Group of Indians Pay Leader A Call

A group of Comanche Indians from Walters, Okla., paid the Leader a pleasant call Thursday.

Chief Oliver Plymouth is with them; we enjoyed our conversation with them. They, stating that they knew our good friend Hon. Jim Nance, Editor of the Walters Herald. Fred Codnah and Edward Oda, in the group, inspected The Leader office while they were here.

We enjoyed their visit very much and hope they will be with us at the 1937 Reunion.

Speaking of troubles, making light of them may help you see your way a little clearer.

A. H. BEVERING

Deceased President of Pioneer's Association. Naturally with sadness you thought of this placid countenance as you saw the empty saddle in the parade.

Pioneers Pay Visit To The Leader Office

Mr. W. L. Kuykendall of Oakland Calif., one of Clay County's best known and earlier pioneers, with his son, Mr. C. C. Kuykendall of Chula Vista, Calif., have been visiting and meeting old friends here during the Reunion.

Mr. W. L. Kuykendall will be remembered as the Deputy Sheriff under Cooper Wright about the year of 1892.

The Leader was glad to have Mr. Kuykendall call and joins with his old friends in inviting him to come again.

The man who has just come home from his vacation is usually surprised to discover how many of his friends did not know where he had gone.

Notice has been received by the County Agent's Office that a reduction of one third may be allowed on the freight on cotton seed, and cotton seed products shipped into the drouth area for feed. This reduction only applies to shipments originating in Texas and for a distance of not over five hundred miles. Reduced rates on other feeds are expected in the near future.

Congressman W. D. McFarlane sent many wires and wrote quite a few letters to get the reduction in rate on cotton products and is due much credit for the reduction.

Frontier Frolic Enjoyed By Crowds

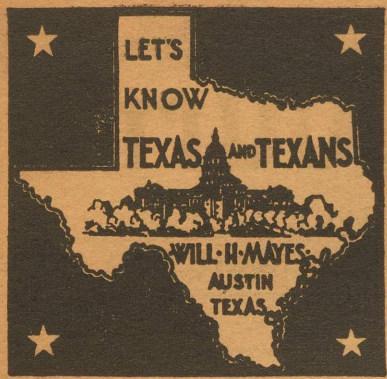

So enthusiastically was the first Frontier Frolic received by the first audience and by the listeners over WBAP that Billy Rose director general of the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial plans to make the stage radio attraction a feature each Thursday night at midnight. Paul Whiteman and his band, Everett Marshall, Ann Pennington, Sally Rand and 500 other artists of Billy Rose's four major attractions will be presented in a melange of music melody, humor and action, with six bands. "Anything can happen" is the watchword of these weekly jamborees. Casa Manana with a seating capacity of 4,200, was filled for the first performance and bushels of telegrams were received from the radio audience.

Texas Youth Taking Advantage of The NYA

A comprehensive program of education that could not have been achieved without federal assistance has made Texas "youth conscious" and the state NYA office has established an enviable record in its administration of the NYA program.

Twelve thousand boys and girls in its high schools and 6,000 students enrolled in its colleges, who could not otherwise have attended school, have enabled to do so through part-time jobs provided by the NYA.

The Texas student aid program which is being conducted through the assistance and co-operation of local officials is an integral part of the National Youth program, through which the federal government has provided educational opportunities for approximately 400,000 young men and women, in addition to giving one-third security wage jobs to 210,000 out-of-school youths.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and others matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquirers must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. Who led the ticket in the number of votes received in the July primary? T. O. Navasota.

A. Judge O. S. Lattimore, of Austin, who received approximately 1,075,000 votes in an unopposed race for judge of the court of Criminal Appeals.

Q. Why was the town of Santa Anna named for Texas' most noted enemy? E. T. Bangs.

A. The people there asked that the place be named for a friendly Indian chief, Santanta, but Washington authorities, not knowing the chief construed the request as being to have the post called Santa Anna.

Q. What was the first county seat of Comanche county. S. D. Sipe Springs.

A. Troy also called Cora, about 14 miles from the present town of Comanche, was the county seat, when the county was organized in 1856. There had been a town of the same name, sometimes called Pine Bluff, established about 1847, in Freestone county, near the west line of Anderson county which was once a chief town of that section. There is now a prosperous town of that name in Belle county.

