BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY AUGUST 8, 1919

NO. 4

A GREAT BARBECUE

The events of last Friday and Saturday in Brownfield, will long be remembered by thousands of people of the South Plains of Texas and Eastern N. M., as the crowning event of many good ones that have been put on. While we admit there has been some good ones here and other places before this one, they have not had the long attention and preparation this one had, and therefore the entertainment features of this was more complete, although every effort to get an airplane was turned down, though the committee was almost certain of one at one time.

Those who failed to hear Hon. Pat. M. Neff in his famous address in favor of the league of nations last Friday morning missed a rare treat indeed, and when it is remembered that Mr. Neff and family may fill the Governor's mansion at Austin for the next term, you may and in all probability did miss seeing and hearing the next Governor of Texas address the people on a very live issue.

Soon after the address of the forenoon dinner was announced, and a great quantity of barbecue, pickles and light bread still lay on the tables after the thousands had filled to capacity. The same thing was repeated the second day and lots of chuck remained on the tables and was gathered up and carried home by anyone choosing to do so.

Among the speakers for the second day were, Elder Liff Sanders, of Lubbock, Rev. M. D. Williams, of this city and County Judge Moreland of Plains, and Atty. P. G. Stanford, also of Plains, and if we are any judge of good speaking, each of them did themselves proud.

There were several good baseball games, especially the ones between Brownfield and Lubbock, and while our neighbor town won both of them fair and square, the scores on both days were held down, being 3 to 5 the first day and 2 to 0 the second. The game between Seagraves and Post was rather one sided, the former winning a walk over.

The negro fight was a fake, however, just like the whole race is, and only enough money was given them to get back to Lubbock on. We've seen better fights between our little school boys with gloves or without them, on the streets, many and many times, and we heard one man say that he and another man pulled a heap better show at a picnic here a few years ago, and had to pay a fine for it instead of being offered money. Anyway Mr. Nigger did not fake us of much money.

It is said by people that have been going to such events for years, that the steer and goat roping contests were among the best ever seen on the plains. This department was under the charge of Milton Good, and if anyone thinks he got rich, had better first ask him about the matter. In fact, we have it straight that if he had not won one of the top prizes he would just about come out even. Of course we understand that 50c and 25c per head was charged for entering the ground and ten dollars was charged the ropers for entering, but every roper who had seen service in the army roped free, and many people drove around to keep from paying.

The following is a list of the contestants and the prizes they won, and we want to congratulate Mr. Good in his efforts and success in getting some of the best ropers in Texas and New Mexico here:

First day; goat roping: Jim York, Plains, Texas, $40.00 1st prize; John Smith of Plains, 2nd, $20. Milton Good 3rd, $10. No time given for publication in any of the events.

First day; steer roping; Charley Weir, Monument, N. M., $40. Carl Russing, Tokio, Texas, $20. Geo. E. Tiernan, $10.

Second day; goats: Chas. Weir,

$40. Nay Styles, Lovington, N. M., $20. Penny Andrews, Lovington, N. M., $10.

Second day; steers: Bert. Weir, Monument, N. M., $40. Jim York, $20. Jim King and Milton Robinson, of Plains, tied, $10 each.

Grand finals on three steers on the last day: Bert Weir $75. Chas. H. Weir $40. Jim King $20. Jim York, $10.

Grand finals on goats, rope three: Milt Good $75. Geo. McWhorter, $40. Charence Lackey $20. Penny Andrews $10.

As to the dancing there was a lot of it, and as we do not know much about this game will have to leave it to the young people, but they say it was good. Anyway, in passing, we noticed all that looked possible to us that could get on the stage were shaking the little foot dolly around but you know they don't dance no more like they did when we were boys, for instead of squeezing one another's hands, they now squeeze the waist line, but they seem to have just as much fun as we did.

One thing is certain, this editor was sure tired of rubbering when the two days were brought to a close, and we could rest from our labors, and we believe we can do without another for a year at least.

Ed Moore received a message on Wednesday to the effect that his father who lives at Madras, Ga., was very ill, and Ed left yesterday for that point. We hope he finds his father improved in health upon arrive there.

TRY a package of Life O' Wheat.—Brothers & Brothers.

Work will begin in the near future on the residence of Ray Brownfield, which we understand will be one of the neatest and most complete in the town. The R. H. Kemp Lumber Co. got the material bill.

John Raymer Dead.

The sad news reached Brownfield early Thursday morning that John Raymer, one of the old settlers in this part of the country and one of the most highly respected cattlemen in Terry county, had passed away of stomach and heart trouble at the Lubbock Sanitarium about 11 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, after an illness of several weeks. It was thought that he was doing well, but suddenly he got worse, and died before his father could reach his bedside, but we understand that his wife and baby were in Lubbock.

John Raymer was born in 1880 being 39 years of age. He was a member of the Baptist church. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor of the Baptist church at Lubbock last Thursday, and his body was layed to rest in the Lubbock cemetery.

