HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent

The Blind Man from the Calf Ribs community has joined the Excelsior Fiddling Band and was sworn in Saturday night. Hereafter when the band goes to serenade a dangerous person the blind man will be made to lead the way.

Fit Smith says the greatest disappointment he knows of is to pick an owl.

Tobe Moseley has set a lot of mink traps on Gander Creek, and is furnishing the postmaster with ear muffs this winter.

Christopher Columbus has been made famous this week at the Wild Onion school house by Prof. Sap Spradlin, who has delivered several talks in his favor to the scholars. Nothing much is known of Columbus in this place except what can be gained from histories and other books.

The Old Miser who lives near the persimmon tree on Musket Ridge, is preparing to dig up his money Sunday and count it. He believes it will be safe to do this while everybody is at church.

Dock Hocks, our enterprising blacksmith, went to the postoffice the other day without first washing his hands and accidentally canceled several stamps the postmaster had on sale.

Jefferson Hocks, who has been deaf in both ears since the sawmill boiler blew up while he was repairing it, is now getting better and says he can plainly hear thunder by standing up close to it.

Miss Fruzie Allsop looked pleasant at Atlas Peak at church last Sunday, but it is believed the smile was only skin deep.

Raz Barlow has been notified that the catalog from Sears & Roebuck has arrived at Tickville, and he will dress up tomorrow and go after it in the wagon. While the catalog is listed with the non-fiction books, there are many remarkable things in it.

The red mule belonging to Sim Flinders has fattened up so much that the stable will have to be enlarged.

The Hogwallow Improvement Society will meet at the Hog Ford moonshine still Friday night to appoint a committee to look after the revenue officers that are expected to visit here next week.

Frisby Hancock claims to have a gun with the longest range of any in this vicinity. Tuesday he shot at a hawk setting on a hay stack pole and wounded a cow over near Rye Straw, five miles away. He did this as a test of the long distance his gun could shoot, and before firing it he marked all the shot so that he could recognize them.

Luke Mathews shot at a fine owl in the Gimlet Creek bottoms a few days ago, but just as the gun went off the owl closed its eyes and squatted down low, allowing the shot to go over its head. Luke not to be outdone, says he then aimed low, but the wise bird this time raised up a little and allowed the shot to pass under it.

Ellick Hellwanger is making rapid strides in his attempt to win the hand of Miss Gondola Henstep, as he reports he moved his chair two feet nearer her on last Sunday night.

The Mail Carrier's horse was run over and badly skinned up by the buggy it was hitched to Wednesday.

Ellick Hellwanger has lowered his eyebrows in anticipation of a fight he expects to have the next time he meets Sydney Hocks in a narrow place in the road. The Deputy Constable will probably stay at home until it is over, as he is a law abiding citizen and hates to see anybody break the law.

The Mail Carrier's horse got frightened at the postmaster Tuesday morning and ran away. The Mail Carrier will apologize when he gets back.

Mrs. Joe Hamilton and her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Chock Hamilton, paid the Herald a call last Friday afternoon.

Tahoka

The News.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Forrester are entertaining a very small and very pretty young lady, who made her arrival January 8th. Bob says she is already big enough to make eyes and soon will be big enough to go with the boys.

Jake Johnson, of Terry county, was in Wednesday with three and a half tons of broom corn, which he stored in the old garage building south of the square. Himself and neighbors will make up two cars and ship from here at one time.

W. E. Williams, of near Brownfield, was in the News office, Tuesday to have the Lynn County News sent to him. He was here with a load of feed. When asked about the feed crop in Terry he remarked, "I'll bet we passed a hundred wagons on their way to Tahoka with feed, maize, kaffir and corn." We inquired as to how many cars he supposed Terry would ship this year and his answer was, "We won't count it by the car load, but by the train load. We have been hauling two months and have not made a show yet, and most of them are just commencing." He said the average crop was 150 acres and lots of them had planted two and three hundred acres, they, themselves having in three hundred acres.

