

ICE CAUSES WRECK--Mrs. Will Parker was driver of this 1976 Dodge involved in a collision on icy Lockwood St. Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Parker was admitted to Lynn County Hospital and remained there for treatment Wednesday. There also were several one-car accidents on highways in the area, and the ice storm caused residents southeast of the city to lose electric power both Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and some places in the city also had no electricity early Wednesday. County Pay Hike Voted

Lynn County Commissioners voted to increase wages of county employees generally 10 per cent across the board, although one organization sent a representative to protest the increases.

Lanny Brewer of O'Donnell appeared on behalf of the Lynn County Farm Bureau, which he said would like to go on record as opposed to any increase in salaries of county employees. Commissioners observed that it certainly is the right and duty of any person or group to register a stand on such issues, but said they felt it would penalize county workers if they had to keep working for the same amount in the face of 12 to 13 per cent inflation.

Woman Hurt In Wreck Here

A Tahoka woman suffered severe injuries Tuesday afternoon as the car she was driving skidded on the icy street into the path of a pickup on Lockwood between Ave. O and Ave. P.

Officers, Mrs. Parker's 1976 Dodge was headed east on Lockwood, skidded and was struck on the driver's side by a westbound 1979 Chevrolet pickup driven by Stanley Young, also of Tahoka.

Also voted was an increase in the clothing allowance for sheriff's department personnel.

Commissioners drew resolutions to U.S. Rep. Charles Stenholm, Sen. John Tower and Sen. Lloyd Bentsen encouraging them to support extension of revenue sharing, which is scheduled to expire after this year.

The county normally receives about $70,000 per year in revenue sharing funds, and this year is to receive $77,385. Of the budgeted use of this amount, the biggest slice is $14,400 to be used for ambulance service in the county. Solid waste disposal to Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wilson and New Home takes another $15,300.

It was voted to renew membership in South Plains Assn. of Governments for another year. This costs the county $455.35 per year.

Also approved were membership in the state association of county judges and commissioners, a contract with the State Dept. of Human Resources for foster care, and a request by the stock show committee to have a concrete floor poured in the county show barn. The group plans to raise funds for the project through donations, so it will not cost the county anything.

Lockwood. A 1972 Chevrolet pickup driven by Sarita Ortiz of Tahoka and a 1979 Ford driven by James Darrell Mannis of Bryan collided.

Police issued one ticket for failure to yield right of way and one for no drivers license during the week.

Moore Resigns As Hospital Administrator

Gerald Moore, Lynn County Hospital Administrator since December 1974, last week submitted his resignation from that position, effective Feb. 22.

Moore told the hospital board he is taking another administrative job with a hospital, but could not disclose the location at this time.

Larry Hagood, president of the hospital board, said the group accepted Moore's resignation with regret, and Hagood commended Moore for "doing an excellent job for us" in Lynn County. The hospital board president said the group hopes to have a replacement by the time Moore leaves.

Moore is a former president of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, member of the Tahoka Rotary Club and he and his family are members of First United Methodist Church.

LYNN COUNTY HOSPITAL: PART 2 Staff Of Hospital Highly Qualified

[This is the second in a two-part series on Lynn County Hospital]

By DALTON WOOD

Three physicians with plenty of credentials, registered nurses on duty at all times, and competent people in charge of X-rays, technical areas and all other departments make Lynn County Hospital one of the best-staffed facilities of its size anywhere, according to hospital officials and citizens who serve on the hospital board.

One of the main forces in keeping hospital standards high here has been administrator Gerald Moore, who resigned just last week after more than five years in that position. Board President Larry Hagood, commending Moore for a job done well here, assured citizens this week that another competent administrator would be found soon to succeed Moore, who will remain until Feb.

Head Nurse

Registered Nurse Juanella Mowery is director of nurses at LCH, and there are five RNs on the staff, plus one part-time RN. In addition, of course, there is a full staff of licensed vocational nurses.

The "main men" at the hospital, of course, are the physicians who treat the patients. Hagood referred to these and the other staff members this way:

"The board has always tried to staff the hospital with the best people we can find...right now, we feel we have three highly qualified physicians on the staff."

The three doctors are Richard Wright, who has been in Tahoka since June 1973, Rouchdy Shenouda, who came here in November of 1978, and Lawrence Jones, who has been in Tahoka a little less than a year.

All three are family practitioners, and Dr. Shenouda also is a general surgeon.

