City Crews To Pick Up Tree Limbs

Tahoka City Administrator Ray Mason has announced again that city residents are not to put rocks, tree limbs, dirt, metal, etc. in the dumpsters. He says that at least one dumpster has had a large amount of dirt put in it, making it impossible for the truck to lift.

Next week—Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of May, the city trucks will pick up tree limbs, old bicycles, etc. that cannot be put in the dumpsters. Citizens are asked to place all such in the alley for pickup.

A letter dated April 8, 1977 to Mrs. Connie Hallmark reads, "You are hereby notified to appear for a hearing on your petition for naturalization on April 28, 1977..."

The letter was a long-awaited culmination of events which had their beginning, really, in 1937 in the Philippine Islands.

Consolacion Cruz was born August 28 that year in a small town twenty minutes out of Manila—Las Pinas Rizal. Her childhood may have been normal for the Philippine, but certainly not the typical American-born child. You see, she survived, and can tell graphic stories of the bombings during World War II.

As a young lady, she was employed as a switchboard operator at Subic Naval Base where she met an American, Pierce Hallmark. They were married in July of 1961 and to them were born two children—Alma, in July of '62, and Harvey, in 1966.

Her first trip to the United States, and Tahoka, was to meet her husband's relatives, in 1963, and it wasn't until 1972, in July, that the family came to the States to make their home.

In late 1973, the Hallmarks made a trip to the Immigration Office in Dallas to become acquainted with the steps that Mrs. Hallmark must take in order to become an American citizen.

The first requirement was that she live in the United States for three years—time would take care of that.

Another requirement was that she be able to speak and write English. That too was no problem because she had done both since her childhood.

Then there was a packet which contained a booklet outlining all necessary requirements, a petition for naturalization, and many more forms. She began a file—so that nothing would be overlooked.

On still another trip to Dallas, the Hallmarks delivered personally to the Immigration Office both of their birth certificates, their marriage contract, her passport number, her alien registration card number, photographs, fingerprint chart, and biographic information.

She had to become thoroughly familiar with the United States Constitution and was given a test over it, at the Federal Building in Lubbock.

The time got closer. The Dallas office notified her that she would appear for an interview on December 13, 1976, at Lubbock's Federal Building. At that time, an examiner for the Immigration Service asked her questions—about the President, Gerald Ford, and about the Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger. She even had to prove she could read and write English.

Nadine Dunlap will be chairperson and coordinator of the fun weekend, sponsored by the Chamberettes, to be held in conjunction with the Lynn County Old Settlers Reunion the last weekend in June in Tahoka.

At a meeting on Monday night of this week in the Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room, plans got underway as Mrs. Dunlap appointed committee chairpersons.

Little Dribblers Has Change In Schedule

Junior and senior teams in Little Dribblers who would normally play on Friday night, April 29, will not play at that time, due to a conflict with the senior play.

The regularly scheduled games will be played on Monday night, May 2, at 7 and 8 o'clock.

Rodeo Queen Contestants Announced

At the recent meeting of the Tahoka Rodeo Association, the following names of rodeo queen contestants were announced:

Shetea Jorden, 19, senior at Tahoka High, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Dunlap; Dru Ann Dockery, 17, junior at Tahoka High, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dockery; "Sissy" Guin, 16, sophomore at Tahoka High, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Son" Guin; and Donette Hancock, 15, sophomore at New Home High, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hancock.

Also, at the meeting, the Rodeo Association voted to have a Tie Down Calf Roping for members only and a buckle will be given to the average winner. Any association member wishing to enter the Membership Roping may do so by contacting Sherry McNeely, Route 4, Tahoka.

Then the big day finally arrived. Today, April 28, she becomes a citizen of the United States. Her children, now a 9th grader and a 5th grader, and her husband and other relatives will be with her in the Federal Courtroom in Lubbock to help her rejoice in a great attainment.

The weekend celebration will begin on Friday night, June 24th, with a community talent show, arranged and coordinated by Rhonda Reid.

Sherry Tilley will be in charge of the parade, set for 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 25th, to follow the traditional Old Settlers get-together at mid-morning through the noon meal that day.

