Rev. Wood will preach two sermons at this place next Sunday. One at 11 railroad time in the morning, and the other at 1:30 railroad time in the evening.

Misses Maude Groves, Effie Brownfield, Ada and Belle Jones, and Clara Bell, Carl Woodard and Terry Noble who are staying in Brownfield and attending school spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes.

Misses Dora Daugherty, Doll Pyeatt, Flora Robinson, Irene Copeland, Eva McDaniel, Effie Brownfield, Myrtle Mix, Messrs. Luke Robinson, Floyd Pyeatt, A. T. Small, Sam Pyeatt, Fred Pyeatt, Lawson Bess, Jessie Hamilton, Earl Hill, and Jack Bryan attended the entertainment at Gomez Friday night.

Mr. Hughes, the telephon man was here the first of the week talking up a telephone line from here to Lamesa, but many of our citizens have subscribed for the construction of a line to connect with the long distance line that is being put in at Canyon City to Big Springs. It seems that we are not going about this matter in a business way and that we ought to have a definite understanding about the line we prefer and then act as a unit. We can and must have a telephone.

The Wonders of Japan.

William J. Bryan is at present in Japan and several letters of his has reached the Dallas News. His description of that wonderful people is worth reading, and exhibits the fact that he is a close observer, and expresses his thoughts in the plainest of words. For instance, Japan has only 160,000 square miles—not as large as Texas—and yet this little island empire threw the Russian bear on its back and made it yell, "enough" and made it take paragonic in the way of a treaty that was as good as to say, "We'll behave ourselves"—which is the first time since Ivan the Terrible, that the Russian bear had to stick its tail between its hind legs and slope. He also tells of the little farms of an acre or two, and their miniature gardens in which mountains, hills and lakes are imitated, of the dwarf fruit trees that in a half century do not grow over one to two feet high, and the astonishing amount of fruit they produce. Japan must be an interesting country, worthy the study and observation of any man, and these letters of Bryan in the News help lift the curtain of a nation that may be destined to work wonders in this world.

FOR JUDGE—64th Judicial District:
L. S. KINDER.
(Present Incumbent.)

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY—64th Judicial District:
C. S. WILLIAMS.

Gen. Bates is now the commander-in-chief of the United States army. Gen. Chaffee having been retired on account of age.

Representative Garner and wife of this state, are the only Texans that have been invited to the Roosevelt-Longworth wedding at the White House which is scheduled to be pulled off on the 17th of this month.

The governor of this state says that Texas is in a superb financial condition, and as he is a plain man, and has never monkeyed with the strings of "High Finance," he ought to know what he is talking about.

In St. Louis recently, something that wore pants, ran smuck along the streets and stabbed fourteen women and girls with a pocket-knife, some seriously, others slightly but none fatally. The miscreant has not been apprehended at last accounts.

Captain Schalk, of the excursion boat Slocum, which some time ago was destroyed, and with its destruction several hundred lives were sacrificed, has just been tried, and was found guilty of criminal negligence, and given a sentence of ten years in the New York penitentiary.

The diplomats that met at Algeciras, Spain, to settle the affairs of Morocco, have entered upon that stage of their proceedings that they would like to take a rest. The deeper they probe into matters affecting that government, the more they perceive they are likely to get their diplomatic noses into a trap that will hold.

King Christian of Denmark died the first of the week. He was eighty-eight years of age, and was an able monarch. He was nick-named "the father-in-law of Europe." Queen Alexandra of England, and the Empress Dowager Dagmar of Russia are his daughters, while the new king of Norway, Haakon, is a son of his, and the present king of Greece is a grandson.

We clip from the Borden Citizen the following telephone news: Messrs. Curtis and Alexander are putting up a telephone line at Lubbock to run to Tahoka and Gail. Tahoka is to be the central point of this enterprise and there will be a branch line from that town to Lamesa and another to Brownfield. This will put Gail in direct communication with three more of the best little towns in this part of the west.

Old Castro, President of Venezuela, shows a firm front to the European powers that have been trying to squeeze cash out of him or his court-yemen. To be honest about it, about nine tenths of South American obligations were obtained by collusions between unprincipled revolutionists and the same kind of "humanity" on the outside. Away down somewhere in the hide of Castro is a streak of honor and honesty that will not permit him conscientiously to fritter the revenues of his country away in paying debts obtained by diplomatic chicanery.

