Bulldogs Host Stanton In Opener

SLATON WOOD Tahoka Bulldogs will return with a new coach, Craig Eiland, at the head of the team. Eiland, a former Tahoka player who threw for 100 yards and touchdowns against Stanton last year, will be the main attraction. The team will look for a good start in the season opener on Friday night.

get up for games with the bigger schools. That was one of only two games the Bulldogs lost last year, and Dog fans and players would like to start off on a winning note this time. Coach A.D. Shaver has indicated that he will go on offense with Mark Hudlin, up from the jayvee, at quarterback, and with running backs Tracy White (98 points and more than 1,100 yards last season), Danny Thompson and Charles Bryson.

Rim Rock Supermarket Now Is Venture Foods

Sale of Rim Rock Supermarket to Nicky Summitt was announced this week by Summitt and Richard Williams. The transaction was effective Tuesday when Summitt took over the business. The business now is called Summitt Venture Foods, part of a chain of Venture Foods supermarkets in the West Texas area.

Summitt, a graduate of Andrews High School, holds a bachelor of business administration degree in marketing from Texas Tech. During the last year he has been city sales manager for Standard Sales Co. in Lubbock. He is married to the former Vicki Kahlich of Wilson.

WOODWORK

WOODWORK column maybe should be titled 'WOOD' instead of Woodwork, because Monday came on the same day this week. A little time to do things before the Labor Day holiday was a good thing, and we're sure that most folks would probably agree that being a cowboy is more fun than working, unless you are off all the time. In which case it isn't much fun, and is even boring.

"We're looking forward to moving to Tahoka, getting involved in community activities and serving the community in a business way," Summitt said. He said a grand opening is planned soon for the store. Williams has operated the store for six years, three in the present location.

Salad Supper Before Game

The National Honor Society will host a casserole-salad supper from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday at the school cafeteria. Tickets will be $3 for adults and $1.50 for children 8 and under, and may be purchased from any N.H.S. member. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Coaches Give Football 1980 Review

Head Football Coach A.D. Shaver and two of his assistants, "Bud" Todd and Gary Roan, gave a review of the 1980 Bulldog football team members and prospects for this season at the Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

Coach Shaver declared the prospect is good for another battling football team in spite of graduation of some key players. Named the All-South Plains defensive team last year, the Bulldogs are expected to again have good defense as well as a potentially good offense this year.

When a school has a good football team, he declared, the whole school system personnel tends to have a good attitude and education in general is usually better.

He urged support of an improving band program under a new director for this year, Milton Fox.

Coach Roan, a new coach-teacher this year, is a graduate of Sul Ross State College and experienced in coaching. Dalton Wood was in charge of the program.

CEMETERY BOARD MEMBERS SOUGHT

Tahoka Cemetery Commission is in need of three persons to serve on the board. Any retired or semi-retired person interested in serving in this capacity please contact Bille White or Ed Bartley.

Estimated School Tax Won't Be That High

Residents of Tahoka school district who went into shock when they received notices this week of new appraisals and estimated tax for 1980 perhaps will recover to some extent when they understand that the "estimated tax" figure is higher than it will actually be.

On the notices of re-appraisal the 1980 estimated tax is based on what the tax would be if the rate stayed the same as it has been. That rate is $1.35 per $100 valuation, and this is the figure multiplied times the new appraised value on the school tax notices.

However, to estimate what the school tax actually will be, a property owner should multiply by about 90 cents, instead of $1.35. The school has not set the tax rate, but will do so tonight (Thursday) at a public hearing on the proposed tax increase. The board is expected to set a tax rate between 85 and 90 cents.

The city and county figured estimated 1980 taxes on what they anticipate the new rate will be when they set them following public hearings. Although the statute says the method used should be the one followed by the school district, officials at the city and county level decided taxpayers would rather have a more accurate estimate of what their taxes will be. The city is expected to wind up with a rate of 42 cents as opposed to the present $1.50 rate, while the county likely will set a rate of about 30 cents and the hospital district is expected to settle on about 15 or 16 cents.

The school board has set a public hearing on the tax increase for tonight, and some taxpayers are expected to appear to ask questions about it.

The county has set its public hearing on the increase proposed for 5 p.m. Monday, Sept. 15, in the district courtroom. The city has announced no date for a public hearing.

