KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—Receipts of cattle for the week amounted to 44,115 and 2085 head of calves. Two-thirds of the receipts have been Texas and Western cattle.

Grass Texas and Indian cattle have been selling since our last report about the lowest of any time this season, owing to heavy runs both here and elsewhere. The quality has generally been very poor. Tuesday and to-day clearances were more easily made and the indications were a shade stronger especially on any good killing kinds.

The following actual sales give the best idea of the state of the market:

The Fish & Keck Co. sold for Williamson, Blair & Co., Caldwell, Ks, 87 grass Tex. cows, 892 lbs, $1.65; 23 Tex. calves, $6.50 each; J A Blair, do, 48 grass Tex. steers, 1070 lbs, $2.65; L Rogers, Stringtown, I T, 25 grass Ind.

ST. LOUIS.

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, ILL., Oct. 31.—About 125 cars of Texas and Indian cattle was a large run for Friday and it found a dull and draggy market on a low basis. Some large strings of cows and heifers sold steady as compared with previous sales during the week, and some good steers sold steady also, but the general market was unsatisfactory to the selling interest, and there was no spirit to the trading. Steers sold for $2.25 to $2.90; cows $1 to $1.70; heifers $1.60 to $1.75.

The Evans-Snider-Buel Co. sold 215 steers, 883 pounds, $2.60; 51 steers, 934 pounds, $2.65.

Scaling & Tamblin sold 321 cows and heifers, 833 pounds, $1.70.

Cassidy Bros. & Co. sold 244 cows and heifers, 832 pounds, $1.70.

The Jas. H. Campbell Co. sold 250 cows and heifers, 807 pounds, $1.70.

Yesterday C. M. Keyes & Co. sold 21 Indian steers, 1050 pounds, $2.90; 41 do, 1309 pounds, $3.55.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 31.—The market is fully supplied with beef cattle, calves and yearlings. Good stock fairly active; poor stock hard to sell. Hogs in large supply.

Sheep continue in demand. Choice beeves, 2^a/₃ to 3c; common to fair, 1^a/₂ to 2c; good fat cows, $13 to 15; common to fair, $8 to 12; calves, $5 to 8; yearlings, $7 to 10; fair to good hogs, 4 to 4 1/2 c; fair to good fat sheep, $2.50 to 3.50 each.

SAN ANTONIO.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 31.—Market overloaded with cattle of every description and no lack of receipts. Market demoralized. Buyers pay what they please and are hard to please at any price. It is impossible to give reliable quotations. Goats in moderate receipt and good demand at 75c to $1.50 per head.

Muttons, few on market; demand fair at $2 to 2.50 per head.

Better demand for hogs. Fat hogs, weighing from 125 to 175 pounds, have a ready sale at 3 1/2 to 4c per pound, live weight. No sale for heavy fat hogs. Thin hogs neglected.

CHICAGO MARKET LETTER.

U. S. YARDS, CHICAGO, ILL., }
Oct. 27, 1890. }
Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.

Receipts last week were 80,900 cattle, 216,440 hogs, 50,600 sheep. Previous week 74,600 cattle, 128,000 hogs, 43,000 sheep. Corresponding week last year 69,800 cattle, 139,000 hogs, 45,300 sheep.

Low grade native cattle have been selling at $2.75 to 3.75, while choice to fancy beeves have been selling at $5 to 5.15 and up to $5.35. This is a wide range between poor and good stock.

Horses of common quality are coming in very large numbers and are selling rather low, but the demand for good horses, especially heavy drafters, is more than equal to the supply.

The goat market is not very brisk. A lot of 260 goats sold at $1.12 1/2 per head.

The general sheep market has been good lately at $4 to 5.60 for natives, $3.50 to 4.35 for grass westerns, $4 to 4.65 for fed westerns, and $3.50 to 4.50 for Texans; poor to prime.

The Home Land and Cattle company marketed 312 head of 1157-lb Montana-Texans at $3.25; the Keystone company sold 209 head of 1146-lb Dakota-Texans at $3.25.

The best Western range cattle were the Jordan & Hedrick Montana steers averaging 1330 lbs at $3.85.

The floods of half-fat and thin young native cattle continue unabated.

Greer, Mills & Co. sold for D Good, 91 steers, 1187 lbs, $2.90; Saginaw Cattle company, 360 steers, 893 lbs, $2.45; Worsham Cattle company, 178 calves, 247 lbs, $3.75; 19 steers, 1006 lbs, $2.60; 25 calves, 332 lbs, $2.50; 165 cows, 823 lbs, $1.75; 32 bulls, 1154 lbs, $1.25; A J Long, —, 808 lbs, $1.80; 21 bulls, 1064 lbs, $1.30.

ST. LOUIS MARKET LETTER.

Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.

EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL., Oct. 27, 1890.—The receipts of all classes of Texas and Indian cattle at this market during this week were about the same as the week previous. Local demands were strong, and forced prices up a little, in the face of large supplies at other markets.

The receipts to-day were light for Monday—only about sixty car loads—all from the territory. For good cattle the market was strong; medium grades were easier, and common grades slightly lower.

Recent sales are as follows:

James H Campbell & Co sold for Stonewall Cattle Co., 26 cows, 708 lbs, $1.75; 317 cows, 825 lbs, $1.65; 109 steers, 1121 lbs, $2.65. Wright and Hand, Taylor, Tex., 87 steers, 991 lbs, $2.45. ADVANTAGES OF UVALDE.

A Field that will Yield Rich Returns to Enterprising Investors.

What Has Been Done and What Can Be Done in that Thriving City of the Southwest.—Brief Sketches of the Men.

"Sweet Auburn, loveliest village of the plain. Where health and plenty cheer the laboring swain. Where smiling Spring its earliest visit pays. And parting Summer's lingering bloom delays."

Sweet Auburn, indeed: yet not the deserted village of Goldsmith, but a quaint, old-fashioned, busy, wide-awake, typical Western Texas town. Unlike the Auburn of Goldsmith's youth, its retrospective requiem is as yet unthought-of and will remain un-sung.

UVALDE has never had a boom, but with a quiet, progressive growth has forged ahead, keeping pace with the development of Texas, until to-day it is one of the PRINCIPAL TOWNS west of San Antonio; from its depot on the line of the Southern Pacific annually are shipped over a million pounds of wool, raised in this and the neighboring counties of Zavalla and Edwards, that for a major part come here to receive their freights and do their trading for supplies and banking.

THOUSANDS OF BEEVES annually go to market through this mart, and tons of honey are here annually shipped to Northern and Western markets. Over two hundred thousand pounds of this staple has been produced and marketed from this county this year, and conservative apiarists estimate the capacity of the county at 4,000,000 pounds per annum.

THE POPULATION of the town of Uvalde numbers about 2500, of which about 500 are Mexicans. Uvalde is situated on the Leona river, about ninety miles west of San Antonio, on the line of the Southern Pacific railroad, which traverses the southern portion of the county, having a mileage of forty-four miles within the county, and an assessed valuation of $352,668. It is the county seat and is incorporated. The principal streets of the city have been graded, and a large force is employed each year improving them. The town is over forty years old, and derives its name from Col. Ugalde, who achieved quite a reputation as an Indian fighter in the days of the Republic of Texas. The founders of the city, with rare judgment, laid out the town on a generous scale.

The streets are sixty and ninety feet wide, lined with giant live-oaks, that cast their generous shades on all the public thoroughfares of the city. In the center of the city four large squares, or plazas, market, fountain, city hall and court house have been laid out, and these have been inclosed with a neat fence, and when set out in shade trees and shrubbery, as will be in the near future, will be the peer of any public square in the state. The contract for a new $35,000 has been let, and the contractors are now actively at work constructing the new building. Among the contemplated improvements are a brick bank building; $10,000 club and opera house; a new Baptist church; and those who are in a position to know promise waterworks, electric lights and an ice factory within the next twelve months.

The beautiful Leona river finds its source in a dozen or more bold springs in a private park within a stone's throw of the court house.

ITS EARLY HISTORY.

At one time a government post was maintained at old Fort Inge, a rocky mountain on the east side of the Leona, some three miles below the town, and several companies, both of the State Rangers and United States regulars, were stationed here; an extensive wall and fortifications were built and maintained from 1850 to 1868. Time was when the deadly revolver, the bowie and scalping knife were used to punctuate its history, and in its churchyard sleep the heroes of many a deadly duel; but to-day, owing to a healthy administration of justice, stimulated by law abiding and progressive citizens and the brave and fearless officers who execute the law, Uvalde's peaceful streets proclaim a challenge to Christendom to produce a more quiet, law abiding town. The records of misdemeanors in the office of the justice of the peace show fifty-eight cases in twelve months, many of which were of so trivial a character as to warrant their dismissal. It is a fact worthy of note in this connection, that no less than four prosecuting officers have resigned in the past three years, as the fees in prosecuting cases were so scarce and light that they would not justify the trouble of holding the position. His Honor stated this morning that the prisoners are well fed and cared for. Uvalde's jail is the poorest public building in the county, and as a reflection may be construed in any light and still be found to redound to the credit of the county's law abidingness. A new iron-clad fire-proof vault has been built for the county records in the clerk's office, and the county records are now secure from destruction. It is as commodious and as well ventilated and lighted as any in the state.

