Homecoming Spotlight On Parade, Meetings

The homecoming parade, meetings of former students and the football game between Tahoka and Post will be highlights of the 1980 homecoming celebration here Friday.

Organizations were busy working on floats for the parade this week, and material for a bonfire Thursday night (tonight) was gathered during the week by students.

The class of 1960 will be the honor class this year, and some representatives of the class are expected to ride in the parade--in a 1960 model auto.

The parade is expected to reach the downtown area early in the afternoon. Activities get underway about 1 p.m. Friday in the high school hall, where National Honor Society members will serve cookies and punch. A program for former students will start at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium with Gerald Huffaker, a member of the 1960 class, as speaker.

Following this program, the parade with band, floats and whatever will form at the school and march downtown. A pep rally will wind up the parade, with the pep rally to be on the courthouse square.

NHS also will sponsor a dinner in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m. prior to the football game, which starts at 7:30 p.m.

All exes from all THS classes in the past are asked to meet at the Lyntegar Building downtown immediately after the game. From there they will go to their individual class parities at locations to be announced.

Many of the 46 members of the 1960 honor class are expected to be on hand.

Pioneer Farm Gear Sought By Museum

Help from citizens of the county is sought by Tahoka Pioneer Museum was pointed out at the monthly meeting of directors Monday night, presided over by Dr. K.R. Durham.

Pioneer farm implements are needed for a new phase of the museum being planned. People who know of old team-drawn or early day tractors and farm machinery should notify Winston Wharthon, Bill Craig, or Dr. Durham.

Three more manikins are being given the museum by Mrs. Fenner Tubbs of Lubbock. For use of them in the museum, little boys' and girls' early day clothing is needed. Anyone having such clothing they could give the museum should contact Mrs. Jess Gurley or Mrs. Kenneth Turner.

Pictures Given

Among recent new acquisitions received by the museum is a collection of pioneer Tahoka pictures of the late A.L. Thomas, given by the children of Mrs. Coye Collier, who died recently. Other items not publicized before include the County Court witness box and chair from the original Lynn County Court House by Judge Melvin Burks, and a horn and mirror hat rack used by Mrs. Fenner Tubbs.

Mrs. Hubert Tankersley and Mrs. Robert Abbe of Tahoka Garden Club met with the museum board Monday night, and told of plans for further improvement of the Pioneer Park that club is developing adjacent to the museum building. The museum continues to attract as visitors many people traveling through town, as well as local citizens.

School Board Meet Routine

Tahoka School Board voted to meet next Monday night to set the tax rate, decided to fence in the school agriculture farm, and discussed the possibility of offering more vocational classes.

Supt. Jim Coulston was authorized to purchase a mini-computer for use in Vocational Office Education classes, so students may learn how to operate such equipment.

The superintendent also was authorized to sell some furniture in North Elementary which has been replaced by new furniture.

Other mostly routine matters were discussed and the board adjourned after two and a half hours. All board members were present.

Dogs, Post To Open District Race Here

The Tahoka Bulldogs made it back from the long trip to Dalhart last week, winning that one 14-0, and this week will play host to the Post Antelopes in a homecoming game which will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Post last week beat Coahoma 21-8 to raise the Post record for the season to 3-2. Tahoka is 4-1, and this week opens district play for both teams.

Coach A.D. Shaver and crew warn that Post is a scrappy team not to be lightly regarded. Returning for the Antelopes are Quarterback Drew Kirkpatrick and running back Alonso Luna, who gave the Bulldogs trouble last season.

The Bulldogs found Dalhart a tougher nut than expected, and the home team gave Tahoka some trouble with several good pass completions and some other near-misses. Except for one 51-yard run by back Ron Haas, the Wolves were contained on the ground by the stout Tahoka defense.

Bulldog running back Tracy White scored both touchdowns, going 20 yards in the first period and 1 yard in the fourth. White rushed for 157 yards on 32 carries in the game. Also going over 100 was Fullback Danny Thompson, who had 103 in 16 carries. His longest was a 19 yard run in the first period, the same quarter in which White had his longest, a dash of 31 yards.

