Deanya Wood To Represent Tahoka High School National FHA Meeting In Seattle

BY MARY BRECHEEN

Among the many other duties Deanya Wood has as treasurer of Area II of Future Homemakers of America is that of representing her local club, her town, and her state at the national convention of Future Homemakers in Seattle, Washington July 11-14.

Miss Wood is a senior in Tahoka High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Wood.

Her first "real" flight will leave the air terminal in Midland next Sunday morning, July 10, at 7:30, bound for Seattle where she will be one of the 180 Texas delegates attending the national meeting at the Olympic Hotel and Seattle Center.

Representing more than 77,000 members of the Texas FHA group, she will be among approximately 1,500 delegates throughout the nation attending the four-day conference.

It all started last spring when the local FHA advisor, Mrs. Carolyn Virgin, asked Deanya to attend the area convention at Lee High School in Midland. There she was named Area II treasurer.

She has been an FHA member since she was a high school freshman and says it has done more than anything else to develop her leadership potential.

The theory that the achieving person is a busy individual is born out by the fact that Deanya, in addition to her academic curriculum in Tahoka High, is an employee of First National Bank, through the school Distributive Education program, and she is the newly selected secretary of Tahoka Rotary Club. She has served as treasurer and first vice-president of the local FHA chapter and will now serve as an area consultant for the local chapter.

Also, on her list of achievements and talents, is that of her musical ability.

She has been studying piano with Mrs. Clay Bennett the past seven years.

Following her high school graduation, she plans to major in home economics at Texas Tech University, with a specialty in family finance counseling.

The theme of the national conference is "Leadership '77--Explore Roles, Set Goals," and the objective is to experience techniques for decision-making and assuming leadership roles as a homemaker/wage-earner.

Through a combination of general sessions and small group workshops, delegates will focus on discovering and developing the leadership skills within themselves that

Consumer Agency Legislation Thought Dead

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Legislation to create an Agency for Consumer Protection is believed nearly dead in this session of Congress.

The reason, say Capitol Hill observers, is there has been little grass roots pressure for the measure from the voters.

Leadership in both the Senate and the House admit they feel no compulsion to deal with the consumer agency proposal which is supported by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters as well as most of organized labor.

Senate Majority Leader Robert Byrd already has said he will not call up the bill ahead of the House, explaining: "If it doesn't pass the House, we won't waste our time on it in the Senate."

Proponents of the consumer agency agree that effective letter-writing campaigns by anti-consumer people have knocked the steam out of the bill.

Supporters agree that only a groundswell of support from voters will do the trick.

This is Thursday, June 30, 1977.

To the editor of the Lynn County News, Mary Brecheen.

Dear Mary,
I just got back to Turlock, California Tuesday morning at 12:07 a.m. I really enjoyed my trip a lot this year, my teacher in the sixth grade at New Home in 1926, Miss Addie Jane Hancock Hayes, came down to see me. I had phoned her a few days before I left here.

Mary, I have been reading everything that I can get my hands on about water since 1974 and I have a few things the folks in Lynn County should think about real serious like because it effects all of you from one end of the county to the other. The water that comes down that underground canal from Lake Meredith north of Amarillo about twenty miles is about thirty miles long and some places ten miles wide.

The things that I want all of you to think real serious about is this, there are all kinds of things that get into your water like alkali beds (in floor of the lake) there are a number of substances, such as caustic soda and potash that have a bitter taste and neutralize acids. Plus, a salt or a mixture of salts sometimes found in large amounts in the soil of dry regions. Then the fertilizer manure or droppings left by wolves, deer, rabbits, buffalo, etc. plus, many of these animals have been killed, some have died from old age. Some of them could have died from hydrophobia over the last hundreds of years.

And, to think you people go ahead and cook and drink that water from that canal just like its nothing wrong with it. I would not drink or let my family eat food prepared with that water unless it was distilled when water is distilled all of the impurities stay in the boiling tank to be drained away.

We brought our home water distiller with us on every trip I have made back there since June 20th, '74. We will every trip we make back to Lynn County or anywhere else we go too. All of the folks on each well in the county should take a pint of their water to a chemist in Lubbock and have it analyzed. He will separate into parts. His examination will show each person what his water is made up of.

