Horace Rogers may not know about the price of eggs in China, but he's pretty knowledgeable about the grocery business in Tahoka.

Actually, he has been in some facet of the food business the greater part of his life and his wife, Jewel, says he's even a good cook at home!

But one segment of that business came to an end recently when Rogers retired after a 26-year career with Piggly Wiggly grocery store in Tahoka.

He began working in that capacity in 1951, not a novice with food, certainly. It was in 1934 that he had his first "real job in town"—he was a fry cook for Milt Finch in a cafe on the west side of the square in Tahoka.

Following that introduction to the business world, he was employed by the late Vernon Davis in a cafe in 1935 and from 1936 to 1938, he worked at the Joe Bovell Bakery, at the present location of Echo's Beauty Salon.

From there, he went to Boyd Smith Auto Supply and was in that business until '51 when he became associated

County Has Fair Share Of Rain, Hail, Tornado Scares

Rains the past week have brought the May total precipitation in Tahoka to 2.67 inches until noon Tuesday and total for the year so far to 10.14 inches, according to the local observer for the National

Parts of the county, especially the southwest and eastern, report very heavy rains both Sunday and Monday nights of this week. Varying amounts have been reported from other areas of the county, but from every two in the Wilson vicinity, but no serious damage was reported.

Hail marble-size and larger pelted Tahoka on Thursday and again on Sunday night, damaging gardens and fruit.

More severe hail was reported in the Grassland area where stones from golfball-size up to baseball-size did considerable damage to cars, house roofs, and other property.

North of New Moore there was a severe hailstorm which covered the ground, beat up roofs, and destroyed crops that were just coming up.

There was other hail over the county, but not so severe, and most farmers who had planted will have to replant. However, except for the south part of the county, there was not too much cotton up.

Planting is being delayed longer than most farmers would like, but as one farmer declared, "I'd rather have June cotton than dry weather."

HORACE ROGERS 'CHECKS OUT' AS TAHOKA'S LONGTIME GROCERYMAN

Horace Rogers, one of the oldest of three children, was born at Post Oak, north of Jacksboro, to Will and Ethel Rogers and the family came to Lynn County in September of 1929. He attended school in the West Point community and at Tahoka before he was married to Miss Jewel Elmore in 1940. They have one son, Johnny, who is a resident of Canyon, and two grandchildren.

The ex-groceryman was stationed in various places in the states during his military service in World War II and his plans now are to visit other spots of interest. For a starter, he and his wife will go to Rotary International this summer in San Francisco.

"I've watched lots of children grow up in Tahoka," Rogers said. "One thing that amuses me is that over the years, the increase in the price of groceries has not greatly changed people's buying habits."

But from now on, he will be on the other side of the counter and has great plans to enjoy his retirement.

HORACE ROGERS begins his retirement in a good place—the porch swing at his home.

The Spectator...

By Mary Brecheen

Thursday afternoon Tahoka was given a lesson in "practicing what we preach" and many called miserably.

Instant replay would have shown pure chaos and utter chaos on the part of grown-ups who have been told many, many times that the safest thing to do in case of a tornado is off the streets and go to a place of safety.

Very few people who had been drilled on the procedures and who knew well how to cope with the situation were the victims of many who had no reason at all.

Without saying that we want our "chicks" to have "our wings" in such circumstances as we face ourselves, but the children are much safer. Earlier in the day on Thursday, the kids in North Elementary (and perhaps others which I am not aware of) had had a tornado drill and they knew what to do. Teachers and principals know they know the proper steps to take, and without a doubt, our children's safety is most in their minds.

Children were handicapped last Thursday by parents who rushed to school and caused even more anxiety within the children and who, by their actions, added to the teachers' already-serious problems. The children were certainly much safer in school buildings than in the hailstorm and congestion on the outside.

It might be well for parents to have some drills and if the real thing happens, at least the casualties won't be from automobile accidents.