Q. Where was the first white man's settlement in Williamson county? R. T. Liberty Hill.

A. Between the present town of Leander and Cedar Park, settled in there by the provisional Government of Texas. The place is near the Leander-Round Rock Road and is known locally as the Block House Springs.

Social Security Board Authorizes Grant For Old-Age Pension

The Social Security Board last week authorized certification to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount of $907,200 for a grant to Texas covering the month of September for old-age assistance.

On May 21 the Social Security Board announced the authorization of a $1,181,250 grant to Texas, thus this state to date has received a total of $2,088,450 covering the first quarter of the fiscal year 1937. These grants include $1,989,000 which will pay half of any amount, not in excess of a Federal-State total of $30 month to an individual, which Texas grants to needy persons 65 years of age or over who are not inmates of a public institution. The total amount also included and additional 5 per cent, or $99,450 which Texas may use toward administering its plan or for assistance, or for both purposes.

These allowances made to the state by Social Security Board, matched by funds provided by the state, have made it possible to aid more than 60,000 men and women in the state who are 65 years of age or over.

The Time is Ripe For An Industrial Texas

That Texans are commencing to think seriously of their state as an industrial empire as well as an agricultural and cattle empire is shown by the widespread approval given a recent suggestion of Matthew S. Sloan, chairman of the board and president of the Missouri Kansas Texas lines, for a state sponsored effort to develop the state industrially. Serving as guest columnist for the editor of the Dallas Times Herald, the Katy Lines' chief executive declared the time is ripe for Texas to capitalize upon its manifold opportunities.

Pointing to the success of the Texas Department of Agriculture Mr. Sloan said that by increasing the size and value of the State's crops it had paid its way a hundred fold. "Would not a similar department concerned with bringing new industries into being, with finding ways for putting more of the state's natural resources into profitable production and with focusing attention of the industrial world upon Texas, also pay handsome dividends.

Mr. Sloan is right. A state like Texas must balance its economy. The state has offered many kinds of aid to farmers and the time has arrived for manufacturers to be given their share of attention. The tentative suggestion of Mr. Sloan that a sae agency be created to encourage and assist industry is worthy of study.

The proposal has obvious merit. Most recent governors of Texas have expressed concern with building up the state industrially, and such a state agency as Mr. Sloan suggests would give that sentiment effective outlet and direction. It is time to be thinking of making a concentrated effort to draw industries to Texas.

Twins are Born To Former Resident of Henrietta

Mrs. J. D. Ferguson, the former Miss Mamie Parrish of Henrietta, is the mother of twins born at 11:15 o'clock and 11:40 o'clock respectively, Tuesday morning at the Bethania Hospital.

These two fine boys bear the distinction of having the greatest weight ever seen recorded for twins. Physicians say they weigh more than did all the Quintuplets together.

How It Works Out To Pay Debt

Some one has said that "sooner or later all international debts must be paid in goods; otherwise they can not be paid."

Failure to grasp this fact is at the bottom of much of the world's turmoil.

Each country has put up a wall to shut out the goods of all other countries, thus delaying ultimate payment.

Wichita Falls W. O. W. In Henrietta Parade

Juniors of the Forest, the youthful lodge of the Woodman of the World, from Wichita Falls Chapter, took part in the colorful parade formerly opening of the big two-day celebration here. There were approximately 50 uniformed children taking part in the parade and drills after the parade. This group consisted of the W. O. W. Corp directed by Ed Hubbard and L. O. Nelson, the drum-major giving signals. There were 16 uniformed members in the drum-corps, lead by their youthful captain, Virginia Wigington.

The flags and banners bearing W. O. W. slogans that were carried by the officers were the compliments of the Chamber of Commerce of Wichita Falls.

Members of the 3001 division of W.O.W. of Wichita Falls were under the direction of Capt. Jim Julianson. Immediately following the parade while the streets were still roped off the drill team assisted by the Woodmen Drum Corp presented a number of fancy exhibition drills. They were introduced by Supt. J. W. Callaway of Henrietta. They received a round of generous applause from the packed streets. Following the drills Capt. James Julianson awarded the drill team with ice-cream, sodas and drinks. The entire group had a picnic lunch at the W. O. W. Hall where praise from the surrounding camps in Clay county was justly placed upon the the Wichita Falls children.

District Manager E. L. Mann of the W. O. W. and Pearl T. Somers of the Woodman Circle cooperated in arranging for transportation.

