Union Stock Yards,

The Largest and Best Live Stock Market in the World.

The entire system of the Railways of the West centers here, making the Union Stock Yards the most accessible point in the country. The capacity of the yards, the facilities for unloading, feeding, reshipping, or for the sale of stock are unlimited. There is no point in the United States where stock will find as satisfactory market and sale to the shipper as the Union Stock Yards.

The quality of feed and accommodations given cannot be surpassed at any point in the country. The great city of packing houses that are located here, the large bank capital and the large number of buyers for the Eastern market constantly on hand, make this a quick, active and independent market. Cattle from the North, West and Southwest should reach this market without fail, in order to procure the best prices. There is now established a direct Cattle, Hog, Sheep and Horse trade between these yards and the most important markets in Europe. Agents constantly here from London, Paris, Hamburg, Liverpool and Manchester. The daily shipments from these yards to Europe are from one to two steamer loads. THIS IS STRICTLY A CASH MARKET.

Imp. Sow "Highelere," Property of Terrell & Harris, Terrell, Tex.

Of their fine imported "Highclere" Terrell & Harris write: "She reached us a few days ago, in excellent shape. She won last year at the greatest of English shows (the Royal, at Windsor) the $100 prize offered by the British Berkshire association for the best specimen of the breed in England. Since her importation she has won at the Provincial exhibition of Canada first prize in her class, and the silver medal for the best Berkshire sow of any age.

"She has never been defeated in the show ring; and notwithstanding she won prizes the past year on both sides of the Atlantic, she produced and raised during the time two large litters of pigs."

The introduction of such stock in Texas is encouraging. Better hogs and more of them.

Sam Gholson.

Crosby County News.

When the Indians lived permanently in 1 the canyons and breaks of this section and along the Deuble Mountain country, Sam Gholson owned a ranch in Coleman county, aud was a man of prominence on the then frontier. But Coleman, Taylor, Callahan, Nolan Runnells and the counties of that section organized and settled with far mers, and the stockmen had to move further west. Sam Gholson' did as the others, but not before he was seriously crippled financially by the great cattle collapse of a few years ago. He came to the Yellow House canyon and selected his present home. He afterwards assisted Bassett & Smith, the Z-L and the St. Louis Cattle Co. in finding suitable locations in the neighborhood, and they are all there now. Mr. Gholson has done a great deal for Western Texas, and has had his share of losses and hard times from Indian depredations and otherwise. Although he is not now as wealthy as formerly yet he is comfortably fixed and has a home, which when improved by time and the good taste of its owner, will be a paradise indeed. He is now opening up a large farm and also fencing a large stock pasture, which will be divided conveniently to suit the business of his ranch. At his house he has the most beautiful springs in this section, and they form a series of curiosities as they join the swift running stream in the valiey. In the course of time his fish pond will be known far and wide.

In the past no stock convention met without having Sam Gholson there-but of late he has not attended them. It is to be hoped he will regain his own yet, and that his influence may be felt in the cattle business.

THE PIG PEN.

There is considerable controversy as to which is the more valuable, the old or the young sow, with the weight of testimony in favor of the former.

Noted authority says a pig that is stunted in growth may recover from it, and to all appeaances make a fine breeder, but in all probability the poor treatment received by the parent will crop out in the offspring.

Of two lots of pigs with same care and surroundings, except that one has slop as part ration, the lot having slop will thrive the best. You may, if you please, give the other the larger grain ration, but still the slop-fed pig maintains his supremacy.

The better the pasture and the greater the variety of grasses that the pigs have access to the less other food they will require, making grass the cheapest food we can provide for them. The pig that can graze to his stomach's content will not be so noisy at feeding time.

Young growing animals should be fed sparingly on corn; and the feeder of young animals makes money by feeding oats, bran, shorts, and oil meal in connection with his corn. The corn can be increased in the pigs' ration as they grow older and have access to clover or other grass, and during the last month of their lives they may may receive nearly all corn.

Messrs. Lovejoy & Son of Roscoe, Ills., write us that they have added several fine Berkshires to their herd, among them two boars, Golden Dale 18, 891, sire Imp. Golden Crown, Dam Artful Bell II 15,550; and Black Duke 22,337, by the prize-winning boar Echo's Duke II 20,571. Among the sows added are Duchess 70, sired by Longfellow; also a sow by Model Duke. These gentlemen agree to guarantee satisfaction to their customers.

Numbering Country Houses.

The people of Contra Costa county, Cal., have adopted what we believe to be an entirely new feature in rural life, that seems to deserve attention elsewhere. The San Francisco Alta describes it thus:

Distances are measured from the county seat. Each road is named, and this name attaches to it from end to end. Each mile on every country road is divided into ten blocks, with a frontage of 525 feet, or 176 yards, or eight chains. Two numbers are assigned to each block, the even numbers on the right; the odd on the left. A house having an entrance from a block takes the number of its block. If other houses are added, each bears the number of the block also, but it is followed by a letter of the alphabet in their order. For instance, in block 16, the first house is 16, the second is 16a, the third 16b and so on. The num-

from the county seat. As there are two numbers for each block, to find the distance divide the house number by two and that result by ten, or point off the decimal, and you get the miles and tenths. Thus, number 156 divided by two gives 78; point off the decimal and it gives 7.8 miles. By this system country houses can be more accurately and as usefully numbered as city houses, for the number indicates the distance, which is often very important to know. When a whole country is so numbered a directory of its population is as easily made as in a city. The labors of local assessors, school census takers, and even of electioneering politicians will be greatly lessened, and officers whose fees depend on mileage will be able easily to esti-

An article in the Pacific Rural Press supplies the following additional point, which is important:

When a road goes completely through a town and continues beyond, the country numbers are suspended at the town limits. The measuring continued through the town the same as elsewhere, and the numbers are Twentieths $1. resumed again after passing out of the town limits again on the opposite side. The numbers to be applied are determined, the same as elsewhere, by the distance from the starting point. * * * The growth of towns which encroach upon the the country houses or new towns springing up and absorbing several of the country houses and their numbers, would not disarrange the numbering in the slightest degree. The numbers being dependent upon the distance from the starting point, those remaining retain their numbers unchanged. The only disturbance which could ever possibly occur would be in a case where the first house was placed near the end of the block and numbered, and afterwards other buildings were erected on the block before the original one. In such cases the numbers of that particular block would need rearranging, but those in the other blocks would remain undisturbed.