Mr. Dodson did a good job as a substitute teacher at the junior high athletic banquet on Monday night of this week and he closed his remarks with a statement that I think bears a lot of weight. He said that the greatest gift we have is being able to make a choice.

Mr. Dodson has told me of his school-teacher mother and she will wager, first told him that maximum choice to him, she made him think she was giving him a choice of being a nobody or getting ahead on straight, but by her actions, she made him believe that the right road was that of doing something worthwhile in his head.

It is somewhat of a challenge to all of us as we live.

Home canning and food preservation time is around the corner. Steam pressure canners must be tested each year before use in order that the canner reaches the correct temperature. A canner testing clinic will be held on May 19 beginning at 10 until noon at Lyntegar Meeting Room, Tahoka. At this time, canners will be tested. The testing is sponsored by the Lynn County Home Demonstration Council. If you have a question concerning the canner testing, call the Home Extension Office at 44650.

Getting Your Equipment Ready
Steam-Pressure Canner
For safe operation of your canner, clean petcock and safety-valve openings by using a string or narrow strip of cloth through them. Do this at beginning of each season and often during the season.
Check pressure gage—an accurate pressure gage is necessary to get the correct pressing temperatures. Weigh gage needs to be weighed before use. Dial gage, old or new, should be checked before the beginning of the season, and also during the season if you use the canner often.

Home Canning Of Fruit and Vegetables
Organisms that cause food spoilage—molds, yeasts, and bacteria—are always present in the air, water, and soil. Changes that may cause undesirable changes in color, and texture are present in raw fruits and vegetables.

When you can fruits and vegetables, you heat them enough and long enough to destroy spoilage organisms. This heating (or processing) also stops the action of enzymes. Processing is done in either a water-bath canner or steam-pressure canner. Kind of canner that should be used depends on kind of food being canned.

Right Canner For Each Food
For fruits, tomatoes, and vegetables, use a water-bath canner. You can process these acid foods safely in boiling water. For all common vegetables except tomatoes, use a steam-pressure canner. To process these low-acid foods in a reasonable length of time takes a temperature higher than that of boiling water.

Pressure saucepan with an accurate pressure gage for setting pressure at 10 (240 degrees F.) may be used as a steam-pressure canner for vegetables in pint

Eighteen ladies were present and Thelma Dewbre and Zella Taylor were hostesses.

Monday, April 25th, eleven Lynn Temple Sisters attended the Lamesa meeting when Grand Chief Irma Lee Daniel of Mineral Wells made her official visit.

A lovely salad supper was served and a very nice evening was enjoyed by all. Lamesa's Temple presented a check for $1,000 to the Grand Chief for her project which is new beds and dressers for the middle girls' dormitory.

Lynn Temple #45 Pythian Sisters have been active this spring. They visited Friendship Temple in Lubbock and five sisters--Dorothy Kidwell, Trudy Schuknecht, Elnora Curry, Emma Halamick, and Clifford Tankersley--attended District 5 convention at Mineral Wells on Saturday, April 16th.

The convention was well attended as 95 ladies registered, including several dignitaries, Past Grand officers as well as Grand Line ones.

The meeting was lively and instructive, report the local ladies. Sunday, the Sisters toured the Texas Pythian Children's Home at Weatherford. The children were all gone to church, so regretfully, they missed seeing them.

The Sisters were shown through the home and came away with added determination to assist in any way possible the on-going of the great work being done for our children's home.

Today's primary-care physician is much more than a general practitioner (GP) of yesteryear. Today's doctor, now more of a family practitioner, generally trained in preventive medicine, internal medicine, surgery, orthopedics, pediatrics and human behavior. As a result of his training, he probably will see you as a person instead of a problem. Dr. Welby-like, his compassion will be as important to your well-being as his competence. His involvement with you as a person works to the advantage of both of you, and will result in the optimum care you expect from your primary-care physician. One of the things that's changing... for the best.

Junior Hi-Lites

BY AMY PORTERFIELD

Cheerleading tryouts were held May 3rd and 4th.

