CANDIDATES MET SATURDAY AND SET DATES FOR CANDIDATE SPEAKING

At a meeting held in the Clay County Court House Saturday afternoon, March 26th, 1938, attended by virtually all the Clay County candidates for all offices, it was unanimously decided to select a candidate's itinerary for political speaking dates in Clay County. This action was taken because the invitations from the various communities were conflicting in as much as three communities had all set the same date to invite the candidates to meet with them. A committee was appointed to arrange the itinerary and it retired and did so, and then reported back to the main candidates, who unanimously approved the itinerary as submitted by the committee. The candidates will deeply appreciate the cooperation of the citizens of the various communities in the following itinerary:

- Friday, April 1, Thornberry.
- Tuesday, April 5, Willow Spgs.
- Tuesday, April 12, Dean Dale.
- Thursday, April 14, Doss.
- Tuesday, April 19, Jolly.
- Tuesday, April 26, Charlie.
- Tuesday, May 3, Friendship.
- Tuesday, May 10, Bluegrove.

Mildred Lyon Wright For County Supt. Public Instruction

Mr. G. C. Wright, of Petrolia, was a pleasant caller at The Journal office yesterday and authorized us to announce his wife Mrs. Mildred Lyon Wright, as a candidate for County Superintendent of Public Instruction, of Clay County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, July 23, 1938.

Mrs. Wright needs no introduction at our hands as she and her husband have lived in Clay County many years, and are pioneers of this county. She has taught school about seven years in various sections of the county and has many friends who will attest to her ability as a school teacher and knowledge of school affairs. She taught two years at Petrolia, and at present is teaching at Pecan Grove.

Mrs. Wright requests you give her candidacy your careful consideration, and will appreciate your support and influence.

Between now and the Primary Mrs. Wright will try to see the voters of the county, making known to them her desire to serve Clay County as County Superintendent of Public Schools.

Mrs. C. J. Sherrill Spoke To Kiwanis On Delinquent Child

Mrs. C. J. Sherrill addressed the Kiwanis Club yesterday at their regular Thursday luncheon. The theme of the paper which she presented was "Delinquent Children." In it she gave many interesting facts on the beginning of the career of a delinquent child and the way in which they spend their pastime.

Rev. Moody made a motion that the article read by Mrs. Sherrill be reprinted in the newspaper in order that more people might be benefitted by the contents of its subject matter.

Two guests, Mrs. Woodroof, a sister of Mrs. Sherrill, and Dr. Hicks, who is conducting a meeting at Methodist church were present. Dr. Hicks made a most interesting short talk, and gave a few comments on Mrs. Sherrill's address.

Buster Hapgood presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, and urged each member to keep up his attendance record, and to attend another club meeting in order to make up for any time that they might be absent, thus keeping up the attendance record of this club.

J. W. Callaway Asks For Second Term As County Supt. Schools

I wish to announce to the voters of Clay County that I am a candidate for the office County Superintendent to serve my second term. I hesitate to review the things that I have accomplished while in office, as I feel like the people and school officials know me, what I have done, and what I stand for. However, for those that do not know me, I wish to say that I believe in, and intend to continue working for equalization of educational opportunities for boys and girls regardless of what part of the county they live in. I am sure that I have accomplished this to a certain extent.

The Legislature of Texas and the State Department of Education are the two bodies under which any county school administration has to work. The Legislature passes the laws and the State Department of Education administers them to the County School Officials. I have endeavored to handle Clay County's schools in such a way that the children in its boundaries would get the best possible in the way of good schools. Especially is this true with everything concerning the Equalization of Rural Aid Law that is enacted each time the Legislature meets in regular session. With the cooperation of all local school boards, teachers, county board members and any other person

"AMEND THE TAX BILL, OR KILL IT"

"Would Relieve the Rich By Adding to the Burdens of the Less Fortunate; A Proposal to Gladden Mellon's Heart"

"The conduct of the majority of the members of the Senate Finance Committee—a combination of "Old Guard" Democrats and "Old Guard" Republicans—would gladden the heart of "Andy" Mellon, if that gentleman were still occupying his old post in the Treasury.

