District H. D. Agent Visited In Henrietta This Past Monday

Miss Vida Moore, District Home Demonstration Agent, was in Henrietta Monday. She with Miss Ruby Hayden, County H. D. Agent, and Mrs. A. H. Witte, met with the Commissioners Court Monday to express their appreciation for the splendid way in which they had cooperated with them in their work in the county. Mrs. Witte gave a short report of the accomplishments of the Cambridge Club for the year.

Misses Moore and Hayden also visited with Mrs. Frank Clark, Bed Room Demonstrator, in Dean Dale Monday.

All Home Demonstrators and County Agricultural Agents will meet in Graham June 17th for their first all District meeting. Miss Ruby Hayden, and Mr. M. S. Duncan will attend. Matters of importance, such as the displays for the Dallas Fair, Short Course and farmers problems will be discussed.

The County 4-H Club girls will have their dress parade on June 25th, beginning at 10:30 a. m. at the First Baptist church. All dresses made by 1st year girls will be grouped together and those made by 2nd year girls will be grouped together and will be judged by Miss Beatrice McCurdy, Home Demonstration Agent from Archer County. The winners will be given trips to Short Course, as will the winning Wardrobe Demonstrator and Co-operators. The winning Poultry Demonstrator will also be given a trip to Short Course which will be held at College Station, July 6-7-8.

The Clay County Home Demonstration Council and the Chamber of Commerce have given $10.00 each to help defray the expenses of sending the winning girls to the Short Course at College Station.

Caterpillars Become Threat to Pecan Crop

The pecan crop around Byers is threatened by caterpillars. The worms deposit the eggs on the leaves and if they are not picked off and burned or otherwise destroyed they will greatly damage this years crop, according to reports from that section.

BIG CELEBRATION ON JULY FOURTH

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Pioneer Committee, held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Douthitt it was decided to have a "Big Fourth of July Celebration" in Henrietta on Monday July 4th.

Committees were appointed to make the final plans as follows:

Arrangements Committee is Carl Green, chairman, Albert Harrell, Chas. Scheer, C. B. McDonald, Chas. Ingram, Claude Gates, Bill Sharp and Brad Staggs.

Street Dance, Brad Staggs. Dance Committee, Ambrose Douthitt, Eb Worsham.

Carnival Committee, Sam Russell, Grover Thaxton, Jim Boyd and Chas. Scheer.

Finance Committee, W. H. Kerbow, Glenn Cunningham, W. V. Townley and Lloyd Prewitt.

The Program will include a carnival, Band concerts, political speaking, a Ball Game and a Street Dance at night.

District Court Tries Two Cases During First of Session

District Court convened Monday with Judge Earl Hall on the bench. Two cases were tried up to Thursday morning at which time they dismissed for the day. The case tried Monday was the State vs Homer Robinson charged with driving while intoxicated. He was found guilty and given a 2 year sentence. Notice was given that an appeal would be made.

The second case tried was the State vs Claude Privitt, charged with arson. The jury for this case was dismissed Thursday morning when they could not agree.

The list of jurors included: Messrs. J. O. Callaway, Sam Harmon, R. L. Brixey, J. R. Graves, S. L. Fulgham, F. L. Hassell, A. L. Parker, Ike Holt, I. H. Mayo, Rex Gates, C. L. King, A. H. FUNERAL SERVICES FOR J. T. FIELDS HELD SATURDAY

Funeral services for Mr. J. T. (Tom) Fields, 76, who passed away at his home Friday morning at 2:30 from a heart attack, were held at the First Baptist church Saturday, June 11th, at 3 p. m. with Rev. E. L. Moody, pastor of that church and Rev. Earl Patton, former pastor of the First Methodist church here officiating.

Mr. Fields had been in ill health for several months and confined to his home but his sudden death was wholly unexpected. Thursday afternoon he had been out in the yard for a walk and seemed in his usual health.

Pallbearers were Ambrose Douthitt and Donley Suddath of Henrietta, Jim Garrett of Shannon, Dale Burrus of Riverland, Edgar Childs and L. L. Brown of Bluegrove.

