Every fire department can relate stories of how they had only minutes to get to the fire sooner.

Lynn Etheredge is with the Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A & M University.

Ordinances and codes are being updated and revised to require smoke-detector in new homes, homes for VA loans and in older homes on the housing program, she added.

There are two basic types of smoke-detectors exist. "Battery-operated models are assured to operate when the fire is electrical or occurs during a blackout. But they require regular battery checks. All provide a warning that sounds when the battery's power reduces. Because a separate electrical circuit is not required, they may be the least expensive type to install.

"Electrical-powered models are of two designs. One plus into a 110-volt outlet. The other is wired directly to prevent it from being accidentally unplugged and to avoid the use of its outlet for another purpose.

"Installation instructions recommend a separate circuit be used. This prevents overloads and other circuit-breaking events from cutting off power. These models also can be installed easily if adequate power is available," she explained.

Smoke-detectors are different from heat detectors.

Three Tahoka Ladies Tour Historical Spots

Dorothy Kidwell, Trudy Schuknecht, and Leona Holden recently toured Louisiana, Mississippi, and Arkansas and have related to The News the highlights of their trip.

The first night was spent in Shreveport, Louisiana and two nights were spent in Vicksburg, Mississippi where they toured the National Military Park. Of special interest to the ladies were the exhibits relating to the siege of Vicksburg during the spring and summer of 1863.

Also of interest in the park were the various memorials erected by states as dedications to men from those states who were killed during the siege of Vicksburg.

Mrs. Holden stated, of interest to many people, that Vicksburg National Cemetery is the largest Civil War Cemetery in North America.

Of the nine memorials visited by the Tahoka ladies, they were told that Texas' memorial was one of the newest.

The next stop was Natchez, Mississippi where they toured Stanton Hall, a mansion built in 1858. Also, they toured the home of Mrs. Charles J. Byrne, a member of the Pilgrimage Garden Club, whose home was known as Cherokee. Mrs. Holden said their guide, a maid to Mrs. Byrne, gave each member of the group a gardenia.

Mrs. Holden also said that The Matchez Pilgrimage Tour Association invites the lovers of history and romantic traditions to step into the past for an enchanted visit by touring the azalea and camelia gardens. Natchez has become a mecca for persons wishing to travel backward in time to important eras in New World history. It is the oldest settlement on the Mississippi River and today their huge mansions exist much like tombstone monuments to an era gone forever.

A highlight of the Natchez stay was a tour on the Natchez Trace, "the way God meant highways to be," a Mississippi matron said recently. It is one of the most scenic drives in America, having limited access and commercial vehicles and with advertising prohibited. Long before white men set foot on Mississippi soil, the Natchez Trace was a well established trail through the wilderness. Village sites along the Trace point to heavy traffic by Indians as early as 8,000 years ago. The path is a National Parkway, maintained by the National Park Service under the Department of the Interior.

Pine Bluff, Arkansas was one of the stops made on their way home. They also visited the Pythian Retirement Home in Gainesville, the Pythian Home at Weatherford, and Mrs. Eunice Michael in Rochester.

According to Mrs. Holden, it was a most memorable trip for all three.

The News felt that these three ladies would be excellent resource persons for a class studying Civil War history.

Ladies Golf Association Met July 20

The T-Bar Ladies Golf Association met Tuesday for their regular monthly luncheon, business meeting, and play day with twenty members present.

President Mary Louder was in charge of the business meeting and Secretary Doris Ashcraft reported that the greens mower purchased by the ladies had been paid for. Money from the play day on July 4th was applied to the cost of the mower. All bills are paid and there is money in the bank, reported Mrs. Ashcraft.

Vinita Hamilton, in a report on the Ladies Partnership coming up in August, asked that ladies who are interested in participating in the play day contact her. It was felt that because the play day last summer was successful, members wished to have another if interest warranted doing so. Members of the Ladies Golf Association are asked to invite an out-of-town golfer for the day of golf and fun.

Also, members of the Golf Association are reminded that the third Tuesday of each month is the day for the luncheon and play day.

Nancy Tuttle was introduced as a new member of the Ladies Golf Association.

Smoke-detectors can sense fumes from combustion before smoke may be visible and before the temperature of the fire is high enough to trigger a heat or flame detector alarm, she explained.

Service Is Offered For Disabled

A new service for disabled Texas children and adults, called "Easter Seal Action of Line", has been initiated by the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. Easter Seal Action Line's 24-hour, toll-free number, 1-800-492-5555 can be used by disabled persons and their families to obtain information regarding help they need.

