Candidates For State Senate, U. S. Congress Meet At Tahoka Political Rally Monday Night

Six candidates for Senator from the 28th District of Texas, and six candidates for U.S. Congressman from the 17th District were in Tahoka Monday night of this week to appear at an issues forum in the high school auditorium, sponsored by Lynn County Farm Bureau.

Leland White, Farm Bureau President, welcomed the audience, and introduced Cleve Littlepage who opened the meeting with a prayer and later introduced the candidates before each spoke briefly.

Walter Driver, minister of First United Methodist Church at O'Donnell, led a prayer at the conclusion of the meeting.

Senatorial candidates present were Democrats E. L. Short, Tahoka; Delwin Jones, Don Workman, and Morris W. Turner, all of Lubbock; Jesse T. George, Brownfield; and Republican candidate Joe Robbins, also of Lubbock.

U.S. Congressional candidates present were A. L. (Dusty) Rhodes and Fike Godfrey, both of Abilene; Jim Snowden, Tye; Charles Stenholm, Stamford; Jim Baum, Big Spring; and Crews McCulloch, Weatherford.

Veteran legislator E. L. Short vowed that if he were nominated in the May 6 Democratic primary, he would begin working in July preparing needed legislation, before he took office in January. Short represented seven of the district's thirteen counties in the Texas House of Representatives from 1969 to 1976.

He also expressed his desire to bring together the leaders of Texas agricultural organizations, in one common effort for the farmers of the State, and to establish new markets for farm products.

Jesse T. George
Also a former member of the Texas House of Representatives, George expressed his feeling that the critical issues currently are education and public school finance, agriculture, energy, and taxes.

He said that school districts must maintain local control, and that emphasis must be placed on basics as well as vocational training.

M. W. Turner
Turner, a former Mayor of Lubbock, said that people were not voting because of a distrust of politicians who say one thing and do another.

Donors Add To Museum Fund

According to Mrs. Kenneth Turner, chairman of the Museum Finance Committee, donations to the fund now total $1,410.

Recent donations are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Wood, $50; Mrs. Coye Collier, $50; and Memorials, $135.

appointed Assistant to the President, and was named Treasurer in September of last year. Prior to joining the company, he taught corporate finance at the University of Texas and later held the position of Senior Investment Manager for First Chicago Corporation. He holds a bachelor's degree in economics and finance from Southern Methodist University, a master's degree from Harvard Business School, and a doctorate in finance (see Hegi, page 3)

Attorney General Hill's Campaign Introduced To Tahoka By Mrs. Hill

John (Bitsy) Hill, wife of the gubernatorial candidate, brought her husband's campaign to Tahoka on Wednesday, March 15, at an informal coffee in the Tahoka Cafeteria.

Mrs. Hill was accompanied by campaign worker Joyce Hill of Dallas. Attorney General Hill has been in Tahoka for several years, and was in the State when John Hill was Governor. He is seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor in the May 6 primary in Tahoka.

American Agriculture Movement was necessary, and that the farmers had done a good job of bringing it to the attention of the nation. The farmers need leadership from the Governor's office, she said.

She also said that her husband would favor a tax on the productivity of land, and that the State's surplus should be used to relieve the burden on the taxpayer. In that area, she said "John (see Hill, page 3)

Solomon, Mason Speak At Chamber Breakfast Meet

Thirty-six members of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce met for breakfast at 7 o'clock Tuesday, the 21st, and heard Jim Solomon, with the Clint Walker Agency, and Ray Mason, City Administrator, tell of the City's immediate plans and needs in the area of housing and city-wide clean-up.

Mason reported that the Othell Meeks property, west of the city, which will be annexed, and additional property in the Roberts Addition, will provide lots for more homes and some commercial interests. He used an engineer's map to show plans for housing and needed water and sewer developments.

He also reported that he will soon try for a $500,000 grant which will be used for paving and cleanup in the low-income area of the city. (see Chamber, page 3)

DUSTY RHODES, candidate for U.S. Congress from the 17th District of Texas, was in Tahoka Monday afternoon, and stopped by the news office with two youthful campaigners, Robin Taylor and Gary White. Rhodes, an Abilene attorney, rancher, and oilman, is seeking the House position being vacated by Congressman Omar Burleson.

