— THE —

Union Stock Yards,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

The Largest and Best Live Stock Market in the World

The entire system of the Railways of the West centers here, making the Union Stock Yards the most accessible point in the country. The capacity of the yards, the facilities for unloading, feeding, reshipping, or for the sale of stock are unlimited. There is no point in the United States where stock will find as satisfactory market and sale to the shipper as the Union Stock Yards.

The quality of feed and accommodations given cannot be surpassed at any point in the country. The great city of packing houses that are located here, the large bank capital and the large number of buyers for the Eastern market constantly on hand, make this a quick, active and independent market. Cattle from the North, West and Southwest should reach this market without fail, in order to procure the best prices. There is now established a direct Cattle, Hog, Sheep and Horse trade between these yards and the most important markets in Europe. Agents constantly here from London, Paris, Hamburg, Liverpool and Manchester. The daily shipments from these yards to Europe are from one to two steamerloads. THIS IS STRICTLY A CASH MARKET.

ROUND-UPS.

Nolan County Record:—Thos. Trammell, J. Q. Hanna and F. H. Lindsey bought 200 head of cattle from G. R. West and J. H. Bunton last week and shipped them to Chicago. They were dry cows and bulls and the price paid was $10 per head.

Chicago Drovers' Journal:—An experienced hog man says the current prices for hogs are pretty good, but says there is no question about a great scarcity of old hogs, and feeders can have as high or higher prices if they do not lose their heads.

Stock Grower, N. M.:—B. Gilpin, who represents one of the biggest cattle ranches and syndicates of Colorado, arrived in New York this week by the steamer Finance. Mr. Gilpin has been in Brazil to study the system of cattle raising in that country.

Have you read the advertisement of B. F. Johnson & Co. of Richmond, Va.;

1000 steers in the Indian Territory for one year at $2 per head.

N. M. Stock Grower:—The Interstate Land company, the claimants of the so-called Beale grant, including parts of Colorado, New Mexico and Texas, held a meeting in Trinidad on Wednesday. There were present Charles Goodnight of Clarendon, Texas, Dr. M. Beshoar of Trinidad; F. E. Nettleton, Kansas City; Mr. Evans, Lexington, Maryland; J. F. Hadley, Kansas City, W. L. Carney of Leavenworth, and others. This Beale grant is understood to be a mythical claim, never confirmed by congress, and vastly extravagant in its pretensions.

Stock Grower, N. M.:—General Live Stock Agent Llewellyn of the Santa Fe road, reports that he has already applications for nearly 500 cars for the shipment of steers to Eastern markets this fall from the Las Vegas station. The cattlemen who will load steers from this point are: Raynolds Bros., 1000 head; Littlefield Cattle company, such exhibitions be kept up to a high standard and made a success.

Stock Grower, N. M.:—Hurst, Black, Kiehne & Wiley of Socorro county, have been heavy buyers of range steers the past two years, most of which they have taken to their feeding farm in Kansas where, after maturing them on corn, they have gone to the markets of slaughter paying them a handsome profit. On the 15th this firm will ship from Magdalena to Kansas there to be matured 2000 head. Their purchases this season include the following lots: W S ranch, 600; Anchor X, 500; H A M, 300; C—N, 400; Mosely & Co., 100; Jose M. Gallegos, 200; Trocke & Maunsell, 300; Vermont & Rio Grande Cattle Co., 250; Black Range Land & Cattle Co., 800; Wes. Bruton, 100; Smith & Holbrow, 100 and various small lots amounting to 300, or a total of 3850 head. This number is in addition to 1000 head from their own ranch. None of these steers will the Big Four get action on at present.

CARACTACUS 12,249.—Property of G. W. Henry, Ashkum, Ill.

in another column? If not, please do so at once. You may not be specially interested in what they have to say, but if you will call some of your friends' attention who need employment to their advertisement you may confer a life-long favor on them.

Stock Grower, N. M.:—The cattlemen shipping from Las Vegas, it is reported, have secured a rate of $72.50 per car to Kansas City and the 34-foot car at that, in which to load their steers. This is equivalent to $12.25 reduction from the old rate, and shows that the Santa Fe folks are always ready to meet the cattlemen half way when close figuring is necessary.

Stock Grower, N. M.:—The latest quotations for beef steers, to go to the California market from Southern Arizona, is 24c delivered at the railway. The Calkins Cattle company, of Lincoln county, will shortly start on the trail to Amarilla, Texas, 1200 head of steers, to go thence by rail to the Kansas City stock yards. J. G. Gaynor of the Fon du Lac Cattle company, has returned from Caldwell, Kansas, where he made arrangements for pasturing 1000; the C A company, 1500; Long Bros., 400; Montezuma Cattle company, 800; W. H. McBroom, 400; Jim Newman of Sweetwater, Texas, 2000; and the Cedar Canon pool, a number of car-loads.

Little do we think, says the Spartan, of Spartanburg, S. C., when we hear the hens cackling and see the children hunting for eggs, that poultry is to-day one of the most gigantic industries in the world, of much greater value even in our United States than a seven million bale crop of cotton. Just think of it. The amount paid last year by the United States for eggs from foreign countries would buy our entire county, real and personal property, at its assessed value. The poultry department, when well represented at all fairs and expositions, is one of the most attractive features that can be produced. Now come forward Spartans, and lend your assistance, and let us have a poultry exhibit that will interest our friends and astonish ourselves. If you have a nice pair, or trio, of chickens, ducks, geese or turkeys—no matter what kind or variety—exhibit them. In this way only can Hurst, Black, Kiehne & Wiley have been successful in handling steers through the Kansas feeding pens, and have demonstrated the fact that maturing range steers is an important corollary in working out the problem of the best management for the open range business.

THE CLIP.

C. B. Walker of Millsap, Parker county, was in town. He has a very choice lot of Angoras for sale.

The Albany wool sales amounted to 100,000 pounds. Not very many flocks were shorn this fall in that vicinity.

Mr. R. L. Crowdus of Fort Worth has returned from a wool buying expedition and says that wools are not in sufficient supply at any of the minor markets to be of importance.

San Angelo Standard:—Bird & Mertz bought 1000 head of muttons from Maddox Bros. & Anderson, Concho county, which they will ship from Ballinger next week.

U. S. Economist, New York:—We shipped forty sheep from this port the past week to the British West Indies, valued at $279, also 100 sheep to British Guiana, valued at $850.

San Angelo Standard:—Every pound of wool sells in San Angelo as soon as it hits a warehouse floor. The Sanderson clip of 30,000 pounds was sold on Monday by Halpin & Kueff at 14c.

Captain E. F. Ikard has returned from a trip to Southern Texas and says that the raising of Angora goats is considered quite a profitable business, that the graded goats are sold for mutton and the pelts are tanned for robes.

N. W. Live Stock Journal:—An Idaho sheep drover, while in the vicinity of Ione lake, about 30 miles north of Laramie City, with a drove of 7000 sheep last week, encountered a storm which scattered his flock in all directions. About 400 head were lost.

The firms in St. Louis who are now soliciting wool consignments from Texas growers and dealers, by medium of the JOURNAL, are W. J. Haynes & Co., W. B. Westcott & Co. and E. S. Brooks & Co. These firms are all in good standing and with other good firms have helped to give St. Louis a very good reputation amongst those who sell wool.