Girls were chosen by the student body and teachers, then judged by two Texas Tech cheerleaders. The scores were then averaged to get the winners.

Junior high cheerleaders for '77-78 will be Perry Dunlap, head; Andra Draper, Barbara Williamson, Melanie Terry, and alternate, Danette Phillips.

Eight-graders Amy Porterfield, Gloria Gutierrez, Lani Brown, and Martia Fowkes will be the new junior varsity cheerleaders for the '77-78 school year.

The junior high student council sponsored an activity day on May 6th. There was Pyramid Building, won by 7th grade; Mummy Wrapping, 7th grade; Tug of War, 8th grade; Volleyball, 7th; Obstacle Course, 8th; Arm Wrestling; Egg Catch; Hula Hoop; and last, but not least, Water Balloon and Shaving Cream Fights.

Most everyone went home that afternoon with shaving cream in his/her hair and wet clothes from being bombed by water balloons.

Miss Downey had a little fall in the mud to avoid being sprayed with shaving cream by Denise Dodson.

At the end of the day, the student council gave "special awards"—Biggest Mouth, Roddy Williams; Best Wiggler, Denise Ehlers; Star Player, Charles Bryson; Most Graceful, Debbie Jolly; Most Muscular, Jacky Jolly; and Most Co-ordinated, Richard Payne.

We appreciate Mrs. Virgin, Mrs. MacLuskey, and the FHA girls for their time in the concession stand.

On May 9th, junior high student council elections were held for the '77-78 school year. Roddy Williams will be president; Jeff Jennings, vice-president; Jay Fowkes, parliamentary; Melanie Terry, secretary; and Barbara Williamson, treasurer. Greg Curry will be the new reporter.

Tryouts for new junior high twirlers will be held this week.

TO THE EDITOR:

In recent television appearances, both President Carter and H.E.W. Secretary Joseph Califano criticized the nation's hospitals for the high cost of health care.

I would suggest to the President and Mr. Califano that they take a close look at the hospitals that are owned and operated directly by the Federal Government. In checking the 1976 American Hospital Association's "Guide To The Health Care Field," I note that the U.S. Public Health Service Indian Hospital in Yuma County, Arizona is approximately the same size as our own Lynn County Hospital.

The size is where the similarity ends. They spent $1,720.00 per admission as opposed to our $720.00 per admission. I cannot say that Public Service Hospitals are spending too much money. However, I do feel that the President and Mr. Califano should not criticize the nation's hospitals when those hospitals owned and operated directly by the Federal Government appear to cost over twice as much per admission to operate.

Virtually every hospital in America allows their costs and other statistical data to be published with the notable exception of Military Hospitals and V.A. Hospitals. I cannot help but wonder WHY?

Sincerely,
Gerald Moore

Editor's Note: The following letter was received by Mrs. Pat Swann in answer to one she wrote last fall that appeared in this column.

Dear Mrs. Pat Swann and Family,

Please accept our warmest greetings in the very precious name of Jesus Christ our great Redeemer and soon coming King.

Your very kind, very inspiring and most welcomed letter came to us a few days bringing us tender works of love and charity that made us danced and sang of great joy and happiness and thankful to God and to you and your loved ones.

Please have our undying thanks for spearing some of your precious moment reading and answering my poor letter in the fine paper and may it be allowed by divine Providence that the Christian love you now have for us be ours to enjoy to the end of time.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we wish to thank you and your good family for the very precious $5.00 you so thoughtfully and so kindly gave to us out of which we were able to buy some of the thing we need most at home daily. Vitamins we need badly and stamps for this letter. And please accept our undying love and prayers for all of you the only in kind that we could repay and offer you for a reward trusting in God that heavenly graces be yours ever more.

And now please allow me to tell you more about us and our place. Cullion is very hilly and rocky island and has a population of more than 3,000. We only have 2 seasons throughout the year the wet and dry seasons. The most important occupations of the people here are fishing and farming. And the most important crops in the island are rice and corn.