Jeannie Stice will relegate booth space to those who want such, to sell refreshments after the parade and again on Sunday afternoon at the 3 o'clock outing on the football field.

At the Sunday afternoon event, Ray Mason and Don Boydston will be in charge of the games and contests and Mrs. Bettye Green, Jim Turner, and Frank Oglesby will coordinate a worship service at 8 p.m., to close the activities.

Jo Carol Long is in charge of publicity for all the events.

Those attending the meeting on Monday night were Rudy Johnston, Dora Moore, Margie Craig, Pam Womack, Mrs. Long, Gary White, Virginia House, Mrs. Stice, Miss Tilley, Mrs. Dunlap, and Mary Brecheen.

The various committees will meet again on Monday, May 16, at 8 p.m., said Mrs. Dunlap.

Little League Clean-Up Day Is Saturday

Tommy Lawson, Tahoka's Little League president, has announced that a work day has been set aside to clean up the Little League park—Saturday, April 30, at 10 a.m.

Lawson extends a "cordial invitation" to all Little League parents to attend the work session.

He says, "We need to shape things up and get ready to kick off the greatest Little League season in the history of Tahoka."

Beef Producers Told Of Plans To Finance Research Program

Marvin Sartin, area economist-management specialist from the Lubbock Agricultural Research and Extension Center, met with beef producers and other interested parties on Monday night of this week in the Lyntegar Meeting Room to

O'Donnell Has Senior Citizen Headquarters

On April 3rd, O'Donnell Senior Citizens had open house at their new building, the former Jackson building in the north part of town.

More than 150 people registered at the event and many have visited since the 3rd. Labor was donated to renovate the interior of the building and carpet has been laid throughout.

Reliable sources say this is now the "fun place" of O'Donnell, open Monday through Friday from 1 to 6 p.m. and on Saturday from 2 to 6 p.m. Refreshments are always available.

Birthday Luncheon Scheduled

The first birthday party, a covered dish luncheon, will honor all who had birthdays in April and will be Friday, April 29, at noon at the center.

tell of financing plans for the proposed Beef Research and Information Program.

The Act is Public Law 94-294 and is enabling legislation similar to that for wheat, potatoes, cotton, and eggs. "Funds would come from assessments on producers' receipts from sales of cattle," he explained.

The law sets a maximum check-off assessment rate of one-half of one percent (0.5 percent) of the live animal value, but for the first three years, the rate has been set at three-tenths of one percent. The funds would be collected according to a "value-added concept," that would assess all sellers in the marketing chain. The concept is similar to that of "pencil shrink."

However, Sartin said, sales of breeding cattle may be exempt until the animals are sold for slaughter.

The initial purchaser in the marketing chain would deduct the amount of assessment from his payment to the original owner. Each succeeding purchaser would deduct an assessment based on the current market value, representing an amount equal to the previous assessment plus an added assessment resulting from the animal's increased value during the seller's period of ownership.

"The purchaser at the point of slaughter would remit the assessment to the Beef Board, as proposed in the Act," he said. Consequently, packers would be responsible for maintaining records of the transactions, deducting the assessment

Garden Club Donates To City Park Fund

Tahoka Garden Club, in its business meeting on April 19, voted to make a donation to the Mini-Park Landscape Fund in memory of Dorman Gandy, Precinct Two Commissioner who was fatally injured on April 7th.

The Spectator...

By Mary Brecheen

Some people can actually remember the stitched wall hanging which read something "Home Sweet Home" or "God Bless This Home" or "The Man Is Head Of This Family."

And there are a few who have seen pictures of "decorations" in the latest home-decoration magazine—you know, something to complement the fashioned decor.

And believe it or not, there are people who don't have any idea what I'm talking about. I have seen a generation (now present or soon to be) who will identify readily with a poem which got my attention:

For this and that and various things
It seems that men must get together,
To purchase cups or diamond rings
Or to discuss the price of leather.
From nine to ten, or two or three,
Or any hour that's fast and fleeting,
There is a constant call for me
To go to some committee meeting.