Mrs. R. J. Claypool, the bi-district manager for the juvenile division of the Woodman circle, called at the Leader office and in this manner thanks the citizenship of Henrietta for their invitation to take part in the celebration and for the courtesies shown them while they were here.

Three Millionth V-8 Shown At Henrietta

The Clay County Leader

The 3,000,000th Ford V-8 was on display Wednesday in Henrietta at the annual Old Settlers reunion of the Clay County Pioneer's association, having been brought here from the centennial exposition at Dallas. It was driven in the parade Wednesday morning by permission of L. E. Dickerson, manager of the Henrietta Motor Corporation.

Mr. Stubbs was welcomed by Judge C. J. Sherrill on the court house lawn before a large crowd.

Mr. Stubbs stated that he will convey to Mr. Henry Ford personally the thanks and good wishes of the citizens of Clay County.

When the car leaves the exposition it will be taken to Dearborn, Mich., and placed in the Ford museum there for permanent exhibition. It bears a license plate numbered 3,000,000 from each of the states through which it has passed.

In the parade Thursday morning this car carried Mrs. W. S. Ikard of Henrietta and Mrs. John Gilkey, of Norman, Oklahoma as representatives of the Texas Pioneer Women, and Judge Earl Hall.

The King and Queen, Mr. Troy Douthitt and Miss Virginia Bevering, were driven to the place of coronation Wednesday evening in the pretty V-8 through the courtesy of Mr. L. E. Dickerson, manager of the Henrietta Motor Corporation.

Local Schools Opened last Monday

The Clay County Leader

Registration in the school began Monday and lasted the remainder of the day with classes beginning Tuesday. Although the enrollment is not complete, Supt. F. W. Richardson states that it will undoubtedly be the largest in this area succeeded only by such as Wichita Falls Electra, Graham, and Vernon, and the last three by 50 to 100. The main enrollment is expected to start next Monday.

An interesting note is the inquiry that has been made the past summer containing the evident success of the Henrietta High school for the last year also the excellent conduct of the students and the smoothness of all affairs connected with the schools. Much credit must be given to the superintendent and the competent corps of teachers under him.

Monday, there were student enrollments from the following towns and communities: Shannon, Buffalo Springs, Carmichael, Russell Creek, Deer Creek, Brown, Bluegrove, Vashti, New London, Cambridge, Huggins, Frairie Flower, Willow Springs, Hurnville, Riverland, Stanfield, Ikard, Jolly, McKee, Rock Springs, Halsell, Neville, Fairview, and Secret Springs.

Mrs. Raymond Dugger was the substitute teacher this week in the place of Mr. Paul George, who was out because of the death of his small son.

Because of the large number of students enrolled, Mrs. Nutter has been appointed part-time teacher of Latin, and a class in High school Music, which is a new course added to the school this year.

WORLD'S MIGHTIEST CIRCUS COMING SOON

Great Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined, with Pigmy Elephants and Pongurs from Africa, Col. Tim McCoy and Hundreds of New Foreign Features, Offers Epochal Program.

With the most impressive and brilliant seven ring and stage program in its history, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Combined Circus, which will exhibit in Wichita, Falls Thursday Sept. 24, offers this season, as a sensational superfeature, a herd of African pigmy elephants, the first ever to set foot on this continent. These tiny tuskers are not babies, but full-grown, middle-aged elephants, the rarest animals on the face of the earth. Accompanying them is a herd of miniature African pongurs, the world's smallest beasts of burden. The pigmy elephants have proven the greatest attraction the Big Show has ever before placed the public, not even excepting its presentation in the past of the disc lipped Uban-gis, the giraffe-necked women from Burma, the sacred white elephant of Siam, Jumbo, Tom Thumb and Goliath the sea elephant.

Among the scores of new features to say nothing of the new importations from Europe and Asia, including the incredible Naitto troupe, the Royal Bokara troupe, the Imperial Viennese equestrian troupe, the great Frederico and a free running horse, pony and elephant liberty act of sixty members, is Col. Tim McCoy the screen's most outstanding western star, at the head of his congress of rough riders of the world—Cossacks, cowboys, cow-girls, vaqueros, Sioux and Blackfoot warriors and Australian bushrangers. Col. McCoy, plainsman, cavalry officer in the U. S. Army Reserve and friend of the Indian, is the idol of the American boys and girls, and he will be seen in both the main performances and the wild west.

The greatest Show on Earth heads into this territory on four long railroad trains of 100 cars, with 1600 people, 7 herds of full sized elephant actors, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses. Its tented city covers 14 acres of ground. There are 31 large tents, including the world's largest big top seating 16,000 persons.

