CAROLYN'S CLATTER

by Carolyn Klaus

Recently there has been some controversy as to whether city and state employees (city law enforcement officers) should be allowed to use their vehicles for private use. It is a loud group (not necessarily the majority or minority) of citizens think such use should be stopped.

I will limit myself to comments about the enforcement group since they seem to be more fire than any other.

Most of all the ancient complaint of money in the hands of the officers is being too much extra by this process of using working cars when in fact those same cars are the ones looking for "something to do". We all want excellent police protection for ourselves and our property but not to have that protection very expensive.

The use of patrol cars, to me, would be a way to boost a salary that is kept at a minimum for people we expect to risk their lives daily to protect us. We also assume they are on call 24 hours a day without remembering their family life can be disrupted at all hours of the day or night but any extra compensation, such as overtime pay. It is one of the very few occupations where the employees are expected to work overtime on every holiday.

I argue that they knew the situation when they went into the line of work. Sure and very few of them ever complain about any aspect of it. But, it's hard to see the disappointment each time his car is empty at family Christmas, Thanksgiving, or Easter dinners. Or watch the cement drain from children's eyes when they come home for 30 minutes to share the presents and open the gifts and call it Christmas. I've had brothers serving in the Army for 15 years.

The saddest part is yet to come. We expect these sacrifices to be made gladly and without complaint (which they usually are) yet we allow all sorts of excuses to be placed in their way when they enforce the law.

Every time we turn around a new law is passed to protect the criminal. Policemen are asked to advertise their arrival at any time or search so the criminal need not be disturbed. Whenever an arrest is made the officer is required to spend hours filling out a variety of forms, and the worse the crime the more papers required, being extremely tedious of each word written. Then he must appear in court and testify, not necessarily against the criminal, but in his own defense—that he has not made a false arrest or unwarranted accusation. All this is done on his own time—no pay and he still must work.

Not only do we refrain from putting up a sign against such laws we request that we or our family never be arrested for disobeying the law. We want the laws to protect us but not to accuse us or be enforced on us.

We want spectacular protection but we want it to be done with their hands tied behind their back. Officers continue to do their job under these conditions because they believe in their work.

At one time we gave them a word of encouragement and a compliment on a job well done.

Mechanics Are Now More Than "Grease Monkeys"

By Carolyn Klaus
Most people think of mechanics with black greasy hands and dirty clothes but there is a new look appearing. Consider a mechanic sitting at a desk taking a test.

Alton Kelley and Kim Byrd are two mechanics who are in this new breed of mechanics. They spent many hours of study and work experience preparing for a 7-hour test they took at Texas Tech University which was prepared by the same people who prepare college entrance exams.

When they pass the tough test that measures the problem solving and diagnostic skills of the mechanic they are then certified by the National Institute For Automotive Service Excellence.

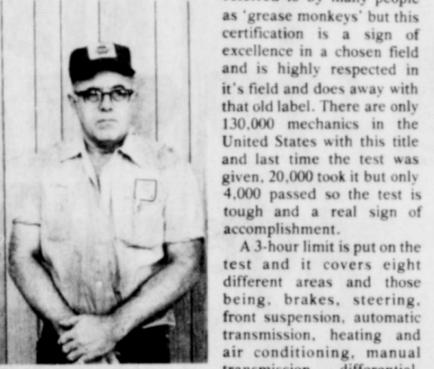

Eastern New Mexico and part of Oklahoma, to gain this certification. The test was introduced in 1972 and he took the first one given, passed it and was certified in 1973.

Byrd took his test in the spring of 1978 and was certified the same year.

There are benefits for the customer as well. Since the work can be done faster and it will reduce costs because unnecessary parts will be eliminated.

ALTON KELLEY AND HIS WORKING SPACE.

KIM BYRD AND HIS PLACE OF WORK.

sure you keep up with all the new cars, the certification test, or one similar but with different questions, must be taken every four years in order to maintain the status.

The benefits to the technician is that it raises his own level of self confidence with enables him to work more efficiently because he feels more sure of himself. This usually increases his income because he is able to

A code of ethics goes along with the certification so it should help replace pride in workmanship again. When a mechanic wears the orange and blue gear patch you can be confident he knows what he is doing.

