Postmaster Gets Salary Raise

Postmaster W. G. Hardin informed us recently that his salary had been raised from $1100 to $1400 per year, or $25 more per month, but as yet he had not learned just how much more would be allowed for clerk hire.

This is nice in two ways, for according to the amount of work at this office, the postmaster deserves every penny he gets and every dollar thus brought to the town is a direct help to the entire population.

In the last two years the Brownfield office had forged ahead from a fourth class to a third class office, and we do not think it will be so very long at its present strides until it will enter the second class, as the postmaster's salary and classifications are based on the receipts of the office.

We congratulate postmaster Hardin on the salary raise.

Dont Sell Your Car Without Receipt for License.

Not less than ten dollars nor more than two thousand dollars, or any term less than one year in the county jail, is the penalty for the sale of second hand cars where the tax-collectors license fee for the year that the motor is offered for sale is not transferred with delivery or sale of car.

The law became effective June 18, this year.

WHAT IS the use to have a starter on your car that won't start? See Gist for electrical work.

We call your attention to the ad of the Lubbock Sanitarium in this and successive issues of the Herald. They are wanting young ladies to take courses in nursing in that institution.

Will Not Forfeit School Lands On August 1st

Austin, Texas, July 5, 1919.

Hon. J. C. Green,
County Clerk,
Brownfield, Texas,
Dear Sir:

Answering yours of June 3rd, concerning payment of interest in Terry county, I note you suggest that August is a very hard month for the people to raise money to pay interest.

Your suggestion is evidently induced by the idea that I would forfeit in August, while, in fact my statement has heretofore been that I would not forfeit before August, not meaning of course that I would forfeit in August. However, on account of the volume of work here in reference to the oil business, I will not be able to get to it in August, and you may say to your people if they will pay by the first of January they will be safe. I do not mean that if they start the payment here by the first of January.

This applies to interest due up to November 1st, 1917. I shall not bother them this year for interest to November 1st, 1918, nor for interest for November 1st 1919, but the interest for 1918 should be paid by some time next spring.

I realize the severe hardships with which the people of the School Land country have been afflicted, and for their benefit, and for the benefit of the entire State, I have tried to do what I could to protect them as a matter of business.

I believe the plan I have in mind will enable all of them that desire to hold their land to do so.

Yours very truly

J. T. Robison,
Commissioner

Picnic Taking Shape

The committees on arrangements and program have been having meetings this week, and as there are several things to arrange for yet, they were not ready this week to begin an extensive advertising campaign. There was a band to secure, some speakers of note to get, and an effort is being made to get an aeroplane from Fort Worth for the occasions, as there are still thousands of people here who have never seen a sky wagon, and a supreme effort is being made to bring one to this place for the two days.

J. N. Lewis and Milton Goode are busy with the subscription list, and the last time we talked with them several beeves, goats and sheep had been donated, and more than $600 in money subscribed, and they were getting good donations from every one they met. Besides there was practically $125.00 left from our picnic two years ago.

Don't forget the date; August 1st and 2nd, Friday and Saturday, and until way in the night on Saturday. Of course you are coming to Brownfield that date.

Postage Rates Back to Pre War Basis

Beginning at 12 o'clock on June 30 rates of postage were placed on the pre war basis. However this will affect only the rate on letters and postal cards. The rate for letters will be 2c and for postal cards 1c. This will not affect the zone law.

There will be a slight increase in the postage rate for second class matter, which is composed of newspapers and periodicals. This is in accordance with the parcel post law which calls for a slight increase each year on the rate of second class matter in all zones.

Doughboys Celebrate.

Coblentz, July 4- American troops whooped it up along the Rhine during the first Independence Day celebration Germany has seen. The doughboys celebrated with noise, long distance running, boxing, baseball and more fireworks to the acre probably than were seen in any other place in the world. All enjoyed ice cream, peanuts, light wines and beer. Persons living near the Coblentz bridge head went to bed tonight dizzy, but impressed with the Fourth of July as some "event" however that is expressed in German.