Interment was in the Bluegrove cemetery under the direction of the Moore Funeral Home of Henrietta.

Tom Fields was born in Mayfield, Kentucky, in 1862. He came to Texas and Clay county in 1883 and worked on a ranch near Benvenue. He was a trail driver, having made several trips to Kansas with cattle. At the time he came to the county, Henrietta was at the end of the Fort Worth and Denver railroad, and it took days to go for supplies. He underwent many hardships during the pioneer days. In 1889 he married Miss Addie M. Cash and they established their home near Bluegrove, at which place he purchased a small ranch. From time to time he added land and cattle to his holdings there until he had a nice large ranch well stocked. He was known throughout the country as a prominent cattle man of Clay County. In 1917 he moved to Henrietta but retained his ranch holdings.

Survivors include the widow, one daughter, Mrs. David A. Greer, of Henrietta, five sons, Edgar and Deputy County Sheriff Henry Fields of Henrietta, Ernest and W. C. Fields of Bluegrove and T. L. Fields of Shannon.

Go to Church Sunday.

"THE BLIND SPOT"

"Indictment of Edsel Ford, Walter P. Chrysler and Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., on charges of conspiracy to violate the anti-trust laws can mean but one of two things.

"The outward explanation, naturally, must be that the Third New Deal is making a broad gauge attack upon monopoly wherever found.

"But whether this states the case fully depends less upon what happens to Messrs. Ford, Sloan and Chrysler than upon what the Administration does in connection with another, less publicized charge of illegal monopoly.

"For a year and a half, Representative W. D. McFarlane, of Texas, a Democrat who has stood with Mr. Roosevelt more often than against him, who has a reputation for independent, intelligent liberalism, has been trying to cause an investigation into the radio industry.

"Only recently he appeared before the House Rules Committee, after repeated efforts to obtain attention from the Department of Justice and the Federal Communications Commission, and made statements of astounding importance, if true, and of such nature that if false he should be exposed as at least a crackpot.

"Among other things he notified the committee that he has in his possession affidavits to the effect that a consent decree dissolving a monopoly of communications between the Radio Corporation of America and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company was obtained by fraud and with the paid support of two members of the United States Senate.

"He offered a financial analysis of the Radio Corporation made by accountant now in its employ which has almost incredible significance.

"It is safe to say that if Mr. McFarlane had offered the Rules Committee any such evidence concerning the newspapers of the United States there would have been rapid action in the White House.

"There would have been more of the assaults upon the integrity of the press that have characterized Mr. Roosevelt's praise of radio and the movies.

"In a few days, Congress will adjourn.

"If it does so without appointing a select committee of the House to investigate Mr. McFarlane's charges of radio monopoly and corruption of officials, in public office, we must revise our estimate of the Third New Deal's intentions with respect to monopoly.

"Ford, Chrysler and Sloan are not running forward to furnish the Administration with facilities for 'informing the people about the functions of Government.'

"Radio is". (Editorial of The Washington Herald May 29, 1938)

Radio Monopoly Investigation

The House Rules Committee Friday approved a resolution calling for an investigation of the Radio Monopoly. Because of charges and counter-charges made concerning the Federal Communications Commission, the entire Commission was called before the House Rules Committee to testify. After full hearings, the Committee voted to investigate all phases of the Radio Industry. This resolution will be called upon the floor of the House on Monday.

RAIL AID LEGISLATION

Saturday, the President sought to postpone the adjournment of Congress in order to pass legislation for the railroads. Chairman Walter W. Splawn of the I. C. C. believes the financial troubles of railroads will be solved by increased business rather than by legislation.

COTTON CERTIFICATES

Last Friday the House approved an amendment for $1,800,000 for full payment of outstanding cotton certificates. This ends this long controversy.

FARM TENANCY

By a vote of 216 to 103 the House approved the Senate amendment providing $25,000,000 appropriation to loan to needy farmers for them to buy farms.