This is the peak season for youth and beauty among the 800 world in the air, in the three rings, on the famous arenic artists with the show, four stages and in the quarter mile hippodrome track will be seen hundreds of pretty girls. In the 60-girl aerial ballet, the most beautiful mid-air display ever produced, there are beauties that evoke columns of newspaper comment wherever the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Combined Circus exhibits.

LANDON A DISSAPPOINTMENT TO BOTH PARTIES

The only possible explanation for Gov. Alf. M. Landon's strict adherence to what is called "fundamental principles" in his second major campaign speech, delivered at Middlesex, Pennsylvania, is that he was ready to discuss details. A full month after his speech of acceptance and ten weeks after his nomination, he displayed a definite determination not to commit himself on a single issue of the campaign.

That this is true was demonstrated in the blunt comment in the old Guard Newspapers on the governor's long-heralded effort. Some of it revealed a degree of disappointment that bordered on disgust. For example in the orthodox Washington Post we read:

"It was disappointing to those who expected a discussion of specific issues or an explanation of how he would go about attaining certain objectives and remedies which he recited, such as those contained in his assertion that "The American remedy for unemployment is real work at good wages," and again, "The remedy for monopoly and special privilege is to do away with them."

"It is no longer a secret that several of Landon's close advisors wished him to be more specific."

And truly the human mind is incapable of conjuring anything more "general" than were his remarks. "We see men, women and children living in the home," he asserted. "We see that the family and the home are the foundation of national life," he continued. This merely served as a reminder that more than two million such rural and urban homes were saved from immediate foreclosure by direct loans from Roosevelt recovery agencies and as many more by the restored credit of private lending agencies. "We also see," he rambled on, "the heads of families assuming responsibility for their (the families') support." All of which we can recall having seen. And we can remember even more vividly that heads of families continued with that normal responsibility until 12 years of reactionary control in this country forced the responsibility upon the credit of the Federal Government.

Naturally, the independent press could find nothing creditable in the essay. The Scripps-Howard papers treated the candidate kindly: "Our readers will give us credit for being patient with Gov. Landon," they said, "but this major speech of this major party's candidate is so utterly nothing that it is an affront to the American people who are asked to elect him president. There is nothing in it to take hold of. And we have a feeling that an apology is due the American people for having tried to foist a second class candidate upon them. This apology is due first from the little group who built up the myth of the man Landon. It is due then from those ponderous personages who, one after another, made the pilgrimage to Topeka and returned home saying "He'll do." because, on his performance to date he wont do.

Another interesting point was brought out in the Washington Post's review of the effort in the coal and steel center, where coal and steel were not mentioned: "Gov. Landon's address was similar to that delivered before the Republican National Convention by former President Herbert Hoover. In essence, the Landon speech, and the Hoover address of last June closely paralleled each other, with the exception that the Republican nominee placed a greater emphasis on the emperfections of the present system."

So his sponsors regard him as a more implacable foe of the New Deal than Mr. Hoover himself. That is worth knowing. It is a long

Pioneers Enjoy Our Hospitality

Two Days of Fun, Frolic and Reminiscences

Last Wednesday morning found our little city decorated and ready to entertain one of the largest crowds ever recorded. Pioneers came to Henrietta from every direction. They came early and remained for the full two days celebration.

Promptly at 10:30 o'clock the parade, headed by the acting president, Frank Bevering of Charlie, and the three past presidents of the association and the reunion, George Myers, J. W. Douthitt, and George Cunningham started below the Methodist church and proceeded north up Bridge street and around the square. A touch of sadness was added by the absence of Mr. A. H. Beveing of Charlie, elected president of the association last year, who passed away during the winter. Mr. Frank Bevering, his son, however, is carrying on in the late President Bevering's place. The parade was one of the best we have ever seen, carrying floats of the First National Bank, Texas Electric Service Company., The Central and Cash Meal Markets and various other Henrietta business concerns, the Federated Mission societies of Henrietta, Knights of Pythias, the Woodmen of the World, and the Womens Home Demonstration clubs of Clay county, followed by the 4-H Club girls.

The United States Army Band, of Fort Sill, Okla., was present marching in the parade with the various artillery and corps, which gave a militaristic touch while the Indians led by the chief Oliver Plymouth, gave a pre-historic vein to the parade. Features in the cavalcade which stood out as symbols of the old days were the chuck wagon, the bull in the shaves of the cart and under the saddle.