Cancer causes etc. have been found in drinking water. A chemist in Modesto, California, Mr. Bill Witzke (he's college trained) has been testing water twenty years in Modesto and he was sick for eighteen years, had spent hundreds of dollars for doctor bills, then about four years ago he tested his tap water (Modesto city water) and found nitrate and other impurities in that water. He started to run his drinking and cooking water thru his lab and inside two days he felt like a new person. He is the cause of me going on distilled water 100%, and I feel great.

I hope you and all of our friends will think seriously about all water there.

Very sincerely yours,
O. Raymond Griffin Sr.

Hill-Varoff Wedding Vows Are Read July 2 In Lubbock Church

Jennie Camille Hill and Gregory Dimitri Varoff were united in marriage on July 2nd at 7 p.m. in St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Dr. William R. Fleming, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony for the couple whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hill of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Varoff of San Antonio.

The bride is the great-granddaughter of the late A. I. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a French Renaissance Gown of White Alencon lace and Chiffon, made especially for her by Priscilla of Boston. The all-over lace bodice was appliqued in Silk Organza Dogwood blossoms, creating a dimensional effect. The sweetheart neckline was outlined in the flowers and long Calla-Lily sleeves repeated the organza flowers. The full circular Chiffon skirt fell in double layers of deep folds with fullness at the back drifting to a Chapel train.

Her shoulder-length veiling of pure Silk, handtoiled illusion was designed to match her gown, in the shape of a Calla-Lily. Falling in graduated layers, from an Alencon lace Cloche, the lace appliques were repeated at the crown in a Sunburst design. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of sonja roses and white snowflake mums with a white jaffett orchid in the center, accented with fern and baby's breath.

Miss Diane Rector of San Antonio was the maid of honor, Mrs. Candace Stotts of Arlington and Miss Tamara Varoff of San Antonio, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

The attendants were attired in mint green chiffon and quiana jersey dresses which complemented the bridal theme. Soft flowing halter gowns of jersey were gently shirred to back fullness and featured full poncho capes of chiffon dipping to fingertip-length points at the back.

The attendants carried nosegay bouquets of sonja roses and white snowflake mums, accented with baby's breath. The altar was decorated with tree candelabras holding white tapers and draped with fern and baby's breath. A unity candle was placed on the altar and bows and small flower arrangements marked the bridal aisle.

David Busby of Mesquite, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Michael Karger of San Antonio and Walter Busby of Houston, also cousin of the groom, served as groomsmen.

Jeff Varoff of San Antonio, brother of the groom, and Mike Tarrillion of Austin, were ushers. Candlelighters were Kerry Wendell and Greg Wendell, both nephews of the groom.

Beverly Eubanks of Lubbock was soloist and was accompanied by Phil Higginbotham, organist, as she sang The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

For something old, the bride wore a diamond pendant belonging to her mother; for something new, the wedding dress; something borrowed, an English sixpence; and something blue, the traditional blue garter.

At a reception in the church parlor, Mrs. Shari Hubbard and Miss Susan Sanders served at the bride's table, Valerie Wendell, sister of the groom, registered guests.

After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the couple will make their home in Houston.

The bride is a graduate of Coronado High School in Lubbock and has a BSED degree from Texas Tech University. She taught at Reese Elementary the past year.

The groom is a graduate of Robert E. Lee High School in San Antonio and has a BBA degree from Texas Tech University. He is employed with Ford Motor Company in Houston.

Dwain Lusk Vice President

Dwain Lusk knows agricultural lending. Why? Because for more than a decade he has worked closely with Lynn County farmers to satisfy their financial needs. During this time, Dwain has become very knowledgeable about the rewards and pitfalls of this multimillion dollar industry, and that means getting to know farmers personally and understanding their needs, and knowing how to solve their problems. Dwain understands when things go bad as well as when they are good, and he knows how to suggest help and back it up with money. He's one good reason a lot of farmers rest easier. People are our best assets.

Of course not, unless there is no other available doctor. They know that anyone has great difficulty trying to be objective about their own ailments.