In the morning the citizens were awakened from their beauty sleep by the boisterous music of a full fledged band at reveille. At 11 o'clock the citizens crowd Clemensplatz to admire the parade of a battalion of the fifty-eighth Infantry. At noon they were alarmed when old Fortress Ebreitsein, across the Rhine, came to life as four pieces of artillery, poking their noses over the lofty parapit, thundered the national salute of forty-eight guns. The people trembled and asked, "was ist los?"

Then they took a deeper interest in the proceedings and what they know about independence and what it means. The Doughboys told them that 143 years ago the Americans declared their independence of England, laying the foundation for a government under which every one has an equal chance. This interested the people, who expect soon to establish a republic of the Rhine as part of Germany, but not under the domination of Prussia. They admitted that the American Republic is a success.

Miss Vonnie Lee Ditto, who has been visiting her aunt at Clovis for the past two weeks, arrived home, Monday.

Need Persuading

There are a few men in town that stand around on the streets and endeavor to discourage transit labor, telling them they should not work for less than $5 per day. One of these ginks lay sick last winter at the expense of the county and city, and is not doing a lick of work now, claiming that he will not work unless he can get $5 per day. He is an I. W. W. in theory and practice. Monday night at the business men's meeting a committee was appointed to wait on these idle loafers and invite them to the wheat fields or out of town. A wet rope would be an effective instrument in the hands of able bodied men. It would work this I. W. W.ism out of their systems.—Lockney Beacon.

Will Not Buy Goodnight Ranch.

Representative Lee Satterwhite says: It is not at all probable that the Goodnight ranch will be bought by the State at this time. Col. Goodnight has recently leased the mineral rights of the ranch to private parties and he has organized an oil company and is now about ready to begin the drilling of a well. In offering to sell his ranch and buffalo herd to the State he wishes to retain the mineral rights and this would not suit the state. At the regular session of the legislature in the winter it was proposed to buy this ranch, with its magnificent herd of buffalo, and establish a Panhandle breeding and feeding station, to be placed under the management and control of the A. & M. College. There was a strong sentiment in the Legislature and through out the State favoring the proposition and Col. Goodnight proposed to make the sale, but oil prospects have changed the situation and there is little probability that the State will buy the property now.—Southwest plainsman.

Texas Furnished 161,065 Men in War

Washington—Texas contributed a total of 161,065 men to the military service or 4.29 per cent of the total army in the recent war, according to figures made public by the War Department in its review of the war activities. Texas was fifth among the States, the States outranking it being New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio in the order named, and under which rating, Texas outdid the other States, considering populations as shown by the last census.

Texans in Washington assert that this is a complete answer to the critics of the War Department who charged that numerous army camps and flying fields had been placed in Texas, while Texas was a "slacker" state in furnishing the personnel for the army.

Among the facts developed by the report was that in the physical examinations, States of the Middle West, which include, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and New Mexico made the best showing. Country boys did better than city boys, whites better than colored and native born better than foreign born.

Oklahoma's contribution to the military service was $0,169, or 2.13 percent; that of Arkansas was $1,27, or 1.62 percent, and that of La., was $5,988, or 1.76 percent.

A Peculiar Court Case

Monday evening Arthur Evans was given an examining trial in the justice court of Childress on a peculiar charge, that of obtaining $200 or more of another man's money. It seems that G. M. Fouts found $200 in bills on the floor of the car shop and Evans set up claim to same. Mr. Fouts, not doubting his honesty, turned the money over to Evans. However, the money was found near where R. H. Roundsavall worked and he, too, said he had lost about that sum of bills during the day. Evans being unwilling to turn the money over, court proceedings were brought.

The court bound Evans over to the grand jury under a bond of $500. All of the men are employed in the Denver shops and all have heretofore born good reputations.—Childress Post.