William E. Russell, Executive Director for the Texas Easter Seal Society, reports, "Many people, especially in the rural areas, don't realize how many services are available for the handicapped today." The Easter Seal Action Line is designed to serve as a link between the handicapped and those services. With just a phone call, persons can receive that assistance in helping them to locate service they need, where it can be obtained, and who can provide it for them.

Among the many services available through the Texas Easter Seal Society Action Line are speech, physical, and occupation therapies, evaluations, purchase of needed orthopedic equipment, all of which require a medical doctor's authorization. The Texas Easter Seal Society pledges to make every effort to locate the needed service if that service is offered in the State of Texas. The Texas Easter Seal Society makes these services available to the handicapped of all ages. Any handicapped person or anyone who knows a handicapped person who needs help in locating a needed service is urged to call the toll-free Easter Seal Action Line, 1-800-492-5555, day or night, seven days a week.

Blood Donors Badly Needed In Summer

Family vacations and other summertime activities, school recesses, and reduction in mobile blood drives due to employees' vacation schedules, all serve to decrease the number of available donors, according to John T. Guthrie, director of Blood Services in Lubbock.

Blood Services, the community blood center serving Lubbock, the South Plains, and Eastern New Mexico, is urging summer vacationers to include voluntary blood donations among their list of pre-travel activities, a means of providing security toward the family's safe and enjoyable vacation.

Persons wishing to donate should contact the local community blood center, Blood Services of Lubbock, by calling 763-0428.

Phebe K. Warner Study Club in Tahoka arranged for twenty-six donors of blood for Blood Services in May of 1976. Mrs. Elmer Owens coordinated the local project.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS....

Area 4-Hers To Tour Washington, D.C.

About 16 4-Hers will join other young Texans in Dallas July 27 to embark on a heritage tour to Washington, D.C. and points in between. They will be participating in a six-day National 4-H Citizenship Short Course in the nation's capital.

The delegation will include two girls from Lynn County, Sheree Jerden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Dunlap, and Denise Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Curry.

Accompanying the group will be one adult leader, Mrs. Rinda Allison of Stratford.

In all, the trip will cover fifteen days travel to and from the nation's capital, by charter bus.

4-H members entering their junior or senior year in high school next school term are eligible.

The thirty-five Texas youth and their leaders will leave Dallas July 28, arriving in Washington August 1. The excursion will take them through Mississippi, Tennessee, and Virginia, with visits to historical sites in Washington, D.C. and other points.

In Washington, they will participate with other youth from throughout the nation in a six-day citizenship short course. The program is designed to supplement the citizenship education and leadership development training young people receive through the home, school, church, and other organizations.

Citizenship short courses are conducted at the National 4-H Foundation in Washington. Topics relating to the individual's concept and responsibilities of citizenship are covered in assemblies and opportunity sessions at the center.

Learning experiences are gained through visits to operational centers of many branches of government and to memorial centers in the nation's capital.

Tops on the agenda of the 4-Hers will be a visit with their local Congressman.

They will return by way of Kingsport, Nashville, and Memphis, Tennessee, touring other historical sites enroute home. The group will return to Dallas August 10.

dealers, etc. by the United States Department of Agriculture, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the USDA's Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock, reported the top four varieties by percentages are Stripper 31, 14 percent; GSA 71, 11 percent; Paymaster 18, 10 percent; and Paymaster 909, 9 percent.

Screwworms Invade Plains Counties

Lynn County was one of the seventeen counties in this region to count their first case of screwworms in 1976, according to Dr. M.E. Meadows of the USDA's Screwworm Eradication Program in Mission.

During June, 2,305 infestations were recorded in 102 counties. The parasite has been recorded in almost all Edwards Plateau and Hill Country counties and is steadily moving northward into Plains counties. To date, Armstrong is the most northerly county to submit a positive sample.

The 1,420,200 bale cotton crop on the High Plains in 1975 came from 2,444,750 harvested acres. The poor 279 pound per acre yield, largely the result of freakishly low temperatures in mid-September, was the third lowest yield since 1952. The yield was only 54% of the all-time high of 513 pounds per acre set in 1965, and total production was less than half of the 1973 record of 2,888,700 bales.

In grade, the crop was 26% White, 62% Light Spot and 11% Spot, as compared to 50% White, 44% Light Spot and 6% Spot from the crop of 1974.

Staple length for the 1975 season averaged 30.3 thirty-seconds of an inch, significantly shorter than the previous years 31.7 thirty-seconds average. Only 15.7% of the 1975 crop stapled one inch or longer, compared to 49.3% of the 1974 crop.

Micronaire average for 1975 came to 3.00, slightly below the 3.07 of 1974 and well below the area's 10-year average of 3.4. 11.7% of the 1975 crop had micronaire readings of 3.5 and above, as compared to 22.9% for the 1974 crop.