"Boiled down to the fewest possible words, what Senator Pat Harrison and his supporters propose is A SHARP CUT IN THE TAXES OF THE VERY RICH AND A CORRESPONDING INCREASE IN THE TAX BURDEN OF THE POOR AND THE MODERATELY WELL-TO-DO. That would be an atrocious proposal at any time, but to press it now when the American people are still at grips with the depression, is an unpardonable betrayal of the public interests.

"When President Roosevelt proposed a revision of the tax laws he had in mind the elimination of inequalities and injustices. The House Committee made an intelligent effort to carry out that idea. Unfortunately it did not succeed. A powerful lobby succeeded in having the House bill drastically amended. As finally passed, it contained half a dozen provisions which smell to heaven.

"One of the worst of the changes made by the House was the defeat of the tax penalizing family holding companies. Everyone knows that these holding companies are devices to enable the members of rich families to dodge their just taxes. IT WAS PUT OVER LARGELY BECAUSE THE OWNERS OF POWERFUL NEWSPAPERS WOULD BE THE CHIEF BENEFICIARIES. For all practical purposes, the House might just as well have voted to give these greedy individuals $50,000,000 a year out of the public Treasury.

"That is only one example. There are many others. According to Congressman McFarlane the lobbyists have inserted enough "loopholes" to deprive Uncle Sam of hundreds of millions of needed income.

"Encouraged by what the House did, Senator Harrison and his cohorts now propose to go much farther.

"When similar legislation was put forward by Republicans in the days of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, Democrats cried: 'Turn the rascals out and give us a chance.'

"Well the people gave the Democrats their chance. They have such a majority in the Senate it would be difficult to locate the Republican minority. Senator Harrison seeks to use that majority to pass legislation which is as bad as anything the Republicans ever suggested.

"Of course, Progressive Senators will oppose this monstrosity. If they fail, President Roosevelt can save the situation. HE CAN VETO THE BILL. In that event the present tax law would stand, and whatever its inequalities may be, it is a lot better continued on next galley than the measure the Finance Committee contemplates putting over." BIG NAVY

The bill enlarging the Navy 20 per cent beyond Treaty strength, authorizing additional expenditures of $1,200,000,000, passed the House last Monday by a vote of 292 to 100. This bill provides for three additional super-dreadnoughts, larger than any battle ships afloat, at a cost of $75,000,000 each and comparable auxiliary ships. Rumors are that the Senate will add three additional super-dreadnoughts.

Last Tuesday, the House agreed to the Conference Report on the Independent Offices Appropriations bill, striking from the bill the Gilbertsville dam appropriation of about $2,700,000 and increasing the appropriations for rural electrification $10,000,000.

WAGE AND HOUR LEGISLATION

The House Labor Committee is expected to report new hour and wage legislation next week. Rumors are that the bill will provide for a 40-hour week with a 30 cent minimum wage, which will increase 2½ cents per hour per year until 40 cents per hour is reached. President William Green of the A. F. of L. is supposed to be in agreement with this provision.

WAR DEPARTMENT LEGISLATION

The House began the consideration of this bill carrying $447,808,555 for military appropriations and a larger sum is expected for War Department civil appropriation. This is the largest War Department peace time appropriation since the world war. The bill is due to finally pass the House on Tuesday of this week. Little objection is expected to this bill, since it seems that war propaganda has gotten in its work.

THE CALENDAR

The Senate continued debate on the Governmental Reorganization Bill all last week and is expected to complete and finally pass same this week. Considerable opposition has arisen to this bill by the "Wall Streeters," who are again hollering "Dictatorship." However, they are experiencing trouble in pointing out any provisions in

Heavy Rains Fell Over Entire Section This Past Week

Heavy rains flooded this section over the week-end. It began raining Friday night, March 25th, continued through Saturday and Sunday and until afternoon Monday, with the precipitation in Henrietta reaching over the 4 inch mark, according to A. L. Mallick, Government authority here.