Denver Field and Farm:—Mr. Fred Buchanan of the Kiowa came into the Denver market one day the past week with 200 last spring lambs. He sold them to Mr. Yoxall at $1.60 a head. The lambs were grade Merinos. Mr. Buchanan has not sold his this year's clip of wool as yet, but has shipped to New York. He obtained 14c last year and expects to do as well as that this year. The gentlemen sheared between six and seven thousand head.

Boston Commercial Bulletin:—If the clips are well cleaned up, as appears from reports the outlook for an advance is very promising, as the stocks here are well held and the stock of foreign wool in London is moderate and the market is strong, the closing prices at the sales on the 15th being 4d higher on good merinoes. The greatest advance at these sales was 1d, and the advance may be stated at between 4d and 1d. Of the total amount offered, about 13,000 bales were withdrawn. Purchases for the United States were less than 1000 bales. The next sales will be Nov. 27. A sale of low wool will take place Oct. 16.

The Philadelphia Record of Oct. 11th says: The week's business in domestic wools foots up a total of about 800,000 lbs, against 1,000,000 lbs last week. The movement has been chiefly in small lines to tide over the current wants of manufacturers. Prices show no notable change, but in all cases are stiffly maintained, as stocks are small, and it is impossible to duplicate supplies from any section to sell below rulling quotations. In fact, the figures obtainable for many descriptions are 1 to 2 cents per lb below a parity with prices recently paid in some parts of the West. Manufacturers are unwilling to anticipate requirements to any extent, but for near wants are buying moderately.

New York wool sales reported by the U. S. Economist: 70,000 lbs, low spring Texas at 15c; 15,000 lbs year's growth do at 22c; 50,000 lbs short spring do at 14c; 95,000 lbs various sorts of pulled wools varying in price from 13c to 37c, as to quality; 20,000 lbs extra pulled do on private terms; 15,000 lbs washed combing fleece in three lots; 4000 lbs fine washed fleece; 1000 lbs do do do; 11,000 lbs spring Texas; 8000 lbs fall do; 1000 lbs black do; 2000 lbs low Texas sorts, all on terms reserved; 4000 lbs ring waste at 55c; 60,000 lbs spring Texas at 19c; 10,000 lbs scoured Texas, 8,000 lbs fine and fine medium Colorado on private terms; 10,000 lbs scoured Texas at 45c; 5000 lbs fine Texas scoured at 47c; 48c; 15,000 lbs of scoured California and Texas at 50c; 8000 lbs scoured Texas at 45c; 14,000 lbs medium fine scoured wools at 45c.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., county attorney, Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure, dengue and all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1, at H. W. Williams & Co's.

The Largest Poultry Farm in the World.

I see in the Poultry Keeper that Dr. B. Burr has the largest poultry farm in the world, or contemplates having. He then expects to winter 20,000 hens, 500 ducks, 500 turkeys, 50 geese, or 21,050 head all told. Big farm, but just about 80 percent smaller than De Sora of France. (See agriculture report, 3d session, 27th congress, page 349, years 1862 and 1863.) The most economical and advantageous mode of producing poultry and eggs for market has long been a mooted question, but favorable results depend principally upon the facilities at hand for multiplying fowls most readily in quantities, that is and can be raised to profit in large numbers, is no longer problematical, the opinion of many modern writers upon this subject to the contrary notwithstanding. For instance, M. Desora of France, who is the most extensive breeder of poultry in the known world, has been eminently successful in this business. His market for chickens and eggs is Paris, where tens of thousands of his poultry are annually disposed of for consumption in that city, but M. DeSora has no use for setting hens. He raises all his chick by artificial incubation; that is by steam heat. His establishment is immense, and a large amount of capital is at present employed in the prosecution of his vocation, yet he began with a few hundred dollars only a few years ago, and has progressed until he now employs over a hundred hands constantly in the different departments of his colossal poultry house. M. DeSora's product of eggs during last year averaged almost 50,000 dozens weekly, which, with the sales made of his early chickens, yielded him $280,000 gross. In round numbers his expenses, all told, were some $145,000, leaving him a profit of $135,000 for the year, or 675,000 francs. He feeds his stock upon animal flesh, chopped up, varying the fare with vegetables and grains cooked. During the three months, in the fall of the year, he sends to the Paris market over one thousand dozens of fattened capons, from September to the end of November. His process of artificial incubation is being carried on continually, but the bulk of his chickens are producing during the late winter months. His net profits are now estimated at almost 50 per cent. upon his gross annual receipts of nearly $300,-

000. To our vision these immense figures appear very formidable, but M. DeSora's poultry establishment is an enormous concern. During the year 1858 he wintered 100,000 birds, and in 1860 over 112,000, of the ordinary varieties, discarding, as he does, the Chinese breeds in their purity altogether. His plan of producing chickens is almost identical with that of the Egyptians, who it is known, raise enormous quantities of fowls by artificial heat for market with constant success.

SAN ANTONIO.

THE paper that has no kickers against it, don't amount to much anyway.

If the average reasonable ranchman had the weather at his especial order, it could not have been different than it has been this fall so far.

THE young steer trade is becoming more active in the Southwest, but so far the buyers are altogether from our own state, placing the stock in empty pastures for the winter. This is a strong indication that they expect a rise next spring.

IT DON'T take a Texas ranchman long to discover the difference between fulsome compliments of the "sheeps clodings" order in a sho-fly commission advertising sheet and reliable news in a legitimate live stock paper. One contains the chaff and the other the kernel.

THE ranch in dustry of Texas have a vital interest in a deep water port on the Texas coast. With such a port successful competition with the Chicago Big Four is possible, without it no such establishment can hope to succeed against them. Therefore it is absolutely necessary to first get the seaport for an outlet, and then put up the beef factories.

PRICES based on actual transactions may be quoted at $6, $9 and $12 for one, two and three-year-old steers. These prices are subject to variation on conditions of delivery and class of stock, but will cover the general run of Southwestern cattle. The tendency is for an advance, and it is safe to say that there are little prospects of a decline for at least a term of years to come.

THE horse and mule shipments on the I. & G. N. railroad for the month of September, 1888, were 2992 loaded here and 575 from the S. A. & A. P. railway, total 3567 head, as against 4879 loaded here and 306 from the S. A. & A. P., total 5185 for September, 1887. This is a decrease 1618 head, which was probably caused mainly by the yellow fever scare in the Eastern cotton states.

THE demand for young steer stock is growing stronger every day, but it is generally to even up the pastures. Those who have more grass than their stock can eat by spring want to utilize it by putting on young stock on which they expect to make at least a fair profit. Some are buying with a view of holding over till next spring and then dispose of the thin two-year-olds to either buyers from the Northwest or shipping to that section for speculation.

BECAUSE grass and water are now plenty it is no good reason why you should not dig wells and put up fodder and hay. In time of plenty prepare for a famine. Past experience has taught how much well water is necessary in seasons of drouth, and now is the time to provide it. Also how much feed can be profitably fed, which will keep in this country for almost an indefinite period. The ranchman who follows the above line of duty will never be in the hands of the "grasping money lender."

San Antonio Horse Market.