Museum Plans Exhibit Of Farm Implements

Tahoka Pioneer Museum at a recent meeting of directors initiated plans for addition of an exhibit of farm implements used in the early days. Farmers who still have implements used in the distant past are being asked to help by preserving them and notifying Winston Wharton, Bill Craig, or other board members of their availability. The Museum proposes to use the lot north of the present building to exhibit farm implements.

Many new acquisitions have been received by the Museum in recent weeks, most of which are now on exhibit.

Among recent items received are eight more items from Mrs. Frances Whitney and daughter, Mrs. Leona Monroe of Thomaston, Maine, descendants of Enos L. Seeds of Philadelphia, who first came to Lynn County as a surveyor in 1878, and returned in 1888 to establish Grasslands Ranch, which he operated until late 1900, served as postmaster there, took the 1900 census, and built "the most pretentious home in 100 miles" on the present site of Grassland.

New items added to the Seeds collection include a Colt .45 revolver first patented in 1884, a Navajo Indian saddle blanket, another saddle blanket, a rawhide lariat, a cow horn used to blow in to summons ranch hands, a cow horn hat rack, a saddle stirrup, and a Civil War days gun powder flask.

Mrs. Mittie Walker has given a pair of baby shoes hand-made by her husband's grandmother in 1873, and a large collection of Tahoka Garden Club records, scrap book, year books, etc., preserved by the late Mrs. L.C. Haney, who was instrumental in organizing the club in 1949-'50.

Other additions include pioneer pictures from Mrs. Rush Dudgeon, Mrs. Buel

Draper, Mrs. Tom LeMond of Austin, Mrs. Mike Orr, Mrs. Clint Walker, David weathers of Abilene; some early day school books, 1925 and 1927 annuals of the Sam Sanford family, by Mrs. John Hill; and an early day O'Donnell jail door by Sheriff Norvell Redwine.

Leopards Have Experience

The returning starters are eight and Head Coach James Eades has experience to be strength of the New Leopards football team this fall. There's almost no depth, however, at some key positions, and if any starters can't go all the way, there will be problems.

Wall, in his second year as head coach, and assistants Mike Banks and Rick Mantooth figure the starters and the 17 returning lettermen will help a lot. Last year the Leopards were 5-5 for the season and 2-3 in 2-B zone play. This year the district is 3-A west.

same players were starters last year, plus strong safety David Estrada, who'll be there again.

"Putting in our system last year helps give us a headstart this season," said Wall. "We had a good off-season and the boys are much stronger than last year."

Wall said the Leopards would operate from an I formation most of the time, occasionally going to a wing T.

The driver of a 1978 model pickup which struck a fence in the city was ticketed for destruction of private property Monday, the only incident of note on record at the police department during the last week.

A new city patrolman has been hired. He is Terry Parsons, formerly employed at Security Protective Systems in Lubbock. A graduate of San Bernardino, Calif., high school, he also served in the U.S. Army.

Texas temperatures vary across the state

COLLEGE STATION — Newcomers may find it hard to get used to Texas weather — especially this summer's sizzling 100-degree temperatures.

However, as natives know, the state's immense size and varied climates and geography can cause significantly different spring and summer weather even in the same month.

According to meteorologists at Texas A&M University, the Panhandle town of Stratford had a 29-degree reading on May 4, 1978. Two weeks later, Presidio recorded a 108 reading.

Also in 1978, Dimmit recorded 18 consecutive days of freezing temperatures in March, while Lajitas, west of the Big Bend National Park, had four consecutive days in the 90s.

Sanders-McCleskey Say Marriage Vows Aug. 21

Katrina Sue Sanders and Ray McCleskey will exchange wedding vows Thursday August 21, in an intimate wedding at the home of Mrs. Mack Blackman, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mack Blackman.

The couple are the daughter of Mrs. Harold O'Donnell and the son of Mrs. Carlos Doss of Tahoka.

Mrs. Doss played the organ for the nuptial selections. As the guests gathered, and acknowledged Mrs. Mack Blackman, she sang "The Prayer".

The bride and groom exchanged rings over a tree covered with flowers and a cherubs fountain in the background.

