County Gins Report 50,000 Bales To Date; Wet Weather Slows Harvest

The Spectator...
 By Mary Brecheen

The City Council, at its meeting on Monday of this week, put the wheels in motion to raise our fees for water, sewer, and sanitation services.

They don't like to do it, but it's the most equitable and fair way to increase the income which it most certainly takes to operate, even on a tight budget. I'm confident that they're striving to be "in areas in an effort to make up for the fees they are forced to 'take.'"

Heretofore, we've been paying $4.00 for 2,000 gallons (or less) of water, $1.50 for sewer services, $3.00 for sanitation--making a total minimum of $8.50.

The new rates will be like so: $4.50 for 3,000 gallons (or less) of water, $2.00 for sewer, and $3.00 for sanitation--a total minimum of $9.50. Each 1,000 gallons over the minimum of 3,000 gallons now pay 75 cents instead of 60 cents.

It's say that I use 5,000 gallons of water next month. I'll pay $4.50 for the first 3,000 and 75 cents per thousand for the next 2,000 gallons--making my bill $6.00 for water, $2.00 for sewer, and $3.50 for sanitation--a total of $11.50.

 I will maintain that it's a bargain. My last tank of gasoline (20 to 24 gallons) cost me $13.00 and it won't last a month, for sure.

That it may do is make me more aware of what I'm doing--and maybe I'll save some water and some money too.

It might behoove us, ere we get on a soap box, to do some checking with surrounding towns. We've got a way to go to be plagued as hard as we are. And while we're checking to see if we're "being ripped upon" severely, consider the fact that we have no charge for dis-connects and re-connects in our water service. Have you had your phone disconnected and reconnected lately?

 The folks that meet on Tuesday nights and call themselves the Bulldog Booster Club need a lot of help in their attendance.

They don't have to do what they're doing and they're not wanting to coerce anyone. However, if they are trying to maintain the top-notch "spirit" of the club, if you please, that so very obviously has existed in Tahoka for quite a long spell.

Those folks give a few hours of their time for the cause they believe is a good cause--the athletic program in the local school. It's a seasonal cause and a worthy cause--one that's needing help right now. In a few months, there'll be another, just as urgent and just as urgent. But right now, we're pushing and somebody's dragging a heavy weight the way it should be.

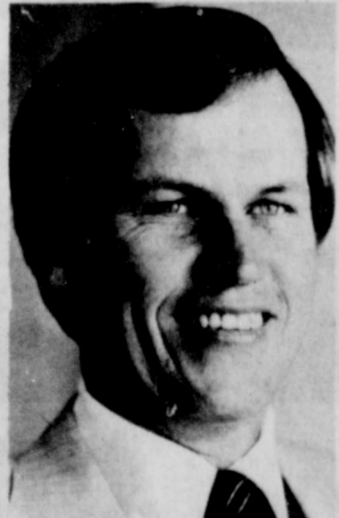

Stenholm Campaign In Tahoka On October 4th

Charley Stenholm, wife of professional candidate Charles Stenholm, came to Tahoka Tuesday of this week to announce her husband's candidacy for congressman in the 17th Congressional District.

Stenholms traveled on Tuesday accompanied by family members from their home in Dallas, visiting 23 community announcement rallies throughout the day.

The reason for the bus tour, Stenholm said, "is to let my announcement to as many people as possible and to make this a statewide campaign right from the start."

Stenholm, a Stamford resident, emphasized in his announcement that all residents, regardless of whether they live on the farms, in the towns, or larger cities in the district, have a stake in what happens to the district's basic source of income, which is the land. "It helps the producers of cotton, fiber, and energy," he said, "helps us all; and it hurts them hurts us."

CHARLES STENHOLM
 Stenholm cautioned that district residents should not consider the problems of this area without looking at problems in other areas of the economy. "Businessmen, manufacturing people, consumers, agricultural and energy producers, and senior citizens share the same basic problems: Costs of production and costs of distribution." (see Stenholm page 4)

TAHOKA VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT'S EMERGENCY AMBULANCE was paid for over a three-month period by individuals, businesses, and organizations, and it is now ready to use.

