School Transfers

The editor visited Judge Neills office this week and he gave us the following list of applications for transfer of school children.

To Brownfield: M. K. Lindsey 4, from Meadow; T. E. Walters 4 and T. E. Campbell 1, from Scud day; A. M. McBurnett 3 and J. E. Bryant 3, from Groves Chapel. Total 15

To Gomez. F. D. Lemley 2, from Winn; S. B. Johnson 1, from Johnson; E. W. Maddux 2, from J. Cross. Total 5.

To Midway, Lynn county. Will Brown 4.

To Glen Park, Yoakum county. J. A. Wyatt (number not learned) from J. Cross.

Last week the Herald raised a great roar about no transfers, but 15 on the last few days is no bad showing, so we take back all we said, and wish we had said more to take back.

BALLINGER — Fecereta Soudan grass and Dry Land Clover are three new forage crops that have been introduced into this country this year by the United States Government. All three are showing splendid yield and will be planted on a much larger scale next year.

County Board Meet

The County Board of school trustees met at the Court House Monday afternoon, but inasmuch as the new course of study is not thoroughly understood, there being an almost complete change in text books, this part of the regular session was deferred until the Teachers' Institute meets in first week in Sept., at which time the Board and the teachers will jointly formulate plans and come to an understanding.

The Brownfield and the Gomez schools are still rated as high schools of the 1st class; Needmore as 3rd, and also the Winn school was added to the 3rd class.

Home Mission Society

This aid society will meet at the home of the Pres., Mrs. W. A. Bell, Wed. Aug. 13, at 5:30 p. m. The following program will be rendered:

Song:
Reading: Miss Belle Bennet, Pres. W. H. M. Council, (from June Voice)—Mrs. Randal.

Prayer.
Reading: Work of H. M. Soc.—Mrs. Powell.

Song.
Reading: Little Italy of the Gulf Coast (July Voice) Mrs. Cardwell.

Reading: A Morning in Biloxi, Miss., (July Voice); Era Brooks.

Song: Watch Word.
Each member is requested to be present.

Married.

Mr. Edwin Holt and Miss Grace Kinard, two of Terry's most popular young people of the Pleasant Valley neighborhood, drove in Sunday afternoon, and were quietly married at residence of Judge Geo. W. Neill.

In as much as Mr. Holt secured his papers in Lubbock, they took the whole country by surprise.

The groom is the son of C. F. Holt, one of our prominent stock farmers, and is a favorite among his many friends.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. M. E. Kinard, one of the pioneer settlers of Terry, and of course Miss Grace was reared and educated in and around Brownfield, and every one is her friend.

Herald extends hearty congratulations.

3 to 1 Against Pool Hall.

Plainview voted out her pool halls. Three hundred and five ballots were cast, of which 225 were against pool hall and 80 in favor of permitting them to remain open. Happy Union voted 17 against and 3 in favor of pool halls. Other precincts have not been heard from. The commissioners will meet and canvass the vote of the county within ten days from date of election.—Plainview Herald.

The pains of neuralgia seldom fail to yield to Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Ask for them yourself. [Advertisement.]

Says Road Will be Extended.

Fort Worth Record.

Daily service over the Quanah, Acme & Pacific railroad from Paducah was started Sunday. President Sam Lazarus of the Q. A. & P. came to Fort Worth Monday after riding over the extension from Paducah to Roaring Springs. "The Quanah, Acme & Pacific will be extended through to El Paso," he said, "when we get the money." Mr. Lazarus was reticent about where the necessary money was coming from but said it would be found, and that the line would be extended. "When we extend the line we will have to have some money. We have to get it somewhere. We probably shall be able to find it somewhere within the limits prescribed by law. Where we are going to get the money to complete this line which is the problem to be solved. Can you tell where to get it?" It is understood that money will be forthcoming for the completion of the road when the money markets get easier. Present plans are for a complete line through to El Paso and probably extension into Mexico

JUST received, the prettiest and best line of enambed granite ware ever seen at the Brownfield Hardware. Glad to show 'em to you.

Heavy Sales of Plains Cattle

Lubbock, Texas, Aug. 4. Wm. G. Russell, one of the largest cattle commission dealers of the American Southwest, has recently established home office headquarters at Lubbock.

