HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent.

The Hogwallow Postmaster has notified the patrons that no more stovepipes will be accepted as mail matter.

Violaters of law in this section are getting so few and far between the Deputy Constable is complaning that his tin star is getting rusty.

Sidney Hocks went to Tickville Monday to have his picture took. He had a time exposure made, and did not get back until this morning.

Miss Flutie Belcher's pet jay-bird died this week. This jay-bird has stood by Miss Belcher like a brother and has listened to her singing when the rest of the world would turn a deaf ear.

A deaf man visited Hogwallow Saturday. He stood around the postoffice awhile and the Postmaster got the funnel from the molasses barrell and made an unsuccessful attempt to find out the man's business in this section.

Miss Gondola Henstep had one of her front teeth taken out this week. Until a new one can be put in she will wear a grain of corn in its place.

Cricket Hicks has bought a new comb and has begun to train his hair to stand up in front, so that nobody can tell when he gets scared.

A person may start a business or start trouble, or most anything else without funds, except a bank account.

Luke Mathewsia was seen at the Hog Ford preaching last Sunday. The preacher said some mighty hard things about people. This did not hit Luke, as he has a way getting down behind his whiskers when he thinks anybody is talking in his direction.

Atlas Peck is on a trade for a patent combination sausage grinder and hand organ.

An acrobat performed at Tickville Saturday night. It is believed that he struck town broke because when he stood on his head nobody saw any money fall out of his pockets.

A circus appeared in Tickville last week. The show was well supplied with music, having a snare drum and two phonographs.

The nights are getting so cold now the Jailer at Tickville will soon have to begin to close the jail doors at night.

As soon as Luke Mathewsia moves out of his chair at the Postoffice the Postmaster aims to straighten things around for Christmas.

One of the Hockses, in the Calf Ribs neighborhood, has a good cow for sale. If he can't sell her to some individual he is going to begin to let her graze on the railroad track.

Washington Hocks' watch got behind last week, but is rapidly gaining since he got to stirring around some.

Sidney Hocks has a new French harp and a haircut. Both of these is enough to give anybody a bad cold.

Mrs. Atlas Peck heard a knock at the front door yesterday and after putting all the rooms in order and putting on a clean dress, she went to the front door all smiles, only to find that the noise had been made by Atlas knocking the ashes out of his pipe.

A church sale is going on at Tickville. The articles are being sold to raise money for the church. As an extra inducement one article that is worth what they ask for it, is secreted among the others and the discoverer of it is considered the lucky person.

The Tickville Tidings is advertising itself as a breezy paper and that is where Sim Flinders probably caught his last cold.

What's Your Verdict.

The following paragraphs contain some rather plain language, but it is convincing evidence, and we can guess what your verdict will be when you have read them. There is certainly more truth than poetry in the article which reads:

"A young lady, her cheeks flashed with indignation and her eyes flashing fire, burst in on her parents and demanded in no uncertain tones that papa immediately go and lick a certin "smart" young man in town.

"Why papa, he flirted with me. He asked me which way, little one? and offered to follow me. I want him whipped. Oh, if I were only a man!" Mamma naturally got dad's hat and told him where the old sixshooter lay hidden. But papa did not take the hint. "Daughter, he said, calling the girl to his side, no one on earth is more interested in you than your old dad. No one quicker to rise in your defense. But, listen daughter, this very incident has led me to study you, and this is what I have learned:

"You go down the street scantily dressed; you deliberately expose as much of your person as is necessary to appeal to the carnal instincts of man; your lovely neck, a large portion of your well developed breasts, your arms, and by means of a slit or transparent skirt, a goodly portion of your lower limbs are exposed to view. Then, when you pass a man, or a group of men, you giggle, toss your head, and perhaps remark to your girl companion that this is the slowest town you ever saw. And if some man accepts your challenge you want him shot.

"Not long ago I was in a town and wanted some beer. I came to a big building along the side of which, in big black letters, was the word, "Saloon." I stepped inside, to learn that it was some other kind of business, but one which is often run in connection with a saloon. I called for a glass of beer, and the proprietor looked at me—seeming in doubt whether to shoot me, call the police, or kick me out into the street.

