From Camp Travis

To the Herald and its many readers:-

Thought we would drop you a few lines so that you would have some idea how we are getting along.

From the way we have gained in weight, it looks like Uncle Sam is fattening us for a slaughter pen. Nearly every boy in the camp has gained from 4 to 15 pounds each, and haven't been down here quit two months. It isn't all fat either, most of it is well developed muscles. If we keep this up much longer, we will be convinced that Military Training is a good thing for a Nation even if we do lose a few thousand men, they will be well paid for making real strong men out of the balance.

We still drill, drill, drill, about seven and one half hours each day except Sun., Sat., and Wed., evenings. After drill hours we either go to the Y. M. C. A. or to town and take in the amusements down there. As a general thing we are all tired enough on week nights to turn in about nine.

A few cases of mumps have broken out in the camp, and we are pretty careful who we run with, for most of us have never had them and don't care to give them a trial.

Most of the boys are taking to the swimming hole like a bunch of ducks. In fact they are taking to every thing that an officer says do. They have certainly learned to obey. Every soldier knows what the word "obedience" means and he never learned it out of a dictionary either. If you don't want a soldier to do a thing you had sure better not tell him to, for it would be a second nature for him to mind and all the blame would be on you. We can swim futher; walk futher; limberer than we ever were in our lives; so you see there is no need to worry about us. Of course we have our share of the troubles, but we will wait and tell you them after we knock that Dam Kaiser's block off.

Yours trully,
Terry County Boys,
By H. R. Winston.

Brownfield, Terry Co., Texas.

Seven of the boys from Terry County are making good soldiers for the 1st Caisson company. H. H. Low is Corporal of the 3rd squad and is trying hard to work up the stuff they call "pep".

Will D. Bryant is assigned to the veterinary base hospital as a student, and reports that he likes it and is going to win.

Thomas E. Brooks is attending the school for horseshoers and says that the "village smithy under the spreading chesnut tree" is not going to have anything on him.

Clyde L. Green, the original "big boy," James O. Cardwell, Scott Walker, Ernest Haywood are horsemen, or will be when the Kaiser is finished, for they are being taught to ride over 4 ft. hurdles with their feet out of the stirrups and hands over head.

Division Publicity Office
Ninetieth Division
Camp Travis.

No one knows better than General Allen commanding the 90th Division, National Army, at Camp Travis, that an efficient Army is an army composed of soldiers who are in good health.

Those who have sent members of their respective family to compose this great division can have a no more comforting thought than that everything that modern science, eternal vigilance and constant watchfulness can do is being done to keep the soldiers at Camp Travis strong in body and in the best of health.

In no line of endeavor is that axiom "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" applied with greater energy than at Camp Travis. The 90th Division is like one great big family. Its efficiency as a fighting unit is impaired by each soldier in that command that is sick. Not only to provide the greatest possible efficiency, but also to conserve the bodies of the soldiers for the future is one of the problems that has had thought and attention of some of the foremost minds in the medical world, for the medical personnel now at Camp Travis is composed of physicians who have already earned their right to speak with authority upon matters of health hygiene and sanitation.

In a family of 30,000 people, there is a constant danger and an ever present opportunity for the breaking out and spreading of contagious diseases. Measles mumps, concomitants of childhood days, make a never ending fight to find lodgment in camps. Mild cases of both diseases have as we expected, appeared at Camp Travis. But infected units have been quarantined, stricken cases have been placed in isolated wards and the number of these cases have been held at a much lower minimum than would have been the case in any city of the same population as Camp Travis.

No ailment is given more careful attention than the common cold, for the common cold often furnishes a splendid breeding ground for pneumonia. Pneumonia has appeared at Camp Travis, just as it appears in other communities in this state. Against no disease is there waged a more vigilant war than against pneumonia. A common cold is taken in hand by the physicians when it first appears. Those thus affected are not passed from under observation of physicians until it has been found that the common cold is that and nothing more.

The medical corps of the army believes firmly and practices religiously that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. To the end that disease finds no place in Camp Travis where it can spread, no stone is left unturned to insure absolute cleanliness in everything.