Sickness symptoms are most confusing, for many diseases have similar pains or discomforts. A headache can be the result of more than a dozen different causes. The problem is to determine which one. When you are sick, do what physicians do. They consult another physician.

MRS. DON ADAMS ...nee Jeana Miller

Miller-Adams Promises Made At June 24 Rites

Miss Jeana Miller and Lester Don Adams, Lamesa Highway, also in Big Spring. The bride's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Cooley of New Home and Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Miller of Tahoka.

The couple stood before a column arch adorned with boxwood foliage and baby's breath which centered a 21-branch candelabrum. On each side of the altar, columns held arrangements of yellow and white carnations, flanked by spiral and seven-branched candelabra. The memory candle was placed in front of the bride's mother's pew.

The bride wore a white gown of polyester organza. The high, standup neckline trimmed with Cluny lace topped the sheer bodice, which was decorated with Brussels lace and seed pearls. The front and back bodice and high-rise waist were bordered with Cluny lace. Bands of Cluny lace trimmed the front skirt, the bishop sleeves, the twirled flounce hemline, and the chapel-length train.

The bride wore a modified Camelot capulet. Brussels lace with seed pearls covered the capulet. Cluny lace and seed pearls edged the fingertip veil.

The bride carried a cascade of yellow roses, white carnations, and baby's breath, with yellow and white streamers.

Miss Suzanne Orr was maid of honor and Chris Chaney was best man.

Bridesmaids were Miss Darlene Emerson, Miss Melody Dabney, and Miss Renee Cooley, cousin of the bride.

Groomsmen were Daryl Anderson, Kevin Murphy, and Craig Wyrick.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor were attired in floor-length gowns of coral and yellow print organza. The gowns featured long bishop sleeves and wide empire waist bands. Their hats were tied with coral ribbon and flowers. They carried a single yellow rose with coral streamers.

Joel Adams, brother of the bridegroom, and Gary Miller, brother of the bride, were ushers. Kerri Dan Adams, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer. Tabatha Miller, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Candelighters were Greg Miller, brother of the bride, and Shawn Cooley.

Shaving music at the ceremony were Ms. Shirley Adams, piano, and Mrs. Jim Grizzard, organ. Both are sisters of the bridegroom. Miss Margaret McGee was vocalist.

Following a wedding trip to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, the couple will reside on their farm north of town.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and will be attending nursing school at Howard College. The bridegroom also attended Big Spring High, is a farmer and rancher, and works with Adams and Sons Polled Shorthorn.

The reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was covered with white satin and chiffon. Silver and crystal appointments were used. The three-tiered cake was coral and white daisies and topped with porcelain bride and bridegroom. White carnations and yellow daisies centered the bride's table. The bridegroom's table featured chocolate cake and coffee. The cloth was a neutral color splashed with brown.

Serving were Miss Terry Stockton, Miss Carla Clanton, Miss Jill Walker, Miss Pam Manely, Miss Brenda Cooley, and Mrs. Leon Anderson.

Paula Miller, sister-in-law of the bride, registered guests.

Those attending from Tahoka were Jack Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Miller, Tabatha and Bridgett, Mrs. Neely Brooks, Shannon Brooks, Mrs. Myrtle Miller, Mrs. Rena Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller.

From New Home, attending were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Cooley, Renee, Brenda, and Shawn.

AUSTIN—If you served pinto beans and fried chicken in the month of May, you were a wise Texas shopper since the staples were two of only a few which didn't go up in price in the monthly market basket surveyed by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Twelve Texas cities included in the survey registered a statewide average of $20.21 for 20 commonly-purchased items, some 32 cents above a month earlier, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said today.

He added, however, that "18 cents, or more than half of the average increase, can be attributed to continuing rises in the price of coffee."

Every city surveyed experienced some increase, with Austin's total of seven cents the lowest rise while El Paso's price of 94 cents the highest monthly jump, Brown explained.

"In the coming weeks, wholesalers will be switching from Mexican and Californian fresh vegetables as Texas' homegrown supplies become increasingly available for market," Brown said. "We should begin to see a leveling off of prices for vegetables. Tomatoes, in fact, dropped in the survey this month by five cents a pound."

"But while seasonal fluctuations and other food cycles will always be with us, I think it's time that we begin to realize that food is no longer cheap and will not miraculously become cheap again."