Fire Department's Emergency Van Being Equipped For County's Use

The emergency van for the Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department in Tahoka arrived some two weeks ago and is now equipped with just the basic life-saving equipment.

One of the most recent donations was that of the letters on the side of the van, the service being donated by Rubin Gandy.

Recent cash donors are Horace Rogers, $10; C. J. Bohannon, $20; and Ed Hamilton, $50.

The van itself was provided for the department at dealer's cost, by Mrs. Frances Chestnut at Bray Chevrolet Company.

Fire Chief J. T. Miller says that approximately $9,700 has been spent thus far in purchasing the van and buying some equipment.

"We're amazed and humble that such a worthwhile, needed piece of equipment could be purchased by the people in the county in just three months," Miller told The News this week.

Rotary To Honor Teachers At Banquet On October 13

Tahoka Rotary Club's annual banquet honoring Tahoka teachers will be next Thursday night, October 13, in the school cafeteria, Rotary president Horace Rogers announces.

Dr. C. L. Kay from Lubbock Christian College will be the featured speaker.

At last Thursday's Rotary Club meeting, J. B. Speer, Lubbock area information director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, brought the program and showed a film on the wild turkeys of Texas, in addition to presenting other interesting facts about the game bird.

Texas, he said, has more than half of the wild turkeys in the entire nation. There (see Rotary, page 4)

Snowden Plans Campaign For 17th District Position

JIM SNOWDEN

Jim Snowden, former Mayor of Tye, has officially announced his candidacy for the 17th Congressional District seat being vacated by Omar Burleson.

Snowden was elected to five two-year terms as Mayor of Tye, a small city near Abilene, and is presently serving on the City Council. He is currently employed as the Base Documentation Manager at Dyess Air Force Base in Abilene, but will retire from that position November 1, to devote full time to campaigning.

When asked why he was entering the race, Snowden replied, "The prime motivation came from a letter written by Attorney General John Hill, which was placed in a capsule to be opened 100 years from now. In this letter, John Hill warned that the people should start protecting themselves from the abuse of mass bureaucracy. I thought at the time that he was exactly right, but 100 years too late. I think we must begin now!"

The earliest cotton harvest known in Lynn County gains momentum each day, and gins over the county were reporting more than 50,000 bales of cotton had been ginned at the first of this week.

Some of the gins in the southern part of the county are reporting yields up to 1/4 bale per acre and that the grades are good.

A few days of high temperature and high wind made harvest operations difficult, but the cool dry weather on Monday of this week was what farmers needed. At press time, most outside activities were at a minimum due to light rain. Barring long spells of inclement weather, the harvest will near its halfway mark very soon.

New crop trading was slow during the week ending September 30, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of USDA's Cotton Classing office in Lubbock.

Growers sold a few small mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30 - 32, mikes 2.7 through 4.9 in a range of 350 to 525 points over 1977 loan rates.

High Plains harvest is well ahead of last year, Dickson said. About 21,000 samples were graded by Lubbock's Classing Office the week ending September 30. Season's total stands at 57,500. This compares with only six graded by this date a year ago, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Predominant grades for this week's classings were grade 31 at 56 percent, grade 40 was 16 percent, and grade 41 accounted for 18 percent.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 30 at 37 percent, staple 31 was 37 percent, and staple 32 accounted for 14 percent.

Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 3.5 - 4.9 range and accounted for 88 percent of the total.

Gins paid growers 62 to 70 dollars per ton for cotton seed, mostly 62 to 63.

Tahoka Schools Adopt New Policy For Bus-Riding Students, Effective Now

Jim Coulston, superintendent of Tahoka Independent School District, has announced that the school has adopted new policies for students who ride buses, and that the students' parents have been notified of the policies.

"Our school is committed to making our bus routes as safe as possible, all bus drivers take physical examinations, have chauffeurs' license, and attend a twenty-hour safety course," says Coulston. "The buses are inspected regularly and are equipped with first-aid kits, flares, extinguishers, etc.; in other words, we have taken every precaution to provide for the riders' safety," he continued.

The policy states that all students in the system who ride a bus to and from school are subject to regulations until they get off at their school or the bus stop near their home. Any misbehavior which distracts the driver is a very serious hazard to the safe operation of the vehicle, and as such, jeopardizes the safety of all passengers.