When, by reason of a cold or from other cause, the stomach, liver and kidneys become disordered, no time should be lost in stimulating them to action. Ayer's Pills act quickly, safely, and surely. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicines.

Ranching in South America.

Harpers Magazine.

In 1885 there were 41,000,000 sheep in the United States, 72,000,000 in Australia and 100,000,000 in the Argentine Republic. We have two-thirds of sheep to every inhabitant; in the Argentine Republic there are twenty-five sheep, and in Uruguay forty sheep to every man, woman and child. We have 40,000,000 of horned cattle, a population of 60,000,000; the Argentine Republic and Uruguay have 38,000,000 of cattle to a population of 4,000,000. In Uruguay with a population of 500,000 souls, there are 8,000,000 of cattle, 20,000,000 of sheep, 2,000,000 of horses, or 60 head of stock for each man, woman and child. Fifteen million dollars have been invested in wire fences in Uruguay alone, and more than twice as much in the Argentine Republic. In either of these countries a cow can be bought for $5, a steer fattened for the market for $10 or $12, a pair of oxen for $25, a sheep for 50 or 60 cents, an ordinary working horse for $8 or $10 and a roadster for $25, a mule for $15, and a mare for whatever her hide will bring, Mares are never broken to saddle or harness, but allowed to run wild in the pastures from the time they are foaled until they cease to be of value of breeding, when they are driven to the sale-dros or slaughter houses and killed for their hides. A man who would use a mare under the saddle or before a wagon would be considered of unsound mind. There is a superstition against it.

SAN ANTONIO.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., July 12.

Editor Texas Live Stock Journal.

That encampment was a God-send to the cattlemen of Southwest Texas. During the entire season buyers had been such rare visitors here that some dealers had actually gone out of business. This was not only true of

but also of the other markets, even those dealers who remained in the business were trading other ways and particularly in real entate. This is not sensational but the solid truth. Dealers have openly asserted that the San Antonio horse market was going to pieces and they were making their money in other ways. But the encampment called the turn and since the day the encampment was opened it has been a steady flow of buyers and that they have bought pretty well is shown by the increase in the shipments of horse stock by rail of 307 head over the shipments of the previous week, and 122 head over the totals for the corresponding week last year, but the total shipments since January 1 show a decrease of 8043 head from the totals of the corresponding time last year, thus verifying the truth of the statement that there has been a marked falling off in the northern demand for the Texas scrubs. This is also shown by the additional fact that although this is the regular season for northern shipments and the southern demand is not usually felt until late in the fall, after the northern shipping season closes, yet the shipments last week were to the following outside points: Shreveport, La.; Meridian and Jackson, Miss.; Attalla, Ala.; Tallahassee and Jacksonville, Fla.; Chattanooga and Memphis, Tenn.; East St. Louis, Ills.; Omaha, Neb.; and Buffalo, N. Y. Stockmen who are progressive men and who wish to keep up with the popular demand so that they can realize the best prices for their stock are respectfully referred to the above facts and the statement of dealers and commission men here, as well as northern buyers, that the only market left for Texas scrubs and wild stock is among the negroes and small planters of the southern states who buy them only because they are cheap. The best advice that can be given now is to break the stock to harness as well as to the saddle on the ranches and breed up for size on native mares. An old commission man here said the other day: "I have just completed a shipment of carefully selected horses and mares, every one of them well broken to saddle and harness. That is the kind of stock there is money in, but wild stock is no good any more. You drive a bunch of wild Texas stock into a northern town and have them kick the stuffing out of eight or ten sheds and cripple four or five leading citizens and you need not expect to sell any more such brutes in that village. But if the stock is gentle and well broke to saddle and harness on the ranches then you can handle them without any danger of being kicked into the middle of next week and you can sell that kind of stock at fair prices."

Buyers want gentle stock for northern trade and the wild stock goes to southern buyers when a sale is effected. It is a matter of general remark that less stock has been shipped north this year than for a number of years, while southern shipments are larger than usual at this season of the year. Out of 115 head of horses reported shipped on Monday, there were 87 head to the eastern cotton states and 28 head to Nebraska. This is about the average of the course of shipments this year. Northern buyers only take the best bred gentle stock. Where a northern shipment is mentioned it will be found to be of gentle stock and highly improved. This may be repetition but it is the truth and is of vital importance largely of undesirable stock for the northern trade. More gentle animals are wanted.

The following tabulated statement shows the receipts and shipments of live stock by rail at San Antonio since January 1, and during the corresponding time last year.

CATTLE, MUTTONS AND HOGS.

Last week was a bonanza for the commission men here. The encampment demand held up active during the entire week and although the receipts were larger than at any other times since last fall yet the pens were closed out every day and 'he morning receipts formed the daily supply. Prices also held up well for all description of butchers' stock and outside figures were paid for extra choice fat animals. The demand has been fair to good this week also, but the receipts have been so large that the butchers have had more power in naming prices and some declines are noted, particularly in the quotations for cows. There have also been a number of shippers here after carload lots and this has held the market Thos. H. Morin

There is very general complaint among the stockmen in this section of the country that the screw worms are more abundant now than ever before known in the midsummer season. On some ranches the entire working force have been and are now kept busy doctoring the stock for worms. The worms appear even where a tick is crushed on an animal. The prick of a thorn also gives them a chance to take hold. This is very unusual in a dry season.

The supply of muttons and goats has been exhausted on this market. Receipts are very light and there is now an active demand reported for fat animals at full quota-

Hogs are also in very active demand and light receipts. A quick sale at 4c. per pound, live weight, is offered for moderate receipts of medium weight hogs, averaging 150 to 250 pounds.

WOOL MARKET.

This market has been so steady and featureless that there is actually nothing to report for the past week. The sales continue but they are for such small amounts that it looks as if the buyers were merely trying to hold the markel open and prevent the wool being shipped until they can see how the northern markets are likely to turn. Thus far this season this has been mainly a manufacturers' market, dealers being most conspicuous for their very conservative buying. Several lots of New Mexican dirt with some wool in it have been received during the past week, but no buyer has yet been found who is brave enough to buy them. The total stock here in first hands is estimated at 2500 bags.

