CEMETERY GROUNDS ARE IMPROVED

Under the supervision of L. Y. Herrin, Guy Hardin and W. A. Henderson, directors of the Byers Cemetery Association, a Water Line is being laid to the cemetery grounds, which provides convenient connection for every lot.

This necessary and important improvement was made possible by the liberal contribution of Mrs. Helen House of Walters, Okla.

Mrs. House is the widow of Dr. Charles M. House and a sister of Sam Householder, deceased, whose bodies are buried in the Byers cemetery.

W. D. McFarlane Announces For Re-Election To Congress

The Leader has just received the formal announcement of Honorable W. D. McFarlane, who is a candidate for re-election to Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries. Congress adjourned last Thursday evening, and Mr. McFarlane left Washington Saturday morning, driving home in his car with his children. Congressman McFarlane, last year, was appointed on the powerful Appropriations Committee, succeeding the late J. P. Buchanan, deceased. Due to the late adjournment of Congress, Mr. McFarlane will have but a short time in which to give an accounting of his stewardship. His announcement follows:

W. D. McFarlane

Fellow citizens of the Thirteenth Congressional District, I am returning home this week to give an accounting of my stewardship as your Representative in Congress for the past two years; and on my record of service rendered in your behalf, I ask your endorsement for re-election to Congress. When the Honorable Champ Clark was Speaker of the House, he delivered an address at the National Press Club in Washington in which he said: "It is a high honor to be a Representative in Congress, if for only one term, and with the numbers of terms the honor increases in geometrical rather than in arithmetical proportion. A member's usefulness to his country should increase in the same proportion. A man has to learn to be a Representative just as he must learn to be a blacksmith, a carpenter, a farmer, an engineer, a lawyer, or a doctor.

"Poeta nascitur non fit—a poet is born, not made—says Horace; but Congressmen—that is, useful and influential Congressmen—are made largely by experience and practice.

"It is an unwise performance for any district to change Representatives at short intervals. A new Congressman must begin at the foot of the class and spell up. Of course, the more brains, tact, energy, courage, and industry he has the quicker he will get up. If he possesses these qualities, and if his constituents will keep him in the House, he is as certain to rise as the sparks are to fly upward. No human power can keep him down. It is only fair and rational to assume that every Representative's constituents desire to see him among the topnotchers.

"No man should be elected to the House simply to gratify his ambition. All members should be elected for the good of the country.

"The best rule, it seems to me, is for a district to select a man with at least fair capacity, industrious, honest, energetic, sober, and courageous, and keep him here so long as he discharges his duties faithfully and well. Such a man will gradually rise to high position and influence in the House. His wide acquaintance with members helps him amazingly in doing this."

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE

Early last year, upon the death of the Honorable J. P. Buchanan, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, the House Ways and Means Committee, which is the Committee that selects the Members of all other committees of the House, informed the Texas Delegation that they would elect in Mr. Buchanan's place the Member from Texas recommended by them. I was unanimously endorsed for the vacancy on the Appropriations Committee by the Texas Delegation, and was endorsed by the Ways and Means Committee by the Texas Delegation, and was endorsed by the Ways and Means Committee to be placed on the Appropriations Committee, where I have served since that time. I was then selected to serve on the Agricultural and Permanent Appropriations sub-committees of the Appropriations Committee. I am proud of the confidence thus shown in me, and the opportunity for service in your behalf that it has given me.

THE PLEDGE

Members of Congress are your public servants and should be guided by the Democratic Platform, which says: "We believe that a party platform is a covenant with the people to be faithfully kept by the party when intrusted with power, and that the people are entitled to know in plain words the terms of the contract to which they are asked to subscribe."

Committee Meets And Assesses Candidates

The Clay County Democratic Executive Committee met at 2 P. M. Monday in the office of the County Chairman, V. Lefevre to make final plans for the Democratic Primary elections July 23 and in August, and to determine the locations on the official ballot, also the amount each should be assessed.

Fourteen members of the Committee attended the meeting: They were: C. C. Reynolds, Doss, R. L. Ligon, Byers, W. J. Neville, Henrietta; W. R. Perkins, Vashti, R. C. Hoover, Marbledean; S. F. Copen, Charlie, R. L. Cash, Halsell; Frank Andrews, Joy; A. E. Jones, Prospect; N. T. Gaines, Bellevue; A. E. Cozart, Buffalo Springs; H. T. Merrill, Petrolia; V. L. Gilbow, Secret Springs; Jacob Scheffe, Windthorst.