The Spectator...
By Mary Brecheen

Don't buy the popular theory that some bad go along with some good, just to balance the scales, but it's hard to program one's thinking otherwise. Downtown streets have taken on a new look only known in some circles as "clean," but in a new day dawn (the morning after the before), some of the area has the appearance after-the-funeral scene in the movie, Dr. Psycho--forsaken and quiet, but with trash here and there. I don't know what it was in that Russian town in Tahoka, it's Coors cans and Coke cups. The taxpayer foots the bill for a new street sewer, the City administers the necessary pipes, and the unconcerned wreak havoc--a car syndrome.

The most talked-about subject, second only to weather, is the state of the nation and the situation, moral decay in the home as well as in government, the Panama Canal Treaties, lack of public education, interference in our lives by the government, the farmers' almost desperate situation, and many other issues are vital concerns of every individual--even if he or she is unaware of that fact. Give lip service to our concern, but when an opportunity comes along which might give us insight into possible solutions to the problems, or a way to alleviate them, we are strikingly apathetic. Six weeks, a new State Senator from District 17, and a new Representative from District 17, and a new States Senator from Texas (not necessarily a change), plus others, will be elected. Candidates for the State Senate and the United States House of Representatives were in Tahoka Monday night, thanks to Lynn County Farm Bureau, and every voter had the opportunity and privilege to hear them and to further enhance his ability to vote wisely. However, the attendance was sparse--embarrassingly so. I don't have the answers, but I am sure they're buried in the sand--where our heads seem to

Mrs. Wiley Curry's 83 Years Used Wisely... For Her Family And Friends

BY MARY BRECHEEN

The great statesman Benjamin Franklin is credited with the adage, "Dost thou love life? Then waste not time, for time is the stuff that life is made of." Mrs. Wiley Curry, a 57-year-resident of Tahoka, adheres to the advice of old Ben Franklin, and her use of time has not only kept her young in spirit, but has been an inspiration to her family and to the host of people who are her friends. She has obviously been a wise manager of her time because last Saturday, March 18, she was 83 years old, and her life is almost too full of events for a mere fourscore and three years. It was on March 18 in 1895 that Ora Mae Isham was born in Limestone County, near Groesbeck, to Newt and Nancy Isham, and she gained her formal education at the small Dale School nearby. When she was seventeen, she and a neighbor boy, Wiley Curry, were married--on November 10, 1912. They lived in Navarro County, where three sons were born, and then moved west to Lynn County, arriving on December 7, 1920, where they added three more sons to their family.

The Curry's "settled" east of the little village of Tahoka in the house now occupied by the Jake Dunlap's, and lived there six years before moving to the Curry homeplace, also directly east of town. An old crock churn in Mrs. Curry's kitchen today bears the picture of the house and barn, and the inscription, "The Wiley Curry Homeplace, Tahoka, Lynn County, Texas, 1926-1948," the painting being done by Mrs. Calloway Huffaker of Tahoka.

work, she laughed and said, "Bob Chambers (a neighbor) would say that he could tell when I had weaned one of the boys, for he would be on the go-devil the next day." The Curry's built a home in Tahoka in 1948, where she has lived since his death in July of 1957, much of that time alone, but after two falls which immobilized her somewhat, Geneva Carter and Lillian Lambright stay with her, Mrs. Carter through the week, and Mrs. Lambright on weekends. Each Friday night, a group of her friends come in to play "88" and there are few lonely times in between, for she lives life to the fullest, making every minute count. Her home is filled with her beautiful handiwork, and she is generous with it, seeing that every daughter-in-law has a sampling of her work. Four of her six sons, her daughters-in-law, and some of the 21 grandchildren and at least 45 great-grandchildren pay tribute to her often, the most recent occasion being her 83rd birthday. Two sons, Pete and Otis, are deceased; Cecil lives at Plainview, Jim Bob at Hale Center, and Albert and Dan in Tahoka. "I was not fortunate enough to have a daughter, but my daughters-in-law are as dear as a

Still-Abbe Vows Said In March 18 Church Rites

Miss Sally Jane Still became the bride of Donald Ray Abbe at 7 p.m. March 18th at the First Christian Church in Lubbock, and the ceremony was officiated by Jim Sutherland, minister.

The bride was attired in a floor-length white chiffon dress with a bodice of Venice lace flowers, and a short chapel train. The Juliet caplet of matching Venice lace flowers and chiffon veil was also chapel length, and her bouquet was a cascade of white gladiolus and baby's breath.