All during the day events of pleasure and amusement were happening throughout our little city. On the War path the Ferris wheel, the whip, and various shows were entertaining thousands. Just back of the Clay County Leader office a "Miniature Train" was giving the babies of our little city rides around a large circle and did they enjoy it.

On the lawn of the high school building, Mr. Troy Douthitt Jr., and Miss Marjorie Bevering were crowned reunion king and queen, a retinue of thirty princesses being chosen from pioneer families to attend the royalty. The pageant was prepared by John Louis Koethe.

Wednesday and Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock a rodeo was held at Hapgood field where thousands of folks were entertained with latest fancy roping, riding etc. The "Wild Cow" was milked and milked in a hurry.

Free lunch was served to the Pioneers each day at noon. In next week's issue of the Leader we will give the names of the various Pioneer visitors to our city.

In this issue we record the names of those who have passed away since our last meeting.

The Reunion from every standpoint was a grand success and the various committees are due much praise for their untiring efforts in making it so.

Burleson Predicts Overwhelming Vote For Roosevelt

Austin, Texas, Sept. 11. Albert Sidney Burleson, former Postmaster General under President Woodrow Wilson, in issuing a public statement today predicting that Franklin D. Roosevelt will be re-elected by an overwhelming majority, delivered a broadside attack against the Republican charge that Roosevelt's administration "had spent too much money."

Burleson pointed out that Roosevelt's administration was an unusual record of economy; that he had saved billions of dollars for the people of the United States; that he had saved agriculture; that Roosevelt's Economy Act alone had saved more than $1,000,000,000; that 12 years of Republican maladministration "caused the depression; that more than 6,000 banks failed in 12 years under the Republicans, causing a loss to depositors of $3,000,000,000 and that only 36 banks closed during the last three years.

"It is unthinkable" Burleson said, "that any one will consider for a moment the plea speciously made that we return to normalcy and 'keep cool with Cal' in the midst of a saturnalia of speculation while the masses were being pilfered through stock speculation. The Republicans confidently believe that through falsehoods and misleading propaganda they can induce farmers, laboring men and small merchants to vote for a change. I think not, for I do not believe they are an aggregation of doddering idiots."

Mr. Burleson's statement, given out today to Roy Miller, Director of Texas National Campaign, follows: "In my opinion, Mr. Roosevelt will be overwhelmingly elected as he is undoubtedly entitled to the continued confidence of the American people.

"When he was inaugurated in March, 1933, agriculture was prostrate, and millions of our farmers were bankrupt and in despair. Banks were crashing daily and thousands had been closed. Commerce and industry were paralyzed and our trade foreign and domestic, had been strangled, resulting in millions of our being thrown out of employment and living on doles. This horrible condition was the direct result of twelve years of Republican maladministration which culminated in the enactment of the Smoot-Hawley Tariff Act.

"The Republicans now complain of a 'lack of economy,' 'reckless expenditure of money' and 'failure to balance the budget.'

"Now let us see what has happened. Mr. Roosevelt at once caused to be enacted the Economy Act which reduced the expenditures of our government over one billion dollars by abolishing Bureaus, consolidating Divisions and lowering the salaries of Government employees and reducing the pensions of thousands of our ex-soldiers. At this time billions of dollars were being annually expended for relief of the unemployment to which the States, Counties and Cities were contributing in part very shortly afterwards, because of 'Hoover Prosperity' the states counties and cities broke down financially and were unable to further aid in caring for the unemployed The American people properly took the stand that 'no one should be permitted to starve' and the Federal Government was forced to assume the entire burden of relief for the unemployed. This called for the expenditure of additional billions of dollars.

"In 1934 a devastating drought swept our country Our stockmen and farmers were threatened with the death of their cattle sheep, and other livestock Universal demand was made for relief by the Federal Government The Administration responded. Millions of animals, many so starved that they were unfit for food purposes, were bought and paid for in order that the ranch owner and farmer could have the means to buy feed stuff to save their remaining stock This entitled not only the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars by the Administration, but also resulted in diminishing the revenue of the government.

And now, in 1936 we are in the midst of another drought in the mid-western section of our country, which will impose an additional burden of hundreds of millions of dollars on the Treasury.

Mrs. H. D. Vaughter and son J. V. were in Wichita Falls, Tuesday.