Penalties again hurt the Bulldogs, who drew 115 yards on 13 penalties.

Quarterback Mark Hudlin gained 25 yards on 6 carries and completed passes of 21 and 22 yards to End Johnny Alvarado and to White. Charles Bryson had 17 yards in two carries.

Guard Kevin Elmore kicked both extra points for Tahoka.

The Upward Bound Program is designed to help high school students from families meeting the program's low-income criteria, as established by the U.S. Commissioner of Education, to develop the skills and motivation necessary for success in college. Preference will be given to students who demonstrate academic potential and scholastic ability in their high school courses. The students must be able to participate in student sessions that are held every Saturday morning from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the Texas Tech campus. Students must also be able to participate in a six-week on-campus program next summer. The summer program provided students with an opportunity to become better acquainted with college life. Any junior student interested in becoming a member or wanting more information about the program should contact his/her high school counselor or the Upward Bound office which are located in Room 304 West Hall on the Texas Tech campus and are open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 742-3616. Ask for the program counselors, Sandra Woodard or Marlene Hernandez.

Letter To Editor

Letters to the editor do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper. All correspondence must be signed, and in good taste before it will be published, and the name of the writer must be published also. Letters to the editor may not be more than two double-spaced typewritten pages.

Americans have always had cause to be disappointed in Jimmy Carter's incompetent performance as President, but now he gives us cause to be disappointed in his character as well. He is running a mean and tasteless campaign, maligning the record of Gov. Reagan, in attempt to cover up his own inept record in regard to the Social Security system and other issues.

Sincerely,
Winston Wharton

Dying to color a fabric? Hot-water dyes produce the richest colors and have the best colorfastness, says Becky Saunders, a clothing specialist. On the other hand, cold-water dyes produce delicate colors, but they aren't as resistant to fading, she says. Mrs. Saunders is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Jimmy Carter's inept handling of the Social Security system is directly threatening the livelihood and future of millions of Americans. Jimmy Carter doesn't want us to know that he has shattered his promise to restore financial integrity to the Social Security system. He doesn't want us to know that the Social Security system now faces a long-term deficit of nearly $800 billion. Gov. Reagan not only opposes making Social Security voluntary, but he would work hard to defend it and strengthen it. What's than a year ago.

Rotary Program On Hand Weaving

An exhibit, description, and history of hand weaving was presented at the Rotary Club Thursday by Mrs. Eual (Janet) Davis of Wilson, who has gained fame over the Southwest for hand woven tapestries.

Mrs. Davis told some of the history and methods of weaving by hand of various fabrics dating back to the dark ages of history.

She exhibited some samples of her work, and also presented a slide picture program of others. She also illustrated some of the primitive methods of weaving.

She had a hand in weaving the huge tapestry that adorns the new Lubbock Civic Center. She has exhibited tapestries at the University of Texas, Texas Tech, at Snyder and El Paso art shows. Some of her tapestries are on display on the second floor of Tahoka Pioneer Museum.

Binie White was in charge of the program.

When an Individual Retirement Account has been set up to save for retirement, are the earnings taxable? No. Interest earnings in an IRA are not taxable... a definite plus as compared to other interest-earning instruments. However, there are certain rules and regulations. You may begin to receive benefits at age 59½. If you become disabled, the funds can be withdrawn. Funds are made available to beneficiaries at time of death. Juniors Win Powder Puff Bout

BY DANETTE PHILLIPS

Fast as a train, or even a jet, it is the senior team speeding down the field. Wait, is it a brick wall or a line as forceful as a military fleet? No, it's the mighty Juniors!

The Juniors inched by the Seniors 14-12 as the Tahoka Annual Staff held the fourth annual Powder Puff game Monday night, Oct. 6. The total profits made by the Annual Staff were $325.