The bride wore a gown of ivory fashioned with a V-neckline and a full skirt. The set in yolk was of silk venise. The bodice had a butterfly sleeve. The skirt fell to the floor with a belt encircling the waist. She wore a rippled brim picture hat accented with variegated silk roses shading from ivory into peach and coral with streamers flowing from the back with a scattering of miniature blossoms of coral peonies, roses, carnations, gypsophila and freesias in tones of ivory, shading into corals, dusty rose and shell pinks with cream satin leaves and candlelight ribbon with coral freesias and love knots complimenting the shower of streamers.

In keeping with tradition, for something old the bride wore a gold bracelet belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. L.H. Clark; something new was her dress; something borrowed, the marriage vows repeated in the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brumit and something blue was the traditional blue garter and a sixpence in her shoe.

Debra Sanders attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a voile street length dress of ivory background with a floral pattern of mauve roses and lily of the valley. The princess cut dress featured a deep ruffle around the neck forming a deep V in the back. She carried a long stem silk rose complimented with ivory colored leaves, a shower of streamers echoing the floral colors in her dress. Her hair was caught with a spray of coral silk gypsophila.

Kurt McCleskey, brother of the groom, served as best man. The groom and best man wore pale blue suits with sonia boutonnières. The grooms boutonniere was a silk rose and gypsophila matching the bride's bouquet.

Mothers of the couple were seated by Kelly Sanders, brother of the bride and Kent McCleskey, brother of the groom.

Guests were registered by Rhonda Forbes at a table covered in a full length lace cloth with a single hurricane globe, pink taper and English ivy.

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored at a reception on the patio. The table was laid with ivory lace. A large hurricane globe with white candle was nestled in sprigs of English ivy with a pair of bone china doves, a keepsake gift given the couple by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brumit, special friends of the bride. The two-tiered cake was white with roses in shaded pinks. Sonia sherbert punch was served with crystal appointments.

Karen Williams and Patti Jackson, friends of the bride, and Carla McCleskey and Coy McCleskey, sister and sister-in-law of the groom assisted at the serving table. Other members of the house party were Mmes. Mack Forbes, Geraldine Vestal, Jerald Barton and Harold Brumit.

The bride is a graduate of O'Donnell High School and attended Angelo State University at San Angelo. The groom is a graduate of O'Donnell High School and is employed by McDermitt Implement in Seymour, where the couple will make their home. Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. Arlise Sanders of O'Donnell and Mrs. L.H. Clark of Lamesa. The groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C.O. McCleskey and Mr. and Mrs. Verner Melton are of Grassland.

Bike-A-Thon Here To Aid Research Unit

Volunteers will ride bicycles over a prescribed route in Tahoka Oct. 4 to raise funds for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the largest childhood cancer research center in the nation.

Chairman of the local 1980 Fall Bike-A-Thon campaign is Clifton Gardner, principal of North Elementary School. Gardner, noting that St. Jude is the first research center dedicated exclusively to the study and conquest of catastrophic diseases of children, noted some of the advances made in recent years.

"When St. Jude accepted its first patient in 1962 the survival rate for children with acute lymphocytic leukemia was less than 5 per cent. Today the disease-free survival figure for children in long-term remission has grown to 50 per cent. Cancer treatment developed at St. Jude is now being used to treat children all over the world."

He said the Bike-A-Thon is important because St. Jude, founded by Danny Thomas, gets more than 70 per cent of its $26 million budget from public support.

Persons interested in taking part in the Bike-A-Thon should contact Gardner. The participants will ask sponsors to pay a certain amount per mile ridden, with the funds to go to the research facility.

Extended drought: Is this really it?

COLLEGE STATION — Texas is in the early stages of an extended drought, says a water expert.

"Statewide droughts seem to follow a cycle of every 20 to 25 years. The last major drought in the state ended 23 years ago and the threat of inadequate rainfall looms with each passing day," said Dr. Jack Runkles, director of the Texas Water Resources Institute, at Texas A&M University.

"Another drought is not a matter of 'if' but a matter of 'when,'" he said.

The last major drought lasted from 1950 to 1957, leaving 235 of the state's 254 counties federal disaster areas.