Teacher's Institute Proceedings

The address of welcome by Mr. Gainer was ably responded to by Judge Copeland.

The program was carried out with the exception of some of the readings which were omitted because of the absence of the ones to whom they were assigned.

The discussions were greatly enjoyed by all present.

The discussion on Naval Reading especially became quite warm.

Judge Spencer being unavoidably absent his subject was ably presented by Mrs. Spencer.

The Reading "Hop" by Miss Fannie Thomson and the recitations by Geo. McWhirter and Brock Gist were greatly enjoyed by the Institute.

The entertainment Friday night by the Gomez Literary Society was exceptionally good, showing unusual talent.

The debate, Resolved, That Texas should enact compulsory education laws to the age of 16, was decided in favor of the negative.

The people of Gomez seemed determined that the visitors should have a good time and vied with each other in offering hospitalities.

Standing room was at a premium.

The libel suit against Mr. Hapgood, the editor of Town Topics of New York City, has elicited some interest in the public press.

"Town Topics" and "Fads and Fancies" were supported more by a species of genteel blackmail by the timid rich than by actual public patronage. One of the Vanderbilts was tapped for $15,000, Chauncey M. Depew for $2,500, and other noted men who basked in "High Finance" and sported with fickle public opinion. What has been brought to the surface in this trial exhibits the fact that some men are sensitive to ridicule and sarcasm that they permit their bank accounts to be lessened on such frivolous pretexts.

Texas candidates are coming to the surface. The country press are announcing them right along at present, and there appears no dearth of material to make official of.

The President recently ordered a denial to be published that he had given his photograph to be printed in the "Fads and Fancies" of New York City, and returned a copy of that publication to the editor, which that individual had sent to him.

In the city of Mexico recently the weather took a jump towards the freezing point, so that the police were compelled to furnish blankets to unprotected persons. The papers stated that those persons who "boozed" were the first to curl up and die. This is a phenomenon in weather conditions for that section.

Frivolous Definitions.

CONSCIENCE—The internal whisper that says: "Don't do it; you might get caught."

VANITY—The food of fools.

APPRECIATION—Envy in sheep's clothing.

A COMPROMISE—An amicable understanding by which you and your wife agree to let her have her own way.

ALMONY—The grass widow's pension.

HIGH FINANCE—Making two millions grow where none grew before.

Russia has been somewhat quiet the past week. The soldiers and marine in Vladivostok have not been subdued, and are still painting that town a red color, and occasionally a few Jews are massacred, while the government is engaged in whitewashing itself.

Rip Van Winkle Stand Patters

When our national Senate wrangles about the boycott in China against American manufactured goods we take it as a sign that the Rip Van Winkle stand-patters on the tariff have had a touch of nightmare and are trying to turn over and give their bones that they have been lying on so long a little rest. When they wake up from the dose they have taken they will find a different sentiment prevailing. The world is beginning to understand the commercial value of each other's products better, as cables leak, steam annihilates distance, and the stand pater will perceive that he is standing on a pedestal that blocks commerce and intercourse, and keeps the surplus products of every favored section of the globe from reaching those regions that have not been favored.

WRITE US A LETTER

freely and frankly, in strictest confidence, telling us all your symptoms and troubles. We will send free advice (in plain sealed envelope), how to cure them. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

"YOU ARE FRIENDS of mine," writes Mrs. F. L. Jones, of Gallatin, Tenn.: "For since taking Cardui I have gained 35 lbs., and am in better health than for the past 9 years. I tell my husband that Cardui is worth its weight in gold to all suffering ladies."

Hon. William Jennings Bryan, is now in Asia, will contribute thirty or more letters to THE SUNDAY NEWS descriptive of his travels abroad. He will visit Japan, Korea, the Philippines, China, India, Palestine, Egypt, Turkey, the Balkan states, Russia, Poland, the great powers of Europe, Italy, England and latter Australia and New Zealand. It is a most comprehensive tour and embraces about all of the universe that is of immediate interest.

Mr. Bryan's rank as a statesman no less than his facility of expression, keen insight and journalistic experience peculiarly fits him for a news ambassador to the four quarters of the earth. That which is of interest in governments, to people, in civilization, in races, in religious and sociological problems, will be touched out by him and illustrated for the pleasure and profit of readers of THE SUNDAY NEWS.