Regional Cotton Laboratories

The House last Thursday approved an amendment providing $4,000,000 to begin the construction of four regional laboratories. It is believed that Texas will receive a cotton research laboratory from this fund.

Calendar

The House considered and passed the second deficiency appropriations bill on Wednesday and on Thursday debated the Jenks-Roy election contest and seated Roy (D) of N. H. by a vote of 227 to 109; on Friday the House began the consideration of the Agricultural Appropriations conference report.

The House this week is due to consider outstanding conference reports including the wage-hour and recovery and relief reports.

The Senate last week on Tuesday passed amendments to the Walsh-Healey Act, on Wednesday and Thursday discussed and passed the monopoly investigation resolution and many minor bills and on Friday passed amendments to the Bankruptcy Act. This week the Senate will consider outstanding conference reports.

It is thought we can adjourn by June 15th, provided no new legislation is considered, as the conference committees are in agreement on the Recovery and Wage-Hour reports.

Auction Sale Monday, June 20th

Come, bring your stock to the weekly auction sale next Monday June 20th. There is a big demand for cattle of all kind; fat, stockers and calves; also hogs.

The sale this week was light, due to the harvest season, however there was an unusually good quality of cattle sold. A few good hogs sold. There were very few pass outs this week.

A large number of out of town as well as local buyers were present to bid up to a good price.

These Auction Sales Events are held every Monday morning at the Agricultural Building in Henrietta and stockmen are urged to bring any saleable stock you have especially cattle and hogs.

Picnic At Shannon All Day June 24th

On June the 24th Shannon will celebrate with a big all-day picnic and political speaking.

At noon lunch will be served for 25 cents per plate by the Cemetery Association.

A ball game, "The Black Spudgers vs Shannon" will furnish a part of the afternoon's entertainment.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Mrs. Geo. Thompson and Mrs. J. S. Richardson of Petrolia were in Henrietta Wednesday to meet Mrs. F. J. Doyle, who was returning from an extended visit in Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Green and Ernest Green spent Sunday with their sister and family in Waxahachie.

Store Your Potatoes So They Will Keep

By J. F. Rosborough, Extension Horticulturist

Within the next two weeks most home gardeners—the entire family, pop, and the hired hands—will be digging, picking up and storing the spring Irish potato crop.

Let Potatoes Mature Before They Are Dug

A potato crop should be ready for harvest eighty days from the time the seed are planted. Potatoes can be dug before the tops die, but they should be mature if they are to keep properly. To check the maturity exert thumb pressure on the skin of a few of the potatoes. If the skin is tough and does not break or skin easily, the crop may be harvested. In areas where excessive rainfall has occurred a short time before harvest, water blisters (Small elevated white spots) are likely to occur on the skin. Delay harvesting until the blisters have dried. If harvesting is done while the potatoes are "Sappy" or "blisery" heavy losses by rotting may occur.

How Do You Dig Them?

Potatoes should not be handled like stacks of stovewood if they are to keep. A turning plow or a middle buster run 8-10 inches deep may be used to dig the crop. Separate all skinned or bruised potatoes from the good ones. Use the skinned ones first. If the storage conditions are right, the others will wait patiently for their turn on the table. Remember to handle them almost as carefully as you would an egg. As soon as the potatoes are dug, place them in the shade so that they will not blister.

