E. B. WRIGHT

IN TERRY TEN YEARS AGO

From The Terry County Voice, Gomez.

Sunday was Rev. A. B. Roberts' day here, but as he failed to preach, Mr. Lane filled his appointment.

If Gomez continues to grow like it is at present, it will soon be large enough to support a phone exchange.

The public windmill has a screech to it that indicates an absence of oil.

Wolf & Ware have made an assignment of their general stock of merchandise to Joe Lane. Bad collections is given as the cause.

At the regular meeting of the Gomez Literary Society last Saturday night the subject "that money weild a greater influence over man than woman" was ably debated. Affirmative—Messrs. Smith and Long-break: Negative—Messrs. Watkins, Branch and Florence.

Doing business without advertisement is like winking in the dark; you know what you are doing, but no one else does.

Lawyer McPherson left Friday for Comanche, to be gone several days. We extend congratulations in advance.

The manner in which last weeks Voice was praised was gratifying.

Mr. Holmes has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Gomez to Meadow. This is a new route.

Miss Allie Sawyer, who is attending school here, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home, fifteen miles in the country.

Thos. H. Ball at Lubbock

Lubbock, Tex., May 27.—The people of Lubbock and nearby counties will have an opportunity to hear Hon. Thos. Ball, candidate for Governor of Texas, speak at this place on the 9th of June, this being the date arranged for him to be here. The nearest speaking points to Lubbock are Plainview and Sweetwater, and as Lubbock is the most convenient point for a large number of the voters of this section to reach, the hour of speaking, 11:30 a. m. has been arranged, so that people can come here on the trains from the north, south, east and over the Clovis cut off, and her the speaking and return home the same day.

An effort will be made to get special rates for the occasion over all the roads leading into Lubbock, and this will be your best opportunity to hear this gubernatorial candidate speak.

Lubbock is desirous of giving him a splendid crowd, and you will enjoy hearing Mr. Ball speak. He is an able speaker and entertaining with it.

Make your arrangements to hear him in his Lubbock speech.

Noah Bell, a prominent stockman of the Needmore community, came in this week and renewed for the Herald and had us order Breeders Gazette for him.

Strongtread Rubber Com'pny Dayton, Ohio

Notice I. W. Whitely ad in this issue of the Herald. From now on; at the close of every month, Mr. Whitely will offer those visiting Lubbock on the first Monday some real bargains. Watch his space, Ray Brownfield is now sporting a big six cylinder Mitchell, the second six in the county. It seems to skim over the ground almost with its own momentum. The boys gave three cheers when he ran into town last Saturday.

A Progressive Preacher

Over at Waxahachie there is a preacher who works six days a week and preaches on Sunday. This progressive pastor recently startled his congregation by the announcement that the scope of the average pastor's work was too narrow for efficient service and that he did not intend to limit his usefulness to preaching from the pulpit. Suiting the action to the word, he accepted the position of agricultural demonstration agent of Ellis county and in this capacity will work in connection with the United States Department of Agriculture. As his membership is largely agricultural, he purposes to assist them in increasing the value of their land and in the most scientific manner of raising products. In other words, he intends to set them an example to live by as well as give them a religion to die by and purposes to be a worker in the vineyard as well as a teacher in the tabernacle.

In County Court

There was not much doing in County Court this week, and the jury was merely called together, sworn in and discharged. There was only one case and it was tried before Judge Neill, in which the First National Bank of Tullia was trying to replevy a span of alleged mortgaged mules brought from that county and sold to the Merc. The mules are now owned by N. N. Ross, and he has a bill of sale for them from Mr. McClusky, who brought them to this county. The court decided in favor of defendants.

Don't let the fact slip your noodle that next Saturday is clean up day.

The big rains have drowned all the croakers except the frogs, and even they are glad it rained.

Make hay while the sun shines is being followed to the letter in Terry those days; in fact our streets look as much deserted as we imagine the streets of London looked during the plague.

We read an article recently where one farmer killed two frogs in his field.—just for fun—and out of curiosity, cut one of them open. He found nearly a hundred boll weevils in the frogs intestines. That farmer will never kill another frog. The much despised lizzard and our West Texas horned frog are as good insect destroyers as the common toad, and our farmers should not only protect them and teach their children to protect them, but should encourage the propagation of more of them on the farms. They are even better than birds, for the reason that they not only destroy as many insects in season as the bird, but when winter comes and the insects are gone, Mr. Frog hibernates, while the bird, or most of them depend on the farmer for grain during winter.