We have an electric light from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. only. In our island anyone who own a radio is very lucky and happy because by this piece of entertainment is the only way we will be able to hear important news, sweet musics and programs broadcast from distant happy places.

My family live in our own dilapidated house just made of light materials such as solid woods, bamboos and leaves of nipa palms and it stands on a side of a hill in this rocky place and it is also a home devoid of any comforts in life.

My poor husband has no steady job and he now works in farms and in houses from one to the other who hired him and earn a little sum of money which can not go very far for a big family as mine for our daily needs at home and for the children in school.

In our clothings we bought used ones when able as they cost much less because we also need clothings to cover our bodies decently. It is heartbreaking to see our children deprived of many things other kids their ages are enjoying. Because of poverty and disease we can not offer our little ones the necessities.

Our standard of living is really very low and that acute crisis is always the problem here. Everything goes high while money is scarce so you can just imagine how hard and miserable our lives under such condition and only the dear Lord knows when and how our sufferings end. Please pray for us for the best and that we may always be given strength of faith to stand and endure the bitter trials in life.

We are always having good weather now with bright sunny days and cold in the nights for which we are very thankful to God for it.

I must close for now wishing you all a very pleasant good night with our love and prayers.

And until then when we hear from you again.

Gratefully yours in Christ,
Antonia Alinsog and family

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS.....

Check Cattle For Pinkeye

With bright, sunny days in the offing, pinkeye often becomes a problem in cattle herds. Pinkeye, caused by a yet unidentified organism, can lead to varying stages of ulceration of the animal's eyes and even blindness. The impaired vision and discomfort restrict the animal's ability to graze and can result in serious weight losses.

Once an outbreak occurs, other animals in the herd can become easily infected by flies or eye gnats that travel from an infected animal to those that are healthy.

To keep pinkeye problems at a minimum:

- *Check animals closely as often as possible to observe any excessive watering or discharge from the eyes. Animals with light-colored markings or white skin may show a stain or matted hair below the eye. Separate any suspected animals and treat them early in the course of the disease to prevent a herd problem.

- *Try to control flies and gnats with sprays and dust bags. Good fly control may help prevent pinkeye and will also minimize the spread if it occurs.

- *Adequate amounts of Vitamin A help keep tissues healthy. Good pastures generally provide sufficient Vitamin A. However, when pastures dry up and get brown, supplementary Vitamin A should be provided.

- *Shaded loafing areas allow cattle to get out of the direct sunlight and can prove valuable in most areas of Texas.

Many treatments have been utilized to control cases of pinkeye, including antibiotics, corticosteroids, and foreign protein therapy. If treatment is used, the preparation should be applied to both eyes, and treated or exposed animals should be kept separately from the rest to minimize the spread of infection.

Since there are other problems of the eye that might resemble pinkeye, cattlemen should consult a veterinarian to determine the specific problem.

Research on an experimental vaccine consisting of a formalin-killed culture of the agent considered to be the cause of pinkeye has been in progress since 1963. However, the vaccine is still not available for general use.

Mike DeLeon Completes Training

Marine Private Mike P. DeLeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeLeon of Tahoka, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He has introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first-aid, rifle marksmanship, and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

He joined the Marine Corps in January of this year.

Civic Center Is Subject At Rotary Club

Lubbock's new multi-million dollar Civic Center was described in a talk at the Rotary Club last Thursday by Ford Mitchell, public relations officer of Briercroft Savings and Loan in Lubbock.

He told of the beauty of the large building and its facilities just opened on a large tract of land near downtown Lubbock that was ravaged by the tornado in 1970.

The building serves as a community center where almost any type of meeting or convention may be held. Included in the complex are a beautiful theatre auditorium, a banquet hall, a large exhibition hall, meeting rooms of various sizes, a plaza, kitchen, and parking spaces outside for about 1,500 vehicles. Also nearby is the Mahon Library.