Sherry Etheredge Says

Color loss is a leading cause of damaged garments, due to incorrect laundering, ignoring care labels, mislabeling by manufacturers or dye problems, but wearers can overcome many color "snags" with watchful laundry-room tactics.

Garment Care Starts With Label

Before buying a garment, check the permanent care label for warnings such as "wash separately" or "no bleach." If they cannot become part of the regular laundry routine, it is best to make another selection.

Color Tests Avoid Problems
To answer "fading" problems about a garment, test it before laundering.

Submerge it briefly in a small amount of water like the recommended wash temperature. Look for any change in the color of the water.

If still in doubt, take a few minutes to duplicate the actual wash.

Clip a small piece of each fabric or trim used in the garment from seam allowances or facings.

Place in a pint jar with one cup of water similar to the wash temperature. Add a teaspoon of detergent. Shake and let stand ten minutes. Check the water for any color change.

Rinse the clippings and again check for any color loss in the rinse water. Let the clippings dry, then compare them to the original garment.

Laundry Care Saves Most Colors

The following laundry pointers will minimize color damage:

*Launder garments soon and frequently after soiling, as prolonged soaking is harsh on many dyes.

*Use cold or warm water to prevent harsh hot-water damage to dyes.

*Before using any stain remover, test it on a seam allowance for color change.

*Remember, oxygen bleach is safe for all fabrics and colors—while chlorine bleach may remove or lighten some colors.

If in doubt about using chlorine bleach, mix ¼ cup water and one tablespoon bleach—then place one drop of it on a seam allowance. Let it stand one minute and check for any color change.

*Some garments such as jeans, or fabrics such as madras, are designed to fade. Wash these together by similar colors.

*Wash all separate pieces of a non-colorfast garment together each time—even though all pieces are not soiled. Otherwise, separate pieces such as belts, pants and jackets may become different shades.

*Never wash nylons with non-colorfast garments. Nylon is a "color scavenger," readily accepting any dyes released during laundering.

*Always follow drying instructions on the care label.

*Use care in drip drying, as it may cause colors to bleed down the garment.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My daughter's been dating a boy for three years. Now she's decided to marry him. Can my daughter get married without my permission?

A: A person who is 18 years old or older does not need a parent's consent to marry. If the person is 14-17 years old, the parent's consent is required. In the event the parents are divorced, the parent who was given custody of the child must give permission before the child may marry.

Q: My two grandchildren are living with my ex-husband and his wife as the result of a divorce custody suit. The children cry to be with their mother, but the court says, "No." Isn't there anything that can be done to make these children happy?

A: The test the courts apply in awarding custody of a child is the child's "best interests." Even though the court earlier refused to award custody of your grandchildren to their mother, she could now ask the court to change the award and give her custody on the basis of "changed circumstances." This requires proving that continued custody of the children with your "ex" and his wife is injurious to the children's welfare, and a change to the mother's custody would be a positive improvement for them.

Q: Last weekend I was arrested for felony possession of marijuana. The search warrant stated that I was the owner of the house to be searched. That's not true—it belongs to my parents. Should the police have shown the warrant to my parents before searching the place? In other words, was it an illegal search?

A: The constitutional protection against unlawful searches and seizures protects only against unreasonable search and seizure. What's an unreasonable search and seizure? It depends on the circumstances. Generally, the Code of Criminal Procedure says that search warrant must describe the place to be searched and the items to be seized. It is served on a person who has charge of the place to be searched after being given notice of your case, your lawyer wants to raise these questions at the proper time.

New Home News

By Florence Davies

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sharp, sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller of Lubbock, and their son, Claude Fewell, of Lubbock, traveled 5,801 miles on a two-weeks round-trip through 17 states and into Canada.

Some of the most interesting places they visited were Yellowstone National Park, the Columbian River in British Columbia, Lake Louise, the Hood Forest, Carson Lake Tahoe, and the Lake Tahoe area.

They traveled the route of the Columbia River to the Pacific Ocean and had an interesting experience hunting rubies on Mountaintop in Colorado. Some of the wild animals they saw were deer, elk, bear, and longhorn.