Both Kelley and Byrd are employed at Bray Chevrolet for General Motors must pass a similar test for that company but the National Certification test is more advanced.

The list of certified technicians grows twice a year after the tests are given and if you would like to have a complete list of the men and the shops where they are employed you may write NIASE State Listing, Suite 515, 1825 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 2006, and ask for the free listing.

If things continue at the present pace someday all mechanics may have to pass this test and be licensed in order to work on your car.

Tahoka is one of the few small towns to have two certified technicians and the same company has 6 more men trying for the certification and should know sometime in January whether they passed the exam.

Tahoka Community Christmas Cantata With Unique Extras Held Sunday--Baptist Church

The Tahoka Community Christmas Chorus will present "Come to the Manger", a Christmas cantata by Joe E. Parks, Sunday evening, December 10, in the First Baptist Church.

Vivian McAfee, Director of this year's cantata is Morris Johnson, Minister of Music at the First Baptist Church. Organ music will be provided by Mrs. Clay Bennett.

The service will begin at 7 p.m. and will be followed by a reception in the church's Fellowship Hall.

Two other special music groups will also be featured during the service; the Handbell Choir of the First United Methodist Church under the direction of Mrs. Harold Green and a trumpet quintet comprised of Denise Ehlers, Randy Redwine, Bryan Simpson, Donald Webster, and Don Wise. This special community service is open to the public and everyone is invited to attend.

Huffaker's Cuban Fishing Trip Is Shared

At last Thursday's Rotary Club meeting, Gerald and Calloway Huffaker told of their October fishing trip to Castro's Cuba. Wayland Taylor of O'Donnell was also a member of the party.

Chamberettes Plan Christmas Home Tour

The Tahoka Chamberettes Christmas Home Tour will be held Saturday, December 9. The organization has planned the event for a Saturday evening so couples may attend.

They made the trip from Florida in an old 1943 World War II plane. They found fabulous bass fishing in two lakes, Treasure and Gaza, the first surrounded by swamps and infested with alligators. They caught bass weighing up to 10 pounds and those larger tore up their fishing tackle.

Homes being toured will be those of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Huffaker, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Forsythe, and Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Chestnut.

Although they were treated royally--good accommodations and no trouble with arrangements made for them by a tour director--they found many things that didn't look good to free Americans.

The Chamberettes suggest you begin your tour at the Warren home, 2101 N. 4th, at 6:30 p.m. and follow the route as listed. Refreshments will be served at the Chestnutts.

The Cuban government owns everything, everything is rationed, and every person seems to be controlled. Everyone is assigned a job to work 44 hours, and in addition must spend time in sugar cane production and harvest either on Sundays or on off hours for which work they "volunteer". Most workers seem to make about $150 to $200 per month.

Homes will be decorated by hostesses with assistance from the House of Flowers and the Plant Place. If interested in the decorations from these businesses, you may make your purchases at either location the following week.

Churches are partially boarded up and apparently few or no religious services are held. Children are bussed to central boarding schools where they spend week days attending classes mornings and work afternoons.

Tickets are on sale for $2 each and proceeds go for future Christmas decorations. If you cannot begin at 6:30--catch up with the group at another home.

County Cotton Assoc.

Margie Nettles furnished refreshments. The group would like to thank the Petty Farmers Gin of New Home for once again buying their Christmas gifts from the Lynn County Cotton Association. The support is appreciated. Jo Carol Long is president of the Lynn County Cotton Association.

Cotton Harvest Gains Momentum

The High Plains cotton harvest resumed when skies cleared last Friday, according to Paul R. Dickson, Area Director at USDA's Marketing Services in Lubbock.

Mail Your Letters To Santa
via Lynn County News

High Plains Marketing Services Offices graded 45,000 samples this week, bringing the season's total to 228,000, this compares to 1,813,000 graded by December 1 last year, Dickson said.

Santa's Arrival Has Been Delayed

Santa Claus has notified the Lynn County News that his visit here in Tahoka will be delayed one week. He will arrive on the courthouse square at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, December 7, via the fire truck.

Predominant High Plains grades this week were grade 41 at 15 percent, grade 51 accounted for 20 percent, grade 42 amounted to 37 percent and grade 52 was 20 percent. Twenty-three percent were reduced one grade because of bark, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. Five percent was reduced because of grass.

