FINAL PLANS MADE FOR FEDERATED CLUB MEETING FRI.

The Clay County Federation of Woman's Clubs will hold their Spring meeting Friday, March 13, at the First Christian church in Henrietta. The meeting will begin promptly at 10:30 a. m.

The women of Henrietta are serving a free luncheon in the church dining room to all attending. The Delphian Club of Henrietta and the Home Demonstration Club of Deer Creek, are to be hostess Clubs for the day.

Mrs. Frank Bunting, program chairman, has a varied and splendid program planned for the day, and Mrs. John Firestone, who is in charge of the Hobby Show asks that everyone attending bring her hobby for display whether it be sewing, cooking, knitting, etc. A prize will be given to the best hobby displayed.

A prize will also be given to the club having the greatest number at the meeting. This need not only be members but visitors from any community or town can vote for a club.

Transportation is often a problem, and the Chamber of Commerce is co-operating with the various clubs of the county in getting groups to the meeting in a body, if there are as many as 10 to 20 women in a group. The federation board suggests that each president see the nearest school bus driver and arrange for him to bring them in and back again. If these arrangements can be made the gasoline for the busses will be furnished free by the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. F. O. Moore, chairman of transportation, is assisting in every possible way to get the clubs in to the meeting.

A plant exchange will also be held at the meeting, and all of those having shrubbery, plants or seeds, are asked to bring as many as possible.

Mrs. L. E. Dickerson, federation president, again calls attention to the lovely pillow made by Miss Jessie Chesnut and donated to the Federation. It is now on display in the J. F. Alcorn Dry Goods window. The pillow will be sold at this meeting and the receipts placed in the federation fund. Mrs. Felix Watson is in charge of the sale.

The long thought dead Jessie James, former notorious outlaw and bank robber will appear in person at the Ritz theatre in Henrietta at the Saturday night Prevue, Sunday Matinee and night.

Tech College Student Interviews Admiral Richard E. Byrd

I will never complain of cold weather again after seeing and hearing Admiral Richard E. Byrd lecture, and the 9,000 feet of film shown in connection with his appearance here last night. This was all fine, but the enjoyment came from interviewing him yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The Admiral wired ahead to the Artist Course Sponsor and stated that no interviews would be held as he wanted to conserve his strength. Disappointment was felt by Jim Lindsey and me, the former being Editor of the school paper, because we had counted on doing the very thing that he was against. But you know newspaper men. They are very persistent, especially concerning interviews, so we immediately conferred with Prof. Mills, head of the publication committee, and President Knapp to arrange for a conference. This could be done when they met him at the train to bring him to the hotel. Their persuasion must have been very conducive for we had an appointment with Admiral Byrd in the Governor's suite of the Lubbock hotel immediately after his afternoon lecture that would be over at 5 o'clock.

Admiral Byrd wore the full attire of Naval dress of a Rear Admiral and it was striped with service badges. Although he was nearing the half-century mark in age, and his hair bore marks of gray, he still looked boyish, especially when he smiled, which was often. Our in-

OIL LEASES IN CLAY COUNTY ARE NOW BEING SOUGHT

Our good friend, Mr. Henry Sanzenbacher informed The Journal yesterday afternoon that Clay county is again coming into its own through the fact that commercial oil leases are again being sought by oil men from various points, and it is his belief that our county will soon be enjoying the next big oil discovery boom.

It has always been contended by those best in position to know that Clay county has oil and in paying quantities, and many wells have been drilled and are still on the paying basis in several parts of the county, and with the renewing of leasing in our county, it will not be long, many think, before pay dirt will be hit.

Mr. Sanzenbacher informed us that he and Messrs. J. E. Lutz, M. M. Lyles, Tom Stephens, Joe Thompson and R. S. Campbell closed a deal whereby they leased 6,000 acres to certain parties, who did not care to have their names revealed right at this time, for a cash consideration, and Mr. Sanzenbacher feels that since they received a good cash price for their lease that the parties have great faith in prospects of securing oil in the county, and especially in the section where he and his associates in this lease reside. Let the good work continue!