Mr. Sharp will have an interesting story to tell at his kindergarten class on Monday.

Mrs. Stew Rice went to Canyon and returned the girls home Friday.

While there, they watched a demonstration of what the girls had learned. During the week they worked seven and one-half hours each day on defense, offense, and ball handling.

In spite of the hard work, sore muscles, and blistered feet, they had a good time and are looking forward to using their skills for the New Home Leopards.

The New Home Little League Parents battled the Wilson Little League parents to a 19-19 tie in a baseball game June 28th at Wilson.

Players from New Home were Mr. and Mrs. David Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Gayland James, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Kieth, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roman, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, Mrs. Emerson Paul, Russell Swinson, and Wayne Fillingim.

Members of the New Home Methodist Church attending the parish meeting in the Draw Methodist Church Sunday evening, June 26, were Mrs. Bessie Strain, Mrs. C. E. Roper, Mrs. Flossie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Leland White, and Rev. Reta Richards.

Next meeting will be at Wilson Methodist Church July 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clements and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nunnley of Mangum, Oklahoma returned last week from a 3-weeks vacation trip to Canada.

Winston and I enjoyed a short vacation trip to Richardson to visit Dan Cowan and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Clements came over Sunday evening from Princeton to visit and catch up on news of their New Home area friends. The Clements lived here from November 1953 until February 1958 while he was pastor of the New Home Baptist Church.

Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry (Sarah) Turner, and sons, 15-year-old Don and 8-year-old Mike, live in Duncanville. Jerry is a lieutenant in the Farmers Branch Fire Department.

The Clements sent greetings to their many friends here.

We also stopped in Weatherford Monday for a short visit with Winston's niece, Mrs. Marvin (Carol) Savage, ate dinner at Lake Hubbard, and to top off our July 4th trip, we stopped in Snyder and had home-made ice cream with Wayland and Ann.

After learning of the death of their brother, Wesley Lyles, in Chickasha, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lyles and Kim of Lovington drove here and they and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parker and Brenda drove to Chickasha Friday for funeral services.

On a family outing with friends Thursday evening, Wesley rescued a 7-year-old child from drowning in a park swimming pool, but after getting out of the pool, he collapsed and died, apparently of a heart attack. His wife, Evelyn, gave him mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, but could not save him.

The child was rushed to a hospital and appeared to be all right.

The Lyles and Parkers returned home Sunday.

Two and one-half inches of rain fell here in town Thursday afternoon and some hail. Some of the farmers who had hail damage to their crops are Marlin Maloney, Wendell Morrow, J. W. Barnett, Leland White, Marlow Rudd, Wesley Timmons, L. C. Unfred, and Gene Eades. There are possibly others that we have no report on.

Lawson Family Has Reunion

The Lawson family gathered for a reunion at the original home place in Grassland which is presently the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gene C. Lawson.

The July 4th get-together was the first gathering of the clan since 1953 when all seven of Alice Lawson Spears' children were present, plus seventeen of her grandchildren.

All of the family reside in Texas except two brothers and their wives, Ben Hur and Gale Lawson from Los Angeles, California and Smith and Bernice Lawson from Modesto, California.

Miss Julie Court from Modesto accompanied her grandparents, the Smith Lawsons, and Mrs. Theresa Goller from Dana Point, California came with her parents, the Ben Hur Lawsons.

The other brother, Dr. R. Loy Lawson, and his wife, Mary Lou, reside in Helotes.

The three sisters were present—Ruth and R. V. Melton from Crane, Naomi and Lewis Ward from Lufkin, and Rosebud and Grover Watson from Tahoka. The Watson's son, Gary, and his wife, Linda, and sons, Cass and Mitch, who reside in Lubbock, were present also.

The family enjoyed the hospitality of Gene and Astena Lawson who have refurbished the Lawson homeplace for their permanent residence.

The holiday festivities came to a close with most of the group joining the Post 4th of July picnic and with a final pie and watermelon-cutting in the Lawson backyard before returning to their respective homes.

Speech, hearing

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Speech and hearing disorders are the most frequent handicapping conditions among children, says a University of Texas audiology specialist who advises early treatment for such disorders.