Hopefully the new Christmas decorations will be here by then and there will be singing, bells and puppets for your entertainment.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 31 at 26 percent, staple 32 was 38 percent and staple 33 accounted for 19 percent.

FmHA Low-Interest Rate Loans Available To Farmers

Loans for low-income farm families to build their farming operations and raise family incomes are now available through local county offices of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

rates to low-income families whose farm operations and resources are so limited they cannot afford the regular interest rates for FmHA loans.

Gordon Cavanaugh, FmHA administrator, has announced that FmHA is implementing the "limited resource" farmer authority of the Agricultural Credit Act of 1978.

"The program is intended as a helping hand to young, beginning farmers and others, including many minority people, who have not had an opportunity to build substantial farms and make an adequate living," Cavanaugh said.

The program provides credit at reduced interest rates to low-income families whose farm operations and resources are so limited they cannot afford the regular interest rates for FmHA loans.

Limited resource borrowers of farm real estate and operating loans will be allowed to defer the beginning of repayment, if necessary, until three years after they get their loans.

Donut Holes Delivered By OEA Students

The Office Education Association of Tahoka High School is starting a weekly money-making project. We want to deliver fresh yeast donut holes baked by the Slaton Bakery to your home or business in time for every Saturday morning breakfast or coffee break.

For real estate loans to buy or improve land and buildings, borrowers will pay a 3 percent interest for the first three years of repayment, then 5 percent in the following two years. Thereafter, they will pay whatever rate they can afford, but not less than 5 percent, and not more than the full rate ordinarily applied to FmHA farm loans (currently 8 1/2 percent).

Delivery time will be between 7:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. They will be packaged 3 dozen per box and will sell for $2 per box.

Our project will begin this Saturday morning, December 9. Call Barbara Jaquess, sponsor, at school 998-4538 or home 998-4975, or Claudia Guin, vice-president, at 998-4747, to place your order if you are not contacted by an OEA member. We would appreciate your support.

Exciting, balanced competition among some of the best high school teams in West Texas is in store for fans when fourteen teams gather in the Reese Air Force Base gym December 14-16, to play in the fourth annual Reese Christmas Classic.

As in the past, the large schools will play in the President's Trophy Division, while the small schools will be competing in the Commander's Trophy Division.

The champions of each division, Abilene Cooper (President's) and El Paso Cathedral (Commander's) will be returning to defend their titles. Each of those two teams will be making its second title defense as they attempt to win the championship for the third consecutive time. If either, or both win, they will be the first teams ever to retire the giant traveling championship trophy to keep perpetually in their school's trophy case for having won three classic championships in their division.

In the Commander's Trophy Division, El Paso Cathedral will have a hard road to travel in order to successfully defend their title.

Attempting to unseat the Fighting Irish will be what is probably the strongest field ever to play in the Commander's Trophy Division. It consists of Morton from district 3-AA, Denver City, Frenship, and Tahoka from district 5-AA, Kermit from district 7-AA, Shallowater from district 5-A, and Reagan County, from Big Lake, Texas, representing district 9-A.

The championship of the Commander's Trophy Division will be decided in a traditional single elimination eight team bracket.

Opening ceremonies for the tournament begin at 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, December 14th with an olympic

4-H'er Builds Solar Car... Sunny Side Of Energy Crisis

If the theory of one inventive 4-H member proves to be correct, the car of the future may be powered by the sun.

Jeffery Smith, 16, of Homerville, Georgia, started developing a solar car five years ago when he first became aware of the energy crisis.

The 4-H'er built a model that looks like any modern sports car except for the small solar cells in the roof. When sunlight hits these cells, the car's wheels spin, illustrating his theory. After sundown, the car runs on storage batteries that have been charged during the day by extra solar cells.

Now Jeffrey is building the "real thing"—a 6 1/2 foot car based on his model. The car's chassis and mechanics are complete and the electronic system is wired. Still to come are the body, seats, batteries, bracing and three solar cells for power. The Georgia youth has been assisted by his parents, teachers and power company experts. But he gives most of the credit to the Cooperative Extension Service specialists who conduct the National 4-H automotive program. "4-H has helped me and given me an opportunity to do things and to show others what I've done," he says.

Not all young people who participate in the 4-H automotive program, sponsored by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., are inventors. But all of them learn-by-doing about the importance of the motor vehicle to the American way of life.