SATISFY!

—what the deuce does that mean?

It means that NEW thing in a cigarette, that does for your smoke-hunger exactly what a drink of cold water does for your thirst!

To satisfy, a cigarette must do more than please the taste—it must "touch the smoke-spot"

That's what Chesterfields do. They let you know you are smoking—they SATISFY.

And here's why—Chesterfields have body. The finer, silkier leaves of TURKISH have been properly blended with several varieties of the best DOMESTIC tobaccos, famous for their full-bodied flavor.

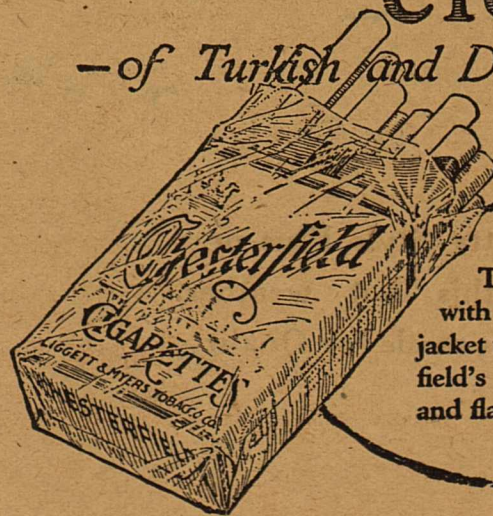

SATISFY is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price. Because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend.

At the pastor's home of the Baptist church, Sunday, Rev. W. R. Underwood said the words that made Byron B. Cox and Miss Eugene Austin and James Boulter and Miss Bulah Nichols husbands and wives. We do not know the latter young people but we do know Byron and Miss Eugene. Two finer young people never lived in this county. Byron has just returned from the army, and has a mail contract for route 2, and left it for the army, but is now carrying it again. What Will Be Done With the Centenary Money

By Dr. J. B. Stowe.

The Methodist will start at home and spend seven million dollars, in the Southern and Southwestern States, as follows: Mountain, Immigrant, Negro, Indian, Cotton Mill people, inaccessible district mission schools.

Five million of the thirty-five will be spent in Belgium, France, Italy and Russia.

The remaining millions will go to Africa, Brazil, China, Cuba, Japan, Korea and Mexico. Medical schools, hospitals, mission schools and churches will be established in all these countries.

Members of the Methodist Woman's Missionary Society should be proud of the President of their council, Miss Bella H. Bennett, the only member of the joint Centenary Commission, also presiding officer on the Woman's Day at the great Centenary celebration at Columbus, Ohio.

Judge W. W. Price received a letter one day this week from our Representative, W. H. Bledsoe saying that he had got the Gomez and Tokio Independent School Districts passed both houses of the Legislature with the emergency clause and now await the signature of the Governor, and we all know that Hobby is enough of a friend to education that he will gladly sign the bills, and thus old Terry will sport four independent district. With this issue, the Herald passes from its fourteenth to its fifteenth year of existence, and under the present management for ten years. Since we have been at the stirring wheel she has been a little wobbly at times, and some times nearly ready to stick, it seemed, but as a whole, the old girl has been a real pleasure to the owner, and despite adversities, real and imaginary, she, like the old lady we used to hear of that could be put in a half gallon cup when she was born—it lived and they say is making a fine paper.

The Plainview News says that the French statesmen are still contending that the cost of the war should be proportioned among the countries that fought the central powers. This is a scheme looking to have the United States to help pay or the cost of the entire allied war from the start. The French certainly have not lost their nerve. The facts are, the Germans had the allies almost whipped and would have finished the job in a few weeks had Uncle Sam not gotten into the war. Of, course, America does not want, and would not accept such reimbursement. The European countries are a lot of sordid and selfish grasping, a most sorry aggregation, no matter at what angle one views them.