The horse market of this city is now in a transitory state between the fall and winter season, which the yellow fever quarantine has only contributed to make it more uninteresting. Buyers from the abroad are aware that owing to the news of the quarantine being pretty well known along the frontier states of Mexico, very little stock from that section is now coming in, and as they are also not coming as the trade does not warrant the prices asked here by speculators. There is little stock here in first hands, but pasture men and local speculators hold several thousand head in pastures in the vicinity. Prices are a little firmer than last week, but trade is slow. Retail trade was fair, and the mule trade is just beginning to show signs of revival for winter business. Shipments were 559 head as against 856 for the week previous.

San Antonio Wool Market.

It may truly be said that the fall wool market has been somewhat excited. From its opening as soon as any number of clips were offered to the present time there has been a steady advance till it has gone up fully three cents per pound. All the wool put on the market has been sold till really no completed clips are left, and buyers are actually anxiously awaiting the coming of more. The top price was reached on Tuesday by the Kearney & Richardson clip of Dimmit county sold by Ed Kotula to Mr. Bradbury of Lyme, Mass. for 18½c. Owing to the very fine condition of this wool, many claim that it was cheaper at that figure than others were at 15c. The same buyer also took the J. A. Carr clip of Webb county, 210 sacks, at 17½c. So far about 4000 sacks have been sold, and as it continues to come and go it is yet impossible to give an intelligent idea as to the aggregate to which the fall business will reach, neither can anyone foretell what figure can be reached. Buyers all claim that prices paid here now are higher than the wool would bring the same day in the Eastern markets. Sanguine sellers predict that fall wool will yet be sold for 20c before the end of the season, but it is difficult to imagine on what they base their calculation. One thing is certain, that the satisfactory condition of the fall market here has been an agreeable surprise to the majority of wool growers.

HORNS AND HOOF.

Uvalde county stockmen are now on the round-up.

Dr. G. B. Johnston will have some fine Hereford stock at the fair.

J. S. McCampbell of Live Oak county is here with some horse stock.

D. W. Rogers of Atascosa, a breeder of fine horse stock, was here last week.

H. C. Hall of the Indian Territory is here looking for some young steer cattle.

Ernest Rogers of Starr county sold 87 head of horse stock in this market last week.

G. W. Fulton Jr. of Aransas county was in town a few days the early part of the week.

W. M. Dowdy and F. J. Price of Nebraska went down to the lower country on the look out for mules.

P. J. and J. W. Sansom, the live rancheros and stock shippers of Uvalde county, were in town last week.

Capt. G. W. Littlefield, the well-known ranchman of Austin, was down on a visit to the ranch center this week.

Jessie H. Pressnal is back from his visit from Collins, Nueces county, where he reports the country in fine pasturing condition.

J. M. Pettus of Goliad, was in town last week and took in the circus while transacting a little business just to to make both ends meet.

John J. Young, says that pasture building on his ranch in Hidalgo county continues, and now there are about 100,000 acres under fence.

S. N. Dobie of Dobie Brothers, Live Oak county, was in the city last week. This is one of the most enterprising horse shipping firms in this section, as well as extensive rancheros.

S. B. Burnett of Fort Worth was in the city the latter part of the week looking after the interests of the stock recently purchased below and which was reported in the STOCK JOURNAL at the time.

E. Morris of Corpus Christi and Ed Corkhill of Realitos, Duvall county, have been buying several thousand head of young cattle and stocking the Fred Frank ranch in Duvall county. Prices not mentioned.

Captain A. Jones of Beeville was in town. The captain was the prime mover in the extension of the railroad from Victoria to Beeville, and now has the satisfaction of seeing the graders actually at work.

Ben Darlington, "our Ben, what was once of Taylor," is going to exhibit some fine Herefords at the fair. If Ben consents to take them in charge they must be "darlings" for he never has anything to do with scrubs.

J. L. Harris (Long Jim) left Sunday for Refugio county on a buying expedition, and will call on the O'Conner Brothers and others. Something is liable to drop when this rustler comes around, as he is a live and enterprising stock shipper.

Col. F. P. Hord, one of best known hotel men and stock dealers in Southwest Texas, has just returned from Wisconsin to make this his permanent home, after a summer's experience in that country. His opinion of Texas is even better than when he left.

It is reported that the Dull Brothers of La Salle county have bought 1000 head of two-year-old steers of the Coleman-Fulton Pasture company, San Patricio county, for $10 per head. They are said to be a lot of good and improved cattle, well worth the money.

Ed Robertson, one of the most enterprising young fine stock raisers of Williamson county, was in town the first of the week. He says very few, if any of the numerous fine stock breeders in his county expect to have exhibits at the San Antonio fair. Quien saba porque.

W. C. Irwin of La Salle county gave us a call the early part of the week. He has a couple of car-loads of calves en route to the Northern markets. From a recent shipment he realized over six dollars per head, which beats raising them to yearlings and selling them for the same price.

W. T. Moore of Llano county and of the firm of Moore, Foster & Co., was here after some yearlings and left for the lower country, where he will be hard to suit if he returns without having got what he needs. He left his appreciation for the live stock market paper of Texas, for which it is hoped he may never be sorry.

Judge E. U. Cook of Iowa, the poet laureate ranchero, came on Tuesday from the North and left immediately for Galveston on business, before visiting the ranch in Frio county. He is connected with the Keystone Lard & Cattle company, and the Hereford company of Frio county.

H. B. Clarke & Co., 79 Union street, Memphis, Tenn., are prepared to feed horse stock in any numbers at reasonable prices. All stock transferred free of charge. They solicit the patronage of all who ship by way of Memphis. Call on Ben Darlington, Southern hotel San Antonio, for information.

Uvalde News:—Simpson & Mangum are having 130 head of horses shipped out from Lavaca county, and among them will be two fine stallions and a jack. This firm sees money in the breeding of horses and mules and are going to engage in the business. Mules are always in demand, and the same is true of good horses.

Fort Davis News:—A herd of about 400 stock cattle passed through town yesterday, belonging to Mr. A. Durant, and were driven from Taylor county, to be placed on his ranch eight miles below Marfa. Judging from the condition of the bulk of the herd of cattle the grass or water must have played out in that country.

A case of wonderful atmospheric evaporation was recently brought to light in Frio county. In about a month some 2400 head of cattle in a pasture evaporated to about 1000 head. This has always been known to be a most remarkably dry climate but such results are rare. The courts will probably be appealed to for an explanation of the scientific principles in the effect of such climatic influences.

The Bandera county school lands located in Maverick county on which unsatisfactory bids were rejected by the commissioners of the former county some time since, have been purchased by Messrs. J. T. Lytle & Co., the former lessees. The price paid for the lands—of which there are some 17,000 acres—was $31,392, 1000 being paid down, the balance payable in fifteen years with five per cent. interest.

Morin Bros. make the following report as among their sales for the past week: 28 horses and mares, $13; 30 horses and mares $15; 21 horses and mares, $20 50; 23 horses and mares $12; 26 horses and mares $15; 9 yearling mules, $13; 54 horses and mares, $18; 26 mares, horses and mules, $23; 28 mares and horses, $14; 26 mares and horses, $13; 78 mares and horses, $14.

Corpus Christi dispatch to San Antonio Express:—James F. Scott returned to-day from Santa Gertrudes ranch, where he and his firm have been busy several days past delivering cattle. The delivery includes—to Howard & Elliott, 4000 head, one and two-year-olds; Mr. Dilworth, 1000; S. B. Burnet, 2000 head, ones and twos. Next week 350 head of beeves and 90 head of mules will be shipped to H. C. Hall, Eufaula, I. T. 5000 head of one-year-olds are being gathered for H. C. Hall. They will be shipped within the next 15 days. A contract for 1200 yearlings, at $6, delivery to be made next spring has been made with S. B. Burnet of the Indian Territory. The prices paid for ones and twos have ranged from $6 to $9.