"Daughter, I was a stranger in that place: I didn't know that man or his business. I was only guided by his sign. The man who accosted you is a stranger here, and as I have said before, I have studied your ways."

G. W. SNIDER TAHOKA, TEXAS

Did you meet us at the Fair.

Parents should go to the school house every once in a while to see how the children are progressing, and if you cannot tell whether the children are progressing or not, the very fact that you seem to be interested in them will so encourage them that what little time you spend there will be amply paid for in the progress they make. Then, the children are not the only ones you will encourage; teacher is only a human, and like other humans, likes encouragement. It is a fallible idea that the teacher will think you intruding. Don't ever get that into your head; they are as glad to have you as the pupils. Go to school more.

We heard some one remark lately that he believed the Terry county farmer was producing more and better stuff every year, per acre. We wondered if he knew the cause; had he given it a thought? The secret of it can be put in four words: THE TERRY COUNTY FAIR. There is a reason as Post would say, and the reason is easily reasoned. Why? Simply for the reason that competition is the life of trade. If there never had been any big cities, in which competitors plied their trade next door to each other, we would all be going along with the same old methods found at the cross road store. The cross road store is the same now that it was in the Revolutionary times, but when he gets a competitor, he awakes from his lethargy and commences to swamp his rival by putting out a better class of goods coupled with more courteous treatment. His rival has forced the issue. The same with farming or stock raising. If two or more good farmers live near each other, they keep up a friendly rivalry all the time to see who will produce the better farm products or stock, which is good for the county, but if you can succeed in getting every farmer in the county in hot competition, you will be a benefactor to mankind, and a county fair is the best way. The world is constantly crying out for more food, and if you can make a two year old steer as large as the four year old your father produced, or make two ears of corn grow where you once grew one, you have succeeded. The Terry County Fair must be safe guarded and kept above petty jealousies.

Died

Mrs. Livona McReynolds, wife of Rev. J. B. McReynolds, pastor of the Methodist church, died suddenly, Tuesday about noon, while visiting at J. T. Mays. It is said that she seemed as hearty and well as usual, but Mrs. May noticed her head drop over to one side, and supposed that she had fainted. Mrs. May and daughter, Mrs. Downing worked with her till help arrived, which was considerable time, as they were unable to get Central, when it was found that she was beyond recovery, though Dr. Maddux, of Gomez, was called in, as Dr. Treadaway was at Lubbock. Dr. Maddux pronounced life extinct when he arrived.

The Robinson Undertaking Co., of Lubbock, was called in and embalmed the body, which was started to Seymour, Texas, Wednesday morning, where it will be buried. Besides Bro. McReynolds, his brother from Seminole will go through to Seymour and J. S. Powell and Bro. McReynolds' sister also of Seminole, will go as far as Lubbock with them.

Mrs. McReynolds was born in Ellis county, April 27, 1878, being 36 years, 5 months and 10 days old at her death. Her maiden name was Martin. She has long been a devoted member of the Methodist church, and has so lived that she was ready to go. She has been a devoted wife and an ideal friend and neighbor. Herald joins the many friends of Bro. McReynolds in offering our heart felt sympathy in this his saddest hour.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

MALT LIQUOR ESTABLISHMENTS

Mild Stimulants Taking the Place of Strong Drink.

The manufacture of malt liquor ranks fifth in importance in Texas manufacturing industries from the standpoint of capital invested and ranks third in value added by the manufacturing process. According to the last Federal Census Report we have twelve establishments engaged in the manufacture of malt liquors, employing 931 persons, with an investment of $7,027,000 and an annual payroll of $900,000. The records of the Federal Government show that the capital invested, and the value of the Texas output, have been doubled during the past decade. During the past five years two new establishments have been erected and two million dollars of new money put into the manufacturing business. There are no distilleries in Texas and no whiskey is manufactured within the State.