Good Storage Conditions Are Essential

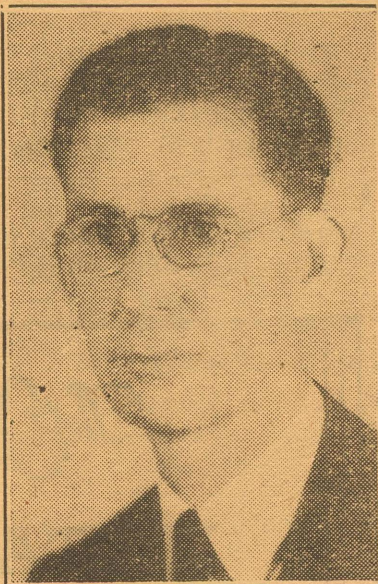

A cool, well ventilated cellar is satisfactory for potato storage, provided it has an overhead vent that will allow the warm air and moisture to escape. The door and overhead vent should be opened at night and closed during the day to keep the interior cool. If out buildings or the area under the farm house are to be used for storage purposes, cross ventilation is essential. If exposed to light, potatoes will turn green. Avoid spreading the potatoes out on the ground or floor. Provide a slatted false floor with at least four inches of air space. Even willow poles or hay on which the potatoes are spread will allow the air to completely circle each potato. Remember that potatoes breathe and sweat just as you and I. Ventilation picks up the moisture and keeps the potatoes dry, which tends to reduce rot.

What Varieties Keep Best?

Irish Cobbler is preferable to Bliss Triumph for storage. Try to have some of both kinds. Bliss

Church of Christ To Begin Revival 24th

Evangelist R. C. Ledbetter will begin a Revival Meeting at the Church of Christ in Henrietta, Friday evening, June 24th. He will be assisted by the pastor of that church, Bro. J. R. Fulmer.

Rev. Ledbetter needs no introduction to the people of Henrietta and surrounding communities as he has held revivals here before and he personally extends greetings to his many friends and brethren here and invites everyone out to the services.

The evening services will be held on the church yard, in the open air, if the weather permits. Come.

Triumph for early "new Potatoes" have a place for immediate use. The bulk of your 1939 planting, if to be stored, should be in Cobblers—the kind to store for winter baking or frying.

Girls and Women Plan To Attend Short Course

The home demonstration and Girls 4-H Clubs are planning to have representatives at the Farmer's Short Course which is to be held at College Station in July.

The girls to attend are to be selected on June 25th at the Dress Parade which will be held in Henrietta at the Baptist church. The winning wardrobe and poultry demonstrators and the winning cooperators are to be given the trip. Also the Gold Star Girl, Dorothy Laughon of the Joy 4-H club and one sponsor will attend.

The women have already selected their representatives, who are Mrs. Alfred Goehring, council chairman of Cambridge, Mrs. Lee Barnett of Buffalo Springs, Mrs. Doyle Mount of Joy, Mrs. J. B. Stockton of Halsell, Mrs. A. F. Nimmo of Neville, and Mrs. Nora Wright of Dean Dale. The first three named are the voting delegates to the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

The Short Course will be held in two sections this year. The section for the 4-H Club Boys and Girls will meet 6-7-8 of July and the adult section on July 13-14-15. The change is due to the fact that enrollment for the past few years has increased so that the limited accommodations could not take care of all of them.

Style Show for June 25

The 4-H girls will show their ability to plan, buy, and construct their own garments as well as to keep records at 10:30 on Saturday, June 25 at the Baptist church.

The morning will be spent in recreation, reports from the club presidents as to the work being done by her club, a report from the Gold Star Girl, Dorothy Laughon, and the beginning of the judging of the slips and dresses.

Lunch will be served at noon. Each club will bring lunch for those coming from that club and then it will be served buffet style.

WACO SEES LARGEST CROWD OUT TO HEAR HILL-BILLY CANDIDATE

Waco, Texas, June 13.—"Never in the history of Waco, not during the past fifty years, were so many people assembled on the Court House lawn to listen to a candidate speak as were present Monday night to hear W. Lee O'Daniels of Ft. Worth, candidate for Governor speak, and to listen to the "Hill-Billy" orchestra. The crowd was even greater than that to see Mitchell hanged some years ago. Jim Ferguson could not have caused a larger crowd of folks to gather. They were here from the forks of the creek. "There's gold in them thar hills," and "I been here nigh onto 50 years, and I ain't never saw such a crowd," and "It's not politics, it's a revolution," were some of the sidebar remarks heard at the speaking. Mrs. O'Daniels was introduced, and "Beautiful Texas," was played by the orchestra, following which the young candidate for governor spoke. He does not look like a Hill-Billy; is polished and chesterfieldian in demeanor, but is only espousing the cause of the hill-billy folks in this race."

