CAROLYN'S CLATTER

by Carolyn Klaus

Recent report of various surveys was published in U.S. News & World Report. One of the surveys, conducted for the Labor Department, was concerned with the attitude of the American people.

In previous years the same survey reported that the majority of the public had hopes that the situation would get better. This year, for the first time as a whole, the majority of the people surveyed thought the American situation would get any better in the future.

The results of that survey were frightening because when you take away hope, what is left besides an empty shell capable of being the strongest person? A person that hopes, dreams and expectations is happy and extremely vulnerable.

Consider a child, devoid of hopes and dreams for tomorrow—he is unhappy and sad. Give that same child something to look forward to the next day or so and he's happy and obedient—willing to do anything in anticipation of the promised event.

Look at an adult in much the same manner. Suppose Mr. Citizen has no job and is looking for one—he is disappointed and sad. Suppose Mr. Citizen promised him a job with good pay he has the void and Mr. Citizen immediately fills it with gratitude and would do almost anything to keep that job.

Another young children can fall into the same trap. She cleans and straightens her room furiously only to have it put in shambles in a matter of minutes. Someone always comes to need her and there is never time for her. She becomes weighted down with responsibilities and drudgery and soon loses the feeling of being trapped or burdened without any hope of escape. She can get to the point of not caring at all when, if someone came by and offered to take maybe three days a week or more to do the mother time for her own dreams she would become like putty.

Without hopes for the future even the American people as a nation can be put in a precarious situation and eager to jump at anything better. That's just the attitude of Communism needs to breed it's seeds of trust. If someone is down and out anyone offering his hopes has a dangerous hold on individual and Communism, just like a virus, will be ready and waiting.

It must boost each others morale and look for a better day if the American way of life is to survive.

Light Days Of Rain Breaks Long Drought On South Plains

Light days of slow, steady rains which have been on the South Plains, totaled 3.77 inches in the last 24 hours, a break or makes a dent in a prolonged drought that has cut 1977 crop short.

The rainy weather began with a .20-inch shower the night of Tuesday, September 19, followed by a heavier fall Wednesday afternoon and night that amounted to 1.62 inches by Thursday morning, and then .08 by Friday morning, .15 by Saturday a.m., another .02 drizzle by Sunday morning, .41 by Monday, 1.10 up to Tuesday morning, and .19 up to Wednesday morning, with some more, possibly, to come. This brought the September total to 4.29 inches, and the total for the year to 14.84 inches.

Although crop maturity and harvesting will be delayed, the farming country is happy again. The long drought and an unusually hot, dry summer has been a disaster for many farmers of this area.

Although a few weeks late to help this year's crop, the slow, soaking rains will

Glimpse Given By Cotton Incorporated Of "Per Bale" Assessment Funds Of Farmers

"Cotton producers' per bale assessments for research and promotion are paying off—now and for the future," said Dukes Wooters, president of Cotton Incorporated, at an area-wide growers' meeting to report on the fiber company's progress.

Cotton producers Don Anderson of Lubbock, a member of the Cotton Board, and L. C. Unfred of Tahoka, a member of Cotton Incorporated's Board of Directors, served as co-chairmen for the meeting.

Anderson cited the federal law that specifically prohibits the use of funds collected from cotton producers for research and marketing to be used to influence legislation. He added that cotton growers cannot look totally to government programs to achieve optimum prices for cotton or to guarantee them a profitable future in cotton production.

"This can be attained in the marketplace," said Anderson, "but only if we have a strong, sophisticated marketing program. Every cotton producer has to start thinking of himself as a fiber manufacturer and supplier and realize that we are competing for markets with some of the most powerful companies in the world and competing with other countries for world markets."

Unfred added: "We can't win these marketplace battles individually, but we can compete collectively through Cotton Incorporated. Cotton has come a long way in just a few years, but we will be right back where we started when the synthetic fiber companies began taking our markets away unless all cotton producers made a commitment to give their full support to this program."