The editor of the Corsica (S.D.) News, recently married, has already sized up the matrimonial situation in the following: "Editor and wife disagree with each other materially. She sets things to rights and he writes things to set; she reads what others write and he writes what others read; she keeps the devil out of the house as much as possible, while he retains him and could not go to press without him; she knows more than she writes, and he writes more than he knows.

It will be noticed that there are now appearing a series of articles in the Herald, by Peter Ratford, ex-president of the Farmers Union, and J. C. Lewis, the present incumbent, that somewhat reflect upon the ministry of the State, and we want it understood that we do not endorse these articles editorially, or for that matter, we do not endorse lots of things we print. Of course it can be seen by any casual reader that these articles are not aimed at ministers generally, but at Drs Rankin and Gambrell, of Dallas, but nevertheless the ministers are feeling sore over this unnecessary prodding. The country press and the ministry go hand in hand, and are the twin haralds of civilization, therefore they can not be at outs with each other. There is not a class of citizenship the Herald can name stauncher friends among, than ministers of the gospel, and anything that appears among its columns that in the least reflect upon their good names, cannot have the endorsement of the editor, and if the preachers want to refer to these articles in the Herald when they are roasting Ratford, they are at liberty to take to 'em, providing they tell the audience that Stricklin does not endorse Ratford's course. Further, if Drs. Rankin and Gambrell want to come back at him in plate form, our columns are open, although we no more admire them than we do Ratford.

We call your attention to the Lubbock Merc. quarter page ad in this issue, and their special for the first Monday. This big firm will give the people of Terry County some good prices for first Monday every month from this on. Watch their space.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

The Maids and Matrons Club met with Mrs. Tiernan May 19, and enough cannot be said in behalf of our hostess. All were perfectly entertained and had such a good time and spent such a pleasant afternoon. We were glad to have Mrs. Scudday as a visitor. The members of the Club are enjoying the Club work so much we have decided to study through the summer. We will take up Civil Government as our study for the time being. We had the election of officers for another year. Miss Daughtery being elected Pres; Mrs. Criswell, Vice Pres; Mrs. Bell, Teacher; Mrs. Smith, Treasurer; Miss Clemmie Adams, Secretary. Our business being over we were served to ice cream and cake, which was delicious and enjoyed by all present, and last but not least appreciated was the kindness of Mr. Tiernan in assisting the ladies home by giving each a nice ride home in his car. We meet with Mrs. Wright June 2nd, and hope all members will be present to begin our new study.

The play last Saturday night was a good one, in fact about the best one ever pulled off in Brownfield, and was well patronized. This play developed some new talent in our town, and we believe it is safe to say that some day this talent will be so well developed that it will make very little difference to our people whether foreign troupes ever invade our little town or not. With the exception of seats, our little school auditorium is becoming mighty well equipped for a small town, to properly put on plays.

OUR RIVERS AND HARBORS

The Brazos River One of the Most Important Commercial Streams in Texas.

THE opening of the Panama Canal has given a tremendous impetus to gulf port commerce and greatly stimulated interest in water navigation and waterway improvements in Texas. The interoastal canal now in course of construction connects the Texas rivers forming one of the most gigantic systems of commercial waterways in the world as well as drains a vast area of the most fertile land on the American continent.

Texas has eight large rivers on which steamboats have plied on regular schedules, many of them going as far as two or three hundred miles inland and the restoration and extension of navigable conditions can be secured at a minimum cost. We have ten harbors which have received government recognition and five ports that are regularly made by ocean-going vessels.

The Brazos river is 950 miles in length and waters a valley unexcelled in fertility and in agricultural possibilities and as a commercial stream can be easily improved and cheaply maintained. The government engineers have designated Waco, which is approximately 300 miles from its source, as the head of navigation on the Brazos and the work of improving the river for light draft boats is now under way.

At the mouth of the river is Freeport with a harbor unexcelled in natural advantages by any port on the Atlantic coast and a port where no wharfage or dock charges exist. The sulphur deposits now being actively mined afford an enormous local tonnage. The deposits contain seventeen millions tons of sulphur and machinery is now being installed to develop the field to an output of 300,000 tons per annum.

The vast tonnage of the Brazos valley will empty into this port and the Interoastal Canal will be a splendid feeder, giving the port an immense outgoing water tonnage. Three of the leading system railroads enter the port and large and extensive terminals are being built where the commerce of the Trans-Mississippi valley can be handled without congestion.

When the Brazos river is made navigable to Waco it will afford a saving of millions of dollars in freight per annum on inbound shipments as well as on originating tonnage and its advantages will be extended far into the interior, benefiting at least a million people.