Each school bus and its driver must be licensed (see Bus, page 4)

Members who have resolutions to be presented should bring them to the meeting or bring them to the Farm Bureau Office.

Speaker for the occasion will be Assistant Director of State Affairs, Bill Bouders.

Bert Bryant Watches And Causes Progress In Cotton Industry Through Chemistry And Knowledge

BY MARY BRECHEEN

Cotton is more than the familiar "60-40" label in the neck of a garment or the recycled piece of paper that says "made of 100% cotton."

There's more to cotton than the bustle of activity on a nippy fall day just at dusk when the roads leading into town are crowded with trailers loaded with the white stuff that sometimes blows out and hangs permanently like a leech in a dead tumbleweed.

And there's even more than meets the eye with the neat rows of tiny green plants in the spring and then later, when the rains fall just right, when the tiny green plants seem to get knee-high overnight.

It's all a sight known well and loved dearly by those who rely on the stuff for the "good life."

Many years ago, the word "cotton" called forth the mental image of the Southern plantation with slaves' toiling long hours picking the stuff by hand, weighing in the long canvas sacks at the end of a day on a printed scale.

That same situation existed in Lynn County, with the exception of the slaves, of course, even as late as the early and middle 1950's. Great numbers of migrant laborers would move in to stay through the harvest, and on they would go. A farmer's biggest worry was housing for enough laborers to gather his crop. If he had two or three trailers, he was doing well because while one was being filled by hand picking or hand pulling, the farmer was able to come to town, get "ginned off," and be back with the empty.

That placid scene changed drastically with the use of and improvements in the machine strippers. They too had their growing pains--first, the one-row job that pitched the leaves, the stalk sometimes, and the open boll back into a trailer pulled by a tractor on which the stripper was mounted. Next came the better models--the stripper, "catcher" and all on the tractor. Machinery enabled the driver to dump an entire load directly into the trailer, and the farmer was barely able to have enough trailers because the gathering operation had become too fast for him.

Then there appeared the module builders, etc.--another convenience which complicated as well as eased the farmer's situation.

All that to say this: Every facet of the cotton farming industry has gone through unbelievable evolutions in the past 100 years, and prospects are good that it will continue to evolve--all in the name of progress and self-preservation for the farmer.

Bert Bryant, who has a seed delinting business at Tahoka, is one who has watched the wheels of such progress, from numerous vantage points.

He was born in Terry County; he grew up in Dawson County; and he farmed in Lamb County. It was over at Littlefield in 1961 that he had a job which was to become a career for him and a career which knew no limits in its potential to change the cotton farming which he had known.

That first job was to run a delinting machine in a plant, after which he became a public relations man, a salesman, then manager of the plant, and eventually he came to have his own seed-delinting business. In 1966, he came to Tahoka with his business, and besides putting to work the scientific process of removing the lint from cotton seed, he began developing his own variety of seed.

A novice who asks questions about the why's and wherefore's of seed delinting learns from Bert Bryant that the process is a complicated one. He is recognized by his colleagues not only as a master of the trade, but also as one who is constantly learning more about it.

He remembers that when he was a child, there were two varieties of cotton seed, in comparison to at least 75 now.

In describing the process of delinting seeds, in the layman's terms, he starts with it as it is picked up at the gin by the delinter, as requested by the farmer and the ginner. There'll be loads ranging from 800 pounds to 150 tons, the average being in the neighborhood of 10,000 pounds.

That seed is first subjected to a moisture test, duration about a minute. Then it is chemically delinted, the lightweight, premature seeds are culled, the seed is treated with fertilizer, etc., and it is stored for safekeeping until the farmer calls for it--maybe not until the next planting season.

It all sounds fairly simple, but it isn't. The numbers alone can boggle the mind. Bryant says a farmer who has 1,000 acres of dry land will use 20 pounds of cotton seed per acre, 20,000 pounds or 400 50-pound bags--to the tune of anywhere from six to eight thousand dollars.