JUDGE R. E. TAYLOR PASSES TO REWARD

The Leader learned, as we were near the end of our press run, that Judge R. E. Taylor had gone to his final reward about 10:30 p. m. last night in Wichita Falls. He was one of our most widely known citizens and his passing removes from the bar of Texas one of its leading practitioners. Funeral services will most likely be held Saturday, if plans are carried out, with interment being in Hope cemetery, with Moore Funeral directors in charge.

JUST CRUISING

(By the Captain)

With the longest day of the year, and perhaps one among the warmest days of the present summer season passing with June 22, the political campaign in Texas, from statewide down to precinct contests has also reached the boiling point. Candidates for governor, — some thirteen of them, — made political speeches throughout the entire state during the past week and this week-end finds each of them "on the go" with all possible speed. July 23rd, — date for the first primary is "just around the corner" and ere it can be realized will have come and gone, and with it the hopes of some of the candidates. The Dallas News Sunday carried a complete list of the thirteen who would serve our great Commonwealth as its chief executive. They are alphabetically listed as follows: S. T. Brogdon; Carl A. Crowley, Clarence Farmer, James A. Ferguson, Tom Hunter, Joseph King, Clarence R. Miller, William McCraw, Marvin P. McCoy, W. Lee O'Daniel, P. D. Renfro, Thomas W. Wolf, Ernest O. Thompson. With this number of candidates, seven of whom are practicing attorneys, one a tourist camp operator, one textile manufacturer, one farmer, one real estate dealer, one architect and two salesmen. Those opposed to lawyers in public office will have ample opportunity to choose one of the six listed, while those desiring a lawyer for governor have the seven to look over. It is said that the fact that O'Daniel is drawing such enormous crowds at every point where he speaks has become a real worry to the balance of the field, and if his crowds are anything like that which he had at Wichita Falls Saturday night, it is no wonder his opponents are worried. Unbiased attendants at this speaking saw the biggest assemblage ever gathered "West of the Auditorium" for a public political speaking, and that vast throng surely applauded O'Daniel, especially when he mentioned "those gum-shoe inspectors" who visit and "cut down" the pensions of the aged, and those "put-put-put truck inspetcors" who stop and weigh and often haul in and fine the truckers. O'Daniel says "it won't be long now before they will legislate a tax on us for breathing." With old, experienced politicians like Thompson, McCraw, Hunter, Crowley, and possibly some of the lesser-known campaigners "shelling the political woods" it surely begins to look like a real Texas campaign, and only the final count on July 23rd will tell who's who!

The passing of Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York, suddenly, on the senate floor prior to final adjournment removes from national politics one of the best known figures in our national government, as well as a nationally known columnist. Dr. Copeland has written many books and special articles on health and sanitation during his career. He was recognized as a staunch opponent of President Roosevelt's policies, and was defeated recently as a candidate for mayor of New York City. His remains were laid to rest Tuesday in Mahhaw, N. J.

China has been receiving the "aid of nature" in her battle against Japan in their undeclared war. The Yellow river has reached the highest flood stage in its history and has brought about the forced retreat of the Japanese army, thus aiding China in many ways. It is said the war is costing Japan $5,000,000 a day to operate, and with each passing day it adds this amount to the already enormous cost of this conflict. Just how long Japan can continue at this rate is a problem. At any rate this Chinese war hasn't come out just like Japan figured at the beginning and the longer it continues the more complicated become the financial difficulties of Japan.

The last available bachelor in the presidential family was united in marriage to Miss Anne Lindsay Clark, Boston, Saturday, when John Roosevelt youngest son, started his voyage over the sea of connubial bliss. None there be who wish these young people naught but happiness!

"Babe" Ruth has again entered the baseball limelight. He has been signed by the Brooklyn Dodgers management as a coach for the balance of the season, at a reported figure of $15,000, according to his own statement to the press. Now many of the young sandloters will watch the progress of the rejuvenated Dodgers under the assistance of the former homerun king.

The railroad commission of Texas, composed of Messrs. C. V. Terrell, Ernest O. Thompson and Lon Smith, agreed that the "shut-downs" on Saturdays and Sundays in Texas oil fields should be lifted Monday of this week. They said this was brought about through the falling down of the interstate oil compact commission, since many of the other oil producing states, in the compact, had never lowered their production and this in the face of over-production and lowered prices in the east.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

Visitors in Austin comment on the politeness of the newsboys. Austin newsies, in offering their wares, say, "Paper, sir."