Besides his wife and baby, John leaves a father, who is now making his home with John in Brownfield, three brothers, George, W. D. and D. W., of the Sweetwater country, three sisters, Mrs. N. Bell of this county, Mrs. Mattie Pea, and Miss Tee, of whom all have the sympathy of the entire community in this their trying hour.

FOR THE Gentlest horse in Terry county, see J. H. Hall.

We note from an advertisement in the Star Telegram that a new shoe factory is to be built in Fort Worth, and that two of our citizens are interested as stockholders. They are Judge Geo. W. Neill of this place, and B. L. Thompson of Tokio.

Capt. L. C. G. Buchanan and family, of Austin, were here during the barbecue, having come up to look after his farm also. He is one of the army eye ear, nose and throat specialists and is stationed at Austin for the present.

A Good Rain

About sundown Tuesday night a nice little cloud gathered and began raining about dark, and next morning there was 1.47 inches in the government gauge. A. M. Crews reported one inch 12 miles southwest of town but the Harris community in the northwest part of the county, and the Union Community in the southeast part of the county, were missed again. The rest of the county it seems received good rains.

The rain was accompanied by quite an electrical storm during which a bolt of lightning struck the residence of Mr. Spivey, and while it did no material damage to either the building or the inmates, some of them were shocked considerably for a few minutes. It is said that Monroe Telford was knocked about ten feet but he got used to big shells in France.

Married At Lubbock.

Reports reached here this week to the effect that Mrs. Salle Judd and Mr. A. E. Morgan were married at Lubbock Sunday mornng.

Mrs. Morgan is a sister to Mrs. Stricklin, and is to well known here to need any introduction.

Mr. Morgan is one of the progressive business men of Lubbock, we understand, and is at present the manager of the Bowman Lumber Co., of that city.

Their friends in Brownfield join in congratulations.

Dallas-Lees.

On August 3rd, at 9:00 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas, Rev. J. T. Bryant performed the ceremony which united Miss Gertrude Dallas and Mr. Herbert Lees in the holy bonds of wedlock.

The reception rooms were beautifully decorated in cut flowers, ferns and smilax. From the colonade pink and white ribbons were suspended.

The mother of the bride softly played the Spring Song, then to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bridal party entered. Misses Alfreda and Dorothy Halley held the ribbons which formed an arch for the bride and groom. They were followed by the bride's maids, Misses Emily Miller and Ima Sawyer. The maid of honor, Miss Eldora Lewis, and the ring bearer, Baby Clyde Dallas. The bride and groom met at the altar, and after a brief but impressive ceremony, Miss Gertrude Dallas became Miss Herbert Lees.

The attendants were daintily gowned in pink and white organda over satin. The bride never looked lovelier in an exquisite flesh georgette crepe over satin. The groom was dressed in the conventional suit.

The bride threw her bouquet and it was caught by Miss Hennie Meriwether. After hearty congratulations the guests were invited to the Hill Hotel, where an elegant wedding breakfast awaited them. The table had been beautifully decorated by a friend of the bride, Mrs. J. E. Shelton, in cut flowers, silver and cut glass. Pink ribbons were suspended from the vases, at the end of which were dainty hand painted place cards. An elegant four course breakfast was served the following:

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lees, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Halley and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Halley and family, of Breckinridge, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Mrs. Bliss from Warsaw, Mo., Mrs. J. E. Shelton, Mrs. Meriwether, Misses Eldora Lewis, Mary Lou Meriwether, Ima Sawyer, Emily Miller, Mary Hudson, Hennie Meriwether, Messrs. McCall Gary of Big Springs, H. H. Griffith, of Lubbock and E. T. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lees left immediately for Big Springs, their future home. The bride's going away gown was of midnight blue tricotine with accessories to match.

We do indeed wish for them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Workmen begin Tuesday morning, under the direction of Contractor John Scott, digging the foundation of the First National Bank building that will be located on the northeast corner of the public square, and while it will be only one story in height for the present, we understand that it will be just as pretty architecturally as is possible to be made of brick, stone and mortar.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Providing for an Issue of Bonds by the State for the Purpose of Construction of Highways.

House Joint Resolution No. 13.

A Joint Resolution proposing to amend Section 49, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas relating to the power to create debts by or on behalf of the State so as hereafter to authorize the Legislature to enact such laws as may be necessary directing the Governor of the State to issue bonds in a sum not to exceed $75,000,000; providing for the levy of a tax to create the necessary interest and sinking fund therefor; and providing that the proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be used in the construction of durable, hard surfaced roads upon the public highways of the State.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. Amend said Section so as to read after its adoption as follows:

Article 3, Section 49. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiencies in the revenue shall never exceed in the aggregate at any one time, two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000); provided however, that the Legislature may enact such legislation as may be necessary to authorize and direct the Governor to issue bonds of the State in a sum not to exceed seventy-five million ($75,000,000) dollars, the proceeds to be used in the construction of durable, hard-surfaced roads upon the public highways of the State; provided that such proceeds shall be apportioned to the different counties of the state according to the needs of the State highways in such counties; and, provided further that under Legislative authority a tax not to exceed twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property in the State may be levied, assessed and collected to provide the necessary interest and sinking fund therefor, and said taxes shall be in addition to the taxes authorized by Article 8, Section 9 of the constitution.