Control of the Packing Industry

Congressman Marvin Jones has introduced in the house a Bill similar to the one recently introduced by Senator Kendrick, providing for control of the slaughtering and meat packing industries. Some provisions have been added and other provisions of the Kendrick bill have been made more specific. With reference to the same, Mr. Jones gave out the following statement:

"There are certain phases of the meat packing industry which are very much in need of control in the interest of the public.

First: Refrigerator cars should be made common carriers in order to abolish the discrimination which privately owned cars occasion. However, in this connection, the railroads should be required to furnish the same character and class of equipment which is now furnished by the packers so that there may be no reduction in the character of the service or quality of the product as delivered.

Second: The packers interest in the Banking and Cattle Loan Companies, which deal directly or indirectly with the cattle producer should be regulated in such a way as to prevent the congestion of the cattle market by the manipulation of call loans or short time obligations.

Third: The practice of the purchasing agent in any one cattle market of notifying the purchasing of commission agents of packers in other cattle markets of the price bid on any particular cattle, thus making it impossible for the live stock owner to seek other markets for his animals, should be forbidden.

Fourth: As a direct result of privately owned refrigerator car concerns engaged primarily in slaughtering or meat packing are given an advantage in the distribution of articles of commerce that are unrelated to the meat packing industry and that cannot be properly termed by-products inasmuch as some of the articles distributed have no ingredients that are derived products of such slaughtering or meat packing industries.

Of course great care is necessary in carrying out such regulations in order to see that the meat packing industry is not seriously handicapped. The entire country is interested in seeing that the meat packing industry remains efficient and continuous in operation. At the same time it seems that proper regulations are necessary to prevent abuses in connection with such industries.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui. . .

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Expensive Roads

If one were able to secure the figures showing the total amount of money that has been expended on the highways of the country since road work was first instituted, it would show an appalling sum—and still good roads are exception rather than the rule.

In the older states millions of dollars have been spent making roads which because of failure to provide for upkeep, was absolutely thrown away. It is, indeed no wonder that many people look askance in the voting of road bonds for many times, the bonds have far out lived the roads. And yet, at the same time, the need of better facilities for communication between town and country grows more imperative each year and it is about time we ceased to fool ourselves with dreams of maintaining dirt roads, be they ever so good when first built.

As an example take the highways that have been constructed through Potter county on the last two or three years. On the Plains, one of our greatest difficulties is the wind which blows out the soft spots and makes the highways "choppy." During a drouth such as prevailed here for two years, the best of our graded roads were very rough. This condition might have been remedied by dragging had we had any rain but we didn't get any—and we wouldn't swear that they would have been dragged had there been rain. On the other hand, the best of our road were cut up badly last winter and spring because of too much rain. While that is a condition that seldom has to be met in this section, we have had indisputable evidence that it does some time occur and no man is smart enough to know how soon it may happen again.

This summer thousands of dollars will have to be spent in fixing up these roads again, though they were supposed to be built as well as it is possible to make dirt roads when they were constructed. While it may be argued that the drouth from which we suffered was unusual and that the excessive rainfall last winter was also unusual, that does not alter the facts regarding the present condition of the roads or the necessity for repairing them.

Taking it "up one side and down the other", would it not have been more economical to have constructed permanent roads in the first place, even though the first cost was considerably more? Have we not deluded ourselves with the dirt road about long enough?

It is said that last winter, Wichita Falls lost thousands of dollars because of the impassable condition of the roads leading to that city. Merchants lost trade because of the inability of the country people to get to town and contractors lost large sums because they could not get necessary material hauled out to locations. Neither Amorillo nor any of the other plains towns which are seeking to develop oil fields, want to be handicapped by poor roads and their attendant loss of time and money to say nothing of the farmers who are going to have such bumper crops to haul to market this fall.

Why not save ourselves some of this perennial worry about the condition of the roads by making permanent highways in the first place, beginning with those most traveled and extending them each year until we have sure enough "Good Roads Everywhere".—Southwestern Plains man.