No authoritative figures are available on the amount of foreign malt liquors consumed in the State, but reliable estimates indicate that 22 per cent of Texas' consumption is manufactured outside the State. Probably 95 per cent of the Texas products are consumed within the State. We consume in Texas approximately 2 per cent of malt liquors manufactured in the United States, while we have 4 per cent of the population. The Texas products have taken first premium at world's fairs, and their purity and perfection is universally recognized. We manufacture in the State approximately 700,000 barrels of beer per annum.

The factory value of the annual Texas output is shown by the census enumerators at $6,464,000, and the value of the raw material used in manufacturing is $1,695,000. The value added by the process of manufacturing is $4,769,000. The principal materials used are barley and rice.

The manufacture of malt liquors in the State has shown an increase of 60 per cent against an increase of 27 per cent in population during the past decade. The increase in malt liquor manufactured in the United States during this period is twenty per cent. Less than one per cent of malt liquor establishments of the United States are located in Texas.

The increased demand for malt liquor indicates that mild stimulants are taking the place of strong, poisonous drinks and is evidence of more temperate drinking and so-riety.

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING.

Will Bring Twenty Million Dollars Worth of Toys.

Santa Claus is going to bring the children of the United States an assortment of toys valued at $20,000,000 this Christmas, and nearly a million dollars worth will be distributed among Texas kiddies. Assuming that this amount will be apportioned, each child's allotment will amount to one dollar. These statements are based upon facts and figures contained in a recent report issued by the Federal Department of Commerce relating to the importation, production and exportation of toys in the United States, and the prices used represent wholesale value. According to this bulletin the theory that our Christmas playthings come from Greenland has been exploded as it is shown that more than one-half the toys consumed in this country, or approximately $11,000,000 worth, are manufactured in the United States, while the remainder is imported principally from Germany.

There are 226 toy factories in continental United States, but none of them are located in Texas, and consequently our annual expenditure for Christmas trifles leave the State.

Since Santa Claus made his last visit a year ago, the toy factories of the United States have been running full time preparing for his next annual tour. These establishments have employed 6,072 persons, who have earned $3,000,000 in salaries and wages and whose unceasing labors will brighten the lives of 20 million good little boys and girls when they wake on Christmas morning.

The consumption of this class of merchandise in the United States has grown with remarkable rapidity.

Imports in 1893 were less than 3 million dollars; in 1903 they had grown to four and one-half million, and for the calendar year of 1913 it seems likely that they will reach the enormous sum of nine million dollars. While the domestic manufacture of toys has increased materially in recent years, the yearly factory output is no nearer the annual demand than it was twenty years ago, and as a result the imports, production and consumption show approximately the same percentage of gain during this time. Exports of toys from the United States are comparatively small when the manufacture and importations are considered. The exports amount to less than a million dollars annually and have somewhat declined in recent years.

THE PENALTY OF STRIFE.

The scars of strife that deface the visage of industry in Texas should serve as a warning to platform makers against drawing the sword in the present campaign. There is scarcely an important line of industry in Texas that has not been a battle ground of factional strife and many political warriors are now marching up and down the public thoroughfares crying aloud for more blood. If we are going to keep up these industrial struggles our records will soon look like unburied bones.

We are now facing gigantic industrial possibilities and Dame Opportunity is knocking at our door, but if the lady finds us knocking on each other, she may become disgusted and walk away. The Panama Canal will soon be calling upon our railroads for double tracks and our manufacturing plants to increase their capacity. There are our educational and eleemosynary institutions that need consideration. The farmers are demanding better marketing conditions, cheaper money and better transportation service, and it would seem as if these problems are sufficient to engage the attention of all citizens, however able and patriotic, who desire to render a real service to their country.

We ought to cease trying to put our opponents in sackcloth and ashes and adopt the slogan of the Farmers' Union—"Co-operation." Let us lay aside bitterness and strife and turn our attention toward helping each other. The interest of the farmer is universal and he is the most competent citizen we have, and we can afford to clasp hands and follow his lead. Many of our present day statesmen may, under this plan, perish for want of adaptability, but the wise ones have already felt the rush of new life and are leaving the old order of things like men trying to outrun their sins. No country ever has or ever will lead in civilization without co-operation.