Kathy Kennedy of Lake Jackson was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were LeAnne Klusman, Houston; Carol Collmer, Wichita Falls; and Barbara Abbe, the groom's sister, of Tahoka. The bridal attendants wore aqua floor-length shirt-waist floor-length dresses, with long sleeves, and they carried colonial bouquets of daisies and baby's breath.

Robert Abbe, Jr., of Wilson, was best man, and groomsmen were Bobby Weaver, Lubbock; Mike Lankford, Tahoka; and Rodolfo Rocha, Lubbock.

Loretta Abbe, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She carried a basket of daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. Clay Bennett provided organ music, and guests were seated by Mike Heintze, Lubbock, and Wayne Crawford, Seminole.

At the reception, the three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with a colonial bouquet and a cascade of daisies and baby's breath. A German chocolate cake was served at the groom's table.

Members of the house-party were Sharon Abbe of Chicago, Illinois, cousin of the groom, Mrs. Robert Abbe, Jr., Wilson, Cynthia Collis of El Paso, Mary Elizabeth Snyder of El Paso, Joan Weldon of Idalou, and Dianna Everett and Donna Aldridge, both of Lubbock.

Both the bride and the groom are graduates of Texas Tech University, and are attending graduate school there, he working toward his doctorate. She is a 1972 graduate of Irvin High School in El Paso, and he is a 1968 graduate of Tahoka High School.

Following a wedding trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico, they will be at home in Lubbock.

AROUND TOWN

by Leona Waldrip

The mother of Wilma Smith, Mrs. Wilma Morris of Plainview, underwent hip surgery in a hospital there on Wednesday of last week.

The Smiths visited her on the weekend. Taking advantage of the school break, Patricia Smith is visiting in the home of her uncle, Loyd Smith, and Robert is visiting in the home of an aunt, Mary Barrett, both in Plainview.

Wednesday night dinner guests in my home were Mr. and Mrs. Randall Waldrip of Levelland, Leta Brown of Lubbock, and Mrs. Ruth Koch of Roff, Oklahoma.

Out-of-town relatives here for the Joe Anderson funeral on Thursday included Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jolly and Mrs. Phama Ryan, all of California, and Judy Burkhardt of Nevada.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhinehart and Alvin Anderson of Breckenridge, Maria Dismuke of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Harris and family of Slaton.

hostess for the Past Noble Grand Club on Thursday night. Six members were present, and after the regular business session, a meal was served those present.

Visiting in Dimmitt on Sunday, Mrs. Ruby Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Edwards attended the Open House honoring his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Edwards, who recently moved into a new home there.

Many lovely gifts were displayed and friends from the First Baptist Church presented the couple with a money tree.

The Edwards lived in Lynn County for many years, farming being their occupation. They moved to near Dimmitt in the late 1950's.

About one hundred persons attended the Open House.

Mrs. Lucy Brice and Mrs. Leona Holden were hostesses Friday when Lynn County Pioneer Club met for regular luncheon meeting.

Sixty-seven persons registered for the occasion, and carried out, and a large birthday cake centered the table where guests of honor were seated.

The club will have a "fun day" this week on Friday afternoon when members can spend the afternoon playing 42, 88, or other games.

Next regular luncheon will be April 7th. Workers have been getting more quilting to do than they can keep up with, so anyone who would like to quilt may come any day and help. Donations collected on this project will go toward the building addition that has been started.

Ladies Golf Group To Elect Officers

T-Bar Ladies Golf Association will have its noon luncheon and business meeting on Tuesday, March 28, at which time officers will be elected.

Mrs. Leo Dull Will Conduct Session

There will be a film question-and-answer program so that inquiries are satisfied, and all interested persons in the New area are urged to attend meeting.

The program is mainly for elderly citizens who help with their everyday activities.

In addition to providing much-needed services, the program provides an opportunity for employed homemakers.

Proper storage and attention to expiration date are two factors that directly affect the potency and quality of your prescription. Some drugs have a definite expiration date, while others may not deteriorate for months or even years. It is well to ask your pharmacist about the expiration date of a new prescription and to write that date on the container label. It is also good practice to inquire about proper storage of a medication. In most cases, the bathroom "medicine cabinet" is a poor location for your prescription. These cabinets are generally placed directly above the wash-basin where heat and steam may cause the drug to spoil. You are well advised to store medications at room temperature, unless otherwise specified, safely away from children and in an area removed from sun or strong light.

