CAROLYN'S CLATTER

by Carolyn Klaus

The dictionary says a volunteer is "one who does something of his own free will." It means he will not receive any compensation for his labors or actions.

Volunteers are usually "big-hearted" people who are concerned with the well being of society in general and those around them in particular. A volunteer usually sees a need and rushes to help out with whatever the need is if he is interested.

London, England, has recently been plagued with strikes among their working people. One of the hardest hit are the hospitals which need constant attention and cleaning to maintain a sanitary facility. When the workers went off the job the hospital switchboards were flooded with calls from volunteers that they would help in any way they could. One hospital received so many calls they had to refer volunteers to other hospitals. The volunteers were quickly put to work scrubbing floors and performing other housekeeping duties. They have done everything except administer medication.

Hospital personnel were overwhelmed by the unsolicited response of volunteer workers. In some groups of hospital personnel never mentioned the volunteers but gratefully accepted their help.

America enormous amounts of health care are received from volunteers who walk the streets and ask for donations, perform their particular talents for the community and in general raise money for the needy in any way they can. If the volunteer were removed from America our taxes would skyrocket to compensate for the services they perform.

With these facts in mind one would think the status of a volunteer would be extremely high because of their value. As in so many areas, things are not as they should be.

There are volunteers who become stepmothers or big sisters or brothers to children who need family ties. All these actions stand out as great and are most highly admired on the national or state level. A difference seems to take place when these volunteers are faced with the daily contact of other volunteers. That's when well-meaning volunteers begin to notice the mistakes of the other volunteers.

Many times in America, volunteers must defend their actions to critical and unkind critics. Their efforts, instead of being appreciated, are torn to shreds by those who do not volunteer for the same task.

Lynn County Stock Show Plans Nearing The Completion Date

This year's Lynn County Stock Show is being held in memory of the late Terry, a continuous supporter of the show throughout the years.

This year was the first of the Stock Show in Lynn County. All the show from last year made a big success and officers in the organization are hoping for the same response this year.

Officers of the show are Harold Sanders, president; Donald Klaus, secretary; Bob Ballard, treasurer; Stanley Dusk, secretary; and Dusk, treasurer. These are the only people eligible for the show. There are so many people that freely give of their time to support the organization it would be impossible to list them all. Eligibility rules are: Any girl regularly enrolled in Lynn County 4-H Club member or FFA or FHA Chapter member, supervised by County Agents or Vocational Agricultural teacher, 9 and under 21 years of age as of February 22, 1979, enrolled in public schools and not completed secondary education is eligible to show.

Showmanship: the owner must show the animal at the time of judging, but should the owner have two entries in one class, a substitute will be allowed to handle one entry, but must be regularly enrolled in 4-H, FFA or FHA member.

The show affords the youth of this county a golden opportunity for an experience that many city dwelling youth miss completely. In the process of getting an animal ready for the show the youngster learns many valuable lessons and one of those is to be consistent with the care of the animal.

Tahoka Sets Bond Election

Tahoka City Council Sets March 3 As Date For The City Sewer And Water Bond Election

By Carolyn Klaus

The Tahoka City Council met in regular session Monday, February 5, to discuss the upcoming bond election and a recommended rate increase for Pioneer Natural Gas Company.

If the recommendation of the Committee and Consultants is approved, and it has been, Pioneer will be getting a 14.88% overall increase in lieu of the 26.3% requested. In money they will be getting 11 1/2 million versus the 19.8 million asked for. The cost of gas pass through provision will remain as it is rather than increasing it to provide for approximately 10% more pass through as requested. Service charges will be increased to $8.00 and the distance Pioneer is required to extend their mains is reduced from 150 feet to 75 feet per customer. The cost of serving each type or class of customer was studied and in these rates we are attempting to make each class pay their proportionate part. Because of this the rate of increase will vary from 0 to 32.26% depending on the class of customer, but the total increase will average 14.88%.

Small Industrial Customers will average 8.67% increase; Air Conditioning and Generation - 12.23%; Commercial - 19.70%; Domestic (Residential) - 19.81% and some special contract customers previously unregulated will now come under the General Service rate and receive up to 32.26% increase. Those receiving no increase would be large contract industrial and a very few irrigation customers behind the city gate. These have had their contracts renewed recently and we believe they are presently paying their share.