Not the least of Uvalde's many attractions is the hospitality of the people, and it is characteristic of the West. Here where homespun and broadcloth all mingle in one great tide, all actuated by a common interest to help themselves and the county, there is no room for meanness, no niche for envy, hatred and malice.

"Not an idle man and not a house for rent in the town of Uvalde." That sentence casually let drop by one of our only exhilarate the air with their fragrance, but furnish food for the thousands of swarms of bees, whose labor, not unlike that of the coral insects of nty of stock water, productive apiaries, prospective waterworks, ice factory, gin house, cold storage and refrigerating houses, new court house in process of construction, fair grounds with a small army of men at work, new buildings going up in every quarter of town, contract awarded for new brick bank building, fall wool clip being marketed, heavy sales of ranch properties and the advent of prospectors after small farms, Uvalde is is not getting, but has "got there." But there is no boom and the town does not want one. The county being rich in taxable values can afford a new court house. It is but natural that sheep on a good range, in a genial climate, should produce thousands of pounds of wool; that rich land, when properly cultivated and blessed with seasonable rains, should bring forth abundant crops, that increased business and bank clearances should necessitate new banks and better bank buildings; that an increasing population requires more newspaper facilities, that the existence of fine stock creates a demand for county fairs; that acres of wild flowers accessible to thousands of bees means tons of honey; that plenty of mesquite grass and plenty of stock water means fat cattle; that plenty of timber means cheap and abundant fuel; that running rivers mean ample water power; and it is but natural for people to gravitate to the richest undeveloped county in Texas, where every variety of soil, mountain, bottom and plain, can be found.

THE SOIL.

The general character of the soil is a light, clayey loam, though in the mountains of the northern portion of the county, the prairies of the central, the timber of the southern and along the bottoms of the various water courses, nearly any variety can be found.

THE TIMBER

embraces the different varieties of oak, the elm, pecan, cedar, mesquite, and other trees found in a like latitude are scattered profusely throughout the county, insuring a plentiful supply of fuel, enough to meet the most exorbitant demands of generations yet to come. countless swarms of bees. This soil is as rich and productive as any prairie lands in the state. Tons of hay are annually harvested in this strip. In summer the whir of the mower is heard and the air is fragrant with the odor of new mown hay. From the edge of the prairie to the southern county line the brush grows thicker, the banks of the rivers are lined by majestic pecans, live-oaks and cottonwoods; whilst along the middle ground can be found an abundance of timber. A phalanx of mesquite extend their thick branches to meet the norther's blast, affording

Grand total expenses of white and colored public schools for the scholastic year 1889-90, $6278.32.

CHURCHES.

The Episcopal, Methodist, Catholic, Presbyterian and Christian denominations are well represented and have substantial church edifices, whilst the Baptists have just perfected arrangements to build a church house on their lots. These churches are well attended and the Sabbaths are quietly observed by a thoughtful and God-fearing people.

AGRICULTURAL.

Uvalde county is generally spoken and thought of as a stock-raising county, and whilst this is so its agricultural capacities are of no mean order.

In the pleasant canyons, along the numerous river bottoms, on the prairies and in the timber portions, can be found to-day farms that raised as good corn and as large a yield per acre as any county in the state. Owing to the mildness of the climate, gardens can be maintained almost all the year. Cotton, potatoes, wheat, oats, sugar cane and the vegetables usually found in this latitude can be grown in almost any portion of county, and the yield can be compared with any in the state. A

VIEW IN MAIN FRIO CANYON—UVALDE COUNTY.

Frio, Blanco and Sabinal rivers, traversing the county in a southerly direction to the county line.

These streams, with the Leona river, that rises at the base of the mountains, together with numerous creeks and tributaries, unquestionably make this the best watered county, in proportion to size, in the state. In their passage through the hills they pass through picturesque canyons that occasionally widen out into fertile valleys—the site of many a productive farm. The yield of corn and cotton to the acre along these canyons has been as great this year as any county in Eastern Texas. These are marked facts that can be substantiated on inspection. It is beyond question that were once operated by the Spaniards in the mountains of this county. Deep hidden in the bosoms of our rugged hills lie treasures of silver, gold, coal, kaolin, red and yellow ochre and iron ore; awaiting the advent of capital and industry for their unearthing and development. Some years since, Mr. John Elliot, an engineer, settled in Uvalde county, and has taken much interest in her mineral resources. His efforts were crowned by the discovery of a vast DEPOSITS OF ASPHALTUM, which if properly developed will place upon the market immense quantities of paving material.

Before leaving the subject of minerals, the rich oxide of iron, recently tested by Gen. John R. Baylor, should not be overlooked. It is said that practical tests were made that gave satisfactory results. Several sections of land abound with quantities of this ore.

At the base of the hills a PRAIRIE, from eight to twelve miles in width, stretches to the south and east. This prairie is covered with mesquite grass and trees, with an occasional mot of live-oaks. In the western portion of this strip the fragrant huayilla and cat-claws abound, furnishing food for the protection and shelter to stock in summer and winter.

It is in this portion of the county that the irrigated farms are to be found. They have an area of 12,000 acres of cultivated lands, and thousands of other acres just as productive hem them in on every side.

THE COUNTY'S FINANCES

are in a healthy condition. County scrip is taken at par by local banks and merchants. The first installments of court house bonds, $10,000, were sold at par; every fund in the county is in a healthy condition. The total assessed value of property in the county is $2,755,702; ad valorem state tax, $5511.60; school tax, $3144.63; poll tax, $853; ad valorem county tax, $2204.58; district school tax, first district, $1965.82. Total state and county tax, $19,045.59. Amount received from state apportionment public schools, $4513.50.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

There are ten school districts in the county with twelve school houses. The scholastic population of the county is 1003. The schools are under the management of competent educators and are all in a thriving condition. The graded schools of this city, under Prof. Spillman and a corps of teachers, have achieved quite a reputation, and many parents have moved their families here to educate their children. It is now impossible to rent a dwelling house or residence of any description in the town.

We quote the following from the last annual report of the Hon. N. M. C. Patterson, county judge, on the condition of the Uvalde county public schools:

also one colored female teacher holding third grade certificate.

No delay has been experienced in the payment of teachers' salaries. On the whole, the school year has been almost as satisfactory as could have been expected.

We have one graded and high school in the county; the others are all ungraded. Prof. W. J. Spillman informs me that it has become necessary to add another grade to the graded high school. This school is in excellent condition, and the teachers are diligent and doing their work well. The school is improving, and one of the evidences is the large number of transfers that are being made from the different districts of the county, as well as from other counties; children are also being brought from Mexico to attend this school.

The standing of the public schools in this county, except the school in district No. 1, which levies a special school tax, has been brought up to almost as high a standard as they can be without the expenditure of more money.

School district No. 1 four years ago levied a special school tax of twenty cents on the one hundred dollars taxable property within the district, thereby enabling the school to run a term eight months; the remaining districts of the county have as yet levied no special tax. However, the people of this county still continue to become more interested in the cause of education.

There has been expended in Uvalde county for schools and school purposes for the scholastic year 1889-90 as follows, to-wit:

In school district No. 1 there was expended in payment of teachers out of the public school fund $2312.79; out of the special school fund $1337.21; contingent expenses, $332.88; total, $3982.88.

In district No. 2 there was expended out of the public school fund in pay-number of parties have been experimenting with cotton for the last few years and find that the fleecy staple will grow as well here as elsewhere. Our soil stands drouths better than sandy lands, and our farmers to-day invite comparison of their stands of cotton with those situated in the sandy belt east of here. A cotton gin will be put up this fall and cotton will not be the least important of our exports for 1890 and '91.

Parties well versed in

predict that this section will be known throughout the state in the next few years, as the grape-growing section. Certain it is that the vines already planted here are thriving and bearing to the satisfaction of those who have planted them.

THE FAIR.

The Uvalde county fair association was organized this summer, with a capital stock of $10,000. A three-day fair will be held this fall, November 7th, 8th and 9th, at which time parties interested in Uvalde and her sister and tributary counties of Zavalla and Edwards can form a fair opinion of the standing of these counties. The fair grounds are situated about a mile west of town and are covered by beautiful spreading oak trees and carpeted with a thick coat of grass. A large force of men are now at work preparing the grounds, mile track, buildings, etc.