Joe Robbins

The Republican candidate is an incumbent member of the legislature, and says that the key issues are water importation, taxation, and energy.

Flke Godfrey

Godfrey praised Lynn County's productivity, and warned that federal bureaucracy against people in the private sector must be stopped. He has been Chief Executive Officer of West Texas Chamber of Commerce since 1971, and is a native of Dickens County.

Crews McCulloch

McCulloch said he felt that the real issue of the campaign for U.S. Congress is continued good, honest representation. He said he did not feel that the job was one that could be bought, and that it was up to the people to decide which candidate had the best credentials.

Charles Stenholm

A Stamford farmer, Stenholm said that the 17th District is one of the few that is still rural, and that there are only fourteen farmers in the U.S. Congress, four of whom make a living farming.

Dusty Rhodes

Rhodes said the basic philosophy of the campaign was sending someone to Washington who can best represent the people. "Concerning inflation," he said, "We must 'bite the bullet' and bring spending under control."

Jim Snowden

At one time a resident of Tahoka, Snowden said that three months before the farmers started their American Agriculture Movement, he paid for an ad in the Abilene Reporter-News saying he believed in fair prices for farmers, and that he endorsed 130 percent of parity, not 100 percent.

Jim Baum

The last of the twelve candidates to speak, Baum, a Big Spring broadcaster, said that leadership and initiative are his outstanding characteristics. He said that apathy was not the cause of small crowds at rallies such as this, but an attitude of defeatism. He has carried his campaign to the homes of voters, and simply says that he thinks there's a better way to go than the middle-income squeeze.

He feels that he is the only candidate who has a long-range solution to the farmers and ranchers' problems.

Agriculture Day/Cotton Promotion Subject Of Poster Contest In County Schools

TONY SALINAS, SHANNON SIMPSON, JOHN SEGURA
Tahoka

March 20 marked the fifth anniversary of Agriculture Day in America, and in Lynn County, the occasion was marked by a poster contest in the county's four schools, coordinated by Mrs. Jo Carol Long, president of Lynn County Cotton Association.

"The goal of Ag Day '78 was to promote better understanding among farmers and consumers of their products and to drive home the point that almost everything, including the good life, starts on the farm," says Texas Agriculture, the official publication of Texas Farm Bureau.

The continuing progress of agriculture, in the fact of the problems it faces, is of extreme importance if the American lifestyle is to remain, and the American Agriculture Day Foundation strives to get this idea across through newspapers, magazines, radio, and television.

Lynn County students showed an uncanny understanding of the importance of agriculture, and the winning posters are displayed at The Fabric Place in Tahoka.

"Despite such short notice to our schools, they did a super job of getting the message across to the students and in helping us pull the county together in this effort," said Mrs. Long.

Edwards, Baker Are Married On March 19th

MRS. JOHNNY W. BAKER ...nee Jill Edwards

Miss Jill Edwards and Johnny W. Baker, both of Lubbock, were married at 3 p.m. on Sunday, March 19, in First United Methodist Church at Tahoka, the ceremony being officiated by Rev. Herbert G. Tavenner, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Slaton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Edwards, Jr. of Tahoka, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Baker of Quanah.

The church was decorated with two brass floor candle trees holding cathedral tapers and decorated with springer greenery and gypsophilia. In the center was the kneeling Predeau and the unity candle in a brass candelabrum, decorated with greenery and gypsophilia. The bridal aisle was decorated with brown leather greenery, gypsophilia, and apricot and brown satin bows.

An ensemble of three played selections before and during the ceremony, and The Lord's Prayer was played while the couple knelt.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight double layer chiffon design featuring a scoop neck bordered by heavy lace appliques. The bodice was gathered onto the neckline and cummerbund which fell into a chapel-length train. Lace applique cuffs finished the long, full sheer sleeves, and her veil fell from a lace caplet and was highlighted by lace edging.

Her cascade bouquet was of white Bridal Roses, stephanotis, and gypsophilia, accented with green leaves and Pecot satin streamers. Mrs. Paul Misso of Dallas was matron of honor and was attired in an apricot crepe floor-length sleeveless dress featuring a scoop neck accented by a lace-edged full circle cape collar which dipped in the back. A cummerbund emphasized the raised waistline.