The professional organization in which he holds membership, the American Delinters Association, is small in number, but covers the entire cotton-producing belt in the nation. This year, the approximately 300 people met in Ruidoso. Bryant says that one of the main objectives of the Association is "to be heard." Governmental controls are making it increasingly difficult on businesses such as he owns, and although he is not opposed to regulations which are necessary, he is of the opinion that more and more, the agencies are depressing the small independent businessman.

Bert Bryant doesn't have all the answers nor is he totally pessimistic and certainly not totally optimistic about the plight of the independent businessman versus the Big Brother.

In his business, however, one that is vital to the on-going of the cotton industry, he sees the need for cohesiveness among the proprietors and the need to do all within one's power to get the facts before the people--facts about the seed delinting profession as well as facts about its relation to the industry as a whole.

 living are rising every day because of inflation; government regulations that have no relation to the needs of the country punish producers and consumers instead of encouraging production, initiative, and peace of mind.

Speaking to on-lookers at each brief stop, Stenholm said that the 17th District is "unique among congressional districts" in that voters can send someone to congress who knows the problems of agriculture, business, rural and urban areas from a lifetime of living and working in the district. He added that the "numbers of individuals involved in agricultural and energy production has decreased at a time when this production has increased in importance to the country."

"When you consider that the voice of this important segment of our economy has decreased in Washington where the laws, rules, and guidelines are written that regulate the economy where we all make our living," Stenholm said, "then the importance of sending someone to Washington who understands the needs of a district whose livelihood is tied to the land makes the uniqueness of the 17th District very crucial."

The day's tour ended in Big Spring Tuesday evening with a rally. Stenholm is seeking the congressional seat now held by Omar Burleson. Burleson announced in August that he would retire at the end of his current term in 1978.

 A one-time stock farmer, Snowden is also deeply concerned over the fact that the "little man" is invariably ignored in this era of big-time politics.

Snowden gained the spotlight in the Big Country area through his service on the 42nd District Court grand jury from late 1976 to early 1977. He initiated the grand jury investigation of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission (TABC) in Abilene for alleged abuse of power and violations of the Texas Liquor Control Act. His main objective was to see that the Liquor Control Act was enforced equally among the public as well as members of the TABC, and that no one's rights were abused.

The son of the late H. M. Snowden, a former Tahoka businessman and county judge of Garza County, Snowden was born September 23, 1921 and attended public schools in Tahoka. On November 1, 1942, he enlisted in the Army Air Corps from Post, and was assigned to the pilot cadet program at Texas Tech in Lubbock. Upon graduation, he served as a B-17 and B-25 pilot during World War II.

He is married to the former Margie Ethridge of Post and they have three children.

Snowden plans a personal-type campaign to include all 33 counties of the 17th Congressional District. His campaign slogan? "Let's Try Common Sense."

AROUND TOWN

By Leona Waldrip

998-4496

Fourteen members of Lynn County Pioneer Club enjoyed Senior Citizens Day at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair on Thursday.

The mini-bus and one car were used to transport the group, leaving at 9 a.m. and returning at 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. Pat Swann entered the contest for "Best School Girl" and was dressed in a basketball costume (bloomers) of yesteryear. Others participated in the exercise program and the sing-along, all events held in the Fair Park Coliseum.

Mrs. Thelma Dewbre had surgery in St. Mary's Hospital on Thursday, for removal of a cataract from her right eye.

She was allowed to come home on Friday. Her daughters, Ruth Green from Comanche and Joyce McCord of Commerce came Wednesday night to be with her. They returned to their homes on Sunday.

September birthdays were celebrated at Lynn County Pioneer Club building on Friday, with Mrs. Willie Thomas and Mrs. Lottie House as hostesses.

Only two of the five expected were on hand when Happy Birthday was sung, but seventeen people were there to wish Leona Holden and Mrs. W. T. Luttrell "many more." The center was tastefully decorated and cake and punch were served.

A beautiful new color TV has been purchased for the club with the Abbe Memorial money. Next regular luncheon meeting at the center is this Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gaither attended wedding ceremonies at 2:30 Saturday afternoon in Lubbock, when grand-daughter Tommie Miller became the bride of Richard Johnston.

Rev. H. F. Scott officiated in Bacon Heights Baptist Church. Mrs. Robbie Fortner attended her sister, and Larry Ketton was best man.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ruby J. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. B. J.