UVALDA'S INDUSTRIES

are in brief:

1. A cattle and beef-growing county;
2. A sheep-raising and wool-producing county;
3. A horse, jack and mule-raising county;
4. An agricultural, fruit-growing and gardening county;
5. A honey-raising county;
6. A Mohair-raising county;
6. A mineral county—asphalt, three varieties of mineral paint; coal, kaolin, iron, gold, silver, marble and inexhaustible quarries of building stone.

IT IS HER BOAST

That she is the best watered county in the West.

That she has the best water power in the West.

That she is the best timbered county in the West.

That she has as good as any, if not the best, grazing land in the West.

That she has more paying and diversified interests than any county in the West.

That she will be when properly developed the banner agricultural county of the West.

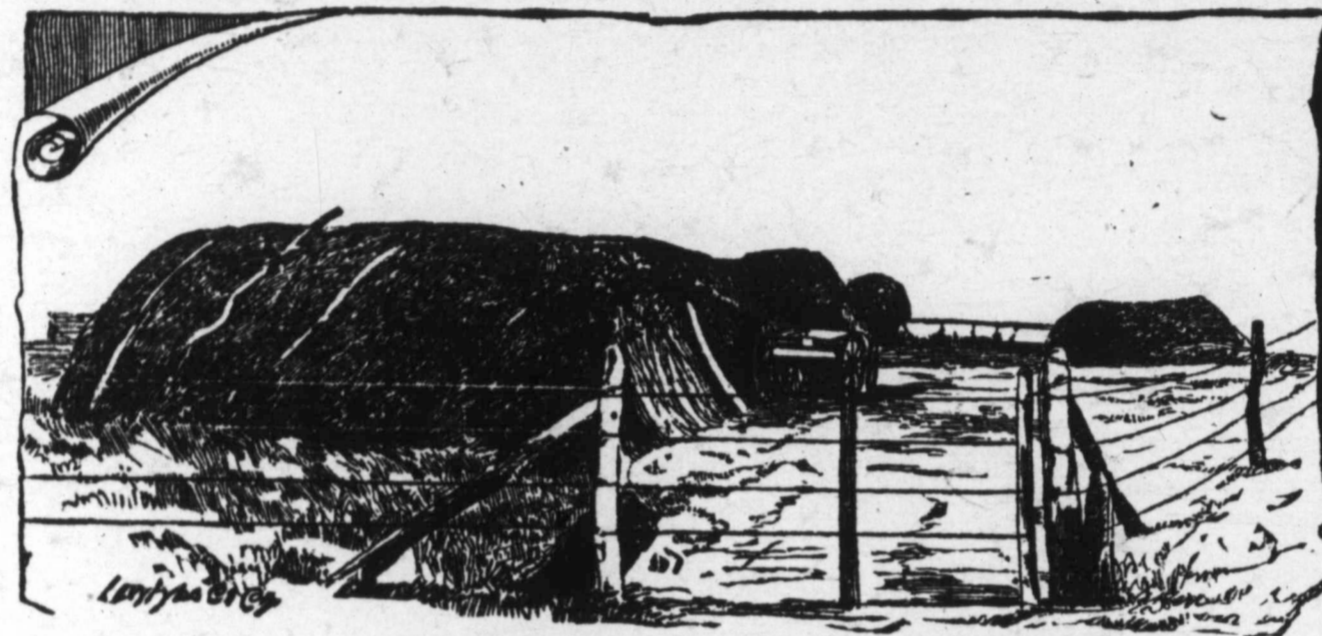

That she has the best climate in the West, thanks to her barrier of mountains that check the north's blasts of winter and her forests of timber that cool the hot winds of summer.

RANCHMEN

for the past few years have been bending their energies to the improvement of their stock. The best of improved graded and registered stock of every description can be found throughout the county. Registered Jerseys, pigs, thoroughbred horses, graded bulls, imported jacks, etc., can be found on every ten square miles of the county surface.

The opening of the fair this fall will mark the dawning of a new era in this county, and as the old order changes, new shoulders, strong and young, will come to the wheel of progress. The brave old patriots and frontiersmen who wrested this country from the Indians, can look on with pride at the work of the rising generation. Texas reclaimed from the hand of the savage. Texas, once the abode of the red man and cayote, now a great state teeming with intelligent thousands, restless with business activity and growing cities. Since the giant struggles in cycles past when the earth was formed out of chaos, the prairies of this fair state have been decked with a thousand hues of wild flowers that have laughingly smiled in the summer's sun or glistened under the weight of the prismatic icicles of winter. The seed grass and decaying vegetations of centuries have enriched the soil. Beneath the upper crust tons of mineral have awaited the birth of the present era for their unearthing and development. When the listening senates of Greece and Rome were entranced by the eloquence of Demosthenes and Cicero, the daffodils and water lilies along the banks of the Nueces, Leona and Sabinal were enraptured by the murmur of those as yet unfettered streams, happy in the consciousness that for centuries yet to come they would be untrammelled in their course to the sea by the turbine wheels of manufactures that will ere long obstruct them. Now farms and ranch houses dot the plains and valleys, whilst here and there along the mountains can be found the rude hut of the miner. The day is coming when dense clouds of smoke will hover over the water-courses, marking manufacturing centers; when the whistling of the looms will mingle with the droning of bees, making yet sweeter music through hill and valley. This is not a fancy sketch, but a glimpse of the future of this county and state whose ultimate prosperity no mind can accurately conceive or pen exaggerate.

Parties having a limited amount of capital to invest in real estate, out of which they can make a living and in ten-years 100 per cent. on their investment, will do well to come to Uvalde. To those who have no means Uvalde county presents the same difficulties as elsewhere. Parties desiring information will do well to look over the county for themselves or correspond with any citizen of the county.

Could nature's beauty satisfy the breast,
Uvalde's sons are sure by nature blest.
Whatever fruits in different climes are found

That proudly rise or humbly court the ground:
Whatever blooms in torrid tracts appear,
Whose bright succession deck the varied year:
Whatever sweets salute the northern sky
With vernal blooms that blossom but to die.
These here disporting own the kindred soil.
Nor ask luxuriance from the planters toll.
While sea-born gales their gelid wings expand
To winnow fragrance round the smiling land.

Uvalde's Business Men.

F. A. PIPER.

Perhaps the foremost man of the county is F. A. Piper. He has a large, substantial, iron-clad series of ware rooms on the principal street, and carries a very extensive general assortment of goods and does a large wholesale and retail business. The citizens of Uvalde county owe him a debt of gratitude which they seem generously disposed to keep alive. Some years since, during the great two-year's drouth which parched the water-holes not make much noise about it, but is sure selling lots of groceries.

PETER BRIESH

Is a native of Poland, a young marriageable gentleman, and undoubtedly the handsomest merchant in the city. He commenced in Uvalde years ago with a small stock of goods, and by strict attention to business and reasonable treatment has now one of the finest general assortments in the city. He occupies a building on the corner of Main plaza, and is very affable in his treatment of all who know him.

A. S. HATCH

Has a fine stock of general goods, and does a large country trade, occasionally dabbling in wool, pecans, hides and other country products. He has been with us for many years, and has built up such a reputation for honesty and integrity that he seldom ever loses a customer.

D. M. EDWARDS.

Mr. Edwards is probably the leading bee man of the county. He is a cheerful correspondent and his honey will soon attain the national pre-eminence to which it is entitled.

S. K. STEIN.

Mr. Stein has recently erected a two-story Masonic building. His large stock of general merchandise fills the ground floor. This building adds greatly to the business appearance of the street upon which it is situated. Mr. Stein is also a man of the turf, and takes an interest in fine cattle and sporting matters.

LOUIS SCHWARTZ.

Mr. Schwartz keeps a general stock of merchandise; has one of the best stands in the city, and a large and paying town and country trade. L. Schwartz is one of the land-marks of the county.

NIPPA & WALKER BROS.

This enterprising firm occupy a building fronting on City Hall square. They carry a well assorted stock of general merchandise, and have a growing trade.

WILL FRANK

Is perhaps the youngest merchant in the West. He confines himself strictly to the grocery trade, and endeavors by fair dealings and honest goods to deserve the patronage that is so liberally showered upon him.

TOM MARTIN.

Mr. Tom Martin is the principal merchant in North Uvalde, and is very successful in his business. Tom is one of those popular boys who wins everybody to him that knows him. Although he has been established but a few months, he has succeeded in building up a first-class trade.

A. M. RICE.

Mr. A. M. Rice is a native of Nova Scotia, but came to Texas several years ago. He carries a full stock of saddles and harness and everything in his line. He has made the study of the back and comfort of the cow pony a specialty, and his saddles have a state reputation. Mr. Rice keeps a corps of expert harness and saddle makers busy and his trade is constantly growing.

WATT & HOLLINGSWORTH.

