FAREWELL TO BROWNFIELD.

The following is a farewell from Ike Walker, erstwhile section foreman here, who left last week for Government work at Musclehole, Ala., and shows the regard in which he holds our citizens:

Here's to the people of Brownfield, instead of a roast,

To you I'll give a little toast. Here's to the business men; I came to you hand to hand,

Better people I have not found in all this western land.

Here's to the bankers of this town; better men cannot be found

Here's to the grocers and to the druggist; friendship with them seem the snuggest.

Here's to the hotel and restaurant men; I've always found a friend in them.

Here's to the wagon yard, lumber and grain dealers, they are also great big wheelers.

Here's to the Santa Fe Employees; agent, clerks, laborers and pumper; if ever I meet such folks, I'll think they are bumpers

So from this place I must go; is there better people any where? I say No,

When I think of going away, my heart beats with a sigh, but I hope to see you all, in the Sweet Bye and Bye.

Here's to the editor of your town, I am asking him if in his paper, room for this can be found.

Here's good luck and success to all whom I have met, for there are good people here I have not mentioned yet.

Now I've wrote this kindly in a stew; let us live in a way that we will still be here, when this old world is made anew.

And if any of my friends want to know my whereabouts, just ask the postmaster.

Respt.

Ike Walker.

COMMENDATION OF EMPLOYEES.

U. S. Railroad Administration,
W. G. McAdoo, Director Gen.
Washington, Oct. 1, 1918

Mr. A. J. Stricklin,
Editor, The Terry County Herald,
Brownfield, Texas.

My dear Mr. Stricklin:

My attention has been called to an editorial which appeared in your publication about August 21. It purports to be in response to General Order number 40, issued by the United States Railroad Administration.

I may inform you that since the inception of the Bureau for Suggestions and Complaints, I have received here a large number of letters from the public commending the efficiency and courtesy with which railroad employees generally are administering their duties. This is very gratifying.

I note that you state in your editorial that you have the good fortune to have an agent and a corps of helpers that are not only courteous but accommodating as one could wish, and you may be sure that I will bring this to the attention of the proper official.

als.
Would you care to give me the names of the employees you commend?

Yours for the FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN,

Ballard Dunn,
Assistant Actuary

SOME PATRIOT.

My Dear Mr. Hoopes:

Yours of the 2nd. received. You will see by the papers that I am advertising Bonds, and I want to let you know that my country has gotten my all—my four boys. If any poor devil ever wanted to clean up good and forever on the Dam Huns, I do. I told my boys not to come back until the job was finished. I have borrowed a lot of money and bought $5,000. in Bonds and $2,000. in war Saving Stamps. We have about $10,000 in our lumber business, and one automobile, that I would gladly let our government have and take the amount in Stamps and Bonds

If they can use me I am ready what more can I do, please say and I am ready.

Signed, Jack Thomas, San Marcus, Texas.

The Daily Texan, the student publication of the University of Texas, which has heretofore been issued in the morning will be changed to an afternoon daily at the beginning of the coming of the coming session. Edward Walker will be editor in chief. Mr. Walker has been spending the summer in New York, where he held a position with the National Bank of Commerce. Turner of Cisco will be managing editor. He is now at tending the students' training camp at Camp Mabry. W. T. Fancer, formerly chief clerk in the Stenographic Bureau of the University, will be business manager.

St. Louis, September 30. When a troop train was wrecked at Marshfield, Mo; last week, resulting in death to more than ten soldiers and injury to 50 others, Red Cross workers were among the first on the scene to give first aid. These workers accompanied their injured to Springfield, Mo. and no expense was spared in making the injured soldiers comfortable.

This is perhaps, the last issue of the News that we will edit; we have leased it for one year to Mr. C. B. McCormack of Brownfield Texas and we have bought a half interest in the Pocahontas (Ark) Democrat. Mr. McCormack is a fine gentleman and Mrs. McCormack will be of much value to the social features of Littlefield, and we are sure the town is losing nothing in making the change but, we feel that it is a loss to us that can only be regained by making our selves more useful to the citizens of Pocahontas. than we have been to you.