The Seniors began the game by receiving the kick-off made by Junior #25, Lynia Payne. The Junior defense did not quite have it together, as they allowed the Seniors to get on the scoreboard first with a touchdown made by Cathy Meeks. The extra points, a run by Cathy Meeks, were not good. Lani Brown's five carries for about fifty yards helped the Seniors with this touchdown. The Juniors proved they never give up, as they took the ball down field and Lynia Payne ran the touchdown, making the score even. Lynia Payne then ran for the extra points, which were good. The Juniors pressed ahead 8-6.

As the Seniors lined up to receive the kick-off, they were on their way to score again. Seniors Lani Brown, Kim Alvarado, and Cathy Meeks ran a series of reverse plays to move the ball down field. Cathy Meeks went over the goal line for the second time. She attempted a run for the extra points, but they were not good. The score at halftime stood 12-8.

After half, the Juniors received the kick-off. After moving the ball down field, Danette Phillips scored the last touchdown on a quick pitch play. Lynia Payne again ran the attempt for extra points. The play was completed with the score now, 14-12.

The Seniors then tried for another score, but the clock ran out with the Seniors on the three yard line.

Two days after the game, Dustie Cook said, "I feel like I am dead!" Denise Dodson said, "I am glad there are no hard feelings between the Juniors and Seniors. I also feel that both teams were well united."

The half-time entertainment came from a band, with flags, consisting of David Clary, Ronald Webster, Les'lie Valentine, Joe Dell Patterson, Shelia Crawford, Tracy Draper, Kimberly McMillian, Mistie Cook, Kathie Cook, John Austin, Kelly Draper, Russel Roberts, Thomas Young, and Bill Foster.

Read-A-Thon Again To Help Fight MS

The annual Multiple Sclerosis Read-a-thon starts this week at Tahoka Elementary Schools. This educational and fund raising program was started by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in 1974 and now school children all over the world have become "Mystery Sleuths" who "read for the need of others." These students, as Mystery Sleuths have read more than 31 million books in MS Read-a-thons. They have improved their reading skills and at the same time have been helping to solve the mystery of MS, the crippler of young adults.

For about four weeks the participants read as many books as they can and ask parents, relatives and friends to sponsor them. When the reading period is over, the students collect from their sponsors for each book-read and bring their completed Read-a-thon kits and money back to school. This money is used for patient services, such as wheelchairs, crutches, leg braces, patient programs and the free MS Clinic at Methodist Hospital, in the 23-county area the in the 23-county area the South Plains Texas Chapter serves. Sales Tax Rebate

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said October payments to cities levying the optional one-percent city sales tax brings the 1980 total rebates to more than $446.8 million.

He said payments of $28.2 million were made to cities for the month of October. Bullock said the October payments bring rebates to Texas cities this year within $20.2 million of total moneys returned to cities during all of 1979, and with two months remaining in the year, 1980 payments should go well over last year's.

The one-percent city sales tax is collected along with the state's four-percent tax by merchants and businesses and returned monthly in the cities where it is collected by the Comptroller's office.

Tahoka's net payment this period is $2,056,677. 1980 payments to date are $42,185.29.

Wilson's payment this year to date $2,868.73. O'Donnell payments to date-$11,931.38.

Trying your hand at ground-oat bread?

Ground-oat flour is lower in gluten than wheat flour, and it produces a crumbly, low-rise loaf of bread, explains Rose Tindall Postel, a foods and nutrition specialist.

For the best results in making ground-oat bread, use one-third oat flour and two-thirds all-purpose flour, she says.

Tamera Houchin, daughter of Gary and Mary Houchin, was crowned 1980 Homecoming Queen on Oct. 9 at the Mustang Homecoming Pep Rally held before the bonfire. She was presented a bouquet of red roses. Rick Schwertner, was given a plaque for 1980 Homecoming Beau. They are both seniors at Wilson High School and are active in many school activities.