The market quotations are as follows: Spring 12 months clip, fine, 19@21c; medium, 21@221/2c. spring, 6 to 8 months, to Texas stockmen. Receipts continue carpet wool reported on this market.

Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal. The present week opened with Texas cattie selling 40c higher than at the low point one week ago.

W. B. Fowler, Earl Park, Ind., marketed 16 1260-lb Hereford heifers at $4.10, and 15 1513-lb steers at $4.75.

One year ago to-day there were 22,300 cattle and only 23,000 hogs at St. Louis, Omaha, Kansas City, and Chicago come bined.

At the present time cattle are being marketed much more freely than hogs.

Dry weather in many locations in Kansas and Nebraska is causing feeders to ship sooner than they intended.

C. P. and A. B. Dewey of Chicago marketed a string of 222 Kansas cattle averaging 1112 lbs at $3.70. They have a large ranch at Manhattan, but Mr. Dewey says as there is danger of a failure of the corn crop in that country they concluded to ship the cattle and save the corn.

Mr. Dewey says the corn cost them 15@ 18c last winter and they are sure there is money in that while they were in doubt about the cattle especially as flies were bothering them badly.

ST. LOUIS MARKET LETTER.

EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL.,) July 15, 1890.

Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal Prices for the week now ended were not as demoralizing as the week previous, still they ruled low on all grades.

There is no money in shipping cattle to $2.20; 18 cows, 883 lbs, $1.60; Nueces City, and National Stock Yards, Ill.

The Evans-Snider-Buel Co. sold for Thomas Bros., Pottsboro, 32 sheep, 84 lbs, $3.80. 196 sheep, 80 lbs, $3.80; 196 sheep, 80 lbs, $2.80; 13 sheep, 74 lbs, $2.50; 24 lambs, 46 lbs, $3.75.

Although prices have weakened some on Texas sheep, yet fair enough figures prevail on decent to choice grades and flockmasters and others can not complain at the treatment received at the hands of buyers. Offerings were quite large, but the bulk were billed through and had to go on even when handsome bids were made Prices paid ranged from $3.25@4.15 per 10.000 for sheep of 65 to 90 lbs. The quality of the offerings generally was not very good. Common and thin sheep were dull of disposal at very low prices. Stockers are wanted, but they must be good ones.

There is but little change to note in the Texas horse market. Offerings fair and of all grades while the demand moderate and altogether for good mares. Prices range from $20@30 per head.

The wool market is by no means active. Plenty of wool in and prices about steady at a range of 14@23c for Texas for burry to RATTLER.

THE receipts of Texas cattle in Chicago for the month of June was 2000 more than for the same month last year.

THE cattle market is much better this week. Suppose, however, it is only a bite to induce the boys to send them on.

THE number of calves marketed during the past sixty days are probably double the shipments for same period any previous year.

HALF-FAT cattle on bad markets would bankrupt Jay Gould. Either is bad enough, but the two together are ruinous. Don't ship until your cattle are ready to go.

SAN ANGELO, TEXAS, has shipped 90,000 head of sheep and 2,000,000 pounds of wool already this year. Pretty good show ing for the bustling, thriving little city of the Conchos.

SHIPPERS of Texas cattle should as far as possible hold off of the market for the next sixty days and make room as far as possible for the big run that will go during that time from the Indian Territory.

A SUBSCRIBER at Walnut Springs writes asking when the Cherokee Strip will be opened to settlers. The STOCK JOURNAL has to confess its ignorance. If any of our readers can answer the question they will confer a favor by doing so.

GRASS was never better in Texas and the Indian Territory, and cattle will soon be very fat if only given a chance. The market can't get any worse, therefore cattle men should by all means hold their shipments until cattle are thick, fat and ready to go.

THE hopes and promises of a better market this year has already been knocked in the head. The market for last month was lower than the same month last year. In fact it was perhaps the worst June market known for many years. The cattleman must base his hope on the future and not on the present.

LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

United States, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha, received and disposed of 700,000 head more cattle than was marketed during the same month last year.

IT is astonishing that the farmers and small stockmen do not take more interest in improving their cattle. It costs no more to raise a good animal than to raise a common worthless one. The latter class, how ever seems to be largely in the majority. Blue, brown, brindle and dun cattle now seem as plentiful through the country as in the days of free grass, and Mexican cattle.

Now that land has greatly enhanced in value and the cost of grazing and raising a steer is proportionately increased, is a strong argument in favor of improving the grade of the cattle. With the exception of the cost of the bull, the expense of raising a half-breed steer is no more than that of a scrub, while the market value of the halfbreed when matured is from 50 to 100 per cent. more than that of the scrub.

THERE are men with stock who want to sell. There are men with money who want to buy. When these men find each other, a trade is generally the result. They all read the STOCK IOURNAL—the men with cattle to sell, and the men with money to buy. It follows, then, that if a man has cattle, and will advertise that fact in the STOCK JOURNAL, the man who wants to buy will read the ad. and come to him, just as surely as the man who wants to buy will find plenty of sellers if he will let his wants be known in the STOCK JOURNAL.

THE Colorado sanitary board has modified the qarantine regulations of that State as follows:

Whereas, this board has been instructed by the attorney general that they may allow cattle from south of the thirty-sixth parallel to pass through Colorado without inspection, if said cattle are not unloaded at all or are unloaded only in quarantine pens used solely for this class of stock, and whereas, this board has been asked by the Kansas and New Mexico sanitary authorities to so modify our rules as to conform with the above instructions, be it

Resolved, that our inspector at Raton, N. M., and Folsom be instructed to allow all cattle shipped by rail, destined for points outside this State, to enter and pass through Colorado by rail, to be unloaded only at such points as may be designated by this board, but that cattle destined for Colorado points shall be inspected and a fee of 11/2 cents per head be collected as heretofore. Also be it out inspection can be unloaded for feed and water. And it shall be in violation of the rules of this board for any railroad or shipper to unload cattle at any other point, also that any railroad or shipper bringing cattle destined for Colorado points into the state without first having obtained a bill of health from this board or its inspectors will be subject to penalties as prescribed for any violation of the regulations of this board

A Hint to Cattlemen.