Miss Carol Thomas of Dallas and Mrs. Mike Huffaker of Tahoka, sister of the groom, were bridesmaid and bride's matron, and were attired in the same design as that of the matron of honor.

The bridal attendants' colonial bouquets were of apricot miniature carnations, brown germaine statice, and satin streamers.

The mothers of the couple wore corsages of white Bridal Roses and stephanotis.

Joe Gayle Baker of Quanah was his brother's best man, and groomsmen were Phil Chaffins of Oklahoma City and Mike Huffaker of Tahoka.

Ushers were Jack Edwards of Dimmitt, and Jody Edwards of Tahoka, brothers of the bride.

At the reception following the ceremony, in the Fellowship Hall of the church, the bride's table was decorated with a bouquet of Bridal Roses, apricot carnations, brown statice, and greenery, in a brass candelabrum, holding white tapers. Brass appointments were used.

A brass candelabrum with brown candles and a dried bouquet of apricot and brown accents decorated the groom's table.

For a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, the bride wore a three-piece pink linen suit, with a white Bridal Rose corsage.

A teacher in Idalou schools, Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Tahoka High School, Sam Houston State University, and Southern Methodist University. Baker is a graduate of Quanah High School and Texas Tech University, and is associated with Citizens Bank in Slaton. The Baker's will be at home at 3310-A 81st Street in Lubbock.

Nematode Control Important In Gardens

Nematodes, tiny microscopic creatures that look like worms, may be the unseen cause to those dying garden plants.

So, if you've had problems with nematodes in your garden, now is the time to take action—by chemical control and ordering seeds of resistant vegetable varieties.

The root knot nematode is the most common underground pest in the home garden. Signs of nematode infestation include yellowing leaves, or more commonly, hardened galls or knots in the root system.

It is estimated that 40 percent of the gardens in Texas are infected with nematodes. Tomatoes, okra, beans, squash, peas, peppers, and cantaloupe are the primary victims of these pests.

The nematode damages a plant when it inserts a hollow stylet, resembling a hypodermic syringe, into the plant and feeds off the cell sap.

Punctures may be repeated several thousand times while a nematode feeds. Galls formed along the root system result from enzymes secreted in the plant cell while nematodes feed.

Planting resistant varieties of tomatoes and peas solves the problem for these vegetables. Nematode resistant tomatoes include Big Set, Bonus, Terrific, Small Fry and Better Boy. Mississippi Silver is a nematode resistant southern pea variety.

However, the cure for most other vegetables relies on chemical controls. The liquid material, Vapam, effectively controls nematodes. But it must be used with sufficient amounts of water and should be applied only when the soil temperature above 55 degrees F. The soil should be treated at least a month before planting time so as to avoid damage to plants.

Nematodes can be controlled with chemicals, but this calls for careful examination of your plants to prevent extensive damage. If in doubt about the presence of nematodes, send a soil sample to the Nematode Detection Lab, Texas A & M University, College Station, Tex. 77843.

Buy Garden Seed Wisely

When the time comes to plant your garden, avoid spending your hard-earned money on bargain seed.

A prime rule for success in home gardening is to get the best seed you can. You may have to shell out a few extra pennies, but the added cost will pay off in better yields and better spirits at year's end.

Because seed, like used cars, varies in quality from dealer to dealer, Young advises buying from a reputable seed dealer. The best dealers offer treated seed to protect young seedlings from attack from soil borne diseases and insects.

Regardless of where you buy seed, be sure the percentage of germination is marked on each package or seed bin. This tells you what percentage of the seed is viable or capable of living and growing. For best stands, buy seed that is at least 80 percent viable.

Another important thing to look for when buying garden seed is "date of testing." This refers to the age of the seed and if it was carried over from last season. To be on the safe side, buy seed with a recent testing date.

Of course, buying seed of recommended varieties is important for a successful garden. You may want to try new varieties on a small scale, but do not discard an old variety for something new and untried.

Seed left over from last year is probably safe to use, provided it was stored in a cool place in an airtight container. If you are uncertain about the age or variety of seed, throw it away and buy new seed for this year's garden.