Johnston. The bride is a graduate of Coronado High School, and the bridegroom is a CHS Graduate and attends Texas Tech. They will live in Lubbock after a wedding trip to Ruidoso.

Mrs. Annette Ellison, who had major surgery last Monday, was able to be home on Saturday. She is a fifth-grade teacher in the local schools.

Mrs. Sally Hager had major surgery in Lynn County Hospital Sunday morning.

Minister of music and education at First Baptist Church Morris Johnston is leading the singing for revival services at Lubbock's University Baptist Church this week, Monday through Sunday.

Evangelist Bill Dudley of Waynesville, Missouri is doing the preaching and Reverend Clifton Igo is the pastor. Services are at 7:30 each evening and Tahoka people are invited to attend.

Reverend "Tut" Jones has resigned his pastorate of Sweet Street Baptist Church and has moved, to pastor a church in Weatherford.

Former Minister Speaks At Wells Baptist Church On 25th

D. W. Copeland of Gatesville, who formerly preached at Central Baptist Church, Bethel, Wells, Redwine, Knapp, and High Valley churches, spoke to a large crowd at Wells Baptist Church on Sunday, September 25th, accompanied by four members of the church where he now preaches, Cold Springs.

Copeland and his wife, Ila, were guests in the Jack Hoskins home on Saturday night, the 24th, and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Petrie, Brian and Lois Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. David Treadway, all of whom played and sang at the worship service on Sunday.

The group sang for residents of Colonial Nursing Home on Sunday morning, and following the morning worship service at Wells, those attending had lunch at the church.

Copeland has preached for twenty-five years and was a counselor at Gatesville School for Boys for thirteen years, and friends say that some of the boys still write and call him.

According to one source, Copeland has many friends over the South Plains. "He never too busy to take the time to go wherever he needed and he preaches and helps all, regardless of race, color, or creed," she said.

That source continued, "It's always a joy and blessing whenever Brother Copeland and his lovely wife, Ila, visit us. He calls Lynn County his home and has been our pastor, our counselor, and most of all our dearest friend! Most of the people around here share our feelings."

Wilson Falls To Jayton 33-0

On September 30 the Wilson Mustangs traveled to Jayton, and the trip was not a pleasurable one.

The Jaybirds dominated the game early in the first quarter and coasted to a 33-0 win, but Coach Danny Chisum felt his team did some fine work. "We faced a much bigger defense than we've met before, and it was our best offensive game, with 206 total yards. Our defense settled in after some early mistakes and did a respectable job too."

Standouts on defense were Tony Garcia, with 9 tackles, Quintin Talkmitt 10, Gilbert Acuna 10, Ernest Acuna 6, and Calvin Wilke 7. Lucio Trevino recovered two fumbles while Bene Garcia and Wilke made interceptions. Offensively, Wilke carried 19 times for 123 yards, and Garcia 9 times for 27 yards.

District play begins October 7 for the Mustangs, and Coach Chisum expects early season experience to come in hand against Sands. "We're steadily improving," Coach Chisum stated, "and our record doesn't show the hard work all these young players are putting in." All remaining games will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Sherry Etheredge Says

Have you tried yogurt? The sour cream, yogurt is both, elegant, and versatile. It's a food to be enjoyed for its special taste and multiple uses. Once you acquire a taste for this nutritious food, you quickly develop the yogurt habit. Yogurt is a thick, custard-like dairy product made by fermenting milk with a special culture. Either whole milk or skim milk with nonfat milk solids is used. It comes plain or in a variety of fruit flavors and has a refined flavor all its own. Now is a good time to start cultivating a taste for something this good since all milk and dairy products are in heavy supply this month.

according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). Marketing specialists with USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service say that commercial stocks of dairy products are very large and milk production is at levels not seen in a decade. That means there will be an abundant supply of yogurt in your dairy cases this month.

When cooking with yogurt, here are some tips: Always spare the heat: Low temperatures and short heating times are best or, like sour cream, yogurt may separate. To prevent separation, stabilize yogurt by adding a small amount of flour or cornstarch. Fold, do not stir, yogurt into other ingredients and it will keep its consistency. For baking, use only 1/2 teaspoon of baking soda for each cup of yogurt used.