W. Lee O'Daniels will speak in Wichita Falls Saturday night.

Winds from the Gulf have caused the trees on the scenic drive between Galveston and Port Arthur to grow slantwise. It is odd, when not a ripple of air is stirring, to see the trees bent westward. Of a similar sight, Adelaide Crapsey, the poet, once wrote:

soil just after the spring plowing cannot realize its intense crimson. The ground is as blushing as so many acres of red roses. Visitors to the Grand Canyon say the hue of the rock walls is not more vermilion. And the banks cut away for the highway are so bright a red that it would scarcely be a poetic exaggeration to say that the earth seems freshly wounded. Included among the spring pilgrimages along "dogwood trails" and "bluebonnet trails" should be an excursion to see the inconceivably vivid soil south of historic San Augustine.

Congressman to Stay In Washington Until Congress Adjourns

To the Voters of Clay County, Texas:

Your Congressman, Hon. W. D. McFarlane will remain in Washington as long as Congress is in Session even though it does not adjourn until Election Day. Meanwhile, three Wichita Falls candidates are stumping his District and trying to get his office.

When Representative Buchanan died after 26 years of service, the Texas delegation elected Mr. McFarlane to the Appropriations Committee, one of the largest in Congress. Still there is an unnamed, unsigned, and unclaimed circular being circulated stating that the Congressmen from Texas are ashamed of him. This one fact shows the untruthfulness of this attack.

His fight against trusts has brought upon him much abuse by the farm machinery trust, the cotton gin trusts, the power companies who do not want to expand into the rural districts so that farmers may have rural electrification, and many others. His stand against war—the neutrality act—prohibiting our munition factories or merchants or bankers to deal with nations at war and bring us into a war, has caused the manufacturers of war materials to call him a demagogue. But, his stand helped put this law into effect and it has kept us out of war to this date. More efforts are being made to make the law stricter than it now is. 531 members of Congress passed it as it is and the same number must pass upon any revisions to the law.

His stand against crime is historic and entitles him to a place in history. The strengthening of the G-Men so they could arm themselves, make arrests, cross state lines, and to kill criminals in self defense, is the meaning of the law he sponsored and by which the work of the G-man has become so effective. The records of identification, finger prints, crime records, etc., have enabled them to apprehend many criminals.

Disease has been combatted by your representative. He has sponsored many effective laws regulating vital statistics, health, and research. One of his acts enabled the vital statistics of Texas to be recognized by the United States Government, whereas it had not been recognized before that time.

Your Congressman has had training in his work. He was a Representative in the Texas Legislature, a Senator in the Texas Senate, took a special course in taxation in Chicago University, has had special courses in investigation, and has had actual experience in it. His minority reports in Congress have startled the nation, especially the report on the air mail contracts, the airplane construction contracts, and other contracts by which the government was being defrauded. None of the three opponents of Mr. McFarlane have had any legislative experience of any kind, so far as known.

Mr. McFarlane is recognized by the National Grange as the outstanding farm leader in Congress and his integrity in unquestioned. We need more men like this in office, especially the ones whom the big interests call demagogues. Usually, a demagogue is one who is giving the little fellow as much chance as the big one has always had.

July 23rd is election day. Please remember W. D. McFarlane for Congress.

Dispelling The Fog

By Charles Michelson

It cannot be denied that Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins gave a published interview in which he stated that if he were a resident, instead of an emigrant, from Iowa he would have voted for Congressman Wearin against Senator Gillette in the Democratic primaries.

According to the impassioned senators who pilloried Harry Hopkins for expressing such a preference, his utterance meant that every emergency employee and every beneficiary of the Government relief spending would feel that his job or his subsistence check was in peril unless he obeyed the implied edict.

It is of record that James Roosevelt referred to Wearin as his friend in a letter correcting the statement that he had cancelled a speaking tour to Iowa in Wearin's behalf. The speech-making excursion was wholly a fiction. For that or for some other rather vague reason, both candidates claimed that they had the White House accolade.