The food served the soldiers is scrutinized with scientific eyes. Kitchens are required to be spic and span and housewives who take a pride in their households can well afford to envy the results secured. Shower baths, with hot and cold water, are provided and the men themselves see to it that they are used by every soldier in the Camp Travis. An immense laundry serves the soldiers at a charge of $1.50 per month for all the washing the soldiers require or desire done.

On arriving at camp, each soldier is given a thorough, careful physical examination. Those with minor ailments, or suffering from defects that can be corrected through known agencies are segregated into a separate battalion and there trained back to robustness. There are dental officers who look after the teeth of the command and there are expert physical training experts who direct the work of rebuilding the unfinished bodies. The sick are treated at a large hospital, known as the base hospital, which has the capacity of 1000 beds and a better equipped or more well fitted hospital is not to be found anywhere.

As a result of all this care and attention is that soldiers at Camp Travis are better looked after than 99 out of every hundred men at large. The least of the things that should cause anxiety for relatives and friends is the health of the soldiers of at Camp Travis. Every officer, who are supreme in all things that conserve and preserve the health of the soldiers.

That the energies expended to the soldiers at Camp Travis in good health are worth while is attested by the fact that no community, no city in the south with 30,000 population can point to such splendid results as have been the fruits of this care and attention. There are fewer cases of sickness at Camp Travis to-day than any city in this state of one third the population of Camp Travis. As the men are built up physically and become hardened to all things that effect the health, this sickness will be still futher decreased, for at Camp Travis there is being waged a fight that never ends and there being maintained a vigilance that never flags to maintain the highest health standard that modern science and demonstrated methods can devise.

Bank Buys the Spencer Corner

One of the biggest deals that has been put through here in town property, was consummated this week when the officials of the Brownfield State Bank become the owners of the Speneer corner, being on the northwest corner of the square, the trade being negotiated direct with the owner, Judge W. R. Spencer, of Lubbock. Consideration $8000.00 cash.

In conversation with Cashier O. T. Halley, of the above bank, he informed us, that it was their intention in the no great distant future to erect a nice, two story bank and office building on their new property, which is 25x140 feet, and if they could persuade the Brownfield Hardware Co. to go in with them and get a 75 feet two story frontage, a nucleus of a block of splendid brick buildings.

The Herald hastens to congratulate these enterprising bankers and is glad to number them as our citizens.

Judge Spencer still has some business and residence property here.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Four

Military Training Necessary for Safety and Defense.

"Say, Uncle Dan," said Billie, "Jimmie and I have been looking up about war in the encyclopedia at school. We found that in the war between Germany and France in 1870-71, Germany lost in killed and wounded 28,000 soldiers while France lost about six times as many, and besides that, she lost every battle. We asked Professor Slocum why this was. He said that the German army was highly trained and ably commanded, while the French soldiers were poorly trained; and that their war department was honey-combed with jealousy and politics; that the officers were not much good, and that's why France lost the war and so many men. What do you think about it, Uncle Dan?"

"Well," said Uncle Dan, "Professor Slocum is right. By inefficiency France lost that war, together with two of her best provinces—Alsace and Lorraine—and had to pay a billion dollars indemnity money. France today learned her lesson by that sad experience, so she put in universal military training, and as a result, her soldiers now know how to fight and how to protect themselves. They are losing less men in the war than the Germans. France also put politics out of her war department, so that expert authority, instead of bureaucratic stupidity, now directs the army. The result is, France has one of the best and most efficient armies ever assembled, and this shows what thorough training and good leadership means in warfare. This saved France in this crisis, as well as the liberties of the world."

"As war is now conducted, there is no place for an untrained man. A body of 10,000 well trained soldiers properly handled could defeat five times their number of raw recruits and do it every time with comparatively small loss to themselves. Proper training alone will reduce the death and casualty rate one-third of what it otherwise would be, and right here is an unanswerable argument for universal military training."

"Our government has no moral right to force her men into war service without properly training them for it. To do so is simply murder, hence the frantic effort that is now being made to give her soldiers some training before they are sent to the front. If we are to win this war, it will take trained men to do it, and it will take trained men to win any other war that may come upon us in the future. If we must fight, let us fight to win and not to lose."

"That's the stuff," said Billie.