Pressley, or fiber strength (zero gauge) averaged 83,120 pounds PSI on the 1975 crop with 95.9% 75,000 pounds and above. Corresponding figures for the 1974 season were 81,410 PSI and 92.5%.

Elongation--the percentage of stretch a given cotton will experience before breaking--averaged 7.2% for 1975, a little below the 7.5% of 1974.

As an era of cheap energy and energy independence faded for America, Lynn County's 1975 crude oil and natural gas production became more significant to Texas and the United States than at any time since production began in 1950.

Lynn was one of 200 Texas counties which produced oil and gas with a market value in excess of $100,000 last year, an increase of three over the 1974 total and seven more than in 1973. The county ranked 177th in the state in the total value of petroleum produced, realizing $1.6 million from the sale of 196,896 barrels of crude oil; $31,429 from the sale of 64,010 MCF of natural gas. The county's royalty owners last year received $196,887.

In addition to paying local school and county property taxes, county producers also contributed to the support of state government with production tax payments totaling $73,366-$71,009 paid on oil output; $2357 on gas production.

where a state president was elected by members of the ten areas over Texas.

Lynn County farmers placed eighth in 1975 Texas cowpea production with a crop totaling 293,000 pounds. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported.

County farmers harvested 800 acres with a yield of 366 pounds of dry peas per acre.

Texas production was some 6.4 million pounds of dry peas and 3.2 million pounds of green peas.

Dawson County led the state in production with a crop of 911,000 pounds.

Complete figures for Texas field crops have been compiled in the "1975 Texas Field Crops Statistics". Copies may be obtained by writing Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

LYNN COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE feels a system of parallel terraces serves three purposes: conserve soil and water, to hold rainfall where it falls, and increase yields. Lynn County SCS has sold parallel terraces in this county eleven years and over one million feet built in Lynn County during the last terrace season. For information, see the SCS Office in Tahoka.

in Big Spring on July 23, 1976. The hearing will be held in the City Council Chambers and will begin at 10 a.m. and again at 2 p.m.

year in military service. Approximately 1600 vocational agriculture teachers and friends are expected to attend the Fort Worth meeting when the award will be presented during the Association Awards Program which is held during the statewide in-service education workshop vacational agriculture teachers August 2-6. Leaders in agriculture education throughout the state will participate in the four-day meeting. These members have won their share of banners and awards presented by showing Grand Champion steers and hogs in the county show and Grand Champion Steer at South Plains Livestock Show in Lubbock. ## ATTITUDE TOWARD GOD ATTITUDE TOWARD HIS WORD

In our time of religious confusion, time spent in Bible study is rapidly diminishing. Both addition and subtraction from God's word changes truth into a lie.

In-depth Bible study resulting in improved knowledge has never added to religious confusion. It enhances one's ability to recognize sound doctrine. Bible students, myself included, often cease to study in a certain area because we think we understand the truth in that area beyond any doubt. It is at this point that we cease to be students of truth and become prime candidates for Satan's bondage.

Let it be thoroughly understood that I do not contend that truth is hard to understand. It can be understood and held fast. (John 8:31-32; 2 Tim. 2:13-17; 1 Cor. 15:1-2). It is impossible to overemphasize knowledge gained through open-minded Bible study when our souls are at stake and all eternity before us. Every religious division that has ever come about could have been prevented if faith and practice had been measured by Scripture. Though we may think we have truth beyond any doubt, we need to continue to search the Scriptures daily. Our faith is fruitless unless it is rooted in God's Holy Word. Read of the Bereans in Acts 17:10-11.

Unity as Christ prayed for in John 17:17-23 is not interdenominational. It is a non-denominational Christ-centered unity attained only through honest study and an attitude which reflects a desire of obedience. Without knowledge we are "carried about by every wind of doctrine." We must give up carnal loyalty to pastors, evangelists, denominations, and family in favor of loyalty to Jesus Christ and His Word. The way to begin is by studying to show ourselves approved. (2 Tim. 2:15).

It seems as though many are afraid to have their preconceived established views of the Bible challenged. If we have the truth, shouldn't we tell others as Jesus commanded in Matt. 28:19-20? If we do not have the truth, shouldn't we welcome the opportunity to learn and be set free? (John 8:31-32).

Our attitude toward the scriptures will determine where we will spend eternity. We must break the mold of man-made faith and dare to study and reason together. When a group of people are found thinking exactly alike, one person is likely doing all the thinking. This type of conformity can only be justified when Christ is that "one person" or head. (Matt. 28:18; Eph. 1:22). There is not a better way to measure one's attitude toward God than by his attitude toward the scriptures. If he is loyal to one, he will be loyal to the other. (1 John 2:3-5).