We believe the total increase is fair and we further believe the distribution of the increase among the different classes to be the most equitable we could determine, says council members.

All increases would start with gas used on or after February 15, 1979. The residential bill will go up an average of $3.79 per month.

This was the jest of the price increase.

The City Council has been studying for some time now the water and sewage systems of the city of Tahoka and determined they badly need repairs and updating.

One of the more pressing demands for continuing water supply to the city is the repair of the water towers. The smaller one in the city has already been unused for some time now because it is damaged too badly to be used without some restoration. Both towers are rusted and pitted inside and that must be repaired before more serious damage is caused.

Another of the problems with the water supply is that the water pressure in some areas of town is extremely low during peak usage hours. The reason for such decreased water pressure is that many of the lines or pipes carrying water have been in use so many years they have corroded so badly the proper amount of water cannot pass through the small opening. Therefore,

Stenholm Gets Sub-Committee Appointments

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has been appointed to the following Subcommittees of the Agriculture Committee: Livestock and Grains; Cotton; Oilseeds and Rice; and Dairy and Poultry. The Congressman sought membership on these Subcommittees as he feels these assignments will be particularly important to his representation of the diverse interests of the 17th District of Texas.

The Congressman noted that the 17th District includes twelve of the top seventy cotton-producing counties of Texas, three of the top five peanut counties, two of the three leading milk-producing counties, in addition to the extensive livestock and grain production in all counties throughout the District.

Mr. Stenholm went on to say "the 17th District of Texas is one of only 24 agricultural districts in the Congress today. I feel most fortunate to have this opportunity to work on the problems in agriculture and to speak out on the needs of not only the farmers and ranchers but the entire economy of the 17th District of Texas."

Congressman Stenholm was also selected to serve on the Investigations Subcommittee in the House of Representatives. This Subcommittee has the responsibility for oversight of the civilian agencies of Government.

some of those lines will have to be replaced.

The main objective for the sewer project will be used to extend service to annexed areas of the city to which the city is obligated to furnish this service.

City property is much like that of a private homeowner. In order for the property to remain useable and in good order there must be constant repairs and updating. This is what the city of Tahoka is proposing to do even though the price tag may be considerably larger than that of the private homeowner. None the less, the repairs are necessary if the city is to continue with the services they are presently enjoying.

In order to raise the revenue to progress with the project the City Council has proposed a revenue bond election for Saturday, March 3. The amount of bonds to be sold will total $250,000 and will be divided between the water and sewage projects as designated by the presentation which explains the organization and its objectives.

The dues, spoken of earlier in the article, were set (and remain) at 15c per bale for producers, 1c per bale for ginners, 2c per ton for seed crushers, 1/2c per bale for warehousemen and annual dues for banks and other businesses based on the size of individual operations. Ginners serve as the collection agents for the producers and they automatically add 15c to their ginning charges and send that amount to PCG, but allowing any producer to request a refund.

PCG concerns itself mainly with research and programs that help the immediate needs of the producer to improve his product and method of production. The actual cotton promotion part is left to Cotton Incorporated so funds do not overlap and become wasted.

This organization was responsible for the boll weevil control program that has saved Plains cotton farmers an estimated $430 million and a lot of headaches; getting the spot grade of cotton split and increase the price of the light spot by about $18 per bale; the disaster program can be attributed to PCG because it was an immediate need to farmers on the High Plains but in the process, farmers in general have benefited; and they add a whole list of other accomplishments that can be reviewed at the meeting.

PCG, one of 13 certified cotton organizations, is presently involved with convincing various mills to use High Plains cotton on open-end spinning mills. The idea of cheaper cotton at lowered spinning expense sounds simple and should be readily accepted but Cotton Fannin says.

"It takes a lot of research and convincing to get the mill people to accept the idea of using shorter staple cotton and being successful with it."