There is one Mexican newsboy who always smiles, even though he is shouting tidings of calamity, disaster or catastrophe. In fact, the greater the loss of life or the more gruesome the murder, the wider his smile seems to be.

Zola would have made something of the little scene that this scribbler witnessed the other day. Two blind newspaper vendors listened carefully while a friend read the headlines they were to call out.

Look alikes: Charlie Ruggles, the movie star, and Bill Cooper, Pecos insurance man, who formerly was editor at Colorado. They even talk alike—and probably Bill wouldn't mind if the resemblance went as far as to include incomes.

An expression is gaining quite a vogue in the Capital City—"That's a good-un." It originated in these parts with Tom King, the big and genial State Auditor. For the benefit of those not familiar with the soft and sometimes telescoped pronunciation of the Old South, sub, the translation is, "That's a good one." Somehow, it sounds more effective when given in the King style, however.

Attorney General's race to present a new and colorful figure every four years. A few campaigns back, it was Dan Moody, energetic and picturesque; then came Jimmy Allred, boyish and eloquent; four years ago, big Bill McCraw, with his humor, come on the scene; and now it's Ralph Yarborough, whose smile, sincerity and oratory are providing the color in this year's contest.

Older Texans will remember Brann, the Iconoclast. The writings of this brilliant editor, who died before the turn of the century, have been hard to obtain for many years. A few copies of an out-of-print edition could be found at old book stores. Now, however, a big publishing company has brought out a popular edition and probably there will be a bearish effect on the price of the rarer volumes which, will still appeal to collectors.

Austin street lights (one of the favorite theme of this commentator,) recently referred to by Major Bowes in his radio program. He spoke of the Capitol City as the home of "perpetual moonlight" no, clarence, not "perpetual moonshine." The city has 29 steel latticework towers; originally, there were 33. They were purchased in the period from 1893 to 1895 at a cost of $113,000. The towers are 150 feet high and in 1930 a boy who had climbed to the top fell almost to the ground. He landed on a platform 20 feet above the sidewalk. His plunge was inside the shaft and was broken somewhat by striking the framework first on one side and then the other. He recovered.

City Water Superintendent C. G. McKinney informed our reporter as we go to press that a new 40 h. p. engine has been installed at the City Water Plant, and in a test the new engine put 1060 gallons of water in the standpipe in exactly two minutes.

Mr. McKinney says the new engine is needed in the summer time and especially during fires in order to have plenty of water in such emergencies, and is well pleased with the showing made.

DISPELLING THE FOG

Nowadays when the newspapers of the country are full of political forecasts, straw votes, and real or invented surveys of the American trend of thought, it might be supposed that when an authority produces one of these estimates it would be prominently displayed.

Sad to say, the headlines and editorial comments in the anti-administration press appear to be confined to such forecasts as imply a recession from President Roosevelt's popularity and criticism of the New Deal measures.

The other day, Fortune magazine, which can hardly be suspected either of great admiration for the President or a devotion to the emergency and reform measures that were the striking element in the proceedings of the Seventy-Fifth Congress, went in to the survey business rather elaborately. The editors announced that their Quarterly Survey to be published next month indicates "that 54.7 per cent of the population approve of Mr. Roosevelt, while 34.4 per cent disapprove, and 10.9 per cent 'don't know.' The survey even indicates a possible majority disapproval of the phenomenon of a rebellious Congress: 47.2 per cent think that Congress should work more closely with the President, while 40.6 per cent prefer it to show an independent spirit and 12.2 per cent 'don't know.' "

Fortune is a big business magazine. Suppose it had announced that its survey had shown an opposite trend of public sentiment. The anti-New Deal newspapers would have screamed the resule in big headlines on every first page. As it was, the few of them that mentioned the conclusions of the Fortune poll printed just a little bit of it, very deep in the back of the paper. Most of the big newspapers ignored the whole account, although advance copies were furnished them by the magazine. One of the great metropolitan journals passed up Fortune's survey and the accompanying editorial, though it gave a long account of a sectional bankers' conference in Springfield, Illinois, in which the New Deal was attacked.