We need laborers, not warriors, in the vineyard of industry, and it is little less than a tragedy that many of our leaders look upon our opportunities with as much indifference as a veteran soldier would the plow handles. We have so long taken belligerent views that we face, without duly appreciating, the monumental problems now confronting us. Malice never built a city and hate never made two blades of grass grow where one grew before. Let us have an area of peace and prosperity.

time last week, but we did not learn whether he had any success or not.

Rev. Durham, of Temple, pastor of the Brownfield and Gomez Baptist churches, preached two excellent sermons here Sunday to good sized and attentive audiences. There were five additions to the church by letter at the morning service. We understand that he was unable to get a house at either place, and that he will rent at either Lubbock or Tahoka till he can get a house here. Why don't some one build some good rent houses here, they are in almost constant demand.

We made a short call Monday afternoon on Bro. and sister McReynolds, and looked over their premises and saw their chickens; also, incidently help them eat a fine melon that he raised. They have a nice bunch of thorough bred buff Orpington's and one of the prettiest flower yards in town. They have grown some trees at the parsonage this year that would do credit to anyone who had a well in their yard, and they carried the water more than a block to get them started. Bro. Mack, as he is called, informed us that he had grown all the they could consume without irrigation, in his patch, and that he wanted to leave everything in good shape for the next pastor.

Memoirs of Napoleon In Three Volumes

The personal reminiscences of Baron de Ménéval, for thirteen years private secretary to Napoleon Bonaparte, bring out, as no history can, many enlightening and interesting side lights on the character of that greatest of leaders. De Ménéval's descriptions have the piquancy and interest possible only because he was an actual eyewitness of the scenes and incidents of which he writes. Their reliability and historical interest can be judged by the fact that the very conservative French Academy publicly recommends them.

A SPECIAL OFFER TO OUR READERS

By special arrangement with the publishers of Collier's, The National Weekly, we are able to give these valuable and interesting Memoirs free with a year's subscription to Collier's and this publication, at a price less than the lowest net cash subscription price of the two papers. Only a limited quantity of these Memoirs is available, however, so to get the benefit of this special offer you must act quickly.

WHAT YOU GET IN COLLIER'S

Collier's is the one big, fearless, independent Weekly of the whole country. Its editorials are quoted by every paper in the Union. It stands always for the best interests of the greatest number of the people. Among its contributors are such writers as George Randolph Chester, author of "Get-Rich-Quick" Wallingford, Meredith Nicholson, Anselme Rives, H. G. Wells, Hamlin Garland, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Henry Beach Needham, etc. It numbers among its correspondents such men as Jack London, Arthur Ruhl, James B. Connolly, and Henry Reuterdahl.

It is a magazine for the whole family—Editorials, Comments on Congress, Photographic News of the World, Short and Serial Stories by the greatest writers of the day.

Bro. McReynolds' father, sister, brother and his sister-in-law came in from Seminole Tuesday night to pay their last respects to the body of Mrs. J. B. McReynolds, before it was shipped to Seymour for interment.

COTTON SACKS, and good ones at that at the Brownfield Hardware.

J. T. May brought in samples of his second crop of Feterita this week that was fine, and which he will have cut before long. He said he shelled 80 ears of his this years corn that weighed 52 pounds. We call that good.

A shower fell here Tuesday afternoon that measured .25 in.

We will appreciate a settlement if you owe us. Brownfield Merc. Co.

Gomez

By West Wind

Rev. McReynolds filled his regular appointment here, Sunday at 11 a. m. and at night. There was one new member added to the church Sunday morning. Bro McReynolds and wife visited at Mr. Glovers Sunday night and until Monday afternoon.

Wiley Bridge, was here Sunday.

Mr. A. P. Seitz and wife visited at the hotel Sunday.

A card from Willow Okla. states that Mrs. Ross Kensie is slowly improving, though she still has fever. Mr. Hunter arrived home from there last Saturday.