The church has serious work to do,
The lodge and club have need of workers,
They ask for just an hour or two—
Surely I will not join the shirkers?
Though I have duties of my own
I should not drop before completing
There comes the call by telephone
To go to some committee meeting.

No longer may I eat my lunch
In quietude and contemplation;
I must foregather with the bunch
To raise a fund to save the nation.
And I must talk of plans and schemes
The while a scanty meal I'm eating,
Until I vow today it seems
My life is one committee meeting.

When over me the night shall fall,
And my poor soul goes upward winging
Unto that heavenly realm, where all
Is bright with joy and gay with singing
I hope to hear my Father say—
And I shall thank him for the greeting:
"Come in and rest from day to day;
Here there is no committee meeting."

Committees are a sign of progress and there are ground rules to follow when you are once in committee set.

Before you go to a meeting, make a list of all the things you can't be chairman of a sub-committee. Prevent you forget your list (which you wrote back of your child's report card that, by the way you had been carrying as a reminder to "call reference with that teacher"), there is a technique you can employ which may save the day. When the committee (the original one) man is asking for volunteers, don't dare look on. Write on something as if the fate of the world depended on what you were thinking and saying.

At that time, Chair Person is asking for a man of the sub-sub-committee and the thing you do here is change the subject—ask about the price of crepe paper used on the Arbor Day in the parade two years ago—anything stupid enough to give the notion that you are simply not a committee-chairman material.

Another foolproof technique is to strike up a conversation with the person sitting next to you about something so serious that Chair Person would not possibly be so rude as to interrupt.

Now, Chair Person needs help with sub-sub-committees and anybody is smart enough to know those don't take much time and if you work it just right, your little assignments will slip in the shuffle.

the Beef Board.

Provisions of the Act also allow for producers not wishing to participate in the program to request and receive a refund upon application to the Beef Board. To qualify for this refund, however, the request must be made in writing and sent—along with a copy of the sales slip—within a 60-day period after the end of the month in which the assessment was paid.

Based on an expected beginning assessment rate of 0.3 percent of the value of each animal slaughtered, nearly $40 million would be generated in the program's first year of operation.

Those attending the Monday night meeting are Boyd Barnes, County Agent Bill Griffin, Mayor Mel Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartley, Dwain Lusk, Mrs. Mary Brecheen, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wells, George Claud Wells, Bertice Askew, Robert Harvick, and Tommy Lawson.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS....

parasite find entrance to the circulatory system of a susceptible animal, it county Extension agent explains. Large blood sucking flies--such as horse and deer flies--and in some areas, ticks help spread the disease.

Man also can infect animals through the use of such equipment as vaccinating needles, dehorning tools, nose tongs and the like. Every effort should be made to sterilize these tools before use, and as each animal is worked.

Any animal that has survived an attack of the disease may become a "carrier," from which biting insects may draw blood before biting other animals. Infection may be started in non-carriers when these animals are bitten and a small amount of the parasite-infected blood is injected. The biting insects are difficult to control by sprays or other control procedures.

Livestock producers who are aware of anaplasmosis problems in their areas should contact local veterinarians for advice on control programs to prevent the disease. A key to prevention is the identification of carrier animals in the herd. Blood from suspected carrier animals can be checked at a diagnostic laboratory for a confirmatory diagnosis of anaplasmosis or other diseases. The Texas Medical Diagnostic Laboratories are equipped to help diagnose this disease, working in cooperation with the local veterinarian.

Control measures that livestock owners can practice include testing and segregating "carriers" from other cattle, testing and treating infected animals to prevent spread of disease, vaccinating prior to the season when vectors can spread the disease, and low-level feeding of antibiotics during the insect season to help prevent the disease and reduce severity of new cases.

"WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN," says Girl Scout Troop #396, in the process of cleaning the park by the swimming pool. Left to right are Teresa Arellano, Lani Brown, Amy Porterfield, Cathy Meeks, and Suzanne Brooks.

Girl Scout Troop #396 Dreams Of Trip To Disneyland Soon

Girl Scout Troop #396 in Tahoka has been in existence seven years, starting out with twenty-two girls and having fifteen active members at the present. Sources say that is the longest period of time any troop has remained together in the history of Girl Scouts in Tahoka.