The building is designed not only for local meetings, but also, it is hoped, will draw many area and statewide conventions to the city. Mitchell's presentation was informational as well as entertaining.

He was introduced by David Spraberry who was in charge of the program for the day.

Food Meeting Set for May 13

A food and nutrition meeting will be held on Friday, May 13, at 10 a.m. in the Lynn County Community Action Building, the purpose of which is to discuss the four basic food groups and to plan nutritional menus one might prepare for family members.

The meeting is open to the public and questions may be directed to the county Extension office, 998-4650.

CASES SETTLED OUT OF COURT ON VIOLATIONS OF THE U.S. PLANT VARIETY PROTECTION ACT ON ACCO COTTON PLANTING SEED

Plainview, Texas, May 5, 1977 — ACCO Seed announced today settlement of damages on violations against their protected variety of Paymaster 303 Cotton Planting Seed. All of these were settled out of court in ACCO Seed's favor.

The violations were committed during the fall of 1976 and early part of the 1977 planting season by a Hockley County seedsman, a Hockley County farmer, a Crosby County ginner and a Martin County co-op gin. All the parties acknowledged their violations and paid damages to ACCO Seed.

Under the Plant Variety Protection Act, those who without proper authority infringe the rights of a variety owner by selling or using, for prohibited purposes, a protected variety of cottonseed may be liable to the variety owner for treble damages, court costs, and attorney's fees and subject to an injunction against further infringement.

ACCO Seed will continue to vigorously enforce its rights under the Act for their protected varieties which include Paymaster 111-A, 101-B, 303, 266 and Paymaster Dwarf.

ACCO Seed, a division of Anderson, Clayton & Co., with one of its regional offices located in Plainview, is a supplier of sorghum, corn, cotton and alfalfa seed in the United States and foreign countries.

Junior Hi-Lites

BY AMY PORTERFIELD

Cheerleading tryouts were held May 3rd and 4th.

Girls were chosen by the student body and teachers, then judged by two Texas Tech cheerleaders. The scores were then averaged to get the winners.

Junior high cheerleaders for '77-78 will be Perry Dunlap, head; Andra Draper, Barbara Williamson, Melanie Terry, and alternate, Danette Phillips.

††† Eighth-graders Amy Porterfield, Gloria Gutierrez, Lani Brown, and Marita Fowlkes will be the new junior varsity cheerleaders for the '77-78 school year.

††† The junior high student council sponsored an activity day on May 6th. There was Pyramid Building, won by 7th grade; Mummy Wrapping, 7th grade; Tug of War, 8th grade; Volleyball, 7th; Obstacle Course, 8th; Arm Wrestling; Egg Catch; Hule Flop; and last, but not least, Water Balloon and Shaving Cream Fights.

Most everyone went home that afternoon with shaving cream in his/her hair and wet clothes from being bombed by water balloons.

Miss Downey had a little fall in the mud to avoid being sprayed with shaving cream by Denise Dodson.

At the end of the day, the student council gave "special awards"—Biggest Mouth, Roddy Williams; Best Wiggler, Denise Ehlers; Star Player, Charles Bryson; Most Graceful, Debbie Jolly; Most Muscular, Jacky Jolly; and Most Co-ordinated, Richard Paynes.

We appreciate Mrs. Virgin, Mrs. Maclasky, and the FHA girls for their time in the concession stand.

††† On May 9th, junior high student council elections were held for the '77-78 school year. Roddy Williams will be president; Jeff Jennings, vice-president; Jay Fowlkes, parliamentarian; Melanie Terry, secretary; and Barbara Williamson, treasurer. Greg Curry will be the new reporter.

††† Tryouts for new junior high twirlers will be held this week.

Letter To Editor

Letters to the editor do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper. All correspondence must be signed and in good taste before it will be published; however, the writer may request that his name be withheld. Letters are not edited as to grammar, punctuation, and spelling.