Mr. Russell handles South Plains and others Texas cattle, and also New Mexico and Arizona stock.

Within the last fourteen months he has sold over 100,000 head of stockers and feeders, chiefly to Colorado, Wyoming, Oregon and Iowa buyers—the bulk of these cattle being from the South Plains.

He is now in correspondence with Burns & Co., of Calgary, Alberta, relative to the furnishing of 40,000 head of cattle whose final destination will be the beef markets of Alaska.

Mr. Russell expects to handle at least another hundred thousand head of cattle within the coming fourteen months.

He estimates that the South Plains proper have now an approximation of one half million head of cattle.—Amarillo Daily News.

Chas. Moore of Gomez dropped in this week and handed us the coin to keep 'er coming. Chas. is another young farmer who says a man can make a good living and then some, farming in old Terry.

Meet us at the best picnic in the best county, in the best State in the best nation on earth.

Well, silos are most all up and are now ready for that succulent feed to be blowed into them. Listen from some record breaking feeders from Terry next year.

If the trustees can possibly spare the money, it would be a good idea for them to have a new coat of paint put on the school building, especially the old part.

Plains and Seminole are figuring with a company for a railroad to run through their towns from Tucumcari to San Antonio. Just keep on dickering, boys, and success will some day reward your efforts.

Old Sol has been bearing down lately like a blast furnace, and while the thermometer has stood from 15 to 20 degrees below that reported in Central Texas, the weather has been much hotter than usual here.

Of course people think it real nice to remember the people back at home with fancy cards when they are away on their vacation, but who in the duce can keep his mind on his business after receiving such, after all the promising one self that we can be just as content at home working, as runing around spending our summer wages.

There is a post office ruling which imposes a fine of $500 or a year's imprisonment on anyone who through carelessness or otherwise takes mail from the postoffice not belonging to him and fails to return it immediately. This applies to newspapers as well as letters. To say it's the postmaster's fault cuts no figure under the ruling. Better look over your mail before leaving the office.—Lubbock Avalanche.

The place to take a true man's measure is not in the market place or in the amen corner, nor in the forum or field, but by his own fire side. There he lays aside his mask and you may learn whether he is an imp or an angel king or cur, hero or humbug. We care not what the world says of him—whether they crown him or pelt him with bad eggs; we care not a bopper what his reputation or religion may be; if his babies dread his coming home; if his better half swallows her heart every time she asks him for a five dollar bill, he's a fraud of the first water, even though he prays night and morn till he is black in the face and howls hallelujah until he shakes the eternal hills. But if his children rush to the gate and meet him, and love's sunshine illuminates the face of his wife when she hears his footstep, you can take it for granted that he is true gold for his home is a heaven and the humbug never gets near the great white throne of God.—Raton Reporter.

Business is Business.

But to continue in business, it is very necessary that we collect the money we sell the goods for. Therefore customers owing these past due accounts must come in and make settlement. All please note this fact and make prompt settlement. Very Respt. May & Wright.

Farm Facts.

(By Peter Radford President Farmers' Union.) Poverty and responsibility are great teachers.

Anything you are afraid of is going to get you.

Opportunity is the only knock er that is welcome.

The oil can makes the farm work easier—if you use it.

He who takes his own time generally takes other people's too.

The business of the rural borrower adds to the wealth of the nation.

Each year 2400 farmers are stricken by the bludgeon of a stupid market system.

The beauty of the products of the soil gives human life its first entertainment.

In all the farmer's operations the nick of time is the trick of accomplishment.

Don't kill it because it is a bug. That particular bug may be a very good friend.

Life, liberty, and the pursuit of the happiness and health had their origin on the farm.

Farming for prizes is unprofitable farming and has no legitimate place in agriculture.

He that riseth late must trod all day and shall scarce overtake his bssiness at night.

The devastating forces of nature can not do more than effect the product of the farm for a single year.

The fair should be made to accurately reflect the agricultural achievements of the community and State.

When the farmer is only troubled with "Meeting the demand" instead of "Finding a market", prosperity is staring him in the face.