Continuing, Uncle Dan said: "Our government has expended about $300,000,000 to put up cantonments and training stations in order to train the men called by the selective draft. When these men are trained the training stations should be immediately filled with younger men, say those in their nineteenth year, to receive six months of intensive military training along the lines of the Chamberlain bill. This will be of immeasurable benefit to them individually. It will do them more good than any other two years of their whole life; it will make them strong, manly, self-reliant, quick to see and quick to act; it will equip them for a successful life. In short, it will rebuild American manhood and will also give the government a body of trained men to draw from in case it is necessary to defend our flag and country. We must settle this question of universal military training immediately, otherwise these training camps may be demolished. The adoption of universal military training will be notice to the world that from then on we will be prepared to defend ourselves promptly and efficiently, and this will do more to keep us out of war in the future than anything else we could do."

"Do you think, brother," said Mrs. Graham, "that there will ever be another war?"

"I have no doubt about it," said Uncle Dan. "So long as men are selfish, so long as nations are ambitious to acquire territory, so long as population presses and demands more room, so long as there remains a scramble for world trade—so long wars will be. When the time comes that we reach the high plane for which we hope and dream, when all will recognize the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, then, and then only, will wars cease. When that day comes doors will need no locks, banks will need no vaults to protect their treasures, but that day is a long way off."

"The only safe and sane plan is to be able to defend ourselves at all times. Therefore, every citizen should insist that senators and congressmen shall provide for universal military training, so that never again shall the country be caught so completely unready as this war found us. Fortunately, in this case, our enemy has been held back, so we have had a few months in which to prepare. This advantage probably will never come again. It is however our salvation today."

"Because she was ready, Switzerland is an island of peace in a sea of war. Safety first is good, but safety always is better. In strength there is safety. You never saw a tin can tied to the tail of a bulldog. There is a reason."

Can't Meet Texas Feed Laws.

College Station, Texas, Nov. 20. Occasional letters from outside milling companies to the Feed Control Service of Texas Agricultural Experiment Station indicate great success on the part of the Service in enforcing high standards of feeding stuffs. As long as such letters continue to be written, Texas need have no fear of becoming a dumping ground for the interior feeds of the rest of the country.

Following is a typical communication recently received: "Yours of the 3rd, with a copy of the Texas laws on Mill Feed and Bulletin 216, received for which accept thanks. After reading these over very carefully, we do not believe we will undertake to sell any feed in your state; the laws are too stringent. We handle nothing but straight mill feed direct from the mills, but we cannot guarantee, with chemical analysis of every sack, to have it up to your standard."

Rocks And Red Winns

College Station, Nov., 20. Official figures on the first week of the First National Egg Laying contest held by the Agricultural Experiment Station have been made available by P. N. Harvey, superintendent of the contest. Among the birds that receive special mention are two Single Comb Rhode Island Red hens, belonging to R. P. Pau and C. M. Evans of Bryan, Texas. Each hen laid six eggs during the first seven days of the contest. Two barred Plymouth Rock hens and a White Wyandotte and a Single Comb Rhode Island Red each laid five eggs. Thirteen others produced four eggs each.

A Barred Plymouth Rock pen owned by Fred Clark, Van Horn, Texas, produced 49 eggs. This record was equaled by a pen of Single Comb Rhode Island Reds owned by Mr. Evans. The third pen, Single Comb White Leghorns, is owned by Mr. Pearson of Denton. Among those pens appearing on the roll of honor as doing well are those owned by Irvan Freeman, George Gray, C. T. Kneudson, A. F. Egger, D. C. Moore, R. B. Homan, and R. L. Penick. The first day of the contest 16 eggs were laid by the pens. The number gradually increased and on the seventh day 35 eggs were produced. Poultry keeping pays if hens would do as well as these pullets in the First Texas National Egg Laying contest.

Mr. Wolfarth is president of the Citizens National Bank, of Lubbock, and Mrs. Robinson is proprietor of the Robinson Furniture Co., of that city. Mrs. Robinson owns a lot on the west side of the square, next to the Brownfield Merc. Co.

Welcoming the Actor.