JIM SNOWDEN

Snowden Makes Statement To Voters In Texas' 17th District

Jim Snowden of Tye, Democratic candidate for U. S. Representative, District 17, has authorized this newspaper to publish his statement to the voters as follows:

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 17TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

Basically, I believe that government should be the embodiment of equality and not an instrument through which special and individual advantage can be gained.

I believe our government is determined to pauperize a segment of our society through maladministration of welfare programs.

I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

I believe every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.

I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; that the government is the servant of the people and not their master.

I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with head or hand, that the world owes no man a living but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living.

I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs.

I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring nation.

I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character - not wealth or power or position - is of supreme worth.

I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

I believe in the all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individuals highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with his will.

I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might.

Sincerely yours,
Jim Snowden

the cotton to count on for good times and bad.

Never before has there been a cotton variety like this! With its wide adaptability, multiple disease resistance, and proven yield record through seven years of testing, Lockett 77 has all the best characteristics of the best cotton varieties previously available.

Lockett 77 is ideal for the short season cotton production concept. It has excellent seedling disease escape and cold tolerance. Its multiple disease tolerance includes protection against bacterial blight, verticillium wilt and the fusarium wilt-nematode complex. Lockett 77 has also shown outstanding performance under stress. Foliage is sparse. Leaves are medium-sized. Bolls are of the storm-resistant-type. Short-fruiting branches on an erect, short to intermediate main stem make Lockett 77 an excellent stripper cotton, well-adapted to both conventional and narrow-row systems. WHY DEPEND ON LESS THAN AN EXPERT?

If you have a very fine watch, you would only trust its repair to a jeweler. If your car has trouble, you take it to an automobile mechanic.

When your precious body needs help don't follow the advice of ads, mail-order or door-to-door peddlars. Your physician is the expert. And, when you need any medicines or health-aids, only a pharmacist has the expert knowledge to protect you. Why gamble with your body's health.

Wright Is Legacy Person For ACS

Attorney Jim Wright of Tahoka is the new Legacy Chairman of the Lynn County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Wright will serve the county by assisting with legal responsibilities relating to property or money left to the American Cancer Society in wills and estates.

This new aspect of the ACS is a potential source of funds that could prove very substantial, says Dr. David Midkiff, president of the Lynn County Unit. A person might be interested in avoiding estate taxes when settling his will, and by working with the legacy program, a contribution can be made while lowering estate taxes.

During this weekend forum, 4-H leaders from all parts of the state will participate in assemblies, small seminars, ceremonies, swap shops, meals, and recreation.

LITTLE DRIBBLERS' SUPPLEMENT

TO The Official Basketball Rules as adopted by the National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada.

Little Dribblers' Basketball, Inc. has adopted The Official Basketball Rules with the following changes and Special Rules.

SPECIAL LITTLE DRIBBLER RULES

Little Dribbler Rule 1. Each player on the team roster who is present ten (10) minutes before the scheduled starting time of the game shall be required to play one complete quarter of play. In the event one team has one player less than its opponent, the team having the greater number of players may draw at random from the opponent's players. The player drawn shall be required to play two quarters of play. If a team has two or more players less than its opponent, the team having the greater number of players may either continue to draw or the team may designate two or more players of its own team who will not be required to play a full quarter.

It is the duty of the official scorer to enforce this rule.

Little Dribbler Rule 2. (Not applicable to Senior Division*) A zone defense shall not be permitted. A zone defense is usually called when a player chooses to play the ball or chooses to guard an area of the court as opposed to guarding an opposing player. This is a judgment call of the official.

Penalty: Technical Foul.

Little Dribbler Rule 3. (Not applicable to Senior Division*) Defense in the backcourt is prohibited except during the fourth quarter of the game. This rule shall not be interpreted to allow a "free" outlet pass starting a fast break.

Penalty: No penalty for first violation. Subsequent violations will receive technical fouls.

Little Dribbler Rule 4. (Not applicable to Senior Division*) No isolation type offense involving one or two players will be permitted. Clearing the floor to one side for a one-on-one or two-on-two offense is prohibited. Teams must involve all of its players in the offensive pattern. This will be a judgment call of the official.

Penalty: Technical Foul.

Little Dribbler Rule 5. All-Star teams must have ten (10) players before entering any official Little Dribblers' Tournament. All leagues are encouraged to select a sufficient number of alternates to avoid forfeiture of tournament participation. Allowances will be made for sickness or injury during the progress of the tournament.