The world is making history every day now; momentous issues are moving to culmination in Russia, China, Turkey and the buffer states. Jews driven to desperation in Russia are again looking yearningly toward Palestine; China, asleep for centuries, shows symptoms of the unrest which presages awakening. Problems of marked significance are arising in governments and rulers are less easy on thrones. Mr. Bryan's letters will be of lasting value as contributions to contemporary history, but he will not write exclusively of great matters—he is gifted with the powers of entertaining and every letter will sparkle with crisp descriptive matter, such as takes the reader eagerly from column to column.

Although Mr. Bryan is one of the highest priced of public writers, THE NEWS has not hesitated to undertake the expense necessary to give his foreign observations to its readers. His first letter appears Sunday, Jan. 14. The Sunday News is $1.50 a year by mail. Single copies 5c everywhere.

The Jewish New Year.

The Jewish New Year is in August, but as the 1st of January is regarded by Jews as a civil rather than a religious holiday they observe it with the rest of the population.

The Indian Territory has recently been visited by a gang of safe-crackers, and three banks have been looted.

Col. Mann, a New York City editor, was a witness in a libel suit of a brother editor, and now he is under $10,000 bonds for swearing falsely. It appears that the average society editor in that metropolis, can't, won't or don't tell all the truth.

Body.

It is stated in a letter that the body of a Tyrolean guide who fell into a crevasse on the glacier of Gross venediger, in the Austrian Alps, thirty years ago, has been found in a remarkable state of preservation at the foot of the glacier.

Bracing Up.

It is claimed that Boston makes the finest quality of Egyptian cigarettes, produces the choicest Italian macaroni and has altogether the best brand of the Irishman in politics.

How to Tell New Nutmegs.

New nutmegs may be distinguished from the last year's supply by scraping the surface with the finger. If new, the oil will moisten the spot at once.

Results.

We read of an Eastern author who wrote three stories in a single night—then walked out of an open window and fell four—Atlanta Constitution.

Bicycle Craze in France.

The bicycle craze shows no abatement in France. Good roads have kept the wheel from falling into oblivion. True, there are not so many wheels seen on the boulevards and in parks, but in the country the wheeling tourist is as promiscuous as ever. At the seaside and summer resorts the wheel is still the favorite method of locomotion.

They "Fired" Mascagni.

Mascagni's American tour was relished so little by the Rossini lyceum at Pesaro, Italy, of which he is director, that the managers of the school relieved him of the man shortly before the end of the school. He offered the leadership of several other music schools in Italy, but he feels so aggrieved that he has applied to the courts for rein statement by legal mandate.

Some of the farmers in Terry county raised so much cotton last year that they couldn't gather it and are now ploughing it under. The farmers are getting down to work like they mean business.—Dawson County News.

It is quite out of the common to find a citizen of La Mesa who is not a land agent. The few who are not either ex-land agents are threatening to become land agents.—Dawson County News.

Say, don't you have more grafters than real sure enough land agents? I mean by land agents those who pay occupation taxes. Everybody knows what a "grafter" is.

A Notable Feature

For The

SUNDAY NEWS

Hon. William Jennings Bryan,

Who is now in Asia, will contribute thirty or more letters to THE SUNDAY NEWS descriptive of his travels abroad. He will visit Japan, Korea, the Philippines, China, India, Palestine, Egypt, Turkey, the Balkan states, Russia, Poland, the great powers of Middle Europe, Italy, England and later Australia and New Zealand. It is a most comprehensive tour and embraces about all of the universe that is of immediate interest.

Mr. Bryan's rank as a statesman no less than his facility of expression, keen insight and journalistic experience peculiarly fits him for a news ambassador to the four quarters of the earth. That which is of interest in governments, in peoples, in civilization, in races, in religious and sociological problems will be searched out by him and illustrated for the pleasure and profit of readers of THE SUNDAY NEWS.

The world is making history every day now; momentous issues are moving to culmination in Russia, China, Turkey and the buffer states. Jews driven to desperation in Russia are again looking yearningly toward Palestine; China, asleep for centuries, shows symptoms of the unrest which presages awakening. Problems of marked significance are arising in governments and rulers are less easy on thrones. Mr. Bryan's letters will be of lasting value as contributions to contemporary history, but he will not write exclusively of great matters—he is gifted with the powers of entertaining and every letter will sparkle with crisp descriptive matter, such as takes the reader eagerly from column to column.