The planned introduction of a 100 per cent cotton no-iron men's shirt by Arrow next spring could be cotton's "turning point," according to Wooters. He sees this breakthrough as a means of recapturing the shirt market for cotton. Arrow plans to have its new shirts in the stores next spring; Van Heusen since has announced plans to have an all-cotton, easy-care shirt on the market this winter. These are the two largest shirt manufacturers in the country.

Libby Clark spoke about the important role local women can perform for cotton. "Today, it's the consumer who is king," she said, "and cotton women are potentially a valuable consumer force. Women make most of the shopping decisions in this country," she pointed out, "and women in the cotton industry are equipped to take a leadership role in their communities and stores on behalf of their fiber."

Miss Clark discussed retail promotions sponsored by local Cotton Wives organizations in the Cotton Belt.

"This kind of grass roots participation results in more shoppers checking labels for fiber content," she stated. She also commented that if the local economy, cotton, does well, the stores do well too.

Bill Craig, Local Artist, Enters New Line Of Bronze Art

THE CLEAR HELMET SHIELDS, worn by workers in the Bill Craig workshop, are to protect faces from the intense heat. The weird shaped pieces are just being uncovered from a furnace and are literally red hot and will be turned into a windmill, notice the thick protective gloves.

A TUNG-LIKE INSTRUMENT, designed and built by Craig, reaches down into the blazing furnace to remove a glowing pot of bronze, note the firebrick lining the concrete pit filled with sand.

By Carolyn Klaus

Tahoka, being considered a small town, should consider itself fortunate to have as a resident of the town an artist like Bill Craig and his shop being one of the best equipped small shops of its kind.

The Eclipse Gallery and Studio is a fine art shop but not nearly as interesting as the shop behind that one where all the work takes place.

Bill Craig has been an artist all his life but about one year ago he entered into bronze work, a first for him. Even in this line of work his demand for detail and authenticity rules as king. I was lucky enough recently to visit his workshop while he was in the process of burning and bronzing.

Upon entering the shop area one could hear a roar that was unfamiliar. Later it was discovered the roar belonged to a large furnace used to melt bronze to be used in his work. Actually there are two furnaces but only one makes that incredible roar. They are both run on gas and it costs approximately $15 an hour to operate.

The process used by Craig is a slow and tedious one but produces a product full of its own detail and charm. He begins by sketching the finished product so he'll know where to start. Next comes the stage that would drive many people wild and that is actually building, either from wood, wax or some other product, an exact replica of the finished work of art.

To create a single wagon wheel each tiny spoke must be whittled from a piece of wood.

After the replica is completed then begins a slow process whereby a rubber mold, and a wax mold are created. It takes several days work to make a ceramic cavity into which the hot bronze metal can be poured. After the bronze-filled ceramic mold has been fired in at least a 45 minute process the ceramic must be carefully chipped away, the excess sand blasted, extra parts of the mold must be cut away and then they sand off the rough edges.

From all these processes comes a beautiful finished product but the artist must be endowed with a large dose of patience. But then, maybe most artists are like Bill Craig when asked about that he simply said, "I enjoy the work." He feels he is one of the few true artists around because he makes everything from the original pattern right down to the casting instead of sending the casting out to be done by someone else.

Craig says art is his sole occupation but after visiting his workshop and seeing all the equipment necessary to complete the operation I decided he has another talent because he hand built all his own equipment. With all the technical equipment

(see Bronze, page 8)

BILL CRAIG (left) and Stew Rice manipulate the strange contraption that holds the glowing hot pot of bronze. The bronze is poured into the ceramic molds while they are still hot from the furnace and have been steadied in sand for insulation. The long aprons worn by the men not only protects them from splatters of hot bronze but also protects them against the heat that is radiated in the area.

Tahoka Bulldogs Sail Past Dimmitt Remain Undefeated In Season

By Darryl Stotts
Tahoka, in their first home game, shut out the Dimmitt Bobcats 36-0. The Bulldogs have moved Tahoka to second in the state poll according to the Harris poll.