These gentlemen keep a fine assortment of drugs and stationery. They have a neat iron-clad building and one

A. J. WOODS.

A. J. Woods handles a large stock of family groceries. He is a close observer of the San Antonio, Kansas City and St. Louis markets, and keeps a full supply of the very best and purest groceries to be obtained, and those who visit our hotels and groceries sometimes wonder how it is that a border town can afford such excellent supplies. Mr. Woods is an old Texan, a typical merchant, who quietly "pursues the even tenor of his way;" does of the best stands in the city. Dr. C. W. Watt is a thorough druggist, and his young partner is one of the most pleasing and popular gentlemen in the city. This firm has always contributed generously to all public enterprises and they are classed among the live business men of the county.

DR. E. L. BIRMINGHAM.

Dr. Birmingham is one of Uvalde's oldest citizens, and his interest is Uvalde's. He is a thorough physician, surgeon and druggist. He gives much time to his store and his study, and keeps a general assortment of everything that pertains to the apothecary department.

W. B. BOWLES.

This gentleman is the oldest boniface in Uvalde. His hotel is well known and well liked. Nowhere in Texas do guests receive more kind and considerate attention than at his hotel. He has a fine cook and keeps up his own garden; and then when the meal is over and the pipes are lit, no man can tell an anecdote with more interest than old Uncle Doak, for he is the man "to tell the story."

THE LEONA HOTEL.

This establishment is managed by Dr. F. M. Martin, and takes its place amongst the best of the city. Pleasantly and centrally located, surrounded by shrubbery and flowers, the appetites of the guests are sharpened by the pleasantness of its surroundings, and are only satisfied when they have partaken of the ample cheer of the dining room.

"SARGENT'S."

Sargent's hotel is widely and favorably known, especially to traveling men. "Mine host" sets a first class table and keeps everything scrupulously clean.

PRIVATE BOARDING.

The necessity of a first-class boarding house is felt in every community. At Mrs. DuBois', in this city, is a place to satisfy the demands of the most fastidious. The rooms are well ventilated and handsomely furnished, and the table is kept up with the best the market affords.

RESTAURANTS.

At G. E. Mansfield's restaurant, when the gong sounds at meal times, can be found a tempting and substantial meal. This is a new venture, and thus far has proved a successful one.

GOFF & BOWERS'

Restaurant is in the same block, and well deserves the patronage which it receives. The stand is centrally located and is well patronized.

THE RAILROAD RESTAURANT

Is located a few hundred feet south of the Southern Pacific depot. It is carefully managed by Mr. Johnson, and is well patronized.

JOE M. DOUGHTY.

Joe was born on the Mission river, Nueces county, Texas. He keeps a large, well regulated saloon, and his wines, liquors, cigars and tables are the best the market affords. Joe is an old saloon man and a typical one. He has a hearty laugh, and looks on the bright side of life. He has generally been a great contributor to all public enterprises and entertainments, and works for Uvalde's good.

KELSO & DYE'S,

Better known as the "Two Captains." They are two quiet, thoughtful and public spirited citizens. Their saloon is very popular, and their customers always speak kindly of the treatment they receive there. They also have a billiard room in the rear of the building, where those who have an afternoon off may spend a quiet evening.

GOFF & BOWLES.

Their saloon is also very popular, and the two young gentlemen who run it are thorough business men, popular and attentive to their customers. Theirs is an old stand. They also keep a billiard room.

L. M. THOMAS.

Mr. Thomas makes a specialty of boots and shoes, and has such a hold on the town trade that competition has always melted before him. He came to Uvalde to stay and has staid. His shop is centrally located and his men are always busy.

L. D. BRASHEAR.

Mr. Brashear keeps a fine livery stable and bus line, and takes especial pride in supplying the public demand for buggies and horses. His stable is located on the Main plaza. Mr. Brashear is firmly located and has cast his interests with Uvalde county, and is well posted as to her resources and business prospects.

UNCLE CHARLEY SMITH.

Most any morning along about daylight, with his buckskin gauntlets on, you can see Uncle Charley sally from his livery stable with his four-in-hand "bus." He has been with us many years, and is almost as familiar to the traveling public as Hank Monk was in the Rockies forty years ago. He keeps a good stable.

PETER GUYON.

Mr. Guyon is a wheelwright, blacksmith, carpenter and undertaker of very high merit. He is from Canada, but has been with us long enough to be an old citizen. He handles everything in the undertakers' line.

E. A. MILLER.

Mr. Miller is also a blacksmith and wheelwright of high merit, and commands a good trade.

GILBERT GORDON.

Gilbert is a colored man, but has a fine blacksmith shop and a large number of patrons. He is a permanent fixture in Uvalde county, and a quiet and industrious citizen.

CAPT. WILLIAM BENSON.

Capt. Benson is one of Uvalde's most successful sheepmen. There is no better informed man in the county. He is an ex-county surveyor, and has also given much time and study to the wool and bee interest of Uvalde.

TOWNES & COLLIER.

A strong firm of real estate and live stock agents is the firm of Townes & Collier. Mr. Nat. D. Townes is a young man from North Texas. He is a very brilliant man and is full of fire and energy. His partner, W. W. Collier, is county treasurer, and is also a young man full of life. They have a large office, well supplied with maps and a long list of ranches, houses and town lots for sale or lease in this and adjoining counties; and also a large number of ranches.

UVALDE'S BAR.

Uvalde boasts of one of the strongest bars in Western Texas—Ellis & Archer, Willett & Willett, Clark & Old, and A. A. Dial. These firms also do a general land business in connection with their law practice, and have desirable properties for sale.

THE UVALDE NEWS,

D. W. Barnhill, editor and manager, has done much for the upbuilding of the town and county. This paper has a wide circulation and is carefully edited.

THE UVALDE REFLECTOR,

Oscar Baker, proprietor and manager, is a new venture, the first issue appearing this month; and it gives promise of becoming a most important factor in the upbuilding of the county.

THE UVALDE SOCIAL CLUB

Has a membership of over sixty. Its rooms are well lighted and conveniently located. The latest leading periodicals and magazines are to be found on its tables. A well stocked library, gymnasium, billiard and pool room make it a pleasant place for a leisure hour. Wednesday night is dedicated to the ladies, and the fair sex avail themselves of the opportunity and attend en masse the informal receptions and hops, and thus understand what it is that attracts the men "down to the club."

Plans and specifications for a new two-story brick have recently been prepared by a San Antonio architect. This building will be erected in the near future, and those in a position to know say that Uvalde will have a national and private bank by next summer.

One of the most beautiful groves in the state is to be found in the private park but a stone's throw from the court house. Numerous springs here well up and form the Leona river.

Among the contemplatek improvements that will be started in the county during the next twelve months, not above enumerated, are waterworks and electric light plant; an ice factory; a cotton gin; street car service; and a company is now organizing a cold storage and refrigerator slaughter house. It is estimated that the population will more than double in the next three years, and that taxable values will be increased 100 per cent.

J. T. WILLETT.

"In six weeks we had 158 mules and horses sick with bots and colic. We used the Bots and Colic Specific put up by C. F. Jensen & Co., Burton, Texas, and lost only one animal."—Col. L. A. Ellis, Austin, Texas.

"This is the best medicine for bots and colic on record."—C. W. Reddick, manager of L. A. Ellis & Sons' plantation.

"During the spring and summer of 1888 I lost seven mules from bots and colic, after trying everything I could think of. In 1889 I commenced using the Bots and Colic Specific put up by C. F. Jensen & Co., Burton, Texas, and since have not lost a single animal." It is the best bots and colic medicine in the world."—R. J. Ransom, Harlem plantation, Texas.

A Whole Noshogay of Prizes.

The Minita ranch herd of Devons of A. Y. Walton, jr., & Co. of Bexar county carried off several large bunches of premiums at the Dallas fair, to go alongside of their premiums won at San Antonio. This is a triumph for a Texas breeder, as some of the best cattle in the United States were pitted against the Minita ranch herd, but the Texas cattle walked off with the blue ribbon.

Among the prizes taken are the following:

- Best bull 3 years old and over, first.
- Best bull 1 year old and under 2, first.
- Best bull calf, first.
- Best cow 3 years and over, first.
- Best cow 2 years and under 3, first and second.
- Best cow 1 year and under 2, first and second.

- Best heifer calf, first and second.
- Best bull any age, first and second.
- Best cow any age, first and second.
- Best herd any age, first and second.

Cattle exhibited from the Minita ranch were beaten only one time, and that by a cow that is a full sister to Champion Cap, their heavy bull.

Mr. Walton has repeatedly been told by experts that his bull Marquis of Minita is one of the finest Devon bulls in America.

The Devon, as a beef-producing animal, heads the list, and now that Texas has a refrigerator running, and there is a demand for good beefs, it is time for our cattlemen to turn their attention to the beef-producing breeds. We shall have more to say about them soon.

Feeding Oats.

Western Swinehead.