Little Dribbler Rule 6. (Not applicable to Senior Division*) The 3-second rule in Rule 9, Section 3, is changed to a 5-second rule.

Little Dribbler Rule 7. (Not applicable to Senior Division*) The free throw line shall be 13' 6" from the plane of the face of the backboard.

Little Dribbler Rule 8. (Applicable to Junior Division Only) The basket shall be 8' 6" from the floor.

Little Dribbler Rule 9. The official Junior-size ball shall be used in Junior League play.

Little Dribbler Rule 10. Section 4 of Rule 7 regarding numbers on uniforms will not be enforced.

*The Senior Division is 13 and 14-year-olds.

Sancap will control the tough broadleaf weeds that escape your preplant.

Preplant herbicides are great for controlling grasses.

But the fact is, they just can't control the stubborn broadleaf weeds that are breaking through cotton here in the South High Plains.

So, if you grow cotton on sandy soils, spray an overlay of Sancap® herbicide at planting.

Because Sancap is strong on broadleaf weeds. Strong enough to stop the tough ones that escape your preplant.

NEW HOME NEWS

by Florence Davies

Mrs. Leo Dulin, coordinator of Lynn County South Plains Homemakers Service through the college of Home Economics at Texas Tech University, will be at the fellowship hall in the Methodist Church at New Home at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 28th. A film will be shown and a question-and-answer period will follow, so that inquiries can be satisfied. All interested persons in the New Home area are urged to attend.

David W. Roberson was in Austin March 12-16 attending a certification school for tax assessor-collectors.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kopecky are moving this week to San Saba where they have bought a home at 803 North 9th Street.

The Kopecky's have lived in the New Home community since 1954, Clarence having moved to Lynn County in 1938 from Rowena. Flora came to the county with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Waldrup, when she was one year old.

Their son, S/Sgt. William J. Kopecky, is in the Air Force, stationed at Point Arena, California, where he and his wife, Jackie, live.

Mrs. Cynthia Crawford, her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford and children, Andy and Angela, visited with the Kopecky's Sunday, and Cynthia accompanied them to San Saba to spend a week. Flora and Clarence, we will miss you and we wish you happiness in your new home.

Alvin, Elizabeth, and Zane McNeely of Snyder came Friday night.

Alvin was in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday for the Marine Reserve session, and they returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McNeely and Casey, and Stanley and Sherry McNeely visited in Hale Center Tuesday evening with Sherry's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carter White, and Cynthia.

Barry Nettles and Susie Cardwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cardwell of Sudan, will be married at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 25, in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Harold Nettles, at New Home.

Rev. Leo Cole will officiate.

Russell Balch of Austin came Friday to visit his family and to attend the funeral of his uncle, E. R. Balch. He returned to Austin Saturday.

Ann, Wayland, and Scott Walton of Snyder visited here with us Friday night.

Mrs. Lela Wood of Tahoka spent last week with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harston.

Mrs. Fernie Fillingim, Mrs. Joy Wallace, Mrs. Billie Lane, and Mrs. Junie Davis were in Amarillo from Friday until Sunday, March 10-12, where they attended a tole round-up.

The Liberty Bell Home Demonstration Club met Monday, March 6, with Mrs. Judy Gandy in Tahoka.

Lugene Hudson, Lyntegar Electric Home Service Advisor, presented the program on candy moulding. Refreshments were served to 26 members.

After living in Lubbock for the past fifteen years, Mrs. Walthal Nettles has moved back home, to the farm home that she and her husband built in 1922, six miles west of New Home.

She says it is just great to be back home.

The Smokey Maxwell family, who lost their home and all the contents in a fire Saturday night, March 11, wish to thank everyone for their help, especially the Tahoka and New Home Fire Departments for sending trucks to the scene. They are especially thankful for the clothing and furniture donated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton McNabb of Wolforth spent Sunday with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thurl Swinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edwards went to Tye Sunday, March 12, and spent the night with his sister, Mrs. Ernest Stephens, and family, and attended services in Tye Baptist Church to hear Harold (Hayseed) Stephens speak.

Harold will speak to the Christian Business Men's Luncheon in Lubbock on Friday, March 24th.

The New Home FHA girls attended the area meeting in Big Spring March 10 and 11.

The 18 girls were accompanied by the advisor, Mrs. Laverne McAllister, Mrs. Virginia Howle, Mrs. Melda Jacobs, and Mrs. Hallie Poer.