THE WOOL SACK.

R. W. Hitchcock of Kinney county was in town this week.

James McLymont a prominent sheep man of Kinney county was in town about the middle of the week.

H. A. McKee, wool grower of Val Verde county, was in town this week, looking after his wool consignment.

Walter Negley of Maverick county passed on home last week from an extended visit to his old home in Pennsylvania.

L. W. Pease, the extensive mutton shipper, is just back from New Orleans where he has been with a shipment of muttons.

G. W. Ames, the live wool grower of Val Verde county, came down to see how things were running along here. He sold his clip on the ranch.

The Kearney & Richardson clip of Dimmit county, wears the blue ribbon in this market so far. 18 1/2c per pound for fall wool is not so bad after all.

John R. Bradbury of Lyme, Mass., an extensive wool buyer is here on his semi-annual visit, welcomed heartily by a host of friends, and especially by wool sellers.

The strength of the wool market is stimulating business in San Antonio to a wonderful extent. Prompt returns and settlements go a long way towards strengthening credit.

C. W. Wilkins of Wilkins Bros., Langtry, passed through here on Monday on his way south on a trading expedition. He is one of the live business men of this section of the state.

John Adam's handsome face is with us after a run into the lower country, and he will undoubtedly leave a few Blands for some wool, as that has been his regular business for these many years.

Owing to the difficulty in many places to get shearers this fall, the clip is unusually late in coming in, but it is sold as fast as it arrives, and therefore the prospects for a short season are now very good.

Fort Davis News:—Chas. Weinacht, one of Reeves county's prosperous flockmasters, was in town this week. He shipped his fall clip, 4000 pounds, St. Louis. He says several fine showers of rain have fallen in his section lately.

Kerrville Eye:—Wool is coming in freely. The warehouse here is rapidly filling up and a large quantity is being shipped to San Antonio. A few small lots have been bought here, the price given being 14 to 15c.

The Knight Bros., wool growers of Encinal county, were visiting the wool center. They belong to the immortal wool men of Encinal who have the temerity of opposing Crain's re-election. They are few but independent.

John Salter the well-known wool buyer of New York put in an appearance on Wednesday and realized that he was a little late, many of the principal clips having already been sold. But if Salter can't find wool there is none left in Texas.

Thos. O. Murphy of Jeff Davis county, is in the city on a visit to friends and looking to the interest of his wool clip which is on the market here. He says that there has been an abundance of rain in his section and the fall and winter range is now assured.

Who is right? The protectionists say that the rise in wool is owing to the certainty of Harrison's election, while the free traders say that the certainty of the passage of the Mills bill and the taking of wool out of politics puts it on its proper basis. The answer to these propositions will come Nov. 6.

A. Macdonnell, brother of the late C. M. Macdonnell of Laredo was here in connection with business in settling up the estate of his brothers. He came from Ireland for said purpose, and was accompanied to this city by Albert Urbahn, who is manager of the Callaghan ranch, of which Mr. C. M. Macdonnell was a part owner.

Cotulla Ledger:—Sale has been made of the fall clips of wool belonging to Messrs. Dull, Sullivan, and Conlan and Mrs. A. Burke, to I. Efron & Co. of San Antonio, at 15c per pound. Considering the unsettled state of the wool question this is a very fair price, and proves that Mr. M. P. Kerr is the man to handle wool, as the sale was effected by him.

Albert Urbahn, part owner and manager of the Callaghan ranch in Encinal county, was in town this week. His has been sold and therefore the wool market has lost its interest for him this fall to a large extent. Mr. Urbahn is a candidate for the legislature in his district, and when he gets to Austin you will hear from him on all practical measures.

Improving Farm Horses.

Increasing the size of horses in this country continues to engage the attention of our farmers. The heavy draft English and French horses are being imported as extensively as ever, and stallions of these breeds are well patronized wherever the results of their use with ordinary stock are known. There can be no question but that the demand for large horses will be good for years to come. So long as our Western cities continue to grow and street paving is the order of the day money invested in well selected grade mares is sure to bring good returns.

With a view of answering recent inquiries regarding the weights of grade Percheron mares, Messrs. J. D. and L. B. Smith weighed nineteen of the forty-three they have catalogued for sale at their farm near New Berlin on the 24th inst. These mares are six to eight years old and sired by imported stallions. Though just off the grass and only in good condition for breeding, they average 1494 pounds. With a little attention they could soon be made to gain 150 to 300 pounds each. Two of the lightest, Nos. 8 and 16, Ella and Jessie, weighed 1310 lbs. each. The heaviest No. 6, Delia went to 1625, and Nos. 30 and 40, Miss Oakley & Louise to 1600 lbs each.

There is no strong disposition on the part of our farmers generally to have the pure bred animals. They will patronize pure bred draft stallions, however, with a view to raising half and three quarter bred horses for the market, but as a rule they do not like to farm with, or drive on the road, such heavy horses as are brought here from beyond the waters.

The Percherons and grade Percherons are by many preferred to the Scotch and English draft horses because of their cleaner legs, and supposed better adaptation to use on the road. They are fast growing in favor here and Percheron horse breeding seems destined to be one of the leading live stock interests of Sangamon county, Illinois. PHIL THRIPTON.

SAN ANTONIO.

The local market has been featureless for the past week. The demand is light, unusually so at the yards, owing mainly to the fact that several large butchers are now getting stock direct from small ranchmen in the country near by. Cows are yet the principal stock in demand, and are steady at quotations. Hogs are scarce with little prospect of their becoming more plentiful during the winter. It is generally conceded that there are few hogs in the country, and more than probably several shipments from the Northern markets will yet be sold here to local butchers.

Quotations are as follows:

SUBSCRIPTIONS to the TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL are solicited upon the ground that the information given is worth the money to any man in Texas who is either raising, dealing in, or feeding any description of live stock in Texas, Louisiana, the Indian Territory, or any section of the range country. The weekly edition costs but $1.50 per year. We ask those who are subscribers to renew promptly and those who are not subscribers to give the paper a yearly trial. Subscriptions can be sent direct to the TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL.

DILIGENT inquiry as to the Western calf crop reveals the announcement that the crop is short. The crop of calves is very short.

WE OFTEN speak of running cattle on passenger time in the United States but in England they are now speaking of moving cattle in special cars attached to passenger trains.

SOUTHERN cattle raisers ought to be in a position to stand aside and let the Northwestern range cattle monopolize the September and October markets. The Texas men to do so will have to find a way to winter their steers strongly and fatten them early.

A VERY strong petition signed by a large number of cattle shippers will shortly be presented to the International Traffic association asking that palace and stable stock cars be transported at the same price as common cars of the same length. At present the Texas companies are charging 15 per cent. extra on the run between Texas and Kansas City or St. Louis.

Spaying Cows.

The spaying knife was brought into requisition several years ago and sufficient time has elapsed to learn something definite as to the importance of the operation. The spaying knife was considered of very powerful assistance in increasing the supply of beef cattle by removing so many breeders into the steer class, and these spayed heifers and cows have helped to swell the market receipts to great proportions.