Curiously enough, not one of the prominent newspaper columnists who seize with avidity on anything that seems to throw doubt on the success of the New Deal measures and who see in everything evidences of revolt and disintegration in the Democratic party also paid any attention to the magazine's story or its editorial. They were too busy denouncing Relief Administrator Hopkins' statement that were he a voter in Iowa, his native state, he would favor Congressman Wearin as against Senator Gillette, who won the Senatorial nomination in the recent primary. They also had a great deal to say about the unimportance of the congratulatory telegrams received by Gillette from Cabinet officers and others as bearing on the question of whether the administration was mixing in local primary fights.

Why the Story Was Not Published

Of course, nobody can question the authority of the owner of a newspaper to print what he likes and omit what he dislikes, even if it does not seem quite square to his readers that they should not have all the news.

"BIG FOUR" CANDIDATES
FOR GOV. ALARMED
OVER W. LEE O'DANIELS

Former Gov. Jim Ferguson in his paper last week took a pot shot at Lee O'Daniels for taking the Ten Commandments for his platform, while at the very same moment Gov. Ferguson's close friend Senator T. H. McGregor came out for W. Lee O'Daniels for Governor. Six in one hand, and a half dozen in the other. Gov. Ferguson has a cousin in the race, and would like to make some votes for him which if he does he must get them away from the four heretofore high men, Crowley, McCraw, Thompson and Hunter, (four high before the Hill-Billy Candidate O'Daniels announced.) Perhaps the "Big Four" candidates will meet and devise some way to Stop Those Hill-Billies.

Mrs. W. H. Neeley of Bellevue, was a weekend guest in the home of Mrs. M. N. Moore.

McFARLANE ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION TO CONGRESS

interpretation of our platform when he said: "Our vision for the future contains more than promises.

"This is our answer to those who, silent about their own plans, ask us to state our objectives.

"Of course, we will continue to seek to improve working conditions of the workers of America—to reduce hours overlong, to increase wages that spell starvation, to end the labor of children, to wipe out sweatshops. Of course, we will continue every effort to end monopoly in business, to support collective bargaining, to stop unfair competition, to abolish dishonorable trade practices. For all these we have only just begun to fight.

"Of course, we will continue to work for cheaper electricity in the homes and on the farms of America, for better and cheaper transportation, for low interest rates, for sounder home financing, for better banking for the regulation of security issues for reciprocal trade among nations, for the wiping out of slums. For all these we have just begun to fight.

"Of course, we will continue our efforts in behalf of the farmers of America. With their continued cooperation we will do all in our power to end the piling up of huge surpluses which spelled ruinous prices for their crops. We will persist in successful action for better land use for reforestation, for the conservation of water all the way from its source to the sea, for drought and flood control, for better marketing facilities for farm commodities, for a definite reduction of farm tenancy, for encouragement of farmer cooperatives, for crop insurance, and a stable food supply. For all these we have just begun to fight.

MY RECORD OF SERVICE

My record of service, rendered in your behalf, is my platform upon which I ask your support, and you will find the Democratic platform as above interpreted by the President, was and is the "beacon light" upon which I have actively fought to carry out the pledges thus made. A review of my platform two years ago and the record made, clearly shows that I have kept faith with you 100 per cent. The best evidence that I have voted for the best interests of the masses of the people is that not one single vote I have cast the past two years has been challenged by any opponent, to the present time. Two years ago the people of the nation endorsed our platform by more than 11 million votes majority, and you re-elected me by a majority of 2,992, which is a larger majority than received by my predecessor in any of his campaigns for re-election. My record of service favors:

1. ADEQUATE OLD AGE PENSIONS. I have always actively supported relief favoring the aged and have signed petitions requesting the Ways and Means Committee to hold hearings on H. R. 4199, the General Welfare Act; and have signed the petition to bring this legislation before Congress for their consideration. I believe that our aged should receive their pensions based on their need, and not contingent upon the ability of some relative to support them. Our Federal laws clearly do not require need to be shown except by the applicants themselves.

2. COINING MONEY; GOVERNMENT CREDIT; PRICE LEVELS. An effective government control over and use of the money and credit system to restore to Congress its Constitutional right to coin money and to make the credit of the nation an instrument in the hands of government to be directly employed in breaking the existing credit monopoly, stabilizing the price level, and bringing the total consuming power of the people into line with their power to produce.

3. AGRICULTURE—COST OF PRODUCTION. A simple agricultural bill to put a floor under the price of farm commodities, end gambling and speculation, and effectively assure the farmer cost of production plus a reasonable profit.