PCG is constantly in touch with the Washington scene

Coaches Tell Of Basketball Program
Future basketball prospects for both varsity boys and girls teams at Tahoka High are bright for the future. Coaches Mike Williamson and "Sandy" Oliver told Rotarians last Thursday noon.
Miss Oliver said her girls are showing steady improvement and have a highly competitive spirit, a major objective is teaching the girls to be ladies. Officials of games and competitive school officials have been high in praise of the Tahoka girls' good sportsmanship and attitude.
Williamson's team was hurt badly this year by inability of two outstanding players, Clifford Bailey and Roddy Brooks, to play because of injuries received in football. However, the varsity squad composed of three Sophomores, three Juniors, and four Seniors, have been giving their best and prospects are good for the future. The THS Freshman team has lost only two games this season, and some players will help the team next year. Tahoka won district in 1977 and tied for district last year. Going will be tougher in the future due to there being four other strong teams in the district, including Seminole, long a powerhouse in AAA, which this year is playing in Class AA.
High School Principa Jim Marcus, who introduced the program, had high praise for Tahoka students playing basketball.
President Monte Dodson read a letter from the Tahoka student body praising the Rotary Club for their help in sponsoring the Driver Safety program in the local schools.
James Brookshire was inducted into the club in a brief induction talk by Warren Embree.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Nowlin and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Huddleston visited in Clovis, New Mexico, Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Millsap. W. C. is recovering from a stroke.

It was a joy to have Rev. E. K. Shepherd of Brownfield preach both morning and evening services in the New Home Baptist Church Sunday. Rev. Shepherd is not a stranger to many in our church, he was pastor of the Wilson Baptist Church in 1946-47, pastored 8 other churches in Texas, Colorado and Montana and then returned to the Wilson church where he was pastor from 1973 until his semi-retirement in December. But he is still much involved in the ministry by preaching in revivals, supplying for churches, and teaching study courses. Rev. and Mrs. Shepherd moved to Brownfield early in January. She accompanied him to New Home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Glen Grey is teaching remedial reading in the Wilson Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. James Belk and children have moved to Tucson, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Poer went to Houston Monday, January 22, to visit his brother, Hugh Poer and family, and visited other relatives in Dallas before returning home Friday.

Andy Bill and Judy Fillingim moved into their farm home last week. It is northwest of New Home and they bought it from Mrs. Betty Hancock. They are busy cleaning and redecorating.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Unfred were in San Diego, California last weekend attending the National Cotton Council held in the Harbor Island Center.

Our daughter, Ann Walton, and friends, Mrs. Betty Rayborn and Ms. Billie Cannon of Snyder, visited here with us Wednesday afternoon.

After visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Unfred, and with his sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Malcom Thomas in Lubbock, Randy left Thursday for Bahrain. He is industrial relations manager for Santa Fe Overseas Inc. with headquarters in Manana.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clements were at the ranch at Mangum, Oklahoma, a few days last week.

Mr. Delbert White entered Methodist Hospital Sunday, January 28, and is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Clark of Fort Worth spent a week here with her mother, Mrs. Jewell Mayfield, and the Turners.

The Parent Teachers Club met Friday, February 2 and the volleyball tournament has been set for March 8, 9, and 10. A plea for children's clothing, especially coats, goes out. Bring such clothing for elementary age children to the Elementary School office.

A bridal shower for Carol Taylor, bride elect of Don Goodman of Snyder, was in fellowship hall Monday, January 29. Wedding cookies, punch and coffee was served from a table covered with an ecru lace cloth over yellow. Silver and crystal appointments were used. A fall arrangement of flowers centered the serving table. A vacuum cleaner was the hostess gift.

Mrs. Louie Holt visited in Lubbock Sunday with her son, Alvis Holt, and family.

Friends are invited to meet Baby Melissa McCracken and to visit with her mother, Nancy Unfred McCracken, Thursday, February 8, at 3 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Leroy Nettles.

Sherry Etheredge Says

Eating raw eggs may cause food poisoning. Ungraded eggs, especially cracked or dirty ones, were the culprit in salmonella food poisonings recently--from "no cook" homemade ice cream.

"Salmonella food poisoning is a severe form of foodborne illness which causes symptoms similar to a '24-hour' virus," according to Mary K. Sweeten, a foods and nutrition specialist.