From Indiana

Dr. Jones, a native of Indiana, is a graduate of the University of Texas Health Science Center in Dallas, where he also taught. He interned at Lima, Ohio, General Hospital. He also has degrees from Indiana State University and Southern Methodist University. He has been on hospital staffs at Nacogdoches and Alpine in Texas.

Dr. Wright was born in Dublin, South Ireland, and is a graduate of St. Bartholomew Hospital Medical School, University of London in 1950. He interned at Luton and Dupstable Hospital and the Royal Infirmary of Worcester.

Dr. Shenouda, a native of Cairo, Egypt, interned at Tanta General Hospital in Cairo in 1960-61, having graduated from Abbasia Medical School in Cairo in 1959. He also interned at North Devon Infirmary at Barnstaple, England, and later had residencies at hospitals in Cincinnati and in New Jersey. He is a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

Other members of the hospital board, elected for two-year terms, are Roy Lynn Kahlich (vice chairman), Jesse Dorman, Norma Thomas Wagner, Charles Louder, Leland White and Julian Pirtle.

Money Problems

Low room occupancy percentages and low collection percentages in the last fiscal year hurt the hospital

IT'S ALL THERE--Lynn County Hospital Administrator Gerald Moore and Licensed Vocational Nurses Terry Stanley (center) and Marion Roberts check over equipment on a "crash cart", which has a defibrillator and other items for treating emergency heart patients. In addition to the LVNs, the hospital always has at least one registered nurse on duty at all times. (LYNN COUNTY NEWS PHOTO)

WHEN WE first came to Tahoka about eight years ago, we were acquainted with only three families who live here. Since then, two of these families--the Gerald Moores and Larry... have announced they are leaving town. I know how to interpret this, but maybe it's what I not dwell on it.

Typically, the only one of the three who hasn't moved away is this character who is insulting me in front of groups of people. I say who he is, but I did hear that the girls at the CA office here recently gave him a pair of cut tennis sox just like the ones he ridiculed for wearing.

... MUST have been precognition that caused me to call my optometrist last week and make an appointment this week to get checked for some reading glasses. For some months, I have been noticing that no matter how hard you wipe the lens, the lens retained deep scratches caused by my glasses around on the floor or sliding across the desk, and they were getting pretty hard to see through.

... I had thought about getting new lenses, but then I thought of the old frames, but now I have changed my mind. Sunday I dropped them out of my pocket and a car ran over them.

... The optometrist I go to is Dr. Clovis Clough of Lubbock, who also plays cornet with a band I used to be a member of. He's something of a character. I remember we were playing for a civic club and he stood up to play a solo part and somehow got off into the wrong key. He finally straightened out, and struggled through and down amidst the snickers of the rest of the band. He grumbled that "just because I'm an optometrist doesn't mean I have to make a spectacle of myself."

LATEST EQUIPMENT--Lynn County Hospital has some of the latest technical aids to medical treatment available, with competent personnel using the equipment. Here Austin Simpson, medical technologist, is shown with some of the equipment. (LYNN COUNTY NEWS PHOTO)

... be dignified when you're sprawled all over the middle of the street, with your groceries or mail scattered from one side to the other. Most of us look around first to see who was watching us fall before we start hurting.

... I did some remarkable gyrations going after the paper the other morning, but I wouldn't want to try it again. I definitely intend to boycott the Winter Olympics.

financially, but officials believe if more people will use the hospital (and they are planning measures to assure a higher rate of collections), the facility will pull out of its financial problems.

"Costs are getting unreal and we have had some money problems in the last year," Moore said. "But last year's occupancy rate (in the 24-bed facility) was just 56 percent, and collection rates were about 85 per cent, compared to 90 percent for the previous year...If we can get the occupancy rate up to 80 per cent, it would help our financial situation considerably."

County Hospital costs $75 per day, a figure which Hagood said was generally $10 to $20 less than a private room in a Lubbock hospital.

"Of course there are some things which require people to go elsewhere, mainly for specialists in some particular area," Hagood said. "But citizens of Lynn County could use their own hospital more than they do, and possibly this may be largely due to not knowing how good and how extensive the medical service is right here.

J.L. Hyde Is Candidate For Prec. 1 Post

J.L. Hyde, a resident of Lynn County for 35 years, this week announced his candidacy for the post of commissioner of precinct 1.

Hyde said he has worked for two precincts in the county, primarily on road construction, and also worked 8 years for another county before moving to Lynn County.