Bailey ground out 35 and 31 yards respectively in Tahoka's next scoring drive. Hatchett scored the extra point. The Bobcats threatened to score when they moved the ball to the Bulldog 14 yard line but ran out of downs. The two teams exchanged the ball two more times before Oages scored capping a 78 yard drive. A pass from quarterback Todd Brown to Bailey covering 29 yards highlighted the drive. Bailey scored the point after. Before the half ended Hatchett intercepted a Bobcat pass and returned it 35 yards before he was brought down.

downfield and Bailey scored on a 5 yard run. Tahoka gained possession of the ball on the 12 yard line and moved the ball 55 yards before giving it up. The Bulldog defense really shined as they moved the Bobcats backwards 19 yards over four plays. The Bulldogs scored as Ricky Chapa scooted five yards. He also scored the PAT. The final score was Tahoka 36 and Dimmitt 0. Bailey led the team rushing with 190 yards and Hatchett had 103. Britt Dockery led Tahoka with 19 tackles. Roddy Brooks had 14, Cal Huffaker, 12, Rayford Harris, 11, Doug Barham, 11, Carlton Ash, 10, and Oages, 9.

Determined Wilson Mustang Team Tramples Highly Rated Amherst

By Marsha Chisum
Excitement filled the air last Friday night as the Wilson Mustangs shut-out the highly ranked Amherst Bulldogs, 28-0. Scoring began in the first quarter when quarterback Mike Nettles passed from 20 yards out. Nettles passed to Calvin Wilke who was good for an 8-0 lead. Nettles ran 12 yards in the second quarter to score his second touchdown followed by an extra point kick by Lucio Trevino taking the Mustangs in to halftime with a 15-0 lead.

Halfback Tony Garcia added another 6 points in the third quarter with a one yard run. Tailback Calvin Wilke carried for three yards later in the quarter to score the fourth touchdown of the night. Wilke kicked the extra point to make the score 28-0. The Wilson offensive team had 19 first downs to Amherst's 6. The Mustangs had 375 total yards, 307 rushing and 68 passing. Amherst totaled 127 yards, 87 rushing and 40 passing. Mike Nettles led his teammates in yards rushing with 85 yards in 12 carries, followed by Wilke with 81 yards in 14 carries, and Garcia with 75 yards in 14 carries. Lucio Trevino had 58 yards from 3 completed passes and Wilke caught one pass for 10 yards. Trevino had two interceptions. Leading the Mustangs in tackles was Quintin Talkmitt with 16, followed by David Weaver with 15, Randy Moczygemba with 10, and Jon Cox with 9. The entire Wilson defensive unit did an outstanding job. Early in the ballgame Amherst had three scoring opportunities but were stopped by this determined defensive wall. This defensive unit has held its opponents in three ballgames to just 6 points, 441 total yards gained, and only 23 first downs. Meanwhile the Mustangs have earned 68 points, 1015 total yards gained, and 55 first downs. This victory brings Wilson's record to 2-1. The Mustangs will travel to Smyer this Friday evening. Game time is set for 8:00 p.m.

Rep. Jim Rudd Explains Tax Relief Measures At Rotary

State Representative Jim Rudd, in a talk before Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday noon, explained tax relief measures and other activities of the recent called special session of the Texas Legislature.

The 4% sales tax on residential gas and electricity, has been repealed effective this October 1. This will be a saving of about $450 million, or $40 to $50 a year per household. Also, the 1% tax cities now impose on utility bills will be eliminated by October 1, 1979, unless the city votes by May 1, 1979, to continue the tax.

Effective September 1, the exemption from state inheritance taxes will be increased from $25,000 per beneficiary to $200,000 per estate. This exemption will increase to $250,000 in September, 1982, and to $300,000 in September 1985, and individually million statewide. Household goods and personal effects not used for productive income, including the family auto if the latter is approved by the Legislature. It would eliminate taxation of intangibles such as stocks, bonds, and annuities. A fault in this is that many wealthy people have all their income from such investments, although the Legislature could later impose taxes on these intangibles.