Avoid 'No-Cook' Ice Cream
"Homemakers should avoid any recipe which uses the no-cooking method for homemade ice cream," she adds.

Mrs. Sweeten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Explaining the "no-cook" method, she says raw eggs and other ingredients are simply mixed, cooled and placed in a freezer.

Cooking Kills Bacteria
A safer method is any recipe which calls for cooking eggs, milk and cream in a double boiler.

Mrs. Sweeten says. That makes a custard base for the ice cream, and it aids in pasteurizing the ingredients.

Salmonella bacteria can penetrate an eggshell-through cracks or pores, but cooking will kill it, the specialist explains.

Reports from the Center for Disease Control associate outbreaks of salmonella foodborne illness with the ingestion of homemade ice cream prepared from contaminated, farm-produced, ungraded eggs, the specialist adds.

Eggs, especially large sizes, are among this week's budget buys, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist.

Also, chicken livers on special, some fresh fruits and vegetables, and canned tomatoes and corn.

Mrs. Clyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-and-quality trends are the following:

POULTRY--Egg prices remain stable, although severe winter weather could slow production, cut supplies and raise prices. Fryer chicken prices are slightly higher, although some have thrifty price tags in some markets.

FRESH FRUITS--Reasonable prices appear on three-pound-size bags of apples.

Grapefruit crops suffered some winter losses, but fruit now on the market has excellent quality. Prices on Temple oranges and tangelos are lower--with good quality.

FRESH VEGETABLES--Cabbage is still a budget item in spite of slightly higher prices. Other economical vegetables are potatoes, carrots, broccoli, eggplant, sweet potatoes and rutabagas.

DAIRY--Look for budget prices on yogurt, cheeses and milk.

GROCERY MARKET AISLES--Some canned vegetables make economical "stand-ins" for higher-priced fresh ones. These include tomatoes, tomato products and corn.

FROZEN FOOD CHESTS--Features are bread dough, dinners, ice cream and orange juice.

RED MEATS--Prices are up this week in general. Beef features include chuck roasts and steaks, ground beef, round steaks and liver--with occasional specials on sirloin steaks and sirloin-tip roasts.

Pork features include Boston butt roasts, quarter

A Visit With Our County Agent

For Crop Season

Soil tests are the present favorite and most economical way to determine the level of nutrients available in a soil.

CS Reminds Farmers of Deadlines

Upland Cotton Provisions-It has been estimated that producers can only cotton will be to set aside or acreage to be eligible for price or deficiency payments on their 1979 crop.

YIELD PAYMENTS-Forget to turn in your production cards.

There will be a cost shares on cotton practices Feb. 1 thru February 16.

Instructions for collecting and mailing soil samples are available at the county Extension office.

vary greatly between soils due to past fertilization and cropping as well as native fertility. However, a soil test can help determine the level of nutrients available in a soil.

The first step in collecting samples is to use a map or sketch to divide the farm and fields into sampling units. If the sampling unit is too large, the information obtained may not be much better than a general fertilization guide.

Under today's conditions a major objective in soil testing is to identify those soils with nutrient levels that are not adequate to meet crop requirements. This enables the producer to select fertilizers that will supplement soil nutrients and provide enough for yields.

Soil test results for phosphorus are especially valuable for measuring buildup that occurs in fields receiving regular applications of phosphorus for several years. However, the residual from row applications is difficult to measure until it is thoroughly mixed with the soil.

In addition soil tests will identify those soils high in potassium so that this nutrient need not be applied. Since most soils are low in nitrogen, a soil test will generally not give a reading on nitrogen levels in the soil. But it is important to consider the level of each nutrient in a soil when selecting the most profitable fertilization practices.

If you have not included soil tests in your farm planning program, start now to prepare for this year's crop.

Instructions for collecting and mailing soil samples are available at the county Extension office.

Cotton Prices Lower

High Plains cotton prices were $3.75 to $7.75 per bale lower the week ended February 1, according to Paul R. Dickson, Area Director at Lubbock's Marketing Services Office.

Marketing Services Office.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30-33, mikes 35-49 around 52.15 cents per pound. New crop lots of mostly grades 43 and 53, staples 30 and 31, mikes 35-49 brought about 46.80 cents per pound, Dickson said.