RFC Bank Stock Tax Exemption

Monday and Tuesday the House and Senate considered legislation to exempt from all kinds of taxation all bank stock held by the RFC. This legislation passed the Senate by a vote of 38 to 28 and was defeated in the House by a vote of 165 to 173. It was pointed out that the banks of the nation have sold about $230,000,000 of their stock to the RFC who receive whatever dividends are declared upon same. The records show this legislation would exempt the RFC from paying taxes of $5,512,736.38 on such stock, all of which is earning profits for the RFC. It was also pointed out that any such stock held by any one else was not exempt from taxation and that 31 states in the nation permit the taxation of such stock. That many of the officers in banks selling large blocks of their stock to the RFC, are paying their officers and directors large salaries and should be required to pay their proportionate part of their taxation to help support their local communities, such as state, county, school and municipal taxes. The Texas Bankers Association are demanding that this legislation be enacted. Why should these banks who make profits on the business they do in the community be exempted from such taxes when the farmer, the merchant and the small home owners, who owns a small equity in their property are required to pay full taxes whether the lien is held by the Government or otherwise. The banks now hold about $25,000,000,000 in tax exempt securities and under our income tax laws even the profits of these tax exempt securities are exempt from taxation. The writer agrees with the President that this tax exempt program has gone far enough and should be discontinued. Wealth should pay its proportionate part of the taxes.

Some Benefits Banks Receive

The Government records shows that from 1900 to 1920 from 72 per cent to 75 per cent of the deposits of National Banks were invested in commercial loans. From 1920 to 1930 about 65 per cent were so invested and since 1930 approximately only 30 per cent of such deposits are invested in commercial loans. On June 30th the banks held $12,201,506,000 in Government securities. At the average rate of 3 1/4 per cent interest this would require the Government to pay the banks $396,548,970 per year interest. The Government is today paying on its outstanding obligations $1,000,000,000 per year in interest. The Government should not be required to pay this interest for the use of its own credit. The banks receive an exclusive franchise protecting them from competition unless and until additional banking facilities are proven necessary; the free use of Government credit and the right to loan money on the average of $10.00 to every $1.00 the bank possesses. The Government guaranteed the banks' deposits and furnished $300,000,000 of the $339,000,000 necessary for this purpose. The banks have been relieved of the responsibility of paying interest on demand deposits thus saving them about $250,000,000 per year. The interest allowed on time deposits has been reduced saving the banks at least $200,000,000 per year. The interest received from their tax exempt securities is exempt from taxation saving them about $50,000,000 per year. The banks have a right to deposit Government bonds and have the Government print new money for them as needed, at actual cost of the printing of said money which amounts to about 30 cents per thousand dollars. It seems the banks have been better taken care of than any other group of citizens.

Agricultural Legislation

The House and the Senate free conference committee has agreed on the soil erosion legislation worked out as a substitute for AAA declared invalid by the Supreme Court. The House on Friday passed finally the $160,000,000 agricultural appropriations bill which now goes to the Senate for consideration. The Senate increased capitol stock of the Commodity Credit Corporation 597,000,000 and debated the Norris Billion Dollar Rural Electrification bill.

New Taxes

The President on Friday advised Congress $1,120,000,000 in new taxes is needed to take care of additional funds for bonus payment, the operation of new farm legislation and reimbursement of the Treasury for the processing taxes declared invalid by the Supreme Court. The breakdown is as follows:

New taxes for bonus $120,000,000; for substitute taxes to replace the processing tax $500,000,000; for re-employment, taxes spread over three years $500,000,000.

Representative McCormack of Massachusetts, recommends a 3 per cent sales tax. The writer recommends tightening the loop holes in the income tax laws that will easily raise sufficient revenue to cover this deficit—requiring wealth to pay its interview was for the purpose of getting a feature. We did. He had lost his pipe that morning and was unable to remember where he put it. He had laid it down "either on the train, in the drawing room, or in his hotel rooms," he said.

Mr. Byrd asked his traveling companion, Mr. L. McDonald, about his pipe that he smoked habitually. Mac as the Admiral called him, called the Santa Fe station and told them to look on the departed train. Well, since that was impossible Mac told the Agent to wire ahead and have a search made. This incident relates closely to what the six months vigil he kept at the Advance Base alone taught him.