Here is a broad hint to cattlemen who have cattle to sell. It is conveyed in an extract from a letter received at this office from a gentleman who incloses his subscription to the STOCK JOURNAL:

LIPSCOMB, Tex., June 28. * "I wish to keep posted in the advertisements for a short time, or until the stockmen of the Indian Territory leave their ranges."

We take it that this gentleman has money to buy cattle, and is on the look-out for bargains to be offered by the cattlemen who are getting ready to vacate the Territory. It is a hint to cattlemen who have stock to sell. The meaning of it is, advertise in the STOCK JOURNAL and you will reach the men who want to buy.

Hogs and Horses in Mexico.

Capt. W. H. Kingsbery, formerly of El Paso and well known to the cattlemen of Texas and the entire Southwest, is now located at Parral, Mexico, having accepted the position as manager of the San Cristobal mine near that place. Although still unable to work, from the stroke of paralysis received some five years ago, the captain seems to have lost none of the energy of his younger and stronger days.

In a private letter to a friend in this city Captain Kingsbery says: "Bacon sells here at 45 cents a pound.

"I can buy Mexican horse stock here at $5@6 per head, and picked ones at $8@10 a head, Mexican silver," (worth 75 cents on the dollar).

"There ought to be plenty of money in this stock shipped to Fort Worth and sold on the yards there. They have the best stock here I have seen in Mexico. Choice mares can be laid down in Fort Worth, including freight and duty at from $14@15 per head.

"Can't you do something with them? I could send thousands in a year.

"Fort Worth ought to be made as good or better horse market than San Antonio. Northern and Eastern buyers would rather buy in the Fort."

The captain closes his letter with the request that the JOURNAL be sent him regu-

A Buffalo Hybrid.

stock, generally, it seems without success. Afar back, when the buffalo roamed the Kentucky woods, an enterprising breeder tried it, but with such indifferent success that he abandoned the undertaking. Some times the buffalo bull was put to a domestic cow, and again the domestic bull was put to a buffalo cow, but in neither case does the work of crossing appear to have been a complete success.

Mr. Chas. Goodnight seems to have accomplished what others have failed at, as our correspondent, who writes elsewhere in the STOCK JOURNAL, and who is a thoroughly trustworthy authority, claims that the crossing of the buffalo and the native cattle stock on the Goodnight ranch is a demonstrated success. There are numbers of these hybrids on the ranch, which are vigorous, hardy, and far surpass the cattle as "rustlers" and in the ability to take care of themselves in hard times.

A proposition is now pending before congress to give one "Buffalo Jones" of Kansas, the use of some two or three million acres of land in No Man's Land, to be used by him as a breeding ground for raising a stock of buffalo crosses. While "Buffalo" is waiting to get his gift from congress, a citizen of Texas goes ahead on his own lands and does the work that the Kansas gentleman asks national assistance for doing.

What a marvel it would be to see the immeasurable Texas plains stocked again with herds, the descendants of the lordly buffaloes that once trod them in wild freedom!

Are You Mortgaged?

The following communication has been received by the STOCK JOURNAL: Editor Texas Live Stock Journal:

The counties of Tarrant, Harrison and Bell in the state of Texas have been selected for the purpose of making a special investigation of real estate mortgage indebtedness. Inquiries will be addressed to the owners of mortgaged real estate, and in some cases to the holders of mortgages, to ascertain the amounts unpaid and the reasons for incurring the debts. The answers will be strictly confidential, and in no case will be revealed to any private person or public officer outside of the census office. whose employes are all sworn to preserve the secrecy of the information. It is hoped that the interest in the mortgage question, which prevails everywhere throughout this country, will enlist the co-operation of every one to whom these requests are made. This investigation is authorized by act of congress in response to a general demand on the part of the people that it shall be made, and it now rests upon the people to make some necessary contributions to its success. Very respectfully,

ROBERT P. PORTER, Superintendent of Census.

Mr. John Walker, special agent of the census bureau, is now in this city, where he will remain for some months prosecuting the work of obtaining this information, which will be of extraordinary value to the students of political economy.

"NEPONSET" RED ROPE ROOFING.

We guarantee every roll of this paper thoroughly water-proof, and the best in the market for roofing purposes, especially for roofs sides of factories, storehouses, poultry-houses, and all farm wildings; and that it will make your buildings warmer and yer than any other covering, at one-third the cost of shingles.

It is entirely uninjured by heat or cold, snow or rain,

One thickness is sufficient for sides of a building. Two thicknesses for a roof. For a roof it is cheaper to put one thickness of "Neponset" Black Sheathing next to the boards, and the red rope on top.

You can use the cheapest lumber.

Any paint can be used, and our paper will absorb only onethird what wood will.

If you follow our directions, which are very simple, we will an guarantee that every building which is covered, sides or roof, with this paper, will be perfectly protected against any weather, and will be very durable and handsome. We have buildings, covered five years ago, in as good condition as when first put on.

Our Trade Mark is on the outside of each roll of "Neponset" Roofing.

BLACK "NEPONSET" BUILDING.

This is a waterproof paper, made especially for inside sheathing, and we recommend it mainly for such purposes, although it is often used as an outside covering for temporary buildings, and for such a purpose we guarantee it better than tarred paper.

Although black in color there is no tar in "Neponset," and it will not lose its strength or waterproof qualities when exposed to the air. It is not Rosin-sized, or merely coated, but is as waterproof in the center as on the outside.

Do not use cheap sheathing papers; they will not keep out wind and dampness, and the difference in cost between the cheapest and "Neponset" is only a trifle even in a large house, and is nothing as compared to the extra protection our paper guarantees.

We guarantee this water and air proof, and that a building covered with it can be warmed with much less fuel, than if covered with any other paper in the market. It is, consequently, the cheapest paper in the end. It is strong and a color especially good to show clearly a chalk mark, which is of advantage when laying weather-boards.

As a protection against wind, rain and dampness, there is nothing in the market to compare with it. It is clean to handle and does not waste. It is unsurpassed under weatherboards or shingles, and placed under iron or tin roofs, prevents corrosion. It is the best in the market for a slate roof.

DIRECTIONS FOR APPLYING "NEPONSET" RED ROPE ROOFING.

FOR ROOFS.—For best roof, use two thicknesses of "Neponset" Red Roofing. For Next best, one thickness "Neponset" Black next to boards, and one thickness "Red" on Top.