It was a funny campaign any way you take it, with the Congressman asserting his complete fealty to President Roosevelt and the Senator insisting that he was a better New Dealer than his adversary. According to the record, Senator Gillette voted with the administration 13 times and Wearin 14 times. The Senator voted against the administration four times and Wearin five times.

Now, down in Florida, when Senator Pepper prevailed over Congressman Wilcox, the administration critics pointed out that this result was due entirely to the White House influence. Just why the White House influence was enough to give Senator Pepper a 2 to 1 majority over the anti-New Deal adversary and in Iowa the same influence, alleged by the Gillette supporters, produced approximately the opposite result has not been explained by the political commentators or by the administration's foes who hail Gillette's renomination as a demonstration of the depth of the Democratic revolt against the New Deal policies.

A Highly Mythical Group

Some of those who are insisting that the Administration has in mind campaigns to defeat all anti-Administration Democratic Senators advance the argument that the result in Iowa was not the effect of the President's support, which both claimed inferentially, but was a revulsion against what they call the "elimination committee." This as a highly mythical group in which they include any and all people in the government who have manifested any interest in the Democratic primaries. It seems to be the theory that Cabinet officers and others are some sort of priesthood pledged to abstention from any political activities. As nine out of ten of men so placed have a history of political activity, this seems logical only to those Senators who are most active on the other side. Just why a Cabinet member, for example, should be criticized for advocating the nomination and election of an administration Senator, while a United States Senator should be exercising a legitimate, if not necessarily praiseworthy, effort to accomplish the nomination and election of an anti-Administration candidate, is rather puzzling.

(By the Captain)

The state democratic executive committee in session first the week unanimously passed the recommendation of a sub-committee which ruled that the name of Vernest O. Thompson should not be printed on the ballot to be voted on July 23rd, in the first primary election. It was said that Thompson, through someone purporting to be his manager, had sought to secure his original filing petition and replace it with one giving his name simply as V. O. Thompson. The committee decided that his original filing had been made in order to confuse the voters on the question of which Thompson they were voting for,—Ernest O. or Vernest O. The action of the executive committee shows they are watching out for just such tactics and will not be made a party thereto by failing to pass on such matters. They have ruled wisely!

Down at Yoakum when W. Lee O'Daniel "drove into town" with his Hill Billy Boys to deliver his program and address in his campaign for the gubernatorial nomination, which in Texas is tantamount to election, the gathering which was said to have been one of the largest yet assembled to hear a candidate for this important office continued their applause so long that the candidate was forced to "please discontinue your applause as I am paying for this broadcast and want to address you." The vociferous crowd finally quieted and the "opportunity candidate" finally got over his address! Straw votes now being taken are having to take O'Daniel into consideration, and those well acquainted with Texas politics and how Texans are prone to vote in such instances are figuring him "in the race." He is touring the state with his Hill Billies and giving his usual programs. With Thompson, McCraw, Crowley, Hunter and O'Daniel figuring in the heated campaign, many things of interest to the voters will likely take place ere July 23 rolls around!

John L. Lewis has again "come forth" with a demand on congress that they pass his labor bill before adjourning under his threat of turning labor against all who oppose this wanted law. It may be that Lewis has such a power, but the rank and file, especially among the southern people do not look on him with the least degree of friendliness. In fact, if one were to ask the first ten people he meets on the streets of most any southern town what he or she thinks of John L. Lewis and his methods and plans, it would be found that nine of them are against any such movements on the part of any one man. Lewis just isn't as popular as he seems to think himself to be.

The regular Monday Sales Days are becoming more fully appreciated by those having livestock and other property for sale. Up to, but not including the receipts for Monday of this week, the total sales had reached the $38,000 mark. When it is taken into consideration that this movement is one that grows very slowly and depends mostly upon the results obtained for its continued success, it cannot but be seen that those in charge are making real whole-hearted support of every loyal citizen who wants to see our city and county grow and our citizenship prosper. This is one of the finest movements ever undertaken here and that it is already making rapid progress and should receive the interest of people from far and that each Monday finds new buyers and sellers added to the list of those already on the records of the management.