The solution of the problem of a better money return from the soil and of a fuller social return from the country life is one of the most pressing tasks before the county.

Dots From Tokio.

Mr. J. W. Spear was real sick Saturday, but is able to be up now.

Mr. J. D. Ernest, of Plains, died Saturday night and was buried Monday afternoon, in the Plains cemetery.

H. L. Ware says his crop is as fine as can be found in the county, and if it still continues to rain when needed in the future, as it has the past two months, he will make a bumper crop this year.

Ennis Ware and Hugh Snodgrass, expect to take a trip to Floydada about the 10th.

Geo. Snodgrass, Mon. Yates, Alvin Key, and Ben Yates, are in Tahoka, loading with coal for use while harveting crops.

The Harris people completed their phone line to Tokio Monday. Mr. Clare said he felt like he had connection with the rest of the world now, in fact he seems so elated over this new line he may risk calling Mr. Lane "Joe."

Mr. Clyde Miller, and Miss Bessie Riley, of Snyder, were married July 28th. Miss Bessie is well known in Terry county where she has many friends and relatives, who wish them well. Digger.

Prohibition Election.

In the prohibition elections held in Williamson and Midland counties, the former stayed in the wet column by a good safe majority, and the latter went dry by a vote of nearly two to one.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day. Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," in plain wrapper. N.C. 126

Mrs. R. H. Banowsky handed us 50 cents last week to keep the Herald going to her sister, Mrs. D. Y. Blanton, at Ralls, Texas, saying that her sister did not care whether she wrote or not, just so she gets the Herald each week, as it was like a long letter 52 times per year.

The Herald family recently had a card from Miss Dora Daugherty, who was in the Hardin party on a trip east. She was then in Fort Worth, and had been to Dallas to help purchase Mrs. Hardin's fall millinery stock, and were fixing to leave for a pleasure trip to Galveston, but said she had not seen anything that looked as good as Terry.

In the death of Mr. J. D. Ernest, at Plains, last Saturday, one of the oldest and most hospitable citizens of the Plains country, was removed. Mr. Ernest had a vivid recollection of all the stirring events of early pioneering and told them with much flavor. Only recently he wrote a series of articles for the Yoakum County News, covering the early days on the Plains that were at the same time instructive and entertaining.

The pathfinder motorcycle, of the National Motorcycle Association, stopped at Brownfield about two hours Friday afternoon. It was being driven by a Mr. Otto Bhend, of San Diego, Calif., and he expected to reach little old New York about the middle of Sept. Mr. Rhend said this was the only practical route from coast to coast, and with a little more work would be a daisy. He predicted that thousands of automobiles and motor-cycles would pass through Brownfield in 1915.

Don't wait for a headache to go away. Use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and save suffering. (Advertisement.)

Guard Your Children Against Bowel Trouble

Many children at an early age become constipated, and frequently serious consequences result. Not being able to realize his own condition, a child's bowels should be constantly watched, and a gentle laxative given when necessary. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are especially well adapted to women and children. The Sisters of Christian Charity, 531 Charles St., Luzerne, Pa., who attend many cases of sickness say of them:

"Some time ago we began using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and find that we like them very much. Their action is excellent and we are grateful for having been made acquainted with them. We have had good results in every case and the Sisters are very much pleased."

The form and flavor of any medicine is very important, no matter who is to take it. The taste and appearance are especially important when children are concerned. All parents know how hard it is to give the average child "medicine," even though the taste is partially disguised. In using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, however, this difficulty is overcome. The shape of the tablets, their appearance and candy-like taste at once appeal to any child, with the result that they are taken without objection.

The rich chocolate flavor and absence of other taste, make Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets the ideal remedy for children.

If the first box fails to benefit, the price is returned. Ask your druggist. A box of 25 doses costs only 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

WEALTH OF THE NATIONS

United States Does Not Make Tremendously Good Showing in World's Financial Column.