Gins paid High Plains growers $115 to $130 per ton for cottonseed.

USDA's High Plains Marketing Services Offices graded 68,000 samples this week, bringing this season's total to 1,810,000. This compares to 2,922,000 graded by February 2 last year.

Predominant High Plains grades this week were grade 41 at nine percent, grade 51 accounted for nine percent, grade 42 amounted to 39 percent and grade 52 was 24 percent. Thirty-three percent was reduced one grade because of bark.

Staple lengths were staple 31 at 32 percent, staple 32-40 percent and staple 33-12 percent, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 3.5-4.9 range at 62 percent of the total. Thirty-seven percent was lower, and one percent was higher.

Breaking strength averaged 84,000 pounds per square inch.

Lap Dogs To Livestock - 4-Her's Learn Vet Science

When Karen Groveman of Petaluma, California, hatched a brood of pink and green baby chicks, she wasn't trying to get the jump on the Easter bunny.

The 18-year-old 4-H'er was engaged in a serious scientific project. Karen, a member of the national 4-H veterinary science program, wanted to study feather growth, and she figured that injecting each fertilized egg with a harmless food coloring compound might be the best route to the particular scientific observation she wanted to make. It was.

Last year about 60,000 young people between the ages of 9 and 19 were enrolled in 4-H veterinary science projects and activities supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service and supported by The Upjohn Co. Karen Groveman's efforts won her a $1,000 scholarship as one of six national vet science winners.

Not all 4-H'ers become as skilled as Karen, of course. But they all learn a great deal, often under the supervision of a local veterinarian. Many later go into veterinary medicine themselves.

4-H members learn-by-doing to deliver calves, vaccinate lambs, assist in rabies clinics, or check a sick puppy's temperature, pulse and respiration. The program is geared to city kids as well as farm youth. A child without a pet can "borrow" one.

Young people enrolled in the veterinary science program can work for awards donated by Upjohn and arranged by the National 4-H Council.

Recognition includes $1,000 scholarships for six national winners and expense-paid trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago each year for 24 sectional winners. U.S. Savings Bonds of $50 each are awarded at the state level, and medals of honor at the county level round out the awards schedule.

Winners are chosen by the Extension Service. Young people can learn more about the 4-H veterinary science program by contacting the Extension office.

One of Congressman Stenholm's primary interests is to assure greater productivity on the part of the Federal Government. In line with this philosophy of greater Government efficiency, Stenholm has also introduced legislation, referred to as "sunset" legislation. This proposal would require, among other things, that most Federal programs be reviewed and reauthorized once every ten years. Those programs not receiving reauthorization, would be terminated.

SPS Promotes Doyle Bunch

Berl M. Springer, president and chief operating officer of Southwestern Public Service Company, has announced the promotion of Doyle R. Bunch II to assistant secretary and assistant treasurer-finance for the Amarillo based electric utility.

Bunch is a native of Amarillo and a graduate of Tascosa High School and of Texas Tech University where he earned a bachelor of business administration-accounting degree. He obtained his certificate as a certified public accountant in 1971.

Bunch started his career with Southwestern in 1976 as an executive assistant. He was named assistant secretary and assistant treasurer in July of that year.

Bunch is on the Board of Directors and treasurer of the Children's Rehabilitation Center, Inc. in Amarillo. He is also a member of the Amarillo Area Finance and Economics Council, Panhandle Chapter of CPA's, Texas Society of CPA's, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the National Association of Accountants.

Valentine Recipes And Hints Given

February suggests special desserts as cherry cakes and cherry pies. The Valentine Ice Cream Cake is a favorite. Cakes are of two general types depending upon the basic ingredients they contain. For success in cakemaking, follow recipes directions exactly. Use the type and size baking pans specified in recipe and fill them half to two-thirds full. Bake in preheated oven at specified temperature. Test cakes for doneness. Cool cakes completely before topping or frosting.