The 1980 Queen, Tamera Houchin, and her court, Tonya Houchin and Paige Bishop, were presented in Friday's pre-game Homecoming festivities. Tamera, Paige, and Tonya were escorted by their fathers. Bray Chevrolet of Tahoka furnished three new cars for the girls to ride on. Other Homecoming Beau Candidates were Tim Bednarz and Randy Hall.

The graduating class of 1960 was honored at half-time and at a reception for exes and their families held immediately following the game in the Wilson City Hall. Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served. New officers for the Ex-students Association were elected. They are Jackie Bishop, pres.; James Wuensche, vice-pres.; and Margaret Crispin, sec-treas.

Winner of this year's Homecoming Parade Float was the eighth grade. The students, sponsored by Vicky Vandiver, designed a float entitled, "Barbeque the Broncos". Their class will be the first class to have their name on a plaque in the school trophy case. The plaque was the idea of the Athletic Booster Club who wanted recognition for float winners. Booster Floyd Heck donated his time, money and talents making the plaque for Wilson students... a big community thank-you, Floyd.

Thanks to Delmar Wilke for taking pictures at the homecoming game.

Friday, Oct. 10, Tamera and Tonya Houchin gave an "after the game" party in their dad's barn. Refreshments of sandwiches, chips, cookies, and cokes were enjoyed by high school students.

This week's varsity football game will be played at New Home at 7:30. Ronnie Nettles is scheduled to run the chains.

Wilson Mustang Athletic Boosters worked Tuesday night, Oct. 7, at the Gary Houchins making a float for the Homecoming Parade. Approximately twenty boosters fashioned a "Glue Factory" from cardboard boxes. Athletic Boosters meet each Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria for a short business meeting and to watch video of the ballgames.

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE economist suggests an economical, low-calorie meal which can be found in your grocery's food section. Roasted Turkey Roll, a combination of white and dark meats in gravy, offers a tasty to-prepare family meal for four.

ROASTED TURKEY ROLL

The Roasted Turkey Roll is a wonderful way to enjoy anytime of the year. This roll includes white and dark meat in a rich, creamy gravy. The roll can be found in the food section of any supermarket and comes complete with instructions. After a short defrosting period, the roll is your oven at 400 degrees F. for approximately 45 minutes.

It makes an excellent meal for four at dinner or refrigerated and made into sandwiches.

Texas Department of Agriculture's home economist says that turkey meat is also a low-calorie source of protein. USDA figures, roasted turkey dark meat contains 30 percent protein, 8.3 percent fat and 203 calories per 100 grams (1/4 lb.) serving. Roasted light meat contains 32.9 percent protein, 3.9 percent fat and only 176 calories per 100 grams.

In addition, turkey meat is no longer just holiday fare. Modern innovations in marketing and merchandising have made turkey and turkey products available to consumers every day of the year.

Dust Case To Provide Answers: The Supreme Court's agreement to review a lower court decision on the cotton dust standard will provide answers to questions of vital concern to the entire nation. National Cotton Council President Herman Propst says. Propst, an Anson, Texas, cotton producer, said the key questions include:

1. Is the Occupational Safety and Health Administration correct in finding that standard is economically feasible?
2. Is the agency obligated to show that benefits of its standard bear a reasonable relationship to its costs?

Propst said these were among the issues raised by the Council in petitioning the high court to review an October, 1979, federal appeals court decision upholding the standard.

"The cotton industry believes OSHA must prove there is a reasonable relationship between the cost of its standard and the benefits it is expected to give," Propst explained.

Cotton Customers To Tour:

Customers representing 10 major Far East markets for U.S. cotton will tour Cotton Belt Oct. 12-25. The visit is sponsored by Cotton Council International, National Cotton Council, and USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service to increase U.S. cotton's share of overseas markets. During the tour, the textile executives will view farming, processing, and merchandising operations in Corcoran, Fresno, and Bakersfield, Calif.; Phoenix, Ariz.; Lubbock and Dallas, Texas; Greenville, Miss.; Memphis Tenn.; and Raleigh, N.C.