Lubbock

The Avalanche

D. Robinson returned Monday from the Harris ranch, where he had been looking after official business, in connection with the Federal Inspector's duties.

Judge and Mrs. W. R. Spencer went to Ballinger today to attend the funeral of Miss Wade, account of whose death appears in another part of this paper.

FOR SALE: 90 head cattle; 25 one year old, 50, 2 years old; 15, 4 year old cows. Also, 12 head springer Jersey heifers. Will sell or trade for stock cattle. Ed Hicks, McDonald Livery Barn, Lubbock, Texas.

A thresher company threshed something like 8000 pounds of cane seed for the Burnett boys and about the same for Uncle Joe Hamilton this week. They also threshed out about 2500 lbs. of sudan for C. S. Cardwell.

J. T. May spent Sunday and Monday in Lubbock.

Jim Johnson moved last week back to his old home place he sold to Mr. Farris and Mr. Hamp Peritt moved into the house he moved out of.

Mr. Brown's team team ran away the other day and in trying to stop them the wagon ran over him and hurt his shoulder very badly. He has been suffering great pain with it but at this writing it is some better.

Sam Branch and Lee Cowan made a trip to Tahoka last week, and in some way Mr. Cowan's young horse got one of its hind feet over the trace, when it began kicking and running in a circle. Sam Branch jumped off his wagon and ran to the rescue just in time to escape turning the wagon over.

A. W. Blankenship and Prof. Faw made a business trip to Lubbock, Saturday.

Mr. Rawlins from Fisher Co. is now working for H. L. Smith.

Doss Windham hauled back from Lubbock, cake for Noah Bell. This is his last load. He had a contract to haul twenty tons.

Say Editor, I fear mine and Sandy's locals will be the same some times. Sandy, if its just the same to you, I would be glad to write the items up this way and I'll promise not to invade your territory near Meadow.

Quite a number of the school children were absent from school last week on account of colds and high fever.

Hershal Timmons, one of our foremost farmers, has the greater portion of his land bedded already for planting. Other farmers are having their plows sharpened preparing to commence plowing soon.

I never receive my Herald until Monday. I call at Meadow both Friday and Saturday. When do you mail them out to Meadow? (Saturday morning, Ed.)

I heard some one say the other day that West Wind was the best correspondent in the whole lot because she wrote the most locals. When we first began writing the editor had some judges that judged our letters by the most instructive items. Now it seems they are judged by the quantity and not the quality. I should think that a person in some other state would prefer to know the price of land, corn or maize than to know Sallie

The Caraway boys from Lubbock are threshing Walk Hendrick's feed stuff and he certainly has a nice lot of it. Hope Timmons is helping with the threshing.

A. W. Blankenship received a message about midnight last Friday stating his brother was dying.

R. G. Wood is expecting his nephew and family who visited him Xmas time, to come about the first of March to make their home with him.

S. C. Arnett went to Lubbock Wednesday.

J. W. Peeler was in Lubbock on business last Tuesday.

All the children are back at school, well again.

Mrs. Boyd and twins took the train at Lubbock, Thursday of last week for Tulsa, where she visited her sister until Sunday.

G. W. Ellington and sons, Millard and Floyd are busy hauling their cake.

Jones visited Susie Smith. I am glad West Wind has the opportunity to catch so much news. Some of the rest of us are not so situated. Hence the tardy correspondents have to do the best they can, and by the way I think everyone should be awarded a prize of some kind for their efforts, if it is only a little twenty cent magazine. We all can't get first prizes.

Come to Terry County where they ship out corn, maize, mules, horses, cattle, hogs and sheep by the train load, and more cotton to the acre than they make in the famous black land regions of the State.

Now is the time to come to Terry to make your home. You that already have land here, it is only waiting for your husbandry to make you rich, and you will find plenty feed here, and cheaper than anywhere else in the State, to start your crop. To those who have not invested here you will find that land is still cheap, too cheap really when it is compared with land anywhere else in the world.