Creeks were flooded in every direction and reports coming in from all over the county show that this county is certainly in a condition for a bumper grain crop and a fine season for planting row crops. Farmers and ranchers are all smiles and very much encouraged over the outlook.

Some wind accompanied the rain Friday night and Saturday night but not much damage reported. A few old roofs and out-buildings were damaged some but very slight compared with the good that the rain will do for the county.

the bill that will anything like justify their wail. The Senate on Friday passed a concurrent resolution to investigate TVA. Little opposition is expected against this resolution in the House. Much important legislation is being considered by the Committees in both Houses, the legislative appropriations bill will follow completion of the War Department Bill this week in the House.

The house was called to order by the president, minutes were read and approved, as there was no business the program was turned over to Miss Hayden. She gave two very interesting demonstrations on "The complete bed," showing the spring and mattress covers, mattress pad and light weight covers, sheets and other things to make a complete bed. The demonstration for this month was "color for different types of women."

Several members of the club agreed to have at least one flower bed.

Our president and Mrs. G. E. Edwards gave each club member and our demonstrators a gold fish as a present.

Those enjoying the afternoon were: Mrs. G. W. Edwards, Mrs. J. W. Savage, Mrs. J. S. Treadwell, Mrs. O. H. Liggett, Misses Marcella Blalock, Emmalene Liggett, Ruby Hayden and one visitor, Mrs. S. M. Jones.

Cambridge H. D. Club

The Cambridge Home Demonstration Club met Friday, March 25th at 2:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. W. M. Shutt.

This meeting was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. I. K. Henry, whose birthday was in this month. Each member made a little talk or read the poem she had written. Here are some of the poems:

A Vacant Chair

There is a vacant chair here
In our friendship circle dear.
A pleasant voice has been stilled
And a club with sadness filled.
God sent an angel down
To call her to wear a crown.
Her chair is vacant, she is gone
But her kind deeds will live on and on.
Her Lives' race has been run.
She's heard a voice say "Well done".

If we could hear her voice today
We think that she would say trust and obey

A Vacant Chair

We have a vacant chair in our circle;
A cherished comrad has gone to seek rest,
Though the memories of her sweet face still lingers,
Her soul is asleep in rest.
How we miss her kind words and bright smile,
As she joined our club when we met,
Yet there is room in our hearts for many others,
There still remains a vacant place.
Our work must go on without her,
For we each have our daily task,
We may find many cheerful worker,
There is no one who can take Mrs. Henry's place.

Mrs. A. H. Witte

In Loving Remembrance

We loved her, yes we loved her,
But Jesus loved her more
And so he sweetly called her,
To Yonder shining shore.

The Golden gates were opened,
A gentle voice said "Come"
And with farewells unspoken
She calmly entered home
Asleep in Jesus, Blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep.

A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the host of foes.
But gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice that we longed to hear
Too far away from sight and speech
Though not too far for my thought to reach.

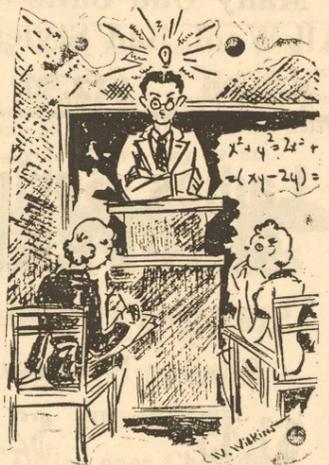

May sweet and peaceful be the rest of a
Good true hearted, noble, unselfish and affectionate woman.

interested, Clay County has gotten at least fifty per cent more money from the Rural Aid Fund for the benefit of its children each year since I have been in office than any other time before. We have affiliated two nine grade schools, classified one eleven grade school, and standardized twenty-four rural schools, leaving only four common schools neither standardized, classified or affiliated. I wish to say we had only two standardized schools, and no classified or affiliated common schools in our county when I took office in 1935.