The candidate, who is retired, said he has no other obligations, and could devote all his time to job of commissioner. "I certainly would maintain all the roads to the best of my ability," he said. "I would like the chance to serve the people of precinct 1, and I feel that my past experience qualifies me for the job," Hyde said. "I will try to see everyone in the precinct if I can, and at any rate, I will certainly appreciate any support given me."

Harvick Joins Race For Pct. 1 Commissioner

Lawrence Harvick this week announced his candidacy for commissioner for Precinct 1, Lynn County.

Harvick has lived in Tahoka since 1933. He married the former Ruby Carpenter in 1936. He served four years in the military service in World War II. He has been in a business of his own for 8 years, and previously managed a motor company.

"I believe that I am capable of taking care of this job, and can do it justice. I will devote my full time to serving as you commissioner and will greatly appreciate your vote and your support," he said.

and Mrs. George Koen (Mobile, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McElvain of Iowa, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon in Tahoka last week.

Opal Drager is spending some time in Tahoka with her daughter and son who had major surgery on Jan. 21.

Edna Lancaster returned to her home on Friday after a week stay in her granddaughter, Mrs. Hartman in San Antonio.

Willie Thomas visited in Tahoka the weekend of Jan. 20 with her son and daughter.

A 4 p.m. ceremony in the church of Southcrest Baptist on Saturday, Jan. 19, in honor of the bride and groom, Sherry Etheridge and Myrl Mathis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lemon of Lubbock.

formerly of Wilson and Slaton. Johnny is a Master Sargent at Reece Army Base and Karen is a nurse at Methodist Hospital. Leona Waldrip is an aunt of the bride and was a guest at the wedding.

Mixing business with pleasure on Thursday and Friday last week, Mrs. Willie Thomas was in Denver City. She attended a farm meeting at the club house on Thursday night and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Edwards who formerly lived in Tahoka.

At the last noon luncheon at the Pioneer Club more than 50 persons were present including 5 visitors from Brownfield and one from Oklahoma. Mrs. N.E. Wood won the Lucky member gift. She also led the group in playing a bible game after the meal.

Next luncheon day is this Friday and a film will be shown in the afternoon. Friday, Feb. 8 will be the birthday party.

Tahoka Rebekah Lodge will have installation of officers on Feb. 12 at the regularly scheduled meeting. A salad supper will be served.

Twenty-five persons braved Monday night's icy weather to attend the Eastern Star meeting at Masonic Hall. Deputy Grand Matron, Faye Holmes of Lubbock made her annual visit, accompanied by her husband, Bill Holmes, Past Grand Patron and Mrs. Loy Danley, Bulletin Committee of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star of Texas.

Opal Hines and Willie Thomas were hostesses at a salad supper after the meeting.

After a month's visit with relatives in Tahoka and Lubbock, Mrs. Ruth Koch of Roff, Okla. has returned to her home there.

Touchups for Wood Furniture - suggestions from Good Housekeeping

To remove scratches: apply scratch-concealing polish or cream, or touch-up brush.

To remove water rings: rub on camphorated oil with grain of wood. Very bad rings may require several applications.

To remove candle wax: first, with fingers, pick off all the wax you can. Then scrape gently with dull knife blade or plastic scraper. Remove last trace of wax by rubbing briskly with dry, soft cloth. Note: To harden wax, making it easier to remove, hold an ice cube on it for a moment. Wipe up any melted ice promptly.

To remove heat marks: to remove light damage, moisten clean, soft cloth with a light camphorated oil; rub cloth over mark with light strokes. Immediately rub vigorously with another clean cloth. To remove more severe damage, rub gently with dry steel wool soap pad, a tiny area at a time, wiping up powdery substance before going on to next area. This method succeeds like a miracle, but you must work carefully.

To remove perfume and alcohol stains: Apply scratch-concealing polish or cream as directed on the label. If this is not effective, try a combination of rottenstone or powdered pumice and linseed oil.

Phebe K. Study Club

The Phebe K. Warner study Club met in the home of Mrs. Robert Warren, Tuesday, Jan. 22 with Mrs. Barry Weaver and Mrs. Ray Adams as co-hostesses. The meeting was called to order by the president, Beth Huffaker. The following officers for the coming year were named: Jill Warren, president; Sherry Etheridge, first and second vice president; Grace Prohl, third vice president; Dorothy Kenley, secretary, and Dorothy Draper, treasurer. A change was recommended in the constitution and by-laws. Mrs. Harold Green had charge of the program, "Talents Unlimited". Club members performed by singing, acting, playing the piano, dramatic readings and poetry.