Sweep the boards clean of nails, chips, etc. Commence at the eaves (gutter) and lay the first strip parallel to it, letting the paper project over the eaves about one inch. Put in a few tacks merely to hold it temporarily. Lap the second strip three inches over the first, and so on, until you get to ridge-pole. Commence at the other eaves in the same way, and work up. After one thickness is on, start again at each eaves with second thickness (always Neponset Red Rope), and work up in the same way, putting only a few tin caps in to hold temporarily. On top, over the ridge, put one strip so it will lap well over the paper on each side. After all is on, put on cleats from ridge to eaves, not over sixteen inches apart. Use a cleat five-eighths inch thick by seven-eighths wide. The best and cheapest cleat can be made by sawing five eight-inch strips from a common seven-eighths inch pine board.

Always nail the cleats over the rafters and use nails long enough to go well into the rafters. If you do this, the cleats will always stay in place. In cases when the rafters are more than sixteen inches apart, put a cleat also between the rafters, and use more nails, and not long enough to go through the boards. Don't use laths.

After cleating, tack tin caps every three inches, between cleats. Always use tin caps with round part up. Be sure to use plenty of nails, and then the cleats will stay in place. The finish at eaves can be best done by turning the paper down and nailing a good cleat the whole length. A cleat nailed on edge of roof, from eaves to ridge will answer for that finish. Use cleats no wider than directed, and nail in the center. Paint one or two coats. When skylights or chimneys are in the roof, of course use any good waterproof cement to make joints tight. It is more important to paint the cleats than the paper.

FOR SIDES.—Lay paper perpendicularly. One thickness sufficient. Nail Cleats on the laps, and one between laps. A building covered and cleated as above is neater and handsomer than if shingled and clapboarded. When desired, we will furnish cleats at cost.

PULL OUT THE WOODEN PLUG IN EACH END OF THE ROLL, AND YOU WILL FIND A PAPER PACKAGE CONTAINING NAILS AND TIN CAPS.

The Refrigerator.

As soon as Mr. Dahlman concludes contracts for the purchase of machinery for the freezing warehouse at Galveston, he will return, and work will begin at that point. An architect in this city already has plans made for the warehouse, and as soon as the machinery is purchased he will go to Galveston to meet Mr. Dahlman, and work will begin. The arrangements made by the latter gentleman in the East give ample capital to operate the plant at this point. They are under contract to firnish the first cargo of 600 tons by September 20, and the same amount every two weeks thereafter. This will require the slaughtering of about 200 cattle a day, but as the refrigerator has a capacity of more than double that number, the work will probably be increased very

CATTLE AND CATTLEMEN.

J. M. Letts and S. W. Walters of Letts, Iowa, whose ranch is near Spofford Junction, Tex., will ship two trains of their cattle to Kansas City this week.

The low rate made on cattle over the Cotton Belt is bringing many shippers to Fort Worth to take advantage of it. E. D. Farmer reports that he saves $2.50 a head on his shipments.

E. D. Farmer of Aledo shipped nine cars of extra cattle to Chicago over the Cotton Belt. Others from the Aledo neighborand Beggs & Hackett of Fort Worth.

R. L. Dunman of Coleman says the range in his neighborhood is good and stock are in fair order, but not fat enough for beef. The stockmen are holding for better prices, which will come, it is believed that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh after the Indian Territory is cleaned out.

The Matador Landd and Cattle company shipped from Childress to the Kansas City Stock Yards 27 cars of cattle. D. S. Maud, of Childress, also sent 6 cars to the Kansas City yards, and a number of Texas cattlemen are turning their attention to Kansas City.

Col. C. H. Higbee of Fort Worth died last Monday, his death resulting from lockjaw, the result of running a nail in his foot. Col. Higbee was in his forty-ninth year. and has been largely identified with the live stock interests of Texas, among which he was widely known and universally es etemed.

Mr. Fred Horsbrugh, manager of the Spur ranch, situated in Dickens, Crosby, Kent and Garza counties, and known as the Espuela Land and Cattle company, was married on the 11th inst. to Miss May Mitchel, from Ohio. The event took his many friends by surprise Mr. Horsbrugh is a young man, but very energetic. He has been connected with the Espuela Land and Cattle company for more than five years, and succeeded to his present position on the retirement last year of Mr. S. W. Lomax, who has established a bank at Vernon. Mr. Lomax's well known ability as a cattleman made his successor's acceptance of the position a difficult one. We understand, however, that Mr. Horsbrugh has been remarkably successful, as it will be in the recollection of our readers that we lately reported a sale by him of 3000 steers at Amarillo at the highest price obtained this season for Panhandle cattle, namely $16.50 for twos and $21.50 for threes. We wish Mr. Horsbrugh continued success in his responsible position as manager of the Spur ranch, and for both him and his bride much happiness, as we are sure they well deserve it.

San Angelo Standard:—James Currie and Ed Sutcliffe, two of Glasscock's prominent wool producers, were in the city all the week looking up old acquanintances. Jim is a striking example of the success that Geo. T. Williams, Esq., Secretary. U. S. Yards, follows attention given to raising improved stock. His muttons have been selling right along at $4 while others chuckled when been content with half that amount. logue and then attend the sale.

The quarantine regulations at Chicago Stock Yards require Texas and Territory cattle to be yarded in one division, and kept separate from native cattle. To show how the Chicago & Alton is patronized by Southern shippers, the following correspondence fully explains itself. The correctness of the figures cannot be disputed.

We have demonstrated our friendship for live stock shippers, and the figures appended show that most of them appreciate it.

We ask their continued friendship and support in the future. Shippers should be particular when loading cattle to give orders to route them over the famous old reliable and responsible Chicago & Alton railroad. Cattlemen want good time, good cars and courteous treatment, also at all times reasonable rates. Where else can you find all of the above good qualities so harmoniously blended in one line, and that line the Chicago & Alton. Our line can be reached at St. Louis, Kansas City and Higbee Mo., and from either place, almost an air line to Chicago.

easy, and unchanged in price as compared to its condition this day last week, and while there is no perceptible improvement in the demand, yet it is true that there is a rather better demand and inquiry from the maufacturing families of both the East and South. While nearly all sales consummated in the past seven days have been to manufacturers or their representatives, yet in all cases with very few exceptions, the prices paid have been on a basis of the quutations of to-day. In fact where concessions have been made, it was for inferior grades, or sandy and burry wools. Evidently both growers and factors are still hopeful of the future, and in more than one case within the past ten days, growers have instructed their merchants to hold their wools for full quotations of to-day.