A. G. Gilmour of Greensburg, Ind., says: I have often fed oats to hogs. I first feed them in a mixture of corn and oats, half and half, ground together. This plan I found to be too expensive, as the legal toll here was one-sixth of the grain, which often proved to be one-fourth. I generally poured boiling water over the mixture and let it stand for about twelve hours before feeding. Sometimes I mixed with cold water. Afterward I scalded oats and let them stand twelve hours, and after had cooled, mixed them with middlings, bran and corn meal, using one-half oats in the mixture. This I found to be the cheapest way of feeding them. I feed a great deal of mill feed. I have always thought oats too expensive to feed to hogs while they are being prepared for the block, as it takes three bushels of oats to produce as much fat as one bushel of corn. I have been raising fine hogs for breeding purposes almost exclusively for the last thirty-six years, and I have found oats to be a great bone and muscle former. With a diet of which oats are a part I could raise hogs possessing a better constitution than that of hogs raised on any other diet.

Eclipse and Star Mills.

We make a specialty of water supply for ranches, stock farms, city factories or residences. Furnish horse powers, pumping jacks and well drilling machinery. The STAR and new improved long stroke ECLIPSE mills are the best known in the market. Agents for Fairbanks' scales, Blake's steam pumps, etc. We repair boilers, engines, and all kinds of machinery. A POINT that Texas cattlemen should always keep in view: poor cattle decline in value, but good cattle keep up in the markets. If you want to raise cattle to sell, raise good ones. If you are in the business for fun, and raise cattle to give away, it doesn't matter how poor they are.

THE man who doesn't believe Texas can do anything in the way of fine stock has not attended the Dallas fair, nor read the list of premiums to see what proportion of them have been awarded to Texas-raised stock. There is plenty of fine stock in Texas, but our Texas breeders are very backward in telling the people about it.

THE progressive town of Uvalde is a point toward which great interest is now being directed, and the STOCK JOURNAL, which, like John Howard, is "of and for Texas," gives some interesting facts and figures about the town and county. This descriptive article was written by Mr. J. T. Willett, and those who read it will bear testimony that it is excellently well done.

LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

A Successful Manager.

Col. H. H. Campbell, superintendent of the Matador ranch, who is soon to retire from active connection with that business, has been one of the most successful ranch managers in Texas, as is evidenced by the success of the Matador company where so many others have failed. A few weeks ago the STOCK JOURNAL published some figures in relation to the giant business of the Matador ranch, which show it to be one of the largest cattle breeding organizations in the world. Col. Campbell has been with this ranch ever since it was begun, and in fact he selected and laid off the ranch and bought the cattle to stock it. Probably much of his success is due to a life-long experience in the cattle business, as well as to natural abilities as a director and organizer of men.

The Matador ranch grows its own feed for the cattle and wheat for the consumption of the army of employes on it. Having a surplus of wheat this year, they exchanged it with the neighboring farmers, giving a bushel of wheat for a bushel of corn. Probably this is the only case where corn is worth its weight in wheat.

It is the opinion of Col. Campbell that prices of cattle must go up soon, as there is undoubtedly a shortage in the number now in the country, and this fact will soon be found out.

Cattle in the West go into the winter in better condition than in any year since 1882. They are all fat, and grass in all the country between the Texas and Pacific and the Fort Worth and Denver is luxuriant and abundant.

Something About Mohair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.

Editor Texas Live Stock Journal:

The slight activity in England, where sales have been made during the past month at 15d, stiffened prices in Constantinople, where mohair is firm at 16d, equal to 44c in New York, not including freight charges and profits of foreign and domestic dealers.

The new tariff will practically add two cents more per pound to the cost of foreign mohair (much has heretofore come in under the 10c duty,) and in all probability create a more steady demand for the domestic clip.

The increased duty on foreign mohair goods will curtail importations and give a large market for those made here, naturally increasing the demand and consumption for domestic mohair among our mills.

Prices are now on a very good level, and they will undoubtedly remain firm with an upward tendency.

All mohair will sell quickly and well, but as is always the case, lots in the best condition will receive the most attention from buyers.

Owing to recent rains everywhere, we look for a choice clip this fall.

Yours truly,

Cottonseed Meal for Cows.

Henry Morse of Delaware county, N. Y., gives the following testimony, in the New York Tribune, as to the value of cottonseed meal for the butter dairy. He has become wealthy by dairying, and what he says is valuable:

I introduced cottonseed meal as a food for dairy cows in this section. I have fed it eight years, the first four in connection with other grain feeds. The last four years we have used nothing but pure, sweet cottonseed meal, except that when the cows are dry and on coarse fodder we give them such grain as we produce and wheat bran, the latter to build up and strengthen the osseous and muscular system and to prevent abortion. As soon as the cows come in full milk we give them two rations of hay a day, a three-quarter ration of cottonseed in the morning and two quarts at night, until turned out to pasture, when they get two quarts a day. When at hay the morning ration of meal is mixed with six quarts of sweet skim-milk. Under this regimen we keep 25 per cent. more cows and make fully 20 per cent. more butter per cow than by the other grain method.

Three years ago I was not able to procure enough cottonseed meal, and we used a half-ration of that and the other half wheat bran, and the result was a loss of 75 pounds of butter in one week, from from our dairy of 50 cows. I regard the manurial value of cottonseed, as observed by me, of very great importance. Four years ago we manured half of a meadow with manure from corn-and-oats feeding, and the other half from cottonseed feeding; the latter cut double the hay. This year we sowed the field in buckwheat, and the crop shows the same difference. Our pastures are giving similar evidence from the summer cottonseed rations. The enhanced value of the manure nearly pays the cost of the cottonseed.

FARM AND RANGE.

One of the best trees to plant in the arid regions is the common locust. It makes a better growth without irrigation in New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada than almost any other tree. It grows rapidly and the timber is valuable and durable. In this section the locust is free from the borer which infests it in moister climates. In planting, it should be intermixed with the mulberry, the trees to be set out 4x4 feet apart. The locust is not hardy in Northern-Dakota and Montana.

Thousands of tons of hay are imported into the Southern states annually by farmers at a large expense. This money might, in a large measure, be saved, as has been proved by the North Carolina experiment station. This station recommends for dry uplands lucerne, mammoth clover, crimson clover, tall oat grass, tall fescue, German millet, Kaffir corn and the sorghums. For low lands and alluvial bottoms orchard grass, meadow foxtail, English and Italian rye, red-top and fowl meadow are good, and in the cooler districts timothy and alsike clover.

A Montana paper says that something extraordinary in the grass line has occurred this season along the base of the mountains. For a distance of twenty-five or thirty miles east all along the mountains the rains and soft snows of September have started up a second crop of grass, so that to-day the feed in the foothills is as good as ever it was. And if we should be so fortunate as to have a continuance of good weather until Christmas, so that this new grass would have time to cure, there would be no cause for complaint on account of short feed. The hills round Choteau are now white with snow, but underneath there is a green carpet of fine grass.

Farm and Home:—The effect of cottonseed and cottonseed meal on butter is given in a bulletin, No. 11, recently issued by the Texas experiment station at College Station, Texas, and will be sent free to all who apply for it. The results indicate that the butter from cows fed on a ration narrowed to 1 to 4 with cottonseed or cottonseed meal has a higher melting point and is thus better for shipping. The quality of the butter is not materially affected, while the amount of milk produced and the per cent. of butter fats contained are both largely increased. When cottonseed or cottonseed meal was fed beyond a certain point, it was found to injure the flavor of the butter. When cows were fed on grass or green stuff, the right ratio of albuminoids to fats was 1 to 4 or 1 to 4.5. The effect of these two feeds on the color of the butter was to make it from one to four shades lighter. In churning sour cream the temperature of the cream should be from four to eight degrees higher than where these foods are not used, and with sweet cream one to three degrees higher. Experiments were also made at the station with churning sweet and sour cream. The butter from the sweet cream was of better flavor and better in grain and body also. There was no flatness in the taste and the two could hardly be distinguished, even by experts.

"One touch of Nature makes the whole world kin." Diseases common to the race compel the search for a common remedy. It is found in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the reputation of which is world-wide, having largely superseded every other blood medicine in use.

Makes Butter Better in Looks and Quality.

It is unwise to neglect to market your butter in an attractive form. Parchment paper is rapidly taking the place of all other wrappers, for not only butter, but cheese, lard, meat, sausage, etc. Elliot's Parchment paper is made from the choicest selected cotton and linen stock, and chemically treated until it forms one of the best wrappers on the market. CATTLE AND CATTLEMEN.

Mr. George B. Loving has gone to Galveston to size up the deep water boom.

Beef cattle are coming in, ready for slaughtering in the refrigerator. So far there has not been the least difficulty in finding all the beeves wanted, and there will not be any lack of them.

Mr. Lee Woods of Purcell, the representative of the Fish & Keck company, was in the city hustling among stockmen for that popular commission firm. Mr. Woods says there are a great many cattle coming into the Chickasaw Nation to be winter fed—almost as fast as the cattle are going out of other parts of the territory.