We have before us a pamphlet entitled "Reasons Present Texas Full Crew Law Should be Satisfactory," and issued by the authority of the General Managers Association of Texas. The arguments set forth in this booklet are to the point and convincing to the reader, that the addition of a man in each train crew will mean nothing else than an increase in freight rates, or worse, poorer service. Aside from the arguments in this pamphlet, which are of course from the managers' point of view, we think the railroads of Texas have been harassed enough by the Legislature and the Attorney General, and are clearly entitled to a rest. There is no doubt in our mind but that Terry county would have had a railroad through it today, if it had not been for continued persecutions of the roads by men higher up. We need development, not retardment, and we hope the people will be careful to fill our State offices with real statesmen instead of real politicians, from now on. None of us begrudge the fact that some private individual is making money legitimately, and why should we harass a corporation because they make money? A corporation is composed of private individuals, and most of our banks, and mercantile establishments, something very essential to our every day life, are incorporated. But we understand that very few railroads are making money.

Harris

By Sand Bar

Two cars were out from Lubbock last Thursday. One brought a prospector to look at a section of land in the Hooker pasture. Cow buyers came in the other car. All of them ate dinner at Harris but we didn't learn whether they did any business out this way.

Clyde Harris has bought Mr. Baker's bonus house which he is rebuilding on his father's land. Clyde will farm here this year.

We learned that it was a mistake about J. W. Gordon going to Missouri as he is still at the ranch.

T. J. Conley was very sick for a day or two but we heard he is much better.

Friends of Mrs. J. M. McMilla's mother, Mrs. Brister, are glad to hear that after a very serious case of pneumonia, the last news report her on the road to recovery.

West Wind's and Sandy's nice reply to Mr. Faulley's kind words made us feel as if we would appear to be unappreciative but on the contrary we experienced a genuine thrill of pleasure in behalf of the Herald, Terry County and ourselves.

We think though that Mr. Faulley gets full value for each $1 spent for the Herald.

Misses Mabel and Jewel Latham and two young men by the name of Crews came over from their homes in New Mexico last Friday and visited here until Sunday afternoon. Their many friends here hope they will repeat the visit in the near future.

John Day was doing business at Harris last Saturday.

J. W. Spear and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Add Cox, in the J Cross neighborhood last Wednesday night.

Marlin Ellington and wife entertained a large number of their friends at a reception in their home last Friday night. A sumptuous supper was served which was pronounced a success in the culinary art.

There was such a large number of guests from a distance until we shall not attempt to name any of them. From what we have heard of it we have reason to believe this was the crowning social success of the season, near here.

H. F. Wingo and wife entertained the young people with a singing last Saturday night. Mrs. Wingo is a charming hostess and all report a pleasant time.

Bro. Hughes was out Sunday and though the weather was again unfavorable there was a goodly number present to hear two interesting sermons and partake of an appetizing dinner.

Have you paid your 1914 account at the Merc.

There is considerable sickness in the way of colds and la-grippe, and there is no accounting for it other than the sudden changes in the temperature. Dr. Treadaway says there will be some pneumonia following if the people don't take mighty good care of themselves.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Edwin C. Rallins, J. W. Knox, W. F. Turner and J. F. Turner & Company, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 72nd Judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Terry County, to be holden at the court house thereof in Brownfield on the fourth Monday in April, 1915, the same being the 26th day of April, 1915, then and there to answer to a petition filed in said court on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1915, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 215, wherein J. W. Templeton is plaintiff and Edwin C. Rallins, J. W. Knox, W. F. Turner and J. F. Turner & Company and J. R. Lanier are defendants, said petition alleging that heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 1st day of January, A. D. 1915, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land and premises, situated in the County of Terry, State of Texas, and known as the west one-half of Survey No. 9, Block D14, Certificate No. 218, issued to the C. & M. Railway Company, containing 320 acres of land, holding and claiming the same in fee simple.

That on the day and year last aforesaid, defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withholds from him the possession thereof, to his damage ($1,000.00); that the reasonable annual rental value of said land and premises is ($100.00).

That heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 10th day of August, A. D. 1909, the above described land and premises was conveyed by G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier, to Nick Alley, in consideration, among other things, of two notes of even date therewith, for the sum of ($100.00) each, due and payable twelve months after date, and that thereafter, the said Nick Alley conveyed said land and premises to J. W. Knox, and the said J. W. Knox, in consideration among other things, executed two notes for ($200.00) each, payable to Nick Alley, due two and three years from the 31st day of August, 1909, and the said Nick Alley retained a vendor's lien against said land and premises to secure the payment of said notes; and that thereafter, to-wit, on the 4th day of October, 1909, the said J. W. Knox conveyed the above described land and premises, to W. F. Turner, and as a part of the consideration of the said conveyance, the said W. F. Turner executed two notes, one for the sum of ($130.00) and one for the sum of ($125.00), payable to the order of J. F. Turner & Company, one and two years after date, and a vendor's lien was retained in said deed to secure the payment of said two notes.

That on or about the 25th day of October, 1910, J. R. Lanier recovered judgment against Nick Alley and W. F. Turner in the District Court of Terry County, Texas, on the two notes first described in the preceding paragraph, and foreclosed the vendor's lien against the land and premises herein described; that on the 3rd day of January, 1911, said land was sold by the sheriff of Terry county, to satisfy said judgment, and was bought in at said sale by J. R. Lanier.

That the two notes sued on in the case of J. R. Lanier vs. Nick Alley, et al., in the District Court of Terry County, Texas, were superior to the said notes executed by J. W. Knox in favor of Nick Alley and were superior to the notes executed by W. F. Turner, and payable to the order of J. F. Turner & Company, and that by reason of the lapse of time, the holders of said notes should now be estopped from claiming any equity of redemption.

That on or about the 10th day of August, 1909, G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier made executed and delivered to Ira H. Wilson a certain mortgage against the land and premises herein described to secure the payment of one note for the sum of ($200.00), executed by G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier, and payable to the order of Ira H. Wilson, which mortgage was at that time the only lien against said land, and which was at any time thereafter the superior lien to any that was created by virtue of the vendor's lien notes hereinbefore described.

That on the 21st day of March, 1911, J. R. Lanier conveyed said land and premises to Edwin C. Rallins, and as part of the consideration therefor, the said Rallins executed two promissory notes, one for the sum of ($750.00) due November 21, 1911, and one for the sum of ($370.00) due Nov. 21, 1912, which notes, however, was made subject to the outstanding mortgage lien and not for ($200.00) in favor of Ira H. Wilson.

That on or about the 30th day of April, 1912, Ira H. Wilson recovered a judgment in the District Court, Terry County, against G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier, on said ($200.00) note, herebefore described, together with the foreclosure of his mortgage lien, and that thereafter, to-wit, on the 7th day of January, 1913, said land was sold by the sheriff of Terry County, Texas, to L. B. Minor, by virtue of an order of sale to satisfy said judgment.

That said ($200.00) note held by Ira H. Wilson, and the mortgage securing the payment of same, was first lien against said land, and was superior to any lien, claim, equity or right held by any other person. That since the sale of said land to L. B. Minor by the Sheriff of Terry County, neither of the defendants herein have or offered to exercise, their equity of redemption, if any they have, and should now be estopped from claiming any right, title or interest in and to said land by virtue of any of said notes, or said deeds herein referred to.

That by virtue of the deed from J. W. Knox to W. F. Turner, and by virtue of the notes executed by W. F. Turner, in favor of J. F. Turner & Company, and by virtue of the deed from J. R. Lanier to Edwin C. Rallins, and the notes executed by Edwin C. Rallins to J. R. Lanier, there is a cloud cast upon plaintiff's title, and he is, and should be entitled to have the same removed.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays the court that the defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that plaintiff have judgment for title and possession, of the above described land and premises, that the cloud cast upon plaintiff's title hereto be removed, and that writ of restitution issue, for this rents, damages and cost of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law or in equity that he may be entitled to receive.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness D. J. Broughton, Clerk of the District Court of Terry County, Texas.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, this 19th day of January, A. D. 1915.