Sherry Etheredge Says...

Keeping Easter Healthy
Colored eggs, baked ham, and baby chicks can upset your Easter celebration if not properly handled.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) emphasizes that cured ham should not be refrigerated for more than 5 days prior to cooking. Sanitary preparation and thorough cooking are necessary to prevent possible food poisoning from upsetting the holiday. A rule for cooking ham is to take it to an internal temperature of 160 degrees F.

When the meal is finished, refrigerate the ham immediately. Temperatures ranging from 45 to 115 degrees F. favor the growth of infectious germs.

Another general rule offered by the USDA is to keep hot foods HOT (above 140 degrees F.) and cold foods COLD (below 40 degrees F.).

Hard-boiled eggs should not be left sitting in the sun during an Easter egg hunt. Hide the eggs in the shade to keep them fresh. Egg salad and other mayonnaise-based salads which include eggs are very vulnerable to temperature and must be kept cool.

Food preparation areas must always be kept sanitary. This applies to the hands which handle food as well. For this reason the handling of baby ducks and chicks must be followed by thoroughly washing hands. If these procedures are not applied, the springtime pets may cause food poisoning.

Make your Easter a happy one. Follow the guidelines established by USDA for healthy food preparation.

Dyeing Eggs
Dyeing eggs is a family tradition which marks the Easter holiday. To prepare for dyeing, simmer eggs in water for 20 to 25 minutes. Do not let the water boil. To dye the eggs, place them in one cup of water with a teaspoon of vinegar and food coloring. Other types of egg decorating materials may be purchased or you may make your own.

With an abundance of eggs reported by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), make your Easter a bright one with lots of colored eggs.

West Point HD Club Meets On 7th

West Point Home Demonstration Club met on Tuesday, March 7, in Sentry Savings Party Room, with Mrs. June Nevill as hostess.

Members answered roll call with their favorite recipe, and after the business meeting, Mrs. Betty Ehlers gave a program on the making of silk flowers. Members participated by making a rose.

Six members and Extension Agent Sherry Etheredge attended the meeting, together with two visitors.

Mrs. Teddie Kelley and Mrs. Dorothy Fuller are new members of the club.

Robin Taylor, Cal Huffaker Go To Model United Nations Meeting

Miss Robin Taylor and Cal Huffaker, juniors at Tahoka High School, have recently attended a High School Model United Nations Meeting in New York City, as a result of information they received from a brochure which came to Tahoka High School.

Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Taylor, and Huffaker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Huffaker.

On March 8, they arrived at the Statler Hilton in New York, and registered for the meeting, the first session which was held that night and known as the General Assembly.

Over 1,500 students attended the event, and at the first meeting, people in charge of different areas in setting up the conference were introduced. Following that, students went to the United Nations Building and were addressed by Andrew Young, United States Ambassador.

Miss Taylor and Huffaker were assigned the country of Switzerland which is not a voting member like the U.S.S.R. or the United States—just an observer nation, they said. They watched part of the Plenary Meeting, dealing with apartheid.

Miss Taylor said, "I was really like to go again next year, if possible. What impressed me was that students from California and New York could get together and have a good time and something constructive at the same time."

After the conference, Tahoka students stayed in Rockville, Long Island, friends of the Huffaker. While they were in New York, they shopped at some of the famous stores, sightseeing, and saw Broadway play. They also went to Washington, D.C. for a few days, returned to Tahoka on the 16th.

1 OF EVERY 3 ACRES OF COTTON ON THE HIGH PLAINS IS PLANTED TO PAYMASTER VARIETIES

Paymaster

111-A* CERTIFIED COTTON SEED

1 out of every 3 acres of cotton on the High Plains is planted to PAYMASTER varieties (U.S.D.A. statistics). PAYMASTER 111-A is just one reason why.

PAYMASTER 111-A and its predecessor, PAYMASTER 111, have been planted on millions of High Plains acres since the introduction of PAYMASTER 111 in the mid 1960's. The unusually good seedling vigor and the production of large storm resistant bolls on stalks that are easily stripped harvested are just two reasons why farmers are planting large acreages of PAYMASTER 111-A. A variety with top quality lint, PAYMASTER 111-A is popular on both irrigated and dryland farms. It's a proven variety that you should plant in your 1978 cotton crop.