Some special ways to embellish plain yogurt for desserts:

- *Sprinkle brown sugar over plain yogurt.
- *Drizzle honey over plain yogurt (2 tablespoons honey to each cup yogurt).
- *Stir 1 tablespoon sugar and 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon into 1 cup plain yogurt.
- *Combine 2 tablespoons chopped nuts, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg. Sprinkle over plain yogurt. Sufficient mixture for 1 cup yogurt.

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

3 ways energy can be saved in the home.

1 By improving the thermal integrity of the structure itself; by adding insulation, installing double glazed windows, reducing hot and cold air infiltration.

2 By installing efficient energy-saving systems and appliances.

3 By adopting wise use habits.

EFFICIENT USE OF FUEL RESOURCES.

The heat pump uses electricity efficiently because it can deliver as much as two units of heat for every one unit of electricity it uses during the heating season. The heat pump makes efficient use of fuel resources because it uses electricity for heating and cooling, and thus allows use of the nation's more plentiful fuels like coal. Southwestern Public Service is now reducing its dependence on natural gas as a fuel and is building plants that use coal to make electricity. Using fuels like coal preserves the nation's scarce petroleum resources for other uses. The heat pump saves electricity... and saves you money.

It's the electric savings machine!

OUR GENERATION IS FOR YOU!

Shine on, shine on harvest moon.

This is the time of year to take a good look at what you've got to work with. The real nuts and bolts of farming... your machinery and equipment.

Because if they're not up to par, you're taking a big risk on losing what you bank on all year — your crops.

Just remember this about us when you're taking stock; we've helped a lot of farmers in our area get where they are today by loaning them the money to buy equipment and machinery when they needed it. And if there's one thing we understand, it's timing. Because the weather won't wait until you're ready. We know we can help you better.

People are our best assets.

Farm and ranch fires not only produce great financial losses, but in many cases have totally terminated a producer's business.

Special emphasis to reduce such losses is the subject of National Fire Prevention Week, October 9-15.

Many farm and ranch fire losses are associated with the use of tractors and machinery. Common causes of tractor and machinery fires include defects in fuel or ignition systems, improper methods of refueling, smoking and matches, overheated engines, sparks from exhaust systems and various sources of friction.

The agent points out the following preventive measures:

- *Use good practice when refueling, taking special care to prevent spills or contact with hot surfaces.

- *Permanently ground fuel storage tanks to prevent a buildup of static electricity. Further, be sure the storage tank is electrically bonded to the tractor through the hose or a separate bonding wire before refueling.

- *Tolerate no smoking near fuel operations or near materials which are highly combustible.

- *Watch for and repair leaks in fuel lines, carburetors, pumps, filters and exhaust systems.

- *Keep engines and machinery properly tuned and lubricated to avoid backfiring and friction.

- *When using flammable materials while overhauling, degreasing or repainting, work only in a well-ventilated place or outside. Also, be cautious about welding and other sources of heat or sparks.

You can help your backyard fruit, nut and shade trees withstand winter cold if you will "cut their water off" in mid-to-late September.

The principle involved is the hardening off process which hothouse grown plants are subjected to before transplanting. Hardening is done by gradually subjecting a plant to more harsh growing conditions so that it "toughens up" and will withstand adverse conditions better, such as cold and drought.

A backyard tree you have been pampering with plenty of water and perhaps fertilizer tends to be soft and succulent and susceptible to cold injury. As autumn approaches, days grow shorter and temperatures get lower and lower. This starts to harden the tree. To help this process, give your trees a good deep soaking as deep as the roots go (usually 4-5 feet) from the middle to the last of September, then cut off the watering (except shallow watering for lawns) until about Christmas. The root zone of a tree rooting 3 feet deep will store plenty of water to last until the first killing frost.

From mid-September until frost, the tree continues to withdraw water from the soil. As it does so, the available water supply in the root zone shrinks lower and lower and becomes harder and harder for the roots to absorb. This gradually puts the tree under stress which slows down its growth and hardens its cells. All the tree needs now to trigger it into dormancy is a gentle nudge--the first killing frost. Your tree is now ready for winter.