4. EXPANSION OF INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION; MONOPOLY CONTROL. Legislation to bring about, through the cooperation of government, business, and labor, a coordinated expansion of industrial production and an effective control over both monopoly price and monopolistic curtailment of production of needed goods and services.

REVISION OF OUR TAX LAWS, eliminating exemptions and loopholes and raising our revenue based upon ability to pay.

6. PUBLIC WORKS; EMPLOYMENT; HOUSING; NATURAL RESOURCES. A long-range flexible program of public works, set up by Congressional enactment, made self-liquidating to the largest possible extent, capable of expansion and contraction in accordance with the needs of our people for employment and our business for assistance in stabilizing its market, and aimed primarily to meet such outstanding national needs as slum elimination and low-cost housing and the need for conservation and development of natural resources.

7. TAXING PROFITS OUT OF WAR, and limiting profits to 10 per cent on all government war material contracts in peace time.

8. PRESERVE AMERICAN LIBERTIES FOR ALL. Preservation of American democracy and civil liberties as set out in the Bill of Rights. The preservation of these rights should extend to all persons everywhere in the Nation, conservative, liberal, or otherwise, and of whatever race, creed, or color.

I have been glad to cooperate with every portion of my district in securing whatever relief has been requested and the many projects such as schools, gymnasiums, road improvements, municipal light plants, rural electrification, and all other kinds of relief and services furnished by the government, too numerous to mention, as shown by an itemized statement sent in the speech recently mailed each voter in the district.

Since I have had the honor to represent you, more than 56 million dollars in federal funds has been expended up until January 1, 1938, in the Thirteenth Congressional District. I have supported each project and all legislation that brought all this money into the Thirteenth District.

Recently, I secured the approval of the Wise-Montague land use project under which the government will purchase 45 thousand acres of land, which will mean an expenditure in this area of more than 250 thousand dollars, and employment for many of our people.

I appreciate more than words can express the confidence you have always shown in me, and have tried to show that appreciation by the kind and character of service rendered in battling for your rights, whether on the floor of the House or in the Committee, or in the office looking after your every interest.

SCURRILOUS ATTACK

While I have remained at my post of duty looking after your interests I find that one of my opponents, while handing out his empty promises with one hand, in which he promises "not to blame others for things they haven't done," with the other hand he has been spreading a three page, legal sized, mimeographed pamphlet entitled "McFarlane Data" which purports to be quoted from a Washington Reporter for the Chicago Tribune. This unsigned, scurrilous, and maliciously libelous statement, circulated by this opponent and purporting to quote from a reporter of the Chicago Tribune has been completely repudiated and denied by this reporter as being without any foundation in fact and completely false. I have a letter from this newspaper reporter completely repudiating the purported statement in which he says that these statements are statements made without any foundation in fact so far as I know of my own personal knowledge, and so far as I know of my own personal knowledge these statements cannot be sustained in fact." I will be glad to show anyone who meets me this reporter's letter.

In conclusion, fellow citizens, I want to express to you my heartfelt gratitude for the opportunities for service that you have given me, the honors that you have bestowed upon me and to assure you that I will in the future, as in the past, when re-elected to this high office, continue the battle for equal rights and opportunities for all and special privileges for none.

Sincerely,
W. D. McFarlane

Notice

Notice is hereby given that I have been appointed a deputy game warden, and as such it will be my chief duty to protect the water supply for the city of Henrietta. Of course I will be expected to and will uphold the law as to conserving game and fish as provided by law but my interest will be principally in looking after the purity of our water supply.

C. G. McKinney.

The candidates speaking at Buffalo Springs held last Friday night drew one of the largest crowds that has been present at a meeting of this kind this year.

IF TAXES WERE PAID WITH WHEAT

It would have taken 2,086,257 bushels* to pay Lone Star Gas System's 1937 tax bill

*Based on average 1937 Price of $1.00 per Bushel

THIS is a lot of wheat — nearly half of the entire 1935 crop harvested in the 58 Texas counties in which Lone Star Gas System operates. To move these 2,086,257 bushels to the tax collector's office to pay the 54 different kinds of city, county, district, state and federal taxes would require 1,780 freight cars forming a train 13.8 miles long! So you see taxes are a very great factor in our operating expenses. Last year they amounted to 23.3% of operating and maintenance costs!

Taxes charged against this system have been increased 42% during the last four years and our rates are not up proportionately. This has created difficult conditions for us in maintaining our record of dependability when less and less of your gas dollar has been left to pay for the essentials of service.