See the Sharples Separators at the Merc. They sell them on easy terms.

Jim Moore of Gomez, was here this week and paid the Herald a pleasant call.

The following men of Tulia, Texas, attended County Court here this week in the interest of the McClusky case: W. D. Love, stockman; A. B. Martin and D. H. Culton, Attys; and J. C. La prad, cashier of the First National Bank of that city.

W. K. Dickinson, Jr. was in Saturday, and had on display at the Brownfield Land office, a limb each from a plum and a prune tree, from his place, eight miles east of Brownfield, better known as the Black place. These were the first prune we ever saw growing, in fact it is generally believed that they will not grow in this climate, but these samples absolutely refute this belief, as they were healthy, well filled fellows, and if the whole tree is like the sample on display the tree has all it will support. The branch from the plum was also full, and Dub informed us that his orchard was well loaded, and that he would have all the fruit he wanted.

The pains of neuralgia seldom fail to yield to Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Ask for them yourself. [Advertisement.]

For Neuralgia, nothing is better than
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills
Used by thousands for a generation

Those who have suffered from neuralgic pains need not be told how necessary it is to secure relief. The easiest way out of neuralgia is to use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They have relieved sufferers for so many years that they have become a household necessity.

"I have taken Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for five years and they are the only thing that does me any good. They have relieved neuralgia in my head in fifteen minutes. I have also taken them for rheumatism, headache, pains in the breast, toothache, earache and pains in the bowels and limbs. I have found nothing to equal them and they are all that is claimed for them."

Mrs. Bob Snodgrass and little Arthea came in from Kansas last Saturday. Arthur is much improved.

Little Ada May Snodgrass paid us a visit last Saturday. She stayed with her aunt, Mrs. Ben Hurst during her mother's absence in Kansas, and came in last Saturday to meet her mother. She is just three years old, and when we asked her if she cried for her mother, she said "no, babies cry, and I'm not a baby, besides I talked to my papa every day over the phone."

Lois Reeves went to Plains last week to attend the closing exercises of their school, and did not return home until Monday. She reports a real nice program.

Dee Hunter moved back to his home six miles south of town on the 26th inst.

Ben Hurst and wife came in last Saturday and stayed over until Monday.

Mrs. Ed Moore visited in Brownfield Tuesday.

Prof. Clyde Lewis is teaching a class in singing at the M. E. church.

Miss Ruth Watson of Plainview came in Tuesday to visit her cousin, Mrs. L. T. Brooks. Miss Watson is an expression teacher, having just completed a course Seth Ward College at Plainview.

Joe Lane went to Lubbock, Plainview and other points on the north plains last Saturday for a week's absence. He stopped in Gomez long enough to present a mess of fish to quite a number of families. We tender our thanks for a dozen and they sure fine eating. Joe says his tank is well stocked with them, and it is one of the largest tanks in Terry county. Fish are much easier and cheaper to raise than chickens, and if regularly fed will grow to ten or twelve inches in length in one season. Wonder why people with large tanks don't take the trouble to stock it and feed them, and supply our two towns with fish to use, when they want them. It would be an advantage to the consumer to get fresh fish when they want them, and would yield a nice income to the raiser.

Mr. Green is running the wagon yard and livery stable now as well as the blacksmith shop.

Mesdames Herring and Wilson, of Meadow, were visiting here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Well Gomez time is full up now, field and garden work every day and singing every night this week and next except Wednesday, and some kind of a show then. Come over and take some fun in.

Well we are about 36 hours late and Jim Moore kindly volunteered to carry this over this Wednesday evening, so we send it by him. Will try not to be so late again.

Geo. Black and Misses Dimple and Willis went to Brownfield, Tuesday.

Guy Taylor carried Mr. Lusk and family to Tahoka the first of this week where they will take the train for Stephens county, their former home. Mr. Lusk is unable to work, from rheumatism, and so decided to move to a lower altitude.

Mrs. I. H. Hudson, Miss Sarah and little Happy, were visiting and trading here Monday.

Mrs. Ben Broughton and children, spent the day with Mrs. Ed Moore, Wednesday.

A letter from Mrs. S. E. Abbot of Vinson, Okla., states that they have had a hail there this month that had injured crops, also that this has been the rainiest May on record there. She sends good wishes to her many friends in Terry. She keeps in touch with us all here by reading the Herald.

Misses Sarah Hudson, Willis Black, Lois Reeves also Tom Glover and several others, will attend the Normal at Tahoka, this summer. These Plains young people sure ought to amount to something in the future for they are never idle, and the principal part of their energy is expended in trying to improve their minds and finances.