The amendment places a limit on state spending that could not increase at a rate greater than the state's economic growth, unless the Legislature declares an emergency. The amendment includes a "truth-in-taxation" provision that requires public notice and public hearings before any city, county, school district, or other taxing body can impose a tax increase.

Special provisions are made to help school districts who would suffer losses as a result of the amendment.

Rep. Rudd also discussed briefly some of the other eight proposed Constitutional amendments on the ballot.

Lynn County News

Ray Mason was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

President Monte Dodson urged cooperation in the annual Harvest Festival to be held Saturday, October 7, beginning at 12 noon.

Gerald Moore, Lynn County Hospital administrator, introduced Dr. Rouchdy Shenouda, new physician-surgeon who is succeeding Dr. Kenneth Chamblor, who is returning to England. The new doctor received his medical education in Egypt and England, has been in the U.S. since 1970 with the last three years in surgical residency in Ohio and New Jersey.

Ginners Hear EPA & OSHA Regulations

Brownfield area cotton ginners heard reports on the newest EPA and OSHA regulations and on the progress of cotton research and promotion programs are financed by cotton producers through Cotton Incorporated and the Cotton Board.

Bruno Schroeder, executive vice president of the Texas Federation of Cooperatives, discussed the OSHA dust standard at the area meeting, saying, "Ginners will make every effort to comply with cotton dust standards. But, it is obvious that in 1979 not all can meet these standards. The Texas Federation of Cooperatives will seek repeal of certain impractical requirements of the law, such as requiring two physical examinations of gin workers during ginning season."

Speaking on other proposed government regulations for cotton gins, Schroeder said, "We're advising ginners to use at least three shifts of workers if practical. Otherwise overtime provisions in the law may reduce any chances of a profitable operation."

THS Students Attend Tech J-Day

The publication staff at Tahoka High School attended Journalism Day at Texas Tech Saturday, September 23. Keynot speaker for the event was Don Reid, veteran newsman and now publisher of the Huntsville Item. He authored a book "Eyewitness", in which he recounted his experiences as the official witness for the Associated Press at all executions in Texas for 35 years, a period in which he saw 189 men die in the electric chair.

Reid is an outspoken opponent of capital punishment and is frequently a guest on programs debating pros and cons of capital punishment. He began his journalism career in the lustrous days of the early 30's in Chicago.

The staff attended workshop sessions in News-gathering, Yearbook, Photography and Sports Writing for the high school editor.

One of the highlights of J-Day activities was the first game of the season for the Texas Tech Red Raiders against the University of Arizona. Workshop students purchased tickets for $2.50 and were recognized at game.

Those attending the workshop and game were KENNEL editor Mel Terry, GROWL editor R. Taylor, Ira White, Pam and Bryan Moore.

Those attending the J-Day only were: Jamie Reynolds, Jerry Beth McKibben, Brylyn Knox, Alma Hall, Elma Antu, Suzy Law, Edna Flores and Col Williams.

GROWL staff members will be turning in the about school each week in the Lynn County News.

Lynn County News

Rare Tour Of Amistad Dam Given To Select Group

Because of limited manpower tours of the Amistad Dam, near Del Rio, are few but recently one was given to a small select group by Clarence Lindly, project engineer and former Lynn County resident.

The dam is 32,022 feet long and is capable of holding back 5,585,000 acre feet of water and is 254 feet high.

The water seepage into the lowest level of the dam is relatively minor compared to other dams of the same size. Pipes reach into the earth for 350 feet which allows seeping water to flow into a small channel, which runs into a sump and then is pumped out of the dam.

At the end of the long dark corridor which resembled that of the "last mile" in one of those old 1940's prison movies, was a door of bars. That, according to Lindly, was the double door which separates the U.S. side of the dam from that of Mexico.

Since the dam is half in Mexico and half in the U.S. each side has approximately the same equipment. The dam tilts from time to time as much as a fourth of an inch so each side has a piano-wire instrument which allows engineers to read the dam's tilt.

The high levels of the dam seemed damper than the lower ones.

