Texas Needs Great Men

XIV. PRIDE

THE Pyramids of Egypt were erected as a monument to the personal vanity of her ancient Kings, and these "Sphinx of the Desert" have stood for forty centuries as a warning to all nations against indulging the personal pride of their leaders.

We have on our statute books many a "Sphinx of Progress," but there as a monument to the personal pride and monumental vanity of our leaders, and these fierce phantoms in the industrial horizon can be seen clear across the continent standing like a spectre against the approach of civilization.

THE PYRAMIDS OF EGYPT

Let those who would ring the merry bells of fame first add a few pebbles to the mighty beach of wisdom; change a desert into a waving field of grain, add a few miles to the thoroughfares of commerce, whiten our coasts with canvas and dim the horizon with the smoke of industry. Texas needs great men.

W. G. HARDIN.

In the proper columns of this paper will be found the above name, respectfully asking the voters of Terry county for the office of County Judge. Professor Hardin has been in Terry county too long and has worked too faithfully for its upbuilding for us to dwell on a mere introduction, but we respectfully call the voters attention to just two points in selecting a Judge and Superintendent. For the former office, rational judgement, and for the later educational qualification.

We believe the voters will agree with us that Professor Hardin has been wonderfully endowed by nature with a cultivated faculty for righteous and impartial judgement in all cases, and that his qualifications for county superintendent are scarcely surpassed in West Texas. Do you know any reason why he would not make an ideal county official. We have not heard any. His announcement is subject to the action of the democratic party.

Harris Happenings.

Jan. 17th.

Dave Shaw and family, passed the store Saturday, moving to Abernathy. Mr. Redding and family will occupy the Shaw place.

Mr. Dooley and family, have moved in on the section they bought from W. E. Cherry. We felt like we had suffered an almost irreparable loss when Mr. Cherry and sister, Miss Ada, left us, but we feel sure Mr. Dooley and his family are very desirable neighbors and we extend to them a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch McPhaul, passed through Saturday on their way to New Mexico, where they will visit Mrs. McPhaul's parents, "Dad", Ellis and wife.

Little Winnie Clare has been quite sick for several days, but is now able to laugh and play again.

Lynn and Roy Harris left Saturday for Southwesterly points, to view the country and work at the carpenter's trade.

Will McPhaul has leased grass and water from Brit Clare and is gathering his cattle in to put on it.

Mr. Spears has been on the sick list again, but we are glad to hear that he is getting around again.

T. C. Ivey has bought a car load of cotton-seed cake and has two wagons on the road all the time hauling it out to the Cone ranch, where he is feeding it.

Mr. Baker has gone to Lubbock after a load of freight for W. H. Harris.

J. E. Fitzgerald sold a nice bunch of steer yearlings to Mr. Hammond at $20 per head.

G. D. Williams has moved to the Willie Cotten place, where he will probably stay this year.

The young folks enjoyed themselves at Mr. and Mrs. G. D. William's last Saturday night.

Sand Bur.

Vineyard for Plainview.

An experienced grape grower from California, has purchased 340 acres of land three miles southwest of this city and will engage extensively in grape culture. After a thought study of the soils and climate of this section this farm was selected and the varieties that are adapted to the district will be grown. It is understood that this will be an irrigated proposition and improvements are under way to make this one of the largest vineyards in the state.

Croves' Chapel

Jan. 17th

I've a good old honest neighbor,
By the name of Kurnel Brown;
And for fair and honest dealin'
He haint a peer for miles 'round.

No heaint of giant stature,
Nor a Greecian god for looks,
But he's jest a whole library
When it comes ter law an' books.

Talks for hours on ancient history,
Tells o' prehistoric man;

And on scripture he kin quote it
From Beersheba down ter Dan.

He for years has bin a leader;
I once said he allus will,
But uv late he's lost his prestige
With the folks o' Pankinville.

Some say he's goin' crooked;
Jist as crooked as kin be,
What the duce kin be the matter
Hang my cats if I kin see.

Some are hintin' he's a scape-goat,
With a very sable fleece;

But its jist because he's runnin'
For the Justice o' the peace.

Sweet William.

We have complete abstracts of Terry County Brownfield, Texas

We look for some building and a lot of improving in and around Brownfield this spring and summer.

This warm weather is tempting the farmers from their stoves to the fields. The 1912 oil is being listed.

Property owners, don't for goodness sake let this fine season pass without some effort toward tree planting. You are not likely to have such a season another season for several years perhaps and if you fail to plant trees, you are standing in your own light. A good year's growth from such a season, will put them beyond most any future danger.

Recently a farmer outlited a plan of a summer arbor to us that is both pleasing and plausible and easily made. It consists of posts, wire and grape vines. The first are easily procured and the later easily grown. This is truly the Rhine county of America when it comes to vineyards, and beside the comfortable shade the commercial value of grapes is immense. Try an arbor.

The Cerebro-spinal Meningitis has caused some stir among the Texas people, especially the Central Texans, but the situation seems to be very well under control at present. The Texas folks are due Dr. Sophian, the great specialist from New York, deep gratitude for his untiring labors in controlling this dread disease in our fair State. Here is a substance of his advise which our readers would do well to heed. Keep yourself and premises clean. Wear warm clothing, avoiding extreme changes; avoid crowds. Be cheerful.
