Envies Tramp, Who Can Be His Own Lazy Self

Sumerset, Ky .- "Uncle Bill Schooler, editor and publisher of the Commonwealth, a weekly published here, frankly tells his readers in a recent | issue that he is undecided whether to continue the harassed existence of a country publisher or take to the open roads as a common tramp. His conclusions are set down in an editorial in which he tells an "unappreciative public" that if he never writes another line for his paper that they can draw their own conclusions as to what happened. Regarding a tramp he met on the "open highway" he

DRED HANDY HELPS"

It is said that nothing has poven more beneficial in its line than the booklet "A Hundred Handy Helps" issued by the Southern Pine Association. This booklet contains illustrations and detailed descriptions of hundreds of useful implements and conveniences that are necessary to every farm or country place. Instead of paying high prices for manufactured articles for these purposes they can be made right on the ground, out of Southern Pine Lumber, by following the instructions contained in the booklet.

THE IRON TEST

Chapter 1 .- "The Ring of Fire"

The afternoon performance of the Jenkins Magnificent, Colossal Circus and Menagerie was about to begin. Bert Forde, world's champion rifle shot, rider and aerial artist, and Edith Paige, bareback rider and partner of Forde, in hasards in the air, were standing just outside the dressing tent engaged in conversation. It was easy to see that they were more eyes spoke love, while their lips curved phrases of commonplace things.