Progressive West Texas

West Texas, like all other sections of the state, is looking for oil to burst out at a thousand points, but West Texas people have not got so oil wild as to lose sight of the intrinsic worth of West Texas farm land. They know that with fair seasons, the land will grow anything that trade and commerce may need and they are going right along to produce crops.

West Texas people are not dreamers. They are workers. They do not expect to get rich over night, but they do know that with industry and economy they will find themselves in good living circumstances and in line with the idea they are acquiring homes, supporting the schools, and churches, building road and proceeding to surround their families with social, moral and intellectual comforts.

Certainly we want new people to come in and help develop our limitless resources and such new people will find welcome and have opportunity to buy homes. Now is the time to buy here. Land will never be cheaper. It is the history of all old settled countries, that land values increase with population and development and it is so here.—Snyder Signal.

The Kaiser Used To Talk, Too.

Well, the Fourth of July "revolution" of the American Bolsheviki did not materialize, the Mooney strike fluked and the "no beer no work" movement refused to move.

Some Englishman once described the United States as a country of violent speech and conservative actions. It is a correct estimate so far as the "violent speech" part of it is concerned. Talk is cheap and it does not take much breath to threaten to overflow the existing order and put all the bourgeoisie on the rock pile. The talk disturbs us a little sometimes, and the vigilance of the Department of Justice is necessary to keep rattle-brained anarchists from being inflamed into bomb throwing by the talk. But the spirit of the country is such and our institutions so responsive to public opinion when it becomes insistent enough that no appreciable percentage of the masses ever is affected by the talk.

And now that all these threatened calamities have not been visited upon us, we may look forward to the ratification of the treaty of peace, including the covenant of the League of Nations, with confidence. The violent speeches in the United States Senate that we have been hearing lately should not disturb us.—Star Telegram.

Who Sent For Him

A drummer drove up in front of the Moody Hotel Saturday night and after alighting from his car proceeded to "cuss" the roads over this portion of the panhandle to the full limit of his vocabulary. As this was rather an astonishing performance none of the bystanders took issue with the gentleman and he gathered courage to dig deeper into blasphemy and blackguarding to libel our roads. As he paused to catch his breath and start over again on his grandstanding, Bob Campbell stepped up and said: "Well, who in the h--- sent for you any way?"—Canadian Record.

Editor Jones of the Silverton Star is doing his bit for the farmers by releasing two of his best type setters for work in the harvest fields. There is no doubt that the farmers of his vicinity will appreciate this sacrifice which adds greatly to the newspaper man's burdens. Probably other business men in Silverton, as elsewhere, are letting their help go into the fields in order that the wonderful wheat crop may be saved. At the same time, there are thousands of idle men who are using the scarcity of labor as a means to hold up the farmers for utterly unreasonable wages for harvest work. There should be some way to deal with these despicable characters.—Southwestern Plainsman.

Fraternal Orders Strong For Saving

Fraternal orders should take an active interest in the 1919 Savings Campaign in the opinion of Pat M. Neff of Waco, Grand Chancellor of the Texas Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias. Another enthusiast over the Savings Campaign is J. W. Chancellor of Bowie, Grand Master of the Texas Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

"In the Savings Campaign," Mr. Neff said recently, "the Government has placed the stamp of its approval on the fraternal idea. War Savings Societies are not lodges, strictly speaking, but they are next thing to it. Many of the most successful Savings Societies are in the lodges and the Knights of Pythias are doing their share."

"Texas Odd Fellows had a number of strong War Savings Societies last year," Mr. Chancellor said, "and most of them made excellent records. Wherever possible, it would be a fine idea for the members of the lodge to form themselves into a Savings Society again this year, if they have not already done so."

Numerous lodges of various orders over the Eleventh Federal District not only have Savings Societies but are securing sinking funds by investing in War Savings Stamps as a lodge. The members of these lodges are also buying W. S. S. individually.