Lindly said security at the dam was really great and a real concern because of the disastrous damage that could result if the water were turned loose to run wild.

Lindly says the dam is composed of 1,800,000 cubic yards of concrete and 12,500 tons of steel and would probably never give way.

Parents of Clarence Lindly are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lindly of Lubbock who were formerly of Lynn County.

Grandparents are Mrs. Texas Owens of Tahoka and Mrs. Mary Lindly of Tahoka.

Townsen Girl Spared Mishap

Donna Townsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Townsen, missed connections with her plane in San Francisco, California, and may have saved her life.

The plane she was scheduled to take crashed with another plane in San Diego, California.

Donna is just fine but a bit shaken because 6 of her classmates and 1 instructor were on the plane.

Grandparents of Donna are Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Townsen.

In Scotland, a grandfather is sometimes called a luckie dad.

Making the trip to Plainview on Wednesday for a "Christmas Time Recreation Workshop" were several women from Tahoka. While there, sessions were held on such things as Cake Decorating, Candy Making, Flower and Candle Arrangements, Bread Dough Art and making various Christmas decorations and flowers. The affair was held at the Agricultural Center and a covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Sessions were from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. The Senior Citizens bus made the trip carrying the following persons; Vesta Appling, Teddie Kelley, Thelma Dewbre, Lottie House, Helen Biggerstaff, Annie Bell Stice, Myrtle Lovelady, Leona Waldrip, and the driver, Lorain Crowson.

Friendship Past Noble Grand Club met in the home of President Thelma Dewbre on Thursday night with seven members present. Louise Wyatt led another session in constitution and by-laws. The hostess served a lovely meal at the close of the meeting.

Friday's birthday party at Lynn County Pioneer Club was hosted by Teddie B. Kelley and Tinnie Meeks. Six persons whose birthdays fell in September were special guests. While seated at the birthday table they chose a gift from the birthday box. Refreshments of chips, dips, punch and angle food cake were served to the 26 persons who registered. October birthdays will be celebrated on Friday, October 26 with Thelma Dewbre and Bertha Williams as hostesses.

Eighteen persons were guests on Saturday night at an 8:00 p. m. dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Dennis K. Waldrip on their 25th wedding anniversary. The affair, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Don Beard of Hereford was held at Hereford Country Club. Co-hosting the celebration were the couple's two children, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Waldrip of Pampa and Mrs. Kathy Sanders of Fort Riley, Kansas.

The former Wanda Jo Sales and Waldrip were married September 26, 1953 while they both lived in Tahoka. Special guests were the couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Muriel Sales of Post and Leona Waldrip of Tahoka. A son-in-law, Perry Sanders, stationed at Fort Riley with the army was unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Waldrip now live in Amarillo where he is employed by Chrysler Plymouth Sales. They live at 4218 Ridgecrest.

Despite the rains the Senior Citizens bus took 5 persons on a shopping tour in Lubbock, Monday. The group had lunch at Furr's Cafeteria.

There will be a Board of directors meeting at the Lynn County Pioneer Club building on Monday night, October 2, at 7 p. m. It was originally scheduled for September 25 but was changed because of rain. This is an open meeting with the public invited to attend any or all meetings.

Local Man Injured In San Antonio

Dale Roberson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Roberson, was injured in a car accident in San Antonio last week.

In the accident both his ankles were broken, one leg, and both sides of his lower jaw. He also suffered numerous lacerations with the one on his forehead being the worst and causing him to go into a coma. According to Mrs. J. B. Howell, his great-grandmother, if he continues to improve in the next 48 hours like he did in the past 48 the doctors would perform surgery on the broken bones.

His condition is improved and he has been responding to voices.

Mr. Roberson was driving a pick-up truck and was returning from the valley with equipment he had used in the cotton harvest there.

After the accident his wife, the former Cindy Wood, flew to San Antonio to be with her husband. While there she went into labor and delivered a baby.

Cindy and Dale Roberson are the proud parents of a son, born Saturday, September 23. The boy weighed 6 pounds and 2 ounces and he and his mother will be returning to Tahoka during the early part of this week.

