COL. H. SMITH, Gomez, : Texas. MORMONISM IS TINCTURED WITH SOCIALISM.

Socialism is alright enough in homeopathic doses. There is Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, who has only one Wlie, yet he is is trouble because some of his Mormon brothers wants two or three. If socialism means to divide up everything squarely, then what is to be done with the extra wemen in Massachusetts? We have heard of men that sold their wives, but have never heard of a woman borrowing a husband, although we know one that borrowed false teeth, another a baby, etc. Smoot got into trouble by borrowing other people's ideas. It is said that personally he is a nice moral gentleman, but that fact didn't keep 50,000 American women from demandtng that he should be investigprobably engaged in raising ated. Mormonism has many hogs and catching catish. socialistic tdeas in it: some are socialistic tdeas in it; some are good and others are not. President of a college will get up and make some doleful predictions as to this nation going to the bow-wows, and points back to Babylon, Greece and Rome, and claim that their corruption put them out of business, and tries to call a halt on the profligracy of the present times. Those nations had a load of sins to account for, but their extravagance was nothing in comparison to modern times. Men are living to-day who borrowed their first dollar that can draw a sheck that would have made Julius Ceasar's mouth water, and made it legally and according to law. In those good old times when a chap got too much dough he died suddenly, and the mone arch appropriated it. wealthy men of this mation should be the last that w uld want a menarchy! There is no danger of the American government going to the dogs on account of corruption. It is corruption proof. Have you not noticed that when a boodler is arrested and tried he has always spent the money? In fact it is like rain on a turtle's back, it rolls off and soaks into his family and friends. True Happiness is Found in Doing Good.

What constitutes true happiness is a good deal owing to the ideas of some people, but we believe that the Arabian prince who made his herald go to his city's gates and preelsim: "All ye that are poor and hungry I will feed, those who are naked I will give garments, those who have lost their only beast of burden I will give another, and those who are eppressed by ex-tortioners I will relieve. Come to the palace." This was done publicly during the reign of this prince, and he prespered and his kingdom prospered with him as it never did before. He did not wait for an earthquake to bring calamity to one of his cities and send a check to be heraided in the papers, but he went out and sought the people that needed his help. That was true and Was magnanimity. But this giving of libraries to feed the head