Although Mr. Bryan is one of the highest priced of public writers, THE NEWS has not hesitated to undertake the expense necessary to give his foreign observations to its readers. His first letter appears Sunday, Jan. 14. The Sunday News is $1.50 a year by mail. Sin-

Gen. Joe Wheeler Passes Away.

Jan. 25, at 5:35 a. m. Gen. Joe Wheeler, ex-Confederate Lieutenant-General and Brigadier-General in the U. S. regular army, died at the home of his daughter in Brooklyn, N. Y. He was 69 years of age, and during his various military services he had 16 horses shot from under him, and eight staff officers shot beside him. He served in Cuba and the Philippines, and was a dashing cavalry leader.

Prairie Fire in Lynn, Lubbock and Garza Counties.

Lynn, Lubbock and Garza counties were visited recently by a prairie fire that swept quite an area and did considerable damage. The fire was started by a boy who was grubbing for wood, and who wanted to get the grass out of the way, when the flames became unmanageable and the wind done the rest. You can't be too careful with fire, a cow kicked over a lamp and Chicago went up in smoke. The Lynn County News showed its enterprise by publishing a map of the burnt district, and also an accurate account of the damage inflicted.

Hazing in Colleges.

Stephen Decatur, name-sake and great grandson of Commodore Decatur, who fought in Algeria and Tripoli over a century ago, and who also commanded war ships in the war of 1812 against Great Britain, and lowered the British flag on more than one occasion, has been dismissed from the National Naval Academy of Annapolis, by Secretary of the Navy Bonapart, for hazing. The practice of hazing has become epidemic among the cadets, as one died from the effects sometime ago. It consists chiefly in rough handling, by the older of the younger cadets, in which the fresh ones are made to stand on their heads and are wooled and bullied about, a kind of initiation that seems to stick in the heads of all cadets. The authorities have tried to suppress the custom, but it breaks out on the arrival of a fresh batch. About the only way to break it is to make the punishment consist in putting their heads under a pump funnel and soaking them good with cold water. The practice is not confined to the national military and naval academies, as the colleges all over the land has had more or less troubles. It is the result of the spirit of pure devilry manifested in the flesh by exuberant youth—but they go too far, sometimes.

Ingersoll's Tribute to Tobacco.

The late Robert G. Ingersoll gave the following tribute to tobacco at a banquet some years ago:

"These leaves make friends and celebrate with gentle rites the vows of peace. They have given consolation to the world. They are the companions of the lonely, the friends of the imprisoned, of the exile, of the workers in mines, of fellers of forests, of sailors on the deep seas. They are the givers of strength and calm to the vexed and wearied minds of those who build with thought and brain the temples of the soul. They tell of hope and rest. They smooth the wrinkled brows of care; drive fears and strange, misshapen dreads from out the mind, and fill the heart with rest and peace. Within their magic warp and woof some potent, gracious spell, imprisoned lies, that when released by fire, doth softly steal within the fortress of the south and bind in sleep the captured sentinels of care and grief. These leaves are the friends of the fireside, and their smoke-like incense rises from myriads of happy homes. Cuba is the smile of the sea.

It is Wicked to Steal and be Caught.

A man in Chicago was rejected as a juryman, because, he said, he thought a man was justified in stealing when he was hungry. We think it should be owing to the kind of "hunger" a man may have. For instance, Rockefeller hungers for more millions and he gets it, insurance officials hunger for big salaries, but when a man is broke, and he is hungry for something to chew he should be careful not to be caught if he makes a raid upon another fellow's lunch basket. Plain, downright stealing cannot be justified, but when it is sugar-coated with a little legality it can be swallowed by the best of men, as the old colored deacon said, as he choked the squawk out of the neck of a neighbor's rooster. "yo' hev rustled my grub worms, scratched my garden, strutted in my yard, crowed when I wrestled in prayer, and one of your tribe made St. Peter bawl, and now the day o' Judgment and retribution am come fo' you." It is easy to justify a wrong, and condone a bad action, but the Chicago court that rejected this man's service on the ground given was narrow.