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors for members of the Legislature at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the first Tuesday in November, the same being the 4th day of November 1919, and the Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have the same published as required by the constitution and laws of the State. Those favoring the amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For the Amendment to Section 49, Article 3 of the Constitution, proposing to amend Section 49, Article 3, relating to the power to create debts by or on behalf of the State, so as to hereafter to authorize the legislature to enact a law directing the issuance of bonds by the Governor of the State in the sum not to exceed Seventy-Five Million ($75,000,000) dollars, the proceeds of said bonds to be used in the construction of durable, hard surfaced roads upon the public highways of the State; and providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed 20 cents on the one Hundred Dollar valuation, on taxable property in the State. Those opposing the amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "Against the amendment to Section 49, Article 3, of the Constitution proposing to amend Section 49, Article 3, relating to the power to create debts by or on behalf of the State so as hereafter to authorize the Legislature to enact a law directing the issuance of bonds by the Governor of the State in the sum not to exceed Seventy-five Million (75,000,000)

Mrs. A. M. Brownfield Entertains home of Mrs. Brownfield and Miss Lois.

The hospitable home of Mrs. A.M. Brownfield was thrown open to the many friends, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Dallas, from five to seven. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Brownfield, who ushered them into the spacious living room. There they enjoyed a social hour together, while the Edison furnished music. The room was beautiful with shasta daisies and other flowers.

Miss Lois, assisted by Miss Stella Treadaway, presided in the dining room, where delicious sandwiches and tea were served the guests. Miss Lois has made an enviable reputation as hostess and the charming manner and ease with which she was able to serve so many guests.

The afternoon passed all too fast, as the guests were reluctant to leave, and expressed themselves as having spent one of the most enjoyable afternoons, both in honor of the charming bride-to-be, and in the lovely home of Mrs. Brownfield and Miss Lois.

After spending a few days at his store in Tahoka N. D. #### Shower For Miss Dallas

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid invited the many friends of Miss Dallas to the lovely home of Mrs. Jno. B. King, on last Thursday for a shower for the coming bride.

The living rooms were decorated in pink and white, cut flowers and ferns were used in profusion. In the dining room a center piece was arranged on the table. A mirror, surrounded by ferns and flowers to resemble a pool of water. Suspended above this was the picture of Miss Dallas, the reflection of which was shown in the mirror. Around this was the many beautiful and expensive presents, sent in by the friends.

Mrs. King, assisted by Miss Meriwether and Mrs. Shelton received at the door. A beautiful hand painted book was in Mrs. Prideaux's charge, where each one was asked to register. Mrs. Alexander had the book of receipts, where each guest wrote her favorite receipt.

When all the friends had arrived, Mrs. King played Mendellson's wedding march, and Miss Gertrude and Mrs. Dallas, were then ushered into the reception hall by Mrs. Downing and Miss Mary Lou Meriwether. The ribbons of the huge wedding bell, which was suspended from the colonnade was then pulled and a shower of useful gifts fell around Miss Dallas, who then passed the many presents around for the admiration of the guests.

"Some Day When You are Mine" was sung by Miss Annie Hamilton, in her usual charming manner.

Several instrumental solos were beautifully rendered by little Miss Mary Shelton. Delicious refreshments consisting of brick ice cream, in pink and white and angel food cake were served by Master James King and Miss Mary Shelton. On the plate was a tiny basket filled with mints, and a handsome hand

We have been informed that the Union Independent School District has secured the services of Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Zorns to teach their school the next term. This is the district that has recently voted the sum of $15,000.00 for building purposes, and propose to build not only a splendid school building, but a good home for their teacher, as well. We congratulate this hustling district in having secured the services of these splendid people and teachers. Prof. Zorns taught the Brownfield school last year and we know his quality. M. B. Sawyer is ahead again with his Herald.

The repairs for the pump at the water works were received this past week and it was made ready and was tried out by the owner, M. V. Brownfield, Tuesday and Wednesday. The pump made on an average of about 45 or 50 gallons per minute on the 18 inch stroke, and well on toward 75 gallons on the 24 inch stroke, and held this rate practically all day. Mr. Brownfield said he was well pleased with both quality and quantity of water and would turn it into the huge stand tower in a few days. Those that saw the big branch of water coursing its way to the draw all day Wednesday, can now see the possibilities of a lake for bathing and sporting purposes that we have been agitating so long.

Guss Farrar and Roy Scudday of Sweetwater, accompanied by two of the beautiful young ladies of that city, attended the picnic and visited with relatives here.

W. M. Souter left this week for a short visit with his daughter at Ft. Worth.

Grover Matsler was here during the picnic from Plainview.

Elder Liff Sanders came in on the train Friday, and left Saturday on the mail car for McDonald, N. M., where he will hold a protracted meeting.