A well-known society performer volunteered to entertain a roomful of patients of a lunatic asylum, and made up a very successful little monologue show, entirely humorous. The audience in the main gave symptoms of being slightly bored, but one highly intelligent maniac saw the whole thing in proper light and, clapping the talented actor on the shoulder, said: "Glad you've come, old fellow. You and I will get along fine. The other dummies here are so dashed dignified. What I say is if a man is mad he needn't put on airs about it!"—London Opinion.

Wonderful Cave Found.

A wonderful cave has been discovered at the lime quarries about 15 miles from Potgietersrust, Cape Colony. A workman, using his pick, came to a large hole, and this proved to lead to a wonderful cave containing the most beautiful stalactites—a really wonderful sight. These "pendant cones of carbonate of lime, attached like icicles to the roof of the cave and formed by the dripping of the water charged with the carbonate from the rock above," are in various and in some cases most intricate designs, and should be of great interest to geologists. The cave is about 50 yards long and 30 wide, and no one ever dreamed of its existence.

ATHLETICS

Last Saturday was a day of much rejoicing for the High School. We established ourselves in High School athletics. Athletics are recognized by the greatest schoolmen as the greatest asset to the school. It teaches a child to control its morals with pain. Also the idea of clean competition is here developed. Instructed play is one of the greatest mind builders known, and athletics is one way of bringing about instructed play.

When the pupil is first taught to play fair he does not understand, for his little nature is naturally a selfish one, but when this thing is put into practice he then gets results from his teaching by putting into practice past knowledge. This is the idea of playing fair with this and others will then play fair with kins.

Brownfield vs Taboka and Seagraves.

The Brownfield High School Basket Ball teams won two very fast and interesting games on the courts last Saturday. The girls won their game from the Taboka girls by a score of 20 to 15. The wonderful goal throwing of Holt and Walters was the feature of the game.

The boys won a very slow game from Seagraves boys by a score of 24 to 4. The visiting teams have made some very good material hit not having a rule book, they did not play as good a game as was expected.

The home boys lost a closely contested game with a score of 7 to 9. Our boys lost this game after having played for an hour and ten minutes including the Seagraves game. They deserve credit for their good defense work and especially does Stewart. They played a star game.

However they claim, there is much honor in a fair defeat and are only waiting for revenge.

The players were as follows:

Girls	Boys
Viola Holt	Gaols
Edna Walters	Theo Smith
Lillie Price	Jack Davis
Ma Holt	Earl Scudday
Mahota Whisenant	Ina Howard

Ropes

By Cricket

It has been reported around here because the Santa Fe Co., couldn't get a deed to the town site. They have the deed and the suveyors are out there surveying the town lots now. In a short while we are going to have a nice little town started. Am not at liberty to tell some deals that are now pending, but report happenings as they progress. Don't anyone get the idea that there wont be a town here for there surely will be a thriving little city at this station at no distant date.

Mr. Wright has the Santa Fe well down 125 feet and has had the water analized and been pronounced good. He will go a few more feet and have it done this week.

Mr. Ardis is hauling the sand and gravel to the mortar box and the workmen will begin on concreting the cellars Monday.

The stock pens are finished and Hershall Timmons and A. W. Blankenship will ship a bunch of calves from this point Monday.

Lence-Price has moved to his fathers place for the winter and his father will move to town to his old home.

Geo. Carter sold several mules to Mr. Bailey, Wednesday.

Hope and Hershall Timmons and A. W. Blankenship came in Sunday from N. M., with their cattle. They will begin feeding soon.

Mr. Hattley while moving from Lubbock to Gomez stopped here Sunday night and during the night one of his horses got sick and died.

Lee Cowan bought a fine jersey cow a few days ago, and since then ye scribe has been selling milk and butter, after supplying a large family.

A petition is being circulated to change the name of the station from Ropes to Jarrott. A number of the old citizens think this honor is due J. W. Jarrott, after settling them on their present homes in Terry and Hockley counties. We hope the Santa Fe people will grant us this wish for through his unflinching efforts we now have comfortable homes although he lost his life that we might obtain them.