POCKET SAVINGS With a heat pump

The heat pump saves energy and money. A lot of people are now saving more energy and money because they converted or replaced their energy wasting heating and air conditioning equipment with a heat pump.

The heat pump works efficiently both winter and summer to help hold down your energy use. And, since the energy source for a heat pump is electricity, you receive a special lower electric rate during the off-peak months from SPS.

Get a heat pump as soon as you can... you'll save money when you do.

Eagles Lack Depth

A shortage of experienced players on the O'Donnell Eagles football team in 1980, especially up front, is one of the reasons the Eagles do have a difficult time coming back on offense and defense they're looking for some improvement over last year's 3-5-2 record.

The Eagles will have plenty of work ahead of them. "Our kids mostly work hard and backfield experience is one of our plus factors," said Kilpatrick. "There's not much experience or depth on either the offensive or defensive line, but if some players come through for us in key situations, we should be able to do as well or better than last year."

When the Eagles host Wilson in the season opener Friday night, Coach Kilpatrick and assistants Ronald Bradshaw and Arnold Parker expect to have junior Eddie Hancock at quarterback. Hancock was not a starter last season, but the other three members of the backfield were. They are fullback Gilbert Morales (155, a junior), and halfbacks John Olivian and Stanley Forbes, both seniors. Kilpatrick will run his team out of a straight T formation. Other offensive starters include senior Mike Garza (170) at guard, tackle Tony Beruman (180, junior) and end Rudy Ramirez (150, junior). Newcomer Brad Noland is expected to bolster the team in the line. He's a junior who weighs 250.

Potatoes Italian Style:

While pasta is a mainstay of Italian cooking, the potato is also important, especially in the north, where the cooking is quite different from what is thought of as Italian cooking (heavy of the tomatoes, garlic, ravioli, etc.). So, surprise family and friends with some of these unusual potato dishes.

And there couldn't be a better time to experiment with potato dishes because, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's marketing officials, the potato is now in plentiful supply.

Potatoes with Nutmeg and Cream.

2 pounds boiling potatoes
 1/2 stick butter
 chopped parsley
 salt and pepper
 1 teaspoon nutmeg
 1/2 cup heavy cream
 Put potatoes in saucepan, barely cover with cold water and cook until tender; this should take 20 to 25 minutes. Melt butter in a heavy skillet, add potatoes, salt, pepper, and nutmeg. Cook over a low flame for 5 to 10 minutes, or until the potatoes begin to take on the color of nutmeg. Add the cream and shake the pan vigorously for a minute or two. Serve hot.

Potato Croquettes

8 boiling potatoes
 2 egg yolks
 1 small onion, grated juice of 1 lemon
 chopped parsley
 1/4 stick butter
 2 tablespoons heavy cream
 1/4 teaspoon each of cinnamon and nutmeg
 salt and pepper
 beaten eggs
 breadcrumbs

Put potatoes in a saucepan, barely cover with cold water and cook until tender; drain and put back in pot to dry out. Mash them, and add all other ingredients. Cook for a few minutes over low heat until mixture thickens somewhat. When cool enough to handle, roll into little sausages on a floured board. Roll in beaten eggs and then breadcrumbs and fry them in deep, hot fat until golden.

Young Farmer Week In Texas Sept. 21-27

September 21-27 has been officially designated as Young Farmer Week in Texas by proclamation of Governor W.P. Clements, Jr. The proclamation signed recently gives additional recognition to this rapidly growing farm group. The Young Farmer Association is sponsored under the auspices of vocational agriculture departments in high schools across Texas and the Texas Education Agency. Over 200 Young Farmer chapters have been organized on local school district or county-wide basis to carry out educational activities which will help the members keep abreast of the technological advancements in the field of agriculture and to develop greater skill and efficiency in management, production, and marketing. Governor Clements points out in the proclamation that, in addition to educational activities, Young Farmers incorporate in their planned chapter programs civic and community service projects and leadership activities that are designed to improve their communities, state, and nation, and to promote the welfare of all citizens. He further points out that through these efforts they are helping to strengthen the economy of our country and are promoting good citizenship.

In closing the proclamation, the Governor predicted that as the organization continues to grow, it will play an increasingly important role in the life of rural America. Bobby Bauch, a 36 year-old part-time farmer from the Mathis Chapter, is President of the State Association of Young Farmers which has a membership of over 4,000.