It is conceded that at the present rate of growth of our population we will in a few years require all the cattle we can raise in the United States to feed our own people, while the more thickly populated countries of Europe cannot even now raise enough meat for their own use; then with increasing foreign and home demand for beef and only a limited increase of our beef supply, now about 37,000,000 cattle, besides the 16,000,000 milch cows, our chief increase must be in the increased value from the universal introduction of the improved breeds and the use of full blood sires of the beef breeds.

Denver Field and Farm: The great movement of live stock Eastward has been the cause of much perplexity to Colorado lines, and especially the Union Pacific and Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe. These roads are by no means able to satisfy all the demands of live stock men, on account of the lack of cars and motive power. It is stated authoritatively that the Santa Fe is to-day in need of 2000 cars to accommodate their increased patronage. One year ago the Santa Fe was leasing to other companies their engines and rolling stock. To-day they cannot secure enough for their own purpose. Cattle shipments out of Colorado are very heavy just now.

One of the best displays upon the grounds at the Dallas fair, and one that excited more interest and had more visitors, was the display of Devon cattle of Rumsey Bros., of Emporia, Kansas. They have twenty-seven head of bulls, cows and heifers, all registered, which they are trying to introduce into North Texas. They were at the fair last year and sold a few to a better class of stockmen, who bought them just as an experiment. As a proof that these cattle will take in Texas, we refer our readers to Mr. S. F. Harlan, of Bryan, or Mr. George Williams, of Merle, Burleson county. We mention these names, as both of these gentlemen were skeptical about Devon cattle, but bought last year and are back this year buying again, and are loud in their praise of the Devons, which, they say, are just the cattle to grade range cattle from, as they are thrifty and good hustlers, and as Mr. Harlan expresses it, "feed them if you have the feed, and if you haven't, let them hustle and they will keep in good condition all the same." Mr. Rumsey says that the only reason that they are not the favorite cattle in Texas is because they have not been pushed and people don't know what they are, but hereafter he proposes to make a specialty of the Texas trade and is going to put some Devons in the country. These gentlemen have an elegant stock farm at Emporia, Kansas, where they will be pleased to show the stock at any time.

THE STOCK JOURNAL will be read this week by several thousand people at the Dallas fair who are not subscribers. They can make a good investment for $1.50 by coming to the STOCK JOURNAL tent and subscribing for this paper and the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Both papers for the price of one.

KENTUCKY HORSE LETTER.

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 20, 1890.

Editor Texas Live Stock Journal.

The great meeting of the Kentucky trotting horse breeders association closed to-day with the unfinished race for the Futurity stakes for four-year-olds, which went over from Saturday. It was a great race, and the best four-year-old in Kentucky won it, barring Nancy Hanks. The winner, Angelina, is a remarkable mare in more ways than one. She was put in training as a yearling, and has been trained every year since. As a yearling she started, once being second to Hambrino Bismark in the Ashland stakes for yearlings in 2:40. As a two-year-old she got a mark of 2:28½, beating all the two-year-olds in this section and making the best time, at that time, of any two-year-old this side the Rockies in a race. As a three-year-old she reduced her record to 2:23, and now as a four-year-old reduced it still lower to 2:18½. There were two heats in 2:20, 2:18½. She has trotted three races this year, running all of them in the average time of 2:19½, one in 2:21½, one in 2:21, one in 2:19, one in 2:19½ and one in 2:18½. At the races just closed she started twice, winning both times in straight heats in the average time of 2:19½. The remarkable part about this mare is that she improves each year, when every yearling and two-year-old with which she was trained and raced, have long since gone down. This mare is greater now than ever before in her life, and capable of doing a mile now in 2:16. There is no more handsome mare in this country, being a rich bay, with star and two white hind feet. She is about sixteen hands high, with a neck, head, eye and ear as was never seen on another horse. She is, we believe, the handsomest as well as the purest gaited trotter we ever saw. She is as gentle as a lamb and could be driven by the smallest child without danger. She is by that great Wilkes horse, Wilkes Boy, 2:24½, as a four-year-old, out of Mollie, the dam of Gladiator, Jr., 2:27½, by Kentucky Clay, second dam by Alexander's Edwin Forrest. His sire, we believe, is the coming sire of this country, and the best individual son of his sire we have ever seen. As to breeding, there is no horse in this country better bred, his dam being by Mambrino Patchen and the dam of Angelina 2:27½; second dam by Mambrino Chief, second dam by Brown's Bellfounder, fourth dam by Grey Eagle. He is only ten years old and has made but five seconds including last season, and has sired four with records of 2:30 or better; with Angelina, the very first of his produce ever trained, with a record of 2:18½. We understand he will stand at $500 to insure a mare in foal, at which price he is the cheapest horse in Kentucky.

Now that the fall trots are over, we will settle back to our normal state and things will go on as before, the weather remaining good.

All the trainers about here have been engaged for next year. Dan Brown will train for George W. St. Clair, Burt Van Every for J. R. Boscome & Son, James Nelro for the Jewitt jockey farm, Ben B. Kenney for Marcus Dailey, Fred Margrove with Mr. Rockefeller. These men will be paid good and liberal salaries, but nothing more than they ought to have, all being capable and thorough horsemen as well as gentlemen.

Leathers & Richfield of this city have bought of the Fashion stud farm, Walnut Hills, this county, the yearling black colt by Eagle Bird, dam Lady Maud 2:18½, by Gen. Knox. The price paid is the largest ever paid for a yearling in Kentucky. This fellow is a phenomenal, Dan Brown driving him a quarter the fourth time ever hitched to a sulky in 38½ seconds, something unprecedented in this section. He will remain in Mr. St. Clair's stable and be trained by Mr. Brown next season as a two-year-old.

Bowerman Bros. of this city have sold to P. Russ, Reading, Pa., the four-year-old black horse, Lancing B, 2:35, by Hambletonian Mambrino, dam by Lumps. He will be trained next season by J. Brook Curry of this city, the first tutor of Early Bird, J. H. Shedd and others.

W. F. Downing of this county has sold to Fred E. Perkins, Providence, R. I., the black yearling filly by Wilkes Boy 2:24½, dam by Jim Irvin, second dam by Imported Sheepcatcher, and the chestnut yearling filly by Allendor, dam by Sir Walter, second dam by Jim Irvin, third dam by Imported Sharpcatcher.

C. J. Adams of this city has bought of Charles Cassady, Shelbyville, Ky., the six-year-old bay horse by a son of Boston Wilkes, dam by Norman, Jr., second dam the dam of Repetition 2:19½.

T. C. Anglin of Angliana stock farm, this city, sold to G. Lang, Buffalo, N. Y., the bay suckling colt Angliana, full brother to Angelina 2:18½, by Wilkes Boy 2:24½, dam Mollie, the dam of Gladiator, Jr., 2:27½, by Kentucky Clay, second dam by Alexander's Edwin Forrest, for a very large price. This is one of the grandest looking colts ever to leave Kentucky, and will make a trotter if there is anything in breeding, size and action.

Charles Cassady, of Shelbyville, Ky., has bought of C. J. Adams, this city, the yearling chestnut filly by Sherman Wilkes, dam by Florida.

John Goldsmith was taken down with pneumonia while here with his stable of horses attending the races. He is better, however, though a very sick man.

C. J. Hamlin of Buffalo, N. Y., has bought of A. A. Bonner, New York City, a yearling bay filly by Lord Russell, dam by Almont.

George W. St. Clair of this city has sold to W. L. Rush, same place, the weanling filly by Allendorf, dam by Administrator, the suckling filly by Darknight, dam by John Dillard, and the weanling filly by Allendorf, dam by Harold.

W. H. Raymond of Belmont Park, Mont., has bought of C. X. Larabee, Deer Lodge, Mont., the black suckling colt by Wilkes Boy, dam by Daniel Lambert.

J. B. Perry of this city has sold to J. E. Whitesette, Corsicana, Tex., the two-year-old bay colt by Lemp, dam Nettie Howell, by Ashland Chief, second dam Bell Clay, by American Clay.

Sternberg, the sensational two-year-old, by Wilkes Boy, has been on the sick list for several days, and was unable to start last week.

Old Lady Bunker, the dam of Gray Wilkes and William L., is now being jogged on the road with the hope of reducing her in flesh, so that she may stand.

Mr. Kenney of this city bought of Mr. Hopper, Shelbyville, Ky., his half interest in the yearling bay filly by Robert McGregor, dam Morgan Belle, by Administrator, for $1500. This is one of the best fillies to show at the fair grounds this season.

GALVESTON WOOL MARKET.

GALVESTON, Oct. 29, 1890.
Editor Live Stock Journal.

Following are the receipts and sales of wool at this point as reported by the respective parties:

Galveston Scouring Mills—Receipts, 31,000 lbs; sales, 25,000 lbs.

Adoue & Lobit—Receipts, 150,000 lbs; sales, 35,000 lbs, scoured.