As above stated no change in prices have taken place since the date of my last letter, therefore I repeat quotations of last week:

SHEEP AND WOOL.

A breeder in Coshocton county, O., writes that 1500 Texas sheep have recently been shipped to farmers in his neighborhood, and all who desire them are not yet supplied.

The enormous wool industry in Australia has been largely stimulated by mortgage and finance companies, as well as by the banks, says the American Cultivator. An individual or a firm desiring to raise sheep and grow wool in any of the Australian countries can usually secure capital, or at least large advances on his flock, by agreeing that the clip shall be handled, forwarded and sold by either the banks or the mortgage companies. Thus of the total imports of Australian wooi into Great Britain in 1889, of nearly 1,240,000 bales, about twelve per cent. was consigned for sale through the banks, and about thirtyone per cent. through the mortgage and finance companies. The business is done on a much larger scale, or rather in a more concentrated manner, than in this country. Single firms own larger numbers of sheep than any corresponding firms or individuals in the United States.

Over Two Million of Dollars.

THE HORSE.

J. F. Cross of Concho county has bought from Charles Howard of Moody, Texas, a pure bred black Spanish jack, known as "Joe." He took first prize at the state grange fair last year, will be four years old in September. Price $1000. Mr. Cross will likely enter him at the Concho Valley fair at San Angelo next fall.

A Long distance runner. The Midland Gazette says: Ed Crowley had a lively time penning his horses recently. They ran eleven times around his four mile pasture, making 44 miles. Ed says to make a sure thing of it he knocks off four miles. He gives all parties notice to lookout for his stock at the long run contest at the fair next

A vicious horse at Bloomsburg, Pa., became unmanageable a few days ago, and grabbing his owner in his teeth ran through the streets carrying the man along like a cat would carry a rat. Even after the animal was captured he refused to release his captive, and rough means had to be resorted to in order to rescue the man. The affair created quite a panic for a while.

It is related in a foreign exchage that the King of the Belgians has been considerably disappointed with ten pure Arabian steeds lately presented to him by the Sultan of Morocco. They were reported to have been the pick of the country, and were selected personally by the Sultan, but they nevertheless turned out to be very ordinary animals. However, the matter is explained by the fact that the officials who had charge of their shipment, Oriental like, sold the original and substituted inferior ones.

The London Omnibus company found that three thousand horses fed on sixteen pounds of ground oats, seven and one-half pounds of cut hay and one-half pound of cut straw did as much good work and kept in as good condition as another three thousand fed on nineteen pounds of whole oats and thirteen pounds of uncut hay; thus saving by grinding the grain and cutting the feed six pounds of feed per day or a saving in the feeding of six thousand horses amounting to three hundred dollars per day.

after ailing for a short time. As the horse one animal."-Col. L. A. Ellis, Austin. did not appear to be suffering from any specific complaint, Mr. Wagstaff opened the carcass and found about 1/2 cwt. of sand firmly imbeded in the bowels and bladder, this being, no doubt, the cause of death. The only reason that can be assinged for I lost seven mules from bots and colic, the presence of the sand in the animal's body is that it had beeu in the habit of drinking from the creek at a part where it is shallow and very sandy.

The statement is on the rounds that the experience in the horse-car-stables of Paris and New York is to the effect that gray horses live the longest and give the greatest amount of service, although in these particulars the roans are said to be a close second. Bays are declared to be about an average as to longevity and endurance, while cream colored horses are discounted as lacking staying ability especially in the hot weather. Black hoofed horses are pronounced tougher and stronger than those with lighter colored feet. According to this showing a good horse can be a bad color despite the common saying to the contrary. We are not just prepared to believe that there is any great difference in the wearing qualities of horses of different colors in this climate, although this is not the first time these points have been brought forward.

Records are about to be established, the Rural New Yorker tells us, for the registration of fast walking horses, similar to the records that have proved so valuable to breeders of trotting stock. Mr. John W. Aiken of Scipio, New York, wisely comments as follows: "Anything that creates an interest in a record for fast walking horses must do good. I believe fast walking is a matter of both breeding and training. Colts can be trained to walk fast by being led alongside a fast-walking horse or behind a fast walking team. As soon as old enough for the harness, each should be The pioneer house in Texas. driven with a fast-walking mate until the habit is firmly established. A very large percentage of draft animals, however, need no particular training in this direction.

Blooded Horses Battle.

A fight to the death between two blooded stallions was the thrilling spectacle witnessed on Captain B. F. Trester's farm at Aurora, Ind., on June 8th. Two threeyear-old stallions, both spirited and valuable animals, with all the beauty and vigor imparted by thoroughbred ancestry, had been turned into adjoining pastures to feed. A heavy wooden fence divides the fields, and although as colts, the pair had playfully bit and kicked at each other across it, the fence was supposed to be strong enough to keep them separate and prevent trouble. This summer had brought the colts almost to the full vigor of equine vitality, however, and the circumstances developed in them to its full degree the ferocity and courage which exists in every perfectly made horse. The animals began their fight over the separating fence, and kicked and pawed at each other until the fence was demolished. Then they came together in a struggle which for fierceness and length exceeded anything which the spectators had ever witnessed. The two big brutes stood on their hind legs and striking each other with their fore feet, and tearing each others' necks and shoulders with their teeth. Their neighing and screams of rage, and the sound of their kicks and snorts were heard fully half a mile away, and a half a dozen or more persons were attracted to the scene of the conflict, but so vicious were the enraged animals that for nearly an hour no one dared to go near them. At last the smaller of the two, a bright bay, caught his antagonist by the throat with his teeth and dragged him to the ground. The larger horse kicked and rolled, and gasped spasmodically in an effort to avoid being choked to death, but the small horse clung desperately to its antagonist.

The "Champion" Hay Press.