D. J. BROUGHTON,
Clerk of District Court, Terry County, Texas.

Issued this 19th day of January, A. D. 1915.

SCORE POLITICAL SAVIORS

The Farmers Mocked By Peanut Politicians—Good Laws Never Made By Mad Men, Nor Wisely Administered in a Spirit of Partisan Strife.

Fort Worth, Tex.—We make no pretense of knowing how to play politics, but we know how to plow, and applying horse-sense to the present situation, we think the farmers of Texas need cheap money far more than they need self-appointed political saviors; a system of rural credits much more than government spies prying into our affairs, and a better marketing system is needed much more than political inquisitions. Taken singly, the politicians have been able to master the farmers and all other lines of industry, but united, we can put the death-rattle in the throat of the demagogues. We do not think that state government should use its power in drawing a dark curtain of suspicion between the farmers and the business men; we believe co-operation a better policy. Shooting up business never made a small city great nor a rich state richer, and no citizen should be compelled to apologize for the conduct of any state official. It is well for all good citizens to pause and inquire if we are not approaching political anarchy. Has Russia much the best of us on political persecutions, inquisitions and dictators?

We want to call the attention of the public to the position taken by the Farmers' Union at the beginning of this campaign in asking that the liquor question be eliminated from consideration, and we point to the present inflamed state of public mind as evidence of the wisdom of our course.

We thought that inasmuch as less than one per cent of our population suffered from the evil influences of liquor, the ninety and nine were entitled to consideration in this campaign; that as three-fourths of our territory was already dry, and the remaining sections have an opportunity to vote liquor out if they care to do so, that one state administration of rest from an issue which constitutes less than five per cent of the life of the state and has received 95 per cent of public attention for the past twenty years, would be fair and just. We have never discussed the merits of the controversy, and on that phase of the subject we have nothing to say.

The Penalty of Strife.

We do not believe the insane should remain in jail, a half million mothers rock their babes in poverty, and a quarter of a million tenant farmers flee like birds before a storm, while the politicians are fighting themselves into silence over the prohibition question, and we have no apology to offer for our position. We leave it for the sovereign citizen of this state to determine at the polls July 25th whether we will eliminate this question from consideration of the next legislature.

We believe that no citizen who places patriotism above partisanship can look upon the present situation with satisfaction or honestly regard its continuation profitable to the welfare of Texas.

It is a fact as old as government that good laws were never made by mad men, and legislation was never wisely administered in a spirit of partisan strife. This campaign has maddened men and prostituted reason; it has sent preachers from the pulpit to the rostrum bellowing with

Our Legislative Opportunities.

We have had some things to say to the pulpit politicians. We join in the oft-repeated suggestion that a preacher has as much right in political brawls as a saloon keeper, and we also admit that he has as much right to tango as anyone else, but we would rather he would not do so. We think a political bishop can turkey-trot in the name of Christianity as consistently as he can enter into a mud-slinging political contest to the disgrace of his church. Our only concern has been to keep the ministry on a high plane where it merits the respect of the laymen and the confidence of the public.

We think the next legislature can and should open the gate to a new world. That it should challenge nature to disclose her mineral wealth; summon the soil to produce more abundantly and command the wheels of industry to spin more rapidly. With such a task before it we believed the legislative mind should be freed from prejudice and hate, and we still think so.

We farm with a hoe and not with a pen, but we wish we could form golden sentences that call forth the best there is in men. In closing we want to again appeal to the farmers for unity.

Cotton occupies 45 per cent of our cultivated area.

Within the past decade the cotton acreage of Texas has increased 25 per cent.

WHERE? At Gomez
WHEN: Saturday night Feb. 13.
WHAT: A good time for all. A Valentine party with program, fortune telling, refreshments free and a good social time. At the school house, under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies. Admission 10 and 15c. Let's all be there.

Miss Schieffer came in this week and explained that she did not think we came into her room last week to visit, and asked us to come back again.