Has your lodge been organized?

"To Get Into a Scrape." The expression "to get into a scrape" referred at one time to any one who fell into a deer-run in the forest. When deer run wild in the forest they frequently cut deep gullies among the trees, due to their constant running backward and forward over the same ground. The cuts so made in the forest were known as "deer scrapes," and it sometimes happened that a woodsman fell into them, to his great danger.

Experts representing the four great building material industries have compiled statistics showing how war conditions affected the market. Comparison of price variations cover a period of six years. As was expected, the figures show steel far in the lead of other building materials in its climb skyward since 1912, with an advance of 148.5 per cent. Cement is up 55.5 per cent, brick 38.1 per cent, and lumber only 17.07 per cent.

News Receives Big Printing Press This Week.

The News Printing Company received its new newspaper press this week, and it is a monster. We will be prepared to give our readers a clear clean print in the future, with no fear of breakdowns. It is the intention of this paper to improve the plant with new and better machinery from time to time until we can boast of one of the most fully equipped printing offices on the south plains. As the town grows and prospers, so will the newspaper, and with the proper support we will continue to give News readers a paper worth the subscription price. While there are a few business men in Tahoka that do not patronize the advertising columns in the paper, we hope they will in time see their mistake by taking a liberal amount of space. Give us your business and we will make it worth the while by boosting and advertising Tahoka and Lynn county.—Lynn County News.

Grandpa and Grandma Ditto, of Gomez, who have been visiting their children on the north plains for the past several months, came in this week.

Baptist Denomination Recall Rev. Parker.

The Baptist denomination in Tahoka last Sunday unanimously recalled Rev. L. L. F. Parker, who resigned the pastorate of the church here some three weeks ago, to accept the work at Brownfield. A conference was held by the members immediately after the eleven o'clock service Sunday, and a committee appointed to go before the Brownfield church and obtain a release for Bro. Parker, who had been called as pastor of that church. We are glad to state that his release was obtained and that he will continue as pastor of the Tahoka church.

The following citizens composed the party that went to Brownfield Sunday afternoon:

Messrs. and Mesdames P. W. Hamilton, Frank H. Weaver, J. B. Walker, and H. P. Caveness, Mesdames Harris, Stroud, Lockhart and Vinson, Messrs. Goodrich, Cowan, Weathers and Knight.—Tahoka News

Mrs. Langham, of Henderson, Texas who has been here for sometime visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Alexander, left Saturday for home.

All those who attended the picnic and 4th of July celebration at Lubbock last Friday—and that included probably half the people—are loud in their praise of the way Lubbock put 'er on. But no Plains town ever does things by halves and we are not surprised in the least. Now watch old Brown repeat the process on August 1st and 2nd.

Soldiers Should Record Discharge Papers at Once.

To the discharged soldiers we offer the following advice:

There is grave possibility of your losing your discharge papers from various sources. Rats have an appetite for government paper, may find it and, then—fire may destroy in which it is at present, and unless it is in a fireproof vault, it gone—people have been known to mislay papers and never be able to find them again.

There is now a book in the hands of the County Clerk which is furnished for the express purpose of recording discharge papers. The fee for recording is none. The record is kept in a fireproof vault, and it is easily accessible for those might wish a copy of the record.

The original discharge is returned to the owner as soon as the record is completed.—Lynn County News.

This same advice applies as well in Terry County and should be heeded, although County Clerk, J.C. Green recently informed us that only a small percent of the returned soldiers had taken advantage of this privilege, although all he had talked to were anxious, seemingly to do so.

W. D. Winn and wife left Monday for Lubbock where the former will undergo an operation for stomach trouble of which he has been bothered for some time. We hope the operation will be a success, and that he may soon return to us a well man.

Bert Shepherd carried his daughter to Lubbock, Monday to have her tonsils removed.