The old Settlers or Pioneers Reunion for this year has been set for sometime in October by the committee in charge. This is our "one" big annual entertainment for those who pioneered and mapped out our country and section and the entertainment furnished for those yet remaining with us should be the best obtainable. Just stop and think of the number now gone on,—those whom you can see in your memory as they, too, were here and enjoying the splendid parades and various forms of entertainment. Many, many of them have gone on and many more will soon have passed on! While they are yet with us, let everything be done for their possible pleasure and comfort!

The Cash kidnapping case is another page in history which proves that crime doesn't pay! But isn't it just a terrible thing when a little child, helpless and innocent, must be the victim of one who craves money so strongly they will take life to secure it,—when it is known that all the money coined isn't worth anything to the one thus securing it? But it seems this fact cannot be realized!

The meeting was held at the Wichita Wholesale Grocery Company and all managers reported business good over the territory, and on the upward trend.

The main feature of the meeting was a talk by Mr. C. H. Parker, president of the Company, who had recently returned from Houston, at which place he had attended a Meeting of the Board of Retail Grocers Association of which he is a member. Mr. Parker reported a nice time and was filled with new ideas and very enthusiastic over the general outlook for business for the next few months. He was well pleased with the report of the local and other of his stores over the territory and gave the boys much encouragement and good advice.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Patterson and daughter, Nancy, of Vernon were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Miller.

There may be other flags in other countries that are just as patriotically loved and respected, but none more reverently! When one looks at the Stars and Stripes floating gently in the breezes, they know that it is a flag that really symbolizes a free country, about as happy a nation as now exists on the face of the earth and inhabited by a people who want only

MRS. HOMER LYDE DIED AT WILLOW SPRINGS SUNDAY

Mrs. Homer L. Lyde, 33, passed away at her home in the Willow Springs community Sunday, June 12th, at 11:30 from a heart attack.

Funeral services were held Monday at 3 p. m. from the First Baptist church with Rev. E. L. Moody, pastor of that church officiating. He used for some of his scripture readings, the 23rd Psalm and a part of Paul's letter to the church at Corinth. Music was furnished by Mesdames Paul J. Merrill, and George Smith, Miss Jewel Cunningham, Mr. L. C. Kelley and John Louis Koethe, with Mrs. Henry Fields accompanying. They sang "Face To Face," "Just When I Need Him Most," and "Abide With Me."

Interment was in Hope Cemetery under the direction of the Moore Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Jim Boyd, Marion Hise, Thad Gill, Bud Frey, Ed Heller and Buster Zachry.

Emma Rector was born in Oklahoma. She came to Clay county in early girlhood and joined the Christian church in 1925. She was married to Homer Lyde five years ago.

Survivors include the husband, four children, one daughter, Onita, by a former marriage, Cathryn Elizabeth, Luther Homer and Ray Lee Lyde, four sisters, Mesdames Eva Laualler, Ida Handson, Jewell Campsey, Lena Poduskah, three brothers, Perry Rector, Alvie Rector, Rolie Rector and her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Green Rector.

Cotton Destroyed By Grasshoppers May Be Planted, Other Crop

In some instances, cotton has been and will be destroyed by grasshoppers. In such cases such acreage may be used for the production of other depleating crops or sudan, can or millet without affecting the payment.

Producers who have planted an acreage in excess of your cotton allotment for their farms may immediately destroy such excess acreage and plant this acreage to any crop they wish other than cotton and fully meet the requirements for compliance under the 1938 Program, provided such farms stay within the total depleating allotment for the farm.

Mrs. Belle Faunt, a sister of Mrs. A. L. Mallick, died at her home in Greenwood, Mississippi, Monday and buried in that city Tuesday. Mrs. Faunt had been seriously ill for some time and the four sisters were with her when the death angel came.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that I have been appointed a deputy game warden, and as such it will be my chief duty to protect the water supply for the city of Henrietta. Of course I will be expected to and will uphold the law as to conserving game and fish as provided by law but my interest will be principally in looking after the purity of our water supply.