Overseas Seminars Set: Seminars on spinning quality control will be conducted on behalf of U.S. cotton in three Far East markets during the next three weeks. The seminars, a joint Cotton Council International and Cotton Incorporated project, will be held in the Philippines, Indonesia, and Thailand. CI technical service representatives, Glen P. Morton and Frank Ryne, will conduct seminars. Both will be briefed upon arrival overseas by CCI's Far East Director, John Maguire.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Recommendations of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. for decisions soon to be made by USDA on the 1981 cotton program will call for the highest loan and target prices permitted by current law, followed by a strong protest that such price supports still will be woefully inadequate.

This was one of the decisions made by the organization's Board of Directors at its quarterly meeting in Lubbock October 8.

The Board also voted to "urge that the staff, funds and credit lines of the Small Business Administration and Farmers Home Administration be expanded to a level adequate to handle the greatly increased need for such loans following thousands of crop disasters in recent years."

Other points the PCG Board wants to make in response to USDA's call for 1981 cotton program comment include:

- No acreage set-aside requirements.
- A seed cotton loan program for those who store cotton in ricks or modules.
- Producer freedom to plant whatever acreage and whatever crops desired without normal crop acreage (NCA) restrictions or loss of program benefits.
- No cross-compliance requirements between farms or between crops.

The Board also heard a report from its Cotton Reserve Program Study Committee and discussed, but decided to delay action on, that committee's recommendation "That PCG oppose a cotton reserve program, in which case it might not be wise for PCG to have a firm position on the matter without first knowing details of the proposal and the role it might play in overall cotton program provisions."

Mike Stevens, cotton specialist with Merrill Lynch Commodities in Lubbock, was guest speaker at the meeting. Stevens gave details of a new cotton futures contract designed by the New Orleans Exchange to serve short-staple cotton operations. He said he expected the contract to be available for trading by year end.

As proposed to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the contract's "par" qualities would be one-inch staple, Strict Low Middling grade and 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire. However, Stevens explained, with appropriate premiums and discounts applied, cotton stapling 31/32 and 1-1/32 inches, cotton grading Strict Low Middling Light Spot and cotton with micronaire as low as 3.0 would also be deliverable on the contract.

On the number two contract, traded on the New York Futures Exchange, minimum deliverable qualities are 1-1/32 inch staple, Middling Light Spot grade and 3.5 micronaire.

Stevens expressed the hope that the new "Texas" contract would be a useful tool for High Plains merchants and producers using "on call" forward contracts and/or hedging sales or purchases directly in the futures market.

Additional details on the proposed contract can be obtained from PCG offices in Lubbock.

Cotton Harvest Expands Slowly

Harvesting of mostly dry-land cotton expanded slowly across the Texas High Plains, despite early week rains in northern counties. Several gins in eastern counties reported backlogs this week, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director at USDA's Marketing Services Office in Lubbock.

The Lubbock office graded 3200 samples during the week ended Oct. 9. This brought the season's total to 5200, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Predominant grades during the week were grade 42 at 46 percent, grade 52 accounted for 24 percent and grade 43 made up 10 percent. About five percent of the samples were reduced one grade because of bark, down from 16 percent the week before.

Staple statistics showed staple 30 was predominant at 36 percent. Stapel 29 was 23 percent and staple 31 accounted for 20 percent. Average staple was 30.2, down from 30.7 a week earlier.

Micronaire readings in the base range of 35-49 accounted for 88 percent. Four percent miked in the 50-52 range while 53 and above amounted to two percent. The week's average miked was 43, down from 45 one week earlier. Average breaking strength was 92,000 pounds per square inch.

Growers sold small mixed lots of early ginned cotton, mostly grades 32, 42 and 52; staple 30 and 31; mikes 35-49 at around 73.50 cents per pound.

Gins paid growers $100 to $120 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $110 to $115.