There has been almost twice as many high school boys and girls attended affiliated high schools each year since I have been in office than ever before, not costing the parents one dollar for tuition or transportation, and not raising the local maintenance tax on any district.

I wish to emphasize that all of this has not by any means been accomplished by my efforts alone. It is only by cooperation and mutual understanding that anything worth while can be done. The men serving as county superintendent before me did their part toward making our schools what they are.

I have attempted to "Carry

On", and take advantage of every opportunity offered by the Legislature of Texas in making our schools better each year. The schools in Clay County are not perfect by no means. We that are charged with the responsibility of directing the school affairs have done our best to make them as good as possible under the circumstances. Due credit is given to all local school boards, teachers, county board members and any other person assisting in any way. I wish to thank each and every person for the happy privilege of serving you and I only hope that I have done some little something to further the opportunities of our boys and girls. The office is yours and if you think I deserve a second term I will promise to make you a better superintendent than I have in the past due to the experience I have had so far.

I invite any one to look into or talk with me about anything I have done. It will be almost impossible for me to see everyone before the election, this particular time being the busiest time of the year for me and my assistant. I aim to see as many of you as possible.

The provision in the new farm act for seeking new uses and markets for farm commodities should prove of great value.

It is of course of great importance to expand and develop existing markets at home and abroad. This additional provision will make it possible to develop new outlets by finding additional uses for the products of the farm.

Four regional research laboratories are to be established, one in each major farm producing area, and research will be carried on to develop new scientific, chemical and technical uses for farm commodities. Main attention will be given to surplus crops.

Such research will be a part of the permanent agricultural program, and the benefits of this work should increase as the years progress.

Miracles of Chemistry

In our own time we have seen miracles of modern chemistry. Yet science has just begun to explore the uses for farm products. The countless examples of what research has already done for agriculture are indications of what we can expect in the future.

From cotton have come rayon, bemburg, celanese, tubize, and numerous other products. Cotton is now being used in the building of roads. An average of 32 pounds is used in every automobile.

Woodpulp has been changed into cellophane and newsprint. Texas Technological College has just announced the successful making of paper from Russian thistles.

Waste materials such as corn husks and stalks, as well as the chaff of the grain, have been transformed into chemicals, phonograph records, insulation materials and numerous other products.

A chemical revolution is going on in the world in the finding of new outlets for the products of the farm. The field of research to develop new uses for these products is one that is almost unplowed and one that should bring a valuable yield.

The major part of research has been devoted to industrial products. The products of the farm and ranch have been neglected not only in research, but in marketing.

chapter is being written for the people who live on the farm and ranch. Recognizing the basic nature of this industry, this Administration has tackled in a real way the problems of research, of marketing, of price and income.

The total income of the farm and ranch has been nearly doubled since 1933. It will take years to reach a real solution. No other country in the history of the world has ever undertaken it as has the United States and no other country in the world has made the progress that has been made in our own country in these lines.

The movement must go on until the income of the farmer is on a parity with the income of other groups.

Many fine features are included in the new bill, such as soil conservation, removal of freight rate discriminations research, better prices, wider markets and greater exports.

OIL DEVELOPMENTS AROUND HENRIETTA

The deep test being drilled by Walter Gant and associates, on the Bryant Edawrds ranch, about five miles east of Henrietta, is now around 4,140 feet and has struck a blue shale formation, the same as found in the Worsham field, and is being watched very carefully for the pay sand that is in the Worsham wells. This test is under contract of 6000 feet and is on an assembled block of some 6000 acres.

Dispelling The Fog

By Charles Michelson

Mr. Frank E. Gannett is the owner of a prosperous chain of newspapers. Just now his activities are being directed less to his normal business than to telling the country what a terrible thing the New Deal is and how President Roosevelt is not only striving for dictatorial powers but also is destroying the business of the country.