In a place where there was no form of life, the temperature hovering around 80 degrees below zero, and silence was the loudest noise he ever heard, he found that contemplation was absolute. Thinking not of yourself in relation to a race of people, but of yourself. He was on his own resources which led him to learn the truth of the true value of things and life. The "pipe incident" clearly showed this for he was worried more over it than he was the dinner which his companion was trying to impress on him was near at hand.

He stated that the climate in the Antarctic had bearing on the weather "up here," and weather bureaus would eventually be stationed there for our benefit.

No sickness or colds were had by his men because the germs cannot live in such a frigid climate. From this, Medical Science might be able to control cancer and head colds which they have not yet been able to do successfully.

The South Polar regions could be part of the tax burden.

The Calendar

The Senate is due to consider appropriations and relief legislation during the week while the House will begin Monday hearing impeachment charges against Federal District Judge Halsted L. Ritter of the Southern District of Florida, following which they will consider the private and consent calendar. The different committees of the House and Senate are busy working upon important legislation. Friends of the Frazier-Lemke bill agreed to call party caucuses this week to further consider this legislation.

used as a store room or refrigerator for the world in times of plenty and brought back during droughts. This was another astonishing statement made by the Explorer.

We asked about stimulants used in Little America. He said, "I used none at the advance base. Alcohol gave one a false warmth and one might be nearly frozen to death and not know it, and it also gives one ideas of doing things that would be impossible in a place like we were located."

The Admiral was polite in every way. His politeness would make the most humble feel superior. When we were ready to leave he walked us to the elevator, shook our hands, patted us on the back, and made the elevator wait telling us how much he enjoyed our visit. Jim and I were the only ones who received autographs so far on his lecture tour.

My illusion became a reality as I left Admiral Byrd for I had a six-hour stretch of duties before me. It takes this to make life, I guess.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT!

By Roberta Ripley
(With Apology to Robert Ripley)
Byers, Texas, the home town of A. Brown and Ruby Taylor, has no colored population.

Byers has a railroad, with depot and station agent, but the agent never sees a train while on duty.

John Lindsey, radio clown, a resident of Byers, owns a mule that weighs 585 pounds and a horse that weighs 170 pounds.

Byers has a hitch-rack for horses, a landing field for airplanes, a horse and buggy and two street lights furnished free to the churches by a non-resident power and light corporation.

Byers has a woman meat cutter, a Democrat postmaster and republican cotton pickers.

The Byers Methodist church has modern brick veneer building with a bell in it and no debt on it.

It is neither modern nor Fundamental, yet it has petrified trees in the front yard and enough college graduates among its members to teach every class in the Church School.

It has three pianos and a tuning fork.

It has no "soul sleepers" but several "pew sleepers."

It has both honorable and honorary members on its official board.

It has members who seldom pray and members who seldom pay.

The Byers delegation travels over 29 miles of dirt road in a bus and two automobiles to this training school.

If every church school in the Wichita Falls district took as many credits as Byers is taking in this school on a percentage basis, the total for the school would exceed the grand total of credits given in the North Texas Conference last year.

The general superintendent of the Byers Methodist church has 6 sons and daughters taking credit in this school and 9 who are not.

The general superintendent of the Byers Baptist church school owns and operates a bus which he is using to bring the Methodist delegation to this school.

The Byers Methodist church is planning to serve dinner consisting of "Depression Quain" on toast.

BYERS INDEPENDENTS ENTER FINALS IN DISTRICT BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT

Byers defeated Clara Wednesday night 26 to 23, sending them to the semi-finals Thursday night, with the Magnolia team. Byers defeated them by a score of 38 to 39 sending Byers into the finals Friday night against Avoca, of Jones County. Byers started out like they were headed for the State play-off but the towering Jones county boys tied the score early in the second half and from there on it was a close game. Avoca winning the game in the last 30 seconds of play by a score of 42 to 41. The Byers Lions have entered a tournament at Waurika, Okla., March 12, 13 and 14.

TOWNS DON'T DIE—THEY SUICIDE

The heading is an apt phrase used over the nation to apply to those towns where fault-finding is being practiced instead of co-operative upbuilding.