4-H automotive projects and activities teach boys and girls how basic car parts work and how to do routine maintenance. 4-H'ers learn about highway safety, traffic regulations and the economics of car ownership. And they explore vocational opportunities in the automotive field.

Firestone recognizes accomplishments in the automotive program with awards to 4-H members, clubs and counties.

Eight members will earn $1,000 national scholarships, and 50 state winners will attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago each year on expense-paid trips. Four medals of honor will go to members in each county.

Ten 4-H clubs or counties per state are eligible for certificates for outstanding automotive programs. Two counties in each state receive plaques for the best driving events.

Firestone also sponsors automotive contests at the Western U.S. 4-H Engineering Event in Omaha and the Eastern Event in Richmond, Virginia. Both are held in September of each year.

The program is arranged by the National 4-H Council and winners are chosen by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Youth 9-19 who want to learn more about the 4-H automotive program should contact the county Extension office.

If you are diabetic, and if your doctor advises you to keep glucagon on hand, you should be sure that a family member or co-worker understands its use. Glucagon is a pancreatic hormone that raises the blood sugar and is sometimes used in treating diabetics. Many doctors recommend that glucagon be injected if a diabetic loses consciousness during an insulin reaction. Glucagon comes in a plastic box that contains two bottles. The amber bottle contains a diluting fluid that should be injected with an insulin syringe into the clear bottle. The clear bottle contains glucagon, a tablet, which dissolves into the fluid immediately. Your family member or co-worker should know how to inject you with the amount of glucagon prescribed by your doctor. You should respond to treatment within minutes. Your doctor should be called for further advice.

Suit Fund Set Up At Cal Farley's Ranch

The annual drive to provide the 370 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch with a new suit or clothing has begun.

Providing new clothing for the boys through the Christmas Suit Fund has become a favorite way of Christmas giving for friends of the boys who contribute $45 for this purpose. Special discounts by Amarillo merchants and differences in prices of clothing for younger and older boys make the average cost of $45 possible. The suits replace those that have been worn out or outgrown and, in many cases, they are the first new suits some boys have ever owned.

"The boys get to select their own clothing in Amarillo stores, and the suits will be worn by graduating seniors next spring," Virgil Patterson, Ranch President, said. "A new suit is the best Christmas gift a boy can receive because it is a year-round reminder of those who really care."

Contributions to the Boys Ranch Christmas Suit Fund may be mailed to the Boys Ranch Office, P.O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas 79174, or taken to the offices at 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

Beautify Texas Meeting Held December 12

Citizens of Tahoka and the surrounding area are invited to attend an informal meeting and training program conducted by leaders of the Beautify Texas Council (BTC).

The meeting begins at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, December 12, at the Garden & Arts Center, 4215 University, in Lubbock. Coordinator of the meeting is Latrelle (Mrs. Rodney) Joy, District Governor of the Beautify Texas Council for the Lubbock area.

Leading the discussion will be the president of the statewide Beautify Texas Council, George McKinney of Dallas. "This will not be a meeting to discuss what YOU should be doing... it is to discuss what WE could be doing to further our organization's cause of a cleaner, more beautiful state," he reported.

The Beautify Texas Council, a statewide, totally-volunteer, nonprofit organization conducts a statewide awards program--the "Governor's Community Achievement Awards"--to stimulate cleanups and beautification programs at the grassroots. Thousands of Texans and hundreds of Texas communities--from the smallest to the largest in population size--have participated in the awards program, with cleaner cities and towns in Texas as a result.

For more information on the December 12 area meeting in Lubbock or future activities and programs of the Beautify Texas Council, citizens are urged to contact BTC District Governor Latrelle Joy, 3321 55th Street, Lubbock, or telephone the Beautify Texas Council via the toll-free Watts line: 1-800-252-9642.

Land Bank Interest Rate Increased

The Federal Land Bank of Houston announced their billing rate on farm and ranch loans and rural residence loans will be increased from 8% to 8 1/2%, effective December 1, 1978. This increase in billing rate will affect 20,000 loans in the total amount of $1.2 billion.