The above illustration will give the readers a fair idea of the appearance and construction of the "Champion" Two-Horse continuous travel steel and iron baling

This machine has been before the public for the past two years, and by actual test given it by those using it in nearly every state and territory in the Union has proven and for the county of Laramie, in a certain itself to be worthy the name of "Champion." Constructed entirely of metal, it i light, durable and yet very strong. Two charges, or fork fulls are pressed at each round of the team, making it a machine of large capacity, and being continuous travel it is easy on the team and requires no driver. The power is a modification of the "Champion" compound rebound plunger power, used on "Champion" reversible lever presses, and has become known to the world as the simplest and greatest hay press power in existence, the plunger being driven fast while the material is loose, decreasing in speed and compounding in power without any additional strain on the team as the material is pressed tighter, and when the charge is completed the rebound force of the material throws the plunger out so that no time is lost between the charges.

The "Champion" continuous travel press is constructed with an automatic throw back which withdraws the plunger should the rebound force of the material not be sufficient to throw it out, so that no time is lost waiting for some one to pull the plunger out by hand, as is often necessary with other makes of machines where the rebound force of the material is depended on to throw the plungers out. This is a feature contained in no other continuous travel bailing press, and one which is highly appreciated by any one experienced in operating baling presses.

This machine is mounted on high steel wheels, and quickly moved from stack, and only requires the sinking of the front wheels a few inches, and all is ready for work; no stakes to drive and no bridges for the horses to climb. This machine, like all other "Champion" baling presses, is constructed with the "Champion" easily adjusted, quick relief perpetual bale chamber, the weight of the bales being regulated by simply turning a hand wheel on either side of the machine, and is provided with a bell ringing attachment which notifies the feeder when to drop long-faced for years, and just as they were in the partition blocks, making the bales getting their herds back to their original of a uniform length to suit the tie used. The "Champion" is manufactured by the Famous Manufacturing Co., Chicago, Ill., who also manufacture belt presses, four and six horse detached and attached power, and reversible lever presses, the largest and most complete line made in the world. The reputation of the company is a guarantee that the machines they turn out will be just as represented, and any of our readers intending to purchase a baling press should not fail to write for full descriptive circulars, prices and terms. When so doing, kindly mention this paper.

The Glory of the Range Industry Departing.

Rocky Mountain Husbandman.

"Gradually but surely the range industry sees the days of its glory depart. About 1884 it reached the zenith and hovered there about a year or two, when the decline set in. The first cause of this was the weakening of the market, but this was the sole cause for a short time only, for the feed supply soon became a serious question. The hard winter paralyzed the industry, so to speak, and our range stock owners were number the dry weather set in; and now the future is again filled with doubts and forebodings. The settlement of Montana after the dawn of the golden era was commenced principally along the Beaverhead, Ruby, Jefferson, Madison, Gallatin, Missouri, and Deer Lodge valleys. These valleys had come to be pretty well stocked before the close of the seventies, and the movement of herds to the Yellowstone, Musselshell, Judith, Sun river, Tetol, Marias, and other unsettled ranges was commenced. These new valleys were then the same stockman's paradise in those days that their earlier homes were in the sixties. But another decade has passed and we have entered the nineties, and we find to-day that the fencing of the water-courses, willow patches and the bottom land on our streams and their tributaries far up into the mountains, is driving the range-grower still further onto the frontier. They are now moving to the Milk river reservation country, and when this is full they will recoil upon the Crow and Blackfeet reservations. But there is no doubt but that the days of successful. range growing are well-nigh spent. The land owner is the man who is to eventfully hold the country. We pointed out this to the readers of this paper more than a dozen years ago, and many heeded our warning and have forfeited their positions with large land possessions. The day is not distant when these will be the only cattlegrowers of note in the state, as the country will be a network of tencing. The long line of barbedwire fences stretching out over our valleys tell in unmistakable terms that the range industry must go, must give way to the new order of things. The proder, about six hundred (600) head of Here- duction of stock will increase under the ford cattle, of which about four hundred new regime if the winter problem is solved, but if not numbers must be sacrificed to quality. Already many growers are making arrangements to curtail the increase of their herds by spaying their heifers; and as the country grows older gradually the best breeds will take the place of our present stock, for when it comes to winter feeding -an era that has already dawned upon fully one-half of the state—the scrub must go. When nature furnished the feed in an unlimited supply without the labor of man, angthing was good enough to own; but with the new order of affairs our people will not be slow to learn that it will pay best to grow the best. In the more open country sheep will largely predominate on our large ranches, as they flourish nicely on short-cropped ranges where cattle will die. But when it comes to the country being fenced from mountain base to river strand and to mountain base again, dairy herds and small bands of high-grade cattle will be the rule, since it will scarcely pay in this state to grow sheep in small flocks as is practiced in older states. We have been accustomed to the range system so long that we regret to see it depart, but it is the inevitable decree of civilization that it must go, and that too in a few short years. But cattle growing in the manner of which we have spoken—that is, on states principles-and dairying will remain as long as the succession of sun and storm renders our state habitable, and will be fully as remunerative as the same industry in any portion of the continent."

KENTUCKY HORSE NEWS.

LEXINGTON, KY., July 12, 1890.

The heated term was slightly broken here on Wednesday by a cold wave. However, it did not last long, and to-day it is as hot as ever.

Several fast trials have been made at the Fair Grounds track this week. Van Tassell, six-year-old, by Crittenden, went a mile in 2:26 1/2. Sternberg, two years, by Wilkes Boy, in 2:32, last quarter in 35 seconds. Angelina, four years, by Wilkes Boy, went in 2:23 1/2, first quarter in 34 seconds.

Dan O'Brien has taken up and put in training the old racer, Favor, by Pat Malloy, for Melton Young. He has been taken to Chicago where he will race at the West Side.

The match race between Palo Alto and Jack will, in some measure, settle the supremacy of the thoroughbred blood in the trotter. It will be a great race and will most likely be trotted at Detroit about August 1.

J. H. Close & Son have taken to South America a car load of trotters bought in this section the past two weeks.

A car-load of sick racers arrived in this city on last Tuesday from Chicago. They are to be turned out to recuperate for the fall races.

A private letter from Byron McClelland to a friend in this city states that Sally McClelland is in great form and will start for the junior champion stakes, to be run at Monmouth Park on July 18.