According to its corporate report, recently made, the Gannett Company, Inc., made a net profit in 1937 of $1,123,085. This was after surtax, and amounted to something like $100,000 more than the net proceeds of the year before. I am glad to learn that the Gannett newspapers are doing so well. They are pretty good newspapers, even though they are unable to find anything in President Roosevelt's policies or processes that is not subversive, dangerous and potentially disastrous. Mr. Gannett's figures, however, do not jibe very well with the steady output of propaganda of the National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government, of which he is president, as well as being president of the Gannett Newspapers.

That Wicked Senate!

Just now Mr. Gannett is terribly exercised because the Senate Committee investigating lobbying in connection with the Government Reorganization bill has subpoenaed Dr. Edward A. Rumely, secretary of the Gannett committee, to produce its books and records at the hearing. According to Mr. Gannett, this committee is at work "to destroy one of the most vital liberties of the American people—the sanctity of their homes, the freedom of their thought, and the privacy of their papers."

Before this blast, Dr. Rumely had testified that the committee had raised something over $200,000 and had expended $50,000 in its campaign. Nobody except the Gannett Association knows all the ramifications, of course, and it may be that Dr. Rumely is technically correct, but some body spent many times $50,000 along the very lines that the National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government is following. The mails have been choked with this material.

Indeed, the huge expenditures of the Liberty League last year would not appear to have been a great deal, if any, more than has been expended by its successors in the same endeavor. Mr. Gannett has said that none of his contributions, so far as he knew, came from the Liberty League. However, president Frederick H. Stinchfield, president of the American Bar Association, and a few others who appeared on the Liberty League stationery, are equally conspicuous on the membership list of the outfit which now refuses to let the Senate investigators have a look at its books.

At the time this letter is written, there has been no determination, or at least no announcement, of a prosecution of Dr. Rumely for his disregard of the Senate subpoena. Mr. Gannett insists that the Senate Committee is only prompted by a desire to smear and intimidate not only our committee but all who are opposed to the indefensible departmental reorganization bill.

There would not appear to be any particular smearing involved in asking an organization lobbying against a measure pending in Congress to produce the written record of its activities, so perhaps what Mr. Gannett had in mind as a smear was the cross-examination of Dr. Rumely dealing with his conviction and sentence and short jail service on a trading-with-the-enemy charge twenty years ago. That had some relation to the purchase of a New York newspaper, allegedly on behalf of Germany.

The Reorganization bill is aimed at the correction of a lot of faults that have developed in the processes of the Executive departments. Every recent President regardless of party, has made the effort to get rid of the over-lapping and duplication, to reassign activities incongruous of one department to another where they logically belong, and generally to modernize the whole set-up. The enemies of the measure—and the enemies of the President—insist that the plan he offered extend his powers unduly. Well, the President is the man entrusted with running the Executive end of the Government. Whatever powers

Austin is distinctive among Texas cities—even the street lights are different. They are on towers as tall as East Texas oil derricks and are moored to earth by four heavy cables. Atop each of the slender, steel lattice-works are five lights of a weird, Edgar Allan Poe kind of blue. They suggest star shells above "No-Man's-land" on World War nights or a Fourth of July bomb that goes high into the air before it explodes and five balls of blue burst into view.

Signs of the times: On an archery ranger in the edge of Houston, "24 arrows, 25 cents; bow free."

In a Dallas cafe:

"I buy my food F. O. B.;

Pay for it, too, C. O. D.;

And I serve it P. D. Q.;

I can't live on I. O. U."

And in a Fort Worth sandwich shop, "Try a chilliwich." Says w'ich?

Wayne Sellers, capable, young Eastland County newspaperman, has announced for the Legislature. He is the son of M. S. (Doc) Sellers, popular publisher of the Rising Star Record . . . Spring has arrived! The first pie supper of the season has been held—over at Hudson in Angelina County and Judge Ralph Yarbrough of Austin, who would like to be the next Attorney General, purchased one of the pies . . . Looks as though Texas newspapermen are about to capture "We the People" radio program—first, Jack Gordon, brilliant Fort Worth columnist; then well-known Gene Cooper, and just a few days ago, Harold Banks, city editor of the Fort Worth Morning Star-Telegram. Each, besides appearing on the famous radio hour, received an airplane trip to New York City and a cool hundred smackers. Who'll be the next one?