The group was entertained by two feuding grandmothers, Madeline Hegi and Grace Huffaker; a piano duet by Beth Huffaker and Margaret Carter; song by Margaret Carter, Alice Starnes, and Ann Hamilton; piano solo "boogie woogie", by Nan Adams; and a song by Sherry Etheridge. Original poems were read by Lady Stewart, Chloe Jan Wells, and Mildred Abbe, our own poet laureate. Zuma McWhirter read her poem, "Give Me America," after which the group sang America the Beautiful.

The club nominated Sherry Etheridge for woman of the year and Brad White for student of the year.

We were glad to welcome Mrs. A.N. Norman as a new member and Suzanne Franklin as a visitor.

Faith Circle Meets

Faith Circle of the Methodist Church met Jan. 28 at 4 p.m. to observe Day of Prayer and Self-denial. Mrs. Ann Whorton was in charge of the program. She was assisted by Myrl Mathis.

The meeting began with a song and prayer. The devotion on prayer was presented by Marietta Montgomery.

Mrs. Mathis explained how the money given by the Methodist women would be spent.

Following the meeting Myrl Mathis and Mittie Walker served refreshments.

Sen. Short Discusses New Tax Laws

New tax measures enacted by the Texas Legislature last session were discussed by State Senator E.L. Short at the Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

The new tax laws, all provisions of which he did not support, were supposed to give property owners some relief, which goal remains in question. To say the least, the complicated new tax laws are revolutionary, and expensive to set up by local taxing units.

Senate Bill 350 is simply the authorization for payment of school teachers and for general school operation.

House Bill 1060 carries out the mandate of the people who last year voted in favor of the Tax Relief Amendment. Under it, all agricultural lands are to be appraised on productive value, and the owner will have the option of accepting one of two tax rolls, productivity value or fair market value. The productivity value of land could be a saving to farm owners.

Senate Bill 621 is long and complicated and spells out implementation and details of the State Property Tax Code, to be headed by a State Appraisal Board.

Appraisal districts are authorized with each county as one unit to appraise property for all taxing units in that county, including school and water districts. A local appraisal board is authorized for each county, who will in Lynn County's case, contract with an experienced appraisal firm to handle the job. Local taxing districts must pay for this gigantic undertaking, which will prove very expensive. Each taxing authority in the county will set its own tax rate.

A family or residence homestead is exempted from $2,000 of state and county assessed values.

School districts grant a $5,000 homestead exemption and an additional $10,000 for those owners 65 years of age or disabled, but applications for such exemption must be filed each year.

More detailed explanations will be published later. School Superintendent Jim Coulston was in charge of the program at Rotary.

Tahoka Basketball

Tahoka's varsity basketball teams split a double-header against Roosevelt Jan. 25.

The varsity boys ran away with the entire game, bringing down the Roosevelt Eagles 77-53. The end of the first quarter saw Tahoka ahead 24-6 and they gained steadily the rest of the game. Brad White was high pointer for the team with 22 points, followed closely by Charles Bryson with 21 points. Kenny Scott scored 10, Jacky Jolly 6, Clifford Oages and Richard Payne 4 each, Ricky Chapa, Lance Bevers, Todd Brown, Doug Barham and Ralph Huffaker 2 points each. Bryson led in rebounds with 15 and also in steals.

The varsity girls suffered their second defeat from the Roosevelt Eagles. They were behind 14-23 at the half and the final score was 44-52. Lynia Payne led the scoring with 14 points. Lani Brown and Cathy Meeks made 8 points each, Starr Knox and Charlene Bryson 6 each and Lisa Perkins 2. Andra Draper suffered an ankle injury during the first half of play. Bryson and Knox led in rebounds and Brown in steals.

C-C To Meet

Directors of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce will meet next Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. at the Tahoka Cafeteria.

Power Company Plans To Ask Rate Increase

Southwestern Public Service Company announced this week that it needs to increase its retail rates by 14.78 percent to the customers in Texas served by the electric company.

Information outlining Southwestern's needs was presented to city officials in this area this week. Formal filing with all regulatory bodies is pending. SPS serves Tahoka and Wilson in Lynn County.