It is not deemed judicious to materially advance quotations over those of previous weeks, viz:

Spring twelve months fine, 18@21c; do medium, 20@22c; eight months fine, 17@20c; do medium, 18@21c; fall fine, 16@18c; do medium, 18@20c; Mexican improved, second grade, 14@15c; carpet, third grade, 12@13c; scoured, XX, eight and twelve months, 53@55c; do, 52@53c; No. 1, do 50@51c; fall scoured, XX, 48@50c; X, do 45@48c; No. 1, do 44@45c.

There have been some sales made considerably in advance of these figures, one round lot of 10,000 scoured, eight months, X, having sold at 58 landed east, equal to 56c, f.o.b. here.

The tone of the market here is strong, no sympathy with the feeling in eastern markets. The demand in scoured stock comes principally from consumers, yet in grease wools there is a speculative undercurrent.

The total sales at New York, Boston and Philadelphia, while somewhat less than the preceding week, keep well ahead of those of same period last year, and representing as they do a legitimate business, are sufficient to maintain values. The special feature of the past week has been the increased demand for short stapled wools, embracing eight months spring Texas, from hosiery men and manufacturers who have hitherto been running largely on substitutes for filling, which feature has inspired holders of these wools with renewed courage, and values are held up at the upper crest of quotations.

Reports from the West indicate an active market at San Antonio, San Angelo, Sulphur Springs, etc., and at Marfa about 1,000 bags have been sold at prices ranging from 14c to 16c, principally to Messrs. Bergstrom and Zanderson, of San Antonio.

In discussing with some of the leading wool men of Galveston to-day the situation generally and the probable result of the application of the McKinley bill, your correspondent learned that it is quite probable that an effort will be shortly made to import South American and Central American wools through this port to supply the large demand for this character of stock coming from Southern and Western mills. As this would be a much more direct and economical channel for this trade than through the port of New York, and vessels would be freighted back with flour, grain, meats, canned goods, etc., it can be seen at a glance what an immense field is awaiting profitable development.

SHEEP AND WOOL.

So far as the STOCK JOURNAL can learn, the fall clip is excellent and of good length, and generally of a better quality than usual.

Colorado Clipper: Rix Bros. & Co. have sold a half interest in their sheep business, consisting of 3400 head, to J. B. Lucas, consideration, $2.25 per head.

John W. Hagerlund of Sonora sold to P. McHugh his entire flock of 4241 sheep, shorn, at $2 a head; ten Delaine bucks at $27, and twenty-one Merino bucks at $10.

P. McHugh of Sutton county has commenced shearing, and expects to market 27,000 pounds of wool. The staple is light and bright after the recent heavy rains, and his clip averages three pounds a head.

We learn that Miss Mollie Pierce, the Wolf Creek shepherdess, has now a band of 1,100 sheep. She attends to the herding of them herself, except on Sundays, when she generally gets a substitute. Her clip this season was remarkable, averaging eight pound. Her sheep are also said to be the fattest on all Wolf Creek. The young lady, no doubt, is kinder to the sheep than the average herder.—River Press (Mont).

A meeting of the American South-down Association will be held on Tuesday, November 18, at 7:30 p. m., in the Sherman House, Chicago, Ill. As this meeting will occur during the second week of the American Fat Stock Show, a full attendance is expected. To those who cannot attend, the usual invitation is given to present, by letter to the secretary, any suggestions they may have to make for the good of the association.

The River Press, of Montana, reports that the exodus of stock and sheep from northern Montana to north Dakota still continues. Fifteen thousand head were purchased in this vicinity last week and will be forwarded by the Great Northern as soon as cars can be obtained. Of this number J. M. Hawkins, representing E. M. Prouty, of Grand Forks, N. D., bought 10,000 head, comprising two of the best bands of grade Merinos on the Teton, those of Hobbins & Hefferman and Hamel & Zimmerman and a band from the flocks of the extensive Cooper-Martin sheep company, and 128 thoroughbred Shropshire bucks from Seimes & Arnington. Sheep raising has been found very profitable in North Dakota, and Mr. Prouty will lease these sheep to the farmers there on easy terms.

Corpus Christi, Texas!

The Steam Dredge, "Josephine," More than Half Way to the Gulf. ROPES PASS,

From Corpus Christi Bay directly into the deepwater of the Gulf of Mexico is being dredged night and day, the work being prosecuted Twenty hours a day. It will be cut to a depth of THIRTY FEET and admit the HEAVIEST SHIPS.

It will be supplemented by stone jetties if necessary. It has the best tidal basin on the entire Gulf Coast West of Mobile. Corpus Christi Bay is the deepest bay West of Mobile. Its deep waters lie close to ROPES PASS. It will receive and discharge more water with each tide than any Bay on the Coast.

More Water will "Scour" Through Ropes Pass

with each tide than through any Pass West of the Mississippi. THIS IS WHAT PRODUCES AND MAINTAINS DEEP WATER ACROSS ANY SAND BAR. The more water passing through a Pass, the more "Scour" and the deeper water across the bar, if properly directed.

NO BAR EXISTS in front of Ropes Pass. Should one ever form we shall build jetties across it, just as is now being done at ALL OTHER PASSES. A jetty at

ROPES PASS

Will give deeper water than one at any other Pass, simply because more water will be received and discharged through it, with every tide than is received or discharged through any other Pass. Indeed whatever results can be obtained with jetties or any other engineering appliances at any other Pass, will be SURPASSED at ROPES PASS by similar appliances, because they will have a greater volume of water acting with them. A jetty which will maintain thirty feet at any other Pass, must therefore maintain more than thirty feet here.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Is Bound to Have the DEEPEST Water on the Gulf Coast.

In addition to deep water we have at Corpus Christi the richest farm and garden lands extending miles into the interior. Our planters raise one bale of cotton to the acre, and not uncommonly more. Also we have the most beautiful situation, overlooking Corpus Christi Bay.

THE "CLIFFS" RISE FORTY FEET

out of the Bay and command a charming view. They have an "Ocean Drive" 120 feet wide; a grand double Boulevard 200 feet wide; a steam rapid transit railway; a Seaside Camp-meeting ground covering 101 acres, with tabernacle seating 5000 people now building; a sea-side park three miles long with a $100,000 hotel now building in it; other hotels projected; sailing, saltwater bathing, fishing; crabbing, tarpon fishing, sea breezes, the coolest summer, the mildest winter weather, and the

of any city in the Southwest. Green sea-turtles are abundant in season. Corpus Christi Oysters have a reputation throughout the entire Southwest. In Winter the Bays and Ponds abound with ducks and geese, while in spring and autumn the prairies are covered with quail and plover, and sea-shore with snipe.

A HINT: You can buy a lovely sea side home on "The Cliffs" much cheaper now than you can a few months later! The same is true of choice farm and garden tracts.

The Range Industry.

Cheyenne Live Stock Journal.

Reports from all over the range country clearly show that the range is "spotted." That is to say that there are sections of country where there is almost no feed. There has been more moving of herds this year than has ever before occurred since the region north of this city was first stocked with cattle.

Herds have been so depleted by the shipment of all classes, cows and calves included, that there remains in the northern range country but few cattle, comparatively speaking, and, in truth, we can say that no section is overstocked. This leaves the outlook for the winter reasonably good. Had the herds been kept in the drouthy districts the mortality of the coming winter must have proven disheartening.

What the winter may be no one, of course, can say, but with the limited number of cattle and the wide ranges, good management ought to cause the opening of spring to find the minimum of loss.

The very general shipment of cows from the ranges will remove the principal cause of winter losses and thus reduce the risks. So it may be said that we enter upon winter with fair prospects, notwithstanding the unfavorableness of the summer just now.

Presto! Change! Gray and faded beards made to assume their original color by applying Buckingham's Dye for the whiskers. It never fails to satisfy.

DAHLMAN BROS.

The Oldest Clothing Merchants in Fort Worth.

There are very few, probably, of the readers of the STOCK JOURNAL, who are not familiar with the firm of Dahlman Brothers of Fort Worth. This is the oldest firm of clothing merchants in the city, and they have built up a trade in that line of business which justifies their reputation for doing business "on the square."

Stockmen, when visiting Fort Worth, can make a good deal by calling at their store and seeing what they have in the way of elegant and serviceable dress goods. Any representations in regard to goods made by Dahlman Bros. may be relied on, for they sell just what they profess to sell. Their store is on corner of Houston and First streets.

SAN ANTONIO.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Oct. 31.

Editor Texas Live Stock Journal.

The stockmen, live stock dealers and commission men are justly indignant at ridiculous reports which have been sent out from this city regarding alleged cases of glanders in DeWitt county. Business in the horse market last week was very active, the shipments being larger than during any previous week this year, but on Tuesday there was nothing doing and everyone was indignantly denouncing the glanders report.