There are ten area associations of Young Farmers, each having a program which enriches and supplements local chapter activities. Over 3,000 Young Farmers and Young Farmer wives participated in the area awards banquets and field days held last year.

Also held annually is a state convention. A January date is selected for the meeting due to the seasonal farming activities being at their slowest. State awards valued at more than $6,000 are presented, and outstanding agricultural leaders speak to the delegates which usually number over 650. The 1981 meeting will be held in Waco on Jan. 22-24.

The State Association of Young Farmers is headed by Bobby Bauch of the Mathis chapter. Other State Officers are Roy Carlson of Hereford, David Smith of O'Donnell, Joseph J. Skrivaneck III of Caldwell, Barry Mahler of Iowa Park, Jackie Don Miller of McKinney, Wade Bartley of Sulphur Springs, Thomas O. Bowden of San Saba, Richard Cortese of Temple, and Charles Morvent of Mauriceville.

FROM THE ACEA'S DESK

Brent Drennan

A nationwide Gallup survey shows that people across the United States look favorably on 4-H, the youth program of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Purpose of the survey was to determine public awareness and attitudes toward 16 major youth organizations in the U.S., points out Brent Drennan county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

The survey showed that 77 percent of the respondents are aware of 4-H while 93 percent have favorable attitudes toward the youth organization.

Among the 16 organizations involved in the survey, 4-H came in fourth as far as awareness was concerned.

People who have been associated with 4-H as members, leaders or financial contributors are most likely to have favorable attitudes toward the youth organization, according to the survey.

The survey also shows that the more people know about 4-H, the better they like it. In addition to liking 4-H better, these people who know a great deal about the program have a more accurate image of what is taught in 4-H.

People who are aware of 4-H but have limited knowledge of its teachings see the main good as helping youth develop agricultural and homemaking skills. However, people with a great deal of knowledge about 4-H tend to view it as an organization that helps youth develop. They use terms such as "making better citizens" and "developing character," according to the survey.

Of those aware of 4-H, 19 percent of the survey respondents feel its activities are essential to the welfare of American youth and an additional 58 percent feel its activities are worthwhile. Many people still associate 4-H only with rural agriculture.

While 4-H did have a rural beginning and continues to serve rural youth, a significant part of the present-day 4-H program is for youth who reside in urban areas.

Annual Field Day Planned

Since 1909, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has been working in Lubbock and on the South Plains to help the farmer and rancher find better ways of producing his crops and livestock.

"And each year, we've had an annual field day to show the public what the scientists are doing, and why," said Stanley M. Young agricultural Extension agent for Lynn County. For many years the field days have alternated between the TAES research facilities at Lubbock and Halfway.

This year's field day will be at Halfway on Tuesday, Sept. 9, Young said. The facility is 14 miles west of Plainview on U.S. Hwy. 70.

The program will begin at 12:30 and continue until 5 p.m. Visitors will be conducted on motorized tours of the research plots and see demonstrations of work being done on crop varieties, irrigation, cultural practices and other research, as well as new equipment.

LANDSCAPE TO CONSERVE ENERGY

By placing trees, shrubs, vines, and landscape structures properly, homeowners can conserve energy.

With carefully planned landscaping, the home and surrounding areas will remain comfortable year-round.

Shading the house's roof with large trees can reduce inside temperatures by as much as 10 degrees. When trees drop their leaves in fall, sunlight can reach the roof and help warm the home.

Evergreen trees planted on the northern and western sides of the home can serve as windbreaks and thus reduce heating costs in winter.

Smaller trees and shrubs can shade walls and windows in summer. During sunlight can reach areas and warm them.

Provide shade in outdoor portion of system air conditioning help conserve energy by obstruct air flow or needed service.

Protect walls from cold by planting shrubs or certain trained to grow flat them. Such plants reduce noise and pollution.

Arbors and slatted overhead structures effective cooling when attached to windows. Careless amine, muscadine grape Wisteria are popular for arbors.

Also, groundcover between homes and areas reduce temperatures. The rate above ground is about 14 degrees than above concrete.

Good landscaping offer one of the practical methods reducing home energy consumption. A well-landscaped is one of the investments a homeowner can make.