Well after so long a time Mr. Ware's family actually are here, though only Mrs. Ware and the school children will be here for the present, as Mr. Ware and Ennis have a crop to gather out at the ranch. Ennis spent Saturday and Sunday here and returned to the ranch Monday. Miss Orle Ware went out to Geo. Snodgrass' Monday.

Miss Schieffer the music and expression teacher of Brownfield, visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Owing to the machinery breaking so often, they did not finish filling Will Black's silo until last Saturday, so did not begin work at Mr. Hudson's until Monday morning. Tom Glover, Jim Moore, Hosey Key and Guy Taylor from here are working out there this week.

Will Snodgrass and wife attended preaching here Sunday.

Ben Hurst and wife passed through here Monday enroute to Brownfield.

Mr. Francis, a representative of the Chicago Portrait Co., worked our town and vicinity last week.

Booth Hays was here Monday and went on east.

Walter Gainer and Bert Ingram have gone to Tahoka for freight.

Prof. White was hauling in his Sudan grass last Saturday.

Mrs. Eldrege Maddux is right sick at this writing.

Joe Lane came in Sunday horseback, and carried an armful of branding irons out of town. Autos are all right, but put on old time cow puncher on the hurricane deck of a Texas bronco and he looks and feels at home.

Joe Wrotan and wife from Cross community, were in trading Saturday.

Jay McPhaul went to Brownfield Monday.

Miss Mary Simms left Monday morning for Elida, N. M., where she will attend school this term.

Mrs. J. M. Currier and children spent Saturday out at the farm and passed through here Sunday afternoon enroute back to Brownfield.

Mrs. Wolfarth went out to the ranch Saturday, returning Monday.

Charlie Currier passed through here Monday with the Wolfarth range wagon and a bunch of hands enroute to Gaines county for a herd of cattle. Charlie says he has been promoted from Maize header to cook on the Wolfarth Ranch.

Mr. Tom Yates was in from the ranch Sunday, visiting his children here.

Arthur Moore went out to southwest Terry Sunday afternoon and spent Monday surveying a lot of land lines on the Brownfield Ranch.

The cotton patches around town are white, and picking going on as fast as hands can be secured to pick. We understand there is six bales already picked on S. H. Keys farm.

Bob Snodgrass and wife visited in town last Thursday afternoon and night, and Bob says he "never said freighting was pleasant" so we just take it all back, but now just wait until we accuse him of liking to work again.

Prof. White says school is progressing splendidly, everyone satisfied and at work.

Gomez gardens have been unusually this year, and fall garden are always best on the plains, and now the new fall goods and groceries are here and nothing is lacking to make the average citizen happy. Work is plenty wages are good and those who don't work for wages have more crops than they can gather, in fact if the crops in this part of Terry are gathered without waste the working force will have to be doubled and that right soon.

FOR SALE:—Two good residence lots, in first addition to Brownfield, about two and one half blocks from the square. These are corner lots fronting south or west. Price $75. Apply at Herald office.

Meadow

By Sandy

I wish I could write as good a letter as West Wind, I would not mind trying to write. It certainly was a good one last week.

The Herald did not get here until Monday, and everyone was asking about it when it failed to be handed out.

Whoever it is that is writing the Hogwallow News is a natural born wit. It is fine.

Our school is progressing fine. We predict it one of the finest schools ever taught at Meadow.

Little John Conal Herring was hurt Monday by a wagon runing over his leg with a thousand pounds of maize on it.

G. W. Ellington and wife went to Tahoka Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Way.

Miss Grace Ellington's school will begin the first Monday in November.

Mrs. Otis Copeland has returned home after being in Dr. Claton's Sanitarium three weeks.

Bro. Lofton of Gomez, preached a splendid sermon here Sunday to a good sized crowd. He will preach for us the first Sunday in each month at 3 o'clock.

If you are owing us an account or note, please come in and settle. We need the money. Brownfield Merc. Co.

Zellica Knox and Bertha Lowe paid the Herald a short call last Friday, and had us add their names to our growing list. Miss Zellica is teaching at Loop this year.