To spay young heifers is so far proven to be satisfactory and remunerative, so much so that the men who spayed cattle several years ago are having their young cattle spayed now. But there are no instances mentioned so far where spayed heifers and steers of the same age have been marketed from the same ranges. Such facts if ascertained would be interesting and instructive.

The feature of the spaying business brought to the front by recent shipments go to prove that the spaying of old cows is a failure. The reason for this is that spayed cows if they are operated upon while in milk are very difficult to dry up. They carry their calves indefinitely and suffer a drain upon the system in winter from this reason and are just as thin in spring as the cow that is about to deliver another calf.

The ranchman is now assisted somewhat by the fact that calves have sold very well of late and the rule is to sell the calves belonging to cows they desire to dispose of, then letting the cow dry up and fatten for the later markets. This paper noted several droves of cows and calves driven to the Nation last spring in order to make the shipments by short lines to market. The cows sold at from $1.60 to $2.25 in Kansas City and calves sold from $4.50 to $9 around, and the cows and calves averaged up fully as well as younger cows with calves could have been sold upon the range.

Confidence in Cattle.

When cattle are crowding the market, thick, heavy and fast is hardly the time to claim that the cattle raising industry is in a good condition or that the prospect is a hopeful one for the producers of beef, yet this is the actual position which the cattle industry is in as viewed from all the lights obtainable by the JOURNAL, and we have no hesitancy in advancing the opinion again and again that cattle are appreciating in prices from a good healthy feeling based upon undeniable conditions which favor higher prices for all classes of cattle.

If we do not study anything else but the reports of the great markets and simply follow the daily receipts and quotations we gain valuable information, but do not obtain all that is necessary. We would simply conclude from a casual glance at the market reports that the supply was overwhelming and would never end. We would suppose that the world was full of cattle and that the consumption had no chance of making any impression upon an immense and ever increasing supply. But if we look deeper and examine the character of the supplies we will find that the grades are unequal, and that the farmers and ranchmen are simply continuing the sacrifice of their stock cattle instead of simply marketing their surplus of beef and fat cows.

If we were to examine the cattle sold at the smaller markets and estimate each grade of cattle we would find the proportion of beef cattle sold so very small as to be surprising. In New York, Boston, Buffalo and other Eastern markets the matured beef steer is not yet a rarity, but Western markets are principally supplied with cows. The number of cows going to Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are in excess of all previous records and choice beef is scarce. These cow sales are the cleaning up of many a range and many a farm. Immense as the cow and heifer supply is known to be in the Western states the sacrifice of the two past years are more than considerable and have been sufficient to counteract all possible increase in the cattle production. While the population of the country is increasing at the rate of one million souls per year, we can find undeniable evidence of a decrease in the number of cattle located in the states and territories producing the usual beef surplus. Ranchmen who travel from one end of the range country to the other all agree that were the range as it was a few years ago there are not supplies to stock it. They know that with few exceptions, most large herds have been decreased by death, spaying and shipping. They know whole tracts of land once furnishing tens of thousands of beef steers are now without a grown steer in sight. They know too that the calf brandings are exceptionally light.

Again, the cattle demand is in no wise confined to the Eastern seaboard. The Texas Rio Grande district has commenced to feed Old Mexico. The New Mexico and Arizona limited supplies of beef are carried to the Pacific coast. The strictly Southern markets commencing at New Orleans have about exhausted the local supplies and are depending for winter cattle upon the fat cows of Southern Texas. The best cattle in Kentucky are in such demand that every reasonable man can sell at home, while the beef producers of the Eastern slope have been pushed in a mass by Western supplies from cattle raising to butter and cheese making the calves being butchered or deaconed. We can see sales of young cattle made to our local feeders because larger and older cattle are not available and feeders who used to supply themselves in Western Nebraska and Wyoming are now emptying out the Eastern ranges in the Indian Territory. At home we notice North Texas men with more grass than cattle diving more deeply into the Southern country than they ever did before, with thirty other apparently small evidences facing us that cattle are scarce. Against all this is the everlasting run to the beef markets which may end any day, and which so far as Texas is concerned will end in November. This market evidence against us is not any where so good as the decided knowledge gained from the country at large. The market evidence of high prices deceived one-half the stock yard people into heavy investments in the cattle business, while the low prices recently ruling has had a contrary effect. The people rushed into the business and destroyed it by pushing production to its utmost limit and we see the result. As it required several years to cause the great decline so it has required several years to permit the decreased production to cause a reaction.

The cattle now going to market in excess of the legitimate supply indicate in no way the supplies in the country. The cows are going because the masses have lost faith in the business and they will not feed corn to anything but the best beef cattle. They are acting in the faith that "desperate diseases require desperate remedies," and are using an extra strong final dose, although the disease may now be cured, to prevent any immediate recurrence of the disease.

We look confidently for better times and don't expect to wait beyond spring to see them.

A GREAT MULE.

The Brilliant Mississippian Seems to Be Something of a Liar Himself.

Washington Cor. New York Tribune
 "I see" said Representative Allen, of Mississippi, with a mischievous twinkle in his eye, "that Senator Hampton has been telling about a crow he owns that can talk, and Senator Vest tells about a dog that can black boots and imitate a Methodist exhorter. Now I have a mule on my farm in Mississippi whose favorite amusement is to go in swimming with the boys; and would you believe it, he could swim on his back and dive head foremost like a fish. Yes, sir, he has dived at least thirty feet and come up with his head all covered with mud.

"This mule can counterfeit almost any wind instrument. There is a ferryman who has shot at him several times. The ferryman has a horn on the opposite side of the river for travelers to blow as a signal whenever they want to come over. The mule caught on to this racket and whenever he gets a chance he goes down to the river and brays just like a horn a blowin'. On foggy days the ferryman cannot see across the river and he doesn't know whether it is the mule or a traveler. He told me the other day that last year he pulled his boat over sixty times to answer that 'blessed long-eared mule,' as he termed it,

"On my farm I have a large bell with a rope attached to ring up the hands at day break. An old colored man used to attend to this duty, but about two years ago he suddenly died. The next morning everybody was astonished to hear the bell ring at the usual hour. I went out to see who was ringing it, and I hope I may never get back to Mississippi, if it was not that mule. Yes, sir, and that mule has been ringing that bell ever since at daybreak every morning. Not only this, but he canters down between the negro quarters just as the old man used to do to see that everybody gets out on time. The old man had a way of kicking on the door of a hand who did not move out briskly; and one morning the mule followed his example. In a certain cabin there was a very lazy colored family that never stirred until everybody else was out at work. Just at daybreak the mule backed up to the front door and gave a kick with both feet that sent the whole family through the back window. The mule did not know it, however, and kept on kicking. The next day it took four carpenters to put that cabin together again. Oh, it is a great mule, that mule of mine."

FORT WORTH NOTES.

Mr. H. G. Bedford was in town from the Northwest attending to legal business.

Ben Hackett has returned from the South and is closing a trade for some young steers.

A very good rain was reported from Estacado, Crosby county, the latter part of last week.

The calf sales in the JOURNAL are well worth reading and will be found in the market letters and telegrams.

Fort Worth cattle quotations are—feeders 2@24c., beef steers 24c., cows 14c., sheep 2@24c., fat hogs 6 cents.