For all its vaunted wealth the United States, in so far as per capita ratio goes, does not make such a tremendously good showing in the world's financial column. The wealth in the United States in 1910 was estimated at $125,000,000,000, by far the greatest amount credited in bulk to any one country. Yet the per capita wealth was only $1,359. Great Britain in 1909 was worth $88,725,000,000, each person, according to the census, thus getting $1,972. France, with $83,000,000,000 in 1910 had a per capita wealth of $2,070; Germany had $63,500,000,000, with a per capita of $1,000. Russia's total wealth was $60,000,000,000, but its enormous population dragged the per capita down to $400, while Switzerland, with a total wealth of only $3,030,000,000, has a per capita rating of $868. The per capita division in Sweden amounts to $402 out of a total of $2,197,000,000. Switzerland, in the last few years, made a 20 per cent. gain in national wealth. The average per capita wealth in the 25 cantons ranges from $1,885 in Geneva to $279 in Tessin. Switzerland thus stands very high. The population in 1821 was 1,885,229, so that in 90 years' time it has not doubled. France, it will be noted, stands at the head of the nations with a per capita wealth of $2,070. That the United States, with its enormous total, does not rank higher is because of the rapidly increasing population. France, on the contrary, has reported a diminishing or at the most a very slowly increasing population, so that the money advance has become greater than the birth rate.

UNITED STATES' GREAT PANAMA CANAL CELEBRATION WILL BE MARKET PLACE OF WORLD.

Texas Leads Union In Agricultural Production and Can Make Vast Exhibit of Its Wonderful Resources.

In what measure and to how great an extent is the state of Texas to benefit from the opening of the Panama canal?

Figures and statistics will not suffice to tell at this date, because, apart from the inevitable beneficial results which must accrue to all countries blessed with a coast line bordering one of the extremities of the new waterway, the ultimate good that Texas will reap from the canal will be culled from the action taken by Texas herself.

Upon cotton Texas builds her main hope. She is the greatest producer of that necessity in the world. Her exports are largely to the orient and to the west coast of South America, where are the greatest consumers of cotton cloth. The Panama canal will bring those customers of Texas nearer by several days' time and by leagues of distance, thereby creating a quicker and more expeditious supply to a demand that is continually increasing. The rich corn and the full crops of wheat, the multifarious fruits and the ever widening supply of cattle which Texas is producing year by year—these, in addition to its command of the cotton industry, are commodities for which the Lone Star State will find new markets upon the opening of the Panama canal. The demand will be brought into closer touch with the supply. But how is Texas to secure that demand to herself?

Copyright, 1913, by the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Co.
THE HUGE TOWER OF JEWELS, 430 FEET HIGH.

and why one way is more advantageous to the benefit of the consumer, to the credit of the producer and to the welfare of the community. Briefly, then, that is the boon that the Panama-Pacific Exposition offers to those who participate. It proposes to establish sounder trade between states, between countries and among the peoples of the world. The Exposition is a peace movement of the most definite compass. Its compass is the binding of nations, because commerce is the surest tie of friendship. And the one tremendously moving principle of the Exposition is that the participants in this international festival shall reap its benefits practically for the mere asking. The space for exhibits is extensive, but is nevertheless limited. Those who come first are the first served. It is not a question of who pays the biggest price. It depends upon who grasps the opportunity most firmly. The race is to the swift. The battle is to the strong. If Texas runs Texas will win; if Texas strains and strives Texas will be the victor.

It costs nothing to win. There is no charge to the victor. Exhibit space is absolutely free to all exhibitors at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. All the capital which has been put into the great Exposition and all the millions who will attend are at the disposal of the exhibitor, without any cost whatever to him, except the cost of transportation, installation and maintenance.

There are those who are in the race those who have caught the canal and understood the expression of that meaning in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Many of the nations of Europe and China and Japan in the orient already have officially accepted the invitation of the president of the United States to take part in the United States celebration of the nation's grandest achievement. A more complete representation of the Latin-Americas in an Exposition has never before been made. Of the western countries which have realized that they will find markets at the Exposition are Bolivia, Chile, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru and Salvador. All of those countries will be at the Exposition, represented by exhibits of their resources, displayed in a manner that will impress and convince, assuring other countries of the world of their natural and industrial power.