Bert Ballengee, executive vice president of SPS, said the increase is needed for three primary reasons; inflation, the high cost of money and the cost of switching from gas to coal. "Every one of us is affected by inflation including SPS," Ballengee said. "As our costs for making and delivering electricity continue to go up, the price must also go up."

"Every one of us is also affected by high money costs, including SPS. When we borrow money at today's record high interest rates, or sell stock, people are actually letting us use their savings to build new power plants and lines and to build new equipment. If we do not give them a reasonable return on their investment, the people will stop letting us use their money and our ability to deliver electricity to our customers will be limited."

"And every one of us is affected by the change in the way we make electricity. We must build coal-fired plants instead of the conventional gas-fired plants because of cost, supply and government regulation. Coal-fired plants cost almost twice as much but the electricity will still cost less than continuing to burn higher priced natural gas," Ballengee said.

Ballengee also said that based on existing rates being charged to all Texas retail customers, SPS projected revenues for 1979 will be less than the cost of service to those customers by $42,657,065.

The 14.78 percent increase is an average for all types or classes of customers. The increase will vary from one rate class to another. For example, the customer that uses 500 units of electrical energy per month would have an increase of $5.43 per month.

The increase in rates would not affect the rates charged to wholesale power customers.

The last base rate increase in Southwestern's rates for retail service was based on 1977 costs and went into effect in October 1978 and amounted to about 7 percent, well below the amount the company needed at that time.

Stock Show Set

Approximately 500 animals will be exhibited at the annual Lynn County Livestock Show Feb. 20-23 at the Lynn County Show Barn. There will be winners in lamb, barrow and steer divisions, with a barbecue at noon Saturday, Feb. 23, as one of the highlights of the show this year.

Donald Klaus is president of the Stock Show Assn. Larry Tucker of Estelline will be barrow show judge, with Kyle Smith of Seminole to judge lambs and steers. Showmanship judge will be Marty Davis of Lubbock.

Presentation of awards and auction sale of approximately 100 animals will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday following the barbecue.

The lamb show starts at 1 p.m. Feb. 21, with the steer show to begin at 6 p.m. On Feb. 22, the barrow show will open at 9 a.m.

Gross Sales Climb

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said 1979 third quarter gross sales in Texas passed the $52.5 billion mark.

Bullock said an analysis of gross sales figures for July, August and September reveals that gross sales climbed nearly $3 billion more than during the year's second quarter.

The gross sales figures were gathered from 266,746 reporting outlets across the state.

Bullock also released a computer analysis showing reported sales for each of the state's 254 counties and a sales tax analysis broken down by the state's Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas.

Out-of-state gross sales received from 4,896 reporting outlets for the third quarter show sales of $4.8 billion.

Gross sales for Lynn County amounted to $10,292,203 for the third quarter of 1979.

Local Student Participates In Baylor Lab

Billy Wayne Bass of Tahoka was one of 63 Baylor University students who attended the Leakey Leadership Lab Jan. 2-6 at the H.E. Butt Ranch near Leakey, Texas.

Bass of Route 5 was a delegate to the five-day session sponsored annually by Baylor's student government. Delegates were selected from applicants who have demonstrated leadership potential on the Baylor campus.

"The purpose of the lab is to help the delegates learn to develop interpersonal relationships and to become more aware of their leadership skills," said Virginia Crump, associate dean of students and administrative adviser for the lab.

Based on the assumption that leadership is primarily a learned behavior, the lab is structured to help each delegate learn more about his or her personal leadership qualities. Self-evaluation, planning and goal setting are also stressed to help students develop potential in problem-solving and decision-making processes.

Bridge Winners

Winners in the annual ACBL membership game at the T-Bar Tuesday bridge session last week were: Mrs. Jess Gurley and Mrs. Clint Walker, first; Mrs. Olen Renfro and Mrs. T.E. Matt Howell, 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howell of Dimmitt, remains in good condition in the Highland Hospital in Lubbock where he was taken on Jan. 2 after his left arm was severed in a farm accident. Harvey Arce who was working with Matt took him to the Dimmitt Hospital and returned to the farm to pick up the arm. Matt was taken to Highland where a team of doctors worked 12 hours to reattach the severed arm. The delicate operation involved connecting veins and nerves, setting fractures, and reattaching muscles. Circulation has returned to the arm and doctors have promised no miracles, but remain cautiously optimistic. The ex-Dimmitt High School football quarterback and district pole vault champion is depending on physical therapy, faith and time to restore use of the arm.

Matt is a nephew of Rev. Jackie Lee, pastor of the New Home Baptist Church.