Small Cotton Crop Brings High Prices

AUSTIN--Some Texas farmers will be in "high cotton" this year, at least those with harvestable acreage of good quality. Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

Spot market prices for certain grades of Upland cotton have hit 92.29 cents a pound this month "the highest price anyone in the industry can remember," Brown said. Economists are predicting the futures market will soon be at $1.00 with further increases ahead.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service's September estimate for cotton production was for a harvest of 3.6 million bales. "That could mean a potential value of nearly $1 billion for cotton this year," Brown said. "Some of our cotton was forward contracted this year at specific rates below levels, but many farmers be in the position of these better prices," said.

Drought reduced the crop significantly from million bales last summer. Prices started rising in summer.

Cottonseed prices have risen at the same rate for lint. Seed processing is in competition with other vegetable oils. Currently prices are lower than the average in 1979 of $117 per ton.

Texas is the leading producer in the U.S. of cotton accounts for 30 percent production in the world.

"While it is generally rising prices for cotton have to realize that the too high, the risk substitute synthetic," said.

Heat Wave Increases Feedlot Numbers by

AUSTIN--Cattle producers around the state continued culling herds and bringing cattle to feedlots as the punishing heat wave did not let up in August. Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said.

In the August 1 inventory by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, cattle on feed totaled 1.7 million head, an 8 percent increase over 1979.

Placements stood at 470,000 head, a 38 percent increase over last year which is indicative of the fact that the dry pastures remained barren as no rains came in August, Brown explained.

"Although recent rains have come too late to provide relief for producers already culling their herds, the rains will greatly improve some pastures around the state," Brown said.

Brown also pointed out that consumers will welcome the supplies of choice beef result of more cattle on feed.

Pasture conditions assessed at 37 percent normal as of September 1. Last year conditions rated as 85 percent normal.

Texas ranks first in nation in 1980 in stock numbers with 21 million head. Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown reported.

Texas ranks first in nation in 1980 in melons with 48,000 harvested. Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

Pecan Crop Production Down 72%

AUSTIN--It's either feast or famine.

After last year's record 91-million-pound pecan crop, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service estimates that the 1980 crop will drop to around 25 million pounds.

Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown reports that the drought influenced production estimates, but a decline is not unusual. "Pecan production is cyclical," he said. "A heavy harvest is usually followed by a light one. It takes two or three years for the trees to bear another big crop."

In the past 10 years Texas pecan production has dipped twice to 20 million pounds and risen to 68 and 75 million. Though large harvests can be anticipated, it may be years before conditions match those which produced last year's bounty.

When deciding how to fertilize for maximum profit, Young recommends making sure the additional nutrients are needed, and that the rate, time and method of application will contribute to increased production.

Get Your Office Supplies At Lynn County News

A Visit With Your County Agent

By Stanley Young

As farmers continue to struggle with rising costs and decreasing profits, they must develop more precise and efficient fertilization practices. Fertilizing methods and rates can be varied from field to field, or even acre to acre, to increase profitability.

When deciding how to fertilize for maximum profit, Young suggests the following ideas:

1. Collect and record soil samples from fields at two-to four year intervals, or collect from certain fields each year on a rotating basis. Charting levels of available soil nutrients is a major factor in determining a profitable approach to fertilizing.
2. Code each field on a farm map and use this map each time samples are taken. Keep records on each field, noting changes in soil nutrient levels resulting from previous crops and fertilization. Adjust fertilizer rates where needed to meet crop requirements.
3. Develop a long-range fertilization program for each field according to nutrient levels and crop requirements. Plan to apply fertilizer at the optimum time for greatest benefit.
4. Observe growth patterns of crops in each field. Look for any difference in size, color or yield from one area of the field or farm to another. Record these variations on your farm map and note any large, low-producing areas. Use soil and plant tests to determine reasons for any low productivity and fertilize accordingly.

Separate and special treatment of low-producing areas may be more economical than treating whole fields at rates sufficient to correct spot deficiencies. With the high cost of production