TO THE EDITOR:

In recent television appearances, both President Carter and H.E.W. Secretary Joseph Califano criticized the nation's hospitals for the high cost of health care.

I would suggest to the President and Mr. Califano that they take a close look at the hospitals that are owned and operated directly by the Federal Government. In checking the 1976 American Hospital Association's "Guide To The Health Care Field," I note that the U.S. Public Health Service Indian Hospital in Yuma County, Arizona is approximately the same size as our own Lynn County Hospital.

The size is where the similarity ends. They spent $1,720.00 per admission as opposed to our $720.00 per admission. I cannot say that Public Service Hospitals are spending too much money. However, I do feel that the President and Mr. Califano should not criticize the nation's hospitals when those hospitals owned and operated directly by the Federal Government appear to cost over twice as much per admission to operate.

Virtually every hospital in America allows their costs and other statistical data to be published with the notable exception of Military Hospitals and V.A. Hospitals. I cannot help but wonder WHY?

Sincerely,
Gerald Moore

Editor's Note: The following letter was received by Mrs. Pat Swann in answer to one she wrote last fall that appeared in this column.

Dear Mrs. Pat Swann and Family,

Please accept our warmest greetings in the very precious name of Jesus Christ our great Redeemer and soon coming King.

Your very kind, very inspiring and most welcomed letter came to us a few days bringing us tender works of love and charity that made us danced and sang of great joy and happiness and thankful to God and to you and your loved ones.

Please have our undying thanks for spearing some of your precious moment reading and answering my poor letter in the fine paper and may it be allowed by divine Providence that the Christian love you now have for us be ours to enjoy to the end of time.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we wish to thank you and your good family for the very precious $5.00 you so thoughtfully and so kindly gave to us out of which we were able to buy some of the thing we need most at home daily. Vitamins we need badly and stamps for this letter. And please accept our undying love and prayers for all of you the only in kind that we could repay and offer you for a reward trusting in God that heavenly graces be yours ever more.

And now please allow me to tell you more about us and our place. Cullion is very hilly and rocky island and has a population of more than 3,000. We only have 2 seasons throughout the year the wet and dry seasons. The most important occupations of the people here are fishing and farming. And the most important crops in the island are rice and corn.

We have an electric light from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. only. In our island anyone who own a radio is very lucky and happy because by this piece of entertainment is the only way we will be able to hear important news, sweet musics and programs broadcast from distant happy places.

My family live in our own dilapidated house just made of light materials such as solid woods, bamboos and leaves of nipa palms and it stands on a side of a hill in this rocky place and it is also a home devoid of any comforts in life.

My poor husband has no steady job and he now works in farms and in houses from one to the other who hired him and earn a little sum of money which can not go very far for a big family as mine for our daily needs at home and for the children in school.

In our clothings we bought used ones when able as they cost much less because we also need clothings to cover our bodies decently. It is heartbreaking to see our children deprived of many things other kids their ages are enjoying. Because of poverty and disease we can not offer our little ones the necessities.

Our standard of living is really very low and that acute crisis is always the problem here. Everything goes high while money is scarce so you can just imagine how hard and miserable our lives under such condition and only the dear Lord knows when and how our sufferings end. Please pray for us for the best and that we may always be given strength of faith to stand and endure the bitter trials in life.

We are always having good weather now with bright sunny days and cold in the nights for which we are very thankful to God for it.

I must close for now wishing you all a very pleasant good night with our love and prayers.

And until then when we hear from you again.

Gratefully yours in Christ,
Antonia Alinsog and family

Check Cattle For Pinkeye

With bright, sunny days in the offing, pinkeye often becomes a problem in cattle herds. Pinkeye, caused by a yet unidentified organism, can lead to varying stages of ulceration of the animal's eyes and even blindness. The impaired vision and discomfort restrict the animal's ability to graze and can result in serious weight losses.

Once an outbreak occurs, other animals in the herd can become easily infected by flies or eye gnats that travel from an infected animal to those that are healthy.