Col. W. C. Young of the Llano Live Stock Co. will leave Fort Worth on Sunday on another expedition to the ranch.

A. S. Nicholson of Fort Worth said that people were beginning to inquire for cows and calves to stock up western ranges.

Considerable live stock now at Dallas will be moved to Fort Worth after the fair, and will be held for sale at our local yards.

Eight hundred head of yearlings were sold to Jno. B. Slaughter and H. M. Sims at Abilene, and the price was reported at $8 per head.

A car-load of registered Holstein bulls, very nice ones, can be found at Polk's stock yards. They have just arrived from Tennessee.

Captain S. A. Hatcher of Hatcher, Woods & Coppinger will have 250 good feeding steers from Young county on the Fort Worth market by November 1st.

Tom Andrews and Tom Hunt were busily employed at Dallas on Wednesday eating out the hash houses. It is not presumed that they were on other business.

Mr. N. B. Moore late of Clarinder, Iowa, a breeder of Shorthorns, has come to settle in Fort Worth, and is contemplating the establishment of a breeding farm.

Fitzgerrell & Eckelberger of Denton county, are advertising some feeding steers, and will probably sell them at prices to suit the times. See the notice in the For Sale column.

Colonel C. H. Higbee of Fort Worth has in his pasture 1 stray steer 3 or 4 years old branded D. He would like to find the owner and purchase the steer if price is reasonable.

Mr. Val Dickey of Chicago, who is interested in cattle in Texas and Montana has purchased 2000 grown steers of Webb, Campbell & Hill of Albany and the steers will come out of the herd of E. P. Davis, and others in that district.

R. R. Wade of Tom Green county visited the JOURNAL on Monday, as he was wending his way to Ponca agency where he has some steers. He is disposed to stop his cattle shipments now and wait for a boost in the spring.

Mr. J. R. Jeter of J. R. Jeter & Co., Fort Worth real estate agents was up the Denver road during the week as far as Hardeman county. He speaks enthusiastically concerning the county, its prospects and the abundance of the present crops.

Young, Andrews & Kuhen of Fort Worth are now in their new stables and have plenty of room for all consignments. In addition to their own stock of mares, horses and mules they have just received 75 head of mares from Anderson Bros. of Baird.

Mr. James Cox of Smithville, Dakota wants to buy a few car-loads of Panhandle on North Texas yearling steers. To get them he will have to make a late shipment, but can receive them at Rapid city. Any one desiring to sell a few car-loads to Mr. Cox should forward quotations to him.

Mr. T. P. Lenoir has returned from DeWitt, Goliad and Bee counties and has the assurance to assert that in those counties yearlings can be had for $7, two-year-olds for $10 and threes and fours for $16. Mr. Lenoir states also that the Southern country is in a high state of prosperity, having good and abundant grass and water.

The Panhandle Machinery & Implement Co. of Fort Worth, and the Flint & Walling Manufacturing Co. also of this city have made excellent exhibits at Dallas and are very energetic on presenting the claims of their water supply apparatus. Mr. Maynard of the Flint & Walling Co. has actually plastered Dallas with his cards and advertisements.

B. A. Hathaway of the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, is advertising in the Drivers' Journal that he has parties who want to lease 20,000 acres of land for grazing purposes for five years, and prefer the Indian Territory. In another column the notice says Mr. Hathaway is after 200,000 acres. Will Mr. Hathaway please explain how much land he does want, and the JOURNAL may figure on loaning him our experimental farm.

A pruning implement has been patented by Mr. Francis A. Hall of Ennis, Texas. It has a staff or pole which may be operated by sliding a handle up and down on the pole, making a simple and convenient device for pruning trees, shrubbery, etc.

A fruit gatherer has likewise been patented by the same inventor. The pole or staff is similar to that used in the pruner, and there is an attachment for receiving the fruit, consisting of a canvas tube, a metal frame, and an adjustable sleeve.

A Poultry Car.

The recent introduction of a patent mammoth car on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad has created considerable interest among the poultry dealers of this market. The car in question, says the New York Bulletin, is specially designed and built for the conveyance of live poultry, and which was then being unloaded of thousands of fowls for the New York market. The car stands about two feet higher than the ordinary box-car, being thirteen feet from the rails. The car stands like an ordinary car on two trucks. It contains 116 compartments, each one four feet square, in a series of eight decks, with an aisle running through it crossways, and another lengthwise. The capacity of the car is from 15,000 to 18,000, or from 3500 to 4500 fowls, according to the season of the year. By a system of drop-decks the fowls are loaded and unloaded at the bottom of the car, the sides of which are of strong wire netting, in which are the doors to the several compartments. On the top of the car in the center is a water tank large enough to supply a full load on a journey of 2000 miles. Each compartment is supplied on three sides with abundant food and water by a system of troughs and hose that are easily worked on the inside, no matter how great a speed the train may be going. The food is carried in a box or tank beneath the car. It is believed that the successful results attendant upon the initial service of this car will lead to the introduction of corresponding facilities on other roads.

To Keep Eggs.

Hold perfectly fresh eggs in boiling water while counting six. A wire basket can be used for this purpose. Let them dry and cool, then pack them in oats. Put a layer of oats in the bottom of the keg or barrel sufficient to support the eggs; pack them closely, small end down, cover with a layer of oats and proceed till the barrel is full. Shake it gently to settle the oats and eggs firmly. This method has given eggs a year after packing in as good a state of preservation as when first placed in the oats.—J. E. F. in Tribune.

Caractacus 12249.

The illustration in this issue represents Caractacus 12249, bred by Jno. W. Smith, Thinghill court, Hereford, England, and now the property of Mr. G. W. Henry of Askum, Ill. This bull is a six-year-old and is the sire of the young cattle imported by Henry & Powell for exhibition and sale at the Texas State Fair and Dallas Exposition. Others, the get of Caractacus, are at Rhome, Texas, and were imported last year to be acclimated.

We have not space in this issue to give the illustrious pedigree of this grand bull, but his sire, Rosarian 7870, was one of the great exhibition prize winners.

Caractacus won in 1887 first in his class and sweepstakes over all breeds and ages at Shelbyville, Ky.; first in class at Bowling Green, Ky.; first in class and sweepstakes at Elizabethtown, Ky.; first in class at Indiana state fair; second in class and sweepstakes at Illinois state fair; first in class and sweepstakes at the great St. Louis fair. He has lately been exported to South America.

Dallas State Fair and Exposition.

On Thursday of last week the great Texas state fair and Dallas exposition was opened to the public. The opening day was attended by thousands of citizens of Dallas and many visitors from abroad. While everything was not in entire readiness, the magnificent exhibits in the exhibition building, the endless array of agricultural implements, carriages, printing presses, etc., in machinery hall, and the crowded condition of the stock pens, bore evidence of the fact that the present fair was to be far ahead of anything ever before attempted in the Southwest.

In the county exhibition hall one could view with pleasure the varied products from every portion of our broad state. There is to be seen fruit from El Paso, minerals from Laredo, grain from Tom Green county and lumber from Texarkana. To give proper attention to the exhibits in this hall alone would crowd the columns of a metropolitan daily.

In the exposition building enterprising merchants from all portions of the state have aided the efforts of the management in making this department more attractive than before. The art department contains hundreds of beautiful and costly pictures, and the ladies are entitled to great credit for the elegant display of fancy needle work.