Garden Club Opens Year At Luncheon

Tahoka Garden Club opened its '77-78 club year on Tuesday, September 20, with a covered-dish luncheon at the community center.

A business session was held after the meal at which time plans were made for the annual flower show on October 20th. Also, the new yearbook was presented by the yearbook chairman, Mrs. N. M. Wyatt, and the club voted to have a "trash and treasure" booth at the Harvest Festival on September 24th.

A most interesting discussion and demonstration of flower arranging was given by Mrs. Virginia Hodges, well known artist and national flower show judge, of Lubbock.

The next meeting will be October 18 at the home of Mrs. A. C. Weaver when Emily Cauhape, conservation information specialist for Pioneer Gas Company of Lubbock, will discuss energy needs in the years ahead and how to meet them.

Kolodziejczyk Is Ordained As Deacon

The first group of 27 permanent deacons are being ordained in the Diocese of Amarillo this month, thirteen having been ordained at St. Lawrence Cathedral in Amarillo on October 2nd, and fourteen to be ordained at Our Lady of Grace in Lubbock on the 9th.

Joe Kolodziejczyk of Wilson is in the latter group, and admittance is by invitation only because of limited seating space.

Kolodziejczyk, 62, was born in Yorktown, but has lived in Wilson since 1922. He and his wife, Marie, who is deceased, began farming in 1950 and he continues with that work at present. He was one of the prime movers in establishing Blessed Sacrament mission in Wilson in 1962.

He will be serving that community, under the direction of Our Lady of Guadalupe parish in Slaton, as a deacon. He has been active and hopes now to be even more of a servant of the Lord Jesus and His people.

NEW SCOUT TROOP IS ORGANIZED AT WILSON

A new troop of senior Girl Scouts has been organized at Wilson, under the leadership of Mrs. Lana Daniell and Mrs. Tom Freitag.

Organized with five girls, the senior troop is inviting all area girls 13-18 years of age to join them. The group has been meeting each Monday afternoon from 4 to 5 in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church at Wilson, but as soon as clean-up work is completed, they will meet at the old Mustang Cafe downtown.

Officers recently elected include Cindy Freitag, president; Karen Stegemoeller, vice-president; Debbie Daniell, secretary-treasurer; Tracy Bartley, reporter-photographer; and Dawn Phillips, telephone chairman.

The group is already making plans for a back-pack trip in late October. Mrs. Daniell has been training the girls in back-pack and camping know-how.

Anyone interested in joining the group is invited to attend the regular Monday meeting.

Brownies and Cadet Girl Scouts also meet on Monday at the fellowship hall, with Mrs. Pat Schneider as leader.

Club Reports Successful Blood Drive

Mrs. Betty Owens, coordinator of the blood drive sponsored by Phebe K. Warner Study Club on September 24th, reports that a hundred people volunteered to donate blood, and 87 units of blood were actually drawn during the drive.

"This is a clear example of concerned people in our community responding unselfishly to a great need--the need for blood," said Mrs. Owens. "We can all feel pride that these volunteer donors are our friends and neighbors," she added.

Over 25 units of blood are needed by patients in our hospital each month and this blood can only come from healthy human beings--there is no substitute for blood.

Blood Services of Lubbock expresses its gratitude to those who volunteered to help others by giving of themselves.

Freshmen Elect Officers

Tahoka High's freshman class named Stina Bryson president at a recent class meeting.

Other officers are Sheri Tomlinson, vice-president; Cathy Meeks, treasurer; Cindy Lawson, secretary; and Amy Porterfield, reporter.

Student council representatives are Randall Stotts, Sheri Tomlinson, Debby Gwin, and Amy Porterfield.

The class also nominated three girls to represent them at the September 24th Harvest Festival: Sheri Tomlinson, Teresa Arellano, and Johnetta Hatchett. Sheri was one of the ten finalists.

For the homecoming festivities, Maritza Fowlkes was the queen nominee from the class and Terry Botkin was her escort.

Cheerleaders helping to promote spirit for the freshmen and junior varsity players are Gloria Gutierrez, head; Lani Brown, Maritza Fowlkes, and Amy Porterfield.

The class is grateful to those who helped with the homecoming hall decorations and to those who worked on the float and rode on it in the parade.