Dr. Frederick Martin says hearing loss has to be looked upon as a language disorder because it affects the development of normal speech and language patterns.

Speech patterns of a child with impaired hearing are developed late and poorly, he says. Children often are diagnosed as being emotionally disturbed or mentally retarded when actually they have language disorders that stem from hearing loss, he adds.

Mrs. Renfro was escorted to the altar by her brother, Wilton Payne of Tahoka. She wore a mauve street-length dress and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Pam Martin of Tahoka, organist, played traditional wedding selections.

Approximately fifty guests registered for the reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Members of the houseparty included Wynne Brookshire, Mmes. Sammie Martin, Fran Brookshire, Paula Stegemoeller, and Misses Karla Cain and Jamie Renfro.

Card Of Thanks

People have commented over and over about the success of the Old Settlers Reunion and Fun Weekend. Hard work by lots of people made this possible. I would like to take this opportunity to say thanks to everyone, the committee who worked on the talent show (and their husbands), the parade, publicity, the booths, games, worship service, and all those whom we grabbed out of the crowd for this or that. I'm also grateful to the sponsors and talent show contestants and last, but certainly not least, to all of you who came and enjoyed it. The smile on your faces was worth it-to all of us.

Let's do it again, so our children will have memories of something other than the TV set!!

Thanks again to everyone.

Your friendly 'repairwoman'

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) - A University of Texas management professor wants to promote the idea that if your doorbell rings, it may be your repairwoman calling.

Prof. Albert Shapero believes women are letting a lucrative job market - that of making repairs to TV sets or small appliances in the home - go untapped.

He reasons that properly trained repairwomen would have a special appeal to women alone in their homes who "may feel a little uncomfortable with strange men tromping around the house." Also, he says the limited number of places where small appliances can be repaired opens up to women the field of repairs in the home.

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

The farm bill is now scheduled to begin its journey through the House of Representatives in Washington on Friday, July 15, but the real "action" will be carried over until the following week.

The bill reported by the House Ag Committee has been given an open rule, and if all goes according to plan general debate will take place in the House on the 15th. But the offering of amendments and voting probably will not come before July 19, according to word received by Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The cotton section of the bill under consideration calls for a Commodity Credit Corporation loan level equal to the smaller of (1) 85 percent of the four-year average U.S. spot market price for cotton or (2) 90 percent of a price equivalent to the adjusted average Liverpool Cotton Outlook "A" index during the first two weeks of October preceding the required loan announcement on November 1 each year. The loan level for 1978, the first year of the program, would be 51.1 cents for Strict Low Middling 1-1/16 inch cotton.

The bill stipulates a target price at 110 percent of the loan, which for 1978 would figure 56.1 cents per pound.

A farm measure already passed by the Senate sets the loan by the same formula and at the same 1978 level as the House. But the Senate bill would set the target price at the cost of production as determined by the Secretary. For 1978 the Senate proposed target figure would be 51.1 cents, five cents below the price called for in the House bill. This and other differences between the House and Senate versions will be ironed out in a House-Senate Conference Committee after the House takes final action.

Under both bills farmers would be paid the difference between market price and the target price on production from the farm allotment, as is done under current law.

The Senate measure would set cotton allotments at a percentage (not less than 90 percent nor more than 100 percent) of each year's planted acreage. The percentage factor would be determined by dividing the acreage calculated by the Secretary as needed to supply domestic and export markets by his estimated U.S. acreage for harvest.

The House Ag Committee measure as it will be offered by Committee Chairman Tom Foley of Washington proposes no change in the current system which sets cotton allotments on historical plantings. But the House Cotton Subcommittee, chaired by David Bowen of Mississippi, has held hearings and reported a bill to base cotton allotments on current year plantings as does the Senate bill, but without the 90 percent minimum "factor".

The Bowen bill will be offered as a committee amendment by Chairman Foley.

"It now appears that the cotton section of the House bill, which is essentially what has been proposed by a unified cotton industry, including the Bowen allotment proposal," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "may have fairly smooth sailing."

Feed grain and wheat price support levels however are expected to be controversial, and a final House vote may not come until July 19 or later.

A bachelor is a man who thinks it is better to have loved and lost than to get up for the 3 a.m. feeding.