Machinery hall has been considerably enlarged, but still every inch of space has been utilized. Wagons, carriages, plows, cotton machinery and agricultural implements are displayed in endless profusion. One feature of this department is the printing machinery, both Scarff & O'Connor and the Western Newspaper Union having a number of presses in operation, while the enterprising management of the Times-Herald have moved their entire plant to the hall and print their paper daily there.

Liberati's band is by no means the least attractive features of the exhibition. It is doubtful if the people of Texas have ever before had the opportunity of listening to such excellent music as is daily rendered by them in exposition hall. The galleries are thronged to hear them whenever they play, and they play pretty much all the time. But it would be idle to attempt a description of the many attractions to be seen about the exposition buildings and machinery hall, hence we will turn our attention to the

LIVE STOCK.

The live stock exhibit under the charge of Col. Robert Gibson is much larger than that of any previous year, and the increased interest in fine stock is cause for general congratulation.

Beginning at the west end of the exhibit we find the Long's Lake stock farm of Col. W. E. Hughes represented by a number of Devon cattle and eighteen Holsteins. Then follows a number of fine Shorthorns from Warrenton stock farm of Parker county. Gray Hardin of Terrell has a herd of 36 Jerseys and J. K. Bumpas a number of the same. S. B. Howard of Fannin county has over fifty head of elegant Holsteins, and O. T. Stephens of the same county shows 20 head of Jerseys.

Other herds are as follows; J. M. Doty, Ellis county, 20 Holsteins; Missouri Land & Live Stock company of Neesho, Mo., 25 head of Herefords; Wm. Baker of North Madison, Ind., 25 head of Jerseys; F. N. Skeen of Wood county, 12 head of Jerseys; Thos. Hyatt of Henry county, Ky., 12 head of Shorthorns; Wm. Little (dead) of Hutchins, herd of Polled Angus; C. W. Talmage of Kansas, 21 Jerseys; Henson & Rathborn of Kansas, 16 head of Holsteins; Martin Burdge of Denison a herd of Jerseys; Jot Gunter of Grayson county, 48 Herefords; Whitman & Grinnan of Terrell, 6 Herefords; John Campbell of Montague, 8 Herefords; Wm. Powell of Illinois, 32 Herefords; F. M. Houts of Wise county, 49 Herefords; Polk Bros. of Tarrant county, 9 Herefords; W. M. Edwards of Dallas county 2 Holsteins.

The swine and sheep exhibit is excellent. The Berkshire breed is the most extensive amongst the swine, while there is a large and creditable showing of Poland China, Jersey Reds and other breeds.

The sheep exhibited are partly Texas bred and are mostly Cotswolds, Southdowns and Merinos, while some most magnificent specimens of Angora goats are attracting much attention.

It requires over one hundred stalls to accommodate the large exhibit of horses, and the animals present would grace an international stable. Further reports will appear next week.

Rules for Planting Trees.

Country Gentleman.

The following twenty rules are self-evident to most tree-planters, who for want of attention, break some of them, and reminders are therefore often useful:

1. A valuable sort is worth more than merely a handsome tree.
2. Good healthy, bracing roots are of more importance than a symmetrical top.
3. The roots should be long and strong enough, and the top made light enough to obviate any staking.
4. If the roots of a tree are frozen, and then thawed out of the ground or in contact with the air, the tree will be killed.
5. If frozen roots are thawed in compactly pressed mellow earth, the tree may be made to live.
6. Manure should never be placed in contact with the roots when setting out a tree, but used for a mulch or top-dressing.
7. Trees should always be set about as deep as they stood in the nursery, or two or three inches deeper, to allow for the settling of the earth.
8. Spread out the roots nearly equally on all sides, so as to brace the tree well.
9. Avoid particularly any small cavity next the roots, but fill compactly against them on all sides with fine, mellow earth.
10. A small, thrifty tree with copious roots when set out, will be a good bearing tree sooner than a large one with mutilated roots.
11. Watering in dry weather crusts the surface, and does not reach the roots.
12. Young trees should not be set in a grass lot, or among any crops of sowed grain; but the whole surface kept clean and mellow.
13. Shrivelled trees, before planting, may be made plump by covering for several days, compactly, with moist, mellow earth.
14. If newly set ones suffer from drouth, mulch the ground about them, and frequently sprinkle or shower the stems and branches.
15. The roots extend as far from the tree as its entire height; clean and mellow cultivation should therefore cover a circle twice as wide as its height.
16. As a general rule, cultivation should be continued for six, eight or ten years from planting, after which closely grazed or lawn-mowed grass may be permitted, with frequent top-dressing.
17. The amount of manuring or top-dressing must vary with the vigor of the trees; young trees should grow two or three feet yearly, and bearing ones one foot or more.
18. Keep an eye to the future shape of the tree, and timely remove small, needless, crossing or crooked limbs. This will obviate heavy pruning in after years.
19. Pruning when dormant tends to impart vigor; but if done when growing or in leaf, it checks growth; and therefore a feeble tree should never be pruned after growth commences in the spring. But healthy, strong growers may be lightly pruned at either season.
20. Most of the "bad luck" with young trees and orchards is the result of neglecting the preceding rules.

A Rank Sucker.
Breeders' Gazette.

Ernest Benzon, who has been known on the English turf for something more than a year as "Jubilee Juggings," died not long ago, and the papers are full of reminiscences concerning him. Benzon was without exception the greatest plunger of the present generation, and some of his exploits in the betting line rivaled those of the notorious Marquis of Hastings. Benzon's father was a highly respectable hardware merchant, and at his death two years ago, left a fortune of nearly three millions of dollars to his hopeful son, who managed to spend it quicker than a like amount of money was ever gotten rid of by one human. The running turf was the medium by which this phenomenal sucker dissipated this enormous fortune. Benzon had a fancy for laying bets in sums that were simply enormous, it being no uncommon thing for him to wager $100,000 on the success of a horse. Of course this was what the book-makers wanted, and they proceeded to pluck the pignion by simply "stiffening" the animal on which the plunger had laid a fortune. It may be argued that in the case of some stables this could not be done; but it was, all the same, and the English papers alluded to the matter, and argued that Benzon's methods were such that his big wagers were sure to prove too much of a temptation to the trainer—the bribes the bookmakers could offer them to have their horses lose, in order that Benzon's money might be secured, being too heavy for mortal man to withstand. Of course "Jubilee Juggings" went broke—just as all men who gamble on the turf—and now the news comes that the few horses he had in training are to be sold to pay what he owed the book-makers at the time of his death. This precious crowd robbed the young man when he was alive, and they are after his property now that he is in his grave.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.
Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would Never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and not a Pimple on him.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scald head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.
I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured, by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well—sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. CASON, merchant of this place.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.
A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

An Open Letter.