Frank Howard and a crew of four hands started out Monday to begin poisoning prairie dogs on Ray Brownfield's ranch. We hope every farm and ranch in the county will kill the little pests.

The Timms Bros. finished shelling F. E. Walter's corn this week and moved their machinery to the L7 ranch.

Luther French was in this week bothering the life out of all who would let him.

Annie Hamilton went to Plainview last week, returning Tuesday. She was accompanied home by her little niece, Sydney Margurette, daughter of her brother, Jessie and wife of Plainview. She will spend some time here visiting relatives and their friends.

All the county officials are finding that their department business is picking up, and this is a good indication that the whole county is on the up-look. In fact we think any citizen of Terry that is not satisfied with present conditions, with the exception of low cotton, ought to be indicted before the next Grand Jury.

Well, the big sale at the Gomez Merc. is past and gone, and if you did not share in the bargains it was not the Herald's fault. It advised you to go, and we understand the sale was a success beyond a doubt, and the people got their money's worth.

Jack Hawley of Plainview, representing the San Antonio Underwriters Fire Insurance Co., was here this week looking after business for his company. Hawley is a great Jack, and if you're not in a good humor when he is around, you soon melt to his genial smile.

Well that long needed street working is actually going on here now and we understand that all necessary work will be done before they quit.

Rev. Hughes preached here at the M. E. Church, Sunday night and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Glover.

Robert Griffith, Hilliard Ware and Houston Shepherd attended the dance at Marlin Ellington's last Friday night. They report a nice time.

Quite a large crowd were at the party at Mr. Ware's last Saturday night and they all report a splendid time.

Ben Brannon moved into the house vacated by Alvin Key on last Saturday and Monday Jim Moore moved out to the Ball (or Black) place where Ben lived last year. Ben will stay here until school closes and then move out to New Mexico.

Bert Shepherd moved the Ware cottage out to his farm on Monday. Charley Currier will occupy it this year and cultivate land on Bert's farm.

Mr. Copeland cleaned the sand bed out of the auto road near the grave yard, east of town, last week.

Mr. Clarence Biggerstaff of California passed through here last Thursday enroute to Plains to visit his mother, Mrs. J. T. Gainer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Taylor came in from their present home in Borden county on last Saturday. Mr. Taylor brought a load of lumber with which he expects to do some building on his farm ten miles west of town, where Mr. W. E. Cherry now lives.

Will McPhaul and wife were trading in town last Saturday.

Jay McPhaul and wife spent last week here in town at Oral Adam's.

all last week but is able to be up now.

Wiley Bridges and wife visited relatives here last Saturday night.

Mr. Howard and sons from the north side, were in trading Saturday.

Hosey Key and wife came in Saturday, from the Myers community and visited here at Grandpa Black's Saturday night and out at Will Black's Sunday.

Eb Ivey and wife were trading here last Saturday.

Mrs. W. B. Hays made a business trip to both Gomez and Brownfield last Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Moore visited relatives here last Saturday.

Alvin Duke and wife came in from their home in New Mexico, this week for a visit to their parents here and at Brownfield.

Geo. McWhorter and wife were visiting and trading here Monday.

Well things do move here sometimes. We had a whirlwind or sand storm here last Saturday that lifted a ladder that was standing against the west end of the porch on our dwelling and carried the ladder over the top of the porch and dropped it about forty feet east of the house. We did not see the ladder go up but we heard it hit the roof as it passed over and saw it fall.

The gin ran early and late last week and Monday morning there was quite a crowd of wagons loaded with cotton over there, but late Monday evening the yard was clear.

John Hays came in Monday evening to see Dr. Maddux. A fighting horse caused another horse to knock John down and he is suffering from a badly bruised knee in consequence of the accident.

Well the sunshine is warm and the birds are singing as if spring was here and we certainly hope it is near, for, well we have not had a bad winter at all compared to the rain, snow and zero weather of Middle and East Texas, yet we are anxious to get out of making a fire in the heating stove every morning.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.