General Wilkes, with a record of 2:21 1/2, has again been taken up after a rest of three years. He will be prepared to reduce his record by Jas. Nebro.

Bonnie McGregor, 2:131/2, by Robt. Mc-Gregor, has also been put in training for the avowed purpose of reducing his record, which he is not very likely to do.

The $20,000 two-year-old by Wilkes Boy, lam Kinkora by Mambrino Patchen, has been a very sick horse for eight or ten days.

He is now slowly improving. A. A. Kitzmiller, Plainview Stud, this county, lost on Tuesday the brood mare Adieu by Administrator, dam by American Clay.

The Blue Grass Circuit will begin at Shelbyville ou the 16th. This is the first season of this circuit, which is likely to prove very successful. Large purses are being hung up by the members of the association, which will draw the entries and large \$1.80 per hundred. entries will draw the crowd.

Jno. H. Rutherford, the original purchaser and owner of the great little race horse, Badger, has again embarked in the racing business, having bought from Dan Swigert, Elmandorf stud, the yearling colt by Glenelly, out of the dam of Princess Blandina.

The $10,000 colt purchased by Green B. Morris at the Woodburn sale on Saturday at Monmouth Park, is a brother to S. S. Brown's great race horse Ironbottom.

J. M. Kimbrough, a member of the racing firm of Megibbon & Co., died on Saturday last at his home on South Broadway, this city, of typhoid fever.

H. P. Kelly, the trainer and driver of many celebrated trotters, has again gone wrong in his mind. He was thrown from a sulky a few weeks ago, receiving injuries about the head which again brought on his old trouble. He was the trainer and driver of the Wilkes horse, General Wilkes, that got a record of 2:21 1/2.

Messrs. Tracy & Wilson have had a carload of racers lodged in Cincinnati for the past week. The strikers spiked them and at this writing they are likely to remain for some time.

In the Horseman $12,500 guarantee stakes for foals of 1890, to be trotted in 1894, there are 59 entries by Electioneer and his sons, and 54 by sons and grand sons of George Wilkes, that is sons having more than five entries apiece. St. Bell is represented by 27 entries, while the largest number by any Wilkes horse is Jersey Wilkes.

The trotting races held at Georgetown on Saturday were a pronounced success. It was the first meeting of the organization.

To Texas Cattlemen.

I take pleasure in announcing to you that our business into Chicago has again increased from January 1 to June 30, 1890, 4799 cars over same time last year, while of our competitors, the Wabash gained 411 cars and the C. and A. lost 399 cars. For this I thank you for your liberal patronage. This is more gratifying to me, knowing you have been bored from time to time by publications in the Fort Worth Gazette about "Alton Cut," "Popular Cattle Route," "Interview with Prominent Cattlemen who had figured out the Short Line, etc.," and, besides, numerous cards with interviews on the back, circulars or tracts distributed by an aged gentlemen on the streets which informed you that Division D was in Texas, etc. Notwithstanding all this I feel happy to know that you have not been led astray by such misrepresentations as have been placed before you. We have advanced our local cattle rates east of Missouri points, while the rates from Texas and Territory points are not molested, and are as low via our line as via any other line, thus preventing the Missouri river business from going in on the low rate in com-petition with Texas business. The result of the famous Alton cut made a difference of one-third in favor of the shipper of cornfed cattle east of the Missouri river, while only one-eighth off for Texas business, thus resulting in a discrimination against you, instead of benefiting you, as claimed by representations of said line. We do not take cattle business from St. Louis to Chicago and therefore make no claim on your business, if routed that way, but if you wish to go direct to Chicago we have the shortest and most direct line and will be pleased to have your business that way.

Yours truly, H. T. KEENAN, General Agent C. B. & Q.

Tombstone, (Ari.) It is also suggested Mr. Hancock has placed his stallion, Coast flood-gates be closed for a few weeks the that the supervisors take some action to prevent coatagious diseases arising along the river from this cause.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS. III

Are by far the most commodious and best appointed in the Missouri valley, with ample capacity for feeding, weighing and shipping cattle, hogs, sheep, horses and mules. They are planked throughout, no yards are better watered, and in none is there a better system of drainage. The fact that better prices are realized here than in the East is due to the location at these yards of eight packing houses, with an aggregate daily capacity of 3600 cattle and 37,200 hogs, and the regular attendance of sharp, competitive buyers for the packing houses of Omaha, Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, New York and Boston.

All the sixteen roads running into Kansas City have direct connection with the yards, affording the best accommodations for stock coming from the great grazing grounds of all the Western states and territories, and also for stock destined for Eastern markets.

The business of the yards is done systematically and with the utmost promptness, so there is no delay and no clashing, and stockmen find here, and will continue to find, that they get all their stock is worth, with the least possible delay.

Receipts for 1889 were 1,220,343 cattle, 2,073,910 hogs, 370,772 sheep and 34,563 horses and mules. Total number of cars, 83,972.

Kansas City Stock Yards' HORSE AND MULE MARKET,

W. S. Tough, Manager.

This company has established in connection with the yards an extensive horse and mule market, known as the Kansas City Stock Yards' Horse and Mule Market. Have always on hand a large stock of all grades of horses and mules, which are bought and sold on commission or in car-load lots. Regular trade auction sales every Wednesday and Saturday.

In connection with the sales market are large feed stables and pens, where all stock will receive the best attention. Special attention given to receiving and forwarding. The facilities for handling this kind of stock are unsurpassed at any stable in this country. Consignments are solicited with the guarantee that prompt settlement will be made when stock is sold.

Live Stock Market of Texas.

The management of the Union Stock Yards Company of Fort Worth with pleasure announce to the stockmen of Texas that these yards are open for feeding purposes, and that all stock delivered at the yards will receive every care in unloading and reloading, be held in spacious, well-drained pens, amply supplied with artesian water and the best of feed. Ample hotel facilities at the yards for stockmen.

As the yards are on the direct line of traffic to greater markets stockmen can avail themselves of the ample facilities afforded at these yards without increase in expense or loss of time. The largest trains can be unloaded at once.

The Union Stock Yards Company of Fort Worth confidently rely upon the earnest co-operation of the stock raisers of Texas in the effort to build and operate a large home market in their interest. To do so stockmen should insist that all stock passing through Fort Worth be unloaded and fed at these yards.