CHICAGO, ALTON & ST. LOUIS R. R. CO. }
OFFICE GEN'L LIVE STOCK AGT., }
ST. LOUIS, July 20, 1888. }

The undersigned, as the live stock representative of the old reliable and well-known Alton road, respectfully calls the attention of live stock shippers to the improved fast time now being made by this line from St. Louis, Kansas City and Higbee to Chicago. The cars of this line are uniform in size, and the roof is higher and better ventilated than any other ordinary stock cars now in use on other lines. In addition, the Alton is furnishing more of the improved palace stock cars to Texas shippers than all other lines combined. The Chicago & Alton makes a specialty of the handling of live stock, and in the past five years shipments have largely increased each year, which shows to all fair-minded people that we give attention to our patrons. No other line in the country transports as much live stock as the C. & A. in proportion to mileage. The books of the stock yards at St. Louis and Chicago will verify this. I can say, without fear of successful contradiction, that the C. & A. in the past has done some good work in behalf of live stock shippers so far as rates are concerned. The officers of this company have at all times looked upon the prosperity of stockmen as being beneficial to the road. The success of one was prosperity for both. I respectfully solicit of shippers a good share of their consignments, and promise them good treatment, fast time and rates as low as any first-class road makes.

I sincerely thank live stock shippers for the large patronage given our line in the past, and ask for their friendship and support in the future.

Shippers desiring any information or favors, by addressing me at St. Louis, will receive prompt replies.

JNO. NESBITT,
Gen. Live Stock Agent.

Reasons for Planting in the Fall.

Greens Fruit Grower.

There are many inducements for fall planting, but the fact that we have more time to attend to you then, and that we have a more complete and full assortment, should alone urge you to order now. Ben Perley Poore, says: "Autumn is, so far as my experience teaches me, a better season for transplanting trees and shrubs than spring. Any trees, even the most delicate, may be successfully transplanted in autumn, if a little protection is given by covering the roots during the first winter, after planting, with strawey manure.

If you appreciate the advantages of fall planting, you will buy vines and trees at no other season. Here are eleven reasons why you should plant in the fall: 1st. You can buy cheaper in the fall. 2nd. You can then get better attention from nurserymen, for it is not their busiest season. 3d. You can get a better assortment of varieties, and often better stock. 4th. On account of cool weather the stock bears shipping better. 5th. Stock can be sent by freight in the fall, whereas, the haste of urgent shipping would often necessitate sending by express at greater expense. 6th. People south of us should order in fall, as their spring season opens far in advance of ours. 7th. If you are not ready to plant, you can receive your stock in the fall, and heel it in the garden, having it on hand just when wanted in the spring. 8th. Plan ahead and get ready to plant in the fall, for then the trees and plants get settled in the ground and ready to begin root growth long before you could get ready to plant in the spring. Fall planted trees, etc., will form numerous new roots before the soil can be cultivated in the spring, and will often make double the growth to those planted in the spring. 9th. Fall is a season of leisure. Spring is a season of great pressure with all. 10th. If you postpone planting until spring you will probably not plant at all, being continually surprised with work crowding the spring season. 11th. The loss incurred in delaying the planting of trees one season is often more than the cost of the trees, etc. Some people postpone planting from fall to spring, then from spring to fall, until ten years have passed, and yet they have no orchards or vineyards. Do not delay. Make your plans to plant this fall, and go ahead. Plant your orchards and other fruits on uplands, and not on wet lands in valleys.

We do not advise planting strawberries largely in the fall, but we do advise planting other things. Follow our instructions and you will not regret it.

"Beef Substitutes."

Drove's Journal

On his return from Chicago to Texas Mr. Geo. S. Williamson said: "Cows, cows, cows! They are marketing stock cattle and here and there a sprinkling of beef. The run keeps up, but such stuff! He does not think the beef supply is any way excessive.

This is all true enough as Mr. Williamson means it; namely that "beef cattle" are not coming forward in excessive supply, but the supply of substitutes is enormous. The loins and ribs of about the poorest of the cows coming are handled in the butcher shops, and even if the meat lacks the juiciness and flavor characteristic of prime steer beef, it passes as a substitute. Nobody can go to a butcher shop and buy "cow meat," or bull meat. It all goes in as beef, and while of course, a poor animal cannot produce good beef, there is no avoiding the fact that the flood of cheap cow and range stock serves largely as a substitute for good beef.

CHICAGO MARKET LETTER.

Nearly 60,000 Cattle Last Week—Quality Medium—The Western Range Cattle Very Good—Sheep Unchanged—Native Corn-Fed Cattle Lower.

Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.

U. S. YARDS, }
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 15, '88. }

Last weeks receipts of cattle were 59,644 head against 58,596 the previous week and 50,739 the corresponding week last year.

Receipts of range cattle last week were 12,000 from Texas and 20,000 from the west, showing a decrease from the previous weeks, while the receipts of native cattle were heavier.

The Texas and Western cattle have sold better lately while the market for corn-fed "native" cattle has been declining. The Iowa, Missouri and Illinois grass and partly corn-fed cattle averaging 1300 and 1400 lbs, have been selling at $3.30@3.75 because buyers could get range cattle for that or less that were better killers.

Practically the top of the beef cattle market at present is $6.25.

Choice Western cattle sold at $4@4.30 and the best Texas cattle have sold at $3@3.25 with Indian Texans at $3@3.90, though Texas canning steers have sold at $2.30@2.50 and inferior. 1000 to 1100-lb Indians have gone as low as $2.35@2.50.

The run of native cows is abating but is still very excessive. To-day some 460-lb native yearlings sold at $1.10 per cwt., and native cows sold at $1.35@3.25, mainly at $2@2.40.

Stockers and feeders are selling much more freely now at $2@2.40.

Some of the Texas cattle sales on the opening day of this week were:

Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.

Up to the present writing things have not improved any, and Texas and Indian cattle are not bringing much money. Prices continue low. True there are slight appreciations for a day or two, then declines are again in order. The run of range cattle continues large and this keeps values down. The run of native cows is also very liberal, and buyers are given the opportunity to get cheap stock. Native shipping steers are scarce and in demand at $4.@5.50 per 100 lbs. For range in prices the reader's attention is directed to the following:

A couple of shipments of common sheared Texans came in, and buyers could only be found at $1.65 per 100 lbs, and brought only $1.10 per head. Common Texas sheep, sheared or unshorn, are not wanted at almost any price, and should be kept at home. Stock and feeding sheep are dull. Scaling & Tamblin sold for A. R. Bradley of Thornton 409 sheep of 65 lbs at $2.12.

Sam A. White, superintendent of the Texas horse department of the National stock yards, quotes the horse market as quiet and unchanged. Offerings are not so large, but are still quite fair. The demand is comparatively light and almost wholly for good breeding mares. Common stock dull. Prices range from $15 to $25 per head.

The wool market continues quiet. Offerings are small and demand quite fair. Prices are about steady at 12 to 22c per lb in extremes for Texas wool. RATTLER.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., county attorney, Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure, dengue and all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1, at H. W. Williams & Co's.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS

Are by far the most commodious and best appointed in the Missouri Valley, with ample capacity for feeding, weighing and shipping Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Horses and Mules. They are planked throughout, no yards are better watered, and in none is there a better system of drainage. The fact that

HIGHER PRICES ARE REALIZED HERE

Than in the East is due to the location at these yards of

with an aggregate daily capacity of 3300 cattle and 27,200 hogs, and the regular attendance of sharp, competitive buyers for the packing houses of Omaha, Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, New York and Boston.

All the sixteen roads running into Kansas City have direct connection with the yards, affording the best accommodation for stock coming from the great grazing grounds of all the Western states and territories, and also for stock destined for Eastern markets.

The business of the yards is done systematically and with the utmost promptness, so that there is no delay and no clashing, and stockmen have found here, and will continue to find, that they get all their stock is worth with the least possible delay