Half the advantage of a good shop window is the manner in which the goods are set out. A well arranged store will always sell more than a store which is a jumble of effects thrown together in unmethodical profusion. America has determined that the universal department store of 1915 shall be the best looking store that has ever been opened to the world. It is costing $80,000,000 to complete. California, chosen as manager of the store by national approval, has devoted $17,500,000 in hard cash to the equipment of the Exposition, and her total investment, when the appropriations of the counties are considered, will exceed the magnificent sum of $20,000,000. So that the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is not going to be an ordinary exposition. It celebrates an event which is very much above the ordinary. The opening of the canal is an event of supreme significance. The Exposition which celebrates the completion of the canal will be of such an extraordinary kind that it will fittingly express that tremendous significance.

San Francisco is making ready for the reception of the nations of the world which will visit the great bazaar in 1915. She has begun to build. The site of the Exposition at Harbor View, San Francisco, where the waters of the bay of San Francisco narrow down to the channel of the Golden Gate, is now taking shape rapidly. Giant structures of truly massive grandeur are being erected.

In all there are fourteen palaces of exhibits to be erected by the Exposition Company in the middle section of the World's Fair. The other two sections are to be occupied on the west by pavilions of foreign nations, of which twenty-four have accepted the invitation to participate, and on the east by an aggregation of amusement concessions which are to be of the most novel and entertaining kind.

The fourteen main exhibit palaces will house the displays of eleven departments, which have been classified into 154 groups, subdivided into 800 classes. The departments consist of the following: Fine Arts, Education, Social Economy, Liberal Arts, Manufactures and Varied Industries, Machinery, Transportation, Agriculture, Live Stock, Horticulture and Mines and Metallurgy.

Texas will find its particular appeal in the palaces of Manufactures and Varied Industries, Agriculture, Live Stock, Horticulture and Mines. In those palaces will be found the competitors of Texas in the industries there represented. All the great cotton growing states will have their exhibits to show to the world, while the countries which want cotton to manufacture into cloths and textures will visit those displays and choose their markets.

The palaces in which the displays will be arranged are of an unprecedented beauty, set in a picture which no previous Exposition has had for its natural surroundings. California's climate permits of floral extravagance if there ever could be such a joy as a superfluity of charm. The Exposition will be a garden in which the efforts of man will stand among the results of nature's own working.

America is the hostess of the world in 1915, and she wants to see that her own household is properly represented at the international "at home." Not to be fully represented is to offer a slight to the guests who are going to be there in their best clothes.

Texas has much to show. She has much to smile for. She has much to give, but infinitely more to receive. And she receives with no outlay whatever.

canal and understood the expression of that meaning in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

Many of the nations of Europe and China and Japan in the orient already have officially accepted the invitation of the president of the United States to take part in the United States celebration of the nation's grandest achievement. A more complete representation of the Latin-Americas in an Exposition has never before been made. Of the western countries which have realized that they will find markets at the Exposition are Bolivia, Chile, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru and Salvador. All of those countries will be at the Exposition, represented by exhibits of their resources, displayed in a manner that will impress and convince, assuring other countries of the world of their natural and industrial power.

Half the advantage of a good shop window is the manner in which the goods are set out. A well arranged store will always sell more than a store which is a jumble of effects thrown together in unmethodical profusion. America has determined that the universal department store of 1915 shall be the best looking store that has ever been opened to the world. It is costing $80,000,000 to complete. California, chosen as manager of the store by national approval, has devoted $17,500,000 in hard cash to the equipment of the Exposition, and her total investment, when the appropriations of the counties are considered, will exceed the magnificent sum of $20,000,000. So that the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is not going to be an ordinary exposition. It celebrates an event which is very much above the ordinary. The opening of the canal is an event of supreme significance. The Exposition which celebrates the completion of the canal will be of such an extraordinary kind that it will fittingly express that tremendous significance.

San Francisco is making ready for the reception of the nations of the world which will visit the great bazaar in 1915. She has begun to build. The site of the Exposition at Harbor View, San Francisco, where the waters of the bay of San Francisco narrow down to the channel of the Golden Gate, is now taking shape rapidly. Giant structures of truly massive grandeur are being erected.

