S. D. C. is Stewart's Distemper Cure, the only remedy on the market that will cure distemper, coughs and influenza and prevent your horses taking distemper. For sale by J. L. Cochran & Co.

The horse of Jerry C. Tucker's, of Elmdale, won first and second money, on the first day of the races, at Council Grove, in the half mile and repeat running race, in the first two heats. Time: 52 and 55 seconds.

Dr. W. H. Cartter's Hillside Prince won third money in the 2:40 trotting race at Council Grove, on the 29th ultimo; and his Sunrise took third money, on the 30th, in the 3:00 trot. They were driven by F. J. Beardmore.

Don A. Gillett has put out his shingle in front of the room north of Wm. Hillert's shoe shop, on which appears "Gillett Bros., Lawyers." We understand it is Preston B. Gillett who is to be the other member of the firm.

Jas. Robertson, of Fox creek, a member of high standing in the Burns Club, is building a commodious barn, 50x25, the first story of stone and the second of frame, John Shelleneger being now at work on the stone part.

Dr. T. M. Zane, of Osage City, arrived here, last Thursday afternoon, in answer to a telegram announcing the accident that had befallen his son, Ralph, which was recorded in last week's COURANT. Ralph was taken home, Sunday, by his father.

Geo. H. Rose, of the COURANT office, one of the best and most faithful printers that ever was in this or any town, went to Kansas City, Tuesday night, for a few days' recreation, after a full year's steady work, and also to attend the Fair and see the Priests of Palais.

Among those, from this city and county, who are at Kansas City attending the Fair and races and seeing the Priests of Palais, are Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Hucheson, Mrs. D. M. Swope, Mrs. L. M. Swope, Mrs. Dr. C. L. Conway, A. S. Manhard and Henry Bonowell.

Be sure to read the programme of the fall races, to be found in another column. These races give promise of being the best that will have ever taken place on this track, as word comes from different parts of the State that some of the best horses in the State will be here.

J. R. Holmes and A. L. Morrison, two of the staunch Democrats of this county, both of whom are members of the County Central Committee, were in Chicago, last week, where they had taken several car loads of cattle, and they were, therefore, not at the Democratic convention, last Saturday.

The quarantine pasture east of Matfield Green has been vacated of the wild cattle, but the pasture is still quarantined and will be until the 1st of December. And all parties are warned not to remove the signs or leave gates open.

J. H. MURDOCK, Sheriff.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Kellogg arrived here, Saturday, from Council Grove, where they remained, after getting married, to attend the Fair at that place, last week. The COURANT, in behalf of this people, bids Mrs. Kellogg a cordial welcome into our midst. They are, at present, boarding at W. P. Martin's.

A fight, the exact origin of which we have been unable to find out, took place at the postoffice corner, about bed time, Monday night, in which Frank Strail struck J. M. Keegan, of Homestead, knocking him down and, in the fall, Mr. Keegan struck the large rock at the street corner and got one of legs fractured in two places. He was taken to the Hinckley House, where the bones were set, and he is now doing well.

Mike Gauer and family, who left here, some time ago, for Erie, Pennsylvania, to make that their future home, returned to this county, last Thursday night, to again make it their home, and the COURANT and their many other friends here bid them a most hearty welcome back to their old home. The family of Frank Hungerford accompanied them; and to whom also we bid a cordial welcome. They left Erie on account of the diphtheria which was raging there to a most alarming extent.

One of our Republican subscribers came in, Saturday, and renewed his subscription for another year, and he said: "I am a Republican, but I take the COURANT, the Democratic paper of the county, because it is the best paper published in the county." And said another Republican, a few days ago: "I take all the papers of the county, because I believe it is right to patronize all of them; but were I only taking one, I should prefer Timmons', as it contains all the news of the county."

The COURANT office has just completed its contract to furnish the papers and bind, in cloth and leather, all the papers published in Chase county during the past eighteen years, at $3.50 per year, each, making, in all, a little over fifty volumes, for which we received $176 11. Every one who has seen the books praises the work in the highest of terms, and says it is one of the best investments the Board of County Commissioners ever, in that now a person can easily examine the newspaper files of the county and see legal advertisements without the great trouble it used to be sometimes to find just what was wanted. It is a good job, if we do say it ourself.

FOR SALE.—A blacksmith shop—stone building, 22x32 feet,—two fires, with tools, also residence with three lots, good well, stone barn on premises, about 120 stone vines, will be sold cheap, on account of bad health of owner. Apply at this office or to W. C. GIBSE, Cottonwood Falls, Kan.