In making this announcement the Land Bank stated, "The rapid acceleration of the cost of money in the recent weeks, with the dramatic 1% increase in the discount rate to an all time high of 9 1/2% and an 11% prime rate being charged by commercial banks, are the indications of the significant effect in the average cost of funds to finance the Land Bank's lending programs." Also, they mentioned that the 8 1/2% rate is a very competitive rate in today's economic climate.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long-term real estate loans on farm and ranch land and rural residences throughout Texas, and now has more than $1.4 billion in loans outstanding. The local association makes and services loans in Lubbock, Lynn, Garza and part of Borden Counties.

Chicory, endive, and escarole are used mainly in salads and are available year around but primarily in the winter and spring. Chicory or endive should be fresh looking, crisp and have a good green color. Avoid plants with brownish or yellowish discoloration or any that appear to have insect injury.

Fresh, crisp celery should have a solid, rigid feel and stalks should have a glossy light green or medium green surface. You can freshen celery somewhat by placing the butt end in water, but badly wilted celery will never become really fresh again.

Vegetables such as carrots, sweetpotatoes, potatoes and other roots and tubers retain their most important food values reasonably well if they are kept cool and moist enough to prevent withering.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Governor-elect Bill Clements proposes to recommend an effective $2 billion worth of tax relief during his first two years in office.

Clements, planning transition and inaugural activities, announced his legislative program will assign high priority to a new $1 billion tax reduction package.

But he emphasized that is in addition to the approximate $1 billion worth of benefits to taxpayers—home and agricultural land owners, primarily—proposed in the tax relief constitutional amendment. The amendment, submitted by the legislature last August, was approved by voters November 7.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, while cautioning that budget recommendations are still being developed, said he agrees with Clements that a significant tax reduction, in the range of $2 billion, will be possible next year.

"In my opinion, there will be adequate funds for additional tax reduction," Briscoe said at a news conference. "I hope we have a cut in the range of $1 billion—in addition to that called for by the tax relief amendment."

Clements indicated strongly he is leaning toward recommending that one cent of the sales tax ($500 million a year) be applied toward forced reduction of school property taxes.

Another possibility, he conceded, is a flat reduction of one cent in the sales tax. The governor-elect also favors elimination of the state's 10 cent property tax for college building.

Law Proposed

Attorney General John Hill contends Texas should have a fair campaign practices law.

If one had been in effect, Hill said, late-hour campaign tactics by supporters of Clements in their gubernatorial race would have overstepped it.

The attorney general protested distribution of campaign pamphlets implying Clements was "superior as a candidate on the basis of religious faith."

Clements has denied any part in distributing the pamphlet.

Hill also criticized Clements' proposals for a major tax reduction. He said the recommendation is excessive.

The attorney general said he intends to remain as titular head of the Texas Democratic party for the rest of the year when he leaves office.

Coal to Increase

Texas coal production will quadruple by the year 2,000, while oil and gas output is cut almost in half, according to U.S. Commerce Department projections.

The Commerce survey indicates Texans will use a little less oil, about as much natural gas and 10 times as much coal.

Gas production by 1985, according to the study, may drop from seven trillion cubic feet to slightly more than six trillion. Oil production is expected to drop from four million barrels a day in 1976 to 3.3 million in 1985 and finally to two million by 2,000.

The forecast projects completion of coal slurry pipelines from Colorado and Montana to the Houston area in another two decades.

Courts Speak

In reversing a minor theft conviction, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals held persons who do not speak English are entitled to interpreters during trial even if they fail to ask.

The same court reversed a Lubbock robbery conviction due to introduction of evidence acquired in an illegal search warrant.

It further reversed a life sentence assessed a LaPorte man in a forgery case and, threw out McKinney drug case convictions due to faulty instructions by the trial judge.

Texas Supreme Court reversed a $7,500 insurance judgment in a case where a pilot who crashed his plane held medical and flying certificates issued after he made false representations concerning a heart condition. The finding upheld the trial court, which had been overruled in part by the Eastland Court of Civil Appeals.

Fourth Court of Civil Appeals reversed a $3 million damage award against Southwestern Bell to a former company executive and the family of a deceased top official.

Appointments Announced

Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Freeman B. Dunn of Porter and T.L. Roach Jr. of Amarillo to vacancies on the Texas Board of Corrections.

Briscoe also named these judicial appointees: P. Oswin Crisman, Kenneth C. Kippel, Joan T. Winn and Steven G. Condos, all of Dallas.