Gomez

By West Wind

Mr. and Mrs. McGuire of Gilliland, Knox county paid a visit to the Plains last week. They visited Mrs. McGuire's sister, Mrs. Dalton Reed in Gaines Co., also her parents and brother, Rev. J. C. Lewis and wife and Maury Lewis of Terry.

Late news from Mrs. Ben Whitley is that she has relapsed caused by eating something that did not agree with her. As she is improving now her physicians think she will recover. Her father Mr. E. E. Simms is yet at Magdalena.

Miss Naomi Simms was taken sick at school Monday and has not been back since. She is not serious, however.

Joe Lane passed through here Monday enroute home from a business trip North and South.

Billie Crowder got in home last week from a visit to Camp Bowie, to see his 19 year old son, Billie, who is a volunteer soldier and Mr. Crowder reports him as doing fine. In a recent issue of the Herald I named the boys whose parents lived in and near Gomez, I forgot Billie, but any 19 year old boy who will volunteer to go to the trenches to fight for right and freedom, deserves all the honor and love that any and all of us can bestow upon them.

Dr. Summit spent last week at Plains and has gone back there this week. He is taking Dr. Lee's place there as Dr. Lee is leaving there for the rest of the winter. We did not learn whether Dr. Lee is leaving finally or just for the rest of the winter. Dr. Summit will spend most of his time at Plainsthis winter but Mrs. Summit and children will remain here.

Prof A. G. Harrison and son, Sam, of Plainview, came in last Saturday night, but returned to Plainview on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. DeShazo visited friends in Brownfield from Saturday to Monday of this week.

Prof. Bishop went to Tahoka for a visit Saturday, and the cold sand storm was so bad Sunday that he did not return until Monday. He informs us that he has just received a letter from his stepson, Earnest Sanders who is at Camp Travis, one of Uncle Sam's soldier boys. Earnest writes that: "I have done harder work than the training here, but this is plenty hard." He is well pleased and is getting along fine.

Ira Jones left last week for Okla., with a car of horses belonging to himself, N. W. Jones, and E. O. Adams. Ira will sell the horses there.

R. W. Glover and Will Moore left this week for Arkansas with several cars of horses and mules they hope to find a better market there than here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Key and little son Tress, spent last Monday afternoon in Gomez, and Mrs. Key paid ye scribe a much appreciated visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander of southwest Terry, were in town Monday.

Simon Holgate of Brownfield, was on our streets late Tuesday afternoon.

High School Notes.

John Johnson got hurt playing basket ball last Thursday evening and was not able to attend school Friday. That was why the Gomez team did not go to Brownfield as they promised.

Gomez basket ball boys will go to Tahoka next Saturday to match that team a game.

The Literary at the school house last Friday afternoon was attended by quite a large crowd patrons. A long and real interesting program was rendered. Prof. Bishop gave a talk that was "To the point and much appreciated", said a patron to me.

Recently we noticed an ad in the Brownfield paper where a merchant quoted groceries much cheaper than had been, so we called him up and promised to send in an order. Well imagine our surprise when we learned an hour later that both grocery stores here are selling just as cheap as the cheapest cash store in Brownfield. Good! a war price should help the needy buyers just now.

Meadow.

BY FARMER.

Last Sunday was a typical West Texas day. Wind and dust but at this writing the weather is ideal. This country will rebound and over-come this drouth so quickly people will be surprised. No country could do this but the plains.

One thing we are blessed with is health. Excepting a recent spell of fever by which Miss Annie Beal was attacked; we claim for Meadow almost perfect health this summer. This we claim is worth space.

Notice the change in the program of school. There will be devotional services at the church at 11:00 a. m. Thanksgiving day. Then at 7:30 p. m. the same day, the last school program before Xmas will be given. Our teacher J. T. Stricklin, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon. All come to both.

Mr. J. M. Christopher and a Prof. Nunriy of Treadway were in our community Sunday.

Mr. Norton of Hunt Co. was here this week to see after his farm bought of Mr. S. C. Carlton.

Judge Copland has returned from his trip to Ga., bringing good crop reports from there. He also brought many of the products of the old State.

Hard times does not exactly have us down. Ye scribe's wife makes about 15 lbs. of golden butter per week. We also have three fine porkers to kill. Meadow is now on the map.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years.

Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