The report originated from the statement of a local veterinary surgeon, who stated he had found the disease in DeWitt county and ordered a number of horses killed. Stockmen deny the existence of the disease, and Tuesday night a preliminary meeting was held at the Southern hotel in this city, at which there was some plain talk, which the omnipotent libel law of Texas prevents publishing. However, the meeting was not barren of results. A committee was appointed to draft a plan of campaign, and that committee met Wednesday morning and drew up resolutions recommending that a complete denial of the false report be presented to stockmen, officials and citizens for their signature, and all be forwarded to Gov. Ross for him to issue a proclamation to the effect that glanders does not exist in Texas, and that, furthermore, there has never been a case of glanders known to exist among range stock in Texas.

Your correspondent has interviewed a large number of stockmen and dealers on this subject, and the remarks of Capt. William S. Smith cover the replies in every instance. "You can say," said Capt. Smith, "that the business in the horse market has been seriously checked by the ridiculous and false rumors that have been circulated regarding there being glanders in Southwest Texas. Look at that telegram. It is from Jacksonville, Fla., and says it is reported there that our stock are affected by glanders, and asks a reply. Nearly every commission man in this city has received like telegrams from Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Arkansas and Tennessee. There is not the slightest foundation for any such rumor. I have lived here since 1838, fifty-three years, and during all my life, as far back as I can remember, I have handled horses. I have never known a case of glanders among ranch stock. If there has ever been a case here it was brought here by Northern horses. Our Texas ponies don't have the glanders. This foolish and, I believe, malicious report will lead to other states quarantining against Texas stock, and it must be given the fullest denial, or else our business here will be ruined." Other commission men denounced the rumor as false in every particular. In the meantime buyers are waiting until a public denial of the rumor is made before completing their trades.

This is a matter that affects the entire state of Texas, and many business interests outside of the live stock markets of Texas. There is not a merchant or banker in Texas who numbers stockmen among his patrons who is not affected by it. The railroads, which do the hauling, are also affected. Hotels, in fact nearly every interest, must suffer from this false report. This is not merely a San Antonio grievance, but a Texas grievance, and also a grievance of every city, county and state to which Texas horses have been shipped. It is a false report. The truth should be clearly stated.

The Horse Market.

Up to last Monday there was a very active trade in the local horse market and the totals for the week ending on that date exceeded those of any previous week this year.

Business flattened out to nothing on Tuesday in consequence of the false report of the glanders, but since then there has been a steady improvement in consequence of the active methods adopted to contradict the malicious report. That such a report should have been circulated at this time is particularly unfortunate. Business in this market has been below that of last year until last week. An improvement had just begun, and now it is checked by a report which has no foundation, in fact.

The receipts of horse stock by rail during the week ending on Monday last included 441 head; but, as during the previous two weeks, the receipts of horse stock on hoof were very much larger. But the totals of receipts by rail since January 1 are still 3533 head below the totals for the corresponding time last year.

The shipments of horse stock by rail during the week ending on Monday last included 1161 head, against 832 head during the previous week, and 842 head for the corresponding week last year. But while the shipments last week exceeded those of any previous week this year, yet the total shipments by rail since January 1 are 11,512 head below the totals for the corresponding time last year.

It may as well be conceded that while present methods of breeding and care of horse stock prevail in Southwest Texas, the Northern demand will be lost for us. This is now only a point of supply for buyers from the Eastern cotton states. The shipments of horse stock by rail during the past week to points outside of Texas were as follows: Amite, Eola, New Orleans and West Baton Rouge, La.; Centerville, Harrison, Heidelberg and Meridian, Miss.; Akron, Dothan, Evergreen, Greenville, Montgomery, Selma and Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Blakeley, Ga.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Charleston, S. C., and Memphis, Tenn.

The Cattle Market.

This market is fearfully overstocked. Every pen is full and the butchers are well supplied. No more cattle are wanted until the present supply is worked off. Prices are merely nominal, just what the buyers care to pay.

A Partner for You.

In these days of fierce competition, some railroads seek by deceptive advertising to secure business they are not entitled to. Such confidence games have but one result—loss of future patronage and not much present gain.

The Santa Fe Route does not need to resort to high-sounding adjectives nor flowery phrases to place itself before the public.

Our equipment, our passenger and freight service, our fast time and moderate rates, speak for themselves in plain Anglo-Saxon.

You can leave Fort Worth at 9:15 p. m. and be in Kansas City at 8:15 p. m. the following evening, just 23 hours for a run of 615 miles; or you can reach Chicago at 11:55 a. m. the second day out, which is a trifle over 38 hours for 163 miles. Pullman Palace sleeper and lay coaches through to Missouri river, and solid vestibule train (sleepers, diners and chair cars) thence to Chicago.

Going to Denver and Los Angeles you pass through the beautiful Chickasaw Nation, Oklahoma Territory and Cherokee Strip, connecting at Newton with through Colorado and California trains.

Goats and Muttons.

There is a fair demand for fat muttons, but no thin or medium fat animals are wanted. Goats are in good supply and have a ready sale at quotations.

Hogs.

The supply from near by ranches is more than sufficient for present needs, and prices are weak at quotations. It is light fat hogs that are wanted. Heavy fat and lean animals are very hard to dispose of at any price.

The Wool Market.

The local wool market opened with a rush last week. The spring wools went first at 18@22c, and then the fall wools started at 18@20c. There are a number of buyers here from St. Louis, as well as representatives of Massachusetts mills and New York dealers. Thus far about 1,000,000 pounds of fall wool has been sold, and the buyers appear as active and urgent in their demands as they were a week ago.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS.

Are by far the most commodious and best appointed in the Missouri valley, with ample capacity for feeding, weighing and shipping cattle, hogs, sheep, horses and mules. They are planked throughout, no yards are better watered, and in none is there a better system of drainage. The fact that better prices are realized here than in the East is due to the location at these yards of eight packing houses, with an aggregate daily capacity of 3600 cattle and 37,200 hogs, and the regular attendance of sharp, competitive buyers for the packing houses of Omaha, Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, New York and Boston.

All the sixteen roads running into Kansas City have direct connection with the yards, affording the best accommodations for stock coming from the great grazing grounds of all the Western states and territories, and also for stock destined for Eastern markets.

The business of the yards is done systematically and with the utmost promptness, so there is no delay and no clashing, and stockmen find here, and will continue to find, that they get all their stock is worth, with the least possible delay.

Receipts for 1889 were 1,220,343 cattle, 2,073,910 hogs, 370,772 sheep and 4,563 horses and mules. Total number of cars, 83,972.

Kansas City Stock Yards' HORSE AND MULE MARKET.

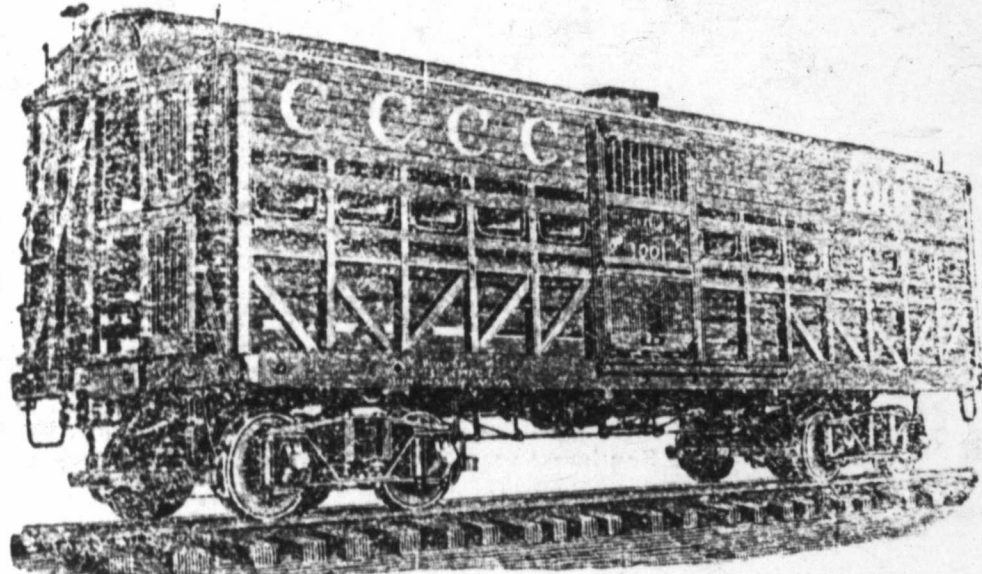

W. S. Tough, Manager.

This company has established in connection with the yards an extensive horse and mule market, known as the Kansas City Stock Yards' Horse and Mule Market. Have always on hand a large stock of all grades of horses and mules, which are bought and sold on commission or in car-load lots. Regular trade auction sales every Wednesday and Saturday.

In connection with the sales market are large feed stables and pens, where all stock will receive the best attention. Special attention given to receiving and forwarding. The facilities for handling this kind of stock are unsurpassed at any stable in this country. Consignments are solicited with the guarantee that prompt settlement will be made when stock is sold.