Pet peeve: Folks who ride 19 blocks, or more, to town together in the morning with nothing to do but talk all the way, but wait until one gets out, then double park and block traffic while they decide when and where they'll meet for lunch.

These are the days when spring decks the hills and glades of East Texas with fresh, fragrant, brilliant beauty—not the least delightful touch being the bloom of which the celebrated poet, Richard LeGalliene, in his "Ballade-Catalogue of Lovely Things," wrote: "The enchanted dogwood, with its ivory trays." Many of the trees around Lufkin and Nacogdoches look as though a hundred white-winged butterflies had alighted.

Then there are the pink, plushy, wildpeach blooms; and, near Alto, one can see from the highway a cottage that is almost hidden by a cataract of

JUST CRUISING

(By the Captain)

The wonderful rain of the past week has made certain the best small grain crops this entire section has had in prospect of harvesting in many years, say old-time residents of Clay county. And at the same time it makes prospects much brighter for bumper crops of feedstuff of every kind as well as all kinds of garden truck. Never has this section been so providentially blessed!

The oil situation rises and falls with the reporting of new drilling blocks underway and with the abandoning of one of the wells being drilled. But hopes still run high among those most interested that oil will yet be brought in from one of the wells now drilling or one yet to be started, for our entire county has surely been gone over most thoroughly by the various seismograph crews that have been here during the past year and it is said that their reports show Clay county to be a "hot spot." At least all will admit that many a dollar has been paid our landowners and farmers for leases during the past few months and many a dollar is still being paid for acreage here and there.

Former editor Edward A. Rumely of the New York Mail, who was convicted during the World War of treason against the government and later granted a full pardon by President Coolidge, spoke over a nationwide hookup Sunday evening in answer to charges by United States Senator Minton of Indiana that the former editor was again trying to incite hatred for the government by his fight against the Bill to grant the president power to reorganize the government departments with a view to cutting out and down many of the present-day boards and interlapping departments. Mr. Rumely said to pass this bill would soon lead to a dictatorship in our now democratic country. This all remains to be seen, but it is hardly probable that the American people would submit to a dictatorship as meekly as did the people of Austria. Hitler and his army "took-over" Austria without firing a shot, at least press reports reported nothing even resembling a battle! Now that he has so completely assumed dictatorship over Austria, through his right-hand men he has informed

And what a contrast is offered along the road between Angleton and Bay City—the old trees, with long gray beards of moss, and thousands of young clover blooms dancing in the breeze.

Marvelous Texas!

the Jews, especially the 300,000 reported to be residents of Vienna, that they must leave that country. And President Roosevelt has asked other nations to join him in extending refuge to all those unhappy people, regardless of creed or nationality.

Walter Winchell in his radio broadcast Sunday night said a mouthful when he said that at the end of the World War the Allies did not send armed gangs into stores or streets and take possession of property that did not belong to them, but instead they sent food and clothing to feed the starving children of the conquered nations. But, said he, that was twenty years ago!

Some talk that Tom Hunter, the Wichita Falls attorney may make his third attempt to become governor of Texas. This is just rumored, of course, but Tom Hunter always makes a "real campaign" and if he should enter the race again, he would have to be reckoned with! A real campaigner and one full of tireless energy!

The senate passed the administration's governmental reorganization bill Monday afternoon by a vote of 89 to 42. It was then referred to the House Reorganization committee, where it will be discussed by members of the lower house of congress. Reports state it will not likely pass the House, but much opposition was brought against it in the senate and many spoke over national radio hook-ups and hundreds of thousands of telegrams were sent to the senators, it is said, but they passed the bill. Time will tell what the House will do!

The United States supreme court held by a 6-1 decision that the law requiring holding companies to register with the national securities board was constitutional. However, it still remains to be seen just how far-reaching this decision may prove, as Chief Justice Hughes, in announcing the court's decision, stated that their decision did not settle anything but the constitutionality of the law in itself.