Erwin G. Ernest of Huntsville, John Ray Harrison of Houston, David Hittner of Houston, Robert S. Webb III of Houston, William W. Kilgartin of Houston, and Alice A. Bonner of Houston. They will occupy 44th, 95th, 191st, 330th family district, 12th, 113th, 133rd, 312th, 215th, and 80th district courts respectively.

Short Shorts

Gov. Briscoe, in a speech at Abilene, called for more Texas toll roads.

The State Insurance Board staff recommended a $60 million cut in workers compensation insurance premiums.

January meetings of two major associations—realtors and school teachers—contributed to a shortage of hotel rooms during the inauguration of Bill Clements and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby January 16.

Republican governors accepted an invitation from Clements to hold their 1979 national meeting in Texas—probably in Austin.

Opinion portions of a survey of teachers are excerpted from disclosure, but remaining compiled results of the survey must be made public. Attorney General Hill said in a new opinion.

Hundreds of bills are being introduced in the House and Senate in preparation for the 1979 legislative session.

Guidelines For Working & Disability Cks.

Recently the Associated Press released information about working while drawing social security disability checks. Part of that release may be misleading to some persons in the Lubbock area and may cause those who work without reporting to the social security office to be overpaid.

The Social Security law requires a report from all persons who work, regardless of the amount of pay they receive. If any question arises, anyone working and drawing disability checks at the same time should write, call or go to the Social Security office and discuss the work with a representative.

Social Security has a new booklet, available without charge to everyone who requests the booklet, draw disability checks are working, ask for SSA 78-10153 and copy will be mailed. The social security office in Lubbock is located at Texas Avenue, Room 100, the Federal Building.

Sherry Etheredge Says . . .

To preserve Autumn Leaves, press with a warm iron. This preserves the color. The pressed leaves may be soaked in a solution of one part glycerine to nine parts water. When thoroughly soaked, remove and press between two blotters. These leaves remain flexible forever. They can be glued to branches at each point where a leaf has been removed.

Firm or hard heads of cabbage that are heavy for their size are usually recommended when buying cabbage for any purpose. Outer leaves should be a good green or red color (depending on type) and free from serious blemishes. Discard the outer "wrapper" leaves. Too many on a head are wasteful.

Carrots that are young, tender, well-colored and mild-flavored are best for eating raw. Larger carrots are primarily for cooking or shredding for salads. Avoid any flabby carrots that show any sign of decay. Carrots are freshly harvested now year around.

TAHOKA WATER HAS BEEN COLLECTED AND TESTED RECENTLY

The City of Tahoka collected eleven bacteriological samples exceeded the Texas Department of Health's "Drinking Water Standards", which were promulgated as required by the "Safe Drinking Water Act", Public Law 93-523. Drinking water containing coliform bacteria in excess of the standard may constitute a potential threat to public health. Your water system has collected additional check samples as required by the Drinking water standards on August 31, 1978 and all samples came back good. This indicated that there was a sampling error when taking the samples.

Coliform organisms are common to the intestinal tract of man and animals. Their presence in water is an indicator of bacteriological contamination of the sample either from the water system or from a sampling error.

Increased monitoring and customer notification of the public when the standards are exceeded are required by law as a means of keeping the public informed. Results of the samples taken during the month in question may be obtained at City Hall.

Lynn County Residents Attend State Farm Bureau Convention

Twelve delegates from the Lynn County Farm Bureau attended the 45th annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau November 26-29 at the Dallas Hilton in Dallas.

Policies to guide the Texas Farm Bureau next year were adopted by the more than 1,100 voting delegates. Recommendations on national issues were also approved. These will be forwarded to the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation which will be held in Miami Beach in January, 1979.

TFB President Carrol Chaloupka made his annual address to the delegates, and S. M. True, Jr., TFB secretary-treasurer, gave his report. Warren Newberry, executive director, also spoke to the group.

Many states produce snap beans commercially and they're available year round. When buying fresh snap beans, check for a fresh, bright appearance and good color. Young, tender beans with crisp pods are best.

Beets are available year-round and are grown in most parts of the country. Look for a rich, deep red color and smooth outer appearance. You can usually judge their freshness by the condition of their firm tops. Avoid any showing decay.