Because of conflicting activities in the girls' schedules, the troop will disband at the end of this school year and Scouts and sponsors are working to earn funds to finance a dream--a trip by chartered bus to Disneyland.

In the past seven years, the troop has performed civic duties which included cleaning parks, painting downtown trash cans, making flag ceremonies, making decorations for hospital trays, making place favors for Years of Wisdom luncheon, to name a few. They have also prepared skits and songs and presented them at club meetings such as Rotary and Phebe K. Warner Study Club.

Money-making projects have included selling calendars, having garage sales, etc. to earn money for a trip to Six Flags last year. Currently, they have sold calendars, had a bazaar, a bake sale, and a garage sale to earn funds for the Disneyland trip.

This being the last year together, leaders say they would like to see this dream come true and also to be able to teach the girls to work for what they want.

During the next four weeks, members of Troop #396 will be knocking on doors, looking for odd jobs or asking persons to donate coke bottles--another way to finance the Disneyland dream. Individuals may call 998-5060 or 998-4154 to have work done by the troop.

The troop will also have a booth at the Rodeo Arena where they will be selling homemade ice cream and other goodies.

Crop and Livestock Reports Asked Of Farmers, Ranchers

During late May and June, many Texas farmers and ranchers will receive a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be personally interviewed by the Service's field staff. This is part of the continuous effort of keeping track of Texas' biggest business--agriculture.

The information gathered through the questionnaires and interviews provides the basis for determining the acreage devoted to the various crops and midyear livestock numbers for the State of Texas and for each county.

Reliable information on what is produced, how much, and where is important to farmers, ranchers, and others in making production and marketing decisions and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.

Cooperation by producers is the key to all crop and livestock estimates. Farmers and ranchers have recognized the need for accurate and timely statistics by participation in the program since its start over a century ago. All individual farm and ranch information is kept confidential and only State and county summaries become part of the final published estimate.

This is a cooperative effort of the USDA's Statistical Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Sherry Etheredge Says

Many 4-H parents have asked questions regarding 4-H summer camping program for the upcoming summer months. The following information may help answer questions regarding the activity:

Who can attend 4-H Camp? Any 4-H Club member in the state of Texas between the ages of 10 and 19 years.

When are camp dates? July 10-13 for 12-14-year-olds; July 13-16 for 15 and older; July 17-20 for 12-14 years; July 24-27 for 12-14; July 27-29 for 10-11 years.

Where is the camp held? The Texas 4-H Center is located high on a hill overlooking beautiful Lake Brownwood in central Texas. It is located on 78 acres of wooded land. The center itself is composed of 10 housing units, a main services building, a swimming pool, and various activity buildings. A baseball field is a recent addition.

How much does it cost? The cost is $30. This includes all meals, lodging, evening refreshments, and accident insurance. Cost of the July 27-29 camp for 10-11-year-olds is $25.

What's happening at camp? Fishing, archery, gymnastics, hiking, swimming, crafts, music, folk games, and outdoor sports are just a few of the activities a 4-Her will be involved in at the Texas 4-H Center.

Who will be in charge? Qualified college-age counselors and resource teachers will conduct classes, and selected county extension agent-advisors will supervise campers at all times during their stay. In addition, a full-time staff will be on hand to see to the needs of 4-Hers. Lifeguards will be on duty during swimming times. There will be three good meals a day and snacks during the evening.

If a 4-Her is interested in attending camp, he must contact the county extension

The junior high student council had their annual slave sale on April 22 and earned $130.

Highest-paid slaves were Maritia Fowlkes, $44.46; Randall Stotts, $20; and Debbie Farr, $10.50. These were unusual as most slaves sold for two to four dollars.

Twenty-seven slaves were sold and some of the duties included cleaning out masters' lockers, carrying masters' books, pushing a penny down the hall with their noses, cleaning off masters' desk, and dusting teachers' and masters' chairs. It was a fun day for all.

High school student council election was held Tuesday. Eighth graders Randall Stotts, Sheri Tomlinson, Amy Porterfield, and Debby Gwin were honored to be named freshman representatives to the student council for the '77-78 school year.