In all there are fourteen palaces of exhibits to be erected by the Exposition Company in the middle section of the World's Fair. The other two sections are to be occupied on the west by pavilions of foreign nations, of which twenty-four have accepted the invitation to participate, and on the east by an aggregation of amusement concessions which are to be of the most novel and entertaining kind.

The fourteen main exhibit palaces will house the displays of eleven departments, which have been classified into 154 groups, subdivided into 800 classes. The departments consist of the following: Fine Arts, Education, Social Economy, Liberal Arts, Manufactures and Varied Industries, Machinery, Transportation, Agriculture, Live Stock, Horticulture and Mines and Metallurgy.

FOR CURE OF PNEUMONIA

Physician Tells of Successful Use of Camphor in Practice Since 1906.

There have been and still are many varieties of treatment for pneumonia. A long list would be required to indicate all the medicaments which have been employed against it. Some even consider that this affection is an ailment which has a definite cycle. They are of the opinion that no medication should be adopted which might act on it and disturb its development, the proper course to take being one of "expectation," or better, a therapeutique armee more particularly designed to combat complication.

Dr. Serbert, in the Muenchner Medizinische Wochenschrift, describes the remarkable results which he obtained in the treatment of serious cases of pneumonia by means of strong doses of camphor. He first had occasion to use it in 1906 in a case of double pneumonia, where the patient was also suffering from typhoid fever. He therefore practiced a subcutaneous injection of 12 centimeters of camphorated oil (20 per cent.) recently sterilized. The results obtained on the pulse and respiration and general condition were extremely satisfactory. He renewed this dose every 12 hours, and he found after three days the trouble had disappeared.

Dr. Serbert has since employed the same treatment in 21 cases, one of which was extremely serious, since it was a question of double complicated pneumonia in a woman seventy-two years old. All these cases recovered. It seem certain that the camphor produced these effects, since there was no real crisis, the cure being gradual and slowly effected.—Philadelphia North American.

Chance for One-Armed Man.

"I'm looking for a one-armed man," said the patron of a New York restaurant. "If you know of a man who has only a right hand I can make him a good business proposition—one that will save him a lot of good dollars and save me the same amount. His right hand, however, must be a No. 7½."

"It's this way: Several months ago I sprained my ankle and for many months was obliged to lean heavily on a cane. To protect my left hand I wore a glove on that hand, but did not use one on the right. The result was that I wore out dozens of left gloves, but the right hand ones I never put on."

and these steers are now passing through the Amarillo stock yard to White Deer, Texas, from which point they will move out on the Popham ranch. These are selected steers from the Benson ranches, situated in the Lubbock country, and constitute one of the large recent trades in this line. Mr. Popham is one of the pioneer cattlemen of the Panhandle, and is always active in the handling and dealing in cattle, and at present there are indications that we are on the eve of quite a revival in cattle trading generally. —Amarillo Daily News.

Flies Forerunners of Pestilence.

The fly is the undertaker's traveling salesman and it is an able servant of the grim monster, death. This is the fly season and eternal vigilance is the price of health. Every house should be well screened and a vigorous war of extermination should be waged on every fly that crosses the threshold. It has been estimated that if every person would kill ten flies per day for thirty days there would be no flies upon the face of the earth. A swarm of flies hovering over the table and contaminating the victuals with slime and filth is disease entering the home. Flies are the forerunners of pestilence, the advance agents of the doctor and they make business for the undertaker. There are many ingenious devices for trapping the fly and for protection against their entering the house and all effective agencies should be employed in fighting this arch enemy of health. Every day should be fly day at home. Kill the fly; remove all filth; destroy decaying vegetation and stamp out the breeding ground of the fly. By—Mrs. E. P. Turner.

Merchants as Educators.

The merchant has one of the highest and most useful callings. He is a buldier and an educator as well as a dealer. As a rule he does more to promote the general welfare of the community and to support its public institutions than any other class of citizens. Through the columns of the press the merchant teaches us how to live economically and keeps us informed of the progress of modern business and science in providing means for our care and comfort. The merchant is an indispensable business educator and he diligently studies our needs. A merchant who has no message for the public is not keeping abreast of the time. The prosperous merchant must create the desire to buy goods and then supply it.—By W. Holt Harris.