One of the strangest phenomena witnessed in most small towns such as we have here, is the apparent eagerness with which many otherwise good citizens contribute to the tendency to commit community suicide.

The writer, for instance, has often been accused of using more space in the Leader for the benefit of the rural district than in the town proper.

This is a fact which I do not care to deny, and for which I offer no apology.

The only explanation is, that if we build our country around us, the town will take care of itself. We as a whole should cultivate more of a friendly, co-operative feeling with our entire trade territory. It is hardly worth while to invite the folks into town only when we want to sell them something.

The only difference between a rut and a grave is a small dimension. The town that continues in a rut will eventually reach the grave—a suicide victim.

It shall be the policy of the Leader to continue to build good will between Clarendon and the trade territory. We have school advantages here not to be found in any other town of a like size in the state. It is a strong drawing card for the better class of citizens.

Business men who adopt modern methods of merchandising need not fear the highways leading to larger towns. Clarendon will continue to be a good town and get better if we want it that way. No one will come here and do the job for us. It's plainly up to us to make just such a town as we want it to be. What do you say, Mr. Business Man?

The above paragraphs are from The Donley County Leader of Clarendon, but they may be well applied to Henrietta, or any city of its size.

WORK FOR THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

An up-to-date fire department has three duties.

First, it should strive to prevent fire, through property inspections and by publicizing ways and means of removing the unnecessary and dangerously common hazards that are responsible for the great majority of blazes.

Second, it must fight fire once it has broken out—and to do this successfully it must be equipped with the best of apparatus, backed by adequate water and alarm facilities, and it must have a trained and efficient personnel.

Third, it should carry on salvage work as a matter of regular routine, in order to save as much property as possible after fire has struck.

The consequences of fire are always bad—but salvage can mitigate them. Irreplaceable property can be at least partially saved and losses greatly reduced.

The three duties of fire departments are all essential—each fulfills a need vital to any community.

These few remarks as to fire departments may seem out of place at this time but fire prevention is never out of place.

Henrietta has few fires, of which record all should be justly proud—but this is due largely to the efforts of its citizens to stay aware of the danger of fires at all times.

The program of the Liberty League is to oppose the President. Beyond that, the Liberty League has no program.

"If we limit government to gathering up the wreckage of society after the devastation of an economic collapse, then government fails to satisfy those urgent human purposes which provide its justification."—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"As the burden lifts, the Federal Government can and will divest itself of its emergency responsibility but, at the same time it cannot ignore the imperfections of the old order."—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"Her Husband's Wife" Faculty Play at High School On March 12

Thursday evening, March 12, at 7:45 p. m. the annual faculty play will be presented. This comedy, "Her Husband's Wife" a royalty play, is one of unusual interest and is sure to appeal to everyone who likes good fun and entertainment. The author, the late Augustus E. Thomas, was dean of American playwrights and is noted for his interesting plots, intriguing characters, and clever conservation. While it is a comedy, there is a wealth of human nature portrayed, and underneath the fun, good food for thought, if you want it. Although the play has been a popular one for professional actors, it is one that can be successfully presented by amateurs.

The cast is composed of Dorothy Householder, the beautiful young wife who has made up her mind to die, provided she can find a satisfactory successor; Madge Barkley, who has resigned herself to being an old maid, but decides to accommodate her friend; Rosemary Hurn, the matter-of-fact maid, who understands the family; Frank Selvidge, the uncle who likes a joke but carries one a little further than he intended; O. M. Rogers, suffering from a broken heart and engagement; and K. C. Cummings, the handsome, good-natured husband who is the innocent victim of the plot, but who finally decides to live up to his reputation.

The cast is hard at work and is already well into character. They promise to handle the play skillfully and you may be assured of "never a dull moment." Admission will be 10 and 25 cents. Come and help the school. You'll be glad if you do.

Larger premiums and added classes are attracting the nation's finest show horses.

The outstanding Hereford, Short-horn, and Aberdeen-Angus show strings of the nation have already been entered in the beef cattle divisions and more Dairy Cattle, goats, sheep, swine, poultry, pigeons and rabbits will be exhibited this year than at any previous show, Davis also stated.