You have been loyal to us. You have shown your friendship in hundreds of ways and it is not because we are dissatisfied with this glorious country of unlimited resources, or with your citizenship which can not be excelled.—Littlefield News.

Barrier Bros. have purchased the old racket store building from Jim Whisenant, and have moved it on their lot to the back of their store, thus giving them 24x24 more feet for storage purposes. This popular firm was badly crowded, and this addition for storage purposes will be some relief. They informed us recently that they intended to build a brick store as soon as the war is over.

We were in Dr. M. H. THE PEACE OUR SOLDIERS WANT

The Stars and Stripes, the official newspaper published by the soldiers of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, says editorially about the enemy peace offensive:

"Let the weak hearted who are dreaming of a compromise; let the pacifists who are talking a peace by agreement; let the sideliners who have had enough of war; let the secretly inclined pro Germans who think this war should end with a decision—let the one and all know once and for all that for the American Expeditionary Force there is no such word as 'Peace' with the Huns unbeaten. The man who talks of peace to-day, except through victory, is a traitor."

The enemy peace offensive is likened to the action of German machine-gun crews in the Vesle fighting, when they fought and killed American until they were surrounded, then shouted "Kamerad."

The mothers of the American soldiers in France want the same peace their sons demand. All the courage of the ancient Spartan mother is in the hearts of the women of America. The object of the Fourth Liberty Loan is to bring that peace a just peace, a righteous peace, an American peace.

GERMAN PRISONERS

The report that German prisoners are being brought to America will be generally welcomed here. It appeals to the public as a sound policy, for many reasons. Our transports have been coming back empty; there is little expense in bringing the Germans back over here. Besides, it may make our returning transports less attractive work for U-boats, if they are loaded with Huns. All of those who are left on the other side have to be fed, and most of their food has to be shipped across from America. The number of these prisoners is pretty sure to increase enormously during the remaining months of the war. We shall save an immense amount of tonnage if we bring them over here instead of shipping food to them over there. And, since prisoners everywhere are worked, we can probably profit to some extent by settling these men at work to replace the laborers who have gone into the army.—Birmingham (Ala.) Press.

BROWNFIELD

Howard James of Tatum, N. M., was here last week on business, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Gus Foreman. These gentlemen are both old time Terryites. Howard informed us that some of the citizens around Tatum and Lovington, were mowing their gramma, grass, as it was nearly knee high baling it and storing for winter feeding. Geo. McWhorter, was sowing a sample of it here some time ago. These people didn't have much rain till about eight weeks ago, which shows what a cattle man's and stock farming paradise that lays just west of us, and they do their trading here.

WATCHES: Largest assortment, greatest value, best prices; 61 to select from. $1.25 to $34.50 Come and see. J. L. Randal.

R. H. Ford Jr, of Paducah, Texas, was up last week, visiting his sister, Mrs J. E. Woodward, of Seagraves, and old friends of this city.

M. T. Lowe, of Kirkland, shipped out a car of cattle from here Saturday, that he has had on grass here for some time, as he now has grass at home.

Mrs. W. E. Poole, left this week to visit relatives and friends in Cameron, Texas. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Chamberlain, who has been up visiting her some time.

J. W. Dennis, left this week for Dawson, N. M., where he will work at the carpenter trade, for the Northwestern Railroad. He announced that he would send us some bear claws back before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Smith, left Monday for Lubbock, where they will visit a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield left Monday for Lubbock, for a short visit, and will likely extend their trip to Kansas City.

Messrs. John Smith, and Bill Heath, of Plains, shipped a car of fine horses, mares and colts to Louisians, points, Monday, where they will sell them to farmers.

The West Texas Gin Co, located the parts of the boiler machine that was lost, at Tahoka, last Saturday, and as soon as they can be shipped around, and installed, they will be ready to fire up and pull the whistle cord, and then, cotton will be baled in a hurry. The manager informed us this week that he was going to do his darrest to gin Monday.