Cotton Prices Continue To Advance

Prices paid growers for 1979 crop cotton continued to advance this week according to Paul R. Dickson, Area Director for the USDA's High Plains Cotton Division. Mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and higher, staples 30 to 32, mike 27 - 32 sold for 49.50 to 51.50 cents per pound. Demand was good during the past week and growers offered cotton freely in active trading.

High Plains classing offices graded 113,815 samples during the week ending Jan. 24. This brought the total classed for the season to 2,253,392 samples. About 1,700,000 samples had been classed by this date one year ago.

Grade 32 at 23 percent and grade 42 at 42 percent were the predominant grades the past week. Staple 30 accounted for 28 percent, staple 31 was 42 percent and staple 32 was 19 percent. Micronaire 30 - 32 was 30 percent, 27 - 29 was 43 percent and mike 26 and below accounted for 12 percent of the samples classed.

Average breaking strength was 84,000 pounds per square inch. Gins paid growers $95 to $120 per ton for cottonseed.

Graze Winter Pastures According To Animals' Needs
 Producers need to make effective use of winter

WEATHER GOES BRK-SERK—The weather was plenty cold with freezing drizzle in Tahoka and Lynn County Monday and Tuesday, and ice formed on trees to make winter scenes like this one near 1st and Ave. J. Walking, driving and breathing outside were hazardous to one's health early this week. (LYNN COUNTY NEWS PHOTO) pastures, particularly during mid-winter when production is limited. And one effective method of grazing management is to allow animals to graze winter pastures based on their nutritional requirements.

To use this approach, class livestock into three basic groups: dry or maintenance-only animals, lactating animals and growing animals. These same classes can be used in full feeding programs to determine necessary diet levels.

Dry or maintenance-only animals generally have the lowest nutrient requirement of the three groups. For mature pregnant cows, the economics of using winter pastures are marginal if even fair quality hay is available for feeding. These cows are in a non-producing state and have little more than a body maintenance requirement. If they're in good condition going into winter, they can lose 10 percent of their body weight during winter without harm.

Increase the nutritional level of mature pregnant cows near calving to help them rebreed after calving. Feeding dry cows fair quality hay until near calving, then shifting them to green pasture seems to be a logical approach.

Lactating cows have the next highest nutritional requirement of the three groups. With calf at side, a lactating cow is trying to maintain her body, provide milk for the calf, and rebreed. She needs winter pasture grazing or high quality hay (12 percent crude protein) to perform all these functions. Winter pasture grazed every other day, with good hay in between, could do the job. Fair quality hay (8 percent crude protein) or anything less simply will not allow her to do everything she needs to do. Cutting back on her diet can cause her to not rebreed or to wean a light calf.

Growing animals (steers, replacement heifers and first-calf heifers) have the highest nutritional requirement. They are adding weight and have not developed the mature digestive system to handle poorer quality forages. Thus they need the highest quality hay available (greater than 12 percent crude protein) or access to winter pasture on a daily basis. Anything less will cause poor weight gain, or in the case of first calf heifers, poor rebreeding and slow growth. Limited grazing on a daily basis may help provide pasture for a longer time without drastically affecting gain. However, daily grazing is necessary to enable animals to perform.

Report Released On Lake Meredith Salinity Study

An appraisal report on a study to reduce the salinity of Canadian River water entering Lake Meredith has been released by the Water and Power Resources Service. The Southwest Region of Water and Power, formerly Bureau of Reclamation, conducted the study with the support of local interests and the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority, said Robert H. Weimer, Regional Director in Amarillo, Texas.

The Lake Meredith Salinity Study involved testing of the riverbed sands and subsurface water conditions during exploratory drilling along the Canadian River, as well as geophysical surveys. These investigations identified a brine artesian aquifer in the area of Logan, New Mexico, which contributes to saline pollution in the river. A significant improvement in the water quality of the riverflows near Logan could be obtained by isolating the brine seeping from the leaky aquifer.

Water and Power recommends that the study be continued at a level to permit a further investigation of methods for reducing the riverflow. One question answered by continuing is how long would it take to occur if Meredith, some 150 miles downstream from Logan. The Department of the Interior has a feasibility study of other authorization to Congress.

Lake Meredith storage facility on Canadian River which supplies municipal and industrial water member cities on the High Plains. The project constructed by Water and Power in the 1960's, operated by the Canadian River Municipal Authority.