Valentine Ice Cream Cake

1/2 cup shortening
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1 1/2 cups sugar
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup strawberry preserves
1/2 pint whipping cream, whipped
1 pint candy cane ice cream

Place shortening in bowl. Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder and salt in bowl. Add 1/2 cup milk and vanilla. Beat 2 minutes on medium speed of electric mixer, or by hand, using 150 strokes per minute. Throughout mixing time, keep batter scraped from sides and bottom of bowl with rubber scraper. Scrape bowl and beaters. Add eggs and 1/2 cup milk. Beat for 2 additional minutes on medium speed. Scrape bowl and beaters. Pour equal amounts of batter into heart-shaped cake pans which have been lined with 2 layers of waxed paper. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 30 minutes. To assemble cake: Starting 1 1/2 inches from the edge, cut a heart-shaped piece from the center of one layer. Place the cake with the heart shaped cut-out over the other layer that has been spread with strawberry preserves. Frost the sides with whipped cream. Spoon Candy Cane Ice Cream into the cut-out center of the heart cake. Serve at once.

Two common cake failures are: FALLEN CAKES-Too much shortening might have been used, or too much soda or baking powder, or too much sugar, or the baking period may have been too short, or the temperature may have been incorrect. Follow the recipe exactly, measure ingredients accurately and set your oven temperature correctly to avoid fallen cakes. UNEVEN CAKES-Might be due to an uneven oven rack or an uneven pan, or the batter may have been too stiff to spread evenly in the pan. An uneven cake is usually due to something uneven, somewhere or other.

Convection ovens may gain popularity in the home because of efficient energy management. Convection ovens work on a principle in which the air in the oven is continuously heated and circulated, reheated and recycled in an unending process. The heated air with the intensity of the heat controlled-circulates around the food. There is less shrinkage in foods cooked in a convection oven than in a conventional oven. This is attributed to the fact that the foods are cooked at a lower temperature than in a traditional oven.

Tax Officer In Tahoka February 13

State Comptroller Bob Bullock announced he is sending a representative from his Lubbock office to Tahoka on Tuesday, February 13, to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.

Bullock said Enforcement Officer Sam Redleman will meet with local taxpayers at the Lynn County Courthouse from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.
"If Tahoka-area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing tax forms, Mr. Redleman will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

"We're trying to cut the red tape in this office and we believe these face-to-face sessions with taxpayers help do just that," Bullock added.

Bullock reminded those taxpayers who are unable to meet with his representative on February 13 that they can still get their questions answered quickly by calling his TOLL-FREE tax information number in Austin. That number is 1-800-252-5555.

The Lubbock office, headed by Vance A. Porfirio, serves Lubbock and surrounding counties.

Short Pres Foreign Student Bill

Senator E. L. District 28, has introduced a measure in the Texas which would call for the expulsion of certain students from public institutions of higher education who are convicted of offenses under certain provisions of the Texas Education Code.

Short's proposal that the governing body of public institution of education shall, following conviction, expel from institution any student who is a citizen of a country other than the United States attending the institution under a nonimmigrant visa issued by the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Short stated, "Expulsion of our foreign students from our institutions would be a matter of following convicted students of disorderly conduct, obstructing highway, or other passage ways, during a meeting or procession, or desecration of a public object, or intentional, reckless destruction of property."

"I was quite disturbed by the recent disturbances of Iranian students in Los Angeles, California, an alleged threat of demonstrators headed for Houston to Lubbock this weekend," Short said. "These continuous acts of violence directed to people and property of our country to acquire education can no longer be tolerated in our society."

Card Of Thanks

When sadness comes to a family, they realize more than ever what true friends mean to them. During "T's" long stay in the hospital and the short time he was at home, we had many dear friends who visited him, brought food, sent cards, and prayed, with and for us. To all of you, the friends, the very special doctors and nurses, Bro. Oglesby and Bro. Kenley for the beautiful services, Bro. Sid Parsley for his many visits and prayers, Hazel Bennett and Johnny Wells for the music, the women who served the dinner at the church and Billie Embree for her services. We could not have been more comforted and we shall be everlastingly grateful for all that was done for us.

We want to thank all of you for visits, cards, phone calls, flowers and your prayers. We serve a Great God. He gives us precious friends.

Sincerely,
The Family of