To keep pinkeye problems at a minimum:

*Check animals closely as often as possible to observe any excessive watering or discharge from the eyes. Animals with light-colored markings or white skin may show a stain or matted hair below the eye. Separate any suspected animals and treat them early in the course of the disease to prevent a herd problem.

*Try to control flies and gnats with sprays and dust bags. Good fly control may help prevent pinkeye and will also minimize the spread if it occurs.

*Adequate amounts of Vitamin A help keep tissues healthy. Good pastures generally provide sufficient Vitamin A. However, when pastures dry up and get brown, supplementary Vitamin A should be provided.

*Shaded loafing areas allow cattle to get out of the direct sunlight and can prove valuable in most areas of Texas.

Many treatments have been utilized to control cases of pinkeye, including antibiotics, corticosteroids, and foreign protein therapy. If treatment is used, the preparation should be applied to both eyes, and treated or exposed animals should be kept separately from the rest to minimize the spread of infection.

Since there are other problems of the eye that might resemble pinkeye, cattlemen should consult a veterinarian to determine the specific problem.

Research on an experimental vaccine consisting of a formalin-killed culture of the agent considered to be the cause of pinkeye has been in progress since 1963. However, the vaccine is still not available for general use.

Mike DeLeon Completes Training

Marine Private Mike P. DeLeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeLeon of Tahoka, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He has introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first-aid, rifle marksmanship, and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

He joined the Marine Corps in January of this year.

Civic Center Is Subject At Rotary Club

Lubbock's new multi-million dollar Civic Center was described in a talk at the Rotary Club last Thursday by Ford Mitchell, public relations officer of Briercroft Savings and Loan in Lubbock.

He told of the beauty of the large building and its facilities just opened on a large tract of land near downtown Lubbock that was ravaged by the tornado in 1970.

The building serves as a community center where almost any type of meeting or convention may be held. Included in the complex are a beautiful theatre auditorium, a banquet hall, a large exhibition hall, meeting rooms of various sizes, a plaza, kitchen, and parking spaces outside for about 1,500 vehicles. Also nearby is the Mahon Library.

The building is designed not only for local meetings, but also, it is hoped, will draw many area and statewide conventions to the city.

Mitchell's presentation was informational as well as entertaining.

He was introduced by David Spraberry who was in charge of the program for the day.

Food Meeting Set for May 13

A food and nutrition meeting will be held on Friday, May 13, at 10 a.m. in the Lynn County Community Action Building, the purpose of which is to discuss the four basic food groups and to plan nutritional menus one might prepare for family members.

The meeting is open to the public and questions may be directed to the county Extension office, 998-4650.

CASES SETTLED OUT OF COURT ON VIOLATIONS OF THE U.S. PLANT VARIETY PROTECTION ACT ON ACCO COTTON PLANTING SEED

Plainview, Texas, May 5, 1977 — ACCO Seed announced today settlement of damages on violations against their protected variety of Paymaster 303 Cotton Planting Seed. All of these were settled out of court in ACCO Seed's favor.

The violations were committed during the fall of 1976 and early part of the 1977 planting season by a Hockley County seedsman, a Hockley County farmer, a Crosby County ginner and a Martin County co-op gin. All the parties acknowledged their violations and paid damages to ACCO Seed.

Under the Plant Variety Protection Act, those who without proper authority infringe the rights of a variety owner by selling or using, for prohibited purposes, a protected variety of cottonseed may be liable to the variety owner for treble damages, court costs, and attorney's fees and subject to an injunction against further infringement.

ACCO Seed will continue to vigorously enforce its rights under the Act for their protected varieties which include Paymaster 111-A, 101-B, 303, 266 and Paymaster Dwarf.

ACCO Seed, a division of Anderson, Clayton & Co., with one of its regional offices located in Plainview, is a supplier of sorghum, corn, cotton and alfalfa seed in the United States and foreign countries.