The father is a farmer. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Roberson of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndell Wood of Tahoka and Dewey Corley of Lorenzo.

Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Howell of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wood of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Terry of Post, Mrs. Willine Roverson of O'Donnell, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Corley of Rising Star.

There is more iron in three large eggs than in three ounces of tuna.

Sherry Etheredge Says...

Children's bedtime offers a "special time" for both children and parents-when parents follow some thoughtful guidelines.

Making bedtime easier on the child is the key. Of course that idea also means avoiding struggle, conflict, fears and dread.

The following are some "easy bedtime" ideas:

Avoid active and over-stimulating play just before bedtime. Instead give the child time to settle down with quiet, non-active play.

A bath might become a positive experience associated with bedtime, if the child enjoys a bath. This can be an enjoyable experience, especially when water toys and play are part of it.

Be sure the child empties his bladder before going to bed. Also, avoid letting the child drink liquids just before bedtime if there is a tendency to wet the bed at night.

Set aside time each night to read to your child. Parents can read together, or they can alternate nights. This special time with parents can mean a lot to young children.

After reading out loud, give the child a favorite book to "read" alone. After a while, you will probably be able to pull the book out from under a sleepy head.

Soft music also helps relax a child. Classical music, easy-flowing folk songs or guitar music are peaceful ways to calm children for bed.

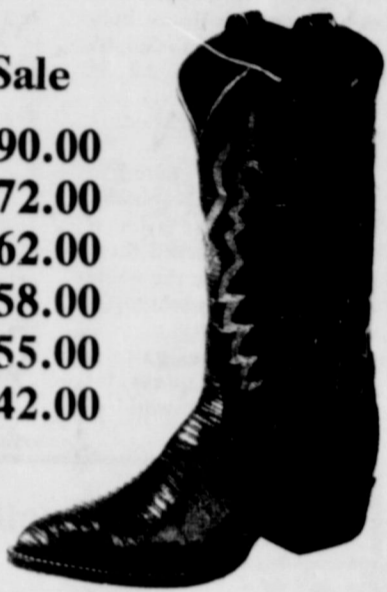

Use a night light to add security, if the child is afraid of the dark. As children get older, they usually outgrow this fear.

Close the day with an "I love you." It's a great way to assure a child before bedtime.

Tahoka Booster Club

The 1978-79 Tahoka Bulldog Booster Club met September 19 in the school cafeteria. President Bill Barham presided. Treasurer Edna White reported a total of 208 members.

Because of open date on September 15th the 1977 film of the Childress and Tahoka game was shown.

Everyone is invited to the Bulldog Booster Club meetings every Tuesday night at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Coffee and cake is served and a film of Tahoka's last football game is shown.

The Tahoka Bulldog Booster Club will have a pie booth at the Harvest Festival on October 7. They invite everyone to come by and buy a pie.

To save space when freezing cut-up poultry, freeze only fleshy pieces. Cook the bony pieces, such as wings and backs, for immediate use or store as cooked meat picked off the bone.

LOCAL LADIES, Lottie Jo Walker (left) and Mabel Gurley, admire a near replica of the finished product from the morning's work. This particular windmill is called a metal sculpture whereas the other will be a bronze.

STEW RICE, an artist from New Home, checks temperature of the melting bronze with a thermometer with a long handle and large shield to enable him to read the temperature without being burned.

Rain In Area Welcome

various shops in Lubbock, and in numerous art shows.

Randy, his son, helps him with the electrical work, such as motorizing a metal oil well so it looks like it is really pumping. That by itself is worth a trip to his shop.

Two other artists, Stew Rice from New Home and Bob Chennault from Lubbock, and his son, Randy, assist Bill when he is casting. The artists exchange casting privileges for their labor.

The bronze is poured at 2300 degrees so it wouldn't take long to lose a lot of weight if you worked there every day because the whole back area of the workshop is extremely hot.

Bill Craig is gaining ground in his quest for recognition in the world of art.