The editor had a letter this week from the live stock division of the State Council of Defence, announcing the appointment of O. T. Halley, of this city, as special agent of this district, to look after the conservation of live stock. Among his duties will be to ask farmers and ranchman to cooperate with him to keep stock off railroad right of way and other places of danger, as thousands of head of cattle are killed annually, this way alone.

Dock Powell, has been down to the Brownwood, oil field this week looking over the situation.

Dr. S. H. Windham, of Tahoka, was over this week, looking after his ranch interests here.

Milton Goode, is shipping out seven cars of cattle to K. C. this week, and asked the editor to go with him. But we are afraid one of those sky scrapers might take a fool notion to fall on us while there. Of course this was

ALL TIGHT WADS SHOULD READ THIS

In one Texas City a Liberty Bond Salesman paused at a hamburger joint for physical reinforcement. While he stood there watching the little pats of ground meat sizzle in the bubbling grease, he got a $2,000 subscriptions. Here's a tip for salesmen:

You never knew where they are coming from!

When the Liberty Loan train pulled out from the station at Groesbeck, a citizen who had not been able to make up his mind to buy bonds, was suddenly seized with a patriotic inspiration. Racing after the departing train, he caught at a rail of the rear car, and at the risk of his life clung with one hand while he pitched into the car a $20 bill shouting his name and address. The last they saw of him he was picking himself up out of the cinders along the tracks and grinning.

At another point along the Train route a man who had been saving up his money for medical treatment reconsidered and subscribed to the full amount of his savings.

"It may not help my ailments," he said, "but it will sure cure Bill Kaiser of his fits." Can't you give him a dose of the same medicine?

A stenographer in a Liberty Loan Committee office, self supporting and with an invalid who has just undergone an operation has just bought a $100 Bond. "I thought I had bought all I could," she said, "but when I see these wounded boys coming into the office and realize what it all means, I just feel I must buy another bond, although I'll have to do without the coat I was going buy. I did want it, but I want the bond more."

At a downtown office building in New Mexic City, a Negro girl is employed as elevator "boy." She was very excited over purchase of a Liberty Bond and was fumbling in her pockets for the first payment. The elevator was filling with people, and seeing that she owed her passengers an apology for the delay, she addressed them thus: "Disybah Libbuty Loam done got me mesm'rezed." How about You?

Sergeant Haley, one of the wounded American soldiers traveling with the War Relics Train in the Eleventh District, said that when his Compony first joined up with the French there was some little doubt expressed as to whether the dough-boys, being new, could hold a certain position. A poilu said to Haley, "Can you hold them?" "H-1 yes" was Haley's reply. The "Germans are wandering whether the Americans are behind thic war with their dollars. Let's send them Haley's reply. Here is a story straight from the battlefield told by an Officer of the French Foreign, now in Texas. "Debout less morts" "Stand up you dead."

This was the cry of a French officer outside Verdun, as he called to his few surviving comrades. He said afterwards that his cry was answered, for his men, filled anew with the magnificent spirit of those who died, and to avenge their death, rushed on and saved Fort Devaux. Won't you fight with such men? The privilege is your. Stand behind them with your dollars.

Adolph Ransell, of Winters, Texas, a brother-in-law of J. W. Nowlin, was here this week visiting.

FOR SALE: 200 head of ewes. They made $10.00 per head this year and will do it next year. They sheared 11 lbs. of wool, and raised as fine bunch of lambs as can be found any where. Will breed them if desired at 50c per head, or will sell party bucks to go with them. Lambs are now weaned, and the ewes must sell in next 30 days to make room for lambs. See me nine north of Brownfield, or Jno. B. King, Brownfield. Will take $10.00 per head, and will sell in small herds if desired, and take $10.00 per head. G. W. Chisholm

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. . . . I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui. . . .

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. . . . I decided I would try Cardui. . . . By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.
